SEC Network has proven time and again that it is one of the most successful launches by a network in all of cable television. It placed the Southeastern Conference, its member institutions and sports teams on an international stage with brand recognition in every corner of the country and around the globe.

That was the vision when the SEC and ESPN signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create and operate a multi-platform network, which launched on Aug. 14, 2014. The network and its accompanying digital platform, SEC Network+, carries SEC live events and programming 24/7.

Complementing the volume of network-produced programming, all 14 schools built state-of-the-art control rooms and purchased HD camera equipment to provide the same quality coverage for events that viewers have been accustomed to for years across ESPN networks.

These school-produced events are made available exclusively through the ESPN App as part of SEC Network+ on connected devices, allowing fans to watch their favorite teams anytime, anywhere.

SEC Network has also become known for its signature studio show, SEC Now, its traveling weekly football pregame show, SEC Nation, and of course, The Paul Finebaum Show, which welcomes callers and guests to share their thoughts on topics surrounding the SEC. On top of the network's wall-to-wall coverage of Saturday SEC football, SEC Network boasts additional football-focused studio shows in the fall: SEC This Morning and Marty & McGee, as well as food and culture favorite, TrueSouth.

THIS IS SEC FOOTBALL

• Sixteen times in the last 20 seasons, a team from the SEC has advanced to the national championship game. The SEC has won 13 of those contests, with two of the losses coming in the game's final seconds. The winner of the SEC Championship Game has advanced to the National Championship Game all but four times since 2006.

• With Florida in January 2009, five different teams from the SEC (Alabama, Auburn, Florida, LSU, Georgia) have played for and won the national championship in the last 16 seasons. All five have multiple appearances and at least one victory since in the national championship game since 2007.

• The SEC won four consecutive CFP National Championships, by three different programs (LSU, Alabama, Georgia), from 2019-2022.

• Not counting games versus each other, the SEC is 17-10 all-time in College Football Playoff games, playing in eight of the 12 CFP Championship Games (winning six of those eight). The SEC is 10-4 in CFP Semifinals, including a streak of 10 consecutive semifinal wins from 2015-2022.

• Since 2006, the SEC has posted a 38-23 (.623) record in BCS/CFP games - more wins, appearances, and winning percentage than any other A4 conference.

• The Southeastern Conference led the nation yet again in 2025 with 451 former players on opening weekend 53-man active rosters, including injured reserve.

• A total of 31 former players from current Southeastern Conference institutions are on the active rosters of the New England Patriots and the Seattle Seahawks, the two National Football League teams who squared off in Super Bowl LX on February 8.

• The SEC is 126-88 (.589) in bowl games since 2006, over 30 wins more than the next closest conference.

• The SEC has now won 77 games in the last 10 postseasons and has sent no less than eight teams to post-season bowls in each of the last 19 seasons.

• In the 12 seasons of the College Football Playoff era, only 10 programs nationally have been ranked No. 1 in the weekly CFP Top-25 Poll (which begins in late October each year) – five of those 10 programs (Alabama, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, Tennessee) are from the SEC. Prior to 2023, no team outside the SEC had been ranked No. 1 in the weekly CFP Poll since 2019, while four schools from the SEC were ranked No. 1 during that time.

• With Georgia and Alabama both earning victories in the CFP Semifinals in both 2021 and 2017, the national championship game has featured two SEC teams twice in the last nine years and three times since the 2011 season.

• The SEC Championship has been the most watched conference championship nationally for 16 of the past 18 seasons, including 12 in a row from 2008-2019.

• The 2025 SEC Championship game between Georgia and Alabama drew an average of 16.9 million viewers, making it the third-most watched SEC title game ever and a top-10 most-watched game of the 2025 season. This figure represented a 2% increase from the previous year's championship. The 2024 SEC Championship Game averaged 16.6 million viewers across ABC and ESPN, the fourth-largest audience on record for the game.

• The SEC finished the 2025 season as the most-watched conference in college football based on minutes watched for a fourth-straight year. The SEC was also #1 in average audience for the 15th consecutive year. The SEC on ABC accounted for more than two-thirds of the 50 most-watched games in the 2025 regular season. The SEC averaged 5.2 million viewers per game (62 games) and accounted for 36% of time spent watching college football on Nielsen-rated networks across all networks.

• In 2025 SEC student-athletes won both the Campbell and Wuerffel Trophies for the first time since 2005.

2026 Media Days Preseason Poll

Georgia was predicted to win the 2026 SEC Championship, according to a preseason poll of media covering SEC Football Media Days.

The Bulldogs received 88 votes to be crowned SEC Champion on December 5 in Atlanta at Mercedes-Benz Stadium, with Texas being picked to be Georgia's opponent in a rematch of the 2024 SEC Championship Game. Texas received 57 votes to win the SEC Championship.

The participants of the SEC Championship Game will be determined during the regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the two best overall SEC winning percentages.

Only 10 times since 1992 (34 years) has the predicted champion prior to the season at SEC Media Days proceeded to win the SEC Championship Game.

SEC FOOTBALL BOWL AGREEMENTS

The Southeastern Conference has six-year agreements with nine football post-season bowls.

The nine bowls are in addition to bowl games in the College Football Playoff system for which SEC teams are eligible to qualify.

The SEC has its current agreements through the 2026 season with the Citrus Bowl in Orlando, the ReliaQuest Bowl in Tampa, the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, the Liberty Mutual Music City Bowl in Nashville, the Kinder's Texas Bowl in Houston, the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis, the JLAB Birmingham Bowl and the Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowl.

In addition, the SEC will continue its relationship with the Duke's Mayo Bowl in Charlotte and the Las Vegas Bowl, participating in Las Vegas in 2026.

The SEC will maintain its current bowl selection process in which the Citrus Bowl has the first selection of available SEC teams after any conference schools have qualified for the College Football Playoff after which the SEC assigns teams to a Pool of Six bowl.

The SEC Pool of Six consists of the ReliaQuest Bowl, TaxSlayer Gator Bowl, Liberty Mutual Music City Bowl, Kinder's Texas Bowl and Autozone Liberty Bowl, as well as the Las Vegas Bowl in 2026. In consultation with SEC member institutions, as well as these six bowls, the conference will make assignments for the bowl games in the pool system.

ESPN Events selects teams to participate in the JLAB Birmingham and Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowls after the Pool of Six have been assigned.

2026-27 College Football Playoff

• The ranking of the teams will continue to be done by a selection committee.

• In February, the CFP announced that the 2026-27 CFP Quarterfinals would take place on Wednesday, December 30, 2026, at the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl and Friday, January 1, 2027, at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic, Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and the Rose Bowl Game presented by Prudential, while the CFP Semifinals would take place on January 14, 2027, at the Capital One Orange Bowl and January 15, 2027, at the Allstate Sugar Bowl. For the 2027-28 season, the CFP Quarterfinals are scheduled for Friday, December 31, 2027, at the Allstate Sugar Bowl and Saturday, January 1, 2028, at the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl, Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and the Rose Bowl Game presented by Prudential. CFP Semifinals that year would take place on Thursday, January 13, 2028, at the Capital One Orange Bowl and Friday, January 14, 2028, at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic.

• The format of the 2026-27 CFP is built on a 12-team bracket. The 12 participating schools are the conference champions from the Atlantic Coast Conference, Big Ten Conference, Big 12 Conference, Southeastern Conference and the highest-ranked team from the American, Conference USA, Mid-American Conference, Mountain West, Pac-12 Conference and Sun Belt Conference, along with the next seven highest-ranked teams. The University of Notre Dame will be included in the playoff if it is ranked among the top 12 teams in the final CFP rankings. With the removal of conference historic bowl tie-ins from the bowl assignment process beginning in 2026, the CFP Management Committee approved a format in which the top three seeds, in rank order, select their bowl path in the Playoff.

• The four highest-ranked schools will be seeded one through four and will receive a first-round bye. The remaining schools will be seeded 5-12 based on their final ranking.

• If any of the automatic qualifiers falls outside of the top 12, they will be seeded at the bottom of the 12-team pool. If any are not ranked in the top 25, the committee will evaluate the team(s) using its established selection criteria and determine their relative positions for seeding purposes and seed them at the bottom of the 12-team pool.

SEC BOWL SUCCESS

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS SINCE 1992

Since the first SEC expansion in 1992, the SEC has the most national championships (AP, USA Today) with 17. During that time, the SEC has had more teams with national titles than any other conference (6). Here is a breakdown:

SEC (17)	Florida (2008, 2006, 1996), LSU (2003, 2007, 2019), Tennessee (1998), Alabama (1992, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017, 2020), Auburn (2010), Georgia (2021, 2022)
Big Ten (6)	Ohio State (2002, 2014, 2024), Michigan (1997, 2023), Indiana (2025)
ACC (5)	Florida State (1993, 1999, 2013), Clemson (2016,18)
Big 12 (5)	Texas (2005), Oklahoma (2000), Nebraska (1994, 1995, 1997)
Pac-10 (2)	Southern California (2003, 2004)
Big East (1)	Miami, Fla. (2001)

The SEC was the first conference to claim four consecutive Associated Press (first poll - 1936), National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame (first poll - 1959), Football Writers Association of America (first poll - 1954) and USA Today or UPI Coaches Poll (first poll - 1950) national championships.

SEC IN BOWL GAMES

• Since 2006, the SEC has accrued more bowl wins (126) and appearances (214) than any other conference. The conference's .589 bowl winning percentage is first among A4 leagues during that time.

SEC	126-88	.589
Big Ten	94-92	.505
ACC	86-106	.448
Big 12	76-72	.514
American	65-61	.516
Mountain West	61-54	.530
Pac-12	57-61	.483
Conference USA	57-64	.471
Sun Belt	51-41	.554
MAC	38-70	.352
Independents	28-21	.571

• The SEC is 17-10 (.630) in College Football Playoff games (not versus each other) and 4-2 in College Football Playoff National Championship Games (not versus each other). The SEC has appeared in eight of the 12 CFP National Championship Games, winning six. The SEC finished 9-2 in BCS National Championship Games (LSU 2-1, Florida 2-0, Alabama 3-0, Tennessee 1-0, Auburn 1-1), 8-1 vs. non-SEC competition. The SEC had the most wins (17) and the highest winning percentage of any conference that has three-or-more appearances in BCS bowl games. The SEC was 17-10 in BCS games (.630 percentage), 16-9 (.640) in non-conference. Since 2006, the SEC has posted a 38-23 (.623) record in BCS/CFP games - more wins, appearances and winning percentage than any other A4 conference.

• Eleven different SEC teams, including all seven from the former SEC Western Division, have made BCS/New Year's Six bowl game appearances since 2006: Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Tennessee, Texas and Texas A&M.

SEC FOOTBALL

SEC SUCCESS SINCE 2006

During the last 19 seasons (2006-24), Southeastern Conference football has experienced success that is unparalleled in its football history and in the history of college football. During this tenure, the SEC's achievements have been demonstrated by:

- Triumphs in major bowl games, including the National Championship Game
- Non-conference success in regular season and bowl games
- Defeating highly-ranked non-conference teams
- Success in the polls and rankings
- Individual awards and All-America Teams
- Academic and Community Service Standouts
- Continued accomplishments of former SEC student-athletes in the NFL and NFL Draft

SEC IN THE CFP/BCS ERA (Since 1998)

• The SEC has won 13 of the last 20 national championships, 15 of the 28 BCS/CFP-era National Championships, six runner-up finishes and 29 overall national titles (CFP, AP, BCS, FWAA, Coaches Poll) in SEC history. The SEC has appeared in 16 of the last 20 National Championship Games and in 10 of the 16 BCS Championship Games, winning nine.

• Five different SEC schools have won the National Championship since 2006 (Auburn, 2010; Alabama, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017, 2020; Florida, 2006, 2008; LSU, 2007, 2019; Georgia, 2021, 2022). Five programs have advanced to the national championship game since 2013. Tennessee (1998) has also won the former BCS crown. Auburn appeared in the 2013 BCS Championship Game, as did LSU in 2011, Georgia in 2017 and Alabama in 2021. A team from the SEC Western Division had advanced to five consecutive national championship games prior to the 2014 season, when Alabama lost in the CFP semifinals. The ACC (Clemson, Miami and Florida State) and Big Ten (Michigan, Ohio State, Indiana) has seen three schools win titles since 1998, while the current Big 12 has none.

• Since 2006, nearly half of the slots in the National Championship Game have been taken by SEC teams (19 of 40). The Big Ten has six during that time, the ACC has four, while the Big 12 and Pac-12 has three.

• The SEC has had more teams ranked in the BCS/CFP standings than any other conference since 2006. The league has had all of its 16 teams ranked at one time or another since 2006.

• Since 2006, the SEC has posted 36 wins in BCS/New Year's Six/Access bowls - more wins than any other conference.

• Six of the top 10 defensive performances in CFP/BCS history have been registered by SEC teams, more than any other conference. Alabama's shutout of LSU in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game was the first shutout in CFP/BCS history. Alabama defeated Michigan State soundly 38-0 in a CFP National Semifinal in 2015, while defeating Washington 24-7 in 2016 semifinal contest. Alabama dominated Clemson in the 2018 Sugar Bowl Semifinal, holding Clemson to just 188 yards, well short of their average 448 yards per game. In the 2021 CFP Semifinal, Alabama defeated Cincinnati 27-6, holding the Bearcats to 218 yards and a pair of field goals. Georgia's 65-7 victory over TCU in the 2022 national championship game, the Bulldogs held TCU to 188 total yards and nine first downs. Georgia's 63-3 defeat of Florida State in the 2023 Orange Bowl was the largest margin of victory in the entire history of postseason bowls.

• The SEC has now won 77 games in the last nine postseasons. With 12 teams advancing to bowl games in 2016, the SEC became the first conference to send at least 10 teams to postseason bowls in four consecutive seasons. The SEC sent a (then) NCAA-record 12 teams to participate in postseason bowl games in 2014 and has sent no less than eight teams to post-season bowls in each of the last 18 seasons. The SEC established a national-record with nine postseason victories in 2015 and owned the previous record for postseason bowl victories with seven wins in 2007, 2013 and 2014. The SEC qualified a record 13 teams for postseason bowls in 2021 and finished 7-2 in the 2020 postseason, with all seven wins coming against Top-25 competition - the most in history for the conference. The SEC again sent 13 teams to postseason in 2024.

• The SEC is 126-88 (.589) in bowl games since 2006, the best among Autonomy Five leagues by nearly 100 percentage points and over 30 wins more than the next closest conference.

SEC vs. OTHER CONFERENCES

• Since 2006, the SEC has posted the highest non-conference winning percentage (regular season & bowls) than any other conference. The league has a 985-248 record, an .800 winning percentage. The SEC has won no less than 43 non-conference games (regular season & bowls) during the last 20 seasons (2006-2025). Last season (2025), the SEC was 58-16 (.784), including bowl games.

SEC IN FINAL RANKINGS

• Since 2006, the SEC has had the most teams ranked in the final USA Today Coaches Poll. The conference has had 113 teams ranked in the final USA Today rankings during that span, including seven in 2025.

• The SEC has either led or tied for the lead with the most teams ranked in the USA Today Top-25 for 18 of the last 20 seasons.

THIS IS SEC FOOTBALL

• Sixteen times in the last 20 seasons, a team from the SEC has advanced to the national championship game. The SEC has won 13 of those contests, with two of the losses coming in the game's final seconds. The winner of the SEC Championship Game has advanced to the National Championship Game all but four times since 2006.

• With Florida in January 2009, five different teams from the SEC (Alabama, Auburn, Florida, LSU, Georgia) have played for and won the national championship in the last 16 seasons. All five have multiple appearances and at least one victory since in the national championship game since 2007.

• The SEC won four consecutive CFP National Championships, by three different programs (LSU, Alabama, Georgia), from 2019-2022.

• Not counting games versus each other, the SEC is 17-10 all-time in College Football Playoff games, playing in eight of the 12 CFP Championship Games (winning six of those eight). The SEC is 10-4 in CFP Semifinals, including a streak of 10 consecutive semifinal wins from 2015-2022.

• Since 2006, the SEC has posted a 38-23 (.623) record in BCS/CFP games - more wins, appearances, and winning percentage than any other A4 conference.

• The Southeastern Conference led the nation yet again in 2025 with 451 former players on opening weekend 53-man active rosters, including injured reserve.

• A total of 31 former players from current Southeastern Conference institutions are on the active rosters of the New England Patriots and the Seattle Seahawks, the two National Football League teams who squared off in Super Bowl LX on February 8.

• The SEC is 126-88 (.589) in bowl games since 2006, over 30 wins more than the next closest conference.

• The SEC has now won 77 games in the last 10 postseasons and has sent no less than eight teams to post-season bowls in each of the last 19 seasons.

• In the 12 seasons of the College Football Playoff era, only 10 programs nationally have been ranked No. 1 in the weekly CFP Top-25 Poll (which begins in late October each year) – five of those 10 programs (Alabama, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, Tennessee) are from the SEC. Prior to 2023, no team outside the SEC had been ranked No. 1 in the weekly CFP Poll since 2019, while four schools from the SEC were ranked No. 1 during that time.

• With Georgia and Alabama both earning victories in the CFP Semifinals in both 2021 and 2017, the national championship game has featured two SEC teams twice in the last nine years and three times since the 2011 season.

• The SEC Championship has been the most watched conference championship nationally for 16 of the past 18 seasons, including 12 in a row from 2008-2019.

• The 2025 SEC Championship game between Georgia and Alabama drew an average of 16.9 million viewers, making it the third-most watched SEC title game ever and a top-10 most-watched game of the 2025 season. This figure represented a 2% increase from the previous year's championship. The 2024 SEC Championship Game averaged 16.6 million viewers across ABC and ESPN, the fourth-largest audience on record for the game.

• The SEC finished the 2025 season as the most-watched conference in college football based on minutes watched for a fourth-straight year. The SEC was also #1 in average audience for the 15th consecutive year. The SEC on ABC accounted for more than two-thirds of the 50 most-watched games in the 2025 regular season. The SEC averaged 5.2 million viewers per game (62 games) and accounted for 36% of time spent watching college football on Nielsen-rated networks across all networks.

SEC IN THE NFL

• The Southeastern Conference led the nation yet again in 2025 with 462 former players on opening weekend 53-man active rosters. In addition, 148 players from SEC schools were listed on injured reserve lists and practice squads.

• The SEC has had more of its former players on NFL rosters in the last 10 seasons than any other conference. During that time, the SEC has averaged nearly 400 players per year on NFL opening weekend rosters.

• During the last 20 completed NFL seasons (2005-25), the SEC had had six of its former players named NFL MVP (2005, Shaun Alexander, RB, Alabama with Seattle; 2008-09-13, Peyton Manning, QB, Tennessee with Indianapolis and Denver; 2015, Cam Newton, QB, Auburn with Carolina; 2025, Matthew Stafford, QB, Georgia with the Los Angeles Rams).

• During the last 19 Super Bowls (2006-24), three former SEC players have been named game MVP five times (2006 – Hines Ward, WR, Georgia with Pittsburgh; 2007 – Peyton Manning, QB, Tennessee with Indianapolis; 2008 and 2012– Eli Manning, QB, Ole Miss with New York Giants. Von Miller of Texas A&M was named MVP of Super Bowl 50, although his final year was the Aggies final season prior to joining the SEC.

• The SEC led the nation's conferences in NFL Draft picks for the 20th consecutive year in 2026 with 87 selections.

• The 87 selections set a record for a conference in a single NFL Draft, breaking the previous mark of 79 (which was also held by the SEC).

• This marks the 12th straight year for the SEC to see 50 or more players taken in the NFL Draft. Only five times in the last 30 years has another conference other than the SEC seen 50 or more players drafted.

• The SEC accounted for 74 selections through six rounds, also a new record.

• All 16 SEC teams accounted for selections in the 2026 NFL Draft.

• This is the 10th consecutive year the SEC has seen 25 or more players selected through the first three rounds of the NFL Draft. The SEC accounted for 36 players through the first three rounds in 2026.

• The SEC has averaged over 50 selections per draft since 2006.

• Alabama and Texas A&M led the SEC with 10 players drafted each. Georgia was second with 8, while Florida, LSU and Oklahoma accounted for seven each.

• The SEC accounted for seven selections in the First Round of the 2026 NFL Draft.

• The SEC now has 177 First Round NFL Draft selections since 2010 and 81 since 2020.

• The SEC leads the nation with 66 selections over the last six NFL Drafts – the next closest conference has 48 (Big Ten) during that same time span.

• During the last 22 NFL Drafts, the SEC had a nation-leading 201 players chosen in the opening round, an average of over nine per season.

• Since 2010, the SEC (177) has nearly 80 more First Round selections than the next closest conference (Big Ten – 98).

• Six SEC teams had a player taken in the First Round of the 2026 NFL Draft.

• The SEC now has 62 Top 10 picks since 2009 and 68 since 2007.

• Since 2009, Top 10 NFL Draft picks by league: SEC (62); B1G (32); Big 12 (31); ACC (28); Notre Dame (6); AAC (3); MAC (3); BYU (2); Mountain West (1).

• Alabama led the SEC with two First Round selections in the 2026 NFL Draft, both in the Top 15.

• Alabama has a First-Round selection in each of the past 18 NFL Drafts, the longest streak in SEC and college football history, as well as the most First Round picks nationally since 2007 with 51.

A total of 31 former players from current Southeastern Conference institutions were on the active rosters of the New England Patriots and the Seattle Seahawks, the two National Football League teams who squared off in Super Bowl LX on February 8. That number reflects players on active rosters only and does not include any injured reserve or practice squad players.

An additional 13 former players are on practice squads/injured reserve for the two remaining teams, bringing the total number of former SEC players represented to an astounding 44.

This year's Super Bowl was played at Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara, Calif.

Alabama led the SEC with seven former players represented in the Super Bowl. All seven former Crimson Tide players appear on the active roster for the game, while six for LSU and Ole Miss are listed on the active roster and/or practice squads.

Fourteen SEC schools had at least one former player represented in the Super Bowl.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

2026 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The Southeastern Conference's top two teams in the regular season standings will meet in Atlanta's Mercedes-Benz Stadium to battle for the league championship and the right to represent the conference in the College Football Playoff. The 35th-annual title game is set for December 5 and will be televised nationally by ABC.

The game was born as a result of 1992 conference expansion, which saw Arkansas and South Carolina become the first members added in SEC history. Under NCAA regulations, a conference with 12 members may play an additional football game to determine its champion, provided the regular season is played in divisions.

The participants of the game will be determined during the eight-game regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the two best overall SEC winning percentages.

The SEC Championship has been the most watched conference championship nationally for 16 of the past 18 seasons, including 12 in a row from 2008-2019.

The 2025 SEC Championship game between Georgia and Alabama drew an average of 16.9 million viewers, making it the third-most watched SEC title game ever and a top-10 most-watched game of the 2025 season. This figure represented a 2% increase from the previous year's championship. The 2024 SEC Championship Game averaged 16.6 million viewers across ABC and ESPN, the fourth-largest audience on record for the game. The overtime win for Georgia, which peaked with 19.7 million viewers, delivered the largest audience of the college football season — surpassing the previous high set by the regular season matchup between the same two teams.

The 2009 SEC Championship Game earned an 11.8 rating and a 24 share, marking the highest-rated SEC Championship Game in history. The game matched the No. 1 Florida Gators (12-0) vs. the No. 2 Alabama Crimson Tide (12-0).

The SEC Championship Game has drawn 32 capacity crowds in its 34-year history. Only 1993 (Birmingham) and 1995 (Atlanta) were not sellouts.

The SEC, along with AMB Sports & Entertainment (AMBSE) and the Georgia World Congress Center Authority (GWCCA), have an agreement to host the SEC Championship Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta through 2031. The new agreement allows the SEC the option of adding a five-year extensions through 2036. The Georgia Dome hosted the SEC Championship Game for 23 years beginning in 1994, with capacity crowds in the last 22 consecutive years. By the end of the new agreement, including options, the Championship will have been played in Atlanta a total of 43 years.

SEC FOOTBALL TIE-BREAKING PROCESS

In the event of a tie between teams competing for a place in the Conference championship game, the following procedures will be used in descending order until the tie is broken:

* Head-to-head competition among the tied teams

* Record versus all common Conference opponents among the tied teams

* Record against highest (best) placed common Conference opponent in the Conference standings, and proceeding through the Conference standings among the tied teams

* Cumulative Conference winning percentage of all Conference opponents among the tied teams

* Capped relative total scoring margin versus all Conference opponents among the tied teams

* Random draw of the tied teams

If the regular season standings determine a clear Conference champion and two or more teams are tied for second place, the Conference champion will be the home team in the Championship Game and the tiebreaking procedures will be used to determine its opponent.

If a tiebreaker step produces standings with two teams tied for first place in the Conference, both will qualify for the championship game. To decide the seeding of the two teams, both will progress through the two-team tiebreaker procedures until the tie is broken, which will determine home/away designation for the SEC Championship Game.

The 2025 SEC Championship Game will be held on Saturday, Dec. 6, at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta, Ga.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME RACE RECAPS

1992 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida and Georgia (6-2 in the SEC) were co-champions in the Eastern Division. The Gators won the tie-breaker by virtue of a 26-24 win over the Bulldogs earlier in the season. Alabama (8-0) was the outright Western Division champion, even with a game against Auburn in the final weekend, which the Tide won, 17-0.

1993 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division and Alabama won the Western Division. The Gators finished 1/2 game ahead of Tennessee (UT tied Alabama, 17-17). Alabama, at 5-2-1, finished two games ahead second-place Arkansas. Auburn was 8-0 in the SEC, but was ineligible for the conference title.

1994 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division, finishing SEC play at 7-1, two games ahead of Tennessee. Alabama won the Western Division with an 8-0 SEC mark, three games ahead of Miss. State.

1995 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division, finishing SEC play at 8-0, one game ahead of Tennessee. Arkansas won the Western Division with a 6-2 SEC mark, one game ahead of Auburn and Alabama.

1996 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division, finishing SEC play at 8-0, one game ahead of Tennessee. Alabama won the Western Division with a 6-2 SEC mark, tying LSU. However, the Tide defeated the Tigers, 26-0, earlier in the year to win the tie-breaker.

1997 - Eastern Division race not finalized until after the final weekend. Tennessee defeated Vanderbilt, 17-10, to win the division on the final weekend. Tennessee, at 7-1 in the SEC, finished one game ahead of Georgia and Florida. Auburn had won the Western Division with a 6-2 SEC mark, tying LSU. However, Auburn defeated LSU, 31-28, earlier in the year to win the tie-breaker.

1998 - Western Division race not finalized until after the final weekend. Miss. State defeated Ole Miss, 28-6, on Thanksgiving night, to win division on final weekend. Arkansas and Miss. State finished in tie for the division title. However, Miss. State defeated Arkansas, 22-21, earlier that season to win the tie-breaker. Arkansas defeated LSU 41-14 on the final weekend, but when State defeated Ole Miss, the chase for the Championship Game had been won. Tennessee had clinched the Eastern Division before the final weekend and defeated Vanderbilt, 41-0, to finished the SEC at 8-0.

1999 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division, finishing SEC play at 7-1, one game ahead of Tennessee. Alabama won the Western Division with a 7-1 SEC mark, one game ahead of Miss. State.

2000 - Both races decided before final weekend. Florida won the Eastern Division, finishing SEC play at 7-1, two games ahead of South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee. Auburn won the Western Division with a 6-2 SEC mark, one game ahead of LSU. LSU lost to Arkansas in the final weekend, 14-3. Even if the Tigers would have beaten the Razorbacks, Auburn would have won the tie-breaker over LSU due to a 34-17 win earlier in the season.

2001 - Both races go down to the final weekend. Due to game postponements on Sept. 15, games were reschedule for Dec. 1. On that weekend, Tennessee defeated Florida, 34-32, in Gainesville, and LSU defeated Auburn, 27-14, in Baton Rouge, to clinch berths in the SEC Championship Game. The Vols won the East with a 7-1 mark while LSU had a 5-3 mark and tied with Auburn for the West, but won the head-to-head tiebreaker.

2002 - Western division race not finalized until after the final weekend. Georgia clinched the Eastern Division championship on Nov. 16 after defeating Auburn, 24-21, in Auburn. The 7-1 Bulldogs finish one game ahead of Florida, which was 6-2. Arkansas wins the Western Division on the season's final weekend, defeating LSU, 21-20, in Little Rock on Nov. 29. The Razorbacks, LSU Tigers and Auburn Tigers are tied at 5-3 but Arkansas wins the head-to-head tiebreakers.

2003 - Both races decided on final weekend. Tennessee defeats Kentucky, 20-7, to force a three-way tie for Eastern Division championship between Vols, Georgia and Florida. Using tie-breaker involving the BCS standings, Georgia has the highest BCS ranking and has defeated Tennessee (next highest ranking) during regular season to secure SEC Championship Game berth. LSU defeats Arkansas, 55-24, and Ole Miss beats Mississippi State, 31-0, to force a tie for the Western Division championship. LSU's 17-14 win over Ole Miss the week before earns the Tigers the Western Division berth.

2004 - Auburn clinches berth in the SEC Championship Game on Oct. 30, tying the earliest since the game began in 1992 (Alabama, 1993). The Tigers (8-0) finish two games ahead in the standings of second-place LSU (6-2). Tennessee clinches berth as Eastern Division representative with 38-33 win against Vanderbilt on Nov. 20. The Vols (7-1) would win their next game on the following weekend against Kentucky to claim the division title outright. Georgia was second in the Western Division with a 6-2 mark.

2005 - Georgia (6-2) clinched Eastern Division Championship with a 45-13 win over Kentucky on Nov. 19. The Bulldogs finish one full game ahead of South Carolina and Florida in the standings. LSU clinched Western Division title with a 19-17 win over Arkansas on Nov. 25. The Tigers finished tied for the Western Division title (7-1), but defeated Auburn, 20-17, on Oct. 22, to win the tie-breaker.

2006 - Florida (7-1) clinched Eastern Division Championship and berth in the SEC Championship Game on Nov. 4, by defeating Vanderbilt, 25-19. Arkansas clinched the Western Division title and SEC Championship Game berth with a 28-14 win over Mississippi State on Nov. 18.

2007 - LSU (6-2) clinched Western Division berth in the SEC Championship Game on Week 11 after Alabama and Auburn both lose. Tennessee (6-2) gets Eastern Division berth with 52-50 four-over-time victory over Kentucky in Week 13. The Vols win the tie-breaker with Georgia (6-2), defeating the Bulldogs 35-14 in Week 6.

2008 - Alabama (8-0) clinched Western Division berth in SEC Championship Game on Week 11 (Nov. 1) after defeating LSU, 27-21. Florida (7-1) clinched Eastern Division berth in SEC Championship Game on Week 12 (Nov. 8) after defeating Vanderbilt, 42-14.

2009 - Florida (8-0) clinched Eastern Division berth in SEC Championship Game on Week 9 (Oct. 31) after defeating Georgia, 41-17. Alabama (8-0) clinched Western Division berth in SEC Championship Game on Week 11 (Nov. 14) after defeating Mississippi State, 31-3.

2010 - Both spots in the SEC Championship Game were clinched on Week 11 (Nov. 13). Auburn (8-0) clinched Western Division berth with a 49-31 win against Georgia. South Carolina (5-3) clinched Eastern Division berth with a 36-14 win against Florida.

2011 - Georgia (7-1) clinched a berth in the SEC Championship Game in Week 12 (Nov. 19) with a 19-10 win over Kentucky while LSU (8-0) clinched its berth in Week 13 (last weekend of the regular season) with a 41-17 win over Arkansas

2012 - Georgia (7-1) clinched a berth in the SEC Championship Game in Week 11 (Nov. 10) with a 38-0 win over Auburn. Alabama clinched a berth in the SEC Championship Game in Week 13 (Nov. 24) with a 49-0 win over Auburn.

2013 - For the first time since 2003, both races were determined on the final weekend. Auburn (7-1) clinched a berth in the SEC Championship Game with a dramtic 34-28 win off a 109-yard missed field goal return for a touchdown on the game's final play at Auburn. SEC newcomer Missouri (7-1) clinched a berth in the SEC Championship Game with a 28-21 home win over Texas A&M.

2014 - For the second straight season, both divisional races were determined on the final weekend. Missouri won the SEC East outright by closing the season with three straight SEC wins, inlcuding two on the road for their second straight trip to Atlanta. Alabama won the Western Division outright as well, with Ole Miss defeating Mississippi State in the Egg Bowl, while Alabama topped Auburn in the Iron Bowl.

2015 - Florida (7-1) won the Eastern Division, clinching a spot after defeating Vanderbilt on Nov. 7. Alabama (7-1) claimed the Western Division with a victory over Auburn in the Iron Bowl on the final day of the regular season. It was the fourth straight season where the Western Champion was the Iron Bowl winner.

2016 - Florida (6-2) won the Eastern Division, clinching a spot after defeating LSU in Baton Rouge on Nov. 19. Alabama claimed the Western Division with a victory over Mississippi State on Nov. 12. This marked the first time since 2010 that saw the SEC Championship Game set prior to the final weekend of the regular season.

2017 - Georgia (7-1) won the Eastern Division, clinching a spot on Nov. 4 after defeating South Carolina 24-10 in Athens. Georgia's clinching of a spot in the SEC Championship Game on Nov. 4 is the earliest a team has done so since Florida (Oct. 31) in 2009. Auburn (7-1) claimed the Western Division with a victory over Alabama the final day of the regular season. Alabama and Auburn were co-champions of the division, with Auburn representing the SEC Western Division in Atlanta due to head-to-head tiebreaker.

2018 - Georgia won the Eastern Division, clinching a spot on Nov. 3 after defeating Kentucky 34-17 in Lexington. Alabama claimed the Western Division with a 29-0 victory over LSU in Baton Rouge later that same day. It is the earliest that both participants in the SEC Championship Game have ever been determined.

2019 - Georgia won the Eastern Division for the third consecutive year, clinching a spot on Nov. 16 after defeating Auburn 21-14 in Auburn. LSU claimed the Western Division for the first time since 2011 with a 56-20 victory over Arkansas in Baton Rouge on Nov. 23.

2020- Florida clinched the Eastern Division while Alabama claimed the Western Division on Dec. 5, two weeks prior to the SEC Championship Game. Due to COVID-19, the regular season was derived of 10 conference games only.

2021- Georgia clinched the Eastern Division on Oct. 30, tying the earliest any division had ever been clinched. Alabama claimed the Western Division on Nov. 20, two weeks prior to the SEC Championship Game.

2022- Both spots in the SEC Championship Game were claimed on Nov. 12, as Georgia defeated Mississippi State to claim the Eastern Division title, while LSU's victory over Arkansas, combined with Alabama's win over Ole Miss, clinched a spot in the game for LSU. It marked the fifth time in the last six seasons Georgia has advanced to the SEC Championship Game.

2023- Both spots in the SEC Championship Game were claimed on Nov. 11, as Alabama defeated Kentucky to claim the Western Division title, while Missouri's victory over Tennessee clinched a spot in the game for Georgia. It marked the sixth time in the last seven seasons Georgia has advanced to the SEC Championship Game.

2024 - Georgia clinched a spot in the SEC Championship Game on Nov. 24 following losses by Alabama and Texas A&M. Texas secured their slot and the No. 1 seed after defeating Texas A&M on Nov. 30. Georgia would be the No. 2 seed.

2025 - Georgia clinched a spot in the SEC Championship Game on Nov. 28 following a loss by Texas A&M at Texas. Alabama secured their slot and the No. 1 seed after defeating Auburn the following night, Nov. 29, in the final game of the entire regular season. Georgia would be the No. 2 seed.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME RACE RECAP

The earliest a berth has been clinched in the SEC Championship Game is Oct. 30 (Georgia, 2021; Auburn, 2004; Alabama, 1993).

In 17 of 62 divisional races (including 2023), a championship game berth has not been decided until the weekend prior to the SEC Championship Game. That occurred in 1997 (Tennessee), 1998 (Mississippi State), 2001 (Tennessee and LSU), 2002 (Arkansas), 2003 (Georgia and LSU), 2005 (LSU), 2007 (Tennessee), 2011 (LSU), 2012 (Alabama), 2013 (Auburn and Missouri), 2014 (Alabama and Missouri), 2015 (Alabama) and 2017 (Auburn).

2025 SEC FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

2025 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The 34th annual SEC Football Championship Game was played on Dec. 6 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta, with No. 3 Georgia defeating No. 9 Alabama 28-7. Gunner Stockton and Georgia finally put an end to Alabama's mastery of the rivalry between Southeastern Conference powers.

Stockton threw three touchdown passes as the third-ranked Bulldogs solidified their position for a first-round bye in the College Football Playoff and beat Alabama in the SEC championship game for the first time, pounding the 10th-ranked Crimson Tide 28-7 on Saturday.

Stockton, who completed 20 of 26 passes for 156 yards and rushed for 39 yards, was named the game's MVP. It was the first victory over Alabama for Georgia's fourth-year players, including Stockton.

Georgia (12-1, No. 3 CFP) had been 0-4 against Alabama in the SEC title game and 1-7 against the Crimson Tide under coach Kirby Smart. Playing in their fifth straight league championship game, the Bulldogs earned their fourth title under Smart and 16th overall.

Georgia teams coached by Smart improved to 4-0 in second-chance games. The Bulldogs beat Auburn in their second meeting in 2017, Alabama in their second game in the 2021 national championship game, Texas in the 2024 SEC championship game and the Crimson Tide this season.

NOTES

• This marked the ninth rematch of a regular-season meeting in the SEC Championship Game. Alabama defeated Georgia 24-21 in Athens on September 27, 2025. With this result, teams that won the regular-season matchup are now 6-3 in the rematch.

• Tonight's attendance of 77,247 is the fourth-largest at Mercedes-Benz Stadium for the championship game.

• Georgia head coach Kirby Smart improves to 4–4 all-time in SEC Championship Games and sits one win shy of tying Steve Spurrier for the second-most victories in the event's history.

• Georgia out-rushed Alabama 141 to -3, marking the 21st consecutive year that the winner out-rushed its opponent.

• Georgia's 13 appearances in the SEC Championship Game tie Florida for the second-most all-time, trailing only Alabama's 16.

• Georgia's streak of five consecutive SEC Championship Game appearances matches Florida's run from 1992–1996.

• Georgia claims its 16th SEC title, second only to Alabama with 30 conference titles.

• Georgia records its first SEC Championship Game victory over Alabama and improves to 6–7 all-time in the event. The Bulldogs now hold the third-most wins in the conference title game, trailing only Alabama (11) and Florida (7).

• Alabama is now 11-5 all-time in the SEC Championship Game.

• Alabama's streak of nine straight SEC Championship Game victories comes to an end. The Crimson Tide's most recent loss in the conference title game prior to this year was in 2008 against Florida.

• Georgia's Cole Speer blocked a punt in the first quarter, marking the first blocked punt in an SEC Championship Game since 2016, when Alabama's Derrick Gore blocked a punt by Florida's Johnny Townsend.

• Alabama is the first team in the history of the SEC Championship Game to be shutout through the first three quarters.

• Alabama's seven points are tied for the fourth-lowest total in SEC Championship Game history, matching 2017 Auburn and 1999 Florida.

• The 35 combined points tie the 2007 and 2017 SEC Championship Games for the third-lowest combined point total in the event's history.

• Alabama's one penalty ties the 2009 Alabama team for the second-fewest in an SEC Championship Game, trailing only Tennessee's zero-penalty performance against LSU in 2007.

• This was the third SEC Championship Game in which neither team made a field goal — and the first in which no field goal was even attempted.

• The 506 combined offensive yards (Georgia 297; Alabama 209) are the second-fewest in SEC Championship Game history, behind only the 480 combined yards in the 2005 championship game (Georgia – 250; LSU – 230).

• Alabama's 16 rushing attempts are the second-fewest ever in the SEC Championship Game, ahead of only Florida's 14 attempts in 2009.

• The 28 combined first downs (Georgia - 16; Alabama - 12) tie the 1999 SEC Championship Game for the fewest in championship game history (Alabama - 22; Florida -6).

• Alabama's -3 rushing yards (on 16 attempts) are the second-lowest total in SEC Championship Game history, ahead of only Auburn's -15 rushing yards on 21 attempts against Tennessee in 1997.

• The 57 combined rushing attempts (Georgia - 41; Alabama - 16) tie the 1997 SEC Championship Game (Tennessee – 36; Auburn 21) for the fewest in history.

2026 SEC FOOTBALL LEGENDS CLASS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (October 8, 2026) – – The Southeastern Conference on Thursday announced its 2026 SEC Football Legends class presented by T-Mobile, an assemblage of former football standouts who will be honored at events surrounding the SEC Football Championship Game in Atlanta in December.

The 2026 Football Legends class includes 16 former stars who excelled on the gridiron and helped write the rich history of the sport at their respective institutions. This year's class includes Heisman Trophy winners, national champions, All-Americans, All-SEC selections and NFL standouts. The group represents teams that won SEC Championships, claimed Super Bowl titles and are represented in state, school and college football halls of fame.

The class will be honored at the 2026 SEC Football "Weekend of Champions" December 4-5 in Atlanta, Ga, highlighted by the annual SEC Legends Celebration presented by T-Mobile on Friday, December 4 at the College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta. The group will also be recognized prior to the SEC Football Championship Game, which will be held at Mercedes-Benz Stadium on Saturday, December 5.

Below is a listing and biographies of the 2026 SEC Football Legends:

- Alabama – Nick Saban, Head Coach, 2007-23
- Arkansas – Felix Jones, Running Back, 2005-07
- Auburn – Benji Roland, Noseguard, 1985-88
- Florida – Chris Doering, Wide Receiver, 1991-95

- Texas – Ricky Williams, Running Back, 1995-98
- Texas A&M – Sam Adams, Defensive Line, 1991-93
- Vanderbilt – Casey Hayward, Cornerback, 2008-11

Alabama – Nick Saban, Head Coach, 2007-23

Nick Saban built an unmatched championship record as Alabama's head coach for 17 years, lifting the Crimson Tide to the top of college football through an uncompromising "process." After the 2021 College Football Playoff title over Ohio State, he passed Paul "Bear" Bryant as the only coach with seven national championships in the poll era. He finished his Hall of Fame career after the 2023 season with six titles at Alabama and seven overall. In 28 seasons as a collegiate head coach he won nearly 81 percent of his games, including a 206-29 (.877) record in Tuscaloosa, while winning nine SEC championships at Alabama and 11 total. A nine-time National Coach of the Year, Saban produced 56 first-round NFL draft picks and four Heisman Trophy winners. A former Kent State player, he was head coach at Toledo, LSU -- where he won the 2003 national title -- and the Miami Dolphins before arriving in Tuscaloosa. In 2025 he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as the fifth Alabama coach so honored.

Arkansas – Felix Jones, Running Back, 2005-07

Felix Jones was one of the most explosive playmakers in the history of Arkansas football. A consensus All-American kick returner in 2007 and two-time All-SEC selection, he was named the SEC Special Teams Player of the Year that same season. In three years as a Razorback he rushed for 2,956 yards, sixth-most in school history, and scored 20 rushing touchdowns. He ranks second at Arkansas with more than 1,700 kick-return yards and still holds the school record in kickoff-return average. Jones shared the backfield with two-time Doak Walker Award winner Darren McFadden and Peyton Hillis; all three later enjoyed lengthy NFL careers. The Dallas Cowboys selected Jones 22nd overall in the first round of the 2008 NFL Draft, and he went on to play six seasons in the league. Combined, his college production and professional longevity cemented him as a cornerstone of one of Arkansas's most talented running-back groups.

Auburn – Benji Roland, Noseguard, 1985-88

Benji Roland anchored Auburn's defensive line from 1985 to 1988, a four-year presence whose strength at noseguard defined the Tigers' front. As a senior he earned All-America and first-team All-SEC honors, controlling the middle of the line and helping Auburn claim the 1988 SEC championship while leading the nation in total defense, rushing defense, and scoring defense. The Eastman, Georgia, native was part of back-to-back SEC championship teams and four consecutive New Year's Day bowl appearances. A three-year starter for the Tigers, he finished his career with more than 200 tackles, including 21 tackles for loss, and five quarterback sacks. Selected by the Minnesota Vikings in the 1989 NFL Draft, he later played for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Honored on the City of Auburn Tiger Trail, Roland is also a two-time cancer survivor whose impact on the Plains has reached well beyond the stat sheet.

Florida – Chris Doering, Wide Receiver, 1991-95

Chris Doering, a Gainesville native, starred at wide receiver for the Gators from 1991–95. He finished with 149 receptions for more than 2,000 yards and a program-record 31 touchdown catches. He still ranks sixth in career receptions, tenth in receiving yards, and seventh in overall touchdowns at Florida; his streak of seven straight games with a scoring catch ranks fourth in school history. As a senior in 1995 he earned Second-Team All-America honors from the Associated Press and First-Team All-SEC recognition from both the coaches and AP after a 70-catch, 1,045-yard, 17-touchdown season. The 17 scores remain second on Florida's single-season list and tied for fifth in SEC history, while his career 31 receiving touchdowns rank second in league annals. Doering helped Florida win SEC titles from 1993–95, then was drafted in the sixth round of the 1996 NFL Draft by Jacksonville and played 10 seasons in the NFL for the Colts, Broncos, Redskins and Steelers.

Georgia – Mark Richt, Head Coach, 2001-15

Mark Richt arrived at Georgia determined to lift a program that had gone two decades without an SEC title. In 15 seasons he delivered two SEC championships (2002, 2005), five Eastern Division titles and a share of another, compiling a 145-51 record that ranked fifth nationally among active coaches in winning percentage. He was named SEC Coach of the Year in both title seasons and became one of only seven coaches to win two league championships in his first five years, also posting four straight 10-win campaigns from 2002–05. Off the field, 301 Bulldogs earned degrees under his watch, and he received the 2013 Stallings Award for humanitarian service. A noted quarterback developer, Richt guided David Greene, D.J. Shockley, Matthew Stafford and Aaron Murray to record-setting careers while sending 77 players to the NFL Draft. His teams were 60-11 against non-conference foes and 49-16 in opponents' stadiums, building a culture of high standards and lasting unity among Georgia fans.

2026 SEC FOOTBALL LEGENDS CLASS

Kentucky – Randall Cobb, Wide Receiver, 2008-10

Known as "The Swiss Army Knife of College Football," Randall Cobb was one of the most versatile and dynamic players in Southeastern Conference history. At Kentucky he lined up as a wide receiver, quarterback, punt returner, kickoff returner, and holder, earning first-team All-America honors and two first-team All-SEC selections. He still holds the SEC single-season record for all-purpose yardage and built a reputation for clutch play, scoring come-from-behind, game-winning fourth-quarter touchdowns against four SEC opponents and in-state rival Louisville. A three-year Wildcat, Cobb left early for the NFL and carved out a 13-year professional career with more than 10,000 all-purpose yards and a Pro Bowl selection. Even after turning pro, he returned to campus in the offseasons until he earned his degree, keeping a childhood vow to become the first person in his immediate family to graduate from college.

LSU – Patrick Peterson, Cornerback, 2008-10

Patrick Peterson, a three-year starter at cornerback for LSU, capped his college career in 2010 as the nation's top defensive back, winning the Thorpe Award and Bednarik Award, earning consensus first-team All-America honors, while being named SEC Defensive Player of the Year and Special Teams Player of the Year. That season he posted 42 tackles, four interceptions, and six pass breakups while doubling as an elite returner, scoring twice on punts and ranking among the national leaders in punt and kickoff returns. Over 39 games and 30 starts from 2008 to 2010, the Pompano Beach, Florida, product finished with 135 tackles, 22 pass breakups, and seven interceptions, scoring touchdowns on a punt return, an interception, and a blocked field goal. As a sophomore he earned second-team All-America recognition. Arizona drafted him fifth overall in 2011. He played 13 NFL seasons for the Cardinals, Vikings and Steelers, made eight Pro Bowls, and was a three-time All-Pro.

Ole Miss – Tony Bennett, Linebacker, 1986-89

Tony Bennett, a linebacker from Alligator, Mississippi, became one of Ole Miss football's most decorated defenders of the late 1980s. A first-team All-American in 1989 by the Gannett News Service and a second-team pick by The Sporting News, he also earned first-team All-SEC honors and was a nominee for both the Butkus Award and the Lombardi Trophy. One of four permanent captains as a senior, he helped the Rebels beat Air Force in the Liberty Bowl. Bennett was SEC Player of the Week after the 1988 Alabama game and the 1989 Memphis contest, and he later played in the Senior Bowl before being named to that game's All-Dream Team in 1994. In four seasons he recorded 207 tackles, including 137 solos and two fumble recoveries, and led Ole Miss with 11 tackles for loss in 1989. Selected 18th overall by Green Bay in the 1990 NFL Draft, he played four seasons with the Packers and four more with Indianapolis. He was named to the Ole Miss Team of the Century (1893–1992) and inducted into the Ole Miss Sports Hall of Fame in 2003.

Mississippi State – Darius Slay, Cornerback, 2011-12

Darius Slay arrived at Mississippi State after two seasons at Itawamba Community College and quickly became one of the SEC's most disruptive corners. In two years in Starkville he totaled 63 tackles, six interceptions, 10 pass breakups and a forced fumble. His signature play was a 72-yard pick-six at Georgia in 2011, the 10th-longest interception return in school history. As a senior in 2012 he earned honorable mention All-America and All-SEC honors after leading the conference and tying for ninth nationally with five interceptions. That season he added 40 tackles and six pass breakups in addition to sealing a win over Arkansas with a late-game interception. The Detroit Lions chose him in the second round of the 2013 NFL Draft. Over 13 professional seasons he became a six-time Pro Bowler, two-time First-Team All-Pro and Super Bowl LIX champion, playing for the Lions, Eagles and Steelers before retiring in 2026 as one of the era's most productive cornerbacks.

Missouri – Sean Weatherspoon, Linebacker, 2006-09

Sean Weatherspoon, a Jasper, Texas, native, became one of the most decorated defenders in Missouri football history. Arriving as a special-teams freshman under College Football Hall of Fame coach Gary Pinkel, he grew into a three-year starter, team captain, two-time All-American, and the only three-time first-team All-Big 12 defensive player in school history. He finished with 413 tackles, third most at Mizzou, plus 43.5 tackles for loss and 13 sacks. In 2008 he led the Big 12 in tackles and returned two interceptions for touchdowns, then earned Alamo Bowl Defensive MVP honors in an overtime win over Northwestern. As a senior captain in 2009 he again led Mizzou in tackles and was a Butkus Award finalist. The Atlanta Falcons made him the first linebacker in school history taken in the first round, 19th overall in 2010. He played seven NFL seasons with Atlanta and Arizona, reached Super Bowl LI, and was inducted into the Mizzou Athletics Hall of Fame in 2017 and the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 2023.

Oklahoma – Billy Sims, Running Back, 1975-79

Billy Sims became one of the most electric running backs in Oklahoma history under Barry Switzer from 1975 to 1979. After limited work as a freshman and a medical redshirt in 1976, he broke through in 1978, rushing for 1,896 yards and winning the Heisman Trophy as a redshirt junior. He led the nation in rushing that season with 7.4 yards a carry, and earned unanimous first-team All-America honors. In 1979 he added 1,670 yards, including 247 against unbeaten Nebraska, finished as Heisman runner-up, and was again a unanimous All-American. He left Norman as OU's career rushing leader with 4,118 yards (53 TDs) and led the Sooners to Orange Bowl wins over Nebraska and Florida State his final two years. Detroit made him the first overall pick of the 1980 NFL Draft. With the Lions, he was NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year, a three-time Pro Bowler, and a first-team All-Pro in 1981 before a knee injury ended his career after five seasons. One of Oklahoma's defining wishbone tailbacks, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1995.

South Carolina - Sidney Rice, Wide Receiver, 2005-06

Sidney Rice, a Gaffney, South Carolina, native, was one of the Gamecocks' most productive wide receivers under Steve Spurrier from 2004 to 2006. After redshirting as a freshman, he exploded in 2005 with 70 catches for 1,143 yards and 13 touchdowns, earning first-team All-SEC honors and started his career with a school-record eight straight games with a receiving score. As a sophomore in 2006 he added 72 receptions for 1,090 yards and 10 touchdowns and was a second-team All-SEC selection. In just two seasons he broke Sterling Sharpe's school record for career receiving touchdowns with 23. Minnesota drafted him in the second round, 44th overall, in 2007. Rice played seven NFL seasons with the Vikings and Seattle Seahawks, made the 2009 Pro Bowl, and won Super Bowl XLVIII with Seattle. A 6-foot-4 target with a basketball background as the state's High School Class 4A Player of the Year, he left Columbia as a two-year football star whose production still ranks among the program's modern receiving standards.

Tennessee – John Henderson, Defensive Tackle, 1999-2001
John Henderson was a dominant force on the Tennessee defensive line from 1999–2001 under Phillip Fulmer. The 6-foot-7 Nashville native became a two-time consensus All-American and two-time first-team All-SEC selection. In 2000 he won the Outland Trophy as the nation's top interior lineman, earned SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors and finished as a Nagurski Trophy finalist after posting 71 tackles, 21 tackles for loss and 12 sacks, helping a Vols defense set a school record by allowing just 817 rushing yards. He was an Outland finalist again as a senior despite an ankle injury. Career totals include 165 tackles, 38.5 tackles for loss and 20.5 sacks, fifth in program history. Henderson helped Tennessee to a 28-9 record, the 2001 SEC East title and three straight bowls, earning outstanding defensive player honors in the 2002 Citrus Bowl. The Jacksonville Jaguars drafted him ninth overall in 2002. He played 10 NFL seasons for the Jaguars and Oakland Raiders and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2025.

Texas – Ricky Williams, Running Back, 1995-98
Ricky Williams arrived at Texas in 1995 as a true freshman fullback and immediately evoked memories of Longhorn Legend Earl Campbell, breaking the Texas freshman rushing record with 990 yards and eight touchdowns. After 1,272 yards and 12 touchdowns as a sophomore, he exploded as a junior tailback in 1997, leading the nation with 1,893 yards and 25 touchdowns, winning the Doak Walker Award and finishing fifth in Heisman voting. Returning for his senior year instead of entering the NFL Draft, Williams rushed for 2,124 yards and 27 scores in 1998, set 21 NCAA records, swept national player-of-the-year honors and won the Heisman in a historic landslide. He eclipsed Tony's Dorsett's 22-year-old NCAA rushing record with 6,279 career rushing yards to go with 72 rushing touchdowns and 46 school records. Texas later retired his No. 34. Selected fifth overall by New Orleans in 1999, he rushed for 10,009 NFL yards and 66 touchdowns in his 11 seasons with the Saints, Dolphins and Ravens, and entered the College Football Hall of Fame in 2015.

Texas A&M – Sam Adams, Defensive Line, 1991-93
Sam Adams, a Houston-area native, became one of Texas A&M's most decorated defensive linemen under coach R.C. Slocum from 1991 to 1993. A three-year letterman and three-time All-Southwest Conference pick, he was SWC Defensive Newcomer of the Year as a freshman, a first-team Freshman All-American, and later a consensus All-American. The Aggies went 30-4-1 in his career and won three straight SWC titles. After a junior season of 78 tackles, 13 tackles for loss, 10.5 sacks and five forced fumbles, Adams was Sports Illustrated National Defensive Player of the Year, SWC Defensive Player of the Year, and a Lombardi Award finalist. While at A&M, he also threw the shot and discus for the track team. Seattle drafted him eighth overall in 1994. In 14 NFL seasons with the Seahawks, Ravens, Raiders, Bills, Bengals and Broncos, he earned three Pro Bowl appearances and two All-Pro honors, and won Super Bowl XXXV with Baltimore. He was inducted into the Texas A&M Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001.

Vanderbilt – Casey Hayward, Cornerback, 2008-11
Casey Hayward was one of Vanderbilt's most productive defensive backs from 2008 to 2011, serving as a team captain his senior season while being named a 2011 second-team All-American by the Football Writers Association of America. A two-time All-SEC pick by both the coaches and the Associated Press, he intercepted 15 passes to tie the Commodores' career record and shared the school mark with 34 passes broken up. He picked off six passes in 2010 and seven as a senior, one shy of the single-season record, and posted 17 pass breakups in each of his last two seasons. After playing in the 2012 Senior Bowl, he was selected by Green Bay in the second round of the NFL Draft, 62nd overall. Hayward then played 11 professional seasons from 2012 to 2022 with the Packers, Chargers, Raiders and Falcons. He earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 2017 and second-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl recognition in 2016.

A pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition, the Southeastern Conference is a leader on the national landscape for intercollegiate athletics in the 21st century. Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has achieved stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. These university leaders determine the policies of the conference and through the years this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC. Throughout its 82-year history, the SEC has provided leadership on the vital issues facing intercollegiate competition. Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt have been in the SEC since its formation in 1933. The league has expanded three times, adding Arkansas and South Carolina in 1991, then Missouri and Texas A&M in 2012, then Oklahoma and Texas in 2024.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

SEC teams won a record 13 NCAA or NCEA national championships in 2025-26
- Volleyball – Texas A&M
- Men's Indoor Track & Field – Arkansas
- Women's Indoor Track & Field – Georgia
- Men's Swimming & Diving – Texas
- Equestrian – South Carolina
- Gymnastics – Oklahoma
- Women's Tennis – Texas A&M
- Rowing – Texas
- Men's Golf – Auburn
- Softball – Texas
- Men's Outdoor Track & Field – Arkansas
- Women's Outdoor Track & Field – Georgia
- Baseball – Oklahoma

SEC HIGHLIGHTS IN 2025-26

- A team from the SEC won the national championship in 13 of the 22 sports the league sponsors, which is an all-time high.
- The SEC had more former players on MLB Opening Day rosters than any other schools.
- The SEC has seven NCAA Women's Final Four appearances in the last four seasons, more than any other conference.
- A total of 20 basketball teams from the SEC (10 men's teams and 10 women's teams) earned NCAA Tournament bids. The SEC had the most combined teams in the Sweet 16.
- The SEC led all conferences with five teams in the College Football Playoff. Since the CFP expanded to 12 teams starting with the 2024 season, the SEC has had more teams (8) in the CFP than any other conference.
- Five SEC gymnastics teams advanced to the finals of the NCAA Gymnastics Championships.
- There was an SEC vs. SEC national championship match in volleyball for the first time (Texas A&M vs. Kentucky). The NCAA Women's Tennis Championship featured an All-SEC matchup in the final (Texas A&M vs. Auburn), as did the NCEA Equestrian Championship (South Carolina vs. Texas A&M)
- Nine SEC soccer teams received NCAA Tournament bids, tied for the most in the nation.
- The SEC led all conferences with 10 teams in the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament.
- Two SEC teams advanced to the NCAA Final Four in women's basketball.
- The SEC swept the NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Track & Field Championships.
- Texas won the SEC's second consecutive national championship in softball.
- Oklahoma won the NCAA baseball championship, giving the SEC its seventh straight national title won by six different programs.
- The SEC finished the 2025 season as the most-watched conference in college football based on minutes watched for a fourth-straight year. The SEC was also No. 1 in average audience for the 15th consecutive year.

STUDENT-ATHLETE CAREER TOUR

A total of 29 Southeastern Conference student-athletes participated in the 10th SEC Career Tour in Atlanta last December. The goal of the career tour is to provide exposure for SEC student-athletes who are seeking career opportunities in various fields. The program allows student-athletes to connect with human resource recruiters and submit resumes for jobs and gain valuable knowledge of professional branding.

SEC AMONG HONDA AWARD WINNERS

Four of the 12 Honda Sports Award winners in 2025-26 were from the SEC:
- Faith Torrez, Gymnastics, Oklahoma
- Farah O'Keefe, Golf, Texas
- Doris Lemngole, Cross Country, Alabama
- Lucciana Perez, Tennis, Texas A&M

The Honda Sport Award acknowledges athletic achievement as well as scholastic and community involvement and is given to female athletes in 12 different NCAA-sanctioned sports throughout the year.

NCAA SILVER ANNIVERSARY AWARD WINNER

The Silver Anniversary Award celebrates the achievements and contributions of former student-athletes who have excelled in their professional lives and continue to exemplify the values of collegiate athletics. Among the four winners in 2025 was former Tennessee women's basketball standout Tamika Catchings.

BEST OF THE BEST

Winners of the highest honors in their respective sports:
- The Bowerman (top men's collegiate track & field athlete for 2025) – Jordan Anthony, Arkansas
- The Bowerman (top women's collegiate track & field athlete for 2025) – Doris Lemngole, Alabama
- Golden Spikes Award (top amateur baseball player in 2026) – Daniel Jackson, Georgia
- ITA Women's National Player of the Year – Lucciana Perez, Texas A&M
- Haskins, Ben Hogan, Jack Nicklaus Men's Golf Awards – Jackson Koivun, Auburn
- ANNIKA Award for top D1 Women's Golfer - Fara O'Keefe, Texas
- CSCAA Men's Co-Swimmer of the Year – Josh Liendo, Florida
- CSCAA Women's Diver of the Year – Sophie Verzyl, South Carolina

SEC HALL OF FAMERS LIGHT UP VEGAS

Four former players from SEC schools, and two former SEC coaches were among the inductees in the 2025 class of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame during ceremonies held in Las Vegas in December.
- Gregg Carr, Auburn
- John Henderson, Tennessee
- Michael Huff, Texas
- Terrence Metcalf, Ole Miss
- Urban Meyer, Florida
- Nick Saban, LSU/Alabama

In addition, Vanderbilt's Eli Stowers was named the 36th recipient of the William V. Campbell Trophy®. Widely recognized as the "Academic Heisman", The Campbell Trophy® ranks as one of college football's most sought-after and competitive awards, recognizing an individual as the absolute best in the country for his combined academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership. Awarded since 1990, the 24-inch, 25-pound bronze trophy comes with a $25,000 postgraduate scholarship. Stowers was selected from a list of 16 members of the NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class Presented by Fidelity Investments®.

TOP DRAFT PICKS

The SEC provided high draft choices in professional sports drafts in football, basketball and baseball.
- NBA 2026: The SEC had 11 players selected in the 2026 NBA Draft. Those 11 players represented six different schools.
- MLB 2026: The SEC led all conferences with 104 players selected in the 2026 MLB Draft. Each SEC school had at least two players selected, and 29 Major League clubs drafted at least one SEC player.
- WNBA 2026: A record 15 SEC players were selected in the 2026 WNBA Draft, including nine of the top-30.
- NFL 2026: The SEC led the nation's conferences in NFL Draft picks for the 20th consecutive year in 2026 with 87 selections.

SEC CONTRIBUTION TO PROFESSIONAL SPORTS

The SEC continues to be a training ground for professional sports
- NFL - A total of 451 players from SEC schools, which led all conferences, were listed on NFL active rosters during the opening weekend of the 2025 season.
- NBA - 103 players from SEC schools were on 2025 NBA opening day rosters, the most of any conference
- WNBA – A total of 36 former SEC players were on WNBA opening day rosters in 2026. Thirteen WNBA teams had at last one former SEC player on its roster.
- MLB - A nation-leading 86 players formerly from the SEC's 16 schools were named to Major League Baseball opening day rosters.

LEADERS IN ATTENDANCE

- The SEC for the 28th consecutive season in 2025 led the nation in attendance once again with an average of 80,362 per game, followed by the Big Ten at 64,662. The SEC's average of over 80,000 is an all-time high in college football.
- In men's basketball, the top three attendance leaders in 2025 were from the SEC. Kentucky led the nation with a total attendance of 366,007 (20,334 average), Arkansas ranked second with 341,935 fans (18,996 average) and Tennessee was third with 340,436 fans (20,026 average).
- Total attendance at baseball games on SEC campuses exceeded 3.45 million this season. Mississippi State led the nation in total attendance (420,696) and average attendance (a record 11,686).

CFP

SELECTION COMMITTEE

HOW THE CFP SELECTION COMMITTEE RANKS THE TOP 25 AND SEEDS THE 12-TEAM BRACKET

The CFP Selection Committee ranks the top 25 through seven rounds of voting, then uses that ranking to seed the CFP bracket

THE MISSION

1. Select the best teams
2. Rank the teams for the CFP
3. Assign the teams to the bracket

SEPARATING COMPARABLE TEAMS

Strength of schedule
Who a team played, not just whether it won.

Head-to-head results
What happened when the two teams met.

Common opponents
Comparative outcomes, without rewarding margin of victory.

Other relevant factors
Factors like unavailability of players or coaches may be considered.

WHO MAKES THE 12-TEAM FIELD

5 auto bids + 7 at-large = 12 teams

Auto bids: champions of the ACC, Big Ten, Big 12 and SEC, plus the highest-ranked team from the American, CUSA, MAC, Mountain West, Pac-12 or Sun Belt.
At-large: the next seven highest-ranked teams. No limit per conference.
Notre Dame is in if ranked in the top 12.

FROM RANKING TO SEEDING

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25

first-round byes | first-round host | first-round visiting team

Any automatic qualifier ranked outside the top 12 is seeded at the bottom of the 12, in rank order. No reseeding after any round.

If no American, CUSA, MAC, MWC, Pac-12 or Sun Belt team is ranked, the committee still identifies the highest-ranked one as the automatic qualifier.

CFP SELECTION COMMITTEE

VOTING PROCESS

BEFORE ROUND 1:
Build the pool
Each member lists their 30 best teams, unordered. Any team named by 3+ members stays under consideration.

LISTING STEP:
Pick six teams
Each member lists the six best remaining teams. The top vote-getters fill a pool of six (joining any held-over teams).

RANKING STEP:
Rank 1–6, low score wins
Each member ranks the pool; 1st = 1 point, 2nd = 2 points, and so on. Points are totaled.

RESULT:
Lock in, hold over
Rounds 1–4: four fewest-point teams are ranked, two held over. Rounds 5–7: three ranked, three held over.

Listing and ranking steps repeat for seven rounds until all top 25 teams are ranked.

NO SINGLE METRIC
The committee weighs a wide variety of data and information.

NO CONFERENCE CAP
Any number of teams from one conference can make the field.

FINAL IS FINAL
Games played after Selection Day are not considered.

GROUND RULES

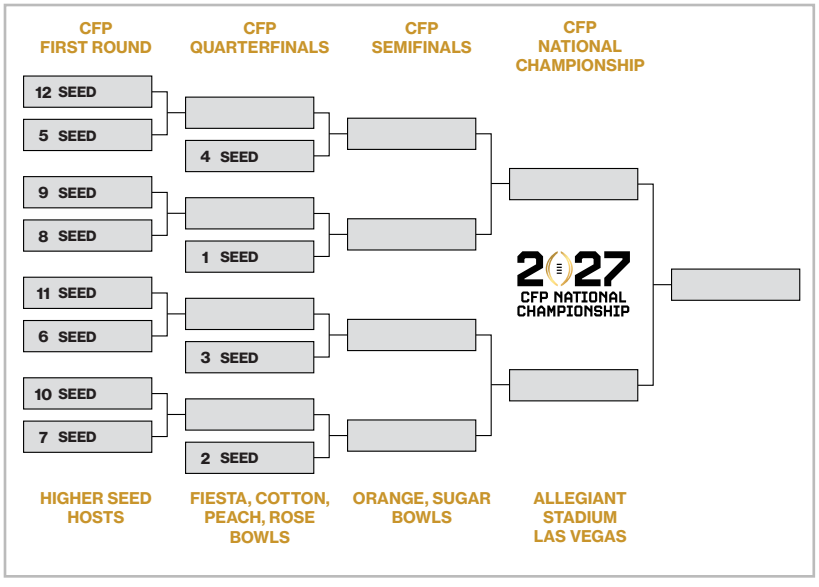
Every vote is anonymous.

Members evaluate teams thoroughly before each vote and review between steps..

3+ votes after any round can add a team to the pool.

If more than three members agree, a group can be revisited and any 3+ teams can be re-ranked.

THE CFP BRACKET



SELECTION DAY SEQUENCE

After the 12-team CFP bracket is seeded

1. No. 1 picks its CFP Quarterfinal bowl and the CFP Semifinal it would advance to.
2. No. 2, then No. 3, pick from the remaining CFP Quarterfinal bowls; they feed into the other CFP Semifinal. No. 4 gets the last bowl.
3. Place seeds 5–12 in the bracket.

CFP

CROWNING THE TRUE NATIONAL CHAMPION IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL

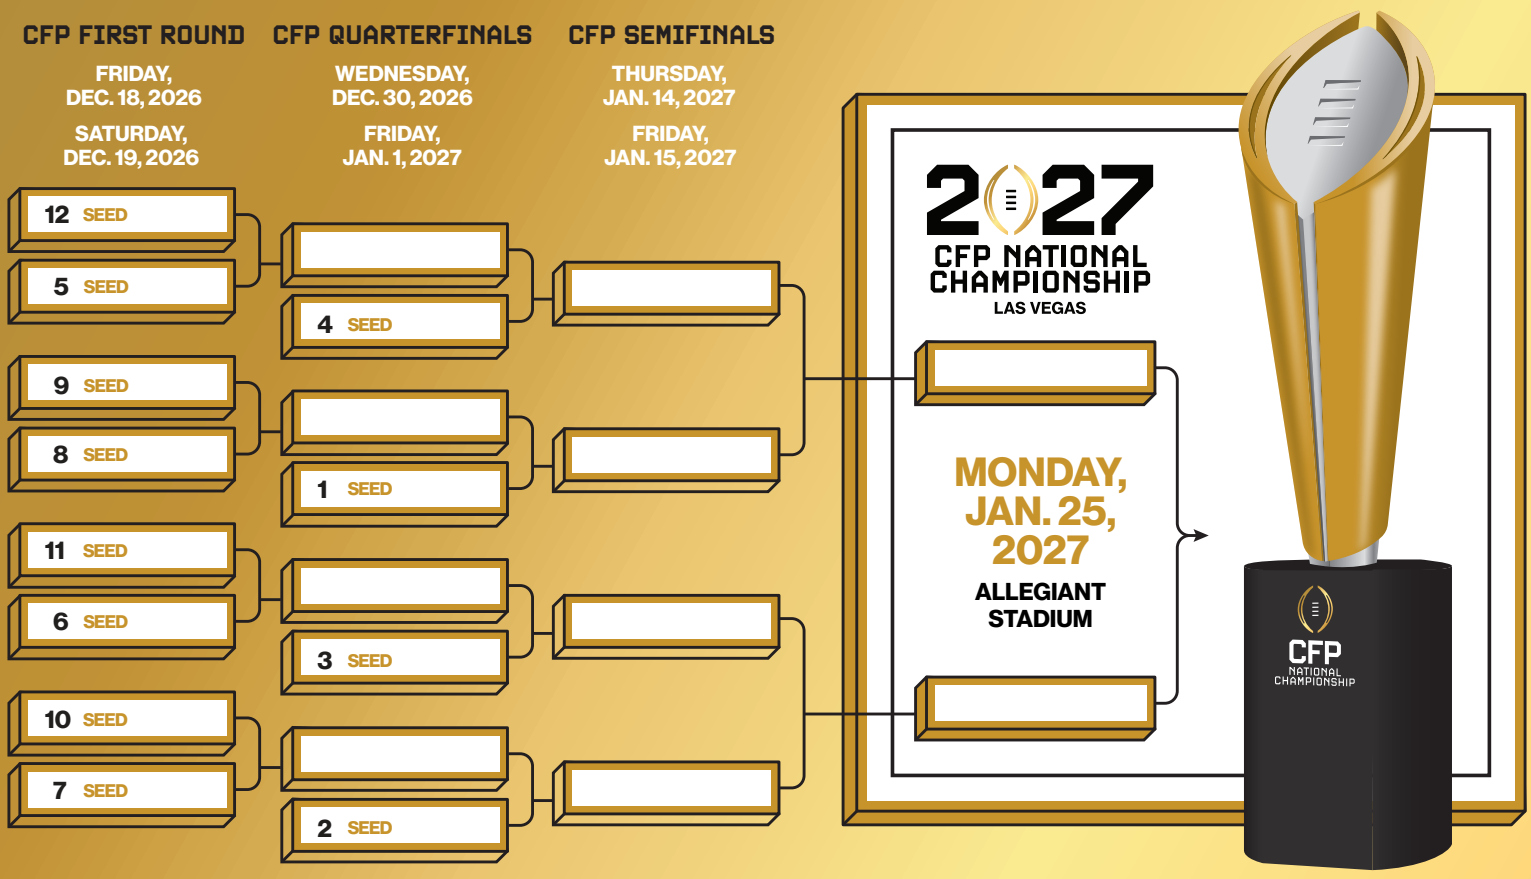
Everything you need to know to be ready for the postseason

THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF SELECTION COMMITTEE WILL RANK THE TOP 25 TEAMS.

The 12 participating schools will be the conference champions from the Atlantic Coast Conference, Big Ten Conference, Big 12 Conference, Southeastern Conference and the highest-ranked team from the American, Conference USA, Mid-American Conference, Mountain West, Pac-12 Conference or Sun Belt Conference, along with the next seven highest-ranked teams. The University of Notre Dame will be included in the playoff if it is ranked among the top 12 teams in the final rankings.

12 TEAMS

The top four teams in the CFP Selection Committee final rankings will be seeded 1-4 and receive a first-round bye. The remaining teams will be seeded 5-12 based on their final ranking. If any of the five automatic qualifiers falls outside of the top 12, they will be seeded at the bottom of the 12-team pool.



CFP FIRST ROUND

The eight teams seeded No. 5-12 will play in the first round with the higher four seeds hosting the four lower seeds on campus.

CFP QUARTERFINALS

On Selection Day the No. 1 seed will select its CFP Quarterfinal bowl . The No. 2 seed will select from the three remaining CFP Quarterfinal bowls. The No. 3 seed will select from the two remaining quarterfinal bowls and the No. 4 seed will be assigned to the remaining bowl after that.

CFP SEMIFINALS

On Selection Day the No. 1 seed will also choose the CFP Semifinal bowl it would advance to with a CFP Quarterfinal win. The No. 2 seed will be assigned to the other CFP Semifinal bowl.

There will be

NO RE-SEEDING

once the bracket is set on Selection Day, Dec. 6.

The bracket will follow the rankings with no modifications made to avoid rematches or games between schools from the same conference.
