Wednesday, Oct 26, 2016

BLAIR SCHAEFER, JR, G

On competing with the team...

"We are competing with each other every day. We know everything that we need to work on, and we do it every day in order to get to that next level."

BREANNA RICHARDSON, SR, F

On how veterans are helping newcomers...

"Day in and day out, we help by answering their questions and helping out with concepts and learning plays. They need to know how to play in the SEC."

VICTORIA VIVIAN, JR, G

On how to improve this season...

"I need to take better shots. I have a better chance of making them and have overall improved in my shooting game."

On the team's talent...

"We have a lot more talent on the team this season. Our talent is not just in our starting five, but on the bench as well."

On playing at the Hump...

"It's very enjoyable. I came to some games in high school, but being here now and having 7,000 sound like 70,000 is just so fun."

DOMINIQUE DILLINGHAM, SR, G

On what she would like to change about her shot...

"I would say consistency; I really can't change my shot. I'm older, so it's really hard to change it now. Repetitions will help."

On expectations last season versus this season...

"We've always had expectations for ourselves, and we just want to take one expectation at a time. We just don't want to overlook one step and then mess up."

KETARA CHAPEL, SR, F

On the best part about the team...

"I would have to say the different pieces that we have. We have two freshmen that are expected to play, and we have great senior, junior, and sophomore classes."

JAZZMUN HOLMES, SO, G

On being quiet last season...

"I just wasn't as talkative as I should have been, and I'm trying to come out of that and be more of a point guard."
