HISTORY

ORGANIZED ATHLETICS CAN BE TRACED BACK TO THE ANCIENT OLYMPIC GAMES BEGINNING IN 776 BCE IN GREECE, WHERE EVENTS LIKE FOOT RACES, DISCUS, AND JAVELIN WERE PART OF THE COMPETITION. OVER TIME, THESE ACTIVITIES EVOLVED INTO FORMALIZED SPORTS. MODERN ATHLETICS AS WE KNOW IT TODAY, BEGAN TAKING SHAPE IN THE 19TH CENTURY WITH THE FORMATION OF CLUBS AND STANDARDIZED RULES, LEADING TO THE FIRST MODERN OLYMPIC GAMES IN 1896.

MEDIA INFORMATION

WELCOME

The 2026 Mississippi State Track and Field Media Guide has been prepared to assist media members in their coverage of the Bulldogs. It is our hope most of your questions will be answered on the pages of this guide. However, should you desire additional information or assistance, please contact Jhordyn Stallworth at (850)980-9192.

COACH/ATHLETE INTERVIEWS

All interviews with coaches should be directed through the MSU Athletic Communications office. Please contact Jhordyn Stallworth at jstallworth@athletics.msstate.edu to arrange an interview. Coaches are primarily available for interview by phone or in person from 9-11 a.m. CT., depending on the team's travel schedule.

Interviews with student-athletes are encouraged; however, all interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Communications office. Interviews will be arranged according to the schedule of each individual athlete, and are usually conducted before or after scheduled practices. This policy facilitates the orderly scheduling and completion of the desired interview. All interviews must be arranged at least 24 hours in advance. MSU Athletic Communications will not supply to the media the phone numbers for student-athletes. Likewise, training room, locker room and apartment/dormitory areas are considered private player areas and are off-limits to the media.

THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

The Southeastern Conference release will be published every week beginning in mid-January by the SEC office. The SEC contact for track and field is Ben Beaty. Beaty's office number is (205) 458-3000. Media members may also gain access to MSU and SEC releases via www.secsportsmedia.com.

MSU ON THE INTERNET

Visit the official Mississippi State Athletics home page on the Internet at www.HailState.com. The site offers up-to-date information on all of MSU's 16 varsity sports, including schedules and results, player and coach biographies, as well as the latest news from each of the MSU athletic teams.

MISSISSIPPI STATE TRACK & FIELD

TRACK AND FIELD FACILITIES

MIKE SANDERS TRACK COMPLEX

On Friday, April 10, 2015, the Mississippi State University track was named the Mike Sanders Track Complex after former track standout Michael W. Sanders.

Over the past several years, the track stadium at MSU has seen many enhancements. A brick grandstand was added in 2013 and holds about 3,500 people.

MSU played host to the 2015 SEC Outdoor Track and Field Championships on May 14-16, at the newly-dedicated Mike Sanders Track Complex. Also during the 2015 season, MSU hosted the Border Clash and the Jace LaCoste Invitational. The facility now hosts the annual Al Schmidt Bulldog Relays and the Maroon and White Invite.

An MSU alumnus, Sanders began his college career in 1960 after receiving a dual scholarship for football and track and field. His football career ended due to injuries, but he was able to continue track and field during his time at State. In his sophomore year, he and fellow members of the MSU track team won the 1962 SEC championship. He is a member of the university's M-Club for his achievements in track.

After college, Sanders has served on the boards for the Alumni Foundation, the MSU Foundation and the Bulldog Club. In 2014, Sanders was named the Mississippi State National Alumnus of the Year. In 2019, he received the Leo Seal Jr. M-Club Award, created to honor a former letterman for his or her outstanding loyalty, dedication and service to Mississippi State. In addition, the award recognizes a former letterman who has been successful in business and the community. Sanders is the third former letterman to receive this award, which is not given annually.

Today Sanders resides in Cleveland, Mississippi, with his wife Nan Long Sanders. Together the couple has two children, Michael W. Sanders and Amanda Sanders Turner, along with Sander's daughter Ellen Sanders Voelkel and six grandchildren.

CARL MADDOX TRACK & INFIELD

Work was completed on MSU's $3.2 million renovation to the Carl Maddox Track at W.O. Spencer Stadium in 2011 in time for several MSU home meets during that spring, including the SEC/Big 10 Challenge in March.

The state-of-the-art facility features nine lanes, a steeplechase water jump and high jump, pole vault and long/triple jump pits, in addition to a javelin runway and shot put, hammer and discus throw rings.

W.O. SPENCER STADIUM

The dedication of the W.O. Spencer Track Stadium took place on Nov. 13, 1982. Named after two-time Olympian and former MSU track and field athlete W.O. Spencer. His generous donations gave the MSU track program a grandstand that seats 3,500 fans.

Spencer lettered four years in track and three in cross country under former coach E.C. "Billy" Hayes. During his time on the track and field team, he served as the 1922 season captain and was the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association mile champion in 1921 and 1922.

In the 1924 Olympic Games in Paris, Spencer won gold in the mile relay team and finished third in the steeplechase in the 1928 games in Amsterdam. After his competition year Spencer went on to become the MSU track and field coach from 1936-1947, minus four years while serving on active military duty.

Spencer was installed in the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame in Jackson in 1968 and, in 1971, was inducted into the MSU Sports Hall of Fame.

HOLLIMAN ATHLETIC CENTER

Originally opened in April 2005 as a home to Bulldog football, the 46,000-square foot Holliman Athletic Center now houses the track and field locker rooms, team lounge, meeting room and equipment room along with the Columbus Orthopaedic Sports Medicine Center.

Regarded as one of the best facilities in the nation, the MSU track and field team locker rooms and team lounge are located on the second floor of the facility and provide quick access to the Mike Sanders Track Complex. A hallway running between the areas highlights Bulldog greats from throughout the program's history. A large equipment room and laundry room finish out the space.

On the ground floor of the building, the Columbus Orthopaedic Sports Medicine Center is the primary sports medicine facility for the track and field and tennis teams and is a secondary facility for soccer, softball, volleyball, and women's golf. It also serves as an administrative hub for the sports medicine and performance department, including the department of counseling and sport psychology. The 4,500-square foot athletic training facility was made possible through an anonymous gift from the Columbus Orthopaedic Clinic, whose surgeons began handling the sports medicine needs of MSU student-athletes in 1981. Six of the orthopaedic surgeons at the clinic are State graduates themselves.

FACILITIES

PERFORMANCE NUTRITION CENTER

Opening its doors in August 2022, the PNC provides athletes with specified fueling throughout each day.

The facility cost $2 million to build, housing its own staff and private chef to prepare three meals daily to student athletes. The sister facility is located in the Seal Football Complex.

Meals are announced to the students in advanced, and the facility is equipped with to-go boxes for those who can only pass through briefly. Complete with a salad, fruit, sandwich and pastas bars, as well as a hot food line, athletes have a variety of options to choose from.

SHIRA FUELING STATION

Equipped with the a full staff of full time and student nutritionists, the Fueling Station offers a space to get fast energy providing fuel and supplements for peak performance.

The station offers protein snacks, recovery foods and supplements, carb snacks and protein smoothies available to athletes before and after practice.

The Hail State Fuel staff also provides athletes with snack bags during competition, offering options geared towards performance and recovery.

SHIRA TURF AND WEIGHT ROOM

The Shira Fieldhouse Complex, which underwent a million-dollar renovation in 1992 and two facelifts in 2017 and 2021, serves as one of Mississippi State's two primary facilities for conditioning, treating and equipping Bulldog athletes.

The fieldhouse houses training facilities for many of the athletic teams on campus. The indoor turf room was renovated in 2021 to incorporate a new look, energy-efficient lighting and a netted area for the track and field team to practice field events indoors.

The adjoining weight room also received several updates in 2019 including fresh graphics and new state-of-the art workout equipment.

TEMPLETON ACADEMIC CENTER

The 34,000 square-foot building serves the entire athletic department, houses the Athletic Academics offices and staff. In the main offices, the Academic Advisors are housed surrounding an open study area.

The downstairs open study area holds the offices of the Student Athlete Experience and Athlete Services departments, as well as three private study rooms equipped with computers and white boards.

Downstairs also holds the tutoring and mentoring departments, as well as a private study space for the MSU Writing Center, all of which are available to student athletes.

ZAC SELMON - DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Mississippi State University President Mark E. Keenum named Zac Selmon — the scion of a legendary college football family and a rising star in athletics administration — as MSU's 18th Director of Athletics on Jan. 13, 2023.

Selmon, a proven leader who has extensive experience at two Power Five universities and who understands and shares Mississippi State's commitment to achieving and maintaining excellence in its Bulldog athletics programs, accepted the position as MSU's athletics director after having an accomplished career at the University of Oklahoma on the executive leadership team. As deputy athletics director for external engagement and advancement, he led OU Athletics' stakeholder relations including the Sooner Club and annual giving. Selmon provided sport oversight for football and led strategic communications, marketing, licensing, multi-media rights, brand management and fan engagement.

In his previous five-year position as senior associate athletics director for administration and development, Selmon led the fundraising strategy for OU Athletics' $200 million capital campaign, setting annual giving records in 2018 and 2019. In 2020, philanthropic giving reached its highest in university athletics history. In September 2019, Selmon was appointed to the NCAA Football Rules Committee.

Selmon returned to Oklahoma as senior associate athletics director/chief of operations in July 2015 after serving as associate athletics director and special assistant to the athletics director at the University of North Carolina during the 2014-15 academic year.

As the Sooners' senior associate athletics director/chief of operations, Selmon contributed to the department's overall direction and culture through responsibilities related to leading OU's strategic planning process and the implementation of specific initiatives, including the department's diversity and inclusion programming. He also assisted in the strengthening of key stakeholder relationships, led sport administrator meetings, and facilitated additional projects all geared toward developing a world-class experience for Oklahoma student-athletes.

At UNC, Selmon's duties included monitoring and tracking the athletics department's strategic plan, representing the athletics director at meetings and on committees, assisting with internal communications, serving as liaison with external groups such as the ACC, NCAA and NACDA, and administering the department's executive and senior staff meetings.

Prior to working at North Carolina, Selmon began his career in the OU Athletics Department as a graduate assistant in 2009 before holding the titles of assistant director of development, associate director of development and director of capital gifts.

At Wake Forest University, Selmon not only became a four-year starter at tight end for the Demon Deacons, but a four-year dean's list scholar graduating in 2007 with a degree in religion and international studies. He also holds a 2010 OU master's degree in education with an emphasis in intercollegiate athletics administration.

As a son and nephew of the famed "Selmon Brothers" (the University of Oklahoma's Lucious, Lee Roy, and Dewey Selmon of Eufaula, Oklahoma), Zac Selmon has been an active part of a multi-generational effort to bring help and healing to those at home and abroad who struggle with poverty, homelessness, lack of education, and for many, a lack of hope. He and his sister Shannon are co-founders of the Shine Foundation, a nonprofit dedicated to serving those in need, especially children, at home and abroad.

Along with his celebrated family, Selmon has learned from and worked for two well-known and respected university athletics directors – OU's Joe Castiglione and North Carolina's Bubba Cunningham.

Selmon and his wife Rachel have two daughters, Shayne and Rylee.

Chris Woods was named head coach of the track and field program on June 14, 2019.

In his six years as head coach, Woods has directly overseen 27 NCAA finalists, 60 All-American honors, four SEC Champions and six Olympians.

In addition to serving as head coach, Woods personally coaches Bulldog 800m great Marco Arop. Arop has seen multiple accolades under Woods' tutelage, including the 2023 World Champion title, the 2022 World Championship bronze, multiple Diamond League golds, the Pan-American Games title, and multiple national and North American records in the 800m and 1000m. Most recently, Woods oversaw Arop in Paris at the 2024 Olympics, where he won the silver medal with the fourth-fastest time in world history. Most recently, Woods coached Arop to the 800m bronze medal at the 2025 World Athletics Championships.

Woods has also coached other Bulldog middle distance stars such as Navasky Anderson and Brandon McBride. Anderson earned multiple accolades while running for MSU, highlighted by the 2022 SEC Champion and NCAA runner-up titles in the 800m. He has made world-stage appearances, including the World Championships and Paris Olympics, representing Jamaica. Anderson currently holds the Jamaican national record in the 800m. Brandon McBride represented Canada at the Tokyo Olympics, his second Games, joining former teammate Arop. McBride earned the NCAA Indoor and Outdoor 800m title and the SEC title under Woods's coaching.

Woods' athletes have made significant rewrites to the university record book in his time as a coach at MSU. His middle distance athletes own all the top five spots in program history in the outdoor 800m for the men, as well as multiple entries for the women across the indoor and outdoor races. Since becoming head coach, his staff has overseen 34 university records broken and 125 new entries into the school's all-time top five lists.

In the 2025 season, the men's team put up the best performance in program history at the NCAA Indoor Championships, tying for sixth place and earning seven first-team All-American titles across four events. He directly oversaw Abdullahi Hassan to both the NCAA and SEC runner-up in the indoor 800m, as well as the SEC runner-up at the outdoor championships. His athletes earned 11 All-American distinctions in the 2025 season between indoor and outdoor.

In the 2024 season, he led three athletes to podium finishes at the indoor and outdoor national championships. Peyton Bair was the national runner-up in the decathlon, Remi Rougetet earned sixth in the javelin at the outdoor championship and Rosealee Cooper earned eighth at the indoor championship in the 60m hurdles. State sent 22 athletes to the outdoor championships, the largest group in over a decade, with seven earning All-American honors.

The 2023 season was highlighted by Cameron Crump earning gold at the indoor conference meet, then the runner-up spot at the NCAA indoor championships in the long jump. Eight All-Americans were produced at the outdoor championships, with Tony Jones tying for fourth and Cameron Crump finishing fifth.

In the 2022 season, Woods saw Navasky Anderson and DJ Jónsson two SEC titles in the 800m and javelin, respectively. Eight All-Americans emerged from the NCAA Indoor National Championship, and three All-Americans were produced at the Outdoor Championships, highlighted by Anderson finishing as the national runner up.

The first full season with Woods as head coach came in 2021. His team produced two All-Americans from the NCAA Indoor Championships while developing nine All-Americans for the Outdoor Championships. The men had three first-team All-Americans in the javelin. Woods saw four current and three former student-athletes compete at the USATF Olympic Trials, with six former athletes making their nations' Olympic Teams for Tokyo. Woods joined the Team Canada staff as an assistant coach for Marco at the 2021 Games.

Woods' first season was cut short by COVID-19. During the 2020 indoor season, Charlotte Cayton-Smith, Dejon Devroe and Jesse Henderson reached the finals at the SEC Indoor Championships in College Station, but the outdoor season would be canceled, halting the State alumni's first year at the head coach position.

Woods served as interim head coach during the 2019 season, after five seasons as a sprints and relays coach for the MSU men and women. In his time as an assistant, Woods coached Bulldog athletes to 17 All-American selections and two SEC championships. In 2018 alone, Woods' athletes put 15 new marks among the top five in MSU history.

During his interim year, MSU's men put together the most decorated outdoor season in program history, claiming more SEC Athletes of the Week and USTFCCA National Athletes of the Week than ever before, along with four All-America accolades. The Bulldogs put six men on the podium at the SEC Championships, the most since State earned eight medals in 2003. They finished the conference meet with 57 points, their highest total since 2012. MSU's eighth-place men's SEC Outdoors finish was its best since 2015. Woods spearheaded the Bulldogs to nine medals, representing the most since 2003 on the men's side.

In addition, a total of 28 men and women athletes qualified for the NCAA East Prelims, which was a program record. The Bulldog men broke two school records, including the oldest, untied, Championship-event record in the program's record book at the time.

The highlight of the 2019 outdoor season came when The Bowerman semifinalist Peters led an MSU javelin sweep of the podium. Peters successfully defended his national title, becoming the first MSU athlete to claim consecutive national championships. He threw a personal-best 86.62m (284-2), breaking his own school, meet and national records. Peters landed three attempts beyond 84.00m and threw six collegiate all-time top-10 marks this year alone. State's trio of Peters, Curtis Thompson and Tyriq Horsford was just the 11th sweep of any event podium in NCAA history. On the women's side, Tiffany Flynn and Logan Boss both earned All-America status to close their storied careers. Flynn finished eighth in the triple jump with a leap of 13.32m, while Boss tied for 12th in the high jump, clearing 1.78m.

After guiding the Mississippi State men's team to its third-highest point total in school history at the 2019 NCAA Outdoor Championships, Chris Woods was named head coach of the Bulldog men's and women's track and field teams, Director of Athletics John Cohen announced June 14, 2019.

Woods competed as a middle-distance athlete for the Maroon and White from 2005-08. As a student-athlete, Woods garnered two-time All-America honors and four-time All-SEC accolades.

Before coming to MSU, Woods served as head coach for the men's and women's cross country and track and field teams at Claflin University in Orangeburg, South Carolina.

Before his time with Claflin, Woods was instrumental in the success of Abilene Christian University's track and field program as the men's and women's long sprints and middle and long-distance coach. Under his direction at Abilene Christian, Woods aided his team to back-to-back NCAA Division II National Championships in men's track and field. He oversaw 10 athletes to multiple All-America honors in his time with ACU.

A native of Covington, Georgia, Woods graduated from MSU in 2008 with a bachelor's degree in clinical exercise physiology. Woods is married to former two-time Olympic sprinter Wanda Hutson. The couple has two sons, Trace and Cade.

The 2025 season saw plenty of success for the throws squad. Thomas's group saw three program records fall, and five entries to the MSU All-Time top five list across the throws events both indoor and outdoor. The season was highlighted by Remi Rougetet taking the javelin title at the SEC Outdoor Championships, Thomas' third athlete to do so. Freshman Marie Rougetet was the SEC runner-up in the hammer and holds both the program record and freshman record in the event. Tuomas Närhi and Kaylee Clark both made their SEC debuts, both advancing to the finals in the javelin. Both Närhi and the Rougetet siblings advanced to the NCAA Outdoor Championships, with Remi earning second-team All-American honors to close his collegiate career. Thomas also oversaw combined events athlete Peyton Bair to two national titles in the throws, sweeping the heptathlon and decathlon NCAA championships this season.

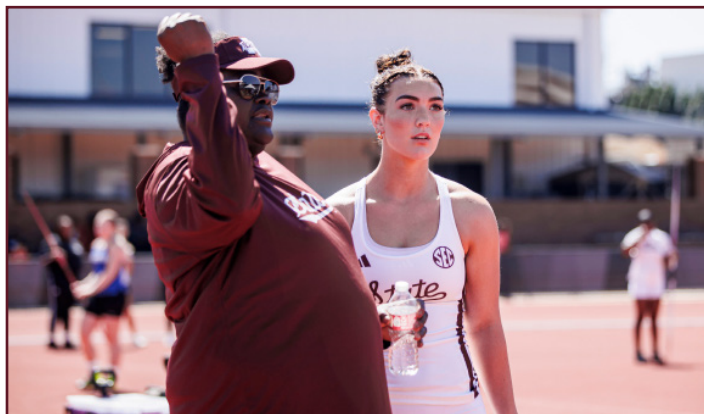

With the addition of alumni Trent Zelden as an assistant coach, Thomas' 2024 squad had record-breaking success in both the ring and runway. At the indoor SEC Championship, Jhordyn Stallworth and Roury McCloyen finished fifth and sixth in the shot put, and Tafada Wright made her first conference final in the weight throw. Thomas sent five athletes to the NCAA East First Round, the most since 2021, where all five qualified for the national championship. McCloyen and Stallworth were Thomas' first shot put athletes to qualify for the NCAA Championships in her time at State, and the first ring throwers since 2012. The two earned second-team All-American Honors, with Ella Knott and Franck Di Sanza earning honorable mentions in the javelin. Remi Rougetet improved his performance from last year, earning sixth and first-team All-American honors in the javelin. McCloyen followed up on his national performance with the USATF U20 discus title, ending his season as a finalist at the World U20 Championships in the discus. Thomas also helped coach decathlete Peyton Bair to a national runner-up title at the national championships. Alumni Curtis Thompson and Anderson Peters qualified for their second Olympic Games, in which Peters took home bronze in the javelin.

The 2023 season saw success on both the conference and national stage. Thomas' throwers earned 13 points at the SEC Outdoor championship in the javelin with top-eight finishes from Tyriq Horsford in third, Franck Di Sanza in fifth and Remi Rougetet in sixth. Thomas also oversaw multi Peyton Bair to third-place finishes in both the indoor and outdoor conference championships. Rougetet and Horsford qualified for the NCAA championships in the javelin, with Rougetet earning a ninth-place finish and second-team All-American honors in his first NCAA appearance. In the postseason, Di Sanza earned the Switzerland national title in the javelin.

The 2022 season brought more success in the ring and on the runway for Thomas' throwers. Jabari Bennett, a transfer from Tiffin, broke the indoor shotput record with 19.40m at the SEC Indoor Championships. This was the furthest mark in men's indoor shot at State since 2012, and the furthest by any athlete coached by Thomas during her time at State. DJ Jónsson won gold at the SEC Outdoor Champions, earning First Team SEC honors for the second year. Thomas sent five athletes to the NCAA East First Round, three in ring events and two in the javelin. Jhordyn Stallworth broke the outdoor shot put record with a 16.10m throw in her first East Preliminary shot put appearance. DJ Jónsson represented at the NCAA Championships, finishing seventh with a 76.29m throw. On the world stage, alumni Anderson Peters won the Championships in the javelin with a 90.54m throw.

The much-anticipated 2021 season was successful for Thomas and the team. Jhordyn Stallworth was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team for both shot put and discus at the conclusion of the season. Stallworth broke the school and freshman record at the SEC Championships in the discus with a throw of 51.01m. With the addition of graduate transfer Sindri Guðmundsson from Utah State and fellow Iclander DJ Jónsson coming in as a freshman, the JavU squad was as strong as ever. Guðmundsson and Jónsson threw to the fourth and fifth all-time marks during the season. Jónsson won gold and earned First Team SEC honors as well as being named to the Freshman Team at the conference championship. He was later named the Freshman Field Athlete of the Year. At the NCAA East Prelims, the Dawgs went 1-2-3 with Guðmundsson regaining his NCAA lead from Jónsson, making it seven weeks that he held the top mark. At the NCAA Championships in Eugene, Jónsson took second, Horsford fourth and Guðmundsson in fifth. Two of her former student-athletes were named to their country's Olympic teams in Anderson Peters and Curtis Thompson, both competing in the javelin at the 2020 Olympics in Tokyo, Japan.

COACHING STAFF

The 2020 season was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic, but not before Tiffaney Johnson and Alicia Viveros shattered their career bests at the Indoor SEC Championships.

After a successful season in 2019, April Thomas was promoted to associate head coach in June 2019. The leader of "JavU," Thomas' squad swept the men's javelin podium at the 2019 NCAA Outdoor Championships, marking the first time since 1964 that a school had achieved the feat. Thomas was tabbed USTFCCA South Region Men's Assistant Coach of the Year in recognition of her squad's success. In the summer following that performance, back-to-back NCAA Champion Anderson Peters found success on the global stage. Peters won gold at the Pan American Games while shattering the Pan Am record with a personal-best and MSU-record throw of 87.31m. He went on to claim the IAAF World Championship in October of that year.

Thomas spent 12 seasons as an assistant coach overseeing MSU's throwers. She has received national recognition for her expertise in guiding athletes in the javelin after leading the Bulldogs to become the only program in NCAA history to have three men throw the javelin over 80m, earning the title "Jav U".

Thomas' athletes earned eight top three finishes in the NCAA javelin championships from 2016 to 2021. No other school has combined for more than four in that span. Her throwers hold 28 marks in State's outdoor record book and 13 on the indoor leaderboards. She has also guided six athletes to freshman records since arriving in Starkville.

In 2018, she tutored Peters to the 2018 SEC and NCAA javelin championships as a freshman, while Nico Quijera placed second at the NCAA championships before going on to claim the Spanish national title. Thomas also coached Curtis Thompson to a national title in 2016. Thompson won the 2018 USATF Championship, and at the 2018 NACAC Games, Peters and Thompson took home gold and silver, respectively.

In 2017, Thomas saw Quijera win his first NCAA runner-up title in the javelin, Brianna Smith shatter the Bulldogs' indoor weight throw record for the first time and Haley Reynolds break State's indoor shot put and outdoor discus records.

In addition to his 2016 crown, Thompson won gold in the javelin at the NACAC U23 Games that year and broke the school record at the U.S. Olympic Trials where he came up just 12 centimeters shy of qualifying for the Rio Olympics.

Tautvydas Kieras qualified for the 2015 NCAA East Prelims in the discus throw. Kieras, who holds the school record at 60.03m, placed 23rd. That same year, Kieras posted the No. 5 mark in outdoor shot put in Bulldog history.

Under Thomas's guidance in the shot put, Erica Bougard claimed the 2013 pentathlon NCAA Championship title with 4,399 points and the 2014 SEC Indoor Championship after a 4,448 point performance. Bougard finished a stellar Bulldog career as a 16-time All-American and won the 2018 USATF Championship in the indoor pentathlon.

In 2013, Thomas coached honorable mention All-American Piotr Antosik in javelin, giving the Bulldogs a national finalist in the men's javelin for the first time since 1923 and sparking the growth of State's javelin program. Allison Storey also broke the MSU women's javelin record in the same year after setting the Bulldogs' freshman record in 2010.

Thomas led Favian Cowards to All-American honors in the 2012 season with a ninth-place finish at the NCAA Outdoor Championships in the hammer while breaking the MSU school record along the way. Cowards also won the Bulldogs' first SEC

Championship in the weight throw that year. That season also saw Ed Wesela post the No. 2 outdoor shot put and No. 3 indoor shot put marks in MSU history.

In 2010, Thomas helped coach LaQuinta Aaron to personal-best throws in the shot put that helped her earn provisional qualifications in the heptathlon for the 2010 NCAA Outdoor Championships. In 2009 heptathlete Marris Harris earned indoor and outdoor All-American and All-SEC accolades under Thomas' shot put tutelage.

Thomas came to MSU after coaching boys' and girls' shot put and discus at Knoxville (Tenn.) Catholic High School and with the Knoxville Track Club.

A native of Albany, Georgia, Thomas earned her degree in sociology from University of Tennessee in 2007. Prior to her time in Knoxville, she competed at Cloud County (Kansas) Community College.

At the 2006 SEC Indoor Championships, Thomas finished as runner-up in the shot put and was named the Lady Vols' Field Events MVP for the indoor season. She also has three other top five SEC finishes to her credit in the event. Thomas helped the Lady Vols win the 2005 SEC Indoor Championship and was part of Tennessee's 2005 NCAA Mideast Regional team that captured the program's first victory at that event.

Carjay Lyles was promoted to Associate Head Track and Field Coach in the summer of 2024, where he oversees the sprints, hurdles, jumps, relays and combined events for MSU track and field.

Lyles is a collegiate track and field coach with over 20 years of NCAA Division-1 coaching experience. He has won two NCAA Runner-Up Team Trophies and has twice been recognized by his national governing body (USTFCCA) as regional coach of the year. Known for his coaching dexterity, Coach Carjay has built champions in all the sprinting, hurdling, jumps and multi events. His pupils have gone on to become Olympic Medalists, World Championship finalists, and developed into some of the best athletes in the history of their events.

During the 2025 season, Lyles coached Peyton Bair to the national title in both the indoor heptathlon and outdoor decathlon. During his performance at the NCAA Outdoor Championships, Bair also set the NCAA record in the decathlon 100m and 400m, as well as running the fifth fastest 400m in a decathlon in world history. He also oversaw Nicholas Fakorede in the 60m and the men's 4x400m to indoor first team All-American finishes at the 2025 championships. Jessicka Woods also finished fourth in the 400mh at the SEC Championships and earned second-team All-American honors at the outdoor championships in the same event. In the postseason, he oversaw Fakorede to the Nigerian bronze medal in the 100m.

In 2024, Lyles coached Bair to a silver medal in the NCAA decathlon. In doing so, Bair set the NCAA decathlon 100 Meter dash record. He also coached Lee Eppie to the 2024 Botswana Olympic Team. Eppie won the silver medal at the 2024 African Games Championship as well. Lyles' history of developing young athletes continued with freshman Jordan Ware running a world U20 outdoor leading 200 meters, running 20.19 to open the 2024 season. This accomplishment gained two SEC Athlete of the Week honors for the true freshman. During the 2024 indoor campaign, Lyles oversaw Rosealee Cooper to her fourth straight indoor national championship. She secured another All-American honor with an eighth-place finish in the finals of the 60m hurdles. Her eighth-place finish was the highest individual finish in the women's hurdles in school history.

During the 2023 season, Lyles coached Cameron Crump Jr. to one of the top-five performances in NCAA and indoor American History. Cameron finished as the Runner-Up at the NCAA Indoor Championships, alongside earning SEC Champion, SEC indoor athlete of the year, and becoming the SEC meet record holder, all in the long jump. Lyles also oversaw Kamaya Dubose-Epps to three school records and the second all-time on the MSU list, running the fastest outdoor 200 meters since 1990 with a 22.84 at the NCAA East First Round. During his time at Mississippi State, his teams have had four Top-25 team finishes at the NCAA championships. He is also the home meet director and tasked with team academic liaison for both men's and women's track and field.

Before his time in Starkville, he was an assistant coach at the University of Southern California (USC). There, he coached Ayden Owens to the American Junior Record, World Jr. No. 2 All-Time global mark in the Men's Decathlon (8130 points). Ayden won Pac-12 athlete of the year during the 2019 season and broke a 30-year-old school record in winning the Bryan Clay decathlon invite. Lyles also coached Earnie Sears to an undefeated regular season in the High Jump. Sears broke into USC's legendary all-time Top-5 performances in the high jump with a personal best of 2.30m. Sears won a silver medal at the NACAC U23 Championships in the competition for Team USA. Sears became Lyles' seventh athlete to represent their country at an international competition. Carjay also aided with the hurdlers during his time at USC and helped place four women in the NCAA 60-meter hurdle final during the 2019 indoor campaign, resulting in a national championship by Chanel Brissett, running 7.90. Carjay coached his teams to a PAC-12 championship, MPSF indoor team championship and two NCAA team runner-up finishes during his time with the Trojans.

Lyles spent the 2018 season at The University of Akron, coaching the sprints, hurdles and relays. His athletes posted 12 marks in the Zips' all-time top-10, including three school records. He led Zips to 10 All-MAC selections as they won the women's team title outdoors, while coaching two athletes to outdoor conference meet records. Both the men and women were the league's runners-up indoors.

MISSISSIPPI STATE TRACK & FIELD

In one season with the Zips, Dara Perry became the first hurdler from the MAC to advance to the NCAA Outdoor Championships in over a decade. Perry trimmed more than half a second off her 100m hurdles time, running 13.10 en route to breaking the Mid-American Conference meet record. Taron Sloane and Daziah Green also improved by more than half a second in the 200m, at the NCAA East Prelims championships, running 20.65 and 22.99, respectively. Green was a double sprint winner at the Mid-American Conference meet, setting the meet record in the 100 meters. Kwad Smith, who was listed as one of the fastest football players in the country in 2018, posted pr times of 6.72 in the 60m and 10.29 in the 100m during Lyles' lone season at Akron.

Lyles spent the 2014-17 seasons in the SEC at The University of Missouri, where he worked with the sprints, hurdles, jumps and relays. He helped rewrite the Tigers' record book with 13 school records, five All-SEC performances, two World Junior Championships finalists, and two US Junior National Champions, and compiled 16 All-America honors. Four of his athletes represented their home nations in international competitions.

In 2016, he coached Kahmari Montgomery to USTFCCCA Midwest Athlete of the Year and SEC Freshman of the Year honors. Montgomery won both the indoor and outdoor SEC championships in the 400m, recorded top-15 times in the world in the 400m and finished sixth in the event at the World Junior Championships. That same year, he coached Valerie Thames as she broke three school records and was the only hurdler, male or female, to make the finals in both hurdle competitions in the 2016 SEC Outdoor Championships. For his efforts, he was named USTFCCCA's Midwest Region Women's Assistant Coach of the Year for the second time in his career. Lyles coached three 16m triple jumpers during the 2015-16 season. Markesh Woodson claimed multiple SEC runner-up finishes in the 60m and was a three-time indoor All-American in the event. In 2016, he finished sixth at the NCAA Outdoor Championships in the 100m.

He spent the prior four seasons in his first full-time job as an assistant overseeing sprints, hurdles and relays at San Diego State. In his final year with the Aztecs, he won the 2013 USTFCCCA West Region Women's Assistant Coach of the Year award as Shanika Thomas won the triple jump at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. In the previous season, he saw the SDSU women finish ninth at the NCAA Outdoor Championships, their best finish in program history.

While at San Diego State, Lyles' athletes won 17 conference titles, earned nine All-American honors and set 24 school and class records. Thomas earned Mountain West Athlete of the Year honors on her way to a runner-up finish at the 2012 NCAA Outdoor Championships. Before joining the Aztecs, Lyles trained at the U.S. Olympic Training Center in Chula Vista, CA, under 1984 Olympic Gold Medalist Al Joyner.

Lyles was an All-American in the triple jump at the University of Tennessee and was a member of the Vols' 2007 SEC Outdoor Championship team. Lyles was a Penn Relays champion in 2006 as part of the Vol's shuttle hurdle relay team. He graduated with a B.A. degree in sociology in 2008, and is a USATF Certified Coach for sprints, hurdles and relays. While still in college, he was both a high school club and a volunteer coach. He coached a high school national record holder and one of his high school athletes to the 2008 U.S. Olympic Trials in the 100m hurdles. Carjay was a member of the Black Cultural Programming Committee (BCPC) during his time at The University of Tennessee, a student organization tasked with developing and hosting on-campus events that enhance public awareness of African Americans and their accomplishments within the international society. They were also tasked with hosting university-sponsored African American Homecoming events and outreach. He also volunteered his time speaking to the Knoxville area high schools, encouraging literacy and graduation. He spent his last two years in college as a student-leader for FCA/AIA, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Athletes in Action.

Erinn Stenman-Fahey was named as an assistant coach for cross country and track at Mississippi State in the summer of 2022.

Stenman-Fahey oversaw the cross country team to a historic 2025 season. Nelly Jemeli was the first athlete to qualify for the NCAA Championships in nearly a decade. Jemeli, Milicent Kemboi and Naomi Jepleting all earned All-Region honors after leading the team to a fourth-place finish at the South Region Championships, the highest in nearly a decade. Jemeli was the first athlete to earn All-SEC honors since 2015, after being named to the third team. The team was consistently ranked in the top five regionally throughout the season. Jepleting and Jemeli also earned SEC Freshman of the Week honors throughout the season.

In the 2025 track season, Stenman-Fahey oversaw Ramat Jimoh to a bronze medal finish in the 800m final at the SEC Outdoor Championships, as well as Jemeli qualifying for the NCAA Outdoor Championships in the 3000m steeplechase. Hayley Ogle also qualified for the 800m final alongside Jimoh, finishing eighth overall. Jepleting finished in the top nine at the outdoor conference championships in the 5000m. Her athletes rewrote the record books this season, with four athletes holding spots on the MSU all-time top five lists across the distance events.

During the 2024 cross country season, Stenman-Fahey oversaw the most successful campaign in recent history. Jimoh and Gabrielle Boulay led the pack throughout the season, both breaking the university record in the 6k at the SEC Championships. Jimoh and Boulay are the first women in MSU to run sub-20 minutes in the 6k. The team also secured 10th at the conference championship, and 11th at the South Region Championship, the highest finishes since the mid-2010's. Jimoh and Boulay secured All-Region honors at the regional race, the first MSU athletes to do so since 2016. Stenman-Fahey has overseen five top-20 all-time finishes in the 5k and seven for the 6k.

In her second season on staff, Stenman-Fahey assisted in coaching the cross country team to the highest finish at the NCAA South Region Championship in recent history. The team finished 13th and each performer achieved a personal best in the 6k. During the season, there were seven new entries to the cross-country record books, highlighted by Jimoh holding the No. 2 time in the 6k.

In the 2024 outdoor season, she helped coach Hunter Anderson and Hayley Ogle to their first SEC final, both in the 1500m. Mallory Streetman also qualified for the 800m final, the first in her career. Anderson and Ogle both set personal bests in the event, with the latter finishing ninth. Streetman set a personal best in the final race, finishing ninth. Ogle and Streetman secured spots in the NCAA East First round for the first time in their careers.

In her first season on staff, Stenman-Fahey assisted in coaching Zoe Brito to a fourth-place finish at the SEC Outdoor Championships in the 800m. Her performance at this meet booked her first ticket to the NCAA East First round championship in the 800m.

Stenman-Fahey spent the year prior at Villanova where she worked alongside 2x National Coach of the Year, Gina Procaccio. There, she assisted with the women's distance athletes. During her time at Villanova, the women's cross country team qualified for the NCAA Championships, finishing 27th overall. Villanova runner McKenna Keegan qualified individually in the 800 at both the indoor and outdoor NCAA Championships, finishing 3rd and 2nd respectively at each meeting. In addition, Stenman-Fahey assisted with operations for both programs.

Before that, she was a volunteer coach at Temple from January 2020 to May 2021. Stenman-Fahey primarily worked with middle-distance and distance athletes in the areas of practice coordination and on-campus recruiting.

Stenman-Fahey graduated from Iowa State in May 2019, where she competed in cross country and track, specializing in the middle distances. During her time at Iowa State, she was an 11-time All-Big 12 performer and four-time NCAA West Regional Qualifier in the 800m. In her final outdoor season, Stenman-Fahey qualified for the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships in the 800m, earning second-team All-American honors.

Stenman-Fahey also has international racing experience, having represented her native country team, Canada, on three separate occasions. She most recently earned a bronze medal at the 2019 NACAC u23 Championships in the 800m. Additionally, Stenman-Fahey competed at the 2014 World Junior Championships, finishing 16th. She also competed at the 2015 Panam Junior Championships, where she finished fourth in the 800 and third in the 4x400.

Stenman-Fahey is originally from Ottawa, Canada, and has a master's in sport business from Temple.

Tony Greer joined the MSU Track and Field Staff in the spring of 2024.

During the 2025 season, Greer oversaw three entries to the MSU All-Time Top Five list and helped combined events athlete Peyton Bair to two national titles. Bair won the indoor heptathlon and decathlon titles at the NCAA Championships and jumped the fourth-highest mark in program history indoors. Aaron Fortenberry improved on his all-time marks, sitting at third all-time indoors and fourth all-time outdoors.

In his first season on staff, he helped coach MSU standout Emma Hunt to another pole vault program record and former JUCO standout Aaron Fortenberry to two all-time top five marks. He also helped coach decathlete Peyton Bair to a second-place finish at the NCAA Outdoor Championship, as well as a 12th-place finish at the USATF Olympic Trials.

Prior to his time at MSU, he served as the head coach at The Vault Track Club, based in Clinton, Mississippi. During his time with the USATF-affiliated pole vault club, he trained elite high school and collegiate pole vaulters. His athletes have earned various accolades under his tutelage. Most notably, the 2008 USATF National Junior Olympic Champion in the intermediate boys' pole vault, Mississippi's first 16' high school vaulter, seven state champions, and the Mississippi boys and girls pole vault record holders have trained under Greer.

He has extensive experience coaching at the collegiate level, most recently assisting on the Hinds CC track and field coaching staff. During his time at Hinds, he coached Aaron Fortenberry to a NJCAA Indoor Championship runner-up finish in the pole vault and a No. 1 JUCO ranking nationally. Before this, Greer coached at Belhaven University in 2014, Millsaps College in 2013, and Clinton HS from 2008-2012.

Greer competed for Mississippi College from 1980-1980, earning a Varsity Letter and Academic All-GSC honors.

Jay Turner enters his first season as assistant coach, serving as State's sprints/hurdles, jumps and combined events coach as well as Recruiting Coordinator. Turner spent the 2024 track season at Division II Tiffin University. Prior to that, Turner was part of the coaching staff at Montana State University where he served as sprints, hurdles and relays coach for the Bobcats Track & Field team from the 2019 through 2023 seasons.

Under Turner's leadership, the Montana State sprints and hurdles teams saw eight individual conference champions, five Big Sky Conference relay champions, 54 All-Conference individual and relay performers, seven NCAA Preliminary Round qualifiers as well as 30 Montana State program records. Hurdler Elena Carter was named the Big Sky Women's Co-Most Valuable Athlete at the 2022 outdoor championships and the Most Valuable Athlete at the 2023 indoor championships. Drake Schneider is the all-time Big Sky Conference record holder in the 400 meter hurdles as well as a 2021 Olympic Trials semifinalist. Turner also had his first Montana State All-American in 2022 as Schneider earned first-team honors by finishing sixth overall at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships in the 400 meter hurdles.

Prior to Montana State, Turner started as a volunteer assistant at University of Akron. His primary responsibilities included helping the sprint, hurdle and relay events and serve as the men's and women's recruiting coordinator for sprint, hurdle and jumping events.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Turner began his coaching career as the head track and field coach at Lorain High School in Lorain, Ohio.

Turner is currently USATF Level 3 certified in sprints, hurdles, relays.

Cha'Mia Rothwell joined the Mississippi State track and field staff on Nov. 11, 2024.

Prior to her time at State, Rothwell served as an assistant coach at North Carolina Central University. As a coach, she coordinated workouts, helped athletes establish and meet personal and athletic goals, baseline testing for athletic performance benchmarking, and assisted in facilitating the recruiting process with prospective athletes. At NCCU, Rothwell oversaw James Harris to a third-place finish in the 200 meters, and T'Sheylah Moore and Nyree Baccus to fifth and sixth in the 400 meters at the 2024 MEAC Outdoor Championships. Harris held the 21st fastest time for freshman nationally that season.

Before her time at NCCU, Rothwell served as a volunteer coach at Duke from 2021-2023, in which she helped coach the program to the 2022 ACC indoor title and outdoor runner-up title. In the 2023 season, the team earned the ACC indoor runner-up title and the ACC outdoor title, all of which came from the women's program.

Rothwell competed in the hurdles and jumps at Dartmouth College before transferring to Duke to compete for a year. Rothwell was a decorated athlete in college, earning accolades such as nine Ivy League titles and two Ivy League Indoor Heptagonal Most Outstanding Field Performer awards. She was also named Dartmouth's Most Outstanding Female Athlete twice, earning the Class of 1976 award.

During her time at Duke, Rothwell earned All-ACC Academic honors, All-ACC First Team honors, and USTFCCA First Team honors all in the 100 meter hurdles. She assisted Duke to its first ACC outdoor title for the women's program. Rothwell earned a qualification spot at the 2021 USATF Olympic Trials, in which she finished 20th in the 100 meter hurdles. At the 2022 USATF Indoor Championships, Rothwell earned seventh in the 60 meter hurdles. She improved on this finish at the 2023 Indoor Championships, finishing fourth.

Rothwell has a Master of Management Studies from Duke University and a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Dartmouth College.
