STORYLINES

No. 16 MSU Plays Final Road Game Saturday at Arkansas

No. 16 MSU looks to bounce back in its final road game of the season at Arkansas at 11 a.m. CT Saturday. It will be the Bulldogs' first appearance on CBS since hosting Alabama on Nov. 14, 2015.

► MSU gave No. 1 Alabama its toughest test of the season in a 31-24 loss Saturday in Starkville. The Bulldogs became the first team to score three or more rushing touchdowns on the Tide in the Nick Saban era. Aeris Williams ran for 97 yards and two scores, while Nick Fitzgerald added another. Mark McLaurin produced a career-high 11 tackles and 1.5 sacks. MSU racked up 147 rushing yards, representing the most allowed by Alabama since 2015.

► State is bowl eligible for a school-record eighth straight year. Prior to Dan Mullen's arrival, the school record for consecutive bowl appearances was three from 1998-2000. MSU is one of five SEC teams who have been to a bowl every season this decade (Alabama, Georgia, LSU and Texas A&M the others).

► Dan Mullen has surpassed College Football Hall of Famer Allyn McKeen for second place in MSU career victories (68). Mullen, who is currently the second-longest tenured coach in the SEC behind only Nick Saban, owns the highest winning percentage (.602) at MSU since McKeen from 1939-48 (.764, min. 3 seasons). Mullen is just seven wins away from tying Sherrill's school-record win mark. Sherrill was 75-75-2 in 13 years. MSU was 32-65 in the eight years prior to Mullen's arrival.

► MSU is seeking its fourth SEC win of the year and looking to secure at least a .500 record in conference play for the third time in four seasons and the fifth time in the Dan Mullen era. The Bulldogs are also vying for the fifth eight-win season in the Mullen era. Mullen is seeking to tie Allyn McKeen for the most eight-win seasons by a coach in school history. McKeen produced four from 1939-46.

► Jr. QB Nick Fitzgerald has accounted for 69 career touchdowns - 37 passing, 32 rushing - which is second in school history behind only Dak Prescott (114). Fitzgerald is second in the SEC and 17th nationally in TDs responsible this season with 26 (13 pass, 13 rush). Fitzgerald owns 11 school records - five single-game, four single-season and two career. Fitzgerald owns the SEC career record for 100-yard rushing games by a QB (13). He is one of only two FBS QBs (Lamar Jackson), to throw for over 1,600 yards and rush for over 800 yards this season. He is now fourth in SEC career QB rushing yards with 2,369, just 152 yards behind fourth-place Prescott.

► Defensive coordinator Todd Grantham leads an MSU unit that is ranked in the Top 25 nationally in five categories: total defense (11th - 304.8), passing defense (9th - 172.9), scoring defense (19th- 19.3), first down defense (1st - 13.2) and red zone defense (24th, 1st in SEC - 76.2). Grantham's unit has forced at least one turnover in six out of the last seven games. They have forced 18 turnovers on the year, including eight interceptions and three pick sixes.

► State is the only team in the nation who has played three of the current top seven teams in the polls.

► Arkansas leads the all-time series 16-10-1, and the road team has won the last two meetings.

Consistency and longevity are two of the ultimate measures of a successful head coach. Few have personified that more than Dan Mullen, and he's achieved that in college football's toughest division. The 45-year-old is in his ninth season in Starkville after guiding the Bulldogs into unprecedented territory. That includes the fastest ascent from unranked to No. 1 in college football history and a school-record seven straight bowl games.

Mullen has surpassed College Football Hall of Famer Allyn McKeen (65-19-3) for second in Bulldog all-time wins. In 2017, Mullen also tied McKeen as the second-longest tenured coach in school history. Mullen's winning percentage ranks second in MSU annals among those who have coached six or more years. Only McKeen's .764 from 1939-48 is better.

Mullen has cemented the Bulldogs as one of the best in the SEC West as MSU ranks third in victories since 2014 (32) in college football's toughest division, which has produced a national title game finalist in 10 out of the last 11 years. He is the SEC's second-longest tenured current head coach behind only Alabama's Nick Saban (11th year).

Mullen has produced three seasons of at least nine victories in the last seven years, including the school's first back-to-back nine-win seasons in 2014 and 2015. To put in perspective, there were only four nine-win seasons at State in the 109 years prior to Mullen's arrival.

Bowl games have become the norm at State under Mullen's guidance. Prior to his arrival, the school record for consecutive bowl game appearances was three from 1998-2000. MSU is currently on a stretch of a school-record seven straight bowl appearances and it has become bowl eligible for an eighth straight year. No other coach has been to more bowl games (seven) or won more bowl games (five) at MSU than Mullen. The Bulldogs are one of five SEC teams to earn a bowl berth every season this decade, and MSU is second in the league in bowl game wins (five) since 2010. Only five teams have held the No. 1 ranking since the start of the 2014 season – Alabama, Clemson, Florida State, Ohio State and Mississippi State.

No coach in school history had ever been a finalist for a national coach of the year honor until Mullen won the Maxwell Football Club's National Coach of the Year award in 2014. He also claimed the Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year award that same fall that MSU reached No. 1. On top of that, Mullen has shined in the Egg Bowl, owning a 5-3 record against Ole Miss. His five wins against the in-state rival ranks second in school history, while his .625 winning percentage against the Rebels is the best by an MSU coach since Sid Robinson's 4-0 mark from 1917-19 (minimum three years).

Player development has been key in Mullen's eight previous seasons. Twenty-two Bulldogs have been chosen in the NFL Draft under Mullen's watch since 2010. What has proven to be even more impressive is how successful those players are when they reach the next level. The 2016 NFL season saw a school-record three Bulldogs – Dak Prescott, Fletcher Cox and K.J. Wright – reach the NFL Pro Bowl in Orlando. All three developed under Mullen at State. Prescott was the fifth SEC player to win NFL Rookie of the Year since its inception in 2002.

Off the field, Mullen's players are constant achievers in the classroom and the community donating countless hours to the Starkville area and state of Mississippi. A school-record 31 Bulldogs were named to the 2016 SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll, which ranked among the top five in the league. During Mullen's entire tenure at MSU, 166 players have earned the distinction of SEC Honor Roll recipient. State is tied for the SEC lead in number of National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athletes produced since 2010 with two.

The Mullen's created the Mullen Family 36 Foundation, raising close to $500,000 for charity in the last five years. The foundation has impacted the lives of 36 different children's charities throughout the state of Mississippi and annually chooses a deserving student for a college scholarship. In the spring of 2017, the foundation hosted its first golf classic, bringing back former Bulldogs and celebrities that raised over $100,000 for children's charities.

Mullen crossed a bucket list item off in April 2016. He received a sponsorship exemption through Adidas to run the 120th Boston Marathon, which he completed in 4:28:35. In the process, the Mullen 36 Family Foundation raised over $60,000 through race donations.

- LB Erroll Thompson leads all SEC freshmen linebackers in tackles with 36.
- The latest NCAA Graduation Success Rates (GSR) were announced Nov. 8 and Mississippi State tied for the SEC West lead in football with an 84 percentile with Alabama. That mark was also fourth-best overall among SEC football programs. The 84 percent was a program record and eight points above the national FBS average of 76.
- The Bulldogs' 35 first downs against BYU in Week 7 were a school record, breaking the previous mark of 33 set against Georgia Tech in the 2014 Orange Bowl. Twelve times under Dan Mullen, State has accumulated 30 first downs or more in a game.
- MSU produced its first defensive shutout since 2014 in the opener against Charleston Southern. Meanwhile, the Bulldogs' offense hasn't been shutout in 112 consecutive games, the sixth-longest current streak in the SEC. The Bulldogs have scored in every game under head coach Dan Mullen.
- The Bulldogs have 30 years of NFL coaching experience on the staff, which is the seventh most in the FBS. Defensive coordinator Todd Grantham coached 11 years in the NFL, while defensive line coach Brian Baker spent 19 years in the pros.
- All seven of MSU's wins have come by double-digits, including all three SEC victories.

MULLEN AT 68 WINS, NOW SECOND IN MSU HISTORY

Dan Mullen has surpassed College Football Hall of Famer Allyn McKeen as the second-winningest coach in school history (68 wins). Mullen is also tied with McKeen as the second-longest tenured coach in MSU history (by years). Mullen is in his ninth year and is coaching in his 114th game this weekend at Arkansas. Only Jackie Sherrill (152) has coached in more MSU games than Mullen. Mullen is just seven wins shy of tying Sherrill for first place in Bulldog victories. Mullen is the SEC's second-winningest coach among current head coaches behind only Nick Saban. In an era of coaching transactions, Mullen has turned MSU into a winner in college football's toughest division that has produced a national title game finalist in 10 out of the last 11 years.

Williams was the first player with two or more rushing touchdowns since Ezekiel Elliott of Ohio State had two in the 2015 Sugar Bowl.

- The 24 points by State were the most allowed by Alabama this year and the most in a regular season game by the Tide since Arkansas put up 30 on Oct. 8, 2016.
- MSU racked up five sacks in the game, the most allowed by Alabama since Clemson had five in the 2016 College Football Playoff National Championship.

THE TODD GRANTHAM EFFECT

Todd Grantham, a nominee for the Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in the country, has made an immediate splash in his first year as defensive coordinator in Starkville. Grantham is in his 11th season as a defensive coordinator and fifth season as a defensive coordinator in the SEC. He spent four years at Georgia. In the spring, he stressed building a "fast, physical and aggressive defense" and it has translated in 2017:

MSU HAS SCORED A TD SIX DIFFERENT WAYS

State has scored a touchdown six different ways this season: pass (19 times), rush (17 times), punt return (once - Dedrick Thomas 83-yard vs. UMass), interception return (three times - Gerri Green 84-yard vs. Kentucky; Jamal Peters 90-yard at Texas A&M; J.T. Gray 58-yard vs. UMass), fumble recovery (Jeffery Simmons 90-yard at Louisiana Tech), blocked punt return (Jeffery Simmons at Louisiana Tech).

- MSU has produced six non-offensive touchdowns this season, including a league-leading four defensive scores.
- The Bulldogs returned an interception for a touchdown in three straight games, a first since 2007. They did it against Kentucky, Texas A&M and UMass earlier this season.

PUTTING UP POINTS

State is putting up points an impressive clip, scoring at least 34 points in seven of its 10 games this year and at least 34 points in 12 out of its last 17 games dating back to last season's Kentucky game on Oct. 22. The Bulldogs have scored at least 30 points in 55 of the 113 games under Dan Mullen (49.2 percent). MSU is 56-10 when scoring 25 or more points under Mullen. State put up 24 points against No. 1 Alabama on Nov. 11, representing the most allowed by the Tide this season and the most in a regular season game since Arkansas put up 30 on Oct. 8 last season.

30-WIN SENIOR CLASSES IN MSU HISTORY

The victory against UMass was the 2017 senior class' 32nd and they are the ninth MSU senior class to reach the 30-win mark. The 2017 class is now tied for fourth in senior class victories, two shy of tying the school record of 34 set by the 1942 and 2015 squads. With one more victory they would move into a tie for third with the 2000 team. Of the nine 30-win senior classes in the 118-year history of the program, five have occurred under head coach Dan Mullen.

ELITE RUSHING ATTACK

- MSU is one of two FBS programs who have a QB-RB duo each averaging over 85.0 yards per game rushing, joining triple-option threat Georgia Tech (TaQuon Marshall-KirVonte Benson). Aeris Williams is averaging 87.3 yards per game, while Nick Fitzgerald is second on the squad with 86.7 ypg.
- State has rushed for over 250 yards seven times this season and is 7-0 in those contests. The Bulldogs have eclipsed 250 rushing yards in 11 out of their last 17 games dating back to the Kentucky game on Oct. 22 last season. MSU has won 10 in a row when rushing for over 250 yards.

- MSU is averaging 250.6 yards per game on the ground, which is third in the SEC and 12th nationally. That tally is the best by a Bulldog squad since 1980 when it put up a school-record 280.5 yards per game.
- MSU has produced the most individual 100-yard rushing games this season with nine (5 by Nick Fitzgerald, 4 by Aeris Williams).

FITZ, A-TRAIN BEST 100-YARD QB-RB DUO IN MSU HISTORY

No quarterback-running back combo in MSU history has gone over 100 yards rushing more than Nick Fitzgerald and Aeris Williams. Five times the duo has gone over 100 yards rushing in the same game. Dak Prescott and Josh Robinson did it twice during the 2014 season. Fitzgerald and Williams have done it three times this season and twice in 2016. The duo last did it against UMass as Williams, nicknamed "A-Train", had 114 and Fitzgerald produced a season-high 135. State has won every game in which Fitzgerald and Williams achieved the feat.

Opponent	Date	Yards Rushing
UMass	11/4/17	Fitzgerald (135), Williams (114)
BYU	10/14/17	Williams (114), Fitzgerald (103)

MSU RB/QB HAVE NOT LOST A FUMBLE THIS SEASON

MSU's quarterbacks and running backs have not lost a fumble this season. The Bulldogs' first lost fumble occurred with 0:37 remaining in the Week 6 game against BYU when Keith Mixon fumbled on a kickoff. State still has not LOST a fumble on any offensive possession this season, which includes all 469 rushing attempts this year. The Bulldogs have fumbled only twice on their 469 carries this season when Keytaon Thompson did late in the fourth quarter at Auburn on Sept. 30 and Aeris Williams did on the first drive of the third quarter at Texas A&M on Oct. 28. MSU recovered both of those fumbles. The Bulldogs have gone 44 consecutive quarters (11 straight games) without a lost fumble on an offensive possession. MSU has carried it 504 consecutive times without a lost fumble on offense (Egg Bowl last year last lost one). MSU leads the SEC and is tied for second in the nation in fewest fumbles LOST with one. The Bulldogs are tied for first in the nation in fewest total fumbles (4) along with Army. In Nick Fitzgerald's 355 career carries, he's lost a fumble three times (twice vs. Auburn in 2016 and once at UMass in 2016).

NOTING THE OFFENSIVE LINE

• MSU has a combined 80 starts among its offensive line led by Deion Calhoun's 19.

• Junior Elgton Jenkins made his first start at center in the season-opener and has settled into the position, starting all 10 games there. Jenkins has now started at every position on the line during his career.

• Stewart Reese and Greg Eiland are the newcomers to the group. Reese redshirted last season before seeing his first career action as a starter at right tackle in the opener. Reese played a dominant game against LSU in Week 3. Eiland, filling in for an injured Martinas Rankin, started at left tackle for a four-game stretch. Rankin returned to action off the bench against UMass and then started against Alabama.

• MSU's two-deep on its offensive line is made up of one senior (Rankin), two juniors, four sophomores and three redshirt freshmen. Against BYU, Kentucky, Texas A&M and UMass, the starting line was made up of two redshirt freshmen at tackle, two juniors and one sophomore.

• The Bulldogs have allowed only six sacks this season (1 by LSU, 2 by Auburn, 2 at Texas A&M, 1 by Alabama). That is the fewest amount of sacks allowed by any team in the SEC this year and the second-fewest in the FBS behind Army's triple-option attack (1).

• Left guard Darryl Williams was named SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week on Sept. 17 following the Bulldogs' dominant win over No. 11 LSU. Williams graded out the highest for MSU (99 percent) and had three knockdowns in the start. Williams was the first MSU offensive lineman to earn the honor since Martinas Rankin on Nov. 7, 2016 following a win over No. 4 Texas A&M.

• Right guard Deion Calhoun earned SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week honors on Oct. 23 following MSU's 45-7 win against Kentucky. Calhoun. He graded out the highest (93 percent) with three knockdowns. He paved the way for an MSU offense that rushed for 282 yards against a Wildcat defense that came in 10th nationally against the run, allowing only 97.2 yards per game. State also did not allow a sack on the day.

• It's the first time since the 2014 season that MSU has claimed SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week honors multiple times in a season. Ben Beckwith won it three times that year. It's also the first time since the award's inception in 2004 that two different MSU players have won it in the same season.

MSU LEADS SEC IN BLOCKED PUNTS/KICKS SINCE 2014

MSU has made it a priority under Dan Mullen to block kicks and punts. The Bulldogs are first in the SEC in blocked kicks and punts since 2014 with 14, including two this season by Jeffery Simmons at Louisiana Tech in Week 2. That tally is third in the nation since 2014. Simmons is tied for the second nationally this season. A full list of the 25 MSU's blocked punts and kicks since Mullen became coach:

Mullen is the only SEC coach to win the honor multiple times since the start of last season. Fitzgerald, who accounted for four touchdowns against the Tigers, became the first MSU player to claim Maxwell Award Player of the Week honors since Dak Prescott did so following a 48-31 win over No. 6 Texas A&M on Oct. 4, 2014.

Cleveland returns after suffering a torn ACL during 2016 preseason camp. Gray is one of two players on the squad who have already earned their undergraduate degrees, joining snapper Hunter Bradley. Gray graduated from MSU in December 2016 with a degree in sociology.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

MSU is known for spreading the wealth among its receivers/backs through the air in Dan Mullen's tenure. A total of 11 different players caught a pass in the season-opener, representing the most since 11 did so against Vanderbilt on Nov. 22, 2014. Ten players caught a pass against Alabama. Since Billy Gonzales took over as wide receivers coach in 2013, MSU has produced 13 games in which 10 or more players make catches and 36 games in which eight or more players make catches.

MULLEN THE SEC KING OF DEVELOPING NFL QB'S

No current SEC head coach has directly coached more current NFL starting quarterbacks than Dan Mullen. Three of Mullen's proteges started in the NFL, including Dallas' Dak Prescott, Kansas City's Alex Smith and Carolina's Cam Newton. Smith is having an MVP-like campaign. Prescott, a once three-star recruit, became the first MSU QB to start a game under center in the NFL in 2016 since Joe Reed of the Detroit Lions did so on Dec. 2, 1979. Prescott went on to become 2016 NFL Rookie of the Year and became the first Cowboys quarterback to reach the Pro Bowl as a rookie. Mullen coached veteran Alex Smith at Utah and Cam Newton for two seasons at Florida.

Current SEC Head Coaches who directly worked with current NFL QB starters:

Bret Bielema – Russell Wilson (2011, HC at Wisconsin)

Gus Malzahn – Cam Newton (2010, OC/QB at Auburn)

Dan Mullen – Alex Smith (2003-04, QB at Utah)

Cam Newton (2007-08, OC/QB at Florida)

Dak Prescott (2011-15, HC at MSU)

Kevin Sumlin – Case Keenum (2008-2011, HC at Houston)

MSU DOMINATES LSU IN SEC OPENER

For the first time since Oct. 23, 1999, MSU beat then-No. 11 LSU in Starkville as the Bulldogs throttled the Tigers in the SEC opener, 37-7.

• It was the largest margin of victory in the 111-year series history for MSU. The previous was +25 in a 25-0 blanking of the Tigers on Nov. 13,

1954 in Baton Rouge.

• It was the most points scored by MSU in a win over LSU since beating the Tigers 45-26 on Nov. 12, 1983 in Baton Rouge. It was also the fewest points allowed by MSU against the Tigers since the Bulldogs won 16-6 on Nov. 15, 1975 in Baton Rouge.

• The 285 rushing yards accumulated by MSU was the most allowed under defensive coordinator Dave Aranda (previous was by Alabama with 218 in 2016).

LARGEST MARGINS OF VICTORY OVER RANKED TEAMS

MSU's 37-7 blowout of then-No. 11 LSU was by a historic margin. It was the largest margin of victory over an Associated Press ranked team since State topped No. 12 Vanderbilt, 33-0, on Oct. 17, 1942. A look at the top three largest margins of victories over ranked teams in MSU history:

+33 - def. No. 12 Vanderbilt, 33-0, on Oct. 17, 1942 in Nashville

+30 - def. No. 11 LSU, 37-7, on Sept. 16, 2017 in Starkville

+28 - def. No. 15 Florida State, 55-27, on Oct. 14, 1978 in Starkville

DEFENSE CRACKS RECORD BOOKS IN SEASON OPENER

In a 49-0 blanking of Charleston Southern, MSU cracked the record books in the process:

• MSU tallied its first shutout since blanking Vanderbilt, 51-0, on Nov. 22, 2014. It was the third shutout of the Dan Mullen era. (Vanderbilt and Southern Miss in 2014)

• The Bulldogs allowed the fewest total yards per play in school history (0.7), breaking the previous mark of 1.35 vs. Howard College on Sept. 21, 1963 (a span of 19,705 days from Sept. 2).

• MSU allowed only 33 yards of total offense, the fewest allowed since 26 against Howard on Sept. 21, 1963.

• MSU held Charleston Southern to two first downs, the fewest since that Howard 1963 game. CSU also never crossed the 50-yard line.

• The Bulldogs recorded two safeties in the first half against CSU with Fletcher Adams involved in both. It was the first time MSU tallied a safety since Oct. 15, 2011, versus South Carolina and the first time the program had recorded multiple safeties in a game since Sept. 30, 2000 against Florida.

• The MSU defense held CSU to 18 rushing yards, representing the fewest allowed by MSU since Kentucky had two yards on Nov. 3, 2001.

MSU Dominant in All Phases in Opener, 49-0

MSU turned in one of the most dominant defensive performances in its history in shutting out FCS Charleston Southern, 49-0, in the season-opener. The Todd Grantham era opened with the Bulldogs' first shutout since 2014 as MSU held the Bucs to 0.7 yards per play, representing the fewest allowed in school history. Charleston managed only two first downs and 33 yards of total offense - the fewest allowed by MSU since 1963. The Bulldogs put up 23 points in the first quarter as Nick Fitzgerald capped the first drive with a 2-yard run. Fitzgerald then found Gabe Myles for an 8-yard score. For the first time since 2000, MSU tallied two safeties with both coming in the first half. Fletcher Adams, making his first career start, played a crucial role in both. The Bulldogs led 35-0 at the break when Fitzgerald hit Deddrick Thomas for a 10-yard score. Eleven different MSU players caught passes on the day, while MSU's rushing attack pounded out 281 yards. Fitzgerald accounted for three touchdowns before sitting most of the second half. Redshirt freshman Kobe Jones, playing in his first career game, finished with six tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss and one forced fumble. Jeffery Simmons recorded the first sack of his career, while Adams had 1.5 tackles for loss. Grantham's defense finished with 10 tackles for loss, while Charleston Southern never crossed the 50-yard line.

MSU Scores 36 Unanswered, Beats LA Tech, 57-21

Nick Fitzgerald accounted for five touchdowns as MSU rallied from a 9-0 deficit with 36 unanswered points to run past Louisiana Tech, 57-21, on a Saturday night in Ruston. Tech took advantage of a Fitzgerald interception and went up 9-0 with 6:46 to go in the first quarter. That is until defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons made his presence known with the first of two touchdowns on the night. Simmons skied into the air to block a punt and then recovered his own blocked punt in the endzone. Fitzgerald then found a groove, hitting Jordan Thomas and Donald Gray for touchdown passes on consecutive drives. Fitzgerald got into the scoring act himself with two spectacular touchdown runs to put MSU up 43-14 with 14:27 remaining in the third quarter. Simmons did it again, scooping up a Gerri Green forced fumble and returning it 90 yards for a touchdown on the ensuing drive. It was the longest fumble recovery score for the Bulldogs since 2000. Simmons finished with five tackles and became the first MSU defensive player with multiple scores in a game since Johnthan Banks had two against Florida in 2009. Green tallied two forced fumbles and two sacks, while Mark McLaurin was the Bulldogs' leading tackler with 10.

MSU Crushes No. 11 LSU in Most Dominant Win in Series History, 37-7

MSU handed No. 11 LSU its worst loss in the 111-year series history by a score of 37-7 in front of a raucous 60,596 on a Saturday night in Davis Wade Stadium. The win was the Bulldogs' first over the Tigers in Starkville since 1999 and it was MSU's largest margin of victory over a ranked opponent since 1942. Nick Fitzgerald accounted for four touchdowns, and Aeris Williams rushed for 146 yards - his second straight 100-yard game. The Bulldogs pounded out 285 yards on the ground, the most allowed by LSU under defensive coordinator Dave Aranda. MSU scored on seven consecutive drives. Fitzgerald had two first-half rushing scores, including a pivotal 3-yard dive with 0:07 remaining in the second quarter that put the Bulldogs up double digits and capped a 10-play, 54-yard drive. MSU outscored LSU 20-0 in the second half. Todd Grantham's defense held the Tigers to 3-of-13 on third down. LSU punted on three consecutive drives and turned it over on downs twice in the second half. Jeffery Simmons set the tone up front with a career-best seven tackle, 1.5 sacks and two quarterback hurries. Mark McLaurin collected a team-high nine tackles. Walk-on Jace Christmann also converted the first field goals of his career.

No. 13 Auburn Hands No. 24 MSU Second Straight Loss, 49-10

No. 13 Auburn used a 21-point first half and pitched a shutout in the second half to deal No. 24 Mississippi State its second straight loss by a score of 49-10 on Saturday night in Jordan-Hare Stadium. The Tigers took a 7-0 lead three minutes into the game and MSU looked to have tied the contest when Jeffery Simmons forced a fumble that was recovered by Montez Sweat, who returned it to the endzone. However, a whistle blew the play dead before the return. The Bulldogs managed to get the football back after the review, and Jace Christmann drilled a 40-yard field goal to put MSU on the board. Nick Fitzgerald engineered an 8-play, 77-yard drive before the half when he found Justin Johnson for a 5-yard touchdown to keep the Bulldogs within striking distance at 21-10. The back breaker came when the Tigers went 99 yards on their first possession of the second half after MSU had to punt on its first possession. Brandon Bryant was the Bulldogs' leading tackler with a career-best 11. Simmons had 1.5 tackles for loss and a sack. Sweat finished with three tackles and one sack.

MSU Gets Back to Winning Ways Against BYU, 35-10

The tandem of Nick Fitzgerald and Aeris Williams proved to be too much for BYU as Mississippi State returned to the win column with a 35-10 win on Saturday in Davis Wade Stadium in what was the first meeting between the two teams in Starkville since 2001. Fitzgerald and Williams went over 100 yards rushing in the same game for the fourth time in their careers. Fitzgerald finished with 344 yards of total offense and four touchdowns. The Bulldogs went on a season-long 89-yard drive to start the scoring that culminated with a 15-yard Fitzgerald TD run over a defender. After Fitzgerald threw an interception that was returned 67 yards to the MSU 33-yard line early in the second quarter, Jeffery Simmons came up with a crucial forced fumble that was recovered by Marquiss Spencer. State responded with a 74-yard drive, and Fitzgerald connected with Donald Gray for a 9-yard touchdown. Fitzgerald added another score before the half to put the Bulldogs up 21-3. Jamal Couch got into the scoring act on a throw into the corner of the endzone from Fitzgerald with 12:00 to play in the third quarter. The Bulldogs racked up 35 first downs, representing the most in the Dan Mullen era. Meanwhile, Mullen moved into a tie for second place in school victories with his 65th. J.T. Gray led all tacklers with eight, while Brandon Bryant recorded his first interception of the season.

MSU Blows Out Kentucky on Homecoming, 45-7

MSU, playing its first SEC opponent on Homecoming since 1999, avenged its loss to Kentucky a year ago by a score of 45-7 on Saturday in Davis Wade Stadium. Nick Fitzgerald had perhaps his most efficient game, completing a career-best 69.2 percent of his passes (18-of-26) and accounting for three touchdowns. He rushed for 115 yards and two scores against a Wildcat run defense that came in ranked 10th nationally allowing only 97.2 yards per game on the ground. Fitzgerald put the Bulldogs up for good when he turned a broken play into a 40-yard touchdown run right before the half. MSU took its first possession of the second half and ate up a season-long 7:53 on the clock before Fitzgerald found Jordan Thomas on a 10-yard quick slant touchdown with 7:07 to go in the third quarter. With MSU leading 24-7, backup QB Keytaon Thompson got into the scoring act for the first time in his career with rushing touchdowns of 9 and 40 yards in the fourth quarter. Gerri Green provided the highlight of the game when he intercepted UK QB Stephen Johnson and returned it 84 yards through traffic for a touchdown. Johnson was pressured all day as MSU racked up three sacks, including 1.5 from Montez Sweat. Sweat had a career-best seven tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss. Mark McLaurin led all tacklers with 11 and had a forced fumble.

Bulldogs Stifle No. 24 Texas A&M on Road, 35-14

MSU jumped on No. 24 Texas A&M early and often en route to a 35-14 win at Kyle Field, in what was the largest margin of victory over a ranked team on the road for the Bulldogs since 1942. Nick Fitzgerald accounted for 246 yards of total offense and three touchdowns, and he went over 100 yards rushing for the third straight game. Fitzgerald and the Bulldogs set the tone with a flawless drive of 16 plays and 86 yards in a season-long 8:13 that was capped on the QB's 2-yard keeper. In the second quarter, Mark McLaurin intercepted a Kellen Mond pass and MSU immediately capitalized. Fitzgerald raced 45 yards for a first down and then found Donald Gray for an 8-yard touchdown pass. The Bulldog defense pitched a shutout in the first half and intercepted a season-best three passes. The highlight came when Jamal Peters returned an interception 90 yards for a score, halting a potential Aggie scoring drive. Lashard Durr also delivered his first career interception. MSU limited A&M to 96 rushing yards and racked up two sacks, including two from Montez Sweat. Johnathan Abram and Leo Lewis led all Bulldog tacklers with eight. It was State's first victory in College Station since 1913 and just the fourth time the two teams have met at Kyle Field since that date.

Second-Half Rally Keeps No. 16 MSU Unbeaten At Home, 34-23

After trailing 20-13 at the half, No. 16 Mississippi State outscored UMass, 21-3 in the second half to win its fourth straight, 34-23, on Saturday in Davis Wade Stadium. With the Bulldogs clinging to a four-point lead, Dedrick Thomas provided the play of the game, returning a punt 83 yards for a touchdown with 5:00 remaining in the game. Thomas, filling in for an injured Donald Gray and Gabe Myles, was returning the first punts of his career. It was the fifth-longest return by a Bulldog in school history and longest in 19 years. Nick Fitzgerald and Aeris Williams went over 100 yards rushing, and Fitzgerald had two rushing scores. J.T. Gray put MSU on the board on UMass' first possession, stepping in front of a pass and returning it 58 yards for a touchdown. It was the third straight game that the Bulldogs recorded a pick-six. After allowing a few big plays in the first half, MSU's defense stepped up in the third and fourth quarters. Jeffery Simmons led the Bulldogs with eight tackles, while Gerri Green had 1.5 tackles for loss. Montez Sweat added a sack. State pounded out 254 yards on the ground in what was the first meeting between the two teams in Starkville.

Top-Ranked Alabama Escapes in 31-24 Thriller

No. 1 Alabama outscored No. 16 Mississippi State 14-3 in the fourth quarter as Jalen Hurts found DeVonta Smith for a 26-yard touchdown with 0:25 remaining to give the Tide a 31-24 win. One of the most raucous crowds in Davis Wade Stadium history saw the teams trade blows for three quarters. MSU became the first team to rush for three or more touchdowns against the Tide in the Nick Saban era. Two of those came from Aeris Williams. The Bulldogs dominated time of possession and kept Alabama's offense off the field for most of the game. Nick Fitzgerald orchestrated a 13-play drive that ate up 6:30 in the third quarter. His 2-yard score, running over a linebacker, put MSU up 21-17 with 6:03 left in the third. The Bulldogs then forced an Alabama punt and Jace Christmann connected for a 25-yard field goal with 14:13 to go. That's when the Tide made its move. After tying the game at 24 all, MSU went three-and-out but managed to stay alive when Alabama missed a 41-yard field goal off the left upright with 2:03 to go. The Bulldogs went three and out again before the tandem of Hurts and Calvin Ridley marched down the field. MSU had two final Hail Mary attempts, one that was called for pass interference and one that was thrown out of the endzone to end the game. Mark McLaurin was the Bulldogs' leading tackler with 11, including 1.5 sacks.
