MSU SOCCER FIELD

MSU SOCCER FIELD

Home to the Mississippi State soccer team since 1995, the Mississippi State Soccer Field gives the Bulldogs one of the finest playing surfaces in the Southeast. Located on the north side of the Mississippi State University campus, the MSU Soccer Field joins the Mike Sanders Track Complex, Dudy Noble Field/Polk-Dement Stadium (baseball), Nusz Park (softball) and the A.J. Pitts Tennis Centre to give MSU one of the finest Olympic sport venues in collegiate athletics.

The facility features a main grandstand area which accommodates more than 500 people, while the grass hillsides that bookend the stands can seat over 1,000 fans for any given contest.

The program debuted a 2,600 square-foot brick facility in 2008 which houses a concession stand, men's and women's restrooms and a spacious press box. The press box is divided into four separate work areas, with each equipped with hi-speed internet and telephone access. It is also setup to accommodate television and team video personnel. The MSU Soccer Field also includes covered dugouts for participating teams.

Hailed as one of the top playing surfaces in the Southeastern Conference, the field stretches 114 yards long and 74 yards wide. The regulation NCAA Championship field features Mississippi Pride grass - developed by researchers on the Mississippi State campus - making it one of the top playing surfaces in the country.

Mississippi State's grass is also licensed out and used at prestigious golf courses, the Rose Bowl, the StubHub Center (LA Galaxy), Kaufman Stadium (Kansas City Royals), Chase Field (Arizona Diamondbacks) and other professional venues.

Lights were added just after the conclusion of the 2002 campaign, equipping the facility for evening competition and giving it an added amenity that can only translate into a better atmosphere.

The atmosphere at the facility has grown over the years, with MSU setting all of the top-10 attendance marks since 2014. A facility-record 1,402 fans saw the Bulldogs topple No. 13 South Carolina in overtime on Sept. 20, 2018.

In 2018, a new Daktronics LED display that measures 18 feet high by 32 feet wide was added to the field. This new display features a 15HD pixel layout with wide angle visibility to bring crisp, clear imagery to Bulldog fans at every game. It features industry-leading environmental protection to survive the elements while operating as expected.

On-field restrooms were added in between the dugouts on the field in the summer of 2020, and also serves as a private indoor pregame and halftime team meeting facility for the visiting team.

MSU SOCCER CLUBHOUSE

MSU SOCCER CLUBHOUSE

The MSU Soccer Clubhouse, a $1.8 million facility covering nearly 3,000 square feet adjacent to the soccer field, was added during the 2016 soccer season to give the Bulldogs an on-field locker room for the first time in program history.

The facility includes a 600-square-foot film room/lounge, a 500-square-foot treatment area, 300-square-foot equipment and laundry room, a 300-square-foot coaches conference room/locker room and a 250-square-foot kitchen.

The facility also houses a 1,000-square-foot player locker room, shower area and bathroom that is easily accessible from the field. The addition of the clubhouse adds to one of the best atmospheres in the South and further demonstrates the commitment of the Mississippi State Athletic Department to the soccer program at MSU.

SHIRA FIELDHOUSE

The Shira Fieldhouse Complex, which underwent a million-dollar renovation in 1992 and another facelift in 2017, serves as one of Mississippi State's two primary facilities for conditioning, treating and equipping Bulldog athletes.

Named in honor of the late Charles N. Shira, former MSU head football coach and athletic director, the two-story complex opened in the mid-1970s. When opened at that time, it housed the football locker room and a 50-yard-long indoor practice field, as well as the main athletic equipment, training and weight rooms.

Since MSU football's move to the Leo Seal Jr. Complex in 2013, the Shira Fieldhouse Complex has maintained its purpose of housing training facilities for many of the athletic teams on campus. The indoor turf room was renovated in 2017 to incorporate a new look, energy-efficient lighting and a netted area for the track and field team to practice field events indoors.

The adjoining weight room also received several updates in 2017 including fresh graphics, new lighting and new flooring.

LARRY H. TEMPLETON CENTER

Dedicated on November 1, 2008, the Templeton Athletic Academic Center was a welcome addition to the Bulldog athletic program. The $10 million facility is named for former MSU Director of Athletics Larry Templeton.

The facility is an addition to two existing facilities in the athletic wing of the MSU campus - the Shira Complex and the Holliman Athletic Center. It is situated on the south side of those two facilities, and across the street from the Bryan Athletic Administration Building.

The 34,000 square-foot building serves the entire athletic department, houses the Athletic Academics offices and staff, and includes individual computer rooms, tutor work areas, a large open study area and a 300-seat dining facility with a fully-functioning kitchen.

Templeton, now Athletic Director Emeritus, served 22 years as Director of Athletics and during his tenure helped position MSU Athletics as an innovative, progressive program, with equality in sports for women, new and renovated facilities and keen fiscal management.

James Armstrong was hired as the sixth head coach of the Bulldog soccer program on Jan. 18, 2019 after serving as an assistant and associate head coach at Auburn University for six seasons.

In his first year leading the Bulldogs, MSU ended a 15-year SEC Tournament drought, as Armstrong became just the second active SEC head coach to reach the conference tournament in his first year leading any program. State qualified with the third-highest SEC winning percentage in program history and its most points in the standings (12) since 2004 (16). The Bulldogs picked up points in 60 percent of their league matches, an all-time high.

MSU won more road games in conference play this season than they had in the previous three years combined. It was the first time since 2015 that MSU won multiple SEC games outside of Starkville. State closed the regular-season on a three-match unbeaten streak in conference play, which is tied for the longest in school history.

Known for his teams' offensive success, Armstrong posted school records for goals, assists and points in SEC play in his first season. Sixteen players recorded a point, the most since 2008 when 20 players did so.

The Bulldogs reeled in their fourth first team All-SEC selection in school history when MaKayla Waldner earned the honor as a midfielder. Waldner was also named the SEC Co-Scholar-Athlete of the Year and earned a spot on the league's Community Service Team.

A renowned recruiter, Armstrong secured an impressive 2020 class following his first full season. Two state players of the year and two high school All-Americans will join the Bulldogs for his second season, and four of his eight fall signees were ranked according to TopDrawerSoccer.com.

While at Auburn, Armstrong oversaw some of the most productive offensive seasons in program history while working with the Tigers' forwards and midfielders and serving as recruiting coordinator. In six years, Auburn totaled 215 goals. The Tigers' 121 goals in Armstrong's final three years were the most in a three-year stretch since 2000-02. Before his arrival, Auburn finished 181st in scoring in Division I, but climbed as high as 20th in 2016 and 31st in 2018.

Armstrong helped produce four of the top eight single-season assist totals and two of the top seven single-season goal and point totals in program history. He coached six attacking players to eight All-SEC honor and four SEC All-Freshman selections. Additionally, three Auburn players earned All-American honors while he was with the program.

In his six seasons on The Plains, Auburn made the NCAA Tournament in five straight years, advanced to the second round four times, made two trips to the Sweet 16 and finished in the Elite Eight in 2016. The Tigers made the SEC Tournament every season.

COACHING STAFF

Armstrong has also worked with the U.S. Olympic Development Program since 2011. He served as an assistant coach for Region III for four years, making trips to Germany, Italy and Costa Rica for international competition, before taking over as the head coach for the Region III team in 2015. He has since stamped Argentina and England into his passport.

His first coaching job came with Lonestar SC in Austin, Texas, where he helped establish the club in 2004. Armstrong advanced through its coaching ranks before becoming Lonestar's ECNL Head Coach and Premier League Girls Director of Coaching. Under his leadership, the club placed more than 200 players in collegiate programs and was named one of the top 20 women's clubs in the country.

Before he began coaching, Armstrong worked as an equipment manager for the U.S. Soccer Federation. He joined the U-19 Women's National Team as they won the inaugural FIFA U-19 Women's World Cup in 2002. The next season he worked with the senior national team that placed third in the Women's World Cup hosted on home soil.

A native of Yorkshire, England, Armstrong earned his bachelor's degree in history and politics from the University of Edinburgh in 2000 and a master's in the same fields in 2001. He attended North Carolina for one year as part of the school's study abroad program. He holds a USSF A License and a National Youth License.

Armstrong is joined in Starkville by his wife, Casey, and their daughter, Olivia.

BRIAN DUNLEAVY

ASSISTANT COACH | SECOND SEASON

Brian Dunleavy was hired as an assistant coach on July 16, 2019 after spending six seasons as the head coach at Georgia Southern.

Dunleavy works primarily with State's defenders. In his first season, MSU allowed just 12.5 shots per game, which ranks fourth in program history. The Bulldogs have now allowed fewer than 13.0 shots per game in three straight seasons and four of the last five years.

His defenders posted 12 points in 2019, including two players who scored their first career goals.

During his tenure at Georgia Southern, the Eagles won 41 matches, making him the second-winningest head coach in program history. Dunleavy led the Eagles to the Sun Belt Conference semifinals in 2014 and 2017 and was an assistant when GSU won the Southern Conference tournament in 2012.

His 2014 squad posted the program's best record and highest conference finish since 2002, going 11-6-2 and finishing third. That season, Dunleavy also guided the Eagles to their highest standing in the final RPI while two players earned first-team all-conference honors and one made the league's second team.

As a head coach, Dunleavy oversaw teams that earned five all-conference selections and four NCSAA/United Soccer Coaches Team Academic Awards. Before he was promoted in 2013, he spent two seasons as an assistant for the Eagles.

In that time, the Eagles made their first conference tournament appearance since 2007, won their first conference title, made their first NCAA Tournament appearance and posted their first winning season since 2002. While serving as an assistant, Dunleavy also worked as a staff coach with the Georgia Olympic Development Program.

Dunleavy spent two years coaching at Division II Saint Leo University in Dade City, Florida where he worked with the men's soccer program. While at Saint Leo, the Lions, posted a 15-15 overall record. Dunleavy was responsible for opponent scouting and the team's conditioning program.

Before his time with Saint Leo, Dunleavy was the head men's soccer coach at the College of Mount Saint Vincent, an NCAA Division III institution in the Bronx, New York, where he spent a year directing the Dolphins.

Dunleavy enjoyed a four-year playing career at Hofstra University (1999-02). Following his playing career, he joined the staff at his alma mater as an assistant coach in 2003. He helped the program win back-to-back Colonial Athletic Association Championships which garnered the team NCAA Tournament appearances in 2004 and 2005.

He holds an NSCAA National Coaching Diploma and graduated with his Bachelor of Arts in English and American Literature from Hofstra University.

A native of Levittown, New York, Dunleavy is joined in Starkville by his wife Janine, their sons Owen and Cole and daughter Mara.

NICK ZIMMERMAN

Nick Zimmerman joined the Bulldog soccer program on Jan. 23, 2019 after serving as an assistant coach at Columbus State University from 2015-18.

Zimmerman works primarily with the Bulldogs' forwards and midfielders. In his first season in Starkville, State set program records for goals, assists and points in conference play. The Bulldogs finished SEC play averaging 15.1 shots per game, which ranked fourth in the league.

His technical instruction paid off immediately for State's younger forwards. Nine Bulldogs scored at least once in 2019, including six first-time scorers. Sixteen players recorded a point, which was the most since 20 players did so in 2008. Monigo Karnley and Hailey Farrington-Bentil became the first pair of Bulldogs to score multiple goals after not scoring any in the previous season since 2010.

During his tenure at Columbus State, Zimmerman helped build a top-three scoring offense in the nation. The Lady Cougars set a program record of 96 goals and led the nation with 4.0 goals per game in 2016. The following year, they improved to 4.05 goals per game.

His first season at CSU saw the Lady Cougars win a Peach Belt

Conference regular season and tournament championship on their way to a NCAA Division II national championship appearance. The following year, CSU again won the Peach Belt championship and were national semi-finalists.

Most recently, the Lady Cougars won their fifth-straight PBC regular season championship, as well as a tournament championship. CSU went on to be Southeast Regional Champions, and the CSU coaching staff was named the Southeast Regional Staff of the Year.

Zimmerman helped coach 31 Peach Belt All-Conference award winners and 23 DII All-Region winners. Ten Lady Cougars earned DII All-American Awards and six won DII Scholar All-American Awards. Two players went on to win the Elite 90 Award given to the student-athlete with the highest GPA at each NCAA finals site. Most recently, he coached the Freshman of the Year in the Peach Belt Conference.

Zimmerman's coaching experience is extensive, as he has assisted Region II, US Soccer NTC, and ID2 US Club Soccer. He has served on staff at elite camps at the University of Virginia and Florida State University. He was also the Georgia Girls' Olympic Development Program (ODP) 2000 Team's head coach.

As well as serving as a coaching course instructor for the U.S. Soccer Federation, Zimmerman held a spot on the United Soccer Coaches NCAA Ranking and Awards Board. He currently holds a USSF "B" License.

Prior to his coaching career, Zimmerman was a four-year starter for James Madison University, where he earned All-Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) rookie team recognition, two All-CAA selections, and one All-Region honor.

After graduating with a Bachelor of Science in kinesiology and sports management, he was drafted by the New York Red Bulls in the third round of the 2009 MLS SuperDraft. He was then selected by the Philadelphia Union in the 2009 MLS Expansion Draft.

Zimmerman also played with Carolina Railhawks FC in the North American Soccer League (NASL), where he was named to the NASL Best XI 2012 and finished second in the league's Golden Boot race with 12 goals. He most recently signed with the Wilmington Hammerheads of the United Soccer League in 2015.

The Tampa, Florida, native also played on the U.S. U-15 National Team in 2001.

Francisco Giants. He now pitches for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

PEYTON YORK

STUDENT ASSISTANT COACH | SECOND SEASON

Peyton York initially joined the Mississippi State soccer program as a student-athlete in the 2018 signing class, but was sidelined throughout the season due to injury. She moved into her current role as a student assistant coach prior to the 2019 season.

York came to Starkville after a standout career at Prosper High School where she collected 54 career shutouts in just three seasons, including 22 as a sophomore on her way to being named Co-Goalkeeper of the Year in 2015-16.

On the club circuit, she registered 50 shutouts for Solar SC from 2012-17 and earned National Goalkeeper of the Year honors in 2013.

The Prosper, Texas, native has a variety of volunteer coaching experience, including instruction at MSU soccer camps over two summers. She has coached in the youth recreation league in her hometown and offered private training sessions in the past.

During the 2018 spring season, York took on the responsibilities of mentoring early enrollees Katie Moore and Emily Samisch while leading the goalkeeper workouts until head coach James Armstrong added Allison Whitworth to the staff as a volunteer assistant.

In her collegiate career, York earned recognition on the 2018 Fall SEC Honor Roll. She landed on the principal's honor roll all four years of high school and earned all-state academic honors in 2015-16. While working with the Musketeers, Waters also served as a facility operations intern for FC Cincinnati. She helped with facility setup and breakdown for all home matches and maintained inventory along with overseeing regular facility maintenance checks.

STATE REVIEWS A SEASON OF SEC SUCCESS

Making the SEC Tournament for the first time in 15 years was the highlight of Mississippi State's success in 2019. The Bulldogs had an especially strong conference season in James Armstrong's first season at the helm.

The Bulldogs posted program records in conference play for points (48), points per game (4.80), goals (16), goals per game (1.60), assists (16) and assists per game (1.60) and took the second most shots (151) in program history.

Despite losing in the first round of the league tournament, MSU snapped an 18-year postseason scoring drought when Niah Johnson found the net with a penalty kick against Ole Miss.

The Bulldogs finished 8-8-3, marking their third consecutive eight-win season, a first in program history. Armstrong's eight wins are tied for third in school history among first-year head coaches. In league play, State went 3-4-3, picking up points in 60 percent of its matches, an all-time high. MSU's .450 winning percentage in conference play ranks third in school history as do the Bulldogs' four road wins this year.

MSU won more road games in conference play this season than they had in the previous three years combined. It was the first time since 2015 that MSU won multiple SEC games outside of Starkville. MSU's 12 points in the SEC standings were its highest since registering 16 in 2004.

State also claimed the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year award for the second time in three years when MaKayla Waldner was named a co-honoree. Waldner was also the Bulldogs' fourth First Team All-SEC selection in program history.

TEAM HIGHLIGHTS...

- The Bulldogs finished the regular season ranked fourth in the SEC with 15.1 shots per game in league play. Before their final three games, they were ranked 10th.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

2001 SEC TOURNAMENT FIRST ROUND

NOV. 8, 2001 | BATON ROUGE, LA.

OLE MISS	2
MISSISSIPPI STATE	1

Ole Miss' Tiffany Weiss scored two goals in a two-minute span to end Mississippi State's season in the opening round of the SEC Tournament.

State took the early lead at 23:16 when Mary Fisher Patterson set up Amy Van Zandt who ripped the ball to the upper left corner of the net from 20 yards out. The goal was the 15th of Van Zandt's young career, which stands as the Bulldogs' freshman record. She finished the season with 39 points, also an MSU freshman record.

Weiss, a sophomore forward from Dallas, tied the game at 1-1 at the 66:09 mark, booting a Kristin Chapman pass to the bottom right corner of the net.

Weiss then scored the game-winning goal 2:06 later when she fired a shot from the top of the box past goalkeeper Krystal Werges after a short clearance by the Bulldog keeper.

State was outshot 23-20, but forced a pair of Rebel goalkeepers to make nine saves. The Bulldog defense stepped up with two team saves, while Werges and Stephanie Lyon split time in net with two saves each.

2004 SEC TOURNAMENT FIRST ROUND

NOV. 4, 2004 | AUBURN, ALA.

A first-half goal from Alexis Yoculan dashed the Bulldogs hopes of advancing in the SEC Tournament.

In the 32nd minute, Yoculan received a pass from Sarah Dennis after Dennis dribbled around two Bulldog defenders, then fired a shot into the net.

Betty Ann Casey led MSU with three shots, putting one on frame early and requiring a save in the eighth minute. Karen Sandrik added two more shots on goal in the 48th and 55th minutes, but State could not solve Vanderbilt's Tyler Griffin in net.

The Bulldogs fought to keep the game close despite surrendering six corners without earning one of their own. Emily Meyers made five saves in the losing effort.

2018 NCAA TOURNAMENT FIRST ROUND

NOV. 9, 2018 | STARKVILLE, MISS.

In the 109th minute, Lipscomb got a free kick from midfield. The service from Dominique Diller glanced off Justis Bailey and into the net to end the game.

The Bulldogs outshot the Lady Bisons, 28-8, and had two goals waved off in the match. State took a season-high 13 corner kicks.

In the 21st minute, junior Hailey Zerbelt took a free kick and sent the ball into the box for senior Carly Mauldin. Mauldin's header snuck past the goalkeeper, and the stands erupted, but the Bulldogs were called offsides.

Then, in the 73rd minute, the Bulldogs won a corner kick and appeared to score on junior MaKayla Waldner's header. Instead, MSU was called for goaltender interference.

The Bulldogs held Lipscomb without a shot for the first 50 minutes of the contest, and allowed just six through regulation.

In the 93rd minute, freshman Zakirah McGillivray nearly repeated her game-winning goal from earlier in the year against South Carolina, but this time the keeper got just enough of the ball to push it over the bar.

NOV. 3, 2019   ORANGE BEACH, ALA.
MISSISSIPPI STATE		1
OLE MISS		2

A tumultuous final two minutes ended in heartbreak for Mississippi State as the Bulldogs saw their season end with a 2-1 defeat in the SEC Tournament.

Trailing by one goal with 1:51 to play, MaKayla Waldner cut into the Rebels' box and drew a penalty. Niah Johnson stepped up to the spot and fired the ball home. Just 36 seconds later, Ole Miss' Gabby Little scored the game-winner to send State home.

The Rebels opened the scoring in the 13th minute when the Bulldogs conceded an own goal. Following a quick free kick, Ole Miss served a cross into the box that one of the MSU defenders attempted to clear with a header. The ball was instead directed on net.

The Bulldogs had their best chance of the night in the 70th minute. After her initial cross was blocked, Olivia Hernandez sent the ball back into the box where it landed at Johnson's feet. Her shot beat the diving keeper, but not the post, before rebounding back to her. Johnson's follow-up attempt was saved by a Rebel defender on the goal line.

Gabby English made seven saves, matching her MSU-career-high. The Rebels outshot MSU, 13-11.

MASCOTS

THE BULLDOGS

Mississippi State University's athletic teams are called Bulldogs, a name earned and maintained over the decades by the tough, tenacious play of student-athletes wearing the Maroon and White. The official school mascot is an American Kennel Club-registered English Bulldog, given the inherited title of 'Bully.'

As with most universities, Mississippi State University teams answered to different nicknames through the years. The first squads representing Mississippi A&M College were proud to be called Aggies. When the school officially became Mississippi State College in 1932, the nickname Maroons, for MSU's uniform color, gained prominence. Bulldogs became the official title for State teams in 1961, not long after State College was granted university status.

Yet references to school teams and athletes as Bulldogs actually go back to early in the century, and this nickname was used almost interchangeably with both Aggies and Maroons, since at least 1905.

On November 30 of that year, the A&M football team shut out their arch-rivals from the University of Mississippi 11-0 in Jackson, Miss. The campus newspaper, The Reflector, reported: "After the game, filled with that emotion that accompanies every great victory, there was nothing left for the cadets to do but to complete the great victory by showing sympathy for the dead athletic spirit of the University, by having a military funeral parade.

"A coffin was secured, decorated with University colors and a bulldog pup placed on top. It was then placed on the shoulders of a dozen cadets, and the procession started down Capitol Street, preceded by the brass band playing a very pathetic funeral march."

Other newspaper reports of the victory commented on the 'bulldog' style of play by the A&M eleven, and the Bulldog was soon publicly accepted as a school athletic symbol. Accounts of a 1926 pep rally in Meridian, Miss., had another bulldog parading with students.

OFFICIAL MASCOT IN 1935

Use as an official game mascot began in 1935 when coach Major Ralph Sasse, on 'orders' from his team, went to Memphis, Tenn., to select a bulldog. Ptolemy, a gift of the Edgar Webster family, was chosen and the Bulldogs promptly defeated Alabama 20-7.

A litter-mate of Ptolemy became the first mascot called 'Bully' shortly after Sasse's team beat mighty Army 13-7 at West Point that same year - perhaps the greatest victory in MSU football history. But Bully earned other fame the hard way, in 1939 when a campus bus cut short his career.

Days of campus mourning followed, as Bully lay in state in a glass coffin. A half-mile funeral procession accompanied by the Famous Maroon Band and three ROTC battalions went to Scott Field where Bully was buried under the bench at the 50-yard line. Even Life magazine covered the event. Other Bullies have since been buried by campus dorms, fraternity houses, and also at the football stadium.

For years Bully was a target for kidnappers, the last incident occurring prior to the 1974 State-Ole Miss game. The Bulldog team won anyway, 31-13. While early Bullies once roamed campus freely or lived in fraternities, today the official university mascot is housed at the School of Veterinary Medicine when not on duty at State home football games. For all their fierce appearance and reputation, today's mascot bulldogs are good-natured, friendly animals and favorites with children.

A student wearing a Bulldog suit, also answering to Bully, is part of the MSU cheerleading team and assists in stirring up State spirit at games and pep rallies.

BULLY XXI, "JAK"

At Super Bulldog Weekend 2015, the Bulldog family celebrated the passing of the harness, as Bully XXI, known as "Jak," accepted mascot duties from his father Bully XX, fondly called "Champ."

While Jak entered the 2015 season less than a year old, Champ turned 10 around the 2015 season opener. When mascot handlers realized Bully was getting toward retiring age, though he's still in good health, a female bulldog was selected based on her pedigree and history. Following the female's selection, the litter of mascot-sired puppies were evaluated.

Jak's formal name is "Cristil's Golden Prince," and the American Kennel Club-registered English Bulldog was born in October 2014, soon after the legendary Jack Cristil passed away. Naming the newest Bully for the legendary Voice of the Bulldogs who called football and basketball games for 58 years was a fitting choice.

TRADITIONS

THE COWBELL

The most unique and certainly the most resounding symbol of Mississippi State University tradition is the cowbell. Despite decades of attempts by opponents and authorities to banish it from scenes of competition, diehard State fans still celebrate Bulldog victories loudly and proudly with the distinctive sound of ringing cowbells.

The precise origin of the cowbell as a fixture of Mississippi State sports tradition remains unclear to this day. The best records have cowbells gradually introduced to the MSU sports scene in the late 1930s and early 1940s, coinciding with the 'golden age' of Mississippi State football success prior to World War II.

The most popular legend is that during a home football game between State and archrival Ole Miss, a jersey cow wandered onto the playing field. Mississippi State soundly whipped the Rebels that Saturday, and State College students immediately adopted the cow as a good luck charm. Students are said to have continued bringing a cow to football games for a while, until the practice was eventually discontinued in favor of bringing just the cow's bell.

Whatever the origin, it is certain by the 1950s cowbells were common at MSU games, and by the 1960s were established as the special symbol of MSU. Ironically, the cowbell's popularity grew most rapidly during the long years when State football teams were rarely successful. Flaunting this anachronism from the 'aggie' days was a proud response by students and alumni to outsider scorn of the university's 'cow college' history.

In the 1960s two MSU professors, Earl W. Terrell and Ralph L. Reeves, obliged some students by welding handles on the bells so they could be rung with more convenience and authority. By 1963 the demand for these long-handled cowbells could not be filled by home workshops alone. So, at the suggestion of Reeves, the Student Association bought bells in bulk and the Industrial Education Club agreed to weld on handles. In 1964, the MSU Bookstore began marketing these cowbells with a portion of profits returning to these student organizations.

Today many styles of cowbells are available on campus and around Starkville, with the top-of-the-line being a heavy chrome-plated model with a full Bulldog figurine handle. But experts insist the best and loudest results are produced by a classic long-handled, bicycle-grip bell made of thinner and tightly-welded shells.

Cowbells decorate offices and homes of Mississippi State alumni, and are passed down through generations of Bulldog fans. But they were not heard at Southeastern Conference games - not legally, at least - since the 1974 adoption of a conference rule against 'artificial noisemakers' at football and basketball games. On a 9-1 vote, SEC schools ruled cowbells a disruption and banned them. The ban was lifted prior to the 2010 season.

The ban did little harm to the cowbell's popularity, or to prevent cowbells from being heard outside stadiums in which the Bulldogs are playing. They are now heard at non-conference football contests, as well as other sporting events on campus.

MAROON AND WHITE

Maroon and White are the distinctive colors of Mississippi State University athletic teams, dating back over a century to the very first football game ever played by the school's student-athletes.

On November 15, 1895, the first Mississippi A&M football team was preparing for a road trip to Jackson, Tenn., to play Southern Baptist University (now called Union University) the following day. Since every college was supposed to have its own uniform colors, the A&M student body requested that the school's team select a suitable combination.

Considering this choice to be an honor, the inaugural State team gave the privilege to team captain W.M. Matthews. Accounts report that, without hesitation, Matthews chose Maroon and White.
