MISSION STATEMENT

The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is an integral part of Mississippi State University. It incorporates in its overall mission the Mississippi State University, Southeastern Conference and NCAA philosophy, purpose, fundamental policies and general principles. Our primary purpose is to ensure the academic well-being, the physical fitness and the ethical foundation for all student-athletes. The Athletic Department offers a focal point for school spirit throughout the academic year, complementing the academic, cultural and social facets of college life. Since it is an activity of the University, the Department's standards, goals and ideals must remain in harmony with the academic programs.

Mississippi State University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, disability or veteran status. Mary Alexander, Interim Director of the Office of Diversity and Equity Programs (McArthur Hall, Room 223, P.O. Box 6199, Mississippi State, MS 39762/662-325-2493) has been designated as the responsible employee to coordinate efforts to carry out responsibilities and make investigations of complaints relating to discrimination in conforming with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1974, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

The 2009 Mississippi State Softball Media Guide is a publication of the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office. It was compiled, edited and designed by Brock Turnipseed with assistance from Sam Anderson, Jarvis Brown, Jamal Davis and Scott Walters. Photography provided by Darrell McAllister, the late Fred Faulk, Russ Houston, David Lann, Brian Loden, Jim Nurnberg and Rick Scuteri. The cover design was created by John Schaffhauser of Schaffhauser Design in Canton, Miss. The media guide was printed by the Interstate Printing of Mobile, Ala. The 2009 Mississippi State Softball Media Guide has been prepared to assist the media and is designed to aid all media members in their coverage of Mississippi State Softball. Questions and changes to this guide should be directed to Brock Turnipseed, Assistant Director of Athletic Media Relations (662.325.7556).

ATHLETIC MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICE: The Mississippi State Athletic Media Relations Office is located in Room 202 of Humphrey Coliseum. Office hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays.

CREDENTIALS: Requests for press/photo credentials should be faxed or mailed on official letterhead to the Mississippi State Athletic Media Relations Office (FAX 662.325.3654) at least 48 hours prior to the event. Since space is limited, accommodations are on a priority basis: daily newspapers, originating radio and television stats, national weekly or monthly publications, electronic media outlets, local and regional television crews. Priority is granted to members of the media who cover Mississippi State on a regular basis, and to visiting media members. At the MSU Softball Field, media credentials will be available for pickup in the press box. Only working media with proper credentials will be allowed access to the press area.

PHOTO REGULATIONS: Photo passes will be issued only to accredited photographers on assignment. Photographers may shoot from designated areas outside of the fences of the field and within the stadium. The Mississippi State Athletic Department adheres to NCAA photography policies and reserves all commercial and non-commercial rights to the use of film, videotape and still photographs of its athletic events and facilities.

MSU SOFTBALL FIELD: With its fully enclosed press box and telephone lines that allow for faxing and web site updates, as well as radio/television broadcasting capabilities, the MSU Softball Field is an on-campus facility located near the intersection of Lakeview Drive and U.S. 182 East. With a seating capacity of 750, the press box telephone number is 662.325.7546.

PARKING: The MSU Softball Field is an on-campus facility located near the intersection of Lakeview Drive and U.S. 182 East. The parking lot located between the MSU Softball Field and the A.J. Pitts Tennis Centre is reserved for game officials and staff. Parking for the media and general public is located beyond the outfield fence. The parking lot located between the A.J. Pitts Tennis Center and the Carl Maddox Track has been reserved for overflow parking.

SERVICES: The Mississippi State Athletic Media Relations Office will provide a complete box score and play-by-play of each game. Programs containing rosters and game notes on each team will also be provided to the working media. An automatic facsimile machine is available in the Mississippi State Athletic Media Relations offices in the Bryan Building and the Humphrey Coliseum.

TELEPHONES: Telephone service is available in the press box area (4 lines). The MSU Softball Field press box telephone number is 662.325.7546. Mississippi State freely provides telephone services to working media. However, any special requests must be made in advance through the Mississippi State Athletic Media Relations Office at 662.325.7556. These requests should be submitted at least two weeks in advance to the media relations office on official letterhead.

INTERVIEW POLICY: All interviews with Mississippi State players and coaches must be arranged through the media relations office. Please contact Brock Turnipseed at 662.325.7556 to set up an interview. Home or cell phone numbers for student-athletes will not be given to the media under any circumstances, although players will grant phone interviews via the media relations office. Coach Jay Miller is available for phone interviews on weekday mornings (8 a.m.-Noon) during the season, but in-person interviews must be coordinated through the media relations office. Players are available for interviews before each practice at approximately 1:30 p.m. at the MSU Softball Field. Media are requested to submit postgame interview requests to media relations personnel prior to the start of the seventh inning.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: Following a 10-minute cooling off period, head coach Jay Miller and/or requested players will be available on the playing surface of the MSU Softball Field. The opponent head coach and/or players will also be available on the field. Please make interview requests through the visiting softball contact.

ARCHIVAL INFORMATION: The Mississippi State Athletic Media Relations Office maintains information on all current student-athletes, as well as historical information on previous student-athletes and the program in general. For information, interviews, photo shoots and/or file photos, please call, stop by our office or fax a request.

BOB HARTLEY MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP

Bob Hartley

Stephen Foshee

For more than half a century Robert M. "Bob" Hartley dedicated his life's work to promoting Mississippi State athletics. From his hiring as the school's first sports publicity director in August 1946 to his initial "retirement" as assistant athletic director for communications in June 1985, through his later years as an invaluable consultant for the Mississippi State University Department of Athletics, the man we called "Hart" gave special meaning to the words "loyalty" and "devotion to duty."

Mr. Bob's labors of love with MSU have not gone unrecognized. He has taken his place among college athletics' greats as a member of both the university's and the state's sports halls of fame and the College Sports Information Directors of America Hall of Fame.

His willingness to generously give of his talent, his time and his friendship serves as an inspiration to the countless lives he touched and to those that aspire to follow in his footsteps. In that respect, the Bob Hartley Memorial Fellowship was created by the MSU Department of Athletics to provide internship opportunities for young media relations practitioners.

Stephen Foshee is the seventh recipient of the Bob Hartley Memorial Fellowship. A native of Hoover, Ala., Foshee is in his first season working with the MSU athletic media relations office, currently overseeing video/audio streaming with Maroon to the Max and working with the Bulldog Club. Having earned his bachelor's degree in communication and arts from Union University in 2006, Foshee is now pursuing his master's in sports administration.

Previous recipients of Mississippi State's Bob Hartley Memorial Fellowship include Scott Kuykendall, Larry Little, Brock Turnipseed, Renée Oakes Garner, Tony Schmidt and Jay Middleton.

STARKVILLE CONVENTION AND VISITORS BUREAU

Main Street • Starkville, MS 39759 • www.starkville.org

Located in the Pine region of Mississippi, Starkville is known for its university-style atmosphere, and its abundance of opportunities for entertainment, recreation, food and fellowship, outdoor fun and historical enrichment.

The city of Starkville was founded in 1830 and originally named "Boardtown". After receiving its charter in 1835, the town was renamed in honor of the American Revolutionary War hero, General John Stark. Starkville, the county seat of Oktibbeha (pronounced ok-TIB-be-haw), is a thriving community of some 24,500 and recognized throughout the Southeast for its progressive style and its warm and friendly environment.

Home to MSU, the second-largest land-grant institution and one of the top 100 research universities in the United States, Starkville is almost always brimming with special events and sites to experience. Located in Starkville's backyard, the Noxubee National Wildlife Refuge is a 48,000-acre forest offering birdwatching, hiking, picnicking, hunting and fishing.

For history buffs, Starkville's historic districts offer a walk through history's various architectural styles. Take a stroll through the Greensboro historic district, Nash Street historic district, Overstreet historic district and Starkville's Downtown Old Main District. View the architectural styles of Savannah, New Orleans and Charleston in the Cotton District. Developer Dan Camp revived the old cotton-mill workers' Needmore community into this new urbanism area.

Fans of best-selling author John Grisham can view his original manuscripts and other memorabilia in the Mitchell Memorial Library. The Grisham Room timelines the success of this Mississippi State University alumnus.

In addition, special events such as the Cotton District Arts Festival and Taste of Starkville and Super Bulldog Week bring out the warm spirit and activeness of Starkville residents and visitors. Combine all of this with the friendliest people in the South, and you have an ideal place to reunite with friends and family.

Once known as the "Dairy Center of the South," Starkville's economic base has developed into a healthy balance of education, industry, service and retail trade.

Mississippi's only Research and Technology Park is located in Starkville. Twelve businesses and agencies are located in the 220-acre park. Starkville has everything to offer as a retirement destination - a low-cost of living, educational opportunities, a variety of events and activities and safe, attractive neighborhoods. Starkville was certified in 1995 as a Retirement Community by the Mississippi Department of Economic and Community Development.

Starkville is a city rich in tradition and blessed with progress. From its days as an enclave of Native American settlements on the border between the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations and its subsequent settlement by Presbyterian missionaries, to today's varied

LONGEST REGULATION GAME

By Team
3:13 - LSU at Mississippi State (3/31/05)

Home to the Mississippi State women's softball team since 1997, the MSU Softball Field gives the Bulldogs one of the finest facilities in the Southeast.

Located on the north side of the Mississippi State campus, the MSU Softball Field sits in the heart of Mississippi State's impressive physical plant. It joins W.O. Spencer Stadium (track and field), Dudy-Noble Field/Polk Dement Stadium (baseball), the MSU Soccer Field and the A.J. Pitts Tennis Centre to give Mississippi State some of the finest Olympic sport venues in collegiate athletics.

The facility features a main grandstand area which will accommodate more than 750 people with opportunities for expansion in the future. Also included is a state-of-the-art press box complete with phone lines and a public address system, an electronic scoreboard and bullpens behind both stepdown dugouts which are complete with restroom facilities for both teams.

Hailed as one of the top playing surfaces in the Southeastern Conference, the field stretches 200 feet down the left and right field lines and spans 220 feet to straight-away centerfield. The regulation NCAA Championship field features Mississippi Pride grass - developed by researchers on the Mississippi State campus - making it home to one of the finest playing surfaces in the country. A grounds crew is responsible for the field maintenance of the MSU Softball Field.

With each season, the MSU Softball Field seems to get better and better. Following the program's inaugural season in 1997, lights were added to the facility, bringing a much-more enjoyable climate to Bulldog fans as well as visiting fans across the country. In 2000, another facility-improving project was completed as the MSU Softball Field's dugouts were enhanced with brick, bringing yet another eye-pleasing feature to the facility. In 2001, construction of an additional batting cage, as well as the placing of sidewalks in and around field and spectator areas, were added.

Work was completed in the fall of 2005 on a one million dollar indoor facility which features a state-of-the-art practice field, as well as a locker room, clubhouse, training room, coaches' locker rooms and players lounge. In addition, a revamped bullpen area was added just behind the dugout on the third base side of the facility. The indoor facility is the only one of its kind in the nation.

Since beginning play at the MSU Softball Field, Mississippi State has posted a 230-108 (.680) overall record and, in 1999, tallied a program-high 21-6 record at home, including a 12-2 mark at home inside the Southeastern Conference. Mississippi State has also shutout its opponent 68 times in front of its home fans - 27 times completing the task in abbreviated innings.

The opening game on the newly constructed Mississippi State Softball Field came on Feb. 26, 1997, when Mississippi State hosted visiting Samford University. The Bulldogs opened the park successfully, sweeping Samford 4-0 and 4-0 in a doubleheader witnessed by more than 300 fans that braved the inclement weather.

The Bulldogs averaged just more than 300 fans during that first season and set an attendance record which still stands to this day on April 25, 1998, when 1,547 fans watched the Bulldogs battle arch rival Mississippi.

MSU SOFTBALL FACILITIES

PALMEIRO CENTER

The Palmeiro Center - a $3.8 million, 68,000-square foot, climate-controlled indoor practice facility - was completed in August 2005 and gives the Bulldogs an additional practice option during inclement weather. Named for former Bulldog baseball great and Major League Baseball star Rafael Palmeiro, the facility features a turfed 120-yard long practice surface and a $1.5 million, 9,500-square foot banquet room which will seat up to 350 people.

ROUSE WEIGHT ROOM

The Rouse Weight Room is a recently constructed 10,000-square foot weight facility that includes more than $100,000 worth of essential weight training equipment. Under the guidance and supervision of strength coach Matt Balis, and a nationally certified strength and conditioning staff, each and every player is helped to reach peak physical performance. In all, the center gives State players access to 22 power stations. Each nine-foot rack sits on a six-foot by eight-foot oak platform.

SOFTBALL INDOOR FACILITY

Mississippi State's indoor facility, located adjacent to the left field foul line of the Mississippi State Softball Field, includes an 8,000-square foot indoor practice facility complete with collapsible batting cages. Access to the indoor facility can be obtained by any of the six main areas of the indoor facility by simply walking through a door.

Included in the price of the million-dollar facility is a brand new locker room facility for the Bulldogs which will allow the players convenient access to both the indoor practice facility as well as the varsity game field. A 1,200-square foot team lounge is located directly above the locker room.

One of four satellite training rooms in Mississippi State's sports medicine department, the training room at the softball indoor facility is equipped with training tables, rehabilitation equipment and an ice machine and helps certified athletic trainer Caitlin Redlich cater to the health needs of all MSU Softball athletes and coaches.

From the team lounge, players can view game film or just relax and watch TV on a state-of-the-art drop down screen.

MSU SOFTBALL FACILITIES

SOFTBALL INDOOR TEAM LOUNGE

When not on the practice field or watching game film, MSU softball players can kick back and relax with a game of ping-pong, or play pool on a regulation size table in the team lounge.

Above the Mississippi State locker room in the Softball Indoor Facility is a 1,200-square foot team lounge. Here, players can study, watch TV, or just kill time before their next class.

As you enter Mississippi State's indoor facility, you pass through the Stairway of All-Americans, where jerseys of MSU's six All-Americans are adorned.

The Northeast Village, made up of four residence halls with the largest single room sizes in university history, opened in August 2006. A co-residential, 160,000-square foot, three-story freshman hall, Ruby, is located at the north end of campus. Ruby Hall offers students the latest in technology, including Ethernet access and full wireless internet coverage.

The $19 million, 150,000-square foot Sanderson Center recreation complex opened to students in 1996. The state-of-the-art facility offers recreational opportunities in aquatics, fitness and aerobics, strength and conditioning, and intramural sports.

TEMPLETON ATHLETIC ACADEMIC CENTER

The Shira Athletic Complex received its second neighborhood addition in the past four years on Nov. 1 when the Templeton Athletic Academic Center was officially dedicated.

Mississippi State's student-athletes have enjoyed outstanding success in the classroom, and the new $10 million facility provides state-of-the-art amenities that will help the Bulldogs and Lady Bulldogs continue that success while reaching new levels.

The Templeton Athletic Academic Center includes a large computer lab and individual computer rooms and work stations that will allow student-athletes access to a computer at their convenience. The building also houses academic counselor offices, large study areas, resource rooms, conference rooms and tutor rooms that will allow MState's academic staff the most efficient way to interact with student-athletes.

The two biggest areas of the State's newest facility are a 300-seat dining room and a large foyer that captures many of the team highlights and individual greats that have encompassed Mississippi State's rich athletic history.

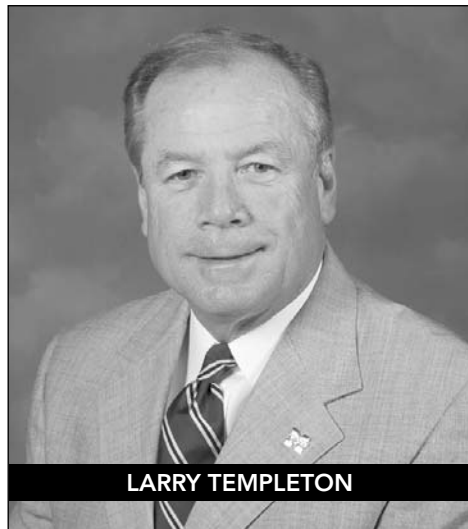

Perhaps the greatest attribute of the Templeton Athletic Academic Center is the location. Situated adjacent to the Shira Complex and Holliman Athletic Center, the facility stands in the heart of MSU's athletic facilities.

The structure is named for Larry Templeton, who served as Mississippi State's director of athletics from 1987-2008. Under his leadership, MState accomplished many great athletic feats. The football team reached six postseason bowl games, the men's basketball squad reached the Final Four and the baseball team went to the NCAA College World Series three times. State teams also claimed five Southeastern Conference championships under his guidance and advanced to NCAA championship play 29 times. The Bulldog softball team made seven of those trips in a nine-year stretch.

With all of the on-field accomplishments under Templeton's watch, State enjoyed even more success in the classroom. During the 2005-06 academic year, MSU's men and women athletes posted the highest combined grade-point average ever recorded in the 18 years of tracking student-athlete grades.

Head coach Jay Miller's softball Dogs have been an integral part of the school's academic success, landing 61 academic all-SEC honorees in his first six seasons. Last season, Chelsea Bramlett became the fourth Bulldog named ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-American, the third selected first team. Miller's 2008 contingent also set an academic record, having 10 named NFCA All-America Scholar-Athlete en route to claiming the eighth-highest grade-point average in Division I softball.

BULLDOG DIAMOND CLUB

The BULLDOG DIAMOND CLUB is the official booster club of the Mississippi State University softball team. It has been created to provide fans with an in-depth look at our program, coaches, players and history. With three NCAA Regional appearances in the past four years, the Bulldogs are poised to join the nation's "elite" teams this year. Please come along with us as we take on the Southeastern Conference and the nation this Spring.

We need you to join our team as we continue a new era of Bulldog Softball. The BULLDOG DIAMOND CLUB has been initiated with the approval of the Mississippi State athletic department and is in compliance with all University, SEC and NCAA rules and regulations. All funds generated directly to enhancing and improving the Mississippi State Softball program.

We encourage your membership in the BULLDOG DIAMOND CLUB and look forward to you becoming a part of our "softball family" and winning tradition at Mississippi State.

Sincerely,

Jay Miller
Head Softball Coach
Mississippi State University

WHEN A TEAM MAKES A COMMITMENT — THE SKY'S THE LIMIT

The 2008 Mississippi State softball team enjoyed record-setting success last season, winning 40-plus games for just the second time in program history and advancing to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in six seasons.

MSU enters the 2009 campaign with a young squad that has challenged itself with the goal of continuing that on-field success. NFCA Hall of Famer Jay Miller returns 11 players from last year's squad, including seven position players and the entire '08 pitching staff.

Five heralded newcomers demonstrated their potential during the fall, and their continued development will be key in continuing the success that last year's team enjoyed.

PITCHERS

The biggest question mark entering the 2008 season, State's hurlers enter 2009 with the deepest staff of Miller's tenure.

Misty Flesher returns for her sophomore season after anchoring the staff as a freshman. The Lone Grove, Okla., native tallied a 20-10 record in her inaugural campaign, the second-most wins by a freshman in school history.

Flesher, who was twice named SEC Freshman of the Week, also struck out a team-high 119 and led the squad with a 2.11 ERA.

Although Flesher became a "seasoned veteran" in 2008, the pitching staff will still look to senior Kelsey Nurnberg to provide the leadership to a pair of sophomores and a freshman.

Nurnberg enjoyed a career campaign as a junior, winning a career-best 17 games and striking out a personal-best 98. The hard-thrower out of Ankeny, Iowa, started 2008 with seven straight victories and held opponents scoreless for 21.2 innings, the fifth-longest streak in school history.

Sophomore Elizabeth Woolven looks to build on her freshman campaign in which she saved four games and registered a 4-2 win-loss mark. During the fall Woolven really showed her progress, finishing the campaign as one of the team's top hurlers.

Freshman Lindsey Dunlap also emerged as one of the squad's top pitchers this fall. The Hueytown, Ala., aims to be a major contributor in the starting rotation after earning EA Sports First Team All-America and Alabama Gatorade Player of the Year honors while leading Hueytown High School to three state championships in a four-year span.

CATCHERS

With a pitching staff returning in tact, the battery appears to be in great shape with two-time NFCA All-American Chelsea Bramlett back behind the plate.

Bramlett was named all-SEC last season after posting the second-highest batting average in State history (.450) and matching her school stolen-base record (46).

Despite her tremendous success at the plate, Miller says that Bramlett's prowess behind the plate and handling of the pitching staff have been over-looked. She was selected the Diamond Sports/NFCA Division I Catcher of the Year and one of 25 finalists for USA Softball Player of the Year after compiling a .993 fielding percentage and throwing out 11 runners.

Although Bramlett will see most of the innings behind the plate, Ka'ili Smith could also see some work. The Hawai'i native comes to State following a promising career at Kapolei High School where she earned four all-state accolades during her prep career thanks to a powerful bat and a strong arm that has the ability to throw out runners at any base. Smith hopes to build on a solid fall in which she hit .381 and scored nine runs while driving in three.

INFIELD

The infield returns mainly in tact, but Miller has to replace a key cog at short-stop in two-time all-American Courtney Bures, who had the ability to make difficult plays seem routine.

Her departure shakes up the left side of the infield, with junior Jessie Bailey and sophomores Jessie Spain and Allie Heon battling for the spots.

Bailey has been a staple at third through her first two seasons, but she could make the move to fill the void left by Bures at short.

The Lithonia, Ga., native has provided not only a clutch bat, but a consistent glove in the field. Bailey hit .234 last season with 28 RBI, and she also added a .967 fielding percentage at the "hot corner."

Spain looks to earn a starting defensive role after drawing most of her starts at either designated player or the outfield. A versatile player with a solid bat, the Birmingham native hit at a .271 clip with nine extra-base hits and drove in 14 runs while scoring 19 times.

Heon, a transfer from Villanova, joined the squad during the off-season and instantly brought a versatility to the defense with her ability to play third, short, second or the outfield.

The Leesburg, Va., native also possesses a solid bat, and she showed that in the fall with her ability to put the ball in play and move runners.

While Heon, Spain and Bailey will be battling to solidify the infield, the right side appears to be solid with senior Sammie Jo Bailey and sophomore Ali Bainbridge anchoring first and second, respectively.

Bailey brings quality leadership to first base along with an outstanding glove and a powerful bat. She aims at ending her Bulldog career on a high note after hitting .270 with three home runs and 24 RBI.

Defensively, Bailey looks for a career year anchoring the State infield after starting 170 games at first base and tallying a .981 career fielding percentage which ranks fourth all-time.

Bainbridge put together a stellar freshman campaign, and her hard work earned her a spot on the Southeastern Conference's All-Freshman Team.

The Vestavia Hills, Ala., native hit a team third-best .337 and tied for the fifth-most doubles by an MState freshman with nine. She also drove in 30 runs and scored 36 times.

Bainbridge closed her inaugural season by earning all-tournament honors at the NCAA Tempe Regional after hitting a team-high .636 with five runs. After seeing most of her early-season starts in right field, Bainbridge maintained the second base nod the majority of the year and put up a .970 fielding percentage.

Courtney Nesbit brings outstanding defensive ability and big-hit potential to the first base position behind Bailey. The Acworth, Ga., native picked up most of her 2008 action at the designated player spot and hit .300 with three doubles, 12 RBI and six runs scored.

Laurie Siebert provides a good bat and solid depth on the infield with her ability to field either third or second. Having battled injury much of the early portion of her career, Siebert returned in the fall and showed the potential that she demonstrated as a freshman and during her heralded Illinois prep career.

OUTFIELD

The most veteran aspect of the club in 2008, Mississippi State finds the outfield the youngest part of its club in 2009 after having to replace Nakita Boyce in left and all-SEC centerfielder Hayle Guess. Despite its youth, the Bulldog outfield, however, will not be lacking in speed.

ALI BAINBRIDGE

Sophomore Brittany Bell returns to the outfield after starting there the last half of her rookie season. Bell found her rhythm down the stretch, hitting .351 with three doubles, two home runs and six RBI from the right field slot over the last 13 games.

The Florida prep standout, who might also see time in left this season, does not allow many balls to get past her with her ability to cover ground, and her strong arm presents a threat to any runner.

Bell and Smith could play either right or left, but freshman Brittany Gates nailed down the task of replacing Guess in centerfield with a solid fall campaign.

The Houston, Miss., native brings good speed that not only helps her cover her position, but also presents a threat on the bases. One of Mississippi's top prep prospects coming out of high school, Gates led the Bulldogs at the plate during the fall with a .500 average (8-for-16).

Freshman Courtney Moore could also find herself in the mix for a spot in the outfield this season. The El Sobrante, Calif., native, who also brings depth on the infield, presents a good power source in the line-up after leading the Sorcerers, one of the top travel teams in the country, in home runs over the summer.

Spain and Heon might also see some time in the outfield if needed, and despite its youth and need for some additional seasoning, the Bulldog outfield will not be lacking in speed.

THE OFFENSE

Mississippi State's offense enjoyed a record-setting year at the plate in which it hit a school-best .311. This year's offense has to deal with the loss of Bures, who left MSU with the career record for RBIs in a season, Guess and Boyce, but returns a bevy of talent.

The Dogs reached base at a .434 percentage during the fall and hit at a .360 clip while scoring 67 runs.

Miller said that the goal for the offense entering the spring is to continue manufacturing runs the way it did in the fall while being able to find some power at the plate.

THE SCHEDULE

Opportunities to clinch resumé-building wins are in higher demand this season with the schedule being limited to 52 games.

State has once again built an impressive schedule which kicks off Feb. 6-8 with the Bulldog Round-Robin at the MSU Softball Field.

The schedule includes 15 teams that played in the NCAA Tournament, including four teams that earned Super Regional berths and two Women's College World Series participants.

State's first road test of the year comes Feb. 13-15 when the squad ventures to Tallahassee, Fla., to face NCAA Tournament invitees Purdue and Florida State along with Appalachian State and Miami (Ohio) in the Sunshine Classic.

After returning home to host the Bulldog Classic, MState hits the road for a 14-game road trip over a 19-day span.

After a trek to Itta Bena to meet Mississippi Valley State, the Bulldogs return to Columbus, Ga., for the prestigious NFCA Leadoff Classic, where it will meet Ohio State, Massachusetts, Michigan, Long Island and Hofstra. After a day at home, State flies to Honolulu, Hawaii, for the Malihini Tournament. In Hawaii, State will meet Oregon State and the host Rainbow Wahine, the team that ended MSU's postseason run.

Following the cross-country trek, Miller's squad opens conference play against defending SEC Western Division champion Alabama in Tuscaloosa.

The Bulldogs return to the friendly confines of the MSU Softball Field beginning Mar. 17 to host Arkansas and LSU on back-to-back weekends before heading out to conference road trips to Tennessee, defending SEC champion Florida and Georgia.

State closes the regular season by playing eight of its last 11 games at home. The team hosts South Carolina during the University's Super Bulldog Weekend (Apr. 17-19) and follows with a mid-week twin bill against SEC West foe Auburn.

After a venture to Lexington for a three-game set with Kentucky, the Bulldogs close the regular-season slate with in-state rival Ole Miss at the MSU Softball Field May 2-3.

"The last month of the 2008 season, Brittany was as good as anyone on our team offensively. She had a great post-season, and I thought she really came into her own the second half of the season when she relaxed and used her talent. She's going to give us a big bat in the line-up, and defensively, she has a great arm and can cover ground."

Mississippi State Head Coach Jay Miller

AS A FRESHMAN (2008)

Saw action in 55 games during her rookie season, starting 32 times in right field, including the last 17 games ... Went 23-for-87 at the plate on the year (.264 average) with five doubles, two home runs, 10 RBIs and 26 runs scored ... Was perfect on the bases, stealing a team third-best 17 bases ... Registered multiple hits four times and multiple RBIs once ... Drove in the winning run twice and scored the game-clincher five times ... Drew six walks and was hit by a pitch a school third-most nine times ... Compiled a .906 fielding percentage, claiming 28 putouts in 32 chances while committing three errors ... Found her rhythm at the plate in the final 13 games, hitting .351 (13-for-37) with three doubles, two home runs and six RBIs ... Sparked her late-season surge by going .625 with three RBIs, five runs, a double and her first career home run against Georgia (4/19-20) ... Earned SEC Freshman of the Week for her efforts against UGA ... Went 3-for-3 with a home run, two RBIs and two runs scored in the series opener ... Collected two hits, an RBI and two runs, including the game-winner, in helping the Bulldogs claim the rubber game on Sunday ... Doubled against Austin Peay (2/23) at the Mercer Wingate Inn Classic for her first career hit ... Drove in her first collegiate RBI in a win over UAB (3/4) ... HEAD COACH JAY MILLER

Head Coach • Seventh Season at MSU • 27th Overall • Illinois State, 1978

Utilizing a coaching model that emphasizes hard work, loyalty, enthusiasm, dedication to the classroom and a commitment on the playing field, Jay Miller enjoyed another milestone season in 2008 to further cement his reputation as one of the most well-respected coaches in the sport.

Under his leadership last season, his Mississippi State squad returned to the postseason for the fifth time in his six seasons at the helm. The 2008 contingent finished with a 41-22 record, the second-most wins in school history, and set school records for batting average (.311) and stolen bases (126).

The '08 campaign also saw him reach a couple of personal milestones, as he won his 900th career game with a victory over Syracuse on Mar. 1 at the NFCA Leadoff Classic. He coached his 1,500th career game on May 3 in a win over Arkansas, and he surpassed the 200-win plateau at MSU, ending the year just three wins from becoming the school's winningest softball coach.

The success he has enjoyed both on and off the field at the collegiate and international level earned him a distinguished place among fastpitch softball's coaching greats in the National Fastpitch Coaches Association Hall of Fame. Last December he became just the third SEC head coach to be inducted into the annals, joining Yvette Girouard of LSU and Joyce Compton of South Carolina as part of the association's 18th class.

In more than two decades of coaching softball at the Division I level at Missouri and Mississippi State, Miller has helped develop the talents of a plethora of players who have gone on to write their own success stories. Over the last 11 years, he has had the pleasure of mentoring 45 all-conference players, as well as nine all-Americans. In addition, Miller has coached two players - Barb Wright at Missouri and Lyhia McMichael at MSU - to three different conference player of the year accolades. Since 1996, 34 players have secured conference player of the week laurels under Miller as well.

Through his first six seasons in the third base box at MSU, 33 single-season school records have been set, and three players have earned Louisville Slugger/NFCA First-Team All-America honors a total of six times. Chelsea Bramlett earned first team honors for the second straight season in 2008, a year after she was named the SEC Freshman of the Year. Courtney Bures was also named to the first team for the second time in her career. Both are MSU's only SEC top rookie honorees.

Both Bramlett and Bures were named to the NFCA all-region team, giving Miller seven players who have received the honor 11 collective times.

In his first season with the Maroon & White, McMichael was named a top-10 finalist for USA Softball Player of the Year. The next season she finished her senior campaign as one of the three finalists for the prestigious award after becoming the school's second multiple-time first team all-American. Bures and Bramlett went on to be nominated to the player of the year watch list, with Bramlett advancing to the top 25 in 2008.

Miller's first season also led the Bulldogs to a 34-30 record and their second consecutive NCAA postseason berth - the first time the Maroon and White had achieved consecutive NCAA Regional bids in the history of its program. Furthermore, Mississippi State broke or tied eight team single season records in his first campaign in Starkville, then shattered two more the following season.

Miller stresses academic excellence as much, if not more, than on the field excellence, and this is never more evident than with the 2008 squad that had a school-record 10 players named NFCA All-America Scholar-Athlete en route to earning the team the eighth-highest grade-point average in Division I softball. The 2008 edition had 14 players earn academic honors from the SEC, bringing State's total to 61 conference academic honorees during Miller's tenure. Since 1985, Miller has had 109 conference academic honor roll picks and, in 2007, Mississippi State earned nine NFCA all-America scholar-athlete selections for the second straight year. The 2006-07 MState edition claimed the highest fall average in MSU athletics that academic year with a 3.45 mark.

Success with MState is nothing new for Miller, as it has followed him at every stop of his coaching career. Having posted winning records in all but two of his 26 seasons as a collegiate head coach, Miller has coached his teams to 40+-win seasons on eight occasions, with the 2004 version of the Bulldogs falling just one victory shy of number nine. His 1986 Oklahoma City squad turned in an eye-popping 50-win campaign as the Stars compiled a 50-26 mark en route to a national runner-up finish.

Mixed in with his collegiate success, Miller has also built an impressive resumé on the international stage. He was appointed to his first stint with USA Softball from 1992-96, serving on the National Team selection committee that would, ultimately, be in charge of choosing the inaugural USA Softball team to compete in the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta.

Since then, he has served in various capacities with the organization, including head coaching stints of the USA Red squad that captured Gold in the 2001 U.S. Cup and the USA Elite team that took home runner-up honors at the 2002 Canada Cup and the championship of the 2003 Canada Cup. He also was an assistant coach for the USA National Team in gold medal runs at both the Pacific Rim Sports Summit and the Intercontinental Cup in 2004. He was also on the coaching staff of the USA Elite squad in its run to a silver medal at the 2005 Canada Cup in June. In 2006, Miller was an assistant coach on the World University squad that won the gold medal in Taiwan. The 2007 slate saw him skipper the United States Junior National Team to the gold medal at the Junior World Championships in The Netherlands after the squad posted a perfect 10-0 mark in the qualifier the previous fall.

"It has helped tremendously because you are working with the best coaches in the world and the best coaches in the United States obviously," he said. "It enabled me to exchange ideas, to talk about what works and what doesn't work. That's a continual process. You do that each time."

While in Starkville, Miller has continued build-

"I think passion is the main ingredient for winning. You have to be passionate about the game of softball, in your relationships with friends and family, or whatever it is that you are doing to be successful. Whether you are playing softball or working in a job, if you don't have a passion for what you are doing, you're not going to be very successful."

— Jay Miller

ing an international resumé that began during his 15-year tenure as the head coach at Missouri. There, he led the Tigers to a pair of Women's College World Series appearances in 1991 and 1994, five NCAA Regional appearances and compiled a 556-309 overall record. In 1991 and 1997, his squads won the overall league championship and, on three occasions, his squads have taken the league tournament title.

No stranger to success, one would think that Miller would have to have at least one favorite coaching moment in his first 25 seasons of coaching fastpitch softball.

"I don't really have a favorite moment," he said. "Every year you have a favorite moment and every year you have memorable moments - from teams that went to the World Series, to the Olympic team when they won the first gold medal, to the national team programs and the things that they have done."

"Even years when you don't win as many games as you would like, you still have memorable moments. You still have kids that you live and die for everyday in practice and every game that they go out there and play."

The enthusiastic mentor, who turns 53 on May 25, has had his share of successes over the years. His is a resumé that includes a handful of conference and region coaching honors, as well as team successes such as Women's College World Series and top 10 appearances, and international experiences in several countries, as well as on U.S. soil.

But, when it is all said and done, Miller still remains humble, each day arriving in his office well before many of his colleagues to plan out the day's, and sometimes the week's, agenda.

"In whatever you do, you're only going to get out what you put in," Miller said. "That's a key to understand and we want kids with that kind of work ethic and that kind of dedication."

Entering his 27th season as a Division I head coach, Miller, who ranks 12th among active coaches in the NCAA in career victories, will carry a 926-579 record into his seventh year at Mississippi State - a job that he took the reigns of towards the end of July, 2002. Since then, he has become comfortable with a team that, he knows, will give him some more of those memorable moments he so cherishes.

HEAD COACH JAY MILLER

"I think that there is tremendous potential here at Mississippi State," Miller said. "You have an administration that is supportive and wants you to be successful and provides you with the resources so that you can be successful."

"I think there are some tremendous athletes overall in the South. If you look at the states in which the SEC encompasses, they haven't had a lot of experience playing fastpitch softball, but they are getting more and more."

Unlike some of his counterparts in other sections of the United States, Miller - born Charles Jay on May 25, 1956, in Aurora, Ill. - was a ball fan of a different type growing up. With the Aurora Seal Masters - winners of the first two-ever world titles in men's fastpitch softball - training nearby, the young Miller often found himself emulating a star pitcher throwing out of a circle, rather than off of a mound.

His experiences as a fastpitch player on the men's major level towards the end of his high school and throughout his college careers, unexpectedly, helped move him into the coaching world when he was completing his master's work at Purdue. Although dead set on a career in the psychology or counseling world, Miller found himself taking on pitching coach (and later head coach) duties for the Purdue women's club team in the late 70's.

"I never really thought about coaching," he said. "The faculty sponsor of Purdue's women's club team asked me if I would come out and help him with the pitchers because I told him that I had played a lot and so I did. That was in August. In October, he resigned and the players asked me if I would be their coach."

"So, that's really how I got started in coaching. I enjoyed that a lot more than working in the counseling center, so I sort of changed careers at the last minute."

Just more than three years following his informal introduction to the coaching world, Miller took on his first full-time coaching duties as an assistant at Missouri where, years later, he would eventually make a big name for himself. While in Columbia under current South Carolina coach Joyce Compton, he served primarily as the pitching coach and Missouri rattled off an impressive 107-51 overall record during the stretch - a mark which included one conference championship, two NCAA Regional appearances and an appearance in the 1983 Women's College World Series.

He received his first head coaching stint in 1984 as skipper of now-NAIA powerhouse Oklahoma City who, at the time, were Division I and looked to harvest recruits that state-powerhouses Oklahoma and Oklahoma State would grow to envy. Miller coached the Chiefs one season at the Division I level before starting Oklahoma City's dominance in the NAIA with a pair of top five finishes (2nd in 1986, 4th in 1987) in his final two seasons with the team, both of which produced District IX Coach of the Year accolades. His team's 1987 achievements earned him Southwest Region Coach of the Year honors.

"In March, during the first year that I was there, they announced that they were going to change to the NAIA the following year," said Miller of the surprise move. "I coached there for three years and we were very successful. We finished second in the nation and fourth in the nation my last two years there, and then I had an opportunity to go back to Missouri."

Although his coaching career in the Sooner state had officially come to a close when he accepted the offer to become Missouri's sixth head coach in 1987, Miller was still reaping the benefits of the hard work in his career. While in Oklahoma City, the site of the Amateur Softball Association's Hall of Fame, he developed close contacts while working with the ASA that allowed him to draw his first international experience as a pitching coach for Netherlands Antilles in the 1987 Pan Am Games in Indianapolis.

Months later, he returned to Columbia, Mo., to find a program much different than when he left three years prior. While Mizzou had accumulated a .677 winning percentage during Miller's stay as an assistant coach, the program had struggled since, going 89-72 (.553) from 1984-1987, including a 14-18 mark the season prior to Miller's rehiring.

"It was really an opportunity to build, or to rebuild, the program there," said Miller of the opportunity to return to his roots, of sorts. "That's what we worked on doing. We went out and worked hard and tried to bring some players in that could compete at the top level, and we got back to the World Series in four years."

However, the Tigers flirted with greatness immediately, capturing either second or third in the Big Eight over the next three years before reeling off a 39-14 record in 1991 en route to both the conference regular season and tournament championships, as well as a fifth-place finish in the Women's College World Series. The transformation struck gold for Miller as well, as he was decorated with his second-straight Big Eight Coach of the Year laurels.

Miller continued his work towards greatness the following season as he led Mizzou to its second 40-win season since taking over the program (44-18 in 1988) and its best season since 1981, then churned out a 31-18 clip the following season despite losing six starters to graduation. In 1994, the Tigers finished seventh at the WCWS after filing a 40-23 record, then turned in a school-record 47 wins the following season on the way to their second-straight trip to the NCAA postseason.

Two years later, 10 years to the date following his being named Missouri's skipper, Mizzou went the distance in the conference and conference tournament for the fourth time in school history, achieving the program's best record since 1983 (47-16) and securing its fourth postseason appearance under his direction. The run earned Miller his third conference coaching honor and his first such accolade in the Big 12.

"The awards mean that you have good players," he said. "It is a reflection on the team and the kind of work and effort and commitment that your players put in and the dedication that they have to your program. I think that is where those awards come from."

Over the next four years, his Missouri teams finished each season with no less than 30 victories, making its fifth appearance in the NCAA Regionals with a 41-21 clip in 1999. Having reeled off a 556-309 record in 15 seasons as head coach of the Black and Gold, he parted ways with Columbia following the 2002 campaign to take over the reigns of the Maroon and White.

In addition to his coaching prowess, Miller is a leading authority on softball technology, having written more than 30 articles for professional publication. He most recently authored a chapter entitled "Offensive Strategy" for The Softball Coaching Bible, published by Human Kinetics Press in 2002.

In addition, he has developed five softball skills videotapes that are marketed internationally. He is also considered one of the top softball clinicians in the world, having conducted more than 100 camps and clinics in the United States, Netherlands Antilles, Italy, Czech Republic, Holland, France and Malaysia.

Miller began his educational career at the University of Grenoble in Grenoble, France, completing his international studies program there before obtaining his Bachelor's of Science Degree in Psychology and Sociology from Illinois State in Normal, Ill., in 1978. He completed his Master's Degree in Education with an emphasis in counseling and personnel services at Purdue University in 1979.

Miller and wife Lacy Lee Baker, Executive Director of the National Fastpitch Coaches Association, have one daughter, Nicole (3-30-91).

Annie SMITH

Associate Head Coach • Seventh Season at MSU • 13th Overall • Grinnell College, 1995

Associate Head Coach Annie Smith enters her 13th year as a collegiate softball coach, her seventh season at Mississippi State and her 13th as an assistant to head coach Jay Miller, officially joining the Bulldog staff on Aug. 26, 2002.

Smith's duties include, but are not limited to, hitting and defense instruction, recruiting coordination, administration and practices, travel coordination, camp co-direction, assistance in the implementing of MSU Softball's strength/conditioning program, and assisting in the fundraising and promotion of the program.

"Annie is crucial to our success," Miller said. "Annie has been with me for the last 13 years and knows what I want from our team practice-wise, on-the-field and off-the-field. She is a certified strength and conditioning coach who does a good job of making sure our players are in the shape that they need to be in order to compete at this level.

"I've seen her really progress as a coach over the years. She's done a great job being in every aspect of coaching and I think she will be a big plus for our ball club."

Smith's formal introduction to Miller came in July 1996 as a regular staff member at Missouri's softball camps and clinics, before she enrolled at Missouri to become a volunteer student manager for one season, as well as serving as a graduate teaching assistant in the Missouri Health and Exercise Sciences department. In July of 1996, she was hired full time as a graduate assistant coach to Miller where she was involved in all phases of the Black and Gold program, including the upkeep and maintenance of the Missouri softball stadium.

"I feel very fortunate to have had the opportunity to work alongside coach Miller," Smith said. "He has given me the opportunity to mature and grow as a coach and I am very appreciative of all that I have learned."

Since joining Miller's staff full time, Smith has also been instrumental in fundraising efforts for both the Missouri and Mississippi State softball programs, including organizing the Diamond Club, volunteer work in the community, speaking to groups and running clinics to promote the sport and the University and designing newsletters and websites.

Smith is also instrumental in keeping track of all Mississippi State softball alumni and contacting them for future annual Fall Alumni games and Alumni Recognition Days in the Spring. In addition, she writes, edits and produces the Bulldog Diamond Club newsletter which is then distributed to all members of the Mississippi State Softball Diamond Club.

"Annie is as much a part of this program as I am," Miller said. "She is a tireless worker and the glue that holds everybody together around here. She has developed into an outstanding hitting coach and does a good job developing our young hitters. She is a big reason for our success."

A three-year player at Grinnell College in Grinnell, Iowa, Smith earned Most Improved honors in 1993. Primarily a second and third baseman for the Pioneers, she was elected team co-captain prior to her senior season.

Smith received her Bachelor of Arts degree in History and Psychology from Grinnell in 1995. While at Missouri, she completed her coursework for a Masters of Education degree in Health and Exercise Sciences with an emphasis in Sports Psychology in 2002 while maintaining a 3.85 cumulative GPA.

"I enjoy being able to work with some of the best players and coaches in the nation day after day," Smith said. "Having the opportunity to see players grow on and off the field as they apply their experiences of playing softball to everyday life makes my job very enjoyable."

The daughter of Robin and Carolyn Smith of College Station, Texas, was born July 22, 1974, in Pasadena, Calif. Her hobbies include softball, reading, working out and shopping. Smith is currently single.

THE SMITH FILE

FULL NAME: Adrianna L. Smith

HIRE DATE: August 26, 2002

BIRTHDATE: July 22, 1974

EDUCATION: Bachelor of Arts in History and Psychology at Grinnell College in 1995; Masters of Education in Health and Exercise Science with an emphasis in Sports Psychology at Missouri in 2002; NSCA Certified Strength and Conditioning coach.

FAMILY: Daughter of Robin and Carolyn Smith of College Station, Texas ... Native of Manhattan, Kansas

COACHING EXPERIENCE: Graduate Assistant Coach at Missouri (1996-99); Assistant Coach at Missouri (1999-02); Assistant Coach at Mississippi State (2002-Present).

COACHING PHILOSOPHY: To create an environment where every athlete can reach their greatest potential both on and off the field. I want our players to develop a deep sense of pride in the program and be able to leave knowing they had one of the greatest experiences of their life and be able to apply those experiences as they move on.

Bo REID

Assistant Coach/Pitching • Ninth Season at MSU • 24th Overall

Entering his 24th year as a collegiate softball coach, Bo Reid enters his seventh season at Mississippi State, his 13th as a Southeastern Conference coach, and his seventh alongside head coach Jay Miller, officially joining the Bulldog staff on June 22, 2000.

Reid's duties include, but are not limited to, pitching instruction, equipment and facility management, scheduling and co-coordinating camps and clinics.

"Coming into a new program, adjustment is always the toughest thing," Miller said. "He's been a tremendous help to my adjustment not only to Starkville and Mississippi State, but also to our ballclub and to our players. He brings a great insight conference Pitcher of the Week accolades. Last season, freshman Misty Flesher twice earned SEC Freshman of the Week honors.

"Coach Miller has given me a jump-start on my softball career," Reid said. "He has given me a lot of knowledge about the game. We are a very good and a very close coaching staff and that is what makes a program successful. We're going to accomplish great things at Mississippi State."

An accomplished fastpitch hurler, Reid retired from competitive pitching in 1995, but not before leading his team to the national tournament in nine of the last 10 years of his career. A highlight of his playing stint came in 1992 when he pitched nine games in a 24-hour period, including four consecutive no-hitters.

He made his debut in the softball coaching world in 1984, working with Spartanburg Methodist as an assistant coach, spending one season before joining Alleen Hawkins' staff at Furman University. The pair worked together 11 seasons with the Paladins before making the transition to the Southeastern Conference in Athens.

During his four seasons with Georgia, Reid molded a remarkable foundation with the Red and Black pitchers. Due to his extensive work with the Bulldog battery, Reid's pitching staff ranked among the best staffs in the conference following every season of his tenure at UGA.

In his first season with Georgia, Reid's development of the Bulldog pitchers showed quickly as Georgia finished as one of the better pitching teams in the conference, tallying a 2.39 team ERA while allowing the third-fewest hits among the 11 SEC softball-playing institutions.

One of his pitchers, Natalie Price, was the only freshman to finish in the top 10 of nine statistical categories in the Southeastern Conference in 1997, including third in strikeouts and complete games. Her 792 career strikeouts currently ranks second in the conference. She also collected SEC Pitcher of the Week honors three times in 1999.

Born July 22, 1949, in Greenville, S.C., Reid is the father of two children, son, B.J. (8-26-74) and daughter, Ryan (1-12-81). He also has two granddaughters, Elizabeth and Alison. His hobbies include softball, bowling and watching and collecting movies. Reid is currently single.

THE REID FILE

FULL NAME: Morris W. Reid II

HIRE DATE: June 22, 2000

BIRTHDATE: July 22, 1949

PLAYING EXPERIENCE: Played consecutive ASA fastpitch softball at the men's major level from 1959-1995.

FAMILY: Reid has two children, son B.J. (31), and daughter Ryan (25).

COACHING EXPERIENCE: Assistant Coach at Spartanburg Methodist (1984); Assistant Coach at Furman (1985-1995); Assistant Coach at Georgia (1996-2000); Assistant Coach at Mississippi State (2000-Present)

HOBBIES: Hobbies include softball, bowling and watching/collecting movies. Currently has a movie library that includes more than 3,000 titles.

COACHING PHILOSOPHY: We want players at Mississippi State who are students of the game and who blend in with our coaching philosophies and game plan. Players need to be willing to learn new things because that is how they grow. Players that give as much as they take, whether it be volunteering in the community or other means of community service, is the mark of a successful program.

into strengths and weaknesses and areas that we need to concentrate on and work on.

"He's a great guy to work with. He knows the game very well. He's an excellent pitching coach and, in addition, not only works well with our pitchers, but also in other aspects of our program. He is just a good stabilizer for us on our staff."

In his eight seasons with Mississippi State, Reid has been responsible for a pitching staff that has held its own inside the SEC, ranking in the top half of several statistical pitching categories. In his first season with the team in 2001, Reid coached a staff that turned in an impressive 36 wins, a 2.12 overall team ERA, 235 strikeouts and 13 saves.

This past season, the Bulldogs picked up 41 victories and seven saves with a staff that consisted of two rookies and a second-year junior. His hurlers have routinely stepped up when facing the top competition, earning 38 victories over nationally ranked opponents since the beginning of the 2002 season.

Since his hiring, Reid's Mississippi State pitching staff has filed a respectable 2.31 ERA, fired five no-hitters and collected four

WESTERN DIVISION

EASTERN DIVISION

As it enters its 13th year of existence, SEC softball has established itself as one of the leading conferences in the sport.

The Southeastern Conference qualified a record eight teams for the 2008 NCAA Tournament - Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, and Tennessee as the conference made its 11th overall, sixth consecutive, Women's College World Series appearance. History was made as Florida received the league's first No. 1 national seed.

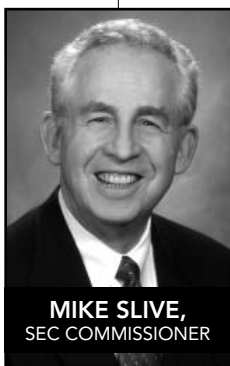

Alabama earned the No. 3 national seed, giving the SEC two top five seeds. Overall, the SEC had five national seeds including No. 9 LSU, No. 13 Tennessee and No. 15 Georgia. Two teams, Florida and Alabama, advanced all the way to the semifinal round of the Women's College World Series, marking the first time ever the SEC had two of the final four teams left in the series.

Florida went 27-1 in the SEC, tying the league record for most wins by a team, to claim the conference and tournament titles. The Gators posted a 70-5 overall record to set an NCAA record for most wins in a single season. Florida's Tim Walton was named Coach of the Year while Stacey Nelson earned Pitcher of the Year honors.

Tennessee's Tonya Callahan, who led the league in hitting, was named Player of the Year and Alabama's Kelsi Dunne was named Freshman of the Year and Jordan Praytor was named Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Softball came under the auspices of the Southeastern Conference in the 1996-97 season. Since that time, nine different conference teams have made appearances in the NCAA Championship, including five teams earning Women's College World Series berths - one by South Carolina in the inaugural season, Alabama in 2000, 2003, 2005, 2006 and 2008, Florida in 2008, LSU in 2001 and 2004 and Tennessee in 2005, 2006 and 2007.

MIKE SLIVE,
SEC COMMISSIONER

Eight teams (Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina and Tennessee) have made Top 25 appearances and five teams have climbed into the Top 10 (Alabama, Florida, Georgia, LSU and Tennessee) of the NFCA/USA Today Poll. At least one SEC team has been ranked in the poll each week since the inception of SEC Softball.

South Carolina is the flagship team of the league with a rich history in softball dating back 34 seasons. The Gamecocks have made 15 NCAA Regional and three Women's College World Series appearances.

Mississippi State played softball for five seasons during the 1980's before resuming the sport when it was added to the SEC. Tennessee added softball in 1995-96, one year before its inception in the SEC. Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU and Ole Miss began softball programs in 1996-97 to give the league 11 representatives (Vanderbilt does not sponsor softball).

The 1999 season was the first in which the conference was eligible for an automatic berth to the NCAA Championships.

As the sport continues to grow in competitiveness and popularity, the SEC has had six different regular season champions and five different conference tournament champions.

SEC SOFTBALL NOTEBOOK

- 63 NCAA Regional Appearances
- 12 Women's College World Series Appearances
- 171 NCAA Wins (includes Regional, Super Regional and WCWS)
- The SEC had two of the final four teams in the 2008 WCWS
- Eight teams advanced to the 2008 Championships, tying the league record from 2004
- Nine different SEC teams have played in the NCAA Softball Championships
- Florida is the first SEC team to claim the No. 1 national seed
- SEC teams have been ranked in every NFCA/USA Today poll since the inception of SEC softball.
- More than 82,000 fans attended SEC softball games last season. Alabama led the league in average attendance with 2,220 per date, 28,863 total.
- SEC teams have won 628 games over Top 25 opponents in the past seven years.
- The SEC has made 49 appearances on FOX Sports Net South, including the last nine SEC Tournament Championship Games.
- The SEC earned a league record eight national Player of the Week honors by six different players (five NFCA, three USA Softball)
- For the first time ever, the SEC had two teams ranked in the top five of the final polls: No. 3 Florida and No. 4 Alabama
- In 2008, the SEC tied the Pac-10 with five teams each ranked in both of the final Top 25 polls.
- In 2008, nine SEC student-athletes were named NFCA First-Team All-Americans, a league record. The previous high was six in 2000. Overall, 13 players were named to first, second and third teams combined, also a record. The previous best was 12 in 2006.

JENNIFER WATERMAN

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

COACHING HISTORY

LYNN KEISER

1982-83 • 37-53-4 (.415)

Keiser led State in the early years of the program, transforming the Bulldogs from a slowpitch program in 1981 to a competitive fastpitch team in 1982. Keiser also amassed a 13-55 (.191) record as head coach of Mississippi State's volleyball team from 1981-82.

VIVIAN LANGLEY

1984-86 • 66-45 (.595)

Langley, who amassed a 34-78 (.304) mark as State's volleyball coach from 1983-85, led the Bulldogs to their first winning season in 1985, then guided the Maroon and White to another winning campaign in 1986 before the discontinuation of the program.

KATHY ARENDSSEN

1997-02 • 220-160 (.579)

Having reintroduced the sport to State's varsity program in 1997, Arendsen led the Bulldogs to the championship game of the 1998 SEC Tournament before a 44-win campaign in 2000 helped the Bulldogs secure their first postseason berth.

Arendsen coached 14 all-SEC and 12 all-American athletes in her six-year career in Starkville. A 13-time ASA all-American as a player, she also had 48 of her players named to the SEC academic honor roll during her tenure.

JAY MILLER

2003-present • 217-164 (.570)

Having helped State secure NCAA postseason bids in five of his first six seasons in Starkville, Miller currently ranks as the NCAA's 12th-winningest active coach and secured his 900th career victory during the 2008 season. He has coached three all-Americans at MSU, with three of his players earning SEC Athlete and SEC Freshman of the Year accolades. In 2008, Miller became just the third Southeastern Conference coach to be inducted into the National Fastpitch Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

Mississippi State is a comprehensive land-grant institution and the largest university in Mississippi, with a statewide enrollment of more than 17,000 students.

Established in 1878 as the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Mississippi, the university has traditional strengths in engineering and scientific agriculture but has evolved into a comprehensive institution with a diverse array of programs in teaching, research, and service.

ACADEMICS AND STUDENT LIFE

Mississippi State students consistently earn honors such as the prestigious Harry S. Truman Scholarship, awarded for those who will enter public service, and, with 16 Truman Scholars to date, the university has been recognized as a Truman Honor Institution. In the past year, a student team competed for and won first place in a national Challenge X competition to re-design a fuel-efficient and environmentally-friendly SUV.

Recently initiated programs are providing opportunities to develop leadership potential and global study options. The university's Global Leadership Continuum provides "cradle-to-CEO" programming designed to develop leadership across a "global" spectrum that begins with high school and continues through the university experience and into professional life. Included are the Young Guns Leadership Camp for rising high school seniors; the Day One Leadership Community for incoming freshmen, focusing on shared academic and service experiences; and the highly competitive Appalachian Leadership Honors Program for sophomores and juniors.

To complement these efforts, the university has launched a minor in leadership studies open to students in all majors. A university honor code adopted in 2007 institutionalizes a campus culture of integrity and personal responsibility in academic studies. Through the Global Leadership Program, students may experience significantly expanded study-abroad opportunities.

RESEARCH

Mississippi State faculty researchers attracted $186.5 million in external funding for 2006-07, up from about $155 million during the previous year. This funding supported 1,691 sponsored projects in 2007.

Based on the latest rankings available from the National Science Foundation, MSU ranks seventh in the nation in agricultural sciences research expenditures and 44th in engineering. Last year MSU faculty and staff disclosed 80 new technologies resulting in three new start-up companies, nine licenses, and 22 patent applications. The university now holds 77 patents.

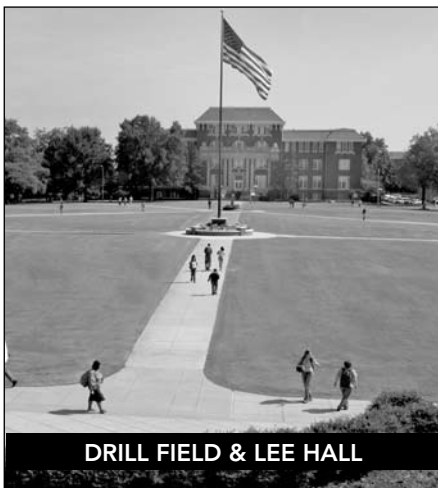

In recent years, MSU has established the Thad Cochran Endowment for Entrepreneurship, as well as collaborating with federal agencies and industries to help increase technology-oriented start-up companies. Among the collaborators and sponsors are the U.S. departments of Defense and Energy, NASA, General Electric, Northrop Grumman,

MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY POINTS OF PRIDE

- Mississippi State ranks among the top 100 institutions across the country in the number of bachelor's degrees awarded to African-Americans.
- Mississippi State's undergraduate program in landscape architecture in 2005 was listed among the nation's top 15 programs by a national publication that promotes quality design education.
- Ten Mississippi State University students have been named Barry M. Goldwater Scholars since 1999. The national scholarship recognizes academic excellence in the sciences, mathematics and engineering.
- In the September 2005 issue of Washington Monthly's college rankings, MSU was ranked No. 95 nationally among 245 major public and private institutions based on "what colleges are doing for the country."
- Over the last decade, five Mississippi State University professors have been named Mississippi Professor of the Year by the national Council for Advancement and Support of Education and the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.
- Recently cited for its service in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, MSU's student chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers is nationally ranked for overall excellence.
- The Mississippi State Promise is a new program designed to help entering freshmen and entering community college transfer students from low-income Mississippi families attend MSU by ensuring that their tuition and required fees will be paid with gift/grant student aid.
- Mississippi State's Rapsheet Flight Research Laboratory is building its own version of unmanned aerial vehicles that will strengthen U.S. battlefield surveillance capabilities.
- The Appalachian Leadership Honors Program is providing opportunities to cultivate leadership potential. Mississippi State wants to grow the "whole person," and the university president -- Dr. Mark Keenum -- has committed himself to that.
- In 2007, Kiplinger's Personal Finance magazine named Mississippi State one of its "100 Best Values in Public Colleges." The list recognizes institutions that are "noteworthy for their combination of top-flight academics and affordable costs."

EADS/American Eurocopter, Boeing, Raytheon, General Dynamics, Israeli Aerospace Industry, and the Mississippi Technology Alliance.

In a key area of economic interest to Mississippi, MSU's Center for Advanced Vehicular Systems, established in 2001, continues research and development supporting a goal of attracting automotive industries to the state. The center is conducting research in areas that include materials processing, human and systems engineering, alternative power systems, computational manufacturing and design, and advanced learning technologies.

OUTREACH AND SERVICE

From its academic programs to the work of countless individuals, Mississippi State has "extended farther" and gone "beyond the limit" to make a difference in the lives of citizens around the state. In 2006, the university formed the Mississippi State Community Action Team to organize university resources and expertise for quick response to local issues around the state. MSU's Extension Service is the first in the nation to have an interactive videoconferencing system in every county Extension office. Through the Freedom Calls program, the system is being used to connect Mississippians with family members in the U.S. military serving our country in Iraq.

The MSU Extension Service maintains offices in almost every county of the state, and the Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Experiment Station operates 10 branch stations throughout Mississippi. Four strategically located research and extension centers coordinate the delivery of services statewide.

THE BULLDOG

Mississippi State University athletic teams are called Bulldogs, a name earned and maintained over the decades by the tough, tenacious play of student-athletes wearing the Maroon and White. The official school mascot is an American Kennel Club registered English Bulldog, given the inherited title of 'Bully'.

As with most universities, State teams answered to different nicknames through the years. The first squads representing Mississippi A&M College were proud to be called Aggies, and when the school officially became Mississippi State College in 1932 the nickname Maroons, for State's uniform color, gained prominence. Bulldogs became the official title for State teams in 1961, not long after State College was granted university status. Yet references to school teams and athletes as Bulldogs actually go back to early in the century, and this nickname was used almost interchangeably with both Aggies and Maroons, since at least 1905.

On November 30 of that year the A&M football team shut out their arch-rivals from the University of Mississippi 11-0 in Jackson, Miss. The campus newspaper, The Reflector, reported: "After the game, filled with that emotion that accompanies every great victory, there was nothing left for the cadets to do but to complete the great victory by showing sympathy for the dead athletic spirit of the University, by having a military funeral parade.

"A coffin was secured, decorated with University colors and a bulldog pup placed on top. It was then placed on the shoulders of a dozen cadets, and the procession started down Capitol Street, preceded by the brass band playing a very pathetic funeral march."

Other newspaper reports of the victory commented on the 'bulldog' style of play by the A&M eleven, and the Bulldog was soon publicly accepted as a school athletic symbol. Accounts of a 1926 pep rally in Meridian, Miss., had another bulldog parading with students.

Use as an official game mascot began in 1935 when coach Major Ralph Sasse, on 'orders' from his team, went to Memphis, Tenn., to select a bulldog. Ptolemy, a gift of the Edgar Webster family, was chosen and the Bulldogs promptly defeated Alabama 20-7.

A litter-mate of Ptolemy became the first mascot called 'Bully' shortly after Sasse's team beat mighty Army 13-7 at West Point that same year, perhaps the greatest victory in MSU football history. But Bully I earned other fame the hard way, in 1939 when a campus bus cut short his career.

Days of campus mourning followed, as Bully lay in state in a glass coffin. A half-mile funeral procession accompanied by the Famous Maroon Band and three ROTC battalions went to Scott Field where Bully was buried under the bench at the 50-yard line. Even LIFE Magazine covered to the event. Other Bullies have since been buried by campus dorms, fraternity houses, and also at the football stadium.

For years Bully was a target for kidnappers, the last incident occurring prior to the 1974 State-Ole Miss game. The Bulldog team won anyway, 31-13. While early Bullies once roamed campus freely or lived in fraternities, today the official university mascot is housed at the College of Veterinary Medicine when not on duty at State home football games. For all their fierce appearance and reputation, today's mascot bulldogs are good-natured, friendly animals and favorites with children.

A student wearing a Bulldog suit, also answering to Bully, is part of the MSU cheerleading team and assists in stirring up State spirit at games and pep rallies.

THE COWBELL

The most unique and certainly the most resounding symbol of Mississippi State University tradition is the cowbell. Despite decades of attempts by opponents and authorities to banish it from scenes of competition, die-hard State fans still celebrate Bulldog victories loudly and proudly with the distinctive sound of ringing cowbells.

The precise origin of the cowbell as a fixture of Mississippi State sports tradition remains unclear to this day. The best records have cowbells gradually introduced to the MSU sports scene in the late 1930s and early 1940s, coinciding with the 'golden age' of Mississippi State football success prior to World War II.

The most popular legend is that during a home football game between State and arch-rival Mississippi, a jersey cow wandered onto the playing field. Mississippi State soundly whipped the Rebels that Saturday, and State College students immediately adopted the cow as a good luck charm. Students are said to have continued bringing a cow to football games for a while, until the practice was eventually discontinued in favor of bringing just the cow's bell.

Whatever the origin, it is certain that by the 1950s cowbells were common at Mississippi State games, and by the 1960s were established as the special symbol of Mississippi State. Ironically, the cowbell's popularity grew most rapidly during the long years when State football teams were rarely successful. Flaunting this anachronism from the 'aggie' days was a proud response by students and alumni to outsider scorn of the university's 'cow college' history.

In the 1960s two MSU professors, Earl W. Terrell and Ralph L. Reeves obliged some students by welding handles on the bells to they could be rung with much more convenience and authority. By 1963 the demand for these long-handled cowbells could not be filled by home workshops alone, so at the suggestion of Reeves the Student Association bought bells in bulk and the Industrial Education Club agreed to weld on handles. In 1964 the MSU Bookstore began marketing these cowbells with a portion of the profits returning to these student organizations.

Today many styles of cowbells are available on campus and around Starkville, with the top-of-the-line a heavy chrome-plated model with a full Bulldog figurine handle. But experts insist the best and loudest results are produced by a classic long-handled, bicycle-grip bell made of thinner and tightly-welded shells.

Cowbells decorate offices and homes of Mississippi State alumni, and are passed down through generations of Bulldog fans. But they are not heard at Southeastern Conference games — not legally, at least — since the 1974 adoption of a conference rule against 'artificial noisemakers' at football and basketball games. On a 9-1 vote SEC schools ruled cowbells a disruption and banned them.

This has done little harm to the cowbell's popularity, however, or to prevent cowbells from being heard outside stadiums in which the Bulldogs are playing. They can still be heard at non-conference football contests, as well as other sporting events on campus. And bold Bulldog fans still risk confiscation for the privilege of keeping a unique Mississippi State tradition alive and ringing at SEC affairs.

MAROON AND WHITE (SCHOOL COLORS)

Maroon and White are the distinctive colors of Mississippi State University athletic teams, dating back over a century to the very first football game ever played by the school's student-athletes.

On November 15, 1895, the first Mississippi A&M football team was preparing for a road trip to Jackson, Tenn., to play Southern Baptist University (now called Union University) the following day. Since every college was supposed to have its own uniform colors, the A&M student body requested that the school's team select a suitable combination.

Considering making this choice an honor, the inaugural State team gave the privilege to team captain W.M. Matthews. Accounts report that without hesitation Matthews chose Maroon and White.

In the 100 years since, every Mississippi State athlete has donned the Maroon and White in some sort of combination. Often a shade of gray has been added to the scheme, such as for the numerals. Briefly in the 1980s the men's and women's basketball teams wore all-gray uniforms with maroon and white trim, while football has at times sported silver game pants, and baseball will often wear all-gray road outfits.

Only once has a MSU team appeared in any other color combination. In 1938 football coach Spike Nelson secretly had cardinal and gold uniforms made for State, a selection that did not sit well with the team or the college at the first game. Neither the uniforms nor Nelson were back for the next season.

HAIL STATE (FIGHT SONG)

Hail dear 'ole State!
Fight for that victory today.
Hit that line and tote that ball,
Cross the goal before you fall!
And then we'll yell, yell, yell, yell!
For dear 'ole State we'll yell like H-E-L-L!
Fight for Mis-sis-sip-pi State,
Win that game today!

MAROON AND WHITE (ALMA MATER)

In the heart of Mississippi
Made by none but God's own hands
Stately in her nat'ral splendor
Our Alma Mater proudly stands.
Mississippi State, we love you,
Fondest mem'ries cling to thee.
Life shall bear thy spirit ever,
Loyal friends we'll always be.

CHORUS:

Maroon and White! Maroon and White!
Of thee with joy we sing.
Thy colors bright, our souls delight,
With praise our voices ring.

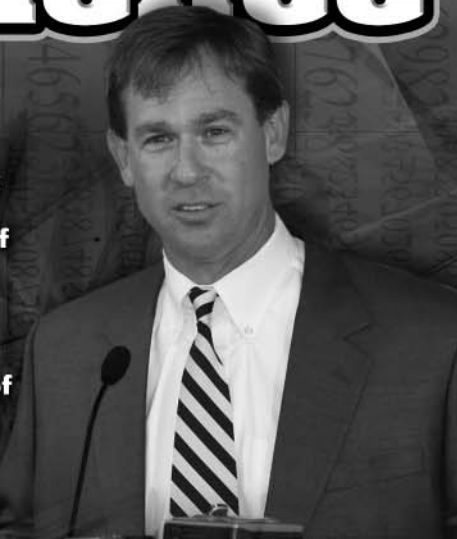

ATHLETIC Excellence

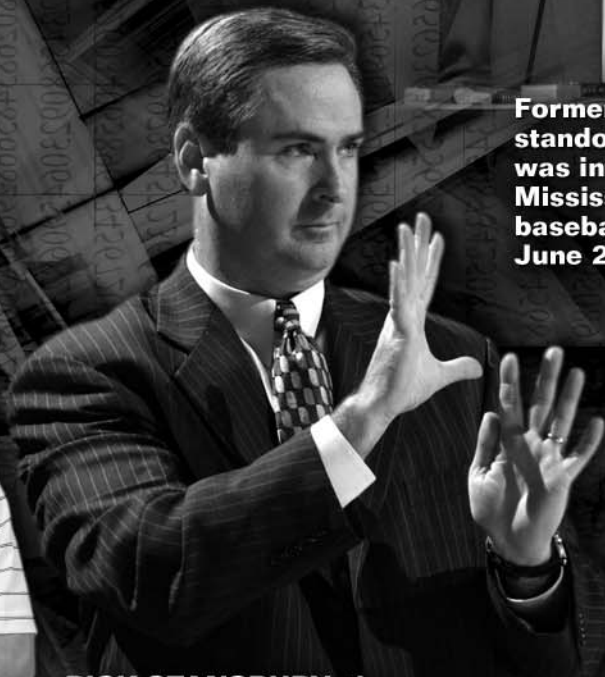

State's coaches care for their student-athletes and the school's sports programs. Each has a passion for their specialty, experience as a player and coach, and expertise to instruct at the highest levels. Their goal is to coach champions on the field and mold productive college graduates from the university's classroom.

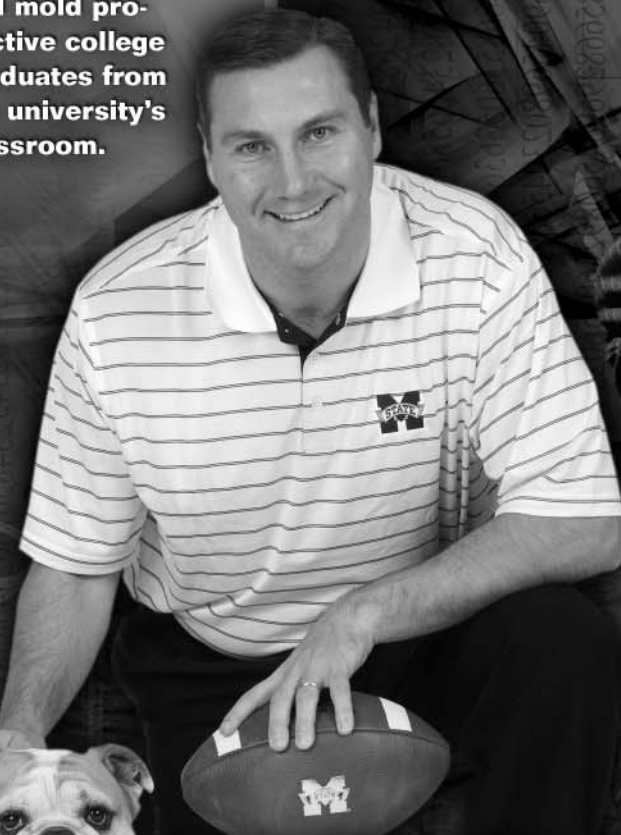

CHRISTI SANDERS (back left) has the longest, consecutive coaching reign of any head coach at State, with 21 seasons at the helm of the women's golf program. She has twice been named SEC Coach of the Year (1990, 2000).

Former MSU baseball standout JOHN COHEN was introduced as Mississippi State's new baseball skipper in June 2008.

RICK STANSBURY, the winningest coach in MSU basketball history, has guided the Bulldogs to 208 wins and eight post-season appearances in his 10 seasons at State.

Energetic DAN MULLEN became Mississippi State's 32nd head football coach in December, 2008. Mullen, regarded as one of the top young minds in college football today, brings a vast amount of coaching experience with him to the Bulldog program, including two national championships.

NEIL MACDONALD is the only head coach to guide the MState soccer program to an SEC Tournament appearance in his first season (2004).

On Nov. 10, 2006, SHARON FANNING became the 29th NCAA Division I women's basketball head coach to reach the 500-win plateau. Fanning is also the winningest basketball coach in Lady Bulldog history.

Great Teachers

CLAY HOMAN, a second-team all-SEC performer during his MState playing career, has led the men's golf program to 43 top 10 finishes in five years.

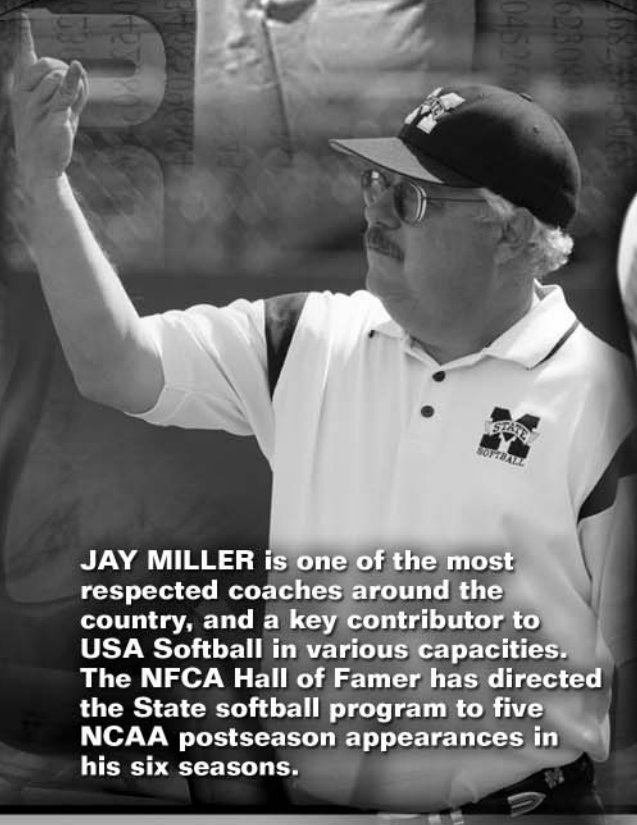

TRACY LANE has the most wins of any head women's tennis coach in MSU history. She directed the 2005 Lady Bulldogs to an SEC Western Division title and has guided MSU to four NCAA Championship berths in her 12 seasons at the State helm.

Returning home to coach his alma-mater, PER NILSSON was a part of the 1993 SEC Championship team.

JENNY HAZELWOOD returned to her alma mater as the head volleyball coach in 2009. During her career at State she set the school record for assists in a match, a season and a career.

JAY MILLER is one of the most respected coaches around the country, and a key contributor to USA Softball in various capacities. The NFCA Hall of Famer has directed the State softball program to five NCAA postseason appearances in his six seasons.

Now in his second decade as the head coach of the men's and women's track teams, AL SCHMIDT has coached three MState athletes to national titles.

ATHLETIC Excellence

Mississippi State athletes play in some of the nation's finest facilities. Almost every Bulldog competition site has either been constructed or renovated in the last 15 years. During that time alone, more than $60 million in facility enhancements have been made.

DAVIS WADE STADIUM AT SCOTT FIELD: Near-sellout crowds have become the norm at Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field, where the Bulldogs have played before masses reaching 85 percent of stadium capacity. Since the 2000 season when expansion and renovation projects gave the nation's second-oldest stadium a gleaming new look, crowds have grown by nearly 30 percent.

PITTS TENNIS CENTRE: Considered among the finest tennis facilities in the collegiate ranks, the modern, six-court, 1,000-seat A.J. Pitts Tennis Centre recently completed its 25th year serving the men's and women's programs. Recent enhancements at the facility include new locker areas and concession stands (1998) and a permanent press box (2004).

W.O. SPENCER STADIUM/
CARL MADDOX TRACK: Co-named in honor of a two-time Mississippi State Olympian and a former MSU athletic director, the W.O. Spencer Stadium/Carl Maddox Track has served as host to the Southeastern Conference Outdoor Track and Field Championships three times since 1985, joining Tennessee as the most frequent host for that event during that time.

DUDY NOBLE FIELD, POLK-DEMENT STADIUM: One of the nation's leaders in baseball season ticket sales and attendance, Dudy Noble Field, Polk-Dement Stadium still holds the nation's on-campus single-game attendance mark — 14,991. With a seating capacity of more than 7,000 and more space in the world-famous outfield, Sports Illustrated magazine named the park, the "Best Place To Watch College Baseball" in a 1997 issue.

NEWELL GRISSOM BUILDING:

The 12,000-square foot, hardwood-floored Newell-Grisson Building serves as the home for Mississippi State's volleyball program and serves as a practice facility for both of the school's basketball programs. A state-of-the-art heating and air conditioning system was installed in 2004.

Great Places

MSU GOLF COURSE:

Nominated by Golfweek and Golf Digest magazines as one of the premier public golf courses in the United States, Mississippi State's championship University Golf Course is the home to the men's and women's programs. The 18-hole course was recently furnished with a 5,000-square-foot clubhouse, complete with locker areas, snack bar, golf shop and classroom.

MSU SOCCER FIELD: Built in 1995, the lighted Mississippi State Soccer Field gives the Bulldog women one of the finest playing surfaces in the Southeast, a 114-yard long, 72-yard wide regulation NCAA Championship field. The lush turf is Mississippi Pride grass, developed by researchers on the MSU campus.

HUMPHREY COLISEUM: Season ticket sales records and all-time attendance marks have also been set over the past decade by Bulldog and Lady Bulldog basketball teams in the Humphrey Coliseum, the state's largest on-campus basketball arena. The latest addition to the facility was a $1.8 million, center-hung, four-sided video scoreboard and jumbotron screen installed in 2004.

MSU SOFTBALL FIELD: Constructed in 1997, the Mississippi State Softball Field has undergone almost constant improvement at the northern-most point of campus. Lights were added to the facility in 1998, brick work was added to the dugouts two years later and, in 2001, additional batting cages were built. In 2005, softball moved into a new locker, training and meeting facility adjacent to the park.

BRYAN BUILDING: The state-of-the-art John H. Bryan Athletic Administration Building is the crown jewel of MSU's expansion projects of the last decade. Opened in 1996, this showcase facility is named for longtime Bulldog friend and supporter John H. Bryan Sr., and houses athletic administration, football, ticket, athletic development and media relations offices.

ATHLETIC Excellence

MSU has played in the SEC Football Championship Game, the basketball Final Four, the baseball College World Series, and in numerous NCAA national title events since 1996. The last decade has brought overall achievement unmatched at State, and each new generation adds more hardware to the school's trophy cases.

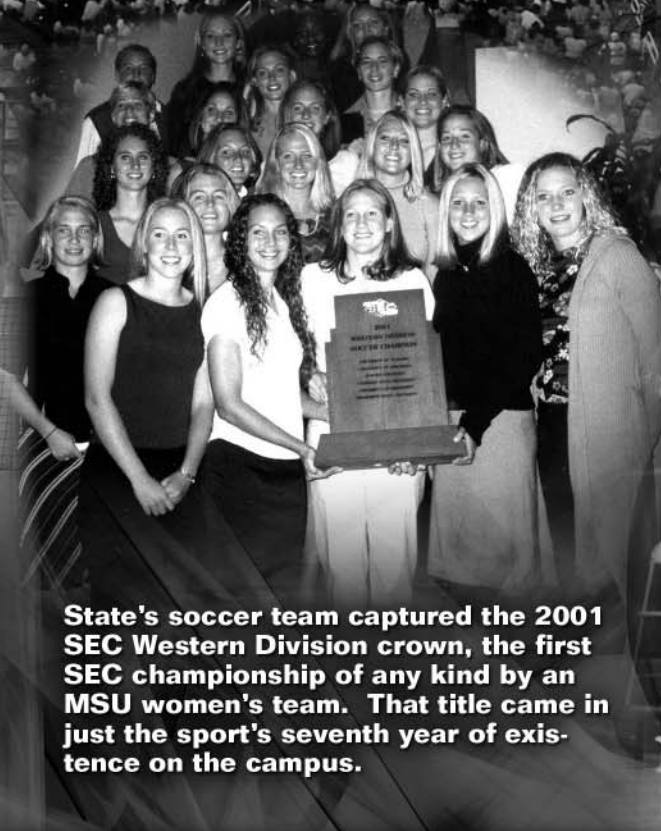

The 1999 Maroon football team won its first eight games of the season, amassed 10 victories for just the second time in school history, and defeated Clemson in the Peach Bowl at Atlanta. Quarterback Wayne Madkin (above), State's all-time leading passer, was named the bowl game's Most Valuable Offensive Player.

State won the SEC Western Division title in 1998 and held a fourth-quarter lead on eventual national champion Tennessee in the league championship game at the Georgia Dome. The Bulldogs' appearance in the championship game garnered the school a berth in the 1999 Cotton Bowl.

MSU's 1998 men's tennis team was one of two Bulldog squads that reached the NCAA semifinals, losing to perennial national champion Stanford. The '98 team was one of 10 State net teams that earned NCAA Sweet 16 berths from 1991-2001.

State's soccer team captured the 2001 SEC Western Division crown, the first SEC championship of any kind by an MSU women's team. That title came in just the sport's seventh year of existence on the campus.

Great Teams

The "thunder and lightning" duo of Rafael Palmeiro and Will Clark guided the Bulldog baseball program to SEC regular season and tournament titles, and to a national third-place finish at the College World Series in 1985. The '85 team's finish was the best of MSU's seven CWS squads.

The 1995-96 Mississippi State men's basketball team earned the school's first-ever NCAA Final Four appearance after claiming the program's first SEC Tournament title and winning the SEC Western Division crown.

The Lady Bulldog basketball team has gone to eight postseason appearances under Head Coach Sharon Fanning, including four NCAA Tournament appearances.

The MState men's golf team captured the school's second-consecutive SEC Tournament title in 1997 and participated in NCAA regional competition for just the second time in school history.

ATHLETIC Excellence

Mississippi State student-athletes have been achievers on the playing fields and off them. For every Bulldog winning all-SEC or All-America honors, another earns recognition for academic achievement. Players are coached to greatness throughout the MSU athletic program.

Bulldog catcher EDWARD EASLEY (R) was named the winner of the 2007 Coleman Company Johnny Bench Award as the nation's top collegiate catcher. Bench (L) presented Easley with the award. Easley also won the 2007 Cellular South Ferriss Trophy as Mississippi's top collegiate baseball player.

IYHIA McMICHAEL, who concluded her career in 2004, is the only two-time SEC Softball Athlete of the Year in league history.

LAURENT MIQUELARD (L) and JOC SIMMONS won the NCAA men's tennis doubles national championship in 1994.

LAWRENCE ROBERTS was the SEC Player of the Year in 2004 and a national finalist for the Wooden Award, given annually to college basketball's top player.

Great Players

As a relief pitcher with the Boston Red Sox, JONATHAN PAPELBON has been an All-Star in each of his first three seasons.

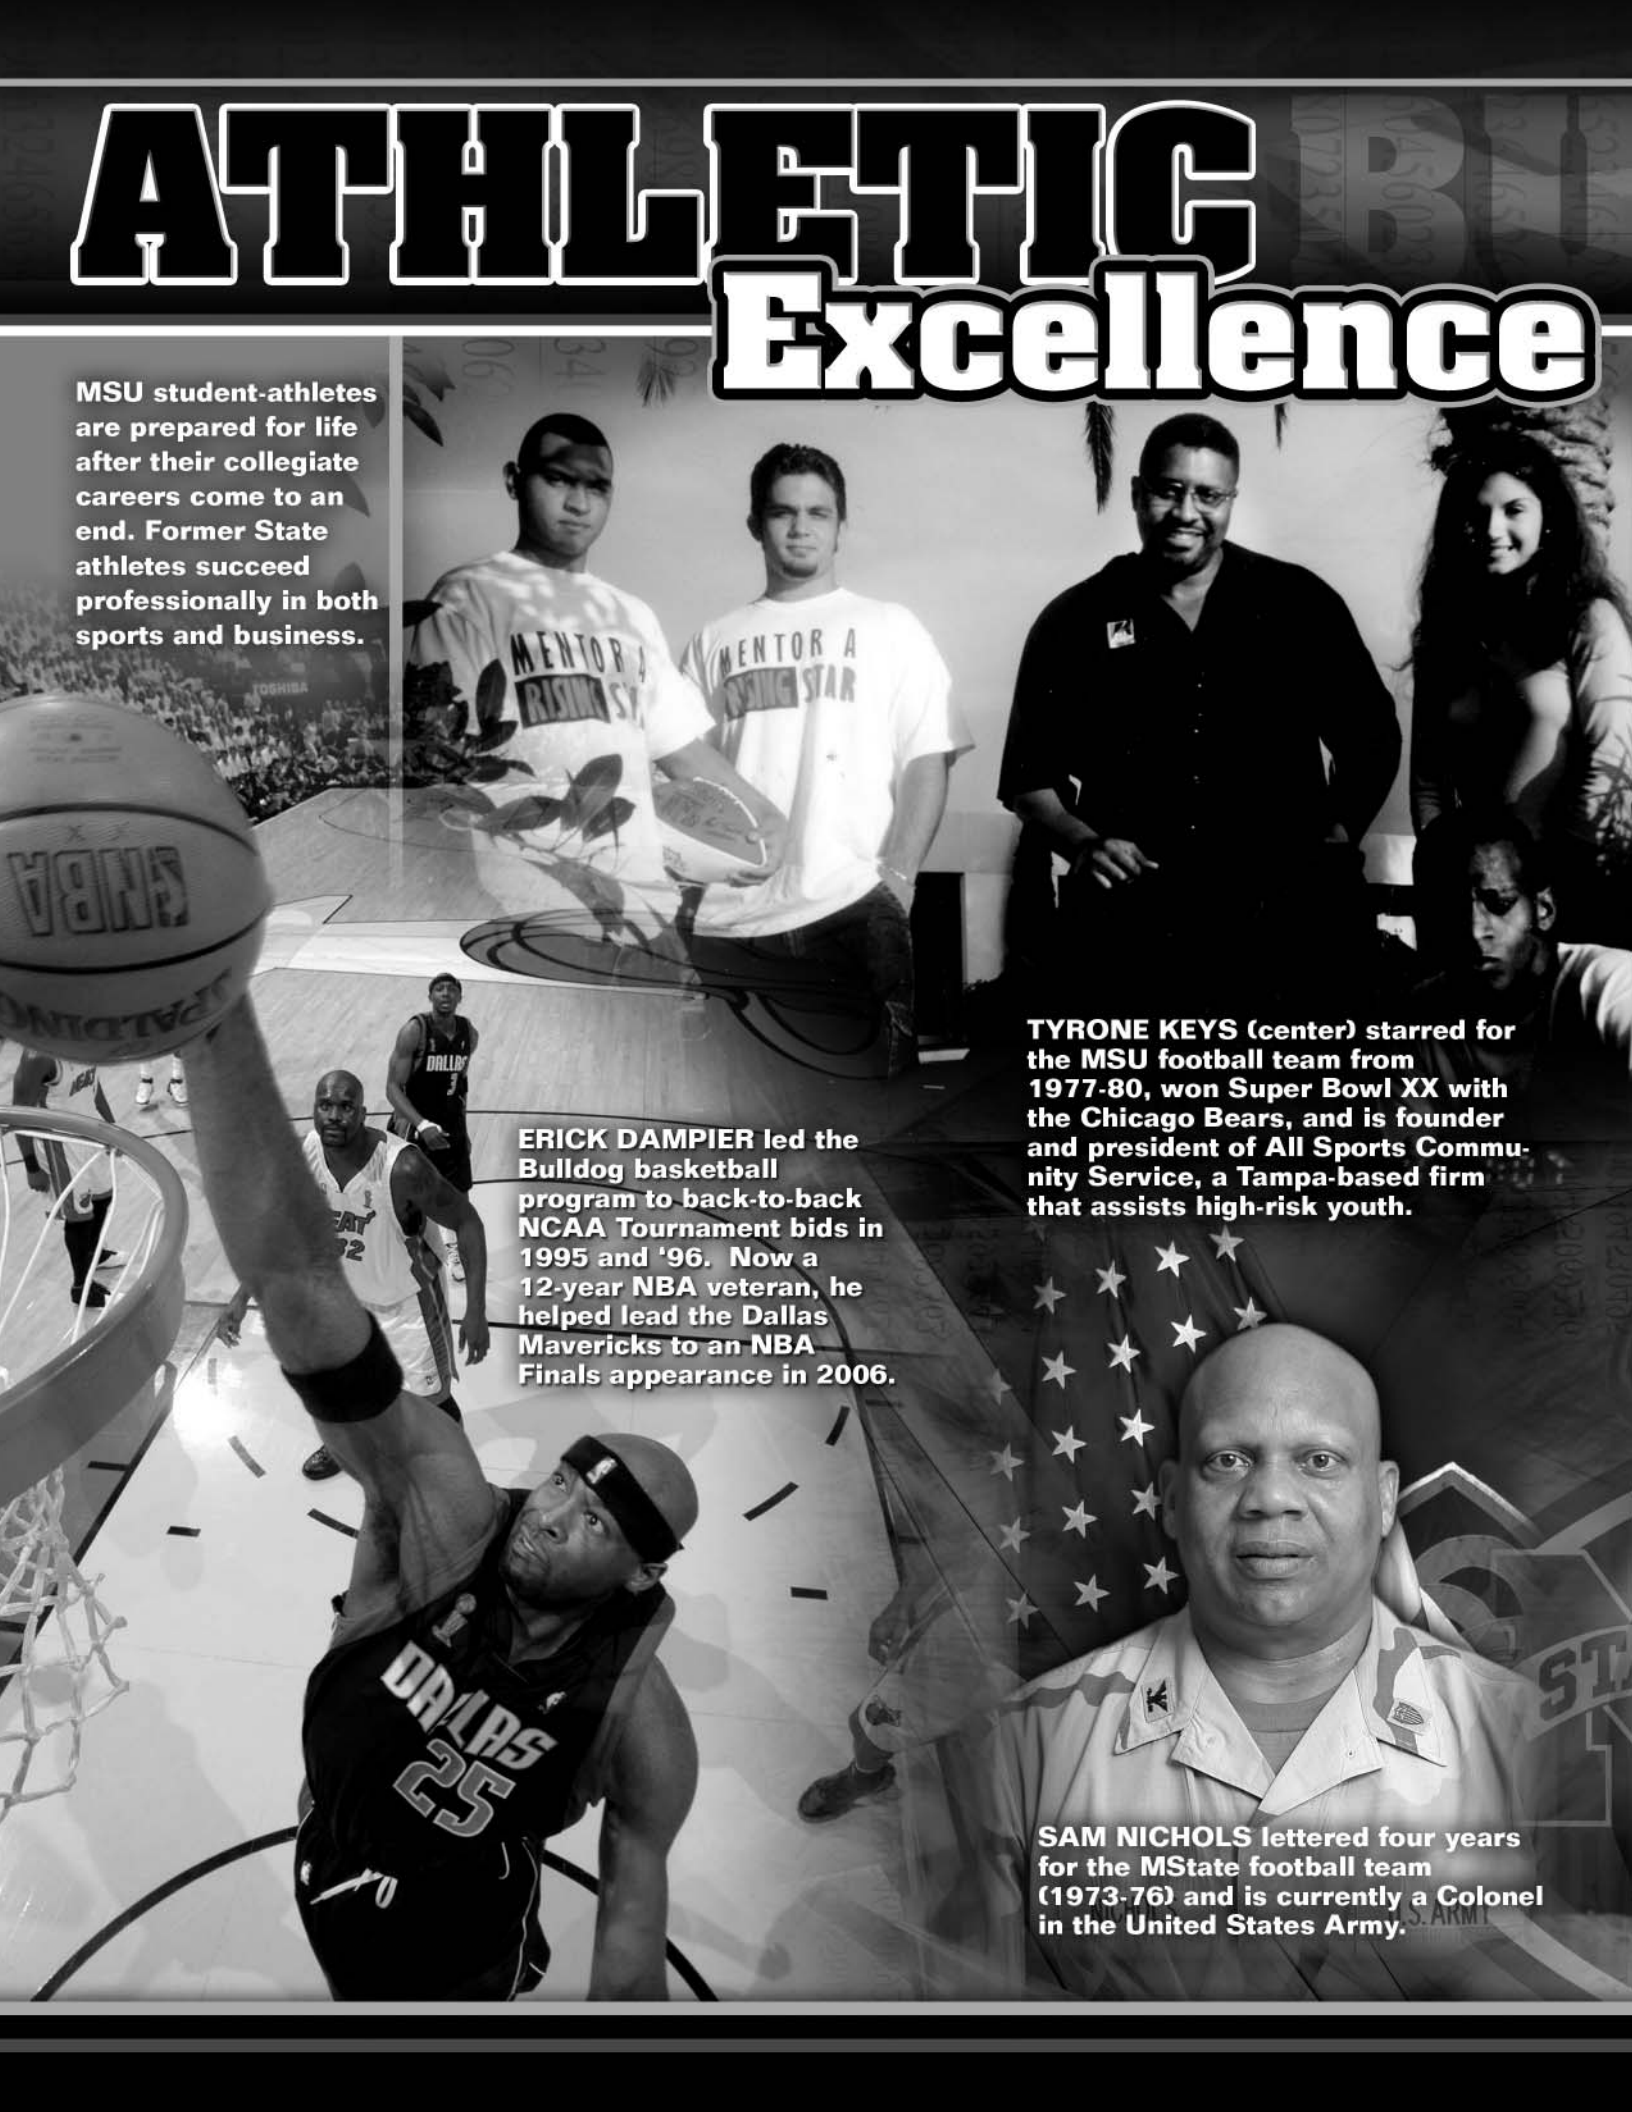

JERIOUS NORWOOD concluded his football career in 2005 as the school's single-game and career rushing leader. He was named winner of the Conerly Trophy as the state's top college football player, was selected to play in the Senior Bowl, and was taken by the Atlanta Falcons in the NFL Draft.

LATOYA THOMAS concluded her career in 2003 as a two-time SEC Player of the Year and became only the sixth player in NCAA Division I history to be named a four-time Kodak All-America.

TIFFANY McWILLIAMS won the NCAA national championship in the 1500 meter run in 2003 and '04, and the national title in the indoor mile in 2004.

ATHLETIC Excellence

MSU student-athletes are prepared for life after their collegiate careers come to an end. Former State athletes succeed professionally in both sports and business.

ERICK DAMPIER led the Bulldog basketball program to back-to-back NCAA Tournament bids in 1995 and '96. Now a 12-year NBA veteran, he helped lead the Dallas Mavericks to an NBA Finals appearance in 2006.

TYRONE KEYS (center) starred for the MSU football team from 1977-80, won Super Bowl XX with the Chicago Bears, and is founder and president of All Sports Community Service, a Tampa-based firm that assists high-risk youth.

SAM NICHOLS lettered four years for the MState football team (1973-76) and is currently a Colonel in the United States Army.

BAILEY HOWELL, who still ranks second on the school's all-time basketball scoring list, enjoyed a 12-year career in the NBA and was elected to the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1997.

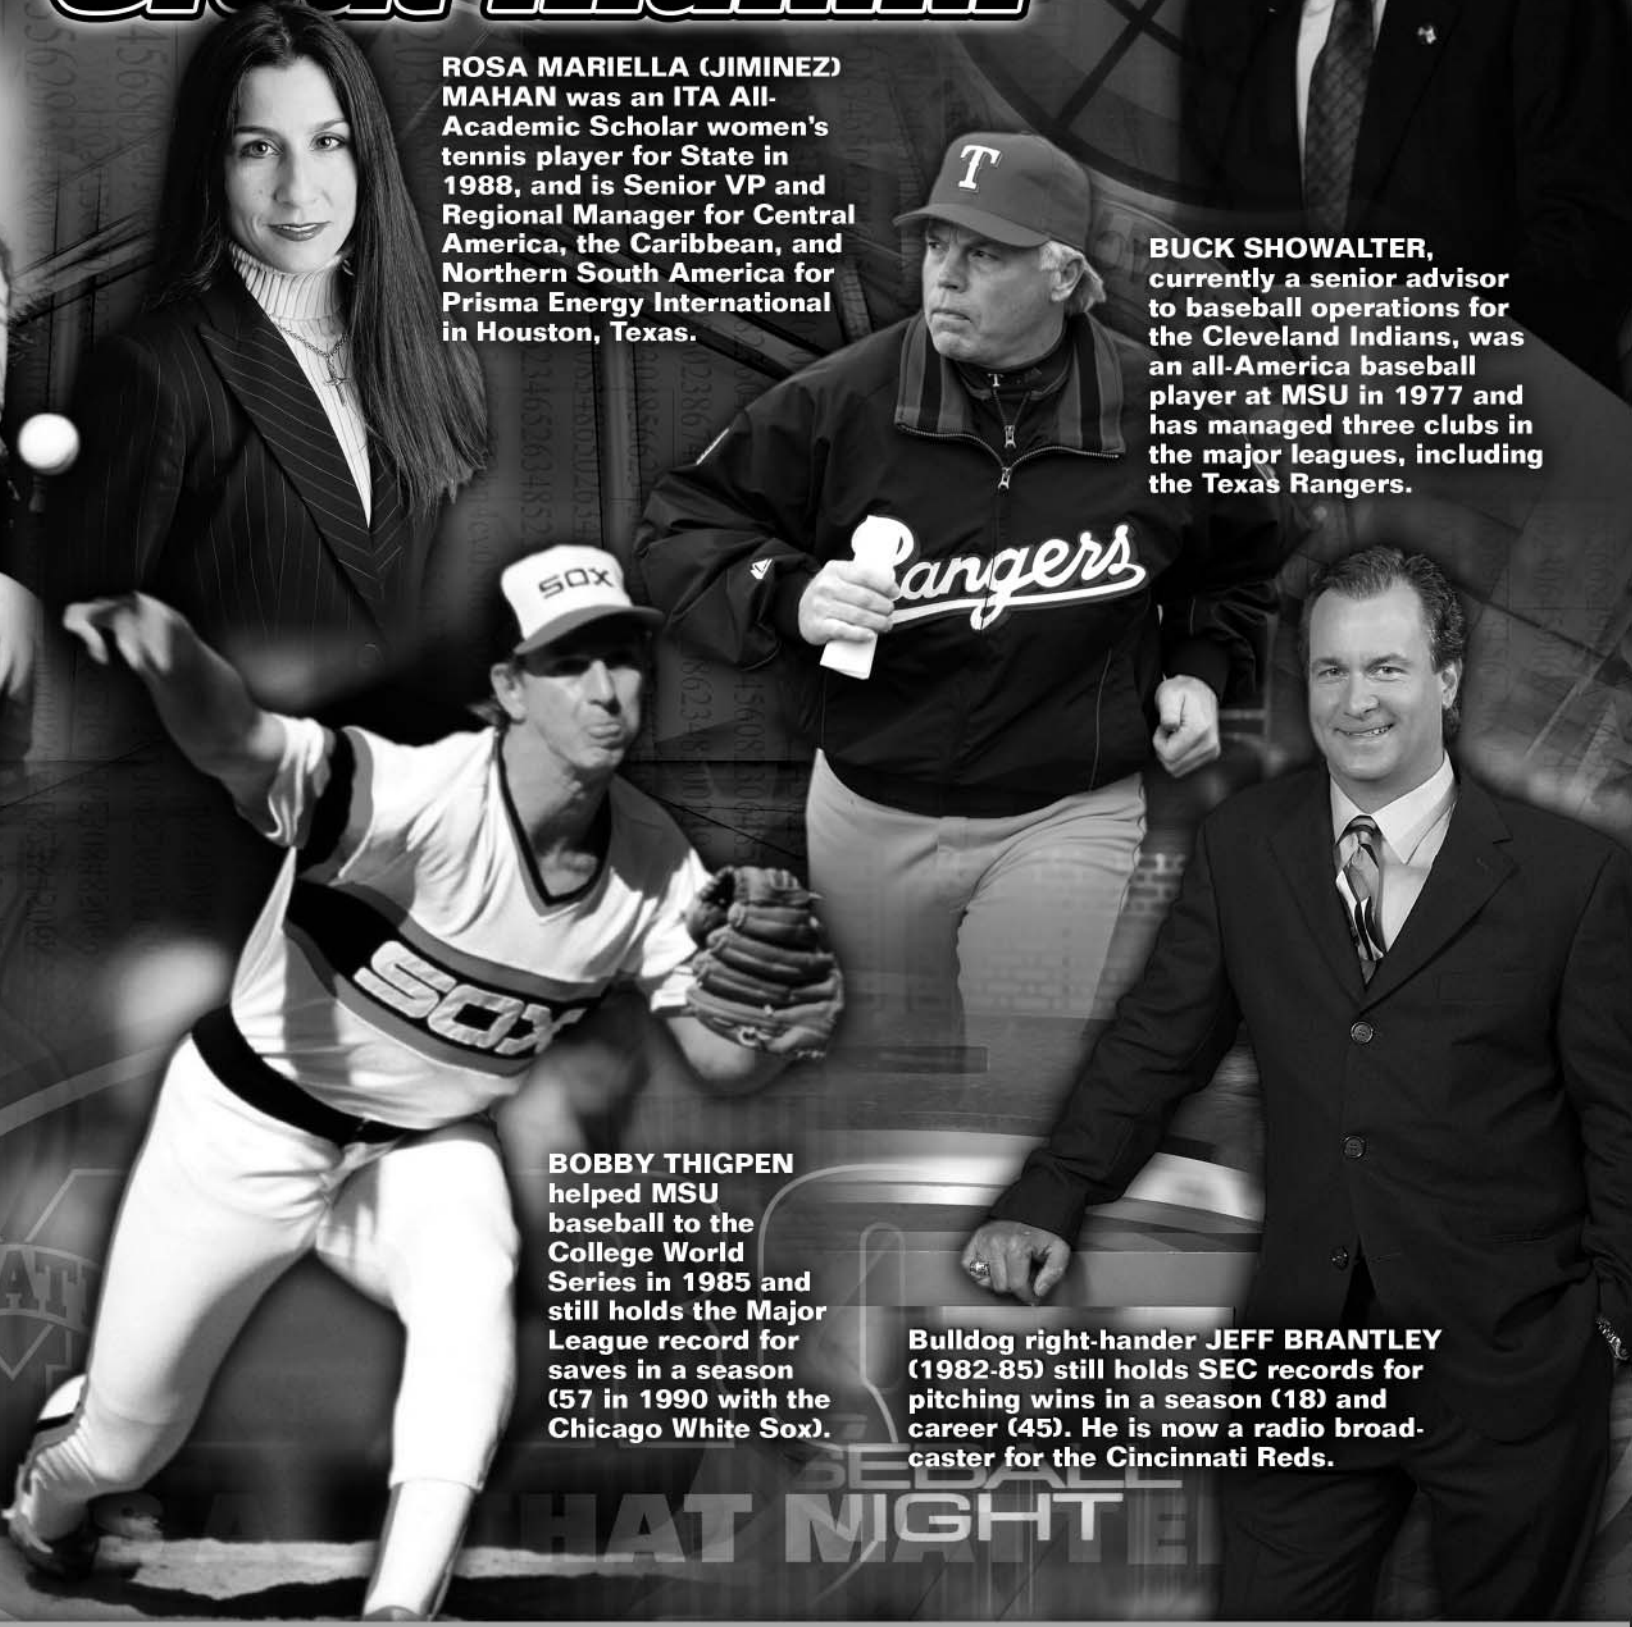

Great Alumni

ROSA MARIELLA (JIMINEZ) MAHAN was an ITA All-Academic Scholar women's tennis player for State in 1988, and is Senior VP and Regional Manager for Central America, the Caribbean, and Northern South America for Prisma Energy International in Houston, Texas.

BUCK SHOWALTER, currently a senior advisor to baseball operations for the Cleveland Indians, was an all-America baseball player at MSU in 1977 and has managed three clubs in the major leagues, including the Texas Rangers.

BOBBY THIGPEN helped MSU baseball to the College World Series in 1985 and still holds the Major League record for saves in a season (57 in 1990 with the Chicago White Sox).

Bulldog right-hander JEFF BRANTLEY (1982-85) still holds SEC records for pitching wins in a season (18) and career (45). He is now a radio broadcaster for the Cincinnati Reds.

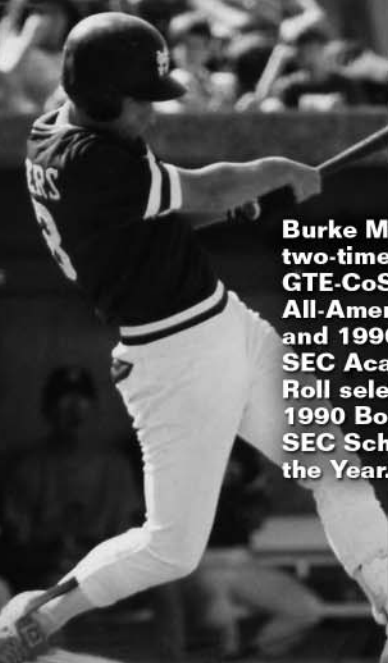

The BULLDOG

Academics

While the MSU athletic program has experienced success both on the field and court, Bulldog and Lady Bulldog athletes are excelling where it counts the most — in the classroom. During the 2006-07 school year, 153 MState athletes earned SEC Academic Honor Roll honors.

Featuring 2005 graduates (L-R) Shane Power, Ontario Harper, Wesley Morgan and Branden Vincent, coach Rick Stansbury's Bulldogs lead all SEC schools with a total of 20 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipients in men's basketball over the past five seasons.

Burke Masters was a two-time First Team GTE-CoSIDA Academic All-American (1989 and 1990), four-time SEC Academic Honor Roll selection and the 1990 Boyd McWhorter SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

A two-time Academic all-SEC selection, Kate Jaspers racked up numerous academic awards while at MSU. She was twice named ESPN the Magazine Academic All-American, and a three-time NFCA Scholar Athlete All-America. In 2004, Jaspers was named the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, as well as the CoSIDA Academic Player of the Year.

Annemarie Pimentel was a four-year soccer letterwinner. While at State, she was a three-time Academic all-SEC selection, while being named to the GTE and Verizon Academic All-District teams. Her career culminated in being selected the 2000 SEC Boyd McWhorter Post-Graduate Scholarship winner, awarded to the student-athlete who best demonstrates excellence in athletics, academics and community service.

WAY

Traditions

The most unique and certainly the most resounding symbol of MSU tradition is the cowbell. Cowbells decorate homes and offices of MSU alumni, and are passed down through generations of Bulldog fans. Although banned from SEC games since 1974, the ruling has not damaged the cowbell's historical importance.

HAIL STATE (FIGHT SONG)

Hail dear 'ole State,
Fight for that victory today;
Hit that line and 'tote that ball;
Cross the goal before you fall,
And then we'll yell, yell, yell, yell!
For dear 'ole State we'll yell like hell!
Fight for Mis-sis-sip-pi State,
Win that game today.

MAROON AND WHITE (ALMA MATER)

In the heart of Mississippi,
Made by none but God's own hands,
Stately in her nat'ral splendor
Our Alma Mater proudly stands;
State College of Mississippi,
Fondest mem'ries cling to thee,
Life shall hoard thy spirit ever,
Loyal sons we'll always be.

Chorus:

Maroon and White! Maroon and White!
Of thee with joy we sing;
Thy colors bright our souls delight,
With praise our voices ring.

Tho' our life some pow'r may vanquish,
Loyalty can't be o'er run;
Honors true on thee we lavish
Until the setting of the sun;
Live Maroon and White for ever,
Ne'er can evil mar thy fame,
Nothing us from thee can sever,
Alma Mater we acclaim.

Mississippi State is deep with tradition. From Bully to cowbells and the maroon and white, evidence of The Bulldog Way are found deep in the heart of every State graduate.

MSU's athletic teams are called the Bulldogs, a name earned and maintained over the decades by the tough, tenacious play of student-athletes wearing the maroon and white. The official school mascot is an American Kennel Club registered English Bulldog, given the inherited title of "Bully." A costumed Bully often makes his presence known at various athletic events.

MISSISSIPPI State

MSU has the largest enrollment in the state of Mississippi. Founded as a land-grant institution, its grass, flowers and trees are as prevalent as buildings, sidewalks and parking lots. Large enough to sport diversity in all areas, the university still maintains a warm, friendly atmosphere.

Ruby Hall, a residence hall with the largest single room size in university history, opened in August 2006. A co-residential, 160,000-square foot, three-story freshman hall, Ruby is located at the north end of campus, in convenient proximity to the Colvard Union, the Perry Cafeteria, Mitchell Memorial Library, the Sanderson Center and all athletic facilities. Ruby Hall offers students the latest in technology, including Ethernet access, full wireless internet coverage, a refrigerator and microwave, and free cable with HBO in each room.

The Colvard Union is a popular meeting place for MSU students. Whether working on a group project, enjoying the food court, or simply relaxing, the student union is one of the campus' main meeting places.

The Chapel of Memories and Carillon Tower were built with bricks from Old Main Dormitory, the largest residence hall in the country when constructed, later destroyed by fire in 1959. The Chapel of Memories, which hosts numerous weddings each year, is one of the most-recognized landmarks on campus.

The Drill Field, located squarely in the center of campus, shows the expanse of greenery for which the campus is famous.

The People's University

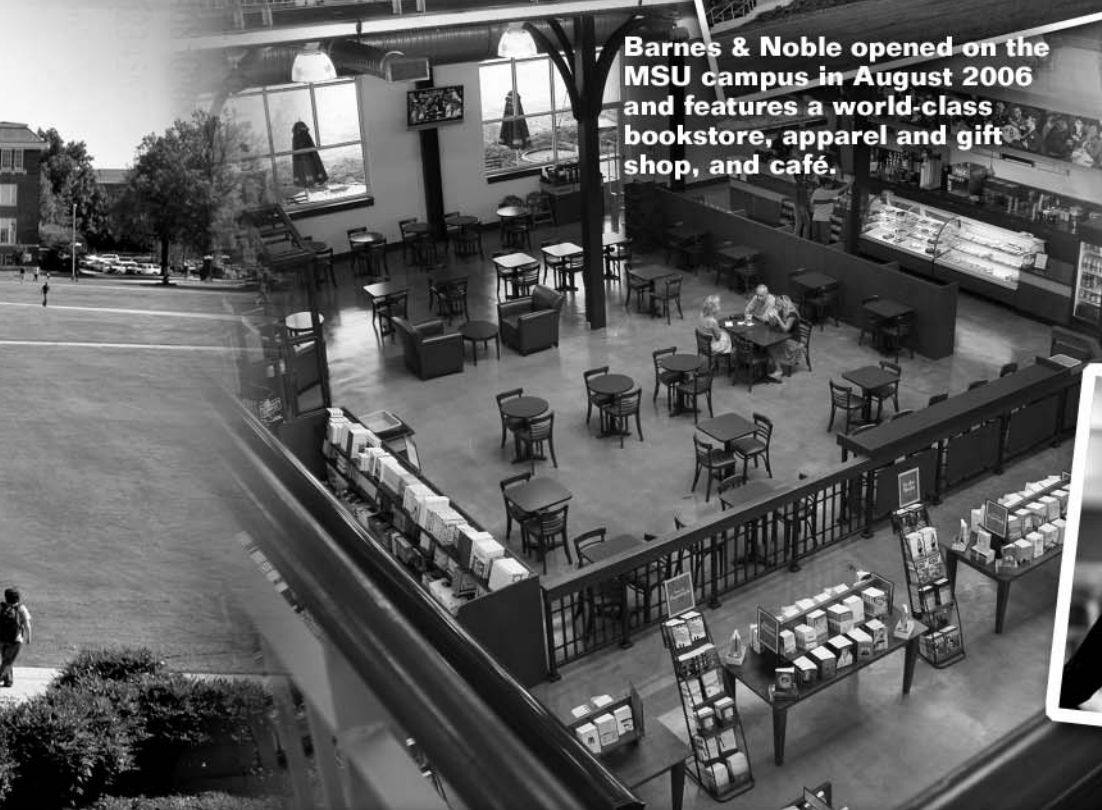

When built in the 1920s, Perry Cafeteria was the largest dining hall in the country. The 300-foot long, Gothic style interior is one of the most beautiful buildings on the campus. It has accommodations for 600 students, faculty and staff and serves as the dining hall for MSU athletes.

The $19 million, 150,000-square foot Sanderson Center recreation complex opened to students in 1996. The state-of-the-art facility offers recreational opportunities in aquatics, fitness and aerobics, strength and conditioning, and intramural sports.

Barnes & Noble opened on the MSU campus in August 2006 and features a world-class bookstore, apparel and gift shop, and café.

BULLDOGS IN USA SOFTBALL

Mississippi State and USA Softball

Since first really making a name for itself at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta, representing the United States on the softball field has been a goal of many players to come through the collegiate ranks.

Many players who have donned the Maroon and White for Mississippi State have aspired to one day wear the Red, White and Blue while hustling, diving and sliding for the United States.

Since softball became an Olympic sport in 1996, the Bulldogs have contributed greatly to the success that the U.S. has enjoyed on the international stage.

USA Softball was created by the Amateur Softball Association to train, equip and promote the various national teams to competition both in the United States and on the mainland.

Bulldog head coach Jay Miller plays a vital role in helping guide and teach the athletes who are selected to carry on the rich tradition of success the United States has enjoyed for many years. Miller currently serves as a member of the U.S. National Team coaching staff.

Miller got his first taste of international coaching experience in 1987 as the pitching coach for the Netherlands Antilles' Pan-Am Games team. He joined the USA Softball coaching ranks in 1992 as a member of the USA Softball National Team Selection Committee, which was responsible for selecting the teams that compete in various international competitions, and he has served with the program ever since.

Miller has also enjoyed his share of success on the field for the U.S. at the international level. Just last summer he guided the United States Junior National Team that ventured to The Netherlands and returned to the mainland with the 2007 Junior World Championship. In 2006 he coached the junior national team to the Pan American Qualifier title, securing the team a berth in the Pan-Am Games.

Throughout his numerous journeys with the national team program, Miller has had the opportunity to coach a trio of Bulldogs on the international stage. In 2006 he assisted Michigan head coach Carol Hutchins on the USA's World University Games team. That team included senior Bulldog shortstop Courtney Bures, who had earned NFCA

All-Region accolades a year removed from claiming SEC Freshman of the Year and first team All-America honors.

Bures' selection to the United States' World University Games team continues a rich tradition that previously included fellow all-Americans Iyhia McMichael and Kellie Wilkerson. Both competed extensively on various U.S. squads following the completion of MSU careers which saw them establish numerous school records.

Wilkerson, a four-time all-SEC selection,

KERI McCALLUM

has seen extensive action on the international stage, competing with the 1999 junior national team, the USA Elite National Team, and the U.S. National Team in 2005 following a collegiate career in which she still rates as MSU's lone four-time all-American.

McMichael played on Miller's Elite squad that captured the 2003 Canada Cup. The two-time all-American clinched the title for the Americans, hitting a walk-off home run in the bottom of the 14th inning against Australia after Miller's squad knocked off the U.S. National Team in the semifinal.

Both players currently play in the National Pro Fastpitch league, as McMichael was the top selection for the Akron Racers who won a league title in 2005 after her game-winning home run against the Chicago Bandits. For McMichael, the successes professionally and at the international level are a continuation of her outstanding MSU career which included a pair of SEC Player of the Year honors.

Michelle Gates and Keri McCallum earned the program's first U.S. team selections since the program returned in 1997. The duo, who led State to the SEC Tournament finals in 1998 and the program's first NCAA regional appearance in 2000, were both invited by USA Softball to the Olympic Festival in 1998 and again in 1999.

Mississippi State Softball in the Pros

For more than a decade, fastpitch softball players have had the opportunity to continue their playing careers at the professional level through the Women's Professional Softball League and, currently, National Pro Fastpitch.

NPF is currently enjoying unprecedented success through regularly-televised games on ESPN and ESPN2 and rapidly-growing fan attendance. Since returning to the playing field, Mississippi State softball has played an integral role in the growth of the professional league dating back to the development of the WPSL.

The Bulldogs' impact on the professional league began with Autumn Anderson and Keri McCallum being drafted by the WPSL. Since then, eight other MSU alumni have gone on to compete in the WPSL or the NPF.

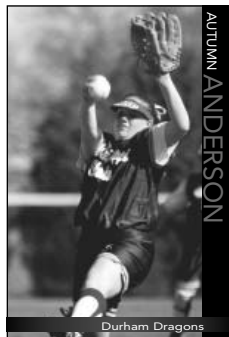

In its first season as NPF, the Akron Racers utilized the No. 1 overall senior draft pick to select former Bulldog all-American Iyhia McMichael.

Her former teammate, Kellie Wilkerson, was drafted by the league's New York/New Jersey Juggernaut. Both players have since captured a league title, as McMichael led the Racers to the 2005 crown a year after Wilkerson helped the Juggernaut to the 2004 championship.

Since entering the league, both McMichael and Wilkerson have consistently topped the NPF leaderboard in numerous offensive categories. The duo has also been tabbed to multiple NPF All-Star teams, and McMichael claimed the 2004 National Pro Fastpitch Most Valuable Player Award after leading the league in batting average (.339) and runs scored (34) and ranking third overall in home runs (four) and doubles (12).

Wilkerson finished immediately behind McMichael in the hitting title race, batting .331 with a league fourth-best 20 RBI while guiding the Juggernaut to the Cowles Cup which is presented annually to the league champion.

The very next season McMichael experienced the thrill of hoisting the championship trophy after she hit the game-winning home run off USA national team member Jennie Finch to clinch the title series for the Racers. That season McMichael and Wilkerson, who had moved to the New England Riptide, both finished among the top offensive players in the league.

Wilkerson concluded the year second in batting average after hitting .435. McMichael continued to solidify her place among the league's greats, ranking fifth with a .400 average and hitting 11 home runs which ranked right behind USA national team member Crystl Bustos for tops in the league and for the Racers.

Courtney Bures ended a stellar MState career in 2008 and was drafted with the 16th overall pick by the Washington Glory. The two-time NFCA First Team All-American made an immediate impact in the league, hitting .240 and tying for seventh in NPF in RBIs (7) and fourth in home runs (9) while leading the Glory to the NPF championship series.

Former Bulldog hurlers Melissa Massey and Kasey Whitehead joined McMichael on the Racers for a season, and several other former MSU standouts completed in the professional ranks in either NPF or the WPSL.

Anderson, a 1998 NFCA second team all-region selection in the circle, was selected with the ninth overall pick by the Durham Dragons in the 1999 WPSL draft. A year later, McCallum, MSU's first four-time all-SEC selection and a two-time NFCA all-region winner, was selected with the 10th overall pick by the Tampa Bay Firestix. McCallum's former teammates, Michelle Gates and Karrie Rider, also enjoyed stellar careers in the professional softball ranks. Gates, who earned two all-region accolades playing third base for the Bulldogs, actually teamed with Rider for the Ohio Pride who lost in the 2000 WPSL championship series to the Florida Wahoos.

MSU ADMINISTRATION

DR. MARK KEENUM

MSU President • Mississippi State, 1988

Dr. Mark Everett Keenum became Mississippi State's 19th president Jan. 5, 2009, following a distinguished public service career.

After completing his bachelor's and master's degrees in agricultural economics at Mississippi State, Dr. Keenum joined the university faculty in 1984 as a marketing specialist with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service. Two years later, he accepted a position as a research associate with the Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Experiment Station at MSU.

He continued his education at the university, in 1988 receiving a doctorate in agricultural economics, and he joined the faculty of that department as an assistant professor/economist. During his professional tenure at Mississippi State, his primary research and extension work focused on the marketing and economics of aquaculture, specialty crops and forestry. He continued his faculty ties at the university 1997-2006 as an adjunct professor, teaching an annual course on agricultural legislative policy.

Prior to being named president of Mississippi State in November 2008, Dr. Keenum served as Under Secretary of the U.S. Department of Agriculture for two years, where he provided leadership and oversight for the Farm Service Agency, the Risk Management Agency and the Foreign Agricultural Service. The mission area, comprised of the three agencies, had a total operating budget of $1.7 billion and approximately $40 billion in program authority. The three agencies employed more than 16,500 people at more than 2,300 offices nationwide and 98 locations around the globe.

In 1989, Dr. Keenum joined the Washington, D.C., staff of U.S. Senator Thad Cochran as Legislative Assistant for Agriculture and Natural Resources. As Sen. Cochran's adviser on agricultural affairs, he worked on numerous issues important to U.S. agriculture, including the 1990, 1996, and 2002 Farm Bills. From 1996-2006, he served as Chief of Staff for Sen. Cochran. In this role, Dr. Keenum was the chief adviser to the senator on political, legislative and appropriations issues. He also was responsible for managing all administrative and legislative functions of Sen. Cochran's Washington, D.C., office and three Mississippi offices, including direct oversight of the U.S. Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry and the U.S. Senate Committee on Appropriations.

Dr. Keenum and his wife Rhonda have four children.

GREG BYRNE

Director of Athletics • Arizona State, 1994

When Greg Byrne was named Mississippi State University's 15th Director of Athletics on February 21, 2008, he became the youngest top current athletic administrator in the Southeastern Conference. At 36 years of age, he also became the youngest to lead an athletic program at the NCAA Division I-A level.

Despite his age, Byrne is anything but inexperienced. He has been around successful athletic programs, and the director's chair at those institutions, literally all his life. He is the son of long-time athletic administrator Bill Byrne, currently the Director of Athletics at Texas A&M University.

Byrne, however, has made a name for himself in intercollegiate athletics. He has 15 years of professional experience, a resume' that shows progressive growth in both responsibility and achievement. He has been directly involved in raising over $120 million in gifts during his career in athletics. He has finalized and implemented an annual giving renovation for athletics at three different institutions. Byrne has also helped in the reorganization of the athletic program at one school while renovating the department's budgeting systems, development, marketing and compliance programs. Byrne was on the ground floor of resurrecting a football program and athletic department at another institution, one that achieved success for the first time in three decades.

Prior to being named to head State's athletic program, Byrne came to MSU in June 2006 as Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs. In just his first year on the job, Byrne initiated a first-ever volunteer fund-drive that resulted in 969 new Bulldog Club members for Mississippi State. He implemented a priority seating program for football and men's basketball that led to a $1 million increase in annual giving. He also led the effort to package State's donor and ticketing software, in connection with the department's athletic web site, for fan convenience. In doing so, MSU became the first Bowl Championship Series school to enlist XOS Technologies for total donor support in those areas.

Byrne held a similar position at the University of Kentucky prior to coming to Starkville. As Associate Athletic Director for Development and Fund-Raising at UK from 2002-05, he managed the development staff and operated a multi-million dollar budget. He oversaw development efforts that raised annual gifts from $4 million to $9 million annually. While in Lexington, Byrne led a $35 million athletic facility campaign, and participated in the design, funding and marketing for Kentucky's $30 million basketball practice facility. He worked with a corporate sponsorship team to manage UK marketing and development efforts, including signing one of the nation's top multi-media rights packages. Byrne was one of four members on the UK search committees that brought new head football and baseball coaches to the Wildcat athletic program.

Byrne possibly made his greatest athletic program impact as Associate Athletic Director for Development at Oregon State University from 1998-2002. Managing an eight-person staff, he replaced an antiquated 60-year old fund-raising organization and increased annual giving from $1 million to over $5 million in cash during his tenure there. He assisted the Director of Major Gifts in raising more than $30 million in capital gifts for facilities and budget enhancement while in Corvallis. He participated in securing a $12.5 million gift to rename the Beavers' football stadium. Byrne was involved in the department's transition of corporate sponsorships for radio, television, stadium and arena signage and game program sales to increase revenue.

Byrne began his athletic fund-raising career as Regional Director of Development at the University of Oregon from 1995 through '98, overseeing development efforts for Portland, Southern and Central Oregon, Northern California and the Oregon coast. While overseeing the Duck's letterman's organization, he participated in raising $14 million for an indoor football facility and soccer complex.

The energetic Byrne launched his professional career as Special Projects Coordinator for the Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Ariz., from 1993-95. During that time, he managed a 1,000-person volunteer base for 63 Fiesta Bowl annual events.

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Byrne earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona State University in 1994. He anticipates receiving his master's degree from Mississippi State this summer.

Byrne is married to the former Regina Misa of Junction City, Ore., and the couple has two sons: Nick (12) and Davis (10).
