GAME 4: LEHIGH AT MISSISSIPPI STATE

LEHIGH MOUNTAIN HAWKS (1-2, 0-0 PATRIOT LEAGUE)
at MISSISSIPPI STATE BULLDOGS (3-1, 0-0 SEC)
FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 2016 • 8:00 PM (ET)

HUMPHREY COLISEUM (10,575) • STARKVILLE, MISS.
SEC NETWORK + (WATCHESPN)

SETTING THE SCENE

The Lehigh men's basketball team looks to ride the momentum from a strong win over Princeton on Sunday when it begins a two-game swing down south with a Friday evening showdown at Mississippi State. Opening tipoff is set for 8 p.m. ET (7 p.m. locally) on SEC Network + (WatchESPN). The Mountain Hawks will be facing their first Southeastern Conference opponent since Dec. 30, 2003 and will be searching for their first-ever win against the SEC.

Lehigh earned an impressive victory over preseason Ivy League favorite Princeton on Sunday, despite playing without first team All-Patriot League point guard Kahron Ross who missed the game due to injury. Freshman Jordan Cohen stepped up in a big way, scoring 20 points on just eight field goal attempts (finishing 7-of-8 from the field, 3-of-4 from three-point range and 3-of-3 from the free throw line). Cohen also dished six assists compared to just four turnovers in 39 minutes of action. Meanwhile, senior Tim Kempton enjoyed another strong game, scoring 24 points on 7-of-13 shooting while adding 11 rebounds for his second straight double-double and 35th of his career. He also added a career-high tying four assists, three blocks and a steal. On Monday, Kempton earned his second straight Patriot League Player of the Week award.

Senior Austin Price also scored 14 points on 4-of-6 shooting, including 3-of-5 from three-point range. As a team, the Mountain Hawks shot 57 percent from the field (26-of-46), including 63 percent from three-point range (10-of-16). Including a 14-of-16 effort from the free throw line, Lehigh missed just 22 shots all afternoon. The 20 missed field goals marked Lehigh's fewest since Jan. 26, 2012 when the Mountain Hawks were 21-of-41 in a 71-60 win over Navy. The six missed three-pointers were Lehigh's fewest in any game with at least 10 makes since Dec. 5, 2007 when Lehigh was 11-of-15 from long range in a 76-61 win over Stony Brook.

The Mountain Hawks snapped a two-game losing streak in home openers and won their first home game for the ninth time in the last 11 seasons. It also marked their sixth straight home win in the regular season, dating back to last year. Sunday's win came over a Princeton team that finished last season 22-7 and returns practically its entire roster in 2016-17. Lehigh will face its second power conference team of the season on Friday, following a slim three-point loss at No. 7/8 Xavier in the season opener. A competitive game saw the Mountain Hawks take a second-half lead, but the Musketeers held on for the victory as two Lehigh three-pointers with time winding down were off the mark. Lehigh will be searching for its first win over a power conference opponent since December of 2014 when the Mountain Hawks won a triple overtime thriller at Arizona State, 84-81.

Friday is the first game of a two-game road swing as Lehigh will head to Arkansas State on Sunday, which is a homecoming game for Ross. Arkansas State is located in Jonesboro, Ross' hometown. A tough November schedule also includes a contest next Wednesday (Nov. 30) at La Salle.

LAST TIME OUT

BETLHEHEM, Pa. (11/20/16) - Tied at 34 at the half, the Lehigh men's basketball team opened the second on a 8-0 run and didn't trail the rest of the way, beating preseason Ivy League favorite Princeton on Sunday afternoon in Stabler Arena, 76-67. Replacing an injured Kahron Ross in the starting lineup, freshman Jordan Cohen scored 20 points on 7-of-8 shooting while dishing six assists. Senior Tim Kempton scored a game-high 24 points while adding 11 rebounds for his second straight double-double.

SCOUTING MISSISSIPPI STATE

Mississippi State is 3-1 on the season, coming off two straight wins over Boise State (80-68) and UTEP (61-54). The Bulldogs' loss came to UCF by an 86-61 final while the team opened the season with a 78-74 win over Norfolk State, the last time Mississippi State played at home. Quinndary Weatherspoon leads the team in scoring, averaging 18.8 points per game, but as announced on Monday, he will miss the rest of the season due to injury. Three others average double-figure points as Tyson Carter averages 12.3 points and 2.8 rebounds, I.J. Ready is at 12.0 points and 5.0 assists per contest and Aric Holman comes in at 11.8 points and a team-leading 6.8 boards. A young starting lineup featured two freshmen, two sophomores and a senior before Weatherspoon's injury and could get even younger now. After finishing 14-17 last season, including 7-11 in the SEC, Mississippi State featured one of the nation's top recruiting classes this season. Through four games, the Bulldogs are shooting 42.0 percent from the field and 33.0 percent from three-point range while turning the ball over just 10.3 times per game.

IF LEHIGH BEATS MISSISSIPPI STATE

- The Mountain Hawks would earn their first-ever win over an SEC opponent.
- Lehigh would win for the 13th time in its last 16 games dating back to last season.
- The Mountain Hawks would snap a two-game road losing streak and win on the road for the sixth time in their last eight tries dating back to last season.

LEHIGH TAKES PART IN THE PROGRAM

At the end of its second full week of preseason practice, Lehigh took part in The Program, military style leadership training. As the Mountain Hawks continue to come together as a team in advance of the 2016-17 season, they grew off the basketball court, working on important intangibles in a unique setting. From jumping jacks to rigorous team exercise, the team was pushed not only physically, but perhaps more importantly, mentally. Although the activities had no direct connection to basketball, The Program promoted many of the skills that are needed on the basketball court.

TOUGH LOSS AT YALE (NOV. 17)

- The Bulldogs led for most of the first half, but the Mountain Hawks used a 9-0 run to erase a nine-point deficit and tie the score. A close game ensued from that point forward as the largest margin in the second half was seven, a 71-64 Mountain Hawks' lead with less than four minutes remaining. However, Yale went on a 7-0 run capped off by a Blake Reynolds three-pointer with less than 90 seconds remaining. A wild finish saw Lehigh whistled for a technical foul with one second remaining for calling timeout with no timeouts remaining, but the Bulldogs missed the free throw to force overtime.
- In the extra session, senior Tim Kempton scored five points before fouling out with a career-high 30 points. He became Lehigh's first 30-point scorer since Mackey McKnight had 31 on Nov. 15, 2013. With his 30 points, Kempton moved from 13th to 12th in school history in career points, with 1,445, passing Chuck Penn.
- Kempton also grabbed 11 rebounds for his first double-double of the season and 34th of his career.
- Sophomore Kyle Leufroy scored 20 points as the duo had the largest combined point total among teammates (50) since the two combined for 53 points in last season's home game vs. Bucknell - Kempton had 29 while Leufroy scored 23.
- Freshman Pat Andree had a strong performance, scoring 11 points on 4-of-7 shooting and 3-of-6 from three-point range. He also grabbed eight rebounds, all in the first half. Sophomore Matt Holba scored all nine of his points in the second half, finishing 3-of-4 from the field. His one miss came from three-point range as he's still a perfect 7-of-7 on two-point shots in his young career.
- Lehigh finished the evening with 19 assists on 29 made field goals.
- A dunk from senior Austin Price gave the Mountain Hawks an 80-78 lead in overtime, but Yale ended the game on an 11-1 run to pull away at the final horn and win its 15th straight home game dating back to the 2014-15 season.

STRONG EFFORT AT NO. 7/8 XAVIER (NOV. 11)

- Lehigh fell behind to Xavier early, 16-4, but rebounded in a big way, eventually taking a second-half lead and having two three-point attempts in the final seconds that would have tied the score and forced overtime.
- Senior Tim Kempton led the Mountain Hawks offensively with 25 points behind 9-of-16 shooting while adding 16 shooting. Included were five points in the game's final 40 seconds to help set Lehigh up with a chance to tie in the final seconds. The effort earned Kempton Patriot League Player of the Week laurels. Down three, the Mountain Hawks had two three-point opportunities, from junior Kahron Ross and senior Austin Price, but they were off the mark and Xavier wrapped up the 84-81 win.
- Ross finished the game with 12 assists compared to only three turnovers in 37 minutes at point guard. The 12 assists were just two from tying his own school record of 14 which he originally set during his freshman season at Arizona State.
- Price also finished with double-figure points, scoring 11 while sophomore Matt Holba scored nine points in his collegiate debut on 4-of-4 shooting. Junior Brandon Alston scored nine points in his first action since the 2014-15 season, finishing 3-of-5 from the field and 2-of-3 from three-point range.
- Freshman Jordan Cohen knocked down his first three career three-pointers, finishing with nine points on 3-of-4 from long range, while classmate Pat Andree knocked down his first collegiate three-point attempt and finished with five points and two boards.
- The Mountain Hawks finished the game shooting 50 percent (29-of-58), including 39 percent from three-point range (9-of-23). Xavier shot 61 percent in the first half, but only 39 percent in the second half as the Lehigh defense allowed just 36 second-half points allowing 48 in the first half.
- In the end, Lehigh fell just short of snapping Xavier's 26-game season-opening winning streak and 16-game home-opening streak. The Mountain Hawks ended up dropping their eighth straight season opener. - Over Lehigh's last three games against Big East opponents, the Mountain Hawks have only been out-scored by two (235-233). Lehigh lost to No. 12 Villanova on Nov. 14, 2014 (77-66), defeated DePaul on Nov. 26, 2014 (86-74) and lost to No. 7/8 Xavier (84-81). Against Villanova, Lehigh also took a second-half lead while the Mountain Hawks earned a wire-to-wire win at DePaul.

MEMORABLE LATE-SEASON SUCCESS

- As of last Mar. 8, Lehigh's 11-game winning streak was tied for the second longest active streak in the nation, only trailing Stephen F. Austin (18 games) and tied with Kansas (11).
- The 11 straight victories against Patriot League foes marked a school record.
- The 11-game streak was tied for the school record set in 1925-26.
- Lehigh finished last February 9-0, its first month without a loss since November of 1993. That month only featured one game.

SUSTAINED SUCCESS

- Lehigh has enjoyed impressive success over the last seven years, earning a Patriot League Quarterfinal home game in six of those seasons.
- Over the last seven years, the Mountain Hawks are tied for first in the league in number of championships (two), second in average finish (third) and second in quarterfinal appearances (six).
- Lehigh is also second in number of Patriot League (regular season) victories (67) and number of double-figure win seasons (four).
- In the last four years (without current NBA standout C.J. McCollum), the Mountain Hawks still stood second in total (regular season) Patriot League victories in that span with 40.

FROM DOWNTOWN

Lehigh finished last season 15th nationally in three-point shooting, shooting 39.2 percent (237-of-604). In league play (regular season), Lehigh shot a Patriot League best 43.5 percent from long distance (141-of-324), ahead of Colgate in second at 39.2 percent. In league play, the Mountain Hawks featured the Nos. 1, 2, 5 and 8 shooters in three-point percentage: Kyle Leufroy 48.1 percent (26-of-54), Jesse Chuku 45.1 percent (37-of-82), Kahron Ross 43.9 percent (18-of-41) and Austin Price 42.1 percent (40-of-95).

So far this season, the Mountain Hawks are 45.6 percent from three-point range (44-of-56), which is 11th in the nation, led by freshman Jordan Cohen who is at 75 percent (6-of-8) and freshman Pat Andree who is at 50 percent (5-of-10). Lehigh knocked down 10-of-16 threes vs. Princeton, its fewest missed three-pointers with at least 10 makes since Dec. 5, 2007 when Lehigh was 11-of-15 from long range in a 76-61 win over Stony Brook.

1,000 POINT CLUB

- Lehigh features a pair of 1,000 point scorers in seniors Tim Kempton and Austin Price.
- Kempton currently stands 12th in school history with 1,469 points while Price is 31st with 1,053 points.
- In the season opener at Xavier (Nov. 11), Price scored 11 points to move from 32nd to 31st in school history, passing Jason Fichter.
- With Kempton's 30 points at Yale (Nov. 17), he moved from 13th to 12th in school history, passing Chuck Penn.
- Both Kempton and Price reached the 1,000 point plateau as juniors. Prior to them, the last time a pair of Lehigh players reached 1,000 career points in the same season was in 1994-95 when Rashawne Glenn and Jason Fichter each reached the milestone. It also marked the first time a pair of juniors reached 1,000 points in the same year since Dozie Mbonu and Bob Krizansky in January of 1991.
- Prior to Kempton, the last player to reach the 1,000-point plateau was Mackey McKnight on Nov. 26, 2013. Three members of the class of 2013 reached the milestone: Holden Greiner (Mar. 9, 2013), Gabe Knutson (Feb. 11, 2012) and C.J. McCollum (Jan. 15, 2011).

IMPRESSIVE PATRIOT LEAGUE SLATE

- Lehigh impressed against Patriot League foes last season, winning a school-record 13 Patriot League games in the regular season. The previous high was 11 league victories during the Mountain Hawks' 2011-12 championship campaign.

- The Mountain Hawks' 15 wins over Patriot League foes (including the postseason) came by an average of 11.7 points while their six losses came by an average of 3.8 points.

- Over its 15 wins, Lehigh trailed for just 75:26 out of 600 minutes, just 12.6 percent of the time. Below is a rundown of time trailing in each of the Mountain Hawks' league wins.

CHALLENGING 2016-17 SCHEDULE

Lehigh will face a challenging slate this season, including four NCAA Tournament teams from a season ago and two teams who advanced to the NIT. The Mountain Hawks begin by facing three straight teams who reached a national postseason tournament last season. Among Lehigh's most notable nonleague games are its Nov. 11 season opener at Xavier, along with games at Mississippi State and La Salle. The Mountain Hawks host preseason Ivy League favorite Princeton in their home opener Nov. 20.

The schedule comes after a 2015-16 slate which saw the Mountain Hawks play one of the most challenging schedules in school, and perhaps even Patriot League, history. In the end, five of Lehigh's 11 nonleague opponents went on to advance to the NCAA Tournament, including a No. 1 seed (Virginia), No. 5 seed (Purdue), Final Four team Syracuse and a team in Yale who reached the Round of 32.

NEAR THE TOP IN THE NATION (As of Tuesday, Nov. 22)

Lehigh is among the nation's leaders in a number of categories, led by Tim Kempton who is eighth in the nation in points per game and ninth in defensive rebounds per contest. Kahron Ross would be among the nation's leaders in multiple categories, but doesn't currently have enough games to qualify. As a team, the Mountain Hawks are 11th nationally in three-point field goal percentage and 28th in free throw percentage.

ROSS RUNNING THE POINT

- Junior Kahron Ross looks to become Lehigh's third straight four-year starter at point guard following Marquis Hall and Mackey McKnight.

- So far this season, Ross is averaging 7.5 points, 2.0 rebounds and 8.5 assists (which was top 10 in the nation, but he currently doesn't have enough games to qualify).

- Ross opened the season with an impressive effort at No. 7/8 Xavier, posting six points and 12 assists, just two from tying his own school record of 14 set at Arizona State. Nine of his assists came in the first half, and he turned the ball over just three times for the game.

- Ross finished his freshman season averaging 10.4 points (third on the team), 5.8 assists (most on the team, and league) and 2.8 rebounds. He was the nation's leader in assists among freshmen.

- Ross earned Patriot League Rookie of the Week five times (Nov. 24, Dec. 22, Jan. 12, Feb. 2, Feb. 9) and was named the Patriot League Rookie of the Year, Lehigh's fifth in the previous nine seasons.

- In his sophomore season, Ross averaged 11.2 points and 6.1 assists and was named a first team All-Patriot League honoree, after earning third team laurels as a freshman. He led the Patriot League in assists per game, and finished 23rd nationally.

- Ross is currently 18th nationally among active players in total career assists with 386 and is No. 1 in his class (as of Friday, Nov. 18).

- Over the final seven games of the regular season, Ross averaged 17.6 points per game while dishing 48 assists compared to just 14 turnovers while also knocking down 13-of-20 three-pointers.

- In the Patriot League Championship Game vs. Holy Cross, Ross became the school's record holder for assists in a season.

- Ross reached double-figure points 18 times last season and tallied five or more assists on 22 occasions.

NBA'S MOST IMPROVED PLAYER

Former Lehigh men's basketball standout and current Portland Trail Blazers rising star C.J. McCollum '13 was named the Kia NBA Most Improved Player last season. The award recognizes an up-and-coming player who has the improved dramatically from the previous season or seasons.

McCollum received 101 first-place votes and 559 total points from a panel of 130 sportswriters and broadcasters throughout the United States and Canada. McCollum averaged a career-high 20.8 points per game during the regular season, a 14-point increase from last season. That improvement was the largest increase for an NBA Player since the 1989-90 season. Along with points per game, McCollum also set career highs in his assists per game (4.3) and rebounds per contest (3.2). The Canton, Ohio native scored in double figures in 79 of his 80 regular season games this season. He became the third Portland player to win the award, joining Zach Randolph (2003-04) and Kevin Duckworth (1987-88).

MCCOLLUM STARRING FOR TRAIL BLAZERS

- Former Lehigh standout C.J. McCollum is starring in his fourth NBA season with the Portland Trail Blazers.

- McCollum is currently averaging 22.9 points, 4.1 rebounds and 3.4 assists in 15 games this season. He has scored double-figure points in 13 games, reached 20 points 10 times and 30 points on four occasions. (Stats before games Tuesday, Nov. 22).

- McCollum tied a career-high 37 points on 13-of-23 shooting on Nov. 6 at Memphis, following with 33 points on 11-of-18 shooting against Phoenix. He also scored 31 points on Nov. 11 against Sacramento and 33 on Nov. 20 at Brooklyn.

- The 10th overall pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, McCollum averaged 5.3 points, 1.3 rebounds and 0.7 assists in 38 games during his rookie season.

- McCollum followed by averaging 6.8 points and 1.5 rebounds during his second season (2014-15). He came on strong in the Western Conference playoffs, scoring 26 points in Game 3 against Memphis then 18 in Game 4 and 33 in Game 5. McCollum shot 12-of-20 from the field and 7-of-11 from three-point range in Game 5, almost single-handedly keeping Portland in the game until the final whistle.

- McCollum was the Trail Blazers' starting shooting guard during the 2015-16s season, while acting as the backup point guard to NBA All-Star Damian Lillard. McCollum began the season with a bang, scoring 37 points against New Orleans on 14-of-22 shooting and 6-of-9 from three-point range.

- McCollum finished his third season averaging 20.8 points, 4.3 assists and 3.2 rebounds. He finished 19th in the NBA in scoring average.

- McCollum tallied his first-career double-double last Nov. 30 at the Los Angeles Clippers, finishing with 12 points and a career-high 10 assists.

- He had a monster game on Dec. 27 at Sacramento, posting 35 points on 14-of-28 shooting, to go with a career-high 11 rebounds, nine assists and four steals. McCollum was the first Blazer to post that stat line of at least 35 points, 11 rebounds, nine assists and four steals since Hall of Famer Clyde Drexler in 1992. He was the first player in the entire NBA to post that stat line since Kevin Garnett in 2004. Since 1985-86, only three NBA players have posted that stat line in a road game: Michael Jordan (1989), Drexler (1992) and McCollum.

- It was announced on Feb. 4 that McCollum was selected to compete in the Taco Bell Skills Challenge as part of NBA All-Star Weekend. McCollum competed in the challenge on Saturday, Feb. 13 along with DeMarcus Cousins, Anthony Davis, Karl Anthony Towns, Draymond Green, C.J. McCollum, Jordan Clarkson, Isaiah Thomas and defending champion Patrick Beverley.

- On Friday, Feb. 12, it was announced that McCollum was added to the Foot Locker Three-Point Contest, replacing Chris Bosh of the Miami Heat. Also in the three-point contest are Stephen Curry, James Harden, Klay Thompson, Khrist Middleton, Kyle Lowry, J.J. Redick and Devin Booker.

- McCollum became the first player in school history to be selected in the NBA Draft. He declared for the 2012 draft, but officially withdrew from the NBA Draft on Monday, Apr. 9, 2012 to return to Lehigh for his senior season.

McCollum went on to write a piece published on Sporting News' website titled "Why I'm returning to Lehigh for my senior year," citing earning his degree as one of the primary reasons.

COMMON HOMECOMINGS

Homecomings are common for the Mountain Hawks as head coach Brett Reed tries to schedule games near players' hometowns whenever possible. This season, Lehigh headed to Purdue in West Lafayette, Indiana as the Mountain Hawks featured a trio of Indiana natives: Matt Holba, Tyler Jenkins and Austin Price. Tim Kempton had a homecoming to Arizona State on Dec. 20, 2014. Kempton is from Scottsdale, Arizona as his entire high school basketball team Brophy College Prep was in attendance to support Kempton and the Mountain Hawks. This season, Lehigh is playing at Arkansas State, which is located in junior Kahron Ross' hometown (Jonesboro).

STRONG IN THE CLASSROOM

- The Mountain Hawks take a lot of pride in their academic performance.

- Lehigh placed four individuals on the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll following last season for a spring semester GPA over 3.20. Devon Carter led the way with a 3.88 GPA (Psychology) while John Ross Glover had a 3.76 (English), Justin Goldsborough posted a 3.42 (Marketing) and Tyler Jenkins had a 3.24 (Finance).

- Carter graduated last May, but has returned to Lehigh and is currently working towards his Master's Degree in psychology.

DOUBLE THE PRODUCTION

- The Mountain Hawks tallied 14 double-doubles last season, 13 from Tim Kempton and one from Kahron Ross.

- So far this year, Lehigh has two double-doubles, both from Kempton.

- Kempton's double-doubles have come at Yale (Nov. 17) and vs. Princeton (Nov. 20).

- Last season, Kempton's double-doubles came at Syracuse (Nov. 13), vs. Rochester College (Dec. 5), vs. Boston University (Jan. 2), at Loyola (Jan. 6), at Boston University (Jan. 31), at Lafayette (Feb. 8), at Bucknell (Feb. 10), vs. Holy Cross (Feb. 15), vs. Lafayette (Feb. 21), at Colgate (Feb. 24), at Army West Point (Feb. 27), vs. Navy (Mar. 3) and vs. American (Mar. 6).

- Ross' double-double came against Lafayette (Feb. 21).

- For comparison, Lehigh had seven double-doubles during the team's Patriot League Championship season in 2011-12: C.J. McCollum (5), Gabe Knutson (2).

TAKING CARE OF THE BASKETBALL

Lehigh has traditionally taken care of the basketball, averaging just 10.9 turnovers per game in 2012-13, which was top 25 in the nation. In 2013-14, Lehigh averaged just 12.0 turnovers (near the top 100 in the nation), including just nine at Houston, eight at Pittsburgh, seven at South Dakota State, eight at Saint Francis (Pa.) and seven vs. Boston University. In 2014-15, the Mountain Hawks averaged 13.1 turnovers per game. Lehigh had single-digit turnovers six times. Last season, the Mountain Hawks averaged 13.0 turnovers per game, which includes single-digit turnovers vs. Yale (9), at Purdue (7), at Loyola (9), at Boston University (6), vs. Holy Cross (9), Army West Point (8) and vs. Navy (8) in the Patriot League Quarterfinals. Lehigh had just two second-half turnovers in the Feb. 15 game vs. the Crusaders.

AMONG THE PATRIOT LEAGUE'S BEST

Last season, Tim Kempton finished second in the Patriot League in scoring (17.7 ppg) last season while classmate Austin Price was 14th (13.0 ppg). Kempton led the league in scoring in (regular season) league games (17.8). Kempton was second in the league in rebounding (9.5 rpg). Kahron Ross led the league in assists per contest (6.1) while Kempton stood third in field goal percentage (.555) and 12th in free throw percentage (.755). Kempton shot 58.8 percent from the field in league games, which was third. As a team, Lehigh led the league in three-point field goal percentage (.392). The Mountain Hawks were also first in the Patriot League in steals per game (6.7) while Price was second among individuals in steals per contest (1.7).

So far this year, Kempton leads the league in scoring average (26.3) and rebounding (9.7) while Ross leads the league in assists (8.5) and assist-to-turnover ratio (3.4). As a team, Lehigh is first in field goal percentage (.506), three-point field goal percentage (.456) and free throw percentage (.786).

OFFENSIVE JUGGERNAUT

Lehigh has led the Patriot League in scoring in four of the last seven seasons. The Mountain Hawks averaged a league-leading 75.1 points per game in 2009-10, 73.6 in 2010-11, 75.7 in 2011-12 and 73.1 in 2012-13. In 2012-13, the Mountain Hawks eclipsed 70 points in 19-of-31 games, 80 ten times, 90 three times and 100 once. In 2014-15, the Mountain Hawks averaged 68.1 points per game, which was fourth in the league. Last season (2015-16), Lehigh averaged 70.9 points per contest (fifth in the Patriot League) which included seven games with 80 or more points: 89 at Canisius, 84 vs. Rochester College, 82 vs. Army West Point, 87 at Holy Cross, 87 at Lafayette, 80 at Bucknell and 82 at Army West Point. So far this season, the Mountain Hawks are averaging 79.3 points per game, second in the Patriot League.

THE BEST THINGS IN LIFE ARE FREE

Lehigh has continued to excel at the charity stripe, not only taking more free throws than its opponents, but also converting at an impressive rate. In 2011-12, the Mountain Hawks converted at a 76.8 percent clip (590-of-768) which was good for fifth in the nation. The following season in 2012-13, Lehigh knocked down 73.7 percent from the charity stripe (455-of-617) which was among the nation's best. The Mountain Hawks attempted 105 more free throws than their opponents (617-512) and knocked down 100 more (455-355). In 2013-14, Lehigh knocked down 406-of-574 (70.7 percent) from the charity stripe. In 2014-15, the Mountain Hawks knocked down 72.5 percent of their free throws (430-of-593), which was second in the league and 62nd nationally. Last season, Lehigh shot 72.7 percent from the line (411-of-565), tops in the Patriot League and 66th in the nation. That includes a 15-of-16 effort against Boston University (Jan. 2) and 14-of-16 vs. Mount St. Mary's (Dec. 19). This year, the Mountain Hawks have knocked down 78.6 percent from the line (44-of-56), good for 28th in the nation (as of Tuesday, Nov. 22).

LEHIGH ON NATIONAL, REGIONAL TV

Lehigh men's basketball will appear on national and local TV several times this season. More than 20 games can be seen in HD for free on the new Patriot League Network and at least two on CBS Sports Network. In addition, all home Patriot League games not picked up by CBS air locally in the Lehigh Valley on Service Electric 2 Sports.

HOME SWEET STABLER

The Mountain Hawks have won 29 of their last 46, 51 of their last 72 and 64 of their last 90 in the friendly confines of Stabler Arena. They had an 11-game home win streak snapped vs. Bryant on Dec. 29, 2012 and an eight-game winning streak snapped on Jan. 5, 2014 against Boston University. Lehigh also had an eight-game home winning streak snapped during the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game.

Here's a look at Lehigh's home success since the start of the 2002-03 season:

Overall Record: 144-54 (.727)

Non-League Record: 69-19 (.784)

Patriot League Record (Regular and Postseason): 75-35 (.682)

Longest Winning Streak: 16 games (11/25/03 - 12/6/04)

UP NEXT...

The Mountain Hawks will return to action in less than 48 hours when they play at Arkansas State on Sunday at 2:30 p.m. (ET).

BRETT REED

Head Coach

10th Year as Lehigh Head Coach

The 2016-17 season is Dr. Brett Reed's 10th as the Murray H. Goodman '48 Head Men's Basketball Coach at Lehigh University. In nine years on the sideline, Reed has become the winningest coach in Lehigh history and has won nearly 75 percent of his games at Stabler Arena. During the 2012-13 season, Reed won his 100th career game and became the fastest coach to 100 wins in the history of the Patriot League. During that same season, he also became the all-time winningest coach in school history. He enters 2016-17 with 162 career victories and is the Patriot League's second longest-tenured coach.

Reed's 57.4 career Division I winning percentage is tops among active Patriot League coaches. He has won consistently at Lehigh, eclipsing 20 wins three times in a four-year span from 2009-13, which also included three national postseason appearances. The Mountain Hawks twice won the Patriot League and advanced to the NCAA Tournament while advancing to the College Basketball Invitational in 2013. Lehigh reached the Patriot League Championship Game in 2016 for the third time in seven seasons.

During Reed's time, Lehigh has helped develop plenty of impressive talent, led by two-time All-American and Patriot League Player of the Year C.J. McCollum who was selected 10th overall by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 2013 NBA Draft and has developed into an NBA star. Reed has also recruited at an extremely effective rate, having secured five of the last nine Rookie of the Year award recipients in the Patriot League.

Reed will be remembered for the 2011-12 season, when the Mountain Hawks posted a school-record 27 wins, along with the program's third Patriot League Championship (and second in the three years). The highlight was a historic 75-70 NCAA Tournament win over Duke, becoming only the sixth No. 15 seed to ever beat a No. 2 seed and second in the same day (Norfolk State defeated Missouri just hours earlier). McCollum led the way with 30 points as Lehigh never trailed by more than five and was leading for much of the game. Mountain Hawks' largest lead came in the final minute (eight) as the squad always had an answer for the Blue Devils' runs.

That game helped put the Lehigh men's basketball program squarely on the map as over the ensuing days, the Mountain Hawks were featured in an endless number of national media outlets including SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, Fox Sports Radio, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and much more. Entering the following season, the Mountain Hawks were ranked among the mid-major's best teams by numerous outlets.

The 2011-12 season also featured a school record for nonleague wins (12), the Mountain Hawks shattered the program's previous wins record of 22 (also set by a Reed-led team). Along the way, Lehigh also played tough against power conference foes, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed Michigan State when the Mountain Hawks held a 38-35 lead at the half.

Most recently, the Mountain Hawks earned two more wins against power conference foes during the 2014-15 season as Lehigh took a big step forward in its quest to return to championship contention. The Mountain Hawks' season was highlighted by two wins over power conference opponents DePaul and Arizona State, and a tight loss to eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Villanova. After a slow start to Patriot League play, the Mountain Hawks rebounded in a big way, highlighted by winning seven-of-eight games midway through the league schedule. Late in the season, Lehigh dominated eventual regular season champion Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals.

Several individuals took their play to new levels in 2014-15, highlighted by Tim Kempton who was named the league's Player of the Year as just a sophomore. He finished the season averaging 15.3 points and a Patriot League leading 8.7 rebounds per game. Along with Kempton, freshman Kahron Ross became the Mountain Hawks' fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in the previous nine seasons, along with Marquis Hall (2007), Rob Keefer (2008), McCollum (2010) and Kempton (2014). Ross stepped into the point guard position and excelled, finishing the season with 175 assists, third in school history. He also set a single-game record with 14 assists in Lehigh's thrilling win at Arizona State.

Despite a slow start, the Mountain Hawks took another step forward in 2015-16. Lehigh rebounded from the tough start by winning 11 straight games beginning in early February, tying the program's 90 year old school record. The Mountain Hawks surged to the No. 2 seed in the league tournament and went on to host the quarterfinals, semifinals and championship game. It marked the sixth time in seven seasons that Lehigh has played at least one Patriot League Tournament game at home. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up an undefeated February, their first undefeated month since November of 1993. When all was said and done, Lehigh finished the season with a school-record 13 Patriot League victories.

Kempton and Ross were each named first team All-Patriot League, marking the first time in school history Lehigh has featured multiple first team honorees. Ross broke the school's single-season record for assists, posting 194. Finishing the season averaging 17.7 points and 9.5 rebounds, Kempton was also named Patriot League Player of the Year for the second straight season, becoming just the third player in league history to earn the honor twice before his senior season. The others were McCollum and Colgate's Adonal Foyle, who both went onto careers in the NBA. Junior Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree while Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie Team. As a team, Lehigh finished the season 15th nationally in three-point percentage.

Another impressive season under Reed came in 2012-13 season, when the Mountain Hawks finished 21-10 and played in a national postseason tournament for a second straight season and third time in four years. Lehigh began the season 9-2, including an eight-game winning streak capped off by a 90-75 win at North Texas. McCollum went down with a season-ending injury at VCU on Jan. 5, but the Mountain Hawks wouldn't go away quietly. The squad went on to post a 10-4 record in league play to tie for second in the league standings.

That season, Reed picked up his 100th career win in style as the Mountain Hawks defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 102-62. He went on to post his school record-breaking victory in a 72-43 win at Navy. Reed broke a tie with Tony Packer to become the all-time winningest coach in school history. Following the season, McCollum, the Patriot League's all-time leading scorer, became the first player in school history and second in league history selected in the NBA Draft.

Reed's first Patriot League Title as head coach came in 2009-10 when he led the Mountain Hawks to their second Patriot League Tournament Championship, first outright regular season league title, the most wins in school history (at the time) and the most-ever wins at Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks also led the Patriot League in scoring offense, scoring margin, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and defensive rebounds. Their 220 made three-pointers established a new school record, later broken just four seasons later when Lehigh knocked down 235 in 2013-14. The 2009-10 team also set a mark for the most dominant run in the Patriot League Tournament's history, winning every game by 15 points or more. They also excelled in the classroom. Lehigh's starting five of Dave Buchberger, Zahir Carrington, Hall, McCollum and Gabe Knutson achieved an average grade point average of 3.2.

During Reed's second season at the helm in 2008-09 season, the Mountain Hawks continued to build upon the solid foundation established at the beginning of his Lehigh career. The accomplishments included the best start to a season in decades, the most overall road wins since 1991 and the school's first-ever victory over a Big East foe. Reed also mentored a pair of All-Patriot League selections in Hall and Carrington. Hall went onto become Lehigh's first-ever Patriot League Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while Carrington was the school's first All-District selection since 1988.

In his first season as a collegiate head coach, Reed led the Mountain Hawks to the third most wins for a first-year headman in the 108-season history of Lehigh Basketball. Reed's immediate impact was especially significant considering the squad lost 3,375 career points from the previous year's senior class and had a very young roster that consisted of 10 of 14 players either in their freshman or sophomore campaigns. Despite those factors, Reed guided the team to more wins than the previous season and the second most victories in the 30-year history of Stabler Arena. Reed also mentored the Mountain Hawks' second consecutive Patriot League Rookie of the Year in Keefer as Lehigh became the first school in the league to accomplish that feat. In addition, Reed oversaw a defensive unit that held league foe Bucknell to just 39 points on February 27, 2008 - the second fewest points ever allowed by the Brown and White since the inception of Patriot League play in 1990.

Reed has also recruited and developed some excellent basketball talent over the course of his career at Lehigh. In addition to McCollum and several Rookie of the Year performers (Hall, Keefer, McCollum, Kempton, Ross), there have been a host of others who have enjoyed individual accomplishments and recognition. Hall, Carrington, Knutson, Holden Greiner and Mackey McKnight join McCollum, Kempton and Ross as All-Patriot League performers. Reed has also had high-level performers in the classroom and community as well. Hall was named the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year in consecutive seasons while Knutson was a three-time Academic All-Patriot League performer. Hall was also a finalist for the Senior CLASS Award.

Reed was named Lehigh's head coach on August 10, 2007. He had been an assistant at Lehigh for the previous five years, serving as associate head coach for the 2006-07 campaign.

During his time at Lehigh as assistant and later associate head coach, Reed performed numerous duties, including the coordination of recruitment, academic mentoring, detailed scouting of opponents and overall player development. He has been very instrumental in securing six consecutive seasons in the upper half of the Patriot League as well as the Mountain Hawks' 2004 Patriot League Championship and four of the winningest seasons in school history (2003-04, 2005-06, 2009-10, 2011-12).

Prior to his time at Lehigh, Reed served as the top assistant coach at High Point University in North Carolina for two seasons. Reed was an integral part of the coaching staff that led the Panthers to the Big South Championship Game in 2002. Included in that two-year period, Reed recruited a Big South Rookie of the Year and a Player of the Year.

Reed spent the 1999-2000 season as the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of North Carolina - Greensboro. He began his collegiate coaching career at Oakland (Mich.) Community College where he was an assistant for his father's program.

A native of Waterford, Michigan, Reed attended Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida where he contributed at point guard and helped lead his team to a conference championship and NCAA Tournament appearance. Reed graduated with honors, earning his Bachelor's degree in 1995 before earning his Master's at Wayne State in 1998. In 2003, Reed received his Ph.D. from Wayne State University in Instructional Technology with a Cognate in Sports Administration. He is one of only two Division I men's basketball head coaches in the entire nation to have earned their doctorate degrees. Reed was also honored during his academic career with a number of awards including the prestigious Thomas C. Rumbell Fellowship.

Reed and his wife Kindra reside in Bethlehem with their sons Brendan and Calvin, and daughter Makenna.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT COACH REED

"Brett Reed is an excellent basketball coach. In just a few years, he has led the resurgence of Lehigh basketball and turned it into a power from the Patriot League. He's building a program that can withstand one of sport's ultimate challenges - the test of time. It is undoubtedly an impressive accomplishment."

- Mike Krzyzewski, Duke University and U.S. National Team Head Coach

"I've known Brett Reed for over 10 years, and was fortunate to have him on my staff and watch him develop as a coach. I strongly believe Brett is one of the best young coaches in the country. His performance in 2011-12 was as good as or better than anyone in our profession. He's an excellent basketball coach on the floor, has incredible demeanor on the sideline and has proven that he is a top-notch recruiter."

- Fran McCaffery, former Lehigh and current University of Iowa Head Coach

"I am very proud of the success Brett has enjoyed as the head men's basketball coach at Lehigh University. Brett is extremely intelligent, hard-working and passionate about the game of basketball and is a terrific role model for the young men in his program. I am excited for what Brett has been able to accomplish in his short time as the head coach at Lehigh and am confident that he will continue to be successful for many years to come."

- Billy Taylor, former Lehigh and Head Coach and current University of Iowa Director of Operations

"Brett Reed is respected by our student-athletes, he is an excellent teacher and communicator and has been an extremely productive recruiter. I admire his values, his work ethic, his energy and his devotion to our players, their education and their experience."

- Joe Sterrett, Lehigh Murray H. Goodman Dean of Athletics

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH ANTONI WYCHE

Antoni Wyche is in his eighth season as an assistant coach at Lehigh, and sixth as associate head coach. Wyche has helped lead the Mountain Hawks' program to new heights, which includes two Patriot League Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in a three-year span, along with a return trip to the Patriot League Championship Game in 2016. Wyche took over as associate head coach after Matt Logie departed to become the head coach at Whitworth University following the 2010-11 season.

A 1999 graduate of the University of Notre Dame, Wyche brings a wealth of professional playing experience to the Lehigh sidelines, having played in numerous pro leagues in the United States and overseas for nearly a decade following his collegiate career.

Wyche has made an immediate impact as the Mountain Hawks have gone 133-91 in his seven seasons in Bethlehem while winning the 2010 and 2012 Patriot League Championships, advancing to the 2013 College Basketball Invitational and hosting the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game. Lehigh has posted a winning record in all but one season, eclipsing 20 wins on three occasions, while coming within a single possession of hosting its second straight Patriot League Title game in 2011.

Wyche also helped coach two-time Patriot League Player of the Year and top-10 NBA Draft pick C.J. McCollum, currently of the Portland Trail Blazers. Wyche has worked with several other top players at Lehigh, including two-time defending Patriot League Player of the Year Tim Kempton, and Rookie of the Year Kahron Ross. Ross became Lehigh's fifth Rookie of the Year in nine seasons.

A four-year member of the Notre Dame program, Wyche averaged 12 points, four assists and four rebounds per game during his time in South Bend as a point guard and shooting guard playing under head coach John McLeod. Also on staff for the Fighting Irish were former Lehigh head coaches McCaffery and Taylor, currently the head coach and director of basketball operations, respectively, at the University of Iowa. Following graduation, Wyche began his professional career by playing for the New Jersey Shorecats of the United States Basketball League during the spring of 2000.

A native of New York, Wyche's first international playing experience came as a member of Fersped Rabotnicki in Macedonia where he led his team to a 33-4 record and the Macedonian First Division championship. Wyche averaged 21 points, five assists and five rebounds during the regular season before registering averages of 13.5 points, four rebounds, two assists and two steals during the Korac Cup.

Among his international playing stops, Wyche has also played for Club de Mayas in Mexico, Kouvot in Finland, Niigata Albirex in Japan, Al Rayyan in Qatar and Zain in Jordan. He averaged 26 points and six assists for Club de Mayas in 2002, 17 points, four assists and five rebounds for Kouvot in 2002-03 and nine points, five rebounds and a league-leading six assists for Niigata Albirex in 2006-07. Wyche also played for the Adirondack Wildcats of USBL in 2003.

ASSISTANT COACH HARRY MORRA

Harry Morra enters his second season as Lehigh assistant coach following a stint with the program as video coordinator during the program's historic 2011-12 season. After that season at Lehigh, Morra spent the next three years as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at nearby DeSales University.

In his first season at Lehigh, Morra helped lead the Mountain Hawks to the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game. Lehigh won its final nine regular season games and saw its winning streak reach 11 (to tie a school record) after wins over Navy and American in the Patriot League Quarterfinals and Semifinals, respectively. The Mountain Hawks hosted the league championship game for the first time since 2010, reaching the title game for the third time in seven seasons.

Under Morra's watch, three Mountain Hawks were named All-Patriot League, featuring two first team All-League honorees for the first time in school history. Tim Kempton was named the league's Player of the Year for a second straight season while Kahron Ross also garnered first team laurels. Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree and Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie team.

All within the last 10 years, DeSales has established itself as one of the top 20 winningest programs in NCAA Division III, playing in the Elite Eight, Sweet 16 twice and Round of 32 three times. In Morra's time at DeSales, the Bulldogs went 102-39. He helped lead DeSales to two Regular Season Championships, two Freedom Tournament Championships, along with three NCAA Tournament wins. Morra helped develop three 1,000 point scorers, two All-Americans, two Freedom MVPs and a National Rookie Team member.

As assistant coach, Morra designed and executed recruiting strategies for New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware and Maryland. He planned and executed an annual Prospect Camp for 50 participants and Team Camp with 30 teams from all over the Mid-Atlantic region. He also prepared and presented scouting reports for 2014 Freedom Conference Coach of the Year Scott Covel.

During graduate school at Lehigh, Morra took a year off from DeSales and was Lehigh's video coordinator during a memorable 2011-12 season, which featured a Patriot League Championship and historic NCAA Tournament win over Duke. Morra was responsible for film exchange, advanced scouting and game/practice video breakdown.

Morra has worked camps at Duke, Villanova and Lehigh. After college, he was both a player and then assistant coach for Belfast Star of the Sea, which competes in the 12-team Irish Superleague. He also has experience as Operations Manager for PeacePlayers International in Northern Ireland and South Africa, an ESPY Award winning basketball non-profit organization based out of Washington, D.C.

As a player, Morra was a four-year member and two-year captain at DeSales, shooting 48 percent from three-point range in 2004 as a senior captain of the 24-5 MAC Champions.

ASSISTANT COACH
AUSTEN ROWLAND

A 2004 Lehigh graduate and member of the Patriot League 25th Anniversary Team, Austen Rowland begins his first season as assistant coach in 2016-17.

As a player at Lehigh, Rowland enjoyed one memorable season in the Brown and White, earning Patriot League Player of the Year and Tournament MVP in 2003-04 as Lehigh won its first-ever Patriot League Championship. A transfer from Delaware, Rowland scored 1,230 points over his collegiate career (which would stand 20th in school history). Rowland led the league with 15.5 points per game in his senior season at Lehigh. He was also an AP Honorable Mention All-American that year.

After graduation, Rowland went on to a 12-year professional career in Europe (Germany, France, Austria and Finland) where he was consistently one of the best in his league in assists. Most recently, he finished 2014-15 second in assists in the Finnish First League Korisliiga. He also earned the assist title in the French Pro B League in 2013-14 while finishing in the top ten in scoring that season as well. In his early days as a professional, Rowland won a 2009 Austrian Cup Championship and earned the assist title in the German First League in 2006-07.

WHY LEHIGH? "I chose Lehigh because it fit everything I was looking for in a school. I'm a huge academic guy, so of course the strong academics at Lehigh attracted me. I looked at how the players and coach get along with each other. I received a family type vibe on my official visit. Coach Reed is a great coach. It's very hard to find a coach who believes in you and wants you to be a better person and basketball player by the time you leave Lehigh. The team has a chance to make the NCAA Tournament. We have talent and we are very competitive. I fell in love with the school. The social scene at Lehigh is top notch."

GAME 1 - NOV. 11, 2016 CINTAS CENTER NO. 7/8 XAVIER 84, LEHIGH 81

CINCINNATI - The Lehigh men's basketball team fell behind 16-4, but bounced back with a vengeance as No. 7/8 Xavier squeaked out a back-and-forth season-opening game, 84-81, on Friday evening at the Cintas Center. Senior Tim Kempton led the Mountain Hawks with 25 points on 9-of-16 shooting while junior Kahron Ross dished 12 assists, falling just two assists shy of tying his own school record. In the end, Lehigh fell just short of snapping Xavier's streaks of 26 straight season opening wins and 16 consecutive home opening victories.

Kempton's 25 points tied for the game high as Xavier's Trevon Bluiett and Edmond Sumner combined for 49 points for the Musketeers. Senior Austin Price also scored double-figure points, posting 11 while freshman Jordan Cohen and junior Brandon Alston each scored nine. Ross also scored six points while turning the ball over just three times, compared to his 12 assists.

Xavier scored the game's first seven points before Kempton finished a layup to get Lehigh on the board with 17:29 on the first-half clock. The Musketeers opened a 16-4 lead before the Mountain Hawks answered with five straight points behind a Price free throw, Ross jumper and layup from sophomore Matt Holba.

The Musketeers reopened a double-digit lead at 20-9, but the Mountain Hawks continued to draw closer, pulling within six on multiple occasions: 22-16, 25-19 and 27-21.

Xavier scored eight of the next 10 points to reopen a 12-point, 35-23 lead, but the Mountain Hawks used a quick 8-0 run behind consecutive three-pointers from Cohen and Alston, followed by a Holba fastbreak layup, which pulled Lehigh within 35-31 with 4:41 on the first-half clock.

Lehigh used a 6-0 spurt to pull within 42-40 following Kempton's second straight basket then Xavier responded with a 6-0 run of its own, but a Cohen three-pointer pulled the Mountain Hawks within 48-43 after 20 minutes of play.

Lehigh opened the second half with four straight points as a layup from sophomore Kyle Leufroy pulled the Mountain Hawks within 48-47 with 18:13 on the clock. The Musketeers went up by six at 53-47, but the Mountain Hawks went on an 11-4 run as a Leufroy three-pointer gave Lehigh its first lead, 58-57, with 12:14 remaining in regulation.

The teams went back and forth over the ensuing minutes, which included the third three-pointer of the game from Cohen, but the Musketeers used a pair of three-point plays to turn a 64-63 advantage into a 70-63 lead with 8:23 on the clock.

The Musketeers extended their run to 9-0 which gave them a 73-63 lead, but Lehigh would not go away. Two Kempton free throws, a Holba layup and Price three-pointer quickly pulled the Mountain Hawks back within 73-70 with 5:41 still on the clock.

Xavier again reopened an eight-point lead at 81-73 with 2:23 remaining, but the Mountain Hawks pulled within four at 82-78 following a Kempton three-point play with 40 seconds on the clock. Another three-point play from Kempton pulled Lehigh within three at 84-81. Ross followed by taking a charge, giving the offense an opportunity to tie. However, three-point attempts from Ross and Price were off the mark as Xavier narrowly escaped.

GAME 2 - NOV. 17, 2016 JOHN J. LEE AMPHITHEATER YALE 89, LEHIGH 81

NEW HAVEN, Conn. - The Lehigh men's basketball team fought back from a nine-point first-half deficit to take a late seven-point lead, but Yale rallied to force overtime where the Bulldogs defeated the Mountain Hawks, 89-81 on Thursday evening. Senior Tim Kempton led Lehigh with a career-high 30 points while sophomore Kyle Leufroy scored 20 points and freshman Pat Andree added 11.

With the loss, the Mountain Hawks fall to 0-2 on the season following a pair of tight games that were determined in the final seconds.

Junior Kahron Ross and sophomore Matt Holba each scored nine points while Leufroy tied a career high with five assists. Leufroy finished the evening 4-of-9 from three-point range while Andree was 3-of-6. Kempton shot 11-of-20 from the field and also grabbed a game-high 11 rebounds for his 34th-career double-double.

Ross scored four of the game's first six points to give the Mountain Hawks a 4-2 lead. Yale responded to open an 8-5 advantage, and held the lead for most of the ensuing minutes. Leading 11-9, the Bulldogs scored nine of the next 12 points as an Anthony Dallier three-pointer gave the Bulldogs a 20-12 advantage with 10:36 on the first-half clock.

A Blake Reynolds trey gave the Bulldogs a 27-18 lead a few minutes later, but the Mountain Hawks had an answer. They came out of a timeout on a 9-0 run, which included three-pointers from Andree and Leufroy, which tied the score at 27 with 4:45 remaining in the half.

Yale used a mini 4-0 surge to take a 34-30 advantage, another Leufroy trey pulled the Mountain Hawks within 36-35, but the Bulldogs ended the half with the final four points to take a 40-35 lead after 20 minutes of play.

The Mountain Hawks pulled even just over five minutes into the second half as a Holba layup made the score 46-46 with 14:27 on the clock. Yale retook a lead, but another Holba layup gave the Mountain Hawks a 54-53 advantage with 11:47 remaining.

Lehigh's lead reached four at 59-55 following a Leufroy three-pointer, then eventually six as an Andree trey gave the Mountain Hawks a 66-60 advantage with 6:35 on the clock. The lead swelled to seven following a drive to the basket and emphatic slam from Kempton, which made the score 71-66 with 3:48 on the clock.

Yale answered with seven straight and nine of the next 11 points to even the score at 73 and force overtime.

In the extra session, the score was tied at 75 and 78. Lehigh took an 80-78 lead following a fastbreak dunk from senior Austin Price, but Yale responded with 11 of the final 12 points of regulation and the Mountain Hawks were held to just one point over the final 1:53.

GAME 3 - NOV. 20, 2016
STABLER ARENA
LEHIGH 76, PRINCETON 67

BETLHEHEM, Pa. - Tied at 34 at the half, the Lehigh men's basketball team opened the second on a 8-0 run and didn't trail the rest of the way, beating preseason Ivy League favorite Princeton on Sunday afternoon in Stabler Arena, 76-67. Replacing an injured Kahron Ross in the starting lineup, freshman Jordan Cohen scored 20 points on 7-of-8 shooting while dishing six assists. Senior Tim Kempton scored a game-high 24 points while adding 11 rebounds for his second straight double-double.

Senior Austin Price scored 14 points on 4-of-6 shooting, including 3-of-5 from three-point range while adding five rebounds, an assist, block and steal. Kempton also had four assists, three blocks and a steal to finish out his double-double performance. As a team, the Mountain Hawks shot 57 percent from the field (26-of-46), but committed 19 turnovers.

The Mountain Hawks got off to a fast start, opening a 10-4 lead following a three-pointer from Cohen with 15:37 left in the first half.

Princeton pulled within three, but the Mountain Hawks opened eight-point leads of 17-9 and 19-11 following a layup from Kempton with 11:37 on the first-half clock. The Tigers responded with 13 of the next 17 points as a three-pointer from Steven Cook evened the score at 21, then a Cook free throw gave Princeton its first lead at 22-21 with 7:17 on the clock.

Lehigh responded to take leads of 24-22, 26-25 and 31-28 following a Cohen three-point play with 44 seconds left in the first half. The teams went on to trade three-pointers over the final 41 seconds as Amir Bell banked in a trey as time expired to tie the score at 34 following 20 minutes of play.

Cohen finished the first half with eight points on 3-of-4 shooting with three assists compared to just one turnover. Kempton recorded seven points, seven boards, three assists and three blocks.

The Mountain Hawks came out of the locker room on fire, staging an 8-0 run capped off by a Cohen three-pointer to give Lehigh a 42-34 lead with 17:17 on the clock.

Princeton pulled back within five on multiple occasions, including following a Devin Cannady three-pointer which cut Lehigh's lead to five, 52-47, with 10:01 on the clock. The Mountain Hawks went back up by nine on multiple occasions, but Princeton used a 7-0 run to turn a 64-56 Lehigh lead into a 64-63 advantage with 3:45 still remaining.

The Mountain Hawks answered by holding Princeton scoreless for the next 3:09 while scoring 10 points of their own, to open a 74-63 lead in the final minute, which was too much for the Tigers to overcome.
