'JACKS BEGIN 2018 CAMPAIGN AT SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE STALWART MISSISSIPPI STATE

THE KICKOFF

Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field in Starkville, Mississippi, will be the site of Stephen F. Austin football's opening tilt of the 2018 season as the Lumberjacks are set to take on the Bulldogs of Mississippi State at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 1. The season-opening non-conference affair serves as SFA's annual matchup with a Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) opponent and kicks off the Lumberjacks' 92nd season of football.

FOLLOWING THE LUMBERJACKS

Saturday's game at Mississippi State will be broadcast live on ESPNU and can be streamed everywhere via the ESPN app. Mike Couzens will provide play-by-play of the primetime national TV broadcast alongside color commentary from Kirk Morrison. Rob Meyers, the voice of the Lumberjacks, will have the call of the game on Q107.7 FM with Garrett Altier serving as an analyst. The radio broadcast will be available online at Q1077.com as well as through the Lumberjack Sports Network on the TuneIn app. Live stats will be available at HailState.com, complemented by Twitter updates from @SFA_Football.

INAUGURAL SEC MATCHUP

For the first time in its 92-year history, SFA will be facing an opponent from the heralded Southeastern Conference. The 'Jacks have taken on just one current SEC team - Texas A&M - but have not played the Aggies since Texas A&M joined the league in 2012. Saturday's game will mark just the fourth time SFA has taken on a current SEC opponent, going 0-3 against the Aggies. The 'Jacks last played at Texas A&M in their 2010 season opener while the Aggies were still competing in the Big 12 Conference. Often known as the gold standard in college football, the SEC can lay claim to nine of the last 12 FBS national championships and has had a conference member competing for a national title in 11 of the past 12 seasons. Mississippi State has been a member of the SEC since its inception in 1932.

HEADING BACK TO MISSISSIPPI 27 YEARS LATER

SFA's trip to Starkville, Mississippi, this weekend will mark the Lumberjacks' first time playing in the Magnolia State in 27 years. A non-conference game at Jackson State on Sept. 21, 1991 was SFA's last battle in the state of Mississippi. SFA is 3-3 all-time in the Magnolia State.

SFA IN SEASON OPENERS

The 'Jacks own a 47-9-5 (.544) all-time record in season openers as SFA begins 2018 against an FBS opponent for the third consecutive year. Including Saturday's road tilt, the 'Jacks have begun their season away from the comforts of Nacogdoches all but once since 2013. SFA will attempt to halt a five-year skid in season openers with the 'Jacks last opening weekend victory coming 49-14 inside Homer Bryce Stadium against Southwestern Oklahoma to start the 2012 season. Last season, SFA opened up its campaign by traveling northwest to Dallas to face the American Athletic Conference's SMU where the 'Jacks were handed a 58-14 loss. For the eighth time in program history and fourth since 2010, SFA will take on a current power five school.

'JACKS ON SEPT. 1

For the ninth time in program history, the 'Jacks will be playing on September 1. SFA owns a 4-3-1 (.563) record on the date with wins over McMurry University (82-6) in 2011, Henderson State (49-38) in 2005, Delta State (17-10) in 1984 and Prairie View A&M (37-6) in 1983. The 'Jacks played to a 10-10 tie at Youngstown State in their 1994 season opener on Sept. 1.

JEFF BYRD TAKES OVER REIGNS OF PROGRAM

On June 19, 2018, Jeff Byrd was named interim head coach of the team following the announcement of former head coach Clint Conque being placed on suspension pending an investigation into violations of university policy. Conque then resigned on Monday, August 6, 2018. Byrd enters his first season as interim head coach and second with the Lumberjack football program after serving as SFA's defensive coordinator during the 2017 season. Back in early March, Byrd was promoted to assistant head coach. A coaching veteran known for aggressive defensive play, Byrd has spent the last 15 seasons in the defensive coordinator role. Byrd came to Texas' oldest town after serving as the University of Tennessee at Martin's defensive coordinator for five seasons.

COACH BYRD RETURNS TO HOMELAND

A native of Southaven, Mississippi, which is approximately 2.5 hours northwest of Starkville, coach Byrd will be returning to his home state for Saturday's season opener. SFA's lead man will be guiding played the game. Pace led the team in receptions (53) and receiving yards (645) for the second consecutive season in 2017. He reached the 1,000-yard receiving mark last season in just 15 games played and has scored 13 touchdowns on 105 catches in his first two seasons at SFA.

WILKERSON TABBED AS PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN

Senior long snapper Chris Wilkerson was named preseason All-America First Team by both STATS FCS and the Phil Steele FCS Magazine. He enters his third season as the Lumberjacks' starting long snapper and is a true NFL prospect. Appearing in each of SFA's 22 games over the last two seasons, Wilkerson has reliable snaps on punts, field goals and extra points. He has played in a total of 32 games over the last three seasons.

PHIL STEELE FCS MAGAZINE NAMES WARD PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN

Junior safety Alize Ward, a preseason All-Southland Conference First Team selection as a defensive back and preseason All-Southland Second Team pick as an all-purpose player, was tabbed a preseason All-American Fourth Team member by the 2018 Phil Steele FCS Magazine. Ward made the second-most tackles (75) on the team a year ago and led the 'Jacks with 40 solo stops. He picked off four passes and racked up 122 interception return yards for the second-most in the Southland. As SFA's main kickoff return man in 2017, Ward was one of the primary reasons the 'Jacks set a single-season program record and ranked third nationally, second in the Southland, in yards per kickoff return (26.5). Ward's 25 yards per kickoff return average last season was 13th-best in the nation and second-best among all kickoff returners in the conference. He accumulated 726 yards on 29 kickoff returns for the fourth-most in a single season in school history and had three different games with over 100 kickoff return yards.

FIVE 'JACKS CLAIM PRESEASON ALL-SOUTHLAND HONORS

Along with Ward, four other 'Jacks picked up preseason All-Southland nods. Pace and senior punter Caleb Lewallen were both tabbed as preseason All-Southland Second Team offense picks, while senior linebacker Ryan Woods and sophomore safety Trenton Gordon were placed on the preseason All-Southland Second Team defense. Lewallen totaled 2,935 yards on 75 punts in 2017 as SFA's starting punter and kickoff specialist. Behind Lewallen's leg, the 'Jacks ranked 25th nationally and third in the Southland in net punting (37.7 YPP) last season. His 39.1 yards per punt was the seventh-best average in the Southland as he landed five punts inside opponents' 20-yard line and had five punts of 50 yards or farther. Woods had a breakout season last fall, starting the final seven games and making 55 total tackles to tie for the fifth-most on the team. He posted 24 unassisted tackles, made 5.5 tackles for loss, broke up a pass, had a quarterback hurry and recovered a fumble. Woods looks to continue where he left off in 2018 after claiming five or more tackles in six different games last year and collecting 10 or more stops in the last two games of the season. The Lumberjacks' leading tackler in 2017 as a true freshman, Gordon wasted no time in making his impact in the league. Gordon led SFA with 76 total tackles, including the second-most solo stops (39). Ranking ninth in the league in tackles per game (7.6), Gordon posted 1.5 tackles for loss and recovered a fumble while tallying a career-high 11 tackles on three different occasions.

SFA PICKED TO FINISH SIXTH IN THE SOUTHLAND

For the second-straight year, SFA was chosen sixth in the Southland's annual preseason poll as voted upon by the league's head coaches and sports information directors. The 'Jacks picked up 90 total points from head coaches and SID's votes, finishing just above seventh-place Abilene Christian in the poll and edging the Wildcats by a single point. SFA went 4-7 overall last fall and 4-5 in Southland play, tying for sixth in the league's final standings. The 'Jacks started conference play 2-0 in 2017, defeating UIW at home and ACU on the road before later posting convincing wins over Houston Baptist and Lamar. This fall, SFA looks to continue its recent success against in-state opponents after going 4-1 against FCS opposition in 2017, marking the first time since 1989 the 'Jacks claimed four victories over FCS Texas foes in the same season. Last season also marked the first time since 1995 SFA recorded four wins over Lone Star State schools in the same year. The 'Jacks are attempting to reach the FCS playoffs for the first time since 2014.

JEFF BYRD

INTERIM HEAD COACH

Second Season at SFA (First as interim head coach) | Southern Miss, 1989

Jeff Byrd enters his first season as interim head coach and second as the Lumberjacks' defensive coordinator, overseeing SFA's overall defensive scheme. A coaching veteran known for aggressive defensive play, Byrd has spent the last 15 seasons in the defensive coordinator role. Byrd came to Nacogdoches after serving as the University of Tennessee at Martin's defensive coordinator for five seasons.

Coach Byrd brought immediate success to SFA's defensive unit in his first year as the Lumberjacks' lead man on that side of the ball. After ranking last in the league in both scoring and pass defense and 10th in total defense in 2016, Byrd guided the SFA defensive unit to finish seventh in the Southland Conference in all three categories in 2017. For the sixth-consecutive season as a defensive coordinator, Byrd's defense held opponents to fewer than 30 points per game. SFA ranked fifth in the league in red zone defense as opponents scored less than 80 percent of time when reaching the Lumberjacks' 20-yard line. In conference play, the 'Jacks held opponents to 24 points per game, ranking fourth in the league, and allowed just 210 passing yards per game to finish fifth in the Southland in that category.

Three of Byrd's players claimed All-Southland accolades in 2017 as senior defensive end John Franklin and sophomore safety Alize Ward were second-team selections and junior defensive tackle Lamont Alexander claimed honorable mention. Franklin registered the fifth-most tackles for loss in Southland play (11.5) and averaged 1.2 tackles for loss per game on the season to rank 42nd nationally. He completed his Lumberjack career fifth on SFA's all-time career tackles for loss list with 37.5, while finishing ninth in program history in all-time career sacks (17.5). With the 135th overall pick in the fourth round of the 2018 NFL Draft, the Los Angeles Rams selected Franklin as he became SFA's 33rd NFL Draft pick and the first since 2011. The 15th defensive end taken in the 2018 NFL Draft, Franklin was the Lumberjacks' highest pick in 20 years. Ward was SFA's biggest playmaker last season, recording four interceptions in league play to rank second in the Southland and racking up 122 interception return yards for second-most in the conference. He ranked 18th nationally in passes defended per game (1.3) and 32nd in interceptions per game (0.4).

During his five seasons at UT Martin, Byrd was part of a Skyhawk staff which registered an overall record of 35-23, holding opponents to less than 30 points per game in four of those five seasons. UT Martin also earned a reputation as one of the top defensive teams in the Ohio Valley Conference, ranking among the league's leader in total defense in each of his five seasons. Byrd's 2016 UT Martin defense was one of the best not only in the OVC, but nationally as well. The Skyhawks allowed just 24 points per game, ranking second in the conference and 17th nationally, limiting opponents to 128.3 rushing yards and 194.1 passing yards, both second in the conference behind national powerhouse Jacksonville State. Where UT Martin really made its mark was on turnovers, ranking seventh nationally with 28 takeaways in 2016. The Skyhawks registered 17 interceptions and 11 fumble recoveries, scoring six defensive touchdowns on the season, second only to New Hampshire's seven on a national level.

During his time in Tennessee, Byrd mentored over a dozen All-OVC performers, including All-Americans Tony Bell and Ben Johnson. Bell earned All-America honors in both 2013 and 2014, setting a school record with 22.5 sacks, while Johnson led the OVC in tackles, sacks and tackles for loss in 2013.

Prior to joining the staff at UT Martin, Byrd spent three seasons at Arkansas Tech, serving as the Wonder Boys' defensive coordinator from 2009-11. Byrd's defense ranked in the top-25 nationally in back-to-back seasons, allowing just 86.4 rushing yards per game in 2009.

Byrd spent four seasons as the defensive coordinator at Southern Arkansas from 2005-08, coaching 13 All-Gulf South Conference performers during that span. Under his leadership, the Muleriders were one of the nation's best against the rush, finishing 18th nationally in 2008 by allowing just 96.8 yards per game.

Byrd's first stint as a defensive coordinator came at Northwest Mississippi College, where he spent two seasons with the Rangers in 2003 and 2004. Byrd's tough defensive scheme helped Northwest Mississippi rank fourth nationally in 2003, allowing just 71.6 rushing yards per game and only 212 total yards per game in 2004. Byrd's collegiate coaching career also includes stops at Mars Hill College in North Carolina (2000-02), serving as the school's co-offensive coordinator, as
