

VIC SCHAEFER

HEAD COACH // FOURTH SEASON

Associated Press 2015 SEC Coach of the Year

SEC Co-Coach of the Year by league coaches

Semifinalist for Naismith National Coach of the Year

Led Mississippi State to a 14-win improvement from year one to year three

Coached MSU to school records for overall (27) and SEC (11) wins

Took the Bulldogs to consecutive 20-plus win seasons for the second time in program history

Led the Bulldogs to their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2010

Jumped 10 spots from the 2013-14 SEC finish, an SEC record for the highest jump in the standings

Took the Bulldogs to a No. 12 ranking in the final Associated Press poll, the program's highest final ranking

Led MSU to 18-straight weeks in the Associated Press poll and 17-straight weeks in the USA Today Coaches Poll, both the longest consecutive runs since 2002-03

Guided the Bulldogs to 18-straight wins to begin the year, the longest win streak in school history and the most consecutive victories

His MSU squad was the first men's or women's Division I team to 22 victories

Became the fastest MSU coach to reach 60 wins and 20 SEC victories

Tied for the third-most wins in program history and owns the second-most SEC victories by a Bulldog coach

Head Coach

Fourth Season at MSU

11th Season Overall

Texas A&M (1984)

2015 Associated Press Coach of the Year 2015 SEC Coaches' Co-Coach of the Year Semifinalist for Naismith National Coach of the Year

When searching for a head women's basketball coach, Mississippi State athletic director Scott Stricklin was seeking a passionate, driven individual who could build the Bulldogs into a championship program. He found the ideal person in Vic Schaefer, who enters his fourth season as Mississippi State head coach.

Schaefer, a veteran coach of 31 seasons, came to Starkville with the blueprints to crafting Mississippi State into a championship program. In just his third season he added a major building block as the Bulldogs enjoyed a record-setting 2014-15 campaign that earned him SEC Coach of the Year honors from the Associated Press, co-Coach of the Year accolades from his league peers and Naismith National Coach of the Year semifinalist honors.

He guided MSU to its first NCAA Tournament since 2010 while setting school records for overall wins (27) and league victories (11). State also matched its highest-ever SEC finish (3rd place) while breaking into the national polls for the first time since 2010. Mississippi State stayed in the polls for 17-straight weeks, the second-longest tenure in program history, en route to finishing a program-best No. 12 in the final AP poll.

The 2014-15 season also saw the Bulldogs set a school record with 18-straight wins to open the year, and they were the first Division I men's or women's program to 22 wins while being one of the final three undefeated women's teams in the nation.

The Bulldogs, who opened the year winning the Preseason WNIT, were thrilling to watch on offense, but they also continued to play the stellar defense that has given Schaefer the moniker the "Secretary of Defense," topping the SEC in turnover margin, ranking second in 3-point defense and blocked shots, and finishing in the Top 6 in scoring defense and field goal defense.

While known for stifling defense, his 2013-14 squad also had a tremendous offensive season, setting program records for points scored (2,551) and rebounds (1,410) en route to finishing 22-14 and advancing to the quarterfinals of the WNIT.

His first Bulldog squad topped the SEC in 3-point defense and blocked shots as part of a campaign that was highlighted by big league victories against in-state rival Ole Miss, Arkansas and Missouri before capping the year with a thrilling 50-38 upset of No. 11 Georgia.

In his first three thrilling seasons in Starkville, the Bulldogs have garnered numerous postseason laurels, including in-state talent Victoria Vivians who claimed AP All-America Honorable Mention honors along with second team All-SEC (AP and Coaches) and league All-Freshman Team laurels. Vivians also became the first freshman, and fourth Bulldog, to hoist the CSpire Gillom Trophy as Mississippi's top female college basketball player.

In four seasons, Vic Schaefer has put Mississippi State among the nation's best teams. Following a 22-win 2013-14 season, the 2014-15 Bulldogs won a school-record 27 games, including 11 SEC contests, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. The historic season earned Schaefer SEC Coach of the Year honors.

Under Schaefer's watch, Martha Alwal also claimed the award as part of a career that saw her earn All-SEC honors three-straight years, including SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Year following the 2013-14 season. Schaefer was instrumental in developing Alwal into a player who finished her career one of just three players in SEC history to record 1,000-career points, 1,000-career rebounds and 300-career blocks.

The quick success the Bulldogs have enjoyed can be attributed to Schaefer's ability to develop talent while also signing some of the nation's top-ranked recruiting classes. His first MSU signing class ranked 35th nationally, and he followed it with a group that ranked in the Top 20 nationally and included a Parade All-American in Vivians. He added a second-straight Parade All-American in April with the addition of Texas center Teaira McCowan.

When on the recruiting trail, Schaefer, who has been part of inking 10 Top-20 signing classes, stresses the importance of keeping the state's best players at home. He did just that with the additions of Vivians (Carthage) and his daughter Blair, an all-state standout at Starkville High School. Most recently he added another all-state talent in Jazzmun Holmes (Gulfport) and JUCO All-American Jazmine Spears of New Albany.

The blueprint in place in Starkville is the same he has been part of during 15 seasons on the staffs at Texas A&M and Arkansas. Over that time, Schaefer, who has been part of 475 wins in his 28-year collegiate career, helped his squads to the postseason 16 of the last 18 seasons while averaging 22 wins a year.

The "Secretary of Defense" helped Arkansas and Texas A&M to 11 NCAA Tournament appearances. In his first season in Fayetteville, the Razorbacks advanced to the Final Four before making three more trips to the second round. With his alma mater, he won a national championship while helping the program to a pair of Sweet 16 appearances, an Elite Eight showing, two trips to the second round and a first-round berth.

In his nine years as associate head coach to friend and mentor Gary Blair at Texas A&M, his teams consistently were atop the Big 12 in turnovers caused, steals, turnover margin and assist-to-turnover ratio.

In 2011, his smothering defense topped the nation in turnover margin en route to guiding the Aggies to the NCAA national championship in the program's first trip to the Women's Final Four. That squad also earned Texas A&M's first No. 1 national ranking while finishing the season with a 33-5 record, the most wins in school history.

The following season his final Texas A&M squad finished first in the Big 12 in turnover margin en route to advancing to a fifth-straight conference tournament title game and the Sweet 16 in the team's seventh-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance.

Schaefer was also part of Texas A&M squads that won two Big 12 Tournament titles (2010 & 2008) and the conference regular season title in 2007. In addition to the 2011 national championship, Schaefer helped coach the Aggies to the 2009 Sweet 16 and the 2008 Elite Eight.

Schaefer, BasketballScoop.com's 2009 Assistant Coach of the Year, was instrumental in the Aggies finishing among the country's Top 10 signing classes four-straight years. His final class rated No. 2 nationally, and he helped land the nation's top class during the 2011 national championship run. The Aggies' 2010 signing class ranked No. 5 nationally and tops in the Big 12. A year earlier he helped ink the Big 12's No. 2 class and the sixth-best in the country.

In 2007, Schaefer earned the opportunity to coach the United States William Jones Cup Team, leading that squad to a bronze medal in Taipei, Taiwan. He also joined with Athletica in Action to coach some of the top women's college players in the nation. The only associate head coach to be named head coach of the USA Jones Cup Team, Schaefer guided Team USA to a 4-2 record in pool play with wins against Japan, New Zealand, Korea and Chinese Taipei.

That international experience came after Schaefer helped lead the 2005-06 Aggies to a third-place Big 12 finish, the program's highest at the time, and the first round of the NCAA Tournament. A year earlier he helped Texas A&M advance to the WNIT Elite Eight, the first postseason appearance under Blair and Schaefer.

Schaefer accompanied Blair to his alma mater following a six-year stint as associate head coach at Arkansas from 1997-2003. During that run he helped the Razorbacks to four NCAA Tournament appearances, including a Final Four berth in his inaugural season. The following year Arkansas went on to claim the WNIT national championship. While in Fayetteville he helped tutor Shameka Christon, who would go on to earn SEC Player of the Year and First Team All-SEC honors.

Schaefer went to Arkansas after serving as head women's coach at Sam Houston State from 1990-97. In his next-to-last season there, he was tabbed the Southland Conference Coach of the Year after leading the Bearkats to their most wins in a decade (18). During his tenure at SHS, he tutored either the SLC's Freshman or Newcomer of the Year in three of his final four seasons. In his first year at the school (1990-91), he coached Sierena Autman to Southland Conference Player of the Year accolades.

A native of Austin, Texas, Schaefer served as a men's assistant coach at Sam Houston State (1987-89) between stints as the assistant boys basketball coach and head tennis coach at Houston's Milby High School. As a player, Schaefer was an all-state performer at Houston Lutheran High School before going on to play two seasons at Alvin Community College.

Always striving to continue honing his craft, Schaefer was invited to attend the Center for Coaching Excellence, a prestigious leadership program hosted by Columbia University, following his first season in Starkville.

Schaefer is a dedicated family man. He is married to the former Holly Davis, who played basketball at Arkansas State and later served as an assistant coach at UT Arlington. The couple has 20-year-old twins, Blair Nicole and Charles Logan.

JOHNNIE HARRIS

Associate Head Coach
Fourth Season at MSU
Arkansas Baptist (1996)

When Vic Schaefer started assembling what he labels his “A” team, the first crucial piece of that squad was Johnnie Harris, who enters her fourth season in Starkville as the program’s associate head coach.

Harris’ reputation as one of the nation’s top recruiters showed as the staff’s first three recruiting classes have rated among the best in program history.

On the court, Harris, who works with the Bulldogs’ post players, helped develop Martha Alwal into one of the nation’s top centers. Under her guidance, Alwal earned First Team All-SEC honors and SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Year as a junior. She also claimed a pair of second team honors, three-straight SEC All-Defensive Team accolades and won the Gillom Trophy as Mississippi’s top women’s college basketball player. Three seasons working with Harris helped Alwal become the second player in SEC history to lead the league in blocks four-straight years and just the third to claim 1,000 points, 1,000 rebounds and 300 blocks for her career.

Harris also serves as State’s special teams coach, coordinating the in-bounds, sideline and free-throw plays, something she specialized in working alongside Schaefer for five seasons on the Texas A&M bench.

She was also instrumental in the Bulldogs going perfect on the recruiting trail for their first two classes. That first one, rated No. 35 in the nation, helped the Bulldogs to a 22-14 record and the WNIT quarterfinals in 2013-14. Harris and the Bulldog coaching staff followed that class with a Top 20 class that rated among the best in program history. Harris was instrumental in following that Top 20 class with a second-straight Parade All-American as she helped land current Bulldog freshman Teaira McCowan.

Schaefer knew Harris was instrumental to his Bulldog staff after seeing her help guide Texas A&M to four Sweet 16 appearances in her five seasons, including the program’s first national championship in 2010-11.

During her tenure with the Aggies, Harris helped sign and mentor junior college All-Americans

Danielle Adams and Tanisha Smith. Adams earned MVP of the 2011 Final Four before going on to be drafted 20th by the San Antonio Silver Stars of the WNBA. Adams was tabbed to the league's all-star game in her inaugural season.

With Harris' guidance, Smith earned Big 12 Newcomer of the Year and conference all-tournament honors in 2009. The Seattle Storm selected Smith with the 22nd pick in the 2010 WNBA Draft.

Not only was it her on-court coaching ability that put her atop Schaefer's list of coaches, but it was her reputation as one of the nation's premier recruiters.

Harris' recruiting ability was crucial in building the Aggies into an annual championship contender, as she helped Texas A&M in signing classes that have annually rated in the top 20 nationally.

She helped the Aggies land the nation's No. 2 class in her final season in College Station. That class included a pair of McDonald's All-Americans in Jordan Jones and Courtney Williams. TAMU's 2010 class, which included McDonald's All-American and the nation's top post player, Karla Gilbert, rated third nationally. The two years prior she helped notch the nation's fifth- and sixth-rated classes.

Harris played a key role in signing the major players in Texas A&M's national championship team that claimed a school-best 33 victories.

Prior to her stop in College Station, Harris spent three seasons at Arkansas, helping land some of the Lady Razorbacks' top recruiting classes. She signed Laura Ervin, a junior college All-American who went on to garner Second Team All-SEC accolades, as well as Freshman All-SEC selection Donica Cosby.

In 2007, she inked Gatorade players of the year Whitney Zacharia-son (Arkansas) and Morgan Boyd (Kansas) as Arkansas finished with one of the nation's top-40 classes. Harris also recruited one of the top five point guards in the nation in Shanita Arnold.

Harris has had the opportunity to learn from some of the game's top coaches, including Hall of Famer Kay Yow at N.C. State. She joined the program in the 2003-04 season and immediately helped the squad to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in two years.

Harris and her fellow coaches helped the Wolfpack sign JUCO player of the year Tiffany Stansbury, who went on to play with the WNBA's Los Angeles Sparks and Minnesota Lynx.

Her first recruiting class in Raleigh was rated as one of the best in the nation. She also garnered a commitment from Gillian Goring, the nation's No. 1 post player who went on to play for the Washington Mystics.

Prior to jumping to the Division I level, Harris made her mark on the junior college level as an assistant coach at Arkansas-Fort Smith, where she helped bring in key players who led the school to the NJCAA Final Four in 2004. In two seasons coaching under the legendary Louis Whorton, she inked the nation's No. 1 class and helped the Lady Lions to a 34-8 record. UAFS's 2002-03 team went 26-2 and won a share of the Bi-State Conference championship.

The Arkansas-Fort Smith position kept the Pine Bluff native in her home state after she started her coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas-Little Rock. Her hard work at UALR earned her a promotion to full-time assistant in 2000.

Harris, a 2014 inductee in the Watson's Chapel High School Hall of Fame, also coached AAU hoops with the Arkansas Kamikaze.

She began her playing career at Arkansas-Pine Bluff before transferring to Arkansas Baptist for her final two seasons.

She is the mother of two children, Marcus and Kiera, and the legal guardian of Lily. She also has a granddaughter, Samarah.

ELENA LOVATO

Assistant Coach
Second Season at MSU
Pittsburg State (2008)

Vic Schaefer added another national championship ring to his Mississippi State coaching staff as Elena Lovato, head coach of two-time national champion Trinity Valley Community College, joined the Bulldogs prior to the 2014-15 historic season.

She was instrumental in helping the Bulldogs back to their first NCAA Tournament since 2010 and a school-record No. 12 final ranking by the Associated Press.

Lovato, who enters her second season on the Bulldog staff, brought valuable experience as a junior college head coach to Schaefer's staff. In four seasons as a junior college head coach, she claimed a 113-8 record, including a 72-2 mark at TVCC, and a pair of national titles.

She returned to Trinity Valley Community College for the 2012-13 season and immediately made an impact, taking a squad that included Bulldog senior Savannah Carter to a 36-1 record and the NJCAA national title.

Lovato's squad repeated the success in 2013-14 with Bulldog newcomer Jazmine Spears, posting an identical 36-1 mark and once again hoisting the national championship. The stellar campaign earned her NJCAA Division I Coach of the Year honors.

Prior to her return to Trinity Valley, she spent one season as an assistant with Nebraska-Omaha, an NCAA Division II school that was making the transition to Division I. That stint followed one season as head coach at Grayson County Community College in Denton, Texas.

At Grayson, she took a program that finished 4-26 the year before and led it to a 32-4 record, the Region V championship and a fifth-place national finish. The successful campaign earned her coach of the year honors from the Texas Association of Basketball Coaches, North Texas College Athletic Conference and NJCAA Region V.

A year earlier she was in her first stint as an assistant at Trinity Valley before being promoted to interim head coach for the final 11 games of the season. The nation started to take notice of the young up-and-coming coach during that stretch as she led the Lady Cardinals a 9-2 mark and a sixth-place finish in the national tournament.

Prior to that tenure with the Lady Cardinals, she was an assistant on legendary coach Joe Curl's Houston staff in 2008-09 and a graduate assistant at Pittsburg State in Kansas.

The Albuquerque, N.M., native also coached at the prep level following a stellar playing career.

Lovato played two seasons at West Texas A&M before transferring to Missouri Southern State, where she was named a team captain and MIAA Newcomer of the Year over her two seasons.

She went on to play professionally in the Puerto Rican Women's Basketball League, earning First Team All-League honors after averaging 23 points and 10 rebounds in 2001. The following season (2002) she averaged 18 points and eight rebounds.

In 2002 she also played for the Chicago Blaze of the National Women's Basketball League (NWBL).

Lovato earned her bachelor's degree in university studies from Missouri Southern State in 2005, and her master's degree in physical education from Pittsburg State in 2008.

Oklahoma (2005)

Vic Schaefer added another up-and-coming young coach and an additional championship pedigree to his Mississippi State women's basketball staff with the addition of Dionnah Jackson as an assistant coach.

Jackson, a former All-American at Oklahoma, comes to Starkville following a two-year stint on the staff at George Mason, where she worked with the Patriots' offense and guards.

In her two seasons at George Mason, Jackson tutored Taylor Brown to the team's scoring title both years. Last season she claimed second team all-conference honors after averaging 21.4 ppg and setting a school single-season record with 643 points.

She broke into the coaching ranks at Southeast Missouri State, where she helped Kara Wright to the Ohio Valley Conference All-Newcomer Team, the program's first all-conference honor since 2008-09, and Bianca Beck to an overseas professional contract in her three years at the school.

While on the staff at Texas A&M, Schaefer became familiar with Jackson as he watched her during a heralded four-year career at Oklahoma.

She played 131 games with the Sooners, averaging 11.4 points, 6.3 rebounds, 4.6 assists and 2.1 steals per contest. Jackson claimed honorable mention All-America honors as well as being named a finalist for the Wade and Naismith national player of the year awards.

Jackson wrapped her collegiate career in the Top 10 in 17 of Oklahoma's 22 all-time record lists, including ranking second in assists (606), third in steals (265), fourth in rebounds (829), fifth in blocks (64) and ninth in scoring (1,491).

Her final season at OU also saw her earn First Team All-Big 12 accolades after landing second-team honors her junior and sophomore seasons. As a junior she was also named Big 12 Tournament MVP after leading Oklahoma to the second league title of her career.

In addition to the pair of Big 12 titles, the three-year starter at the point and a three-year team captain led OU to the NCAA Tournament all four years, including the program's first Final Four and a national runner-up as a freshman.

Her stellar career at Oklahoma earned her a first-round selection by the Detroit Shock in the 2005 WNBA Draft.

In 2007, she was picked up by the Chicago Sky and also played in Israel for Maccabi Tel Kabir. Jackson also spent tenures playing overseas in Switzerland and Greece.

A St. Louis native, she was the 2001 Missouri Player of the Year and a two-time all-state selection after leading Parkway High School to a 102-12 four-year record.

Jackson earned her degree in mass communication from Oklahoma in 2005 and a master's degree in higher education administration from Southeast Missouri State in 2013.

MARYANN BAKER

Director of Operations
Fourth Season at MSU
Texas A&M (2011)

Maryann Baker brings valuable experience both on the court and off to the Mississippi State coaching staff in her fourth season as the Bulldogs' Director of Operations.

Baker coordinates all of the team's daily operations, including logistics, travel and summer camps. Although she is in her first full-time sideline job, she is no stranger to sharing the bench with Vic Schaefer as a player and graduate assistant coach.

Prior to coming to Starkville, she spent a season on the coaching staff following a stellar playing career that saw her help Texas A&M to four NCAA Tournament berths, including the 2011 national title and a pair of Big 12 Tournament titles.

During her first season on the sideline, the Aggies advanced to the Sweet 16 and finished the year 24-11 and No. 12 in the final USA Today/ESPN Coaches' Poll.

The Dallas, Texas, native capped a stellar playing career with the Aggies by winning the 2011 Big 12 Sixth Man Award before going on to help the program to a school-record 33 wins and the 2011 national championship.

Baker and classmate Sydney Colson ended their four-year careers in College Station as the winningest duo in Aggie basketball history, compiling a career record of 115-29 (.799). During that illustrious career, Baker went to the Elite Eight, Sweet 16 and NCAA Second Round during her first three seasons, but in her final campaign, she was able to reach the pinnacle that all athletes strive to achieve when she helped guide Texas A&M to the national title in the program's first trip to the Women's Final Four. Baker also helped guide the Aggies to Big 12 Tournament championships in 2008 and 2010.

One reason Schaefer looked to Baker to join his staff was her understanding of what it takes to excel both on and off the court. On the court, Baker scored 266 points in 116 career games, but she was also stellar in the classroom, garnering back-to-back Academic All-Big 12 First Team honors.

Coming out of Bishop Lynch Catholic High School, Baker was rated the 25th-best shooting guard in the country by the All-Star Girls Basketball Report. A McDonald's All-American nominee, Baker was a three-time all-state and all-district honoree. In 2013 she was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame.

SKYLAR COLLINS

Director of Scouting/
Video Coordinator
Third Season at MSU
Texas A&M (2012)

Mississippi State added another national championship-winning talent to its women's basketball staff prior to the 2013-14 season with the addition of former Texas A&M standout Skylar Collins as the program's video coordinator.

Collins, who added director of scouting to her title in 2014, is responsible for breaking down game and practice film, as well as video exchange for Vic Schaefer's squad.

Collins' joining the Hail State Hoops staff signifies a return to the collegiate ranks for the Cedar Hills, Texas, native following a stint playing professional basketball for Sport Clube do Recife in Brazil.

The jump to the professional level came a year after Collins capped a stellar collegiate career that saw her help Texas A&M to the NCAA Tournament all four years, including a pair of Sweet Sixteen appearances and the national title in 2011.

During her career, Collins possessed the ability to stretch defenses with her dangerous outside shooting touch. Over her four years with the Aggies, Collins was a 43.5-percent shooter from the field, including a sizzling 44.2-percent from 3-point range.

She saved the best for last, though, as she tallied a 48-percent clip from the floor and a team-best 50-percent rate beyond the arc her senior year.

Collins capped her career by going 4-for-4 from the field and 2-for-2 from the free-throw line to tally 10 points and a pair of steals against No. 5 Maryland in the NCAA Sweet 16.

That impressive showing in the "Big Dance" came after she scored a career-best 15 points against Oklahoma in the Big 12 Championship Semifinals.

The outstanding swan song helped Collins earn the team's 6th Man Award and a second-straight Miss Hustle Award.

In addition to excelling on the court, she was also a standout in the classroom, earning Academic All-Big 12 Second Team accolades.

Collins was rated the No. 44 overall prospect and sixth-best shooting guard in the Class of 2008 by All-Star Girls Basketball Report.

CHRISTINA RICHARDSON

Graduate Assistant
First Season at MSU
Texas A&M (2014)

Vic Schaefer added additional Division I experience to his Hail State Hoops staff with the addition of Christina Richardson as the program's graduate assistant.

Richardson, a Katy, Texas, native, will assist with the daily operations of the program after serving last season as the Director of Operations at Siena College.

She is no stranger to Schaefer and his staff as she served four seasons as a student manager at Texas A&M, including 2011's national championship run.

Richardson completed an internship with the program during her senior year, helping run and manage the Coach Gary Blair Charities Golf Tournament while also assisting the Aggies' Director of Operations with team budgeting, travel, video breakdown and equipment orders.

Richardson graduated from Texas A&M in 2014 with a B.S. in Sports Management and a minor in Business Administration.

She was selected to the International Dean's List Society and Sigma Alpha Lambda, the national leadership and honors organization.

ANN CARR

Senior Associate Athletic Director
Women's Sports &
Student-Athlete Services
Mississippi State (1990)

A veteran in athletic administration at MSU and a former Mississippi State women's basketball player, Ann Carr was named the university's associate athletic director for women's sports in June 2006. Since then she has been promoted to senior associate athletic director, adding student-athlete services to her women's sports responsibilities.

Carr is in her second stint within the State athletic department following seven years as Assistant Athletic Director for Student Life. In that position, she worked with the personal development of MSU's student-athletes in addition to continuing her prior responsibilities as academic counselor for the Bulldog football team.

Carr serves as the director of the department's Life Skills program, which includes the support systems and career programs for all MSU student-athletes, and its CHAMPS program (Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success).

As SWA, Carr oversees the operation and supervision of MSU's women's sport programs. Hired in 1993 as an assistant director in the athletic academic office, she returned full-time to Mississippi State in 1999 following a one-year stay in a similar capacity at the University of Southern Mississippi.

The Brookhaven, Miss., native was a four-year letter winner in basketball at MSU (1987-90). When Carr finished her career, she ranked first on the career leaders list in free-throw percentage (75.8 percent), 12th in points (762, 8.3 ppg), sixth in rebounds with 597 (6.5 rpg). She also claimed the most three-point field goals made (5) in a single game.

A 1990 graduate of State, she later earned her master's degree in counseling from the institution in 1992. Carr has a daughter, Khristan, who is a freshman on the Bulldog volleyball team.

DR. MARK KEENUM

University President

Dr. Mark Everett Keenum became Mississippi State's 19th president Jan. 5, 2009, following a distinguished public service career.

Dr. Keenum has guided Mississippi State to unprecedented heights during his six-year tenure. The university has experienced record enrollment growth to more than 20,000 students. The freshman class of fall 2014 was almost 3,000, and the average ACT score for 2014 was a record 24.4. During 2011-12, Mississippi State awarded more than 4,000 degrees at all levels for the first time in its history, and followed that with 4,222 degrees in 2014-15.

The campus has expanded and improved on Keenum's watch. Major renovations of historic Lee Hall and Davis Wade Stadium were completed by August 2014. Construction of a new classroom building with built-in parking and a Fresh Foods concept cafeteria began in 2014. In 2015, construction is under way on two new residence halls, the new G.V. "Sonny" Montgomery Center for America's Veterans, a Wise Center classroom building, and an expansion of Mitchell Memorial Library is set to begin this fall.

Since 2009, fundraising has reached all-time record levels, with private giving exceeding $80 million a year in fiscal years 2011, 2012 and 2013 and grew to $108.8 million in fiscal year 2014. In fall 2013, the university formally announced Infinite Impact: the Campaign for Mississippi State with a goal of $600 million by 2018. To date, more than $530 million of that goal had been met. Dr. Keenum has also been instrumental in expanding the MSU Promise Program, which provides need-based scholarship assistance to Mississippi students whose families have limited financial means.

Mississippi State has strengthened its role as the flagship research university in the state. The most recent research success has been MSU's designation as the Federal Aviation Administration's National Center of Excellence in Unmanned Aerial Systems and Boeing's decision to locate a composite research center at MSU's Raspet Flight Lab. The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching classifies

MSU as a university with "very high research activity," the only such designation in Mississippi. Dr. Keenum travels frequently to Washington, D.C., meeting with Congressional leaders and federal agency heads to pursue research opportunities and broaden the university's influence on the national level. He has also worked closely with state leaders in support of higher education in Mississippi.

Keenum serves as vice-chairman of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools' Commission on Colleges' Executive Council. SACS-COC is the recognized regional accrediting body in the 11 U.S. Southern states (Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia) and in Latin America for those institutions of higher education that award associate, baccalaureate, master's or doctoral degrees.

He also is a member of the American Public Land-Grant Universities Board of Directors. Based in Washington, D.C., the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities (APLU) is a research and advocacy organization of public research universities, land-grant institutions, and state university systems with member campuses in all 50 states, U.S. territories and the District of Columbia. Keenum has also been appointed vice chairman of the Foundation for Food and Agricultural Research by U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Thomas J. Vilsack.

In 2015, Keenum was named to the College Football Playoff's (CFP) Board of Managers and elected vice president of the Southeastern Conference. He remains a member of the SEC Executive Committee and continues to serve on the SEC's Content Committee that oversees the SEC Network.

A graduate of Mississippi State University with degrees in agricultural economics, Dr. Keenum began his career at MSU as a faculty member with the Extension Service and the Department of Agricultural Economics. He went on to serve as chief of staff to U.S. Senator Thad Cochran in Washington, D.C. and was Under Secretary of the U.S. Department of Agriculture prior to returning home to Mississippi State.

He graduated from Corinth (MS) High School and earned an associate of arts degree from Northeast Mississippi Community College in Booneville and was a member of the Northeast Tigers football team.

Dr. Keenum is married to the former Rhonda Newman of Booneville, also an MSU graduate. They have four children: Rett, Mary Phillips, Katie and Torie.

SCOTT STRICKLIN

Director of Athletics

Now in his third decade in intercollegiate athletics, Director of Athletics Scott Stricklin has overseen a wave of momentum within the Mississippi State fan base during his tenure. From his first day on the job in May 2010, Stricklin, with a focus on the student-athlete, a commitment to great integrity, and a dedication to promoting MSU aggressively, has facilitated a stretch of unparalleled Bulldog success.

With an investment of over $130 million in facilities, a strong roster of successful coaches, and significant increases in Bulldog Club membership and donations, MSU Athletics has achieved its highest-ever Learfield Director's Cup finish while consistently seeing the majority of its teams compete in post-season championships.

In an era that has seen 30-consecutive sellouts at Davis Wade Stadium and impressive football facility enhancements, Coach Dan Mullen's team has played in five-consecutive bowl games, while the Bulldogs spent five-straight weeks in 2014 ranked No. 1 in the polls for the first time in school history.

The sports of tennis, baseball, basketball, softball, men's and women's golf and track and field have each excelled and advanced to NCAA postseason play under Stricklin's leadership. During the 2014-15 academic year, 11 Mississippi State sports advanced to NCAA postseason play, with eight earning Top 25 rankings during the season, while the women's golf team ascended all the way to No. 1 in the fall. The year was capped by All-American Rhianwedd Price winning the 1500-meter run at the NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships in Oregon, one year after Brandon McBride claimed the crown in the 800-meter run and two years removed from the baseball team playing for the national championship in Omaha.

In addition, 2015 also saw two MSU coaches earn SEC Coach of the Year honors in Mullen and Vic Schaefer, who led the Bulldogs to a school record 27 wins en route to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

In the classroom, Bulldog students continue to excel. In the 2014-15 academic year, Mississippi State's men and women athletes posted a combined GPA of 3.0, the highest in school history. Also in 2015, Bulldog students again excelled in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, with all 16 sports far exceeding the minimum standard.

Stricklin has overseen record fundraising for Bulldog Athletics, which has produced new facilities such as the $11.7 million Mize Pavilion at Humphrey Coliseum, the $25 million Leo W. Seal Jr. Football Complex, as well as $75 million in expansion and upgrades to Davis Wade Stadium that were completed prior to the start of the 2014 campaign.

The Davis Wade Stadium expansion and renovation pushed capacity to 61,337, making it the largest on campus football stadium in the state of Mississippi. In addition to innovative premium seating options, a new brick facade and updated west concourse, complete with renovated restrooms and concessions, now greets fans attending games at historic Scott Field.

In the spring 2015, a $6 million renovation began on both the tennis and softball complexes, while a $40 million upgrade to Dudy Noble Field is in the planning process. In addition, construction is nearly completed for the new $2.2 million Mississippi State Golf Center at Old Waverly, one of the South's premier golf courses. The project includes a 6,300-square foot team clubhouse with locker rooms, players' lounge, coaches' offices and indoor putting center, along with a 2,431-square foot indoor hitting bay.

Stricklin's vision also drew attention when he announced the university is partnering with financial guru Dave Ramsey to help educate student-athletes in the area of personal finance. Ramsey's "Foundations in Personal Finance College Edition" curriculum is now being incorporated into teaching MSU student-athletes the basics of finance.

His attention to detail has also proven to be vital in the hiring process, as he received rave reviews with the hiring of men's basketball coach Ben Howland, who comes to MSU after leading Northern Arizona, Pittsburgh and UCLA to the NCAA Tournament, including 3 straight Final Four appearances with the Bruins.

In addition to engaging with Bulldog fans through personal interactions and social media, Stricklin has also emerged as a regional and national leader in college athletics. He serves as chair of the SEC's Working Group on Fan Experience, and has served as the SEC's representative on the NCAA Division I Leadership Council.

Stricklin certainly wasn't a stranger to the Bulldog family or college athletics when he took over the reins at State in 2010.

A 1992 graduate of Mississippi State, the Jackson, Miss., native's resume is highlighted by 25 years of experience on the collegiate level in various capacities at five different universities. In the two years prior to becoming athletic director, he served as Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at his alma mater, overseeing fundraising, football and men's basketball scheduling, managing MSU's all-sport agreement with Adidas, facility planning, and serving as the administrative sport liaison for men's basketball and softball.

It was those types of day-to-day tasks that prepared the personable Stricklin to take over the top seat in the Mississippi State athletic department. Yet it's a journey that started during his formative days as a dedicated and tireless worker in the Mississippi State media relations department that has led to his highly-respected career coming full circle.

Prior to graduating, Stricklin's stint in the MSU media relations office included three seasons (1990-92) as the media contact for the nationally-renowned baseball program. Upon graduation, he was named Assistant Media Relations Director at his alma mater.

In 1993, he was named Associate Media Relations Director at Auburn, where he served from 1993-98. In 1998, Stricklin left Auburn to become Assistant Athletics Director at Tulane, where he served as the primary media contact for the Green Wave's 1998 12-0 football team. Next came a four-year run in the Big 12 Conference at Baylor (1999-2003) as Assistant AD for Communications and Marketing.

In 2003, Stricklin returned to the Southeastern Conference at Kentucky and spent five seasons as the Associate AD for Media Relations, where he oversaw the day-to-day publicity of the tradition-rich Wildcat basketball program. It was his last stop before returning to Mississippi State in the spring of 2008.

Stricklin, 45, is married to the former Anne Howell, the youngest daughter of Basketball Hall of Fame member Bailey Howell. The couple has two daughters, Abby and Sophie.

LATOYA THOMAS

6-2 / FORWARD
GREENVILLE, MISS.

Four-time Kodak all-American (00-01-02-03)
Three-time Associated Press all-American (01-02-03)
Basketball Times all-American (2002)
U.S. Basketball Writers Association all-American (02-03)
Women's Basketball Journal all-American (00-01)
Women's Basketball Journal Freshman Team (2000)
Gballmag.com all-American (01-02)
WomensCollegeHoops.com all-American (01-03)

In her first season at MSU, LaToya Thomas became only the eighth freshman in the 25-year history of Kodak All-America honors to earn the award. After being named to the team all four years of her career, she became just the sixth player in women's basketball history to become a four-time Kodak All-American.

She left her mark in the SEC as well, becoming the first player in the conference to lead the league in scoring all four years of her career. She was a four-time first team all-SEC and AP all-SEC selection in addition to being ranked in the top 12 nationally in scoring during her career.

Thomas is the all-time leading scorer at State for both men and women with 2,981 career points. She still holds the Lady Bulldog records for field goals made, field goals attempted, field goal percentage, free throws made, free throws attempted, free throw percentage, rebounds and blocked shots.

In addition to her numerous all-America honors, Thomas was named the Senior CLASS Award winner, 2003 Mississippi Amateur Athlete of the Year and 2003 SEC Female Athlete of the Year.

Upon graduation, she became the first athlete from the state of Mississippi to be taken as a top pick in a professional draft, going No. 1 to the Cleveland Rockers in the 2003 WNBA Draft. After spending time with the San Antonio Silver Stars, Thomas went on to play for the Los Angeles Sparks.

WomensCollegeHoops.com Freshman Team (2002)

After a stellar senior season, Tan White became the second Lady Bulldog in school history to be named a WBCA All-American. The 2005 Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award recipient led the nation in scoring for eight weeks with 23.5 points per game. A four-time all-SEC honoree, she was also named to the Associated Press All-America second team for her senior year performance.

Concluding her maroon and white career with 2,421 career points, White became just the second Lady Bulldog to reach the 2,000-point plateau on the way to owning five MSU career categories. The SEC's all-time career steals leader was also a finalist for the State Farm Wade Trophy, Naismith Award, Wooden Award, Senior CLASS Award and a semifinalist for the Collegiate Basketball Award of Excellence.

She finished in the top five nationally in scoring throughout her career. She graduated leading MSU in three-point field goals made, three-point field goals attempted, steals, blocked shots and field goals attempted.

After graduation, White was drafted as the second pick in the 2005 WNBA Draft by the Indiana Fever. She was the second Lady Bulldog to be drafted into the WNBA.

WELCOME TO MISSISSIPPI STATE

THE UNIVERSITY

Mississippi State is a comprehensive doctoral-degree-granting institution offering a diverse student body a wide range of opportunities and challenges for learning and growth.

The largest university in the Magnolia State, MSU has a statewide enrollment of more than 21,000 students, and is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award baccalaureate, masters, specialists and doctorate degrees.

Established in 1878 as the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Mississippi, the university has traditional strengths in engineering and scientific agriculture but has evolved into a comprehensive institution with a diverse array of programs in teaching, research, and service.

The University began as The Agricultural and Mechanical College of the State of Mississippi, one of the national Land-Grant Colleges established after Congress had passed the Morrill Act in 1862. It was created by the Mississippi Legislature on February 28, 1878, to fulfill the mission of offering training in "agriculture, horticulture and the mechanical arts . . . without excluding other scientific and classical studies, including military tactics."

The College received its first students in the fall of 1880 in the presidency of Confederate General Stephen D. Lee. In 1887 Congress passed the Hatch Act, which provided for the establishment of the Agricultural Experiment Station in 1888. Two other pieces of federal legislation provided funds for extending the mission of the College; in 1914, the Smith-Lever Act called for "instruction in practical agriculture and home economics to persons not attendant or resident," thus creating the state-wide effort which led to Extension offices in every county in the State; and, in 1917, the Smith-Hughes Act provided for the training of teachers in vocational education.

By 1932, when the Legislature renamed the College as Mississippi State College, it consisted of the Agricultural Experiment Station (1887), the College of Engineering (1902), the College of Agriculture (1903), the School of Industrial Pedagogy (1909), the School of General Science (1911), the College of Business and Industry (1915), the Mississippi Agricultural Extension Service (1915), and the Division of Continuing Education, (1919). Further, in 1926 the College had received its first accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

By 1958, when the Legislature again renamed the College, as Mississippi State University, the Office of Graduate Studies had been organized (1936), doctoral degree programs had begun (1951), the School of Forest Resources had been established (1954), and the College of Arts and Sciences had been created (1956).

The College of Architecture admitted its first students in 1973. The College of Veterinary Medicine admitted its first class in 1977, and the School of Accountancy was established in 1979.

ACADEMICS AND STUDENT LIFE

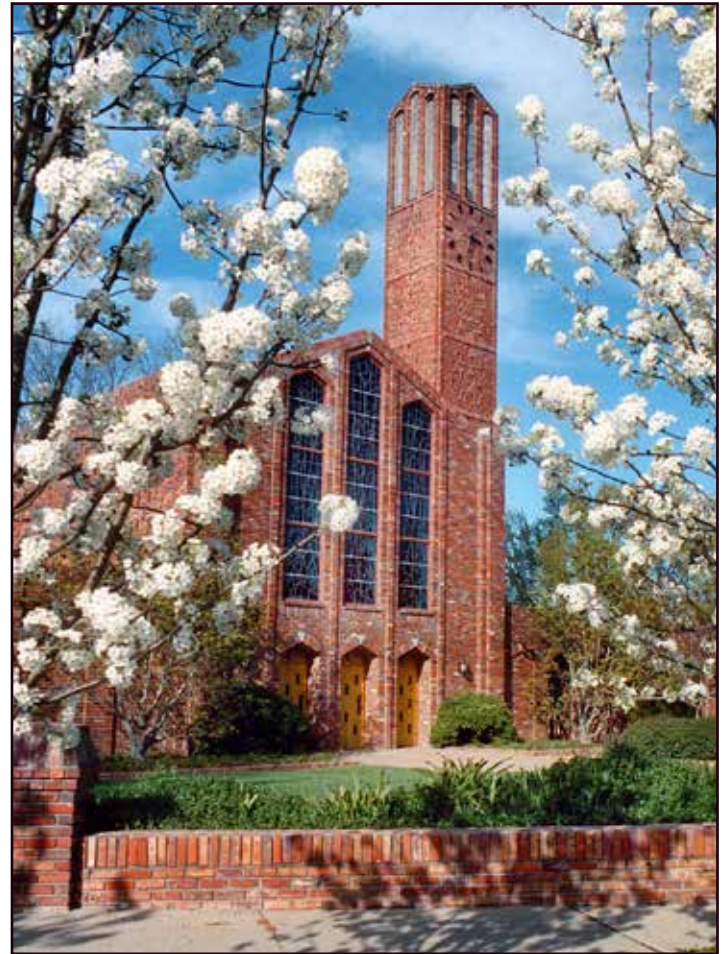

Mississippi State students consistently earn honors such as the prestigious Harry S. Truman Scholarship, awarded for those who will enter public service, and, with 16 Truman Scholars to date, the university has been recognized as one of 38 Truman Honor Institution.

Recently initiated programs are providing opportunities to develop leadership potential and global study options.

The university's Global Leadership Continuum provides "cradle-to-CEO" programming designed to develop leadership across a "global" spectrum that begins with high school and continues through the university experience and into professional

POINTS OF PRIDE AT MSU

- Mississippi State ranks among the top 100 institutions across the country in the number of bachelor's degrees awarded to African-Americans.
- Over the last decade, five MSU professors have been named Mississippi Professor of the Year by the National Council for Advancement and Support of Education and the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.
- As a national leader in engineering, MSU will begin offering the state's only petroleum engineering degree program this fall.
- The Federal Aviation Administration has selected MSU to operate a new National Center of Excellence for Unmanned Aircraft Systems.
- MSU's Maroon Volunteer Center connects nearly 5,000 students, faculty and staff volunteers to 60 community and campus partners, performing more than 14,700 community service hours each year.
- One of the world's leading aerospace companies, Boeing Co., has selected MSU to host its Stitched Resin Infused Composite Research Center.

life. Included are the Young Guns Leadership Camp for rising high school seniors; the Day One Leadership Community for incoming freshmen, focusing on shared academic and service experiences; and the highly competitive Appalachian Leadership Honors Program for sophomores and juniors.

To complement these efforts, the university has launched a minor in leadership studies open to students in all majors. A university honor code adopted in 2007 institutionalizes a campus culture of integrity and personal responsibility in academic studies. Through the Global Leadership Program, students may experience significantly expanded study abroad opportunities.

Mississippi State University's athletic teams are called Bulldogs, a name earned and maintained over the decades by the tough, tenacious play of student-athletes wearing the Maroon and White. The official school mascot is an American Kennel Club registered English Bulldog, given the inherited title of 'Bully'.

As with most universities, Mississippi State University teams answered to different nicknames through the years. The first squads representing Mississippi A&M College were proud to be called Aggies. When the school officially became Mississippi State College in 1932, the nickname Maroons, for MSU's uniform color, gained prominence. Bulldogs became the official title for State teams in 1961, not long after State College was granted university status.

Yet references to school teams and athletes as Bulldogs actually go back to early in the century, and this nickname was used almost interchangeably with both Aggies and Maroons, since at least 1905.

On November 30 of that year, the A&M football team shut out their arch-rivals from the University of Mississippi 11-0 in Jackson, Miss. The campus newspaper, The Reflector, reported: "After the game, filled with that emotion that accompanies every great victory, there was nothing left for the cadets to do but to complete the great victory by showing sympathy for the dead athletic spirit of the University, by having a military funeral parade.

"A coffin was secured, decorated with University colors and a bulldog pup placed on top. It was then placed on the shoulders of a dozen cadets, and the procession started down Capitol Street, preceded by the brass band playing a very pathetic funeral march."

Other newspaper reports of the victory commented on the 'bulldog' style of play by the A&M eleven, and the Bulldog was soon publicly accepted as a school athletic symbol. Accounts of a 1926 pep rally in Meridian, Miss., had another bulldog parading with students.

OFFICIAL MASCOT IN 1935

Use as an official game mascot began in 1935 when coach Major Ralph Sasse, on 'orders' from his team, went to Memphis, Tenn., to select a bulldog. Ptolemy, a gift of the Edgar Webster family, was chosen and the Bulldogs promptly defeated Alabama 20-7.

A litter-mate of Ptolemy became the first mascot called 'Bully' shortly after Sasse's team beat mighty Army 13-7 at West Point that same year - perhaps the greatest victory in MSU football history.

But Bully I earned other fame the hard way, in 1939 when a campus bus cut short his career.

Days of campus mourning followed, as Bully lay in state in a glass coffin. A half-mile funeral procession accompanied by the Famous Maroon Band and three ROTC battalions went to Scott Field where Bully was buried under the bench at the 50-yard line. Even Life magazine covered the event. Other Bullies have since been buried by campus dorms, fraternity houses, and also at the football stadium.

For years Bully was a target for kidnapers, the last incident occurring prior to the 1974 State-Ole Miss game. The Bulldog team won anyway, 31-13. While early Bullies once roamed campus freely or lived in fraternities, today the official university mascot is housed at the School of Veterinary Medicine when not on duty at State home football games. For all their fierce appearance and reputation, today's mascot bulldogs are good-natured, friendly animals and favorites with children.

A student wearing a Bulldog suit, also answering to Bully, is part of the MSU cheerleading team and assists in stirring up State spirit at games and pep rallies.

The most unique and certainly the most resounding symbol of Mississippi State University tradition is the cowbell. Despite decades of attempts by opponents and authorities to banish it from scenes of competition, diehard State fans still celebrate Bulldog victories loudly and proudly with the distinctive sound of ringing cowbells.

The precise origin of the cowbell as a fixture of Mississippi State sports tradition remains unclear to this day. The best records have cowbells gradually introduced to the MSU sports scene in the late 1930s and early 1940s, coinciding with the 'golden age' of Mississippi State football success prior to World War II.

The most popular legend is that during a home football game between State and archrival Ole Miss, a jersey cow wandered onto the playing field. Mississippi State soundly whipped the Rebels that Saturday, and State College students immediately adopted the cow as a good luck charm.

Students are said to have continued bringing a cow to football games for a while, until the practice was eventually discontinued in favor of bringing just the cow's bell.

Whatever the origin, it is certain by the 1950s cowbells were common at MSU games, and by the 1960s were established as the special symbol of MSU. Ironically, the cowbell's popularity grew most rapidly during the long years when State football teams were rarely successful. Flaunting this anachronism from the 'aggie' days was a proud response by students and alumni to outsider scorn of the university's 'cow college' history.

In the 1960s two MSU professors, Earl W. Terrell and Ralph L. Reeves, obliged some students by welding handles on the bells so they could be rung with more convenience and authority. By 1963 the demand for these long-handled cowbells could not be filled by home workshops alone. So, at the suggestion of Reeves, the Student Association bought bells in bulk and the Industrial Education Club agreed to weld on handles. In 1964, the MSU Bookstore began marketing these cowbells with a portion of profits returning to these student organizations.

Today many styles of cowbells are available on campus and around Starkville, with the top-of-the-line being a heavy chrome-plated model with a full Bulldog figurine handle. But experts insist the best and loudest results are produced by a classic long-handled, bicycle-grip bell made of thinner and tightly-welded shells.

Cowbells decorate offices and homes of Mississippi State alumni, and are passed down through generations of Bulldog fans. But they were not heard at Southeastern Conference games - not legally, at least - since the 1974 adoption of a conference rule against 'artificial noisemakers' at football and basketball games. On a 9-1 vote, SEC schools ruled cowbells a disruption and banned them. The ban was lifted prior to the 2010 season.

The ban did little harm to the cowbell's popularity, or to prevent cowbells from being heard outside stadiums in which the Bulldogs are playing. They are now heard at non-conference football contests, as well as other sporting events on campus.

MAROON & WHITE

Maroon and White are the distinctive colors of Mississippi State University athletic teams, dating back over a century to the very first football game ever played by the school's student-athletes.

On November 15, 1895, the first Mississippi A&M football team was preparing for a road trip to Jackson, Tenn., to play Southern Baptist University (now called Union University) the following day. Since every college was supposed to have its own uniform colors, the A&M student body requested that the school's team select a suitable combination.

Considering this choice to be an honor, the inaugural State team gave the privilege to team captain W.M. Matthews. Accounts report that without hesitation Matthews chose Maroon and White.

In the 112 years since, every Mississippi State athlete has donned the Maroon and White in some sort of combination. Often a shade of gray has been added to the scheme, such as for the numerals. Briefly in the 1980s, the men's and women's basketball teams wore all-gray uniforms with maroon and white trim, while football has at times sported silver game pants, and baseball will often wear all gray road outfits.

Only once has an MSU team appeared in any other color combination. In 1938, football coach Spike Nelson secretly had cardinal and gold uniforms made for State, a selection that did not sit well with the team or the college at the first game. Neither the uniforms nor Nelson were back for the next season.

MSU ALMA MATER

*In the heart of Mississippi, Made by none but God's own hands, Stately in her natural splendor, Our Alma Mater proudly stands.
Mississippi State, we love you; Fondest memories cling to thee,
Life shall bear thy spirit ever; Loyal friends we'll always be.*

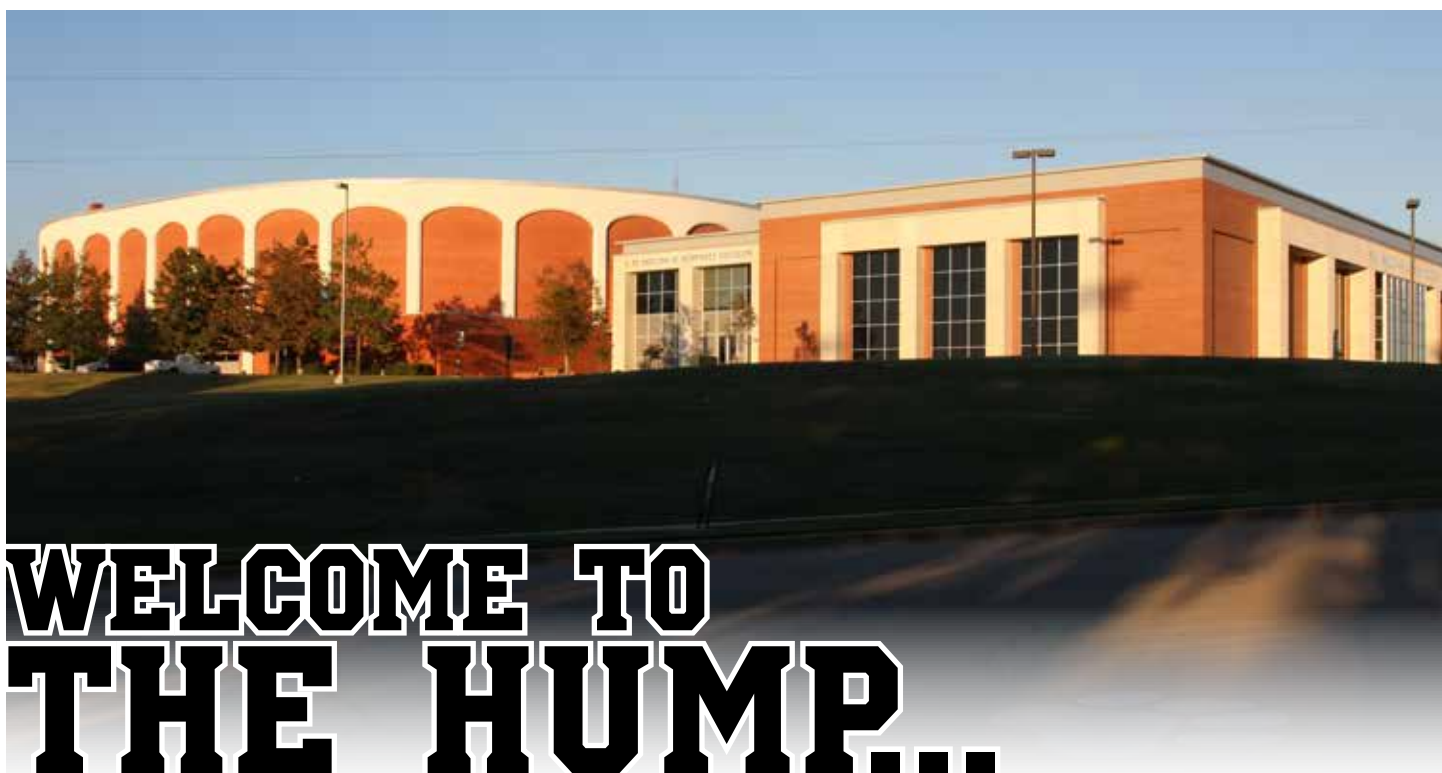

CHORUS:

*Maroon and White! Maroon and White!
Of thee with joy we sing; Thy colors bright,
our souls delight; With praise our voices ring.*

"HAIL STATE"

*Hail dear ole State! Fight for that victory today.
Hit that line and tote that ball, Cross the goal before you fall!
And then we'll yell, yell, yell, yell!
For dear ole State we'll yell like H-E-L-L!
Fight for Mis-sis-sip-pi State.
Win the game today!*

WELCOME TO THE HUMP...

Humphrey Coliseum, the largest on-campus basketball arena in the state of Mississippi, will be the home of Bulldog Basketball for the 41st season during the 2015-16 campaign. Opened in 1975, Humphrey Coliseum has undergone many modifications during recent years to rank as one of the finest multi-purpose facilities in the Southeastern Conference.

The arena has seen numerous renovations over the years, with the most recent being the addition of a new scoreboard that was installed in July.

Mississippi State partnered with Daktronics, Inc., to provide an integrated LED high-definition center-hung video display system that includes four main video displays and two ring displays suspended above the court to keep fans informed and entertained throughout every event. The display is 50 percent larger than the board it replaced.

The four main video displays of the center-hung feature tight 6 millimeter line spacing and measure more than 8 feet high by 15.5 feet wide. The display incorporates excellent contrast for crisp, clear imagery while providing wide angle visibility to ensure every seat has a great view.

The middle ring display measures 2 feet high by more than 66 feet wide. The bottom ring display measures 2 feet high by more than 62 feet wide. Both ring displays feature 10 millimeter line spacing and provide additional statistics and other game information. They also provide options for sponsors to be highlighted throughout the event or at select moments of the event.

The new addition replaced the scoreboard that was added in 2004 thanks to the Henry Mize Foundation and comes one year after the men's and women's basketball teams greatly upgraded their locker rooms.

Complete with kitchens, state-of-the-art lockers with media enhancements, video rooms and team rooms, the renovations were made possible thanks to a generous gift from Tommy and Terri Nusz, loyal Bulldogs in Houston, Texas.

THE MIZE CONTRIBUTIONS

The late Henry Mize hailed from Booneville, Miss., and was a 1938 MSU alumnus and lifetime supporter of Mississippi State Athletics, while his nephew, Paul "Buzzy" Mize of Tupelo, Miss., and a 1978 State graduate, has served as the executor of the Henry Mize Foundation.

Another major renovation project, completed in November 1998 by Pryor Construction, Inc., out of Tupelo, Miss., involved the addition of approximately 1,000 maroon theatre-style chairback seats to increase the Coliseum's permanent seating capacity to nearly 10,500. This improvement to the Bulldogs' basketball arena was accomplished with the realignment of the lower-deck seats plus the addition of permanent foldout chairback seats at courtside.

In addition to the Coliseum's re-configured seating plan that features courtside chair back seats often found at NBA arenas, an improved lighting system was installed to enhance the electric atmosphere at "The Hump." Additional restrooms were also added to the east side of the facility at the time.

The Hump was expanded to its current capacity after it was increased to 10,000 in 1995 with the addition of permanent seats around the Coliseum's inner concourse. During the summer of 1996, the Coliseum underwent major renovations to accommodate the MSU athletic department's growing need for additional locker room availability.

Standing the equivalent of a seven-story building (84 feet), Humphrey Coliseum is 318 feet long and 268 feet wide and was originally constructed from approximately 450,000 red Mississippi-made bricks.

Named in honor of George Duke Humphrey, a former Mississippi State president (1934-45), the Coliseum hosts numerous other functions, including concerts. It also houses some administrative and Olympic sport offices.

THE NEW-LOOK FLOOR

In 2000, Humphrey Coliseum was graced with the arrival of a new hard maple floor, courtesy of the Horner Flooring Company of Dollar Bay, Mich. MSU's basketball playing surface measures 112 feet long and 60 feet wide, and it most recently received a complete overhaul, with the "Mississippi State" wordmark replacing the M-State logo.

A high-directivity distributed loudspeaker system was installed in 2001 by Sound and Communications, Inc., of Jackson, Miss., to enhance the Coliseum's public address and sound reinforcement system.

Also added in recent years has been rotating corporate sponsorship signage at the scorer's table located between Mississippi State's bench area and the visiting team's bench.

The Coliseum has also added new, attractive banners honoring the men's and women's SEC championships and postseason tournament appearances, as well as banners acknowledging the achievements of Bailey Howell, Babe McCarthy and the legendary voice of the Bulldogs, Jack Cristil.

Since Humphrey Coliseum opened in December of 1975, the Bulldogs have won nearly 65% of their battles at "The Hump." The Bulldog women claimed their first win in the Hump in 1975, knocking off Belhaven 63-59. Since then, the program has compiled a 354-191 record (.648) on the home court, including a program-best 17-1 mark in 2014-15.

Mississippi State has registered winning home seasons eight of the last nine campaigns, compiling a 105-46 mark (.695) in that span. The Bulldogs have tallied a 76.4% winning percentage (55-17) the last four seasons.

Following the 2014-15 record mark, Mississippi State has posted 30 winning seasons at home. In three seasons under Vic Schaefer, the Bulldogs have won 80.4% of their games at Humphrey Coliseum, a 45-11 mark.

MISSISSIPPI STATE HOME ATTENDANCE THE LAST 10 SEASONS

MORE RECORDS SHATTERED

The 2014-15 squad's 17-1 home mark broke the previous best of 16-5 set a year earlier during the team's run to the WNIT quarterfinals.

But it wasn't just wins on the court where Mississippi State enjoyed unprecedented success. The Bulldogs also saw record numbers of fans file into the Hump.

State set a single-season attendance record for the second-straight year as 67,598 attending the 18 contests at the Hump. That mark shattered the previous high of 48,733 fans set over 21 dates in the 2013-14 campaign.

In 2014-15, Mississippi State claimed nine of the program's Top 20 attendance marks, including a school-record 7,326 for the regular-season finale against Ole Miss that was the most to ever watch a women's college basketball game in the state of Mississippi.

Since the 2000-01 campaign, 362,816 fans have watched Mississippi State at the Hump, an average of 1,550 per contest. Of that total, 138,715 has come over 56 games in Schaefer's three seasons as head coach, an average of 2,477 fans per contest.

Mississippi State wrapped the 2014-15 home slate with a 55-47 win against rival Ole Miss in front of a school-record crowd of 7,326. That mark was also the largest ever to watch a women's college basketball game in the state of Mississippi.

With eight national championships, 10 runner-up finishes, a nation-leading 35 Final Four appearances and 114 first-team All-America honors, the Southeastern Conference stands firmly as the nation's premier intercollegiate women's basketball conference.

SEC BY THE NUMBERS

- Since the 1990 season, the SEC has compiled a 3630-1078 (.771) record against other conferences. The league has recorded 150+ wins during 11 seasons and has never recorded a non-conference winning percentage below .723.
- SEC teams have earned appearances in 26 of 34 NCAA Final Fours, an accomplishment unmatched by any other league. The next closest is the Big East with 22 and the ACC with 18.
- SEC teams have won 383 NCAA Tournament games against 202 losses (.655) for an average of 11.2 NCAA wins per year.
- In addition, all 14 current members have appeared in the NCAA Tournament.
- The SEC has led or shared the pack in NCAA tournament bids 23 times in its 34-year history.
- Until 2004, the SEC was the only conference to ever have eight teams receive NCAA bids. The league has achieved this feat four times, in 1999, 2002, 2012 & 2014.

- The SEC was also the first league to ever have seven teams invited to the NCAA Tournament and earned this honor a leading 10 times (1986, 1991, 1995, 1996, 1997, 2003, 2004, 2009, 2013 & 2014).
- The SEC is one of a handful of leagues to have won three national tournament titles with eight NCAA, two WNIT and four NWIT.
- The SEC has had 62 student-athletes named as a First-Team All-America selection. Those 62 have been named a total of 89 times since the 1982-83 season (first year of SEC sponsorship).
- SEC teams have provided 146 All-Region performers, including 30 Most Outstanding Players.
- Nine NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship winners and 30 Academic All-Americans hail from the SEC.

SEC IN THE WNBA

- The Southeastern Conference had 18 former SEC student-athletes make 2015 WNBA opening day rosters.
- Overall, the SEC has had 136 former players go on to play in the league.
- In this year's WNBA draft, a total of four SEC women's basketball players were taken.
- Since the inaugural WNBA draft in 1997, the SEC has had 136 former players drafted for the professional league, including five No. 1 picks. Mississippi State's LaToya Thomas was the top overall pick in 2003.

DOMINANCE IN THE POLLS

- Since the SEC began to sponsor women's basketball in 1982, it has failed only three times to place at least four members in each of the final polls (the USA Today/ESPN poll began in 1986).
- Last season, the SEC had five in the final Associated Press poll and four in the final USA Today/WBCA poll.
- In terms of rankings, the SEC has the richest history of any conference in the nation, boasting more poll appearances than any other.
- Since the 1982 season, SEC teams have been ranked 595 consecutive weeks in the AP poll.
- Since, 1982, league teams have been ranked in the AP poll 3,056 times, including 1,614 Top 10 appearances and 797 Top 5 appearances.
- Overall, the league teams have been ranked 689 consecutive weeks, with teams ranked a total of 3,331 times. The SEC has 1,628 Top 10 appearances and 799 Top Five appearances overall.
- SEC teams can also boast of 148 No. 1 rankings in the AP Poll.
- The league has had the top three teams in the AP Poll twice. In week three in 2005 and in week eight in 1989.
- A nation-leading eight SEC teams were ranked at one point in the AP and CNN/USA Today Top 25 polls during the 1995-96 season. The league mirrored that feat during the 1996-97 season.

SEC NETWORK

On August 14, 2014, SEC Network launched in 62 million homes nationwide. On that day, SEC Network became the most successful new channel launch in cable history and it hasn't stopped going since. Currently boasting 70 million subscribers, the network produced 1,500 events surrounded by 1,400 hours of original programming in its debut year.

Prior to launch, SEC Network committed to airing a total of 1,000 events annually—comprised of both television and school-produced digital events. By April, the multiplatform network had reached 1,000 digital events alone, doubling the expectations for SEC Network +.

The network utilizes over 23,000 feet of fiber—nearly the circumference of the world—to connect the schools to SEC Network headquarters in Charlotte, N.C. Each school has committed to producing 40 live SEC Network + events annually and on average, produced 70 in their inaugural year.

COACH & PLAYER INTERVIEWS

ALL interviews with head women's basketball coach Vic Schaefer and student-athletes should be directed through the MSU Athletic Media Relations office. Please contact Brock Turnipseed at 662.325.7556. There will be a weekly on-campus interview opportunity during the season.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for media credentials for Mississippi State's home basketball games must be made by emailing Brock Turnipseed (bturnipseed@athletics.msstate.edu) in the MSU Media Relations office. Priority for the issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers, radio stations and television stations which cover MSU or it's gameday opponent on a regular basis. Other credential requests will be filled on a space-available basis.

MEDIA WORK ROOM

The media work room is located in the President's Reception Room located on the Humphrey Coliseum concourse adjacent to the Mize Pavilion lobby. Media may enter through the President's Room exterior entrance located on the west side of Humphrey Coliseum.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking is open anywhere in the vicinity of Humphrey Coliseum. Media may park in the lot on the west side of the arena and access the media work room through the President's Reception Room exterior entrance.

RADIO BROADCAST INFORMATION

Business phone lines and ISDN phone lines are available for radio broadcast on press row. Please inform Turnipseed of your broadcasting needs prior to gameday. Radio personnel should contact Don Williams at 662.325.4171 for additional information.

MSU SATELLITE SERVICES

Postgame highlight feeds, including game highlights and post game interviews, will be available following each contest. For more information, please contact Bennie Ashford (662.325.1332).

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHERS

MSU follows the guidelines established by the NCAA Communications Committee and the SEC regarding sideline control to insure the sideline is a working media area. The following guidelines are adhered to: 1) Each photographer is required to wear a media credential at all times; 2) Photographers must stay behind the white dotted lines on each baseline; 3) Outline writers, messengers and equipment carriers are not permitted in the photographer's area. Photo assistants or others holding a "sideline" pass must remain out of the photo area immediately adjacent to the playing court. This will insure that photographers/videographers have the appropriate working area; 4) Tripods are not permitted in photographer's area. Monopods are permissible; 5) The areas behind the team benches are considered bench areas and are to be used only for the passage between the court ends. This area may not be used as a photo zone.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Mississippi State's locker room is closed to media at all times. Following a 10-minute cooling off period after each game, head coach Vic Schaefer and requested players will be available in the Babe McCarthy Media Room.
