Ole Miss vs. Mississippi State

Opening Statement...

“I sound like a broken record. The first half we start off 0-6 from the foul line with 13 turnovers. We still had a two-point lead because we played hard defensively. We did a great job holding them to 24 percent from the field. I thought [Weatherspoon] was really good on Terence Davis. A guy who killed us tonight was Tyree. He was penetrating on us. There were a couple times right here in front of our bench he killed us. He may have even dunked it. I’m not really sure what happened with that. He was really the key guy tonight, other than Saiz. You expect that from Saiz. He’s an all-league player. The freshman point guard from New Jersey was also terrific. I thought [Ready] and Q played tremendous amounts of minutes. I thought they really battled. Off the bench, I thought Stapleton really gave us a lift. He did a great job for us. Lamar had a sub-par game. He was 1-8 from the field. He had something happen with his hand. His finger was crooked. I thought he broke his finger. That was something just straining with his hand. I don’t know what the heck it was. To come back and put it in overtime then blitz like that was really unfortunate for us. We had fought so hard to get ourselves back in the game.”

On the team’s 18 offensive rebounds...

“I thought we did a good job going to the glass. I thought the guy who is our best offensive rebounder was Stapleton. His were big. Xay did a great job going in and fighting for second and third shot opportunities. Schnider had three. He has to do more for us on the defensive side of the glass. We blocked some shots tonight. Schnider had one, Q had one. Tyson Carter gave us good minutes off the bench tonight. We had some positives; it is just unfortunate to lose to your rival like that. We had a game where we got hurt in transition. It really killed us when we had turnovers. We didn’t have as many in the second half as we did the first. We had a couple bad plays offensively and boom, they go up by seven.”

On not shooting the three-pointer well...

“I think Q passed up some tonight that he normally takes. Mario’s one late in regulation, was guarded, and there just needed to be one extra pass. Lamar had that step back. That is not a high percentage play. He can make those. He has made them before, but the last couple games he hasn’t made them because they just were not smart shots for the team.”

HEAD COACH ANDY KENNEDY QUOTES

Ole Miss vs. Mississippi State

On the difference in defense from last matchup with MSU to this matchup...

“The first game I felt like we had way more rhythm; we didn’t turn the ball over as much. I thought we were much more disruptive. I.J. Ready is a key part to their team. He played 40 minutes tonight, and when he was not in the game, they needed him to provide some senior leadership.”

On guard Rasheed Brooks’ absence...

“We had a setback last night, and more tests needs to be run before he rejoins us. Please keep him in your thoughts and prayers.”

On the loss to Arkansas...

“We were devastated; we did not play well. Typically when you don’t play well on the road, you lose. Tonight I thought we played really hard, and we showed some resilience. We did not play well offensively, but I think we played hard and pulled off a huge win ”

MISSISSIPPI STATE PLAYER QUOTES

Ole Miss vs. Mississippi State

G – I.J. Ready – Sr.

On his shot that lead to overtime...

“We tried getting the win by any means. I think we should’ve been more aggressive attacking their zone like we did towards the end and been more conservative. We got to the basket and the foul line a few times that I think opened up jump shots for our shooters.”

On keeping the team motivated...

“I do it with the same mindset that we been having every day. Mario and the young guys have been doing a great job of competing and not giving up. I just want to be there for them and pick up any of the slack that I can whenever I need to, but we all still have our heads up. The season is not over. We hit a little downfall but I think that with the three games that we have left in the conference, we can still make a run at it.”

On reason behind team’s losses...

“I believe that I am not bringing enough to the table every night. I bring leadership and that’s what I am supposed to do, but I think I have to bring more when it comes to helping with rebounds, scoring and just being that leader for my team. I don’t think that I am doing enough right now for the team.”

G – Mario Kegler– Fr.

On team’s game performance...

“We just tried to come out and compete to get the win, so everybody came out ready to play.”

On coming up on the short end of a game...

“It’s been tough. We been on this losing streak for a minute now. We have been fighting and competing with everybody and just coming up short. We just can’t get over that hill yet.”

Ole Miss vs. Mississippi State

G – Breein Tyree – Fr.

On keeping composure in the overtime period...

“I was making shots; and when we went on the run, we just kept it.”

On how the momentum shifted in the end of regulation and into overtime...

“Coming back and IJ Ready making the layup in the end gave them a little momentum, but going into overtime, this was a big game. We took off and that’s how we ended it.”

On his dunk over MSU forward Aric Holman...

“I haven’t caught a body in a while after my ACL injury. I was feeling really bouncy in the warmups, and I told my team I was getting one today. I saw an opportunity to get one.”
