Golden Eagle Notes

- Monday night's game is the first installment of a four-game series in which the Bulldogs and Golden Eagles will square off inside the Mississippi Coliseum, flipping home-team duties each time. The last head-to-head matchup came in the 2001 NIT, as Mississippi State edged C-USA regular-season champion Southern Miss, 75-68, and the most-recent scheduled one was on Dec. 16, 1995.
- There were positives aplenty in Southern Miss' last outing on Saturday, Dec. 10. The Golden Eagles shot 55.8 percent to end the game (beginning with Michael Ramey's two triples that closed the first half), scoring a season-high 47 points in the second. Southern Miss had more assists than turnovers for the second time on the year (17-13) as well.
- Kevin Holland was 5-for-5 from beyond the arc, making him the second in C-USA to be perfect on that many or more attempts (now 11-for-18; 61 percent on the year). He also had a career-high 15 points and no turnovers in 35 minutes. His personal-best eight assists were also the most by a Golden Eagle since Khari Price had that many in the previous year's home finale.
- The last time Southern Miss went an entire month with one home game or less (not including November or March) was in Dec. 1997 (one of those away games, a 90-57 win over Miss. Valley State, was last time the Golden Eagles played in the Mississippi Coliseum). That squad, with current Director of Operations Kyle Roane serving as an assistant coach, made the NIT, and Roane was also on the aforementioned 2001 staff. The Golden Eagles will head out before sunrise Tuesday morning for Hawaii.
- A few different Golden Eagles have stepped their games up lately. Cortez Edwards into the middle of Tuesday's game extended his shooting barrage to 18 makes in his last 24 attempts. The sophomore's 18 points on Sunday came after setting his previous career-high of 15 the previous Wednesday. Quinton Campbell's 22 points on Sunday were the most by anyone on the team for the year and also marked a personal-best.
- Eddie Davis III posted two significant career-highs at Florida State, scoring 17 points in 34 minutes. Those figures come after his first two seasons were cut quite short due to injuries. This year has also seen him produce his first two double-digit rebounding games and three consecutive games scoring in double-figures. He is currently No. 8 in C-USA for rebounding (7.3 per game).
- Tim Rowe made his return on Saturday after missing the previous two games due to an injury. He has a team-high 51.2 percent field goal percentage (No. 11 in C-USA) and leads the pack with 11 blocks. His 28 minutes against Tulane were even one short of a career-high, and he remains in the league's top-10 with 7.2 boards per game.
- Mississippi State most recently had a three-game winning streak snapped by East Tennessee State on Tuesday. Five Bulldogs are averaging double-figure scoring marks on the year, led by Quindary Weatherspoon (2016 Freshman All-SEC) and his 17.6 points per game. Basketball coaching icon Ben Howland, who once led UCLA to three consecutive Final Fours from 2006-08, serves at the helm.

Last Time Out

HATTIESBURG, Miss. -- A 47-point second half helped by 53.3 percent shooting was not enough for Southern Miss on Saturday night as the clock ran out in a 71-64 defeat to Tulane.

"If we can just exceed opponents' energy, we have a good chance to win," head coach Doc Sadler said. "We started the game quick (8-2 lead) and not only could we not make any shots for a time, but as a team we let up defensively when we should have grinded there. We had a few turnovers in a row and one was from our guys wanting it way too bad on offense."

The Green Wave led by as much as 66-45 with 6:03 left before Southern Miss ultimately strung together an 8-0 run that brought it within 66-56 at the 1:39 mark. Quinton Campbell, who celebrated a birthday on Friday, banked in a three-pointer for the second time of the night that cut the margin to 70-62 with 31 seconds left.

A quick turnover on the baseline gave way to a Cortez Edwards jumper, and the Golden Eagles found themselves down 70-64 with 20 seconds on the clock, but Tulane held firm for the win.

"I didn't think our defense was that bad," Sadler said. "Tulane was averaging over 80 points a ballgame. We gave up nine offensive rebounds, which is probably a few too many, and gave up some open looks when we didn't need to."

Michael Ramey connected on a pair of three-pointers on the Golden Eagles' final two shot attempts of the first half, giving them some momentum despite a 30-17 deficit. Including those shots, the Black and Gold were a crisp 55.8 percent from the field to end the night.

Southern Miss (3-5) will take the next week off for final exams before squaring off with Mississippi State on Monday, Dec. 19 in Jackson. That contest inside the Mississippi Coliseum will tip off at 8 p.m. on ESPN2.

NOTABLE

- The Golden Eagles had defeated its former Metro and Conference USA rival 12 of the previous 14 times heading into Saturday.
- The team's 47 second-half points were a season-high.
- Kevin Holland's 5-for-5 game from beyond the arc was not only a career-high in makes, but also the second instance in C-USA play this year for someone to be perfect in that stat.
- Both Holland (8) and Tim Rowe (5) collected career-highs in assists, and Holland's mark were the most by a Golden Eagle since Khari Price had eight in the home finale versus North Texas in February.
- Holland's 15 points were also a personal-best, and he had no turnovers in 35 minutes.
- Eddie Davis III has scored in double-figures three consecutive games.
- Southern Miss had more assists (17) than turnovers (13) for the second time this year.

Need to Know

Who's Who on that Southern Miss bench?

- Head coach Doc Sadler is beginning his third season in Hattiesburg. He is joined by assistant coaches Chris Croft, Marques Townsend, Clarence Weatherspoon and Director of Operations Kyle Roane.
- Croft was on Sadler's staff all six years at Nebraska, including one year as an assistant coach. Croft also served with him on four postseason teams (NIT) at UTEP (1) and Nebraska (3).
- Croft has been with Sadler in 10 of his 11 years as a Division I coach, the most of anyone on staff.
- Sadler moved south to Lawrence, Kan., to be the Director of Basketball Operations for the Jayhawks upon leaving the Huskers. Townsend was also a manger/administrative volunteer as the two overlapped for a year and was hired prior to Sadler's second season at Southern Miss.
- Weatherspoon remained tight with his alma mater following his storied playing career, becoming a season ticket holder and earning recognition at "Clarence Weatherspoon Day" on Jan. 30, 2016 when the Golden Eagles defeated UTSA. He is a recent inductee into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame too.
- Roane joins Weatherspoon and Croft as the other Golden Eagle alumnus. He was an assistant at Southern Miss from 1996-00 before serving as Associate Head Coach until 2003. His first year in that new role saw the squad win the C-USA title with James Green at the helm.
- Graduate assistants Tyler Schaul and Jake Stoffers were both Iowa State student managers when Doc Sadler spent his lone year (2013-14) in Ames as an assistant coach with Fred Hoiberg.

Meet the Hoopers!

- The Southern Miss basketball roster features some impressive basketball family backgrounds.
- Freshman Clay Weatherspoon is the son of assistant coach Clarence, widely considered the best player in Southern Miss history.
- Bilal Abdur-Rahim's brother, Shareef, played at Cal before a 12-year NBA career. He held a few different front office jobs with various teams before his current role, the Associate VP of Basketball Operations for the NBA.
- Kevin Holland's father, James, is an assistant coach for the Western Michigan men's basketball team. He led USC Spartanburg (now Upstate) to the 1982 NAIA championship and spent the 1982-83 season playing for the Harlem Globetrotters. Holland was also an assistant for Doc Sadler's first UTEP team that won the 2005 WAC title and appeared in March Madness. He has since served on the coaching staffs at San Diego State, South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama (where Kevin attended high school).

We Ain't Ever Getting Older

- Only two of the 15 eligible players this season had not been a part of a college basketball program prior.
- Three of the four seniors are in their fifth years, redshirting at Southern Miss or elsewhere. Khari Price and Michael Ramey began at Dayton and Ball State, respectively, with Price playing an integral role in the Flyers' 2014 Elite Eight run.
- Eddie Davis III and Kevin Holland are both in their third years at Southern Miss but still qualify as sophomores. Davis III took a medical redshirt after playing just the first four games of the 2014-15 season before a season-ending injury.
- Both of the above-mentioned Golden Eagles began their 2016-17 campaigns on a very high note. Davis is No. 8 in C-USA for rebounding with a team-high 7.3 per game. Holland's 5-for-5 three-point game against Tulane leaves him 11-for-18 on the year (61.1 percent).

Additional Notes

- Cortez Edwards has been someone to watch in the sixth-man role. He already produced four double-figure scoring games in the first eight games of the year, the only ones of his career.
- At one point during the Florida State game, he extended his shooting barrage to 18 makes in his last 24 attempts (including a buzzer-beater deep beyond the arc). The sophomore's 18 points on Sunday came after setting his previous career-high of 15 the previous Wednesday.
- His freshman season saw him make 14 turnovers in his first five games, spanning 104 minutes. He ended the season with none over the last eight games, a total of 105 minutes. He was arguably the best free-throw shooter on the team with a team-high 91.7 percent rate in his 12 attempts. Edwards also dished out a team-high 12 assists over the two exhibition games and has a five blocks so far, more than he had all last year.
- Quinton Campbell leads Southern Miss in three-point (36) and free-throw (35) attempts, as well as placing second in field goal tries (70). His five steals are also most on the squad.
- Tim Rowe's five blocks against South Alabama on Nov. 30 marked the most by a Southern Miss individual since Gary Flowers had seven against New Orleans in 2009.
- Only seven Golden Eagles played in the Dec. 10 contest against Tulane. That was the third such instance in head coach Doc Sadler's Southern Miss tenure (previously Feb. 5 and 12, 2015).
- Guards Kevin Holland and Christian Clark are the team's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee representatives.
- Two Golden Eagles on the bench to watch out for in the future are Dominic Magee and Tyree Griffin, who are both sitting out per NCAA transfer rules.
- Magee was ranked as high as the No. 2 recruit in Louisiana coming out of Helen Cox HS in Harvey. He redshirted his first year at Memphis before playing at 28-8 Grand Canyon last year, even scoring 29 points in his debut.
- Griffin was a major contributor at Oklahoma State the last two years, starting 16 games as a sophomore. He even had a career-high 12 assists at Kansas and tallied eight double-figure scoring games.

“We’re going to the NCAA tournament. That’s where we’re going. I don’t care anything about winning a lot of games. I care about one thing. I care about playing in the NCAA tournament.”

And with that statement, Doc Sadler began his tenure as the 20th head coach in Southern Miss history prior to the 2014-15 season.

Sadler was announced at a press conference on May 1, 2014, bringing over 30 years of coaching experience to Hattiesburg. In 10 years as a Division I head coach, his teams have averaged nearly 19 wins a year, as he holds a record of 166-148. As a head coach, his teams have posted winning marks in 11 of his 14 years, with seven squads having won at least 20 games. Overall, he owns a 286-187 in 14 seasons as a college head coach.

During his coaching tenure, Sadler has been associated with 16 postseason teams in 23 seasons, including five in 10 years at the Division I level, while helping 19 players reach the National Basketball Association.

Sadler spent the last two years at Kansas and Iowa State respectively, winning two Big XII titles and advancing to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen both years. While at ISU, Sadler learned under head coach Fred Hoiberg, who plays an NBA style of offense, which Sadler brings to Southern Miss.

Sadler spent six years at Nebraska, compiling a 101-89 record and three NIT appearances. Sadler opened his tenure with the Cornhuskers with five straight wins, including his 50th as a Division I coach over nationally-ranked Creighton. He went on to guide NU to 17 wins, tying for the third-most victories by a first-year coach in Nebraska history.

In 2007-08, Sadler led his second squad to 20 victories, just the 12th 20-win season in program history and the first since 1999, guiding the Huskers to the second round of the NIT.

The following year, Nebraska earned an 18-13 record, including an 8-8 record in Big XII play. It was the first .500 conference record by the Huskers in a decade, and ended with their second straight NIT appearance.

That year, Nebraska had the best scoring defense in the league at 60.4 points per game, the second-best mark at NU in the last 50 years. The Huskers’ second straight NIT appearance marked the first time in a decade that Nebraska had played in the postseason in consecutive years.

Following a year that saw Sadler put the youngest team in the Big XII on the floor, Sadler led Nebraska to the NIT in 2010-11, earning a 19-13 record. The Huskers were led by a defense that ranked in the top-20 nationally in both scoring and field goal percentage. The 89 wins in his first five seasons are the most by an NU coach in Nebraska history.

Sadler, 55, began his Division I head coach career by spending two seasons leading the program at UTEP, where he helped continue the long-standing tradition of success in Miners basketball.

Sadler’s UTEP teams boasted 48 victories in his two years as head coach and won 72.7-percent of their games. Including his first season with the Miners as an assistant coach, Sadler helped UTEP to 72 victories over three years, ranking the Miners 20th nationally in victories during that span. The Miners gained three straight postseason appearances with Sadler on the bench.

A native of Greenwood, Ark., Sadler made one of the most successful Division I coaching debuts in college basketball history, as his 2004-05 Miners squad ran to an impressive 27-8 record and an NCAA Tournament berth. UTEP won a school-record 14 Western Athletic Conference (WAC) games and its first WAC Tournament title in 15 years to earn the league’s automatic bid.

The 27 wins were one off the UTEP school record. They also put Sadler in rare territory, as the mark still ranks ninth in NCAA history for victories by a first-year Division I coach.

Sadler led UTEP to 21 victories in 2005-06 and an NIT berth, relying on a defense that ranked 15th nationally by allowing only 59.5 points per game. UTEP set a C-USA record by allowing just 56 points per game in conference play in 2005-06, and also allowed teams to hit just 40.6 percent from the floor on the year, the program’s best mark since 1974.

While solid defense is a staple of his teams, Sadler understands the need to put creative scorers in a position to flourish. That was especially noticeable in his first UTEP team, as the 2005 Miners set the school record for points scored (2,616, 74.7 ppg), assists (579) and free throw percentage (.792).

Head Coach Doc Sadler

Sadler helped two players, Omar Thomas and Filberto Rivera, earn first-team All-WAC honors in 2005, the first time UTEP had a pair of players on the first team in 20 years. Thomas also earned MVP honors after an outstanding performance at the league tournament. A year later, John Tofi, one of two 1,000-point scorers on the squad, was the third Miner to earn a first-team all-league certificate under Sadler.

Before taking over as head coach, Sadler was an assistant at UTEP under then-head coach Billy Gillispie in 2003-04 when the Miners made their first NCAA Tournament appearance in more than a decade. Under Gillispie and Sadler, UTEP tied the biggest turnaround in NCAA history that season as it went from six wins the previous year to 24 wins in Sadler's first season assisting the Miners.

Sadler honed his coaching skills in his native state, as he served as a head coach in the junior college ranks for five years at Arkansas-Fort Smith from 1999 to 2003. His success as a head coach began there, as he posted a 120-39 record at Fort Smith.

Sadler served two stints as an assistant coach at Arkansas-Fort Smith, first in 1988-91 and then again during the 1997-98 season. He took over as head coach and athletic director in 1998 and served in that capacity until 2003 when he left to join Gillispie at UTEP.

Sadler's teams won the Bi-State East Conference title each of his last four years at Arkansas-Fort Smith. The 2001 and 2002 NJCAA Region II Coach of the Year, Sadler led the Lions to the region title and an appearance in the NJCAA Tournament while winning 30 games each of those seasons. Off the court, his teams had a 95-percent graduation rate during his tenure and every sophomore over his last two seasons at UAFS was awarded a scholarship to a four-year institution, including eight Division I scholarships.

Honing his administrative and fundraising skills, Sadler oversaw a department that posted a 72.4 winning percentage across all sports under his guidance while he also spearheaded efforts to build a new basketball arena for the university.

Considered by many to be a tremendous tactician and strategist, Sadler is equally as impressive on the recruiting paths. Sadler has signed eight players who have gone on to play in the NBA, including Michael Batiste, Tony Battie, Cory Carr, Mark Davis, Darwin Ham, Eddie House, Maurice Jeffers and Jason Sasser.

Sadler has also coached 11 other players who reached the NBA -- Greg Anderson, Mario Bennett, Randy Brown, Isaac Burton, Byron Irvin, Joe Klein, Andrew Lang, Ron Riley, Alvin Robertson, Darrell Walker and Rickie Winslow. Overall, Sadler's total is an impressive 19 former pupils who reached the highest level of professional basketball.

As an assistant coach, Sadler served stints at nine current Division I schools, including Arkansas (1982-85, under Coach Eddie Sutton), Lamar (1985-86, under Coach Pat Foster), Houston (1986), Chicago State (1987-88, under Coach Tommy Suits), Texas Tech (1991-94, under Coach James Dickey), Arizona State (1994-97, under Coach Bill Freider), UTEP

(2003-04, under Coach Billy Gillispie), Kansas (2012-13 under Coach Bill Self) and Iowa State (2013-14 under Coach Fred Hoiberg).

Over 14 full seasons as a Division I assistant coach, 11 of his teams reached the postseason, including ASU's 1996 team that reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. At Texas Tech, Sadler helped the Red Raiders to the 1993 Southwest Conference title and an NCAA appearance. He recruited talent that helped the Red Raiders to a 28-1 record and a Sweet 16 appearance in 1996.

The energetic Sadler also served one season as a high school coach, guiding County Line High School to a 38-7 record.

Sadler, who was a four-year student manager for the Arkansas Razorbacks under Coach Eddie Sutton, earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1982 before beginning his collegiate coaching career with Sutton at Arkansas. Sadler added a masters of science degree in education from Northeastern State in 1991.

Sadler and his wife, Tonya, who is also a native of Greenwood, Ark., have two sons, Landon and Matthew.

What others are saying about Sadler...

"This is not a home run, this is a grand slam hire. I have coached against his teams for 20 years and his teams play tough and are extremely difficult to guard. He will do great at Southern Miss."
John Calipari, Kentucky Head Coach

"Doc Sadler is a great fit for Southern Miss Basketball. His teams have won a lot of games with grit and toughness and it will be no different in Hattiesburg. Golden Eagle fans will embrace him because he wasn't born with a silver coaching spoon in his mouth. He's earned his success."
Fran Fraschilla, ESPN College Basketball Analyst

"I couldn't be happier for Doc, but we will miss him greatly here at Iowa State. Much of our success this past year was because of Doc's influence on our team. Southern Miss is getting an excellent basketball coach and an even better person who will do special things for the program."
Fred Hoiberg, Iowa State Head Coach

"I've known Doc for almost 30 years. He's a really good guy that can flat out coach and recruit. Players want to play for him. I'm so excited for Doc but also very happy for the Southern Miss community."
Bill Self, Kansas Head Coach
