COPELAND NO-HITTER

Sophomore Brianna Copeland threw her first career no-hitter against Prairie View A&M tallying a career-high ten strikeouts, along with no hits, one run and zero walks. After opening weekend, she has an era of .60 after pitching 11.2 innings and totaling 14 strikeouts.

SWING BATTER BATTER

Junior infielder Brooke Benson had a stellar performance at the plate opening weekend. In 10 at bats, she jump started the Hoosiers' offense totaling four hits, one double, one home run and seven RBI. Benson hit the ninth career home run against Prairie View A&M to take a 2-1 lead against the Panthers.

POWER HITTER

Sophomore Sarah Stone had some power hits for the Hoosiers on Opening Day. four hits on the weekend, with four RBIs with three doubles. On Opening Day, her batting average against Pitt was .667 and PVAMU .500.

FRESHMAN ON THE FIELD

- Utility player Cassidy Kettleman earned her first career start against South Alabama and totaled six at bats on the weekend holding a .500 slugging percentage.

- Second baseman Taryn Kern started for the Hoosiers in the infield. She tallied two hits, 1 RBI and seven assists in her rookie debut.

- Catcher/Utility Avery Parker started in all four games earning three runs, two hits, one triple and two RBI during Opening Weekend. The Westfield, Ind., native also stole two bases in her first two attempts.

ABOUT LAST SEASON

Indiana finished the 2022 season with a 27-22 record, going 10-13 in conference play. The Hoosiers fell, 2-1, against the No. 7 seeded Penn State in the Big Ten Tournament.

IU faced five ranked opponents last season, in No. 1 Oklahoma, No. 3 Florida State, No. 10 Northwestern, No. 22 Notre Dame and No. 23 Ohio State where they went 1-2 in the series against the Buckeyes.

RETURNING IN 2023

- The Hoosiers return six starters from the 2022 season led by senior utility Cora Bassett (.400, 62 hits, 57 runs, 16 SB in 2022), Infielders Brooke Benson (.341, 43 hits, 25 runs, 9 SB in 2022) and Briana Copeland (.278, 20 runs, and 32 hits in 2022).

- Pitchers Heather Johnson (3.89 ERA, 88 K, 147.2 IP in 2022) and Macy Montgomery (4.13 ERA, 79 K, 95.0 IP in 2022) lead the way in the circle.

- Catcher Lindsey Warick returns to her role behind the plate (.227, 22 hits, 16 RBI in 2022).

- IU brings back their top seven hitters from last season in terms of average, led by Tatum Hayes and Cora Bassett (.400).

BASSETT IS BACK

- Senior utility Cora Bassett is back in the cream and crimson after a stellar last season ready to pick up where she left off. Bassett ranked in the top-three in the Big Ten in five different offensive stat categories.

Bassett hit .400 for the season, one of only four Big Ten athletes to hit .400 or better. She also had 62 hits, 13 home runs, 34 RBI, 16 stolen bases, a .774 slugging percentage and a .505 on base percentage.

Her .400 batting average ranked as the ninth best for a single season in program history and her .774 slugging percentage ranked third for a season in program history. Bassett's 13 home runs also tied for the third most in program history.

The Newburgh, Ind. native tallied 19 doubles, which lead the Big Ten and established a new Indiana school record for doubles in a season. Bassett ranked second in the conference in runs scored with 57, which is tied for the Hoosiers single season record, and ranked sixth in the NCAA in runs per game.

BIG TIME

- Sophomore Taylor Minnick (Second Team, All-Freshman Team) was selected to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team and Second Team All-Big Ten after a dominating season performance.

- She had one of the best debut seasons in program history in 2022. The Bloomington native hit .305 with 29 hits, 17 runs scored, eight doubles, five home runs, 24 RBI and six stolen bases.

- In conference play, she held a .310 batting average, 15 runs, 22 hits, seven doubles, five home runs and 22 RBI in 23 games. Minnick also started in 22 of the Hoosiers 23 conference games in the BIG.

NEW TO THE HOOSIERS

- Indiana has six newcomers to the team including right-handed pitcher Sophie Kleiman, infielders Taryn Kern, Chloe Geijer, outfielder Elle Smith, utility player Cassidy Kettleman and catcher, utility player in Avery Parker.

2022 NCAA Rankings

- IU ranked eighth in the country in stolen bases at 2.27 per game at the end of last season. Indiana is +48 in stolen bases vs. their opponent last season.

- As a team, the Hoosiers ranked 11th in doubles per game (1.67) in the NCAA.

50 YEARS

- Indiana Softball is celebrating 50 years as a varsity sport this season. Team 50 hosted a celebration in the fall, inviting alumni to celebrate the storied history and bright future of the program.

NEW HIRES

- Shonda Stanton added two to her staff in assistant coach Aaron Clopton and Graduate Assistant Grayson Radcliffe. Clopton arrives at IU with over two decades of experience, most recently coaching at the University of Kansas. Radcliffe joins the program after a phenomenal four-year career with the Hoosiers under coach Stanton (2018-2022).

SHONDA STANTON

Head Coach • 6th Year as Indiana Head Coach

24th Year as Collegiate Head Coach

Head coach Shonda Stanton enters her fourth season at the helm of Indiana Softball after being named the program's ninth head coach on June 10, 2017. Stanton came to the Hoosiers after 18 seasons at Marshall, where she was the winningest coach in program history with 560 victories.

INDIANA

In her third year at Indiana, Stanton guided the Hoosiers to an overall record of 12-9 over 21 games prior to the premature cancellation of the rest of the season due to the COVID-19 pandemic in spring 2020. Indiana won nine of their last 12 ballgames on the season and earned an initial NCAA RPI ranking of 52 prior to the season's cancellation. The Hoosiers amassed 138 hits, 90 runs, 75 RBI's and 55 stolen bases on the shortened season. IU ended the year ranked third nationally in stolen bases per game (2.62) and first in the Big Ten.

Emily Goodin picked up a conference weekly award for IU winning Big Ten Co-Pitcher of the Week after tossing her second career no-hitter against Bucknell on Feb. 21. She was the senior ace of the staff going 10-7, held a 1.76 ERA, registered 111 strikeouts and became the sixth IU pitcher to record multiple no-hitters.

In her second campaign at the helm of the Hoosiers, Stanton built upon the success of her inaugural season as the Hoosiers opened the year with a 14-0 mark, the best start in IU program history. Thanks to the hot start, Indiana earned a spot in the USA Today/NFCA Coaches Poll, the first ranking for the team since 1996. IU would spend six straight weeks ranked, picking up wins against two top-10 teams in No. 6 Georgia (Feb. 10) and at No. 10 LSU (March 1), the first time that has been done at Indiana. IU's final record of 36-21 was the best for the Hoosiers since the 2011 season, while the team's non-conference record (26-8) was the best since 1986. The team impressed on the basepaths, setting the single-season IU record with 141, which is also good for the third-most by a Big Ten team in history.

For the second year in a row, pitcher Tara Trainer earned First Team NFCA All-Midwest Region honors as well as All-Big Ten accolades after leaving IU as one of the most decorated pitchers in Indiana history. This season, Trainer posted career-best numbers with a 1.82 ERA, 231 strikeouts and a 26-11 record. Trainer graduates second all-time in strikeouts (803), appearances (170) and games started (130). In addition, she is third in career wins (68) and innings pitched (742.0) and fourth in shutouts (19). Trainer became just the fourth Hoosier to be drafted in the National Pro Fastpitch league when she was selected 21st overall by the Aussie Peppers on April 15.

In her first season in Bloomington, Stanton led the Hoosiers to a 26-30 overall mark, including a 17-6 conference record, the most Big Ten wins in a single season since 2011. Indiana finished third in the conference, clinching a first round bye in the Big Ten Tournament. The Hoosiers swept five teams on their way to the third-place finish – No. 18 Ohio State, Michigan State, Maryland, Penn State and Purdue – the most conference sweeps since 2011. After defeating Illinois in the Big Ten Tournament Quarterfinals, Indiana advanced to the tournament semifinal for the first time since 2006.

Stanton tallied her 600th career victory at Michigan State on March 31 with a 5-1 victory against the Spartans. Another 2018 highlight was the Hoosiers collecting 112 stolen bases, the second-most in program history and the most since the 1987 season.

For their efforts in 2018, three Hoosiers earned NFCA All-Midwest Region – Tara Trainer (First Team), Gabbi Jenkins (Third Team) and Maddie Westmoreland (Third Team). In addition, Trainer and Westmoreland were also named First Team All-Big Ten, while Jenkins and Rebecca Blitz earned Second Team honors. Blitz also earned a spot on the Big Ten All-Defensive Team as the conference's top centerfielder. Westmoreland and Taylor Lambert were named to the conference's All-Freshman squad. Off the field, 12 were honored with Academic All-Big Ten accolades.

MARSHALL

- 2017 Conference USA Coaching Staff of the Year
- Career record: 560-430-2 (18 seasons)
- Two NCAA Tournament Appearances

During her tenure, Stanton guided the Thundering Herd to two NCAA Tournament appearances, five conference championship games and led the team to two Mid-American Conference championships (2003 and 2005), a Conference USA regular season championship (2017) and Conference USA Tournament title (2013). In addition, the Thundering Herd posted 12 seasons with 30 or more wins during Stanton's time in Huntington.

Under Stanton's guidance, Marshall was known for its speed as her teams ranked in the top 10 in stolen bases more than any other program since Stanton took over in 2000, including every year from 2009-17. For the third time since 2000, the Thundering Herd led the nation in stolen bases in 2017 with 162 on the year. Marshall saw two win the Golden Shoe Award for leading the nation in stolen bases under Stanton - current Indiana graduate student manager Morgan Zerkle in 2015 and Elicia D'Orazio in 2017. Six finished their Marshall careers with 100 or more stolen bases under Stanton, led by Zerkle's program record-setting 160 swiped bags.

This past season, Stanton guided Marshall's return to the NCAA Tournament as the Thundering Herd earned an at-large bid and posted a program-record 42-12 mark. During the season, Marshall posted a 17-game winning streak in 2017 and a 20-4 conference record leading to Stanton and her staff of Kendall Fearn and Chanda Bell being picked as the Conference USA Coaching Staff of the Year. In addition, Marshall saw Zerkle win C-USA Player of the Year honors and Jordan Dixon win C-USA Pitcher of the Year. Both Zerkle and Dixon also earned NFCA All-American accolades.

In addition to the team's impressive base-stealing numbers, the team finished with a batting average of .300 or better for the third straight season as Marshall climbed as high as No. 23 in the national rankings.

Stanton recorded her 500th career win on March 23, 2016 in an 8-3 victory against UTEP.

In 2013, Marshall's Conference USA Tournament title led to the Herd's first ever trip to the NCAA Tournament in Lexington, Ky. Marshall picked up its first NCAA tournament win, 3-1, over Notre Dame on May 18.

Under Stanton's tutelage, Marshall saw 76 all-conference selections, nine conference Player, Pitcher or Freshman of the Year accolades, 34 NFCA All-Region picks and a four-time All-American in Rachel Folden. Zerkle was named to the Top 50 Watch List for USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year and played for the USA Softball National Team this past summer. In addition, Zerkle was the seventh player under Stanton's guidance to reach the National Pro Fastpitch League.

Off the field, Marshall posted a team GPA of 3.0 in every semester of Stanton's career and had 118 named NFCA All-America Scholar-Athletes.

OTHER COLLEGIATE COACHING EXPERIENCE

Prior to joining Marshall, Stanton served as the head coach at IUPUI in 1998-99, where she led the Jaguars to a 27-25 mark in their first season as a Division I team. After graduating college, Stanton served as a graduate assistant for Ashland University, where she received her Master's of Education in Sports Science. During her time, the softball program set a school record for victories in a season (53), won a second consecutive Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) title and earned a second straight NCAA Division II playoff berth. In the 1997-98 season, the Eagles finished 53-6, won the conference championship and hosted its regional tournament. That season, the entire coaching staff was selected as the coaching staff of the year in the GLIAC. All in all, Ashland compiled a 94-23 record en route to successive bids to the NCAA National Tournament.

NATIONAL PRO FASTPITCH

Stanton spent the 2007 and 2008 summers coaching the Akron Racers of the National Pro Fastpitch league. Stanton guided the Racers to a regular season second place finish in 2007 with a 26-17 overall record. Stanton managed the Racers second place finish to a .387 batting average, a league best. Additionally, Akron's second baseman, Veronica Wootsen snagged the 2007 Nokona Gold Glove Offensive Player of the Year Award.

PLAYING CAREER

Stanton (maiden name Spagnola) was a four-year starter at UNC Greensboro and led the team to back-to-back Big South Conference championships. In addition, Stanton scored 66 runs during her senior campaign in 1995, good for eighth in the nation and most all-time in a single season at UNCG. She sits third in UNCG history in career runs scored (143) and ninth in stolen bases (41). Off the field, Stanton earned her Bachelor of Arts in History at UNCG and helped start the Spartan Heroes program at UNCG, which worked to increase community service initiatives.

Stanton played in the Women's ASA Fastpitch Summerball for the Chet Smith Lady All-Stars in Columbus, Ohio, and the Buckeye Slammers in Akron, Ohio, from 1994-96. Both teams were Class "A" National Qualifiers and the Slammers captured the Class "B" National Championship in 1994.

PERSONAL

In October of 2016, Stanton was inducted into the North Olmstead High School Hall of Fame where she was a three-sport athlete and an 11-time letter award winner.

A member of the National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-America Committee, Stanton has also served on the NFCA Head Coaches Council and was a voter in the NFCA Top-25. Stanton, who was named the Judy Sweet Award winner as a graduate of the NFCA Women Coaches Academy, served on the Coaches Council for the Alliance of Women Coaches. As an NFCA featured speaker and clinician, Stanton shot an instructional video series with Championship Productions.

Stanton and husband Joe have been married for 19 years and reside in Bloomington with their two daughters, Shayla, Gianna and son, Josiah.
