HEAD COACH Ben Howland

Mississippi State vs. Missouri

On playing with a sense of urgency...

“They sure did, and I’m very excited on how they defended the three-point line. They shot 38 percent from three, so I thought we did a nice job getting out to them--even when we were doubling the post. They did a good job with those double teams tonight, and that made it so their big guys were not as effective down low. I thought (Q) Weatherspoon had a tremendous night at both ends of the floor. Barnett (Jordan) ended up with the lowest game in a long time. (Lamar) Peters, offensively, was the best he’s ever played tonight. He had nine assists, so that’s a point guard. He’s playing really smart, and two of his three turnovers were the offensive fouls. He’s making good decisions with the ball, and I’m excited about that. (Abdul) Ado got off to a shaky start, offensively, but found a way to bounce back and give us 32 minutes. He was effective inside.”

On rotations out of the double team...

“I thought they were great. They did a better job at taking on the dive. Everyone does it different ways, and it’s something that’s tough for guys. Ado comes very aggressively, and he’s very good at coming hard. (Xavian) Stapleton and (E.J.) Datcher both did a great job at coming hard and being aggressive with it. I was very happy for our team--we needed this win. It reinforces what we’re doing, and we’re getting better. 53 shots and 29 makes, there’s really nothing to complain about in that area. I thought Q had some very nice passes. In our starting backcourt, between the three of them, they had all of the assists. 17 assists on five turnovers is a great ratio. I thought (Tyson) Carter played well tonight and (Eli) Wright gave us good minutes. Defensively, we’re so good with that group in there. I’m pleased, getting tomorrow off, that they can get off of their legs and regroup.”

On shot selection...

“I like the way Carter played tonight--he was more aggressive getting to the basket. He can make plays and he has point guard skills. He’s not just a three-point shooter, and I thought he did some very nice things for us tonight. I’m happy for him because this gives him some good confidence. He’s a great three-point shooter, but I’m looking for him to read the defense and play where they’re giving him. If they’re playing him only as a three-point shooter, then you have to be more aggressive to drive. He’s very good, offensively, at reading the plays once he has the dribble.”

Mizzou vs. Mississippi State

So. G Lamar Peters

On how big this game was...

"We really needed this game. I just wanted to make a difference. For us to have a good season, we really needed to start scoring the ball. I have to affect the game in different ways. I need to find different ways like distributing and playing defense."

On comparing the season to last year...

"We are way better than last year. I am sure we will win more than 16 games. We just have to keep working hard and keep playing well as a team. It is all going to fall into place."

Jr. F Aric Holman

On going to the half on a five point run...

"That is the whole point of the game for the 3, 4 and 5s. To crash the boards. God helped me with that touch."

On the final play before the half...

"He was fake guarding me. He knew I was going to the glass. I ran past him and luckily the ball came straight to me."

HEAD COACH COUNZO MARTIN QUOTES

January 26, 2018

MISSOURI VS MISSISSIPPI STATE

On when did he sense lapses in the defensive focus...

“Somewhere during the second half we were in a high ball screen action. We didn’t do a good job stopping that.”

On Jeremiah (Tilmon) being timid on offense trying not to foul...

“I thought it was more so on defense with some of his ball screen action. He was letting the guy go because he didn’t want to foul. It was a lot of break down. I thought some of that started in the first half because he didn’t want to foul. He can’t play that way and I thought some of that carried over into the second half.”

On Cullen (Vanleer) performance...

“I thought he did good. He practices hard, he competes, he makes shots in practice; I thought he did a good job. He handles the ball and he understands the game so that really helps as far as facilitating the offense.”

On Jordan (Barnett) performance...

“I thought he had good looks in the first half. The threes just didn’t fall, but I thought he had some good looks and did a good job. The guys did a good job penetrating, but it just didn’t go.

MISSOURI PLAYER QUOTES

Missouri vs. Mississippi State

G – Kassius Robertson – So.

On the start of the second half...

“You’ve got to try to win in the first two, three or four minutes of the half, and some momentum that came from that 5-0 run at the last second, and we did not do a good job of stopping that.”

On Jeremiah (Tilmon’s) performance...

“He did a great job not fouling, but I think he’s one of the guys in this league that could potentially be un-guardable. Obviously, we are going to keep working with him, and he is bound to get better as well. We have got to realize that there’s not that many people who can guard down there that strong. He has got to take his time a little bit down there in the post and finish baskets. He had six baskets tonight, five rebounds, we would like for the rebounds to be up a little more, but overall I think he played a great game.”

G – Cullen VanLeer– So.

On the start of the second half...

“The first four minutes of the second half were crucial and with that 5-0 run, we tried to stop it.”

On lapses in the defensive focus...

“Definitely, better than the last game, but still we have got to avoid those four man spreads and have a few defensive men down there. We have got to make sure we understand each player’s strengths and weaknesses so we can be better on defense if we can. We have to make sure we take what we hear during timeout into play, which sometimes we have a little trouble doing. A lot of times we didn’t get a chance to play defense from turning the ball over, five turnovers that turn into backdoors and easy layups.”
