WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE: Ole Miss holds its weekly fall press conference each Monday of the regular season at 11:15 a.m. CT in the Burns Team Meeting Room at the Manning Center. Various Ole Miss coaches and staff will take the podium first and will be followed by Coach Matt Luke at approximately 11:30 a.m. Defensive coordinator Wesley McGriff and offensive coordinator Phil Longo will follow Coach Luke at the podium. Members of the media unable to attend the Monday press conference may participate via the telephone beginning at 11:30 a.m. The number for the two-way teleconference may be obtained by contacting the Athletics Communications office. The press conference is streamed live on SEC Network+.

PLAYER/ASSISTANT INTERVIEWS: Coordinators will take part in the Monday press conference. Select players and assistant coaches will be available after practice on Tuesday. Coach Luke and select players will be available after practice on Wednesday. All media interviews will be held in the team meeting room. There is no availability on Thursday or Friday.

PRACTICES: All practices are closed to the public and open to media for select periods on Tuesdays. Media are forbidden from reporting (e.g. tweeting, blogging, etc.) on anything related to practice until the post-practice interviews. This includes media who leave practice early. On available days, media will be alerted which periods are available for video. Live video is prohibited, and use of footage from practices must be limited to three minutes per day. Videographers and photographers must use tight shots and not formations. If you have not previously attended practices, please contact the Communications office for prior approval and daily alerts on practice locations and times.

AUDIO/VIDEO RESTRICTIONS: Press conferences, media opportunities, practices and any form of competition may not be broadcast live, including Facebook Live and related media, without prior consent of the athletics department. Use of footage from practices is limited to three minutes per day. This includes content attained via FTP, which should be credited to Ole Miss Sports Productions. Ole Miss offers free FTP downloads of practice footage, interviews and game highlights for television stations to use during regularly scheduled news/sportscasts. To access the Ole Miss FTP site, please contact Seth Austin with Ole Miss Sports Productions at saustin@olemiss.edu or 662-816-3436.

WEEKDAY PARKING: Parking permits are required for everyone on campus Monday through Friday between 7:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. Media that plan to regularly attend practices, press conferences and other on-campus events may purchase a Vendor Permit from Campus Parking (www.olemiss.edu/parking), which is good for the full academic year. Those without parking permits are advised to park in a metered spot in the east lot of the Manning Center and feed the meter. Day passes are also available online at www.olemiss.edu/parking/visitors.html.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Per NCAA rule, images or likeness of current student-athletes may not be sold, distributed or used for commercial purposes.

WORKING CREDENTIALS: To request game credentials, go to Ole Miss' online credentialing site: www.sportssystem.com/OleMiss. Credential requests must be made as early as possible by the sports director of each media outlet and are limited to those media who will be attending the game in a working capacity. Media must agree to the SEC Media Policy before requesting credentials. Media credentials are allotted on the following basis: 1) daily newspapers; 2) network affiliate television stations; 3) websites whose primary purpose is to gather and disseminate news and who have an affiliation with a nationally recognized media entity/network; 4) magazines, weekly newspapers and non-broadcast radio stations. All season credential requests need to be submitted by August 18. Credential demands are heavy, and we hope you understand the space limitations we must deal with each year. For those of you who are not credentialed for all of the games you requested, we hold onto your request and will contact you if space becomes available on a game-by-game basis. Media wishing to cover the Cal game on Sept. 16 should email their credential request to Daniel Snowden at desnowde@olemiss.edu.

GAMEDAY DRIVING DIRECTIONS: Media traveling to campus should take the Chucky Mullins Drive exit off of Highway 6 and travel north toward the 4-way stop. Those with garage parking passes should turn right onto Hill Drive, and those with Tad Smith Coliseum passes should continue straight on Chucky Mullins Drive. Both lots are located on the right side of their respective streets.

GAMEDAY PARKING: Gameday media parking is located in two locations: 1) garage adjacent to The Pavilion; and 2) lot near Tad Smith Coliseum. Media should check their pass to indicate for which lot they are designated. For passes marked for the garage, each pass is for a specific numbered parking spot. Cars parked in the wrong spot will be towed. Passes marked for Tad Smith Coliseum are for a lot located west of the old arena.

MEDIA GATE: Media will enter Gate 35 on the west side of the stadium beginning three and a half (3.5) hours prior to kickoff. The media will-call table will be located there, and photographers will exchange their photo ticket for an armband at this location. Parking passes may not be picked up at media will-call and must be requested at least seven days prior to gameday to ensure delivery.

RECRUITS: Media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect – from when they check in until after they have checked out or concluded their visit and are no longer inside our facilities. Media are also forbidden from having direct contact with the prospects' family members who are present at the visit. In addition, media may not be present during any recruiting contact and may not video or photograph a prospect during a visit.

During his 23 years as a player and coach at the collegiate level, Luke has risen through the ranks while learning from a number of successful veteran coaches. He has worked alongside national champion Tennessee coach Phillip Fulmer, Duke head coach David Cutcliffe and former Ole Miss head coach Tommy Tuberville, among others. On the field, he has mentored 17 all-league selections as well as All-Americans and first-round draft picks Laremy Tunsil and Laken Tomlinson. Luke, a four-year center for the Rebels (1995-98), spent the past five seasons as the team's co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

THE START OF THE GOLDEN EGG

The Golden Egg was first proposed by members of Sigma Iota, an Ole Miss honorary society in 1927. Sigma Iota proposed that a trophy be awarded in a dignified ceremony designed to calm excited fans, after Ole Miss fans stormed the field at Starkville's Scott Field following the Rebels' 7-6 win in the 1926 contest. The 1926 win snapped a 13-game losing streak to then-Mississippi A&M, and was just Ole Miss' fifth win in 23 tries. Following the game, Ole Miss fans made a dash for the goal posts, while Aggie fans took after them with cane bottom chairs and fights broke out. The mayhem continued until most of the chairs were splintered. After Sigma Iota made its proposal, Mississippi A&M approved the suggestion, and Ole Miss, two weeks before the game, officially added its approval. The trophy, to be called "The Golden Egg," would be a regulation-size gold-plated football mounted on a pedestal. Cost approximately $250 would be shared by both schools. On Thanksgiving Day, 1927, the first "Battle of the Golden Egg" was waged before a crowd of 14,000 in Oxford. The Rebels won 20-12 and the symbol of supremacy in the series was born.

ORIGINS OF THE NAME

The term "Egg Bowl" can be traced back to 1978, when Executive Sports Editor of The Clarion-Ledger Tom Patterson decided to spice up the 1978 meeting. A year earlier, the Clarion-Ledger headline on game day had been "Egg Bowl Is Up For Scramble." With the Rebels and the Bulldogs 6-4 both apparently out of the bowl picture heading into the 1978 game, Patterson instructed his staff to follow the "Egg Bowl" theme throughout the week. The result was a special section on Sunday, which recounted in great detail the Rebels' stunning 27-7 victory. While the game is still officially the "Battle of the Golden Egg," most members of the media now refer to the annual game simply as the "Egg Bowl."

DEGREES IN HAND

Earning a degree from the University of Mississippi is one of the top priorities for Ole Miss student-athletes. Seven current Rebels have already accomplished that goal with eligibility remaining this fall.

“EGG BOWL” FACTS

- This will be the 29th time the series has been played on Thanksgiving Day ... Ole Miss holds a 16-12 advantage in Thanksgiving games, including a 8-4 mark in games played in Starkville.
- This game is the 114th meeting of one of the nation’s most-played rivalries ... Ole Miss holds a 63-44-6 advantage in the series dating back to 1901.
- Saturday’s game will be the 90th “Battle of the Golden Egg,” as the two schools started playing for the trophy in 1927 ... Ole Miss holds a 57-27-5 advantage in the “Egg Bowl.”
- Ole Miss has a 21-14-3 record in games played in Starkville.
- Since 2004, the home team has won every game but three (Mississippi State won 31-23 in Oxford in 2010, Ole Miss won 38-27 in 2015 in Starkville, Mississippi State won 55-20 in Oxford last season).
- Neither team has won more than three in a row in the series since Ole Miss reeled off four straight from 1983-86.
- Including a pair of forfeit victories, Ole Miss posted a 38-7-2 record versus MSU from 1944-1990.
- The Rebels own the four longest separate winning streaks in the series (nine, six, six and five games).
- From 1947 through 1963, the Rebels posted a 15-0-2 mark against MSU ... That means a child born in December 1946 was a senior in high school before they saw Ole Miss lose to the Bulldogs.
- The first “Battle for the Golden Egg” in 1927 marked the beginning of nine straight wins for the Rebels over MSU.

STARKVILLE REBEL

WR A.J. Brown, a Starkville, Mississippi, native and a 2017 Biletnikoff Award semifinalist, is having a historic sophomore campaign as he leads the SEC and ranks seventh nationally in receiving yards per game (98.6) and is tops in the SEC in touchdowns (10). Brown’s 1,085 receiving yards currently ranks third all-time in a single season for an Ole Miss receiver, just 69 yards shy of all-time mark (Laquon Treadwell - 1,153 yards - 2015). Brown’s five 100-yard receiving games this season ranks second in the single-season record books for 100-yard games, just one shy of Laquon Treadwell’s mark of six set during the 2015 season. Brown moved into fifth place on the single-season record books in receptions (69). Earlier in the year, the Starkville, Mississippi, native hauled in eight receptions for 233 yards and two scores vs. South Alabama, breaking Eddie Small’s Ole Miss record of 210 receiving yards set versus Vanderbilt in 1993.

- Single-Season Receiving Yards: 3rd - 1,085
- Single-Season Receptions: 5th - 69
- Single-Season Receiving Touchdowns: 2nd - 10

WUNDERLICH MOVING UP CAREER CHARTS

K Gary Wunderlich continues to work his way up several Ole Miss career record lists. Wunderlich is currently tied for the top spot on the Ole Miss all-time career record books in points scored field goals made (63). At 343 career points, he is just one point from tying Ole Miss’ all-time record in points scored and points kicking, held by Johnathan Nichols (2001-04). Wunderlich is all just one successful PAT away from tying for most PATs made in school history. Wunderlich tallied three field goals vs. Kentucky, including tying his career-long of 49 yards. It was the ninth time in his career he’s recorded three FGs in a game.

EENY, MEENY, MINY, MOE

The Ole Miss receiving corps has been a nightmare for opposing defenses this season. Ole Miss is just one of two FBS teams to have three receivers with six or more TD receptions. A.J. Brown, D.K. Metalf, and Damarkus Lodge all rank in the top 11 in the SEC in receptions per game. Brown leads the SEC and ranks seventh nationally in receiving yards per game (98.6) and is eighth nationally in touchdowns (10), while fellow wideout Lodge is fourth in the SEC with seven TDs. The Rebels have had at least one 100-yard receiver in seven of the 11 games this season. They’ve had two 100-yard receivers twice.

NEXT MAN UP

Jordan Ta’amu, who officially took over as the Ole Miss starting quarterback in week eight after Shea Patterson was lost for the season, has stormed onto the scene and helped the Rebel offense not lose a beat. In his four starts at QB, Ta’amu has averaged 339.3 yards passing per game, while accounting for 13 touchdowns; nine through the air and four on the ground. After passing for 418 yards in win over Louisiana during week 11, Ta’amu became only the second-ever Ole Miss QB in program history to throw for 350 or more yards in three-straight games. The only other instance came earlier in this season when QB Shea Patterson did so during the first three games of the 2017 season. Ole Miss is just the fourth FBS team in the last 20 seasons to have two quarterbacks throw for 350 yards or more in at least three games in a season. Ta’amu’s 418 passing yards vs. the Ragin’ Cajuns was the sixth-best passing performance in Ole Miss history.

TACKLING MACHINE

Senior LB DeMarquis Gates has been an anchor on the Ole Miss defense the last three seasons. Gates, a watch list candidate for the Butkus Award, currently leads the team and ranks second in the SEC with 101 total tackles. Gates is the first Rebel to reach the 100-tackle mark since Patrick Willis did it in 2006. His 5.9 solo tackles per game are an SEC best and rank ninth nationally. Gates is looking to become the first Rebel to lead in tackles for three straight years since Abdul Jackson did it from 1992-94. He has recorded double-digit tackles in six games this season.

THE YOUTH MOVEMENT

The Rebels have leaned heavily on underclassmen to help provide depth to a 2017 Ole Miss squad. Just over 58 percent of players listed on the Ole Miss depth chart are underclassmen, the highest percentage in the SEC. Freshmen and sophomores have accounted for 63.3 percent (3,941 of 6,220) of Ole Miss' all-purpose yards.

FINAL CAMPAIGN FOR SACK-MASTER HAYNES

Haynes' career sack record total of 32.0 sits atop of the all-time record book ahead of Greg Hardy (26.5) and is second in the NCAA amongst active players. His 46.5 TFLs are tops in Ole Miss history, passing former Rebel DE Derrick Burgess (42.0). Haynes led the Rebels in sacks as a freshman (7.5), sophomore (10.0) and junior (7.0). The Jacksonville, Florida, native is a unanimous preseason All-SEC first-team pick and made watch lists for the Bednarik, Nagurski, Hendricks and Lott IMPACT awards.

LANDSHARK

At Ole Miss, Landshark is a term that was first adopted by the Rebel football team's defensive unit. As part of that identity, defensive players celebrate big plays by putting a hand to their forehead in the shape of a shark fin. A battle cry of "Fins Up" also contributes to the players' persona. With the popularity of both the players and the hand gesture, Ole Miss fans and student-athletes from other sports embraced the spirit of the Landshark, and in October 2017, the university announced the Landshark as the official mascot of the Ole Miss Rebels. The Landshark mascot is expected to be unveiled before the 2018 season.

Roots of the Landshark at Ole Miss date back to 2008. After four straight losing seasons, the Rebel football team returned to national prominence with a 9-4 record and a victory over 7th-ranked Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl. Leading the charge was a defensive squad that ranked fourth in the nation in rushing defense and included All-American Peria Jerry and eventual All-SEC standout Jerrell Powe.

The term Landshark originated that season from senior linebacker Tony Fein, an Army veteran who served a one-year tour in the Iraq War before arriving in Oxford. A two-year letterman after transferring from Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College, Fein was the 2008 recipient of the Pat Tillman Award by the Military Order of the Purple Heart. Fein passed away in October 2009, but his legacy at Ole Miss continues through the Landshark.

COACH MATT LUKE

Matt Luke was born a Rebel. His family has ties to Ole Miss that span three generations. Now, he has achieved a lifelong dream by taking over the reins of his alma mater. On July 20, 2017, Ole Miss announced Luke as interim head coach, making him the 38th head coach in program history

During his 23 years as a player and coach at the collegiate level, Luke has risen through the ranks while learning from a number of successful veteran coaches. He has worked alongside national champion Tennessee coach Phillip Fulmer, Duke head coach David Cutcliffe and former Ole Miss head coach Tommy Tuberville, among others. On the field, he has mentored 17 all-league selections as well as All-Americans and first-round draft picks Laremy Tunsil and Laken Tomlinson.

Luke, a four-year center for the Rebels (1995-98), enters his 10th season as a coach at Ole Miss. He spent the past five seasons as the team's co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. During his first stop in Oxford (2002-05), Luke served four seasons coaching the Ole Miss tight ends and offensive line under Cutcliffe.

Since returning to Oxford in 2012, Luke has helped the Rebels earn a bowl berth in four seasons, including a 10-3 record and Sugar Bowl victory to cap the 2015 season.

A former Rebel player and assistant coach, Luke spent the previous four seasons as Duke's offensive coordinator/running game while coaching the offensive line. His line ranked among the ACC's top five in fewest sacks allowed throughout his tenure, including finishing third in 2009 and 2010.

Luke came to Duke following two seasons at Tennessee where he served as recruiting coordinator while coaching the tight ends and assisting with the offensive line. During his two-year stay (2006-07) in Knoxville, the Volunteers went 19-8 with an SEC Eastern Division championship and two appearances in the Outback Bowl.

On the recruiting front, Tennessee's 2007 class was rated third-best nationally by Rivals.com and fourth-best in the country by Scout.com.

A native of Gulfport, Mississippi, Luke lettered four seasons (1995-98) as a center at Ole Miss. A starter in 33 career games for the Rebels, he served as team captain in 1998 as Ole Miss posted a 7-5 ledger and defeated Texas Tech in the Independence Bowl. He was named the 1998 Ole Miss Most Valuable Senior by the Jackson (Miss.) Touchdown Club and twice earned Academic All-SEC honors.

Following his playing career, he served as a student assistant coach at Ole Miss in 1999, helping the Rebels to an 8-4 mark with regular-season wins against Auburn, South Carolina, LSU and Arkansas as well as a 27-25 triumph over Oklahoma in the Independence Bowl. He graduated in May 2000 with a degree in business administration.

Luke then spent two years (2000-01) coaching the offensive line at Murray State before returning to his alma mater to guide the Rebel tight ends and offensive line for four seasons (2002-05). Ole Miss won two bowl games during that stretch, defeating Nebraska in the Independence Bowl to close the 2002 season and upending Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl a year later to cap a 10-3 campaign that included a share of the SEC Western Division championship.

LAST MEETING: MISSISSIPPI STATE 55, OLE MISS 20

Game #12 • Nov. 26, 2016
Attendance: 66,038 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. -- Ole Miss dropped the 113th all-time meeting with Mississippi State 55-20 in the annual Battle for the Golden Egg Saturday.

Freshman quarterback Shea Patterson threw for 320 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while senior running back Akeem Judd added 107 yards on the ground in front of 66,038 fans in Vaught Hemingway Stadium. It marked the second-largest crowd in school history and put the Ole Miss season attendance at 454,368, which is a school record.

The Rebels jumped out to an early 3-0 lead after Gary Wunderlich booted a 24-yard field goal just over four minutes into the game. MSU responded with a 16-yard TD run from Aeris Williams with 5:48 remaining in the opening quarter to take a 6-3 lead after the extra point attempted failed.

Ole Miss answered back on the ensuing drive with a 19-yard touchdown catch by Damore'ea Stringfellow from Patterson to give the Rebels a 10-6 lead with 3:56 left, but the Bulldogs scored on an eight-yard TD pass from quarterback Nick Fitzgerald to hold a 13-10 lead after the first quarter.

The Rebel defense allowed no more touchdowns to open the second quarter, as Ole Miss fell behind 27-10 before Patterson found Stringfellow once again, this time from 25 yards out, to pull to within 27-17 with 4:47 left before halftime. After the Ole Miss Landshark defense forced an MSU three-and-out, Wunderlich booted his second field goal, this one from 38 yards, to cut the Bulldog lead to 27-20 heading into the half.

Fitzgerald found Fred Ross on fourth-and-three from the Ole Miss 38 over the middle for a 38-yard touchdown catch that extended the MSU lead to 34-20 with 5:22 left in the third quarter. The Bulldogs tacked on two more scores in the fourth quarter for the final score of 55-20.

LAST GAME: TEXAS A&M 31, OLE MISS 24

Game #11 • Nov. 18, 2017
Attendance: 55,880 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - The opportunities for Ole Miss to grab a win over Texas A&M on senior night were tangible, sitting there in front of them. But penalties and a sputtering offense prevented them from doing so in a 31-24 loss to the Aggies in the season's penultimate game.

A pace that started out so rapid that each team scored two touchdowns in the first 11 minutes of the game, slowed considerably after that. Each team scored on its first two drives. Ole Miss by way of a seven play, 70 yard drive capped off by a 27 yard touchdown pass from Jordan Ta'amu to A.J. Brown, and a 64 yard Jordan Wilkins touchdown rush on the first play of its second drive.

Ta'amu was 19-34 for 189 yards and two touchdowns on the night. Wilkins had 147 yards and a score on 19 carries. 123 of those came in the first half.

A&M answered each one with two 75 plus yard drives of their own. The score was quickly 14-14 just over ten minutes in. Things slowed after that. Each team scored one more touchdown apiece and a Gary Wunderlich 28 yard field goal with a few seconds left in the second quarter gave Ole Miss a 24-21 halftime lead.

The second half is really when the pace of the game fully evolved. Ole Miss totaled 325 yards in the first half and just 66 in the second. Texas A&M had only 91 yards of offense in the second half alone, but won the game on a late field goal and a Derrick Tucker pick six of Ta'amu in the third quarter. Ta'amu was flushed out of the pocket on the heels of his own end zone. He threw it across the middle, Tucker stepped in front of it and took off towards the end zone. It proved costly for Ole Miss.

Perhaps the strangest part of the loss is how the Rebel defense fared against the run. The unit has struggled mightily against the ground game in each of the previous 10 games, but tonight allowed just 119 yards on 44 rushes. Texas A&M's Travis Ford picked up 43 of those on his first carry. Ole Miss yielded just 76 yards on the next 43 Aggie attempts.

OLE MISS 47, SOUTH ALABAMA 27

Game #1 • Sept. 2, 2017

Attendance: 62,532 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - Ole Miss blitzed South Alabama in the second half en route to a 47-27 win over the Jaguars to deliver Matt Luke his first career victory as a head coach.

The Rebels started fast with 10 quick points in the first 13 minutes of the game, but endured a sluggish end to the first half that saw South Alabama climb back into the game at 13-10.

The story of the second half - at least the early portion of it - was A.J. Brown and Shea Patterson. The two hooked up for a pair of long touchdown passes in the first two drives of the half from 71 and 77 yards, respectively. Brown had 8 receptions for 233 yards and the two touchdowns. Patterson finished the game 28 of 35 for 429 yards and four scores. He threw all over the Jaguars in a strong opening performance for the sophomore quarterback who is the centerpiece of Phil Longo's offense.

Brown broke the school record for receiving yards in a game. He and Patterson connected on a lot of broken plays when Patterson was flushed out of the pocket. It is a byproduct of their timing together and being on the same page.

Brown was one of seven Rebels to record catches on the day as the most explosive element of the Ole Miss offense dominated South Alabama's secondary.

DaMarkus Lodge had five receptions for 51 yards and a pair of touchdowns. D.K. Metcalf caught eight balls for 84 yards on the night.

Ole Miss kept pouring it on after the two early second half strikes between Patterson and Brown. Jaylon Jones took a kickoff 97 yards for a score to give Ole Miss a 33-13 lead midway through the third quarter. Lodge followed that with the second of his touchdown catches that put the game out of reach at 40-13.

OLE MISS 47, UT MARTIN 27

Game #2 • Sept. 9, 2017

Attendance: 60,476 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. -- An early kickoff was accompanied by a sluggish start for Ole Miss, but it persevered to a 45-23 win over UT Martin to improve to 2-0 on the season.

The Rebels finished the game in a much more appealing fashion than they started. UT-Martin jumped out to a 9-0 lead early on behind a rushing attack that tallied 67 yards in the opening quarter. Ole Miss was stopped on its opening drive, but the offense quickly gelled after that. Shea Patterson found A.J. Brown for a 58-yard touchdown pass. UT Martin answered that with a score of their own to go up 16-7.

Ole Miss proceeded to score 31 consecutive points after that highlighted by a 21-point third quarter in which the offense scored on every drive. Patterson found Brown on a two-yard touchdown pass for a second time just before halftime to give the Rebels a 17-16 lead.

For a second consecutive week, the Rebels hit the ground running in the second half. Jordan Wilkins completed a nine play, 80-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown rush on the first drive of the second half.

Both Brown and Lodge had touchdown catches on the day and both surpassed the 100-yard mark by the third quarter. Brown caught eight balls for 156 yards while Lodge had 6 receptions for a career-high 133 yards.

Ole Miss continued to show how dynamic it can be in the passing game. Patterson threw for 489 yards and five scores. He broke the school record for passing yards in a single game, completed 74.4 percent of his throws and threw passes to nine different receivers. Four different receivers caught touchdown passes.

CALIFORNIA 27, OLE MISS 16

Game #3 • Sept. 16, 2017
Attendance: 37,125 • Memorial Stadium • Berkeley, Calif.

BERKELEY, Calif. - Ole Miss faced adversity from multiple angles, and fell short in the second half in a 27-16 loss to Cal.

Nothing came easy for the Rebels in California after a fast start.

Shea Patterson and the offense marched the football down the field on the team's opening possession and settled for a Gary Wunderlich field goal. The senior kicker injured his hamstring shortly after and would not return to the game after missing an extra point later in the half.

Two drives later, Cal cashed in on a Patterson interception and took a 7-3 lead. That evaporated in the blink of an eye after Patterson found DaMarkus Lodge for a 72-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the ensuing drive. It was the first of two long touchdown passes as Patterson hit D.K. Metcalf in stride for a 71-yard score in the second quarter that pushed the Rebels' lead to 16-7.

C.J. Moore had two interceptions in the second quarter that kept Cal off of the scoreboard and gave the Rebels a 16-7 heading into the half.

The third quarter was not kind to Ole Miss as Cal outscored the Rebels 10-0 and took a 17-16 lead highlighted by a Ross Bowers 23-yard touchdown pass to Vic Wharton III on the Bears' opening possession of the half.

Penalties thwarted Ole Miss' momentum for much of the night, but particularly in the third quarter. The team was penalized 16 times for 113 yards in the game.

A bulk of the penalties were shouldered by the offensive line, who had to shift around after it lost veteran center Sean Rawlings to an ankle sprain in the first half. Luke did not know how long he will be out, but anticipated it being a couple of weeks.

Patterson was flushed out of the pocket often and was forced to try to extend plays with his feet. The offense sputtered for much of the second half as a result. The Rebels mustered just 131 yards in the second half. Cal had 201 by comparison.

#1/1 ALABAMA 66, OLE MISS 3

Game #4 • Sept. 30, 2017
Attendance: 101,821 • Bryant-Denny Stadium • Tuscaloosa, Ala.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - Alabama proved why it is the most dominant team SEC in more ways than one in its 66-3 win over Ole Miss. After the two teams exchanged three-and-outs to begin the game, Alabama took control in every facet of the game. Bo Scarbrough opened up the scoring with a six-yard touchdown rush. Levi Wallace made it 14-0 less than a minute later when he picked off a Shea Patterson pass and returned it 35 yards for a touchdown.

Gary Wunderlich added a 26-yard field goal to make it 14-3, getting the Rebels on the board. The Rebels' tumultuous opening quarter was capped off by the first of two Jalen Hurts touchdown passes, this one to tight end Hale Hentges that capped off an 85-yard drive. Hurts hit Josh Jacobs for an 18-yard score a short time later and capped off the half with a rushing touchdown to give the Crimson Tide a 35-3 lead at the break.

Alabama cruised the remainder of the way and piled on 31 second half-points. Hurts was 12-19 for 197 yards and two touchdowns. He rushed for 101 yards and compiled a passer rating of 185. Ole Miss struggled to find a rhythm offensively for much of the night, largely due to Alabama's pass rush that repeatedly flushed Shea Patterson out of the pocket and sacked him five times. Patterson was 14 for 29 on the night and threw for 165. Ole Miss was 0-13 on third down.

Jordan Wilkins had his best game of the 2017 season in a night where Ole Miss rushed the football with more effectiveness than it did in the first three games. The senior running back tallied 101 yards on 12 carries and broke runs of 21 and 44 yards. D.K. Metcalf led all receivers with three catches for 46 yards.

#12 AUBURN 44, OLE MISS 23

Game #5 • Oct. 7, 2017
Attendance: 86,700 • Jordan-Hare Stadium • Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN, Ala. - A tumultuous three-game road trip came to an end for Ole Miss on the Plains in a 44-23 loss to No. 12 Auburn.

The Rebels dug themselves into a multi-score hole early on that was far too deep to climb out of. Kerryon Johnson opened the scoring with a 17-yard touchdown rush, his first of three in the first half. Johnson touched the ball 28 times and gained 204 yards on the day. Auburn as a team rushed for 326 yards. The defense struggled to defend the ground attack for much of the afternoon, and penalties only compounded that.

Ole Miss drove down the field and answered with a field goal, but it was quickly negated by a screen play that resulted in a 75-yard touchdown pass from Jarrett Stidham to Ryan Davis on Auburn's first play from scrimmage. Everything was set up by Auburn's ability to run the football at will. The Tiger offense picked up large chunks of yardage for most of the game and averaged 7.8 yards per snap.

The latter two of Johnson's touchdown rushes followed that, one from 48 yards out and one from five yards. Auburn had four 70 plus-yard drives in the opening half, and compiled 339 yards of total offense. It led 35-3 at halftime. The Tigers compiled 561 yards of total offense in the game.

Ole Miss found the end zone for the first time in the game early on in the third quarter when Shea Patterson found D.K. Metcalf in space for a nine-yard touchdown pass. It completed a 75-yard drive and brought the score to 38-10. The two found each other again early on in the fourth quarter, this one a five-yard strike to make the score 41-17. As much as the offense sputtered in the first half, it found its footing in the second half and totaled 429 yards in the game.

OLE MISS 57, VANDERBILT 35

Game #6 • Oct. 14, 2017
Attendance: 60,157 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - It was a collective exhale and a breath of life after more than a month on the road. Ole Miss returned home and let out some frustration in its 57-35 win over Vanderbilt on Saturday, a game in which the Rebels looked rejuvenated from all angles.

The Rebel offense showed its best self in the first half, compiling 35 points behind Shea Patterson's four first-half touchdowns and Jordan Wilkin's 82 yards and a score. The first score of a game was a familiar site as Patterson found A.J. Brown over the middle for a 58 yard touchdown pass.

Two Ralph Webb touchdown runs followed, putting Vanderbilt ahead 14-7 and pushing Ole Miss' back against a proverbial wall yet again. The Rebels responded with 28 unanswered points that plopped them squarely in control of the game. Patterson hit wide open Damarkus Lodge for a 35-yard score on a busted coverage to tie the game at 14. The sophomore quarterback then rushed for a four-yard score to give the Rebels a lead at 21-14. Patterson finished the game 22-35 for 351 yards and four passing touchdowns and five total scores.

The barrage of scoring was capped off with a Wilkins 18 yard touchdown rush and a Patterson-Lodge connection from six yards out. The Rebels led 35-15 with just a couple minutes left in the first half. It held a 35-21 lead at halftime and never looked back. Wilkins ran for 113 yards and the Rebels rushed for 251 yards as a team, the most all season by a long shot. It took pressure off of Patterson and the offense.

The Ole Miss defense forced three turnovers and sacked Vanderbilt quarterback seven times, including five in the first half.

#24 LSU 40, OLE MISS 24

Game #7 • Oct. 21, 2017

Attendance: 64,067 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - Ole Miss had its Achilles Heel exploited defensively to the tune of 393 LSU rushing yards in a 40-24 defeat to the Tigers on Saturday evening.

LSU offensive coordinator Matt Canada handed the football to its bell cow running back Derrius Guice again and again daring Ole Miss to neutralize him. Guice ripped through the Rebel defense into the second and third level on his way to 276 yards and a score on 22 touches. Backup running back Darrel Williams also surpassed the century mark on the ground, compiling 103 yards on 22 touches. Guice averaged 21.5 yards per carry and LSU gained seven yards per carry as a team. The Tigers posted 593 yards of total offense in the game.

The Tigers averaged 8.7 yards per play and the Rebels struggled to find an answer for Guice and Williams for most of the night.

The team's traded field goals in the early minutes of the game before Guice ran for a seven-yard touchdown that aided in his 98 first-quarter rushing yards. LSU's Connor Culp banged home his second and third field goals of the first half in the second quarter from 38 and 26 yards out. That gave LSU a 13-3 just before halftime.

Luke and his staff got an injury scare late in the second quarter when Shea Patterson hobbled off of the field into a makeshift medical tent and eventually into the locker room after injuring his right knee on a play in which he was intercepted by Grant Delpit.

Jordan Ta'amu stepped in and led the Rebels down the field to three points in the final 90 seconds of the half in Patterson's absence to narrow LSU's lead to 13-6 at halftime. Ta'amu was 7-11 for 78 yards on the night. He re-entered the game and led a nine play, 66 yard touchdown drive late in the game.

ARKANSAS 38, OLE MISS 37

Game #8 • Oct. 28, 2017

Attendance: 55,684 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - Turnovers set the forces in motion for a 24-point lead to evaporate in front of Ole Miss' eyes as Arkansas escaped Oxford with a wild 38-37 win in the latest chapter of this SEC West rivalry.

The most critical one came late in the fourth quarter. Ole Miss took the field with 6:01 remaining on the game looking to salt away a 37-28 lead that once was as high as 31-7. A zone read between Jordan Ta'amu and Eric Swinney went haywire and the football landed in the grass. It was scooped up by Arkansas's Kevin Richardson, who ran it into the end zone for a touchdown that altered the trajectory of the game more than any other. The Razorbacks trailed 37-35 with plenty of time on the clock.

It was a bitter end to an otherwise productive debut for the senior. An Ole Miss punt on the next drive paved the way for Arkansas to take the football down the field and win the game on a 33-yard field goal from the left foot of Connor Limpert. The Razorbacks led for a total of four seconds in the ballgame.

Both teams came into the game with back up quarterbacks, battered offensive lines and struggling defenses. The Rebels carried the advantage at signal caller thanks to the play of Ta'amu. He was 20-30 for 368 yards and a pair of rushing touchdowns and was a large reason why Ole Miss' lead ballooned to 31-7 in the first 25 minutes of the ballgame.

Jordan Wilkins scored on the second play of the game when he exploded through a hole on the far side of the field en route to a 64-yard touchdown. Wilkins had 16 rushes for 118 yards.

OLE MISS 37, KENTUCKY 34

Game #9 • Nov. 4, 2017
Attendance: 55,665 • Kroger Field • Lexington, Ky.

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Gatorade dripped down Matt Luke's face onto his soaked black shirt and pants. He sauntered towards the visiting tunnel at Kroger Field, his path impeded with players and coaches wanting an embrace. He bear hugged defensive coordinator Wesley McGriff with a fury that seemingly released the weight of a season that has tried him to the point of tears.

The scene was on the field could best be described as pure elation and one ignited by D.K. Metcalf high-pointing a football in the back left corner of the end zone with five seconds remaining on the clock. The score gave Ole Miss a 37-34 lead over Kentucky that it would not relinquish and its first road win in nearly a year.

The ball sailed out of Jordan Ta'amu's hand and resulted in his fourth touchdown pass of the day. A guy who had played a total of one SEC football game completed 31-of-40 passes for a career high 382 yards and did not turn the ball over.

He orchestrated the game's final drive that went 71 yards and began with 2:14 on the clock. He needed all but five of those seconds and did with a calmness that mesmerized his offensive coordinator.

The ball floated away from Ta'amu and towards Metcalf as the game hung in the balance. The thoughts of previous failures and trying times this year has brought entered the minds of many watching. Metcalf's thought was simpler.

He reached over the defender, snagged the football and grazed his foot onto the stretch of blue turf. A play so close it required a review to solidify what just took place.

OLE MISS 50, LOUISIANA 22

Game #10 • Nov. 11, 2017
Attendance: 51,618 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - Ole Miss handled its necessary business against a Louisiana team that's running out of gas down the stretch. The Rebels amassed 50 points on 641 yards of offense in a 50-22 rout to earn their fifth victory of the season and get back to .500 for the first time since they took the field against Auburn on October 7.

Jordan Ta'amu looked sharp once again and steered the Ole Miss offense on the same upward trajectory it his been on the last three weeks since he assumed the duties of starting quarterback.

The Rebels scored on their first five drives of the game, and the junior signal caller was responsible for all five touchdowns in one form or another. He went 28-36 for 418 yards and three touchdowns on the day.

Ta'amu zipped a 37-yard deep ball to DaMarkus Lodge just 72 seconds into the game to open the scoring. Ta'amu followed that up on the next drive by throwing A.J. Brown the ball on the far sideline and let him do the rest. Brown made a shifty move down the sideline and dove for the pylon for a 31-yard touchdown that capped off a 96 yard drive.

Ta'amu ran one in from eight yards out on the fifth play of an 80-yard drive and then found Brown again for 27 yards a few minutes later to put Ole Miss 28-0. His final touchdown came on a short one-yard touchdown dive at the end of a 10-play, 75-yard scoring drive that helped the Rebels attain a 35-10 lead at the half. The team coasted the rest of the way.

TEXAS A&M 31, OLE MISS 24

Game #11 • Nov. 18, 2017

Attendance: 55,880 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - The opportunities for Ole Miss to grab a win over Texas A&M on senior night were tangible, sitting there in front of them. But penalties and a sputtering offense prevented them from doing so in a 31-24 loss to the Aggies in the season's penultimate game.

A pace that started out so rapid that each team scored two touchdowns in the first 11 minutes of the game, slowed considerably after that. Each team scored on its first two drives. Ole Miss by way of a seven play, 70 yard drive capped off by a 27 yard touchdown pass from Jordan Ta'amu to A.J. Brown, and a 64 yard Jordan Wilkins touchdown rush on the first play of its second drive.

Ta'amu was 19-34 for 189 yards and two touchdowns on the night. Wilkins had 147 yards and a score on 19 carries. 123 of those came in the first half.

A&M answered each one with two 75 plus yard drives of their own. The score was quickly 14-14 just over ten minutes in. Things slowed after that. Each team scored one more touchdown apiece and a Gary Wunderlich 28 yard field goal with a few seconds left in the second quarter gave Ole Miss a 24-21 halftime lead.

The second half is really when the pace of the game fully evolved. Ole Miss totaled 325 yards in the first half and just 66 in the second. Texas A&M had only 91 yards of offense in the second half alone, but won the game on a late field goal and a Derrick Tucker pick six of Ta'amu in the third quarter. Ta'amu was flushed out of the pocket on the heels of his own end zone. He threw it across the middle, Tucker stepped in front of it and took off towards the end zone. It proved costly for Ole Miss.

Perhaps the strangest part of the loss is how the Rebel defense fared against the run. The unit has struggled mightily against the ground game in each of the previous 10 games, but tonight allowed just 119 yards on 44 rushes. Texas A&M's Travis Ford picked up 43 of those on his first carry. Ole Miss yielded just 76 yards on the next 43 Aggie attempts.
