Radio: The Point 94.1 FM

OPENING TIP

Little Rock closes out the non-conference portion of its 2017-18 schedule Wednesday, making the trip to Starkville, Mississippi to take on Mississippi State on Wednesday, December 20 at 7 p.m. The game will be televised on SEC Network + as fans can also watch the game online through the WatchESPN app. Ray Tucker and Kevin Crass will have the call between the Trojans and the Bulldogs from Humphrey Coliseum on The Point 94.1 FM and online at KKPT.com.

NO REST FOR THE WEARY

As the non-conference schedule wraps up in Mississippi, Little Rock concludes the busiest stretch of basketball during the 2017-18 season. The game in Starkville against Mississippi State marks Little Rock's fifth game in 11 days, traveling nearly 3,200 miles in the process. Add in the trips to Memphis, Grand Canyon and San Diego and the Trojans will have racked up almost 7,000 miles of travel through the first five weeks of the season, playing all seven of their road games in a different state.

ROCKY ROAD

Not only has Little Rock's non-conference schedule taken them across the country, the Trojans have faced some tough challenges along the way. Little Rock's seven non-conference road opponents have a combined record of 53-23 (.697) thus far in 2017-18 as all seven currently sit at .500 or better on the year. Mississippi State has just one blemish (9-1) this season, coming off a loss to 25th-ranked Cincinnati on December 12, with Bradley (9-2) joining the Bulldogs with nine wins and Memphis (7-3), Grand Canyon (8-3) and San Diego (8-3) each with just three losses.

MISSISSIPPI BOYS

Wednesday's game in Starkville will mark a homecoming for a pair of Trojans as Deondre Burns and Oliver Black both hail from the state of Mississippi. Burns was born in Yazoo City, about 130 miles southwest of Starkville while Black grew up not far away in Jackson, which is also roughly 130 miles from the Mississippi State campus. Black should also be quite familiar with the settings in Humphrey Coliseum as he played his freshman season for the Bulldogs, appearing in 31 games with four starts while scoring 56 points and adding 75 rebounds in a reserve role in 2014-15.

SCOUTING THE BULLDOGS

2017-18: 9-1 overall, 0-0 Southeastern Conference, 9-0 at home. Receiving five votes in the latest USA Today coaches poll

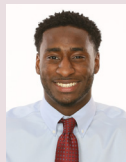

Last Three Games: W vs. UT Martin (92-61); L at Cincinnati (65-50); W vs. North Georgia (95-62)

Head Coach: Ben Howland (Weber College, 1979). Third season at Mississippi State (39-34, .534); 22nd season overall (440-240, .647)

SERIES HISTORY

Little Rock and Mississippi State meet for the fifth time Wednesday night as the Bulldogs hold a 3-1 edge in the all-time series. The Trojans won the first meeting between the two, a 70-68 victory in Starkville on December 9, 1995, but the Bulldogs have won the last three, the last of which was a 83-53 Mississippi State victory on December 11, 2004. The Trojans are 1-2 all-time at Humphrey Coliseum, suffering a 91-83 defeat in Starkville on November 21, 2001. The lone game played in Little Rock was on January 3, 2004, won by the Bulldogs 68-58.

LAST TIME OUT

Little Rock took advantage of some home cooking Monday evening, routing the University of the Ozarks 94-49 at the Jack Stephens Center. The Trojans never trailed in the game, leading by 20 at halftime (45-25) and extended that margin to 45 late in the second half. Little Rock had its best shooting night of the season to date, hitting 52.9 percent (36-of-68) of its shots from the floor while hitting 12 of its 30 three-point attempts (40.0%). 12 different Trojans scored as Little Rock held a 44-25 rebounding advantage and registered 14 steals compared to just one for the Eagles. The 45-point victory was the most for Little Rock since a 100-38 win over Southwestern on November 25, 2000.

CAREER HIGHS FOR THE LOCAL GUYS

The 94-49 victory against Ozarks Monday night produced a number of career highs in points for Trojans who hail from central Arkansas. Anthony Black (Little Rock), Ben Marcus (Pine Bluff) and Ryan Pippins (Little Rock) each notched personal-bests against the Eagles, led by Black's 19 points of 7-of-10 shooting, highlighted by a 5-of-7 performance from beyond the arc. Marcus and Pippins each finished with 14 points against Ozarks as Marcus was an efficient 7-of-8 from the floor while Pippins went 5-of-10 in his first appearance of the season.

CORCORAN IN THE CLUTCH

One of 11 newcomers on this season's Trojan roster, freshman Cameron Corcoran has started to emerge as one of the Trojans' top scoring threats. Corcoran has registered double-digit point totals in each of the last three games for Little Rock, including his 12 points on 4-of-7 shooting from beyond the arc in the win over Ozarks. Corcoran scored a career-high 14 at Bradley on December 13 while finishing with 11 at Sam Houston State on December 15 as the Orlando, Florida native has converted 11 of his 19 three point attempts (57.9%) during the last three games. Corcoran also dished out a career-high six assists in the win over Ozarks.

CONTROLLING THE PAINT...

One area that has become Little Rock's strength early through the first month of the 2017-18 season has been its play in the paint. The Trojans have outscored their opponents 354-262 in points in the paint through 12 games this season, averaging 29.5 points in the key per game. Little Rock has held the advantage in nine of its 12 games this season, including a 20+ point differential against Ouachita Baptist (48-20), Norfolk State (38-10) and Ozarks (46-10).

...AS O.B. TAKES CHARGE

Junior Oliver Black has emerged as one of the Sun Belt's biggest presences in the paint and has been a key factor in helping the Trojans' efficiency inside. Black pulled down 11 rebounds against Ozarks and just missed a double-double, finishing with eight points, chalking up his third double-digit rebounding tally of the season. Through 12 games, Black is averaging 8.1 rebounds per game, currently ranking seventh in the Sun Belt Conference, complemented by his 5.7 points per game while shooting 46.2 percent from the floor.

SEEKING THEIR ROAD TOUCH

The Trojans head to Mississippi in search of their first road victory away the Jack. Little Rock is 0-6 in road games this season, extending its winless streak in true road games to seven-straight while winning just one of its last 14 in enemy territory. Little Rock's last win away from the Jack Stephens Center came in a 62-57 against South Alabama in Mobile on March 2, 2017.

CLOSING IN ON 1,000

An impressive program milestone remains tantalizingly close for Wes Flanigan's squad. Playing its 80th season of basketball, Little Rock has compiled an overall program record of 992-1,011 (.495), sitting just eight wins shy of reaching 1,000 victories. The Trojans have accumulated 35 winning seasons in program history and have won 20 or more games 11 times, highlighted by the memorable 30-win campaign in 2016-17. The Trojans have already hit another big milestone this season as the December 9th game at Central Arkansas marked the 2,000th game in program history.

TROJANS AGAINST THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

Little Rock enters Wednesday's game with an overall record of 2-14 (.125) against 10 current members of the Southeastern Conference. Mississippi State, the Trojans' opponent, is the team Little Rock has met up with the most frequently, going 1-3 all-time against the Bulldogs. The other win against an SEC school came on December 8, 1993 when the Trojans upset Tennessee in Knoxville 69-59.

WES FLANIGAN

HEAD COACH (AUBURN, 1997) | OVERALL RECORD: 18-26 (.409)
SEVENTH SEASON AT LITTLE ROCK; SECOND SEASON AS HEAD COACH

Wes Flanigan enters his second season as head coach in 2017-18. Flanigan's first season as head coach saw the Trojans earn nine non-conference victories and win the Lone Star Showcase in Cedar Park, Texas.

Flanigan was announced as Little Rock's new head coach on March 31, 2016. A Little Rock native, Flanigan has spent a total of six years with the program, including a season as associate head coach on the Trojans' record-setting 2015-16 team.

In addition to a previous stint as a Little Rock assistant from 2004-08, Flanigan worked as a member of the staffs at Mississippi State, Nebraska and UAB.

With Flanigan serving as associate head coach, Little Rock established new program records for wins (30), Sun Belt wins (17) and road wins (12) last season. The Trojans won their first-ever outright Sun Belt Conference Championship in the regular season before winning the league's postseason tournament for the second time.

Twelfth-seeded Little Rock knocked off No. 5 seed Purdue – which ended the regular season ranked No. 12/10 in the AP Top 25 and USA TODAY Coaches Poll – in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

Little Rock's win over Purdue was the program's second NCAA Tournament win, and first in three decades. The Trojans became the first team in Sun Belt Conference history to win 30 games in a season.

The Trojans won 18 or more games twice during Flanigan's first run in Little Rock. In the 2007-08 season, the Trojans won 20 games while Flanigan served as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator.

Flanigan joined UAB as an assistant coach in 2008-09. Over two seasons in Birmingham, the Blazers won 47 games and made two NIT appearances. In 2009-10, the Blazers went 25-9 to match a program record for victories before reaching the quarterfinals of the NIT.

Flanigan was an assistant at Nebraska for two seasons (2010-12) before serving on Rick Ray's staff at Mississippi State from 2012-15.

Flanigan joined the Trojans in 2004 after five seasons as an assistant at Northwest Mississippi Community College. During his time at Northwest, Flanigan worked with both the men's and women's teams and helped lead the men's squad to a record of 119-39.

The Northwest men's program also won three Region XXIII championships and earned three trips to the National Junior College Athletic Association National Championship tournament during Flanigan's tenure. The Rangers also captured two MACJC North Division titles and the state championship in 2001.

Flanigan was named the 1992-93 Gatorade High School Player of the Year in Arkansas while playing for Charles Ripley and his father, Al, at Little Rock Parkview High School.

He went on to earn four letters at Auburn (1993-97), where he was All-SEC as a junior and team co-captain for three seasons. He finished his college career averaging 10.1 points, 4.8 assists and 2.4 rebounds per game.

He ranks second on Auburn's career assists list (573) and is 22nd on the program's all-time scoring list (1,228).

Flanigan graduated from Auburn in 1997 with a degree in health promotion and was the recipient of the Cliff Hare Award, presented annually to the university's top student-athlete.

He and his wife, Katrina, have three sons: Michael Lewis, Allen and Collin.
