HEAD COACH BEN HOWLAND February 3, 2018

Georgia vs. Mississippi State

Opening statement...

"Defensively we had three or four steals that lead to baskets, not just steals. They were steals that take you to get layups. I thought he was tremendous today. You can see his confidence is growing. If you would have told me they would have nine rebounds and we would have 22 at the half or that and that Yante Maten would have two points, yeah I would have bet the house against that. It was an incredible job by our team. They were 7-21 from the field. We did a phenomenal job on defense tonight and attacking the basket. Nick Weatherspoon was great. He was very efficient, 7-9. He does an outstanding job. (Quinndary Weatherspoon) has another very efficient game. Aric (Holman) was great in the second half tonight. He was a little excited with three long three balls at the beginning. Abdul (Ado) has just been very consistent. He is so big and so strong, he doesn't give up any ground. Our double team in the first half was the best it has been in all my three years here. It wasn't nearly as good early in the second half. I am really happy for our team and our fans. It was a great crowd tonight. Awesome environment here in the Hump."

On the game plan...

"On Maten's first possession we didn't double him, knowing they would expect it. Then we went right to it. We were really good on the perimeter in terms of knowing our stuff. Our guys were here at 9:30 at night in the Mize reviewing their offense. We did it during walk-through after we got back from South Carolina, twice on Friday. We have transitioned to offense. This is the third game we have scored 50% or better from the field. Really pleased that our offense has started to catch up with our defense. We are making our foul shots."

On driving the ball ...

"We would have a lot of movement in that rover offense. They are running a matchup zone. It is just a whole lot of hard work. I thought Aric did a great job against the zone today. He played a season high minutes today because (Xavian Stapleton) got in foul trouble. That's going to happen sometime because (Stapleton) gives up size as an undersized four player. He did an incredible job against South Carolina. Everyone did a great job for us tonight. I am really happy for all those kids."

HEAD COACH MARK FOX February 3, 2018 Georgia vs. Mississippi State

Opening Statement...

"Our team has been a good defensive and rebounding team this season. Tonight, we were not that, and we didn't force enough misses. And when we did, we didn't get the rebound. So I'm very disappointed in our play in the trenches and my compliments to their team, who I thought played really solid."

On if Lamar Peters' 20-point game surprised his team...

"I think that the only surprise that we had was that our defense, which has been very good, was as ineffective as it was, we had great respect for their quickness and speed, so we weren't surprised that he did that, we just didn't stop it."

On how MSU has changed the last time Georgia faced them...

"Obviously, they're a year older. The two guards together complement each other well. I think their big guys are more physical and they just have matured, and Ben's done a good job with his team."

MISSISSIPPI STATE PLAYER QUOTES February 3, 2018

Mississippi State vs. Georgia

G - Lamar Peters - So.

On mood heading into this game...

"We were focused--we prepare for these games very hard. Everybody was locked in, and I think we had good preparation heading into this game. Everybody was working hard in practice, and it resulted in a team W."

On recent improvements...

"I wanted to help my teammates. I didn't feel like I was bringing much to the table. In the close games we lost, I felt like if I would have brought more we could have won. I want to help these guys because they play so hard. They're getting the job done, so I just want to help them and be a good teammate to help our team win."

G - Nick Weatherspoon - Fr.

On relationship with Lamar Peters...

"He's the only one closer to me than (Q) Weatherspoon. We are two guards and we need to know a lot of the same things. With him being older than me, he's taught me a lot of things. That's how we get so close on the court and off the court."

On team improvements...

"I would say our defense is something that's getting a lot better. We're talking a lot more on defense. It was a mind thing, and we just got tired of losing. We just try to play hard and defend on the court, because coach will press us off the court. We're playing hard, but we need to play harder."

F - Aric Holman - Jr.

On winning at home...

"It's a great feeling, and a big thing that helps us is the crowd. Like today, we had a pretty big crowd, which affects the game. We feed off of that."

On what's different about this team...

"I would say we all have the same common goal. There's nobody out there, if I look to my right or left, that isn't on the same page as me. Togetherness is what's helping us build this type of program."
