Mississippi State Men's Basketball

On bringing intensity to Ole Miss...

“They were phenomenal getting ready for this game. They brought intensity and focus, and it really showed tonight from the get-go. I was happy about the defense in the first half, which caused them to shoot 27 percent. We really exerted our toughness and quickness in how we defended them. I’m happy with how we shot the ball—we’re taking better shots from the three. That was really exciting to see, and that’s what I expect from us the rest of the way. We shot 56 percent from the field overall, Quindary (Weatherspoon) had a double-double with two assists and great defense. His defense on Davis made him 0-7 in the first half. He did a phenomenal job. I thought Lamar (Peters) was good today at distributing the ball and playing defense. I thought Nick (Weatherspoon) was tremendous today, and we need to keep these guys out of foul trouble. Tyson gave us great minutes and was knocking down shots right and left. Xavian (Stapleton) gave us great minutes, and Abdul (Ado) needs to keep his cool. He got very upset at the officials twice in the second half. Great crowd tonight—a great atmosphere for our fans to come out and see a good game by their team. Everyone is sticking around to watch our women take home the first ever SEC championship in a women’s sport at Mississippi State. That’s very special. It’s going to be so fun, and I’m looking forward to being here at four o’clock.”

On attack of the one-three-one zone...

“First of all, we didn’t spend any time on our man-to-man offense yesterday. Today, we went live for an hour. Not everyone does that on the day of the game, but I thought it really helped us. It’s been helping us, and we were ready. I’m really happy for our team to have beaten our in-state rivals. Andy Kennedy has done a great job in his 12-year tenure at Ole Miss.”

On the ceiling for Nick Weatherspoon...

“I think he has a big-time ceiling. He went 7-7 tonight, with 15 points and that’s what’s amazing to me about him—he never turns it over.”

On Nick Weatherspoon’s shot...

“What were working on is his range, in terms of his three-point shot. He has a lot of extra motion. This upcoming offseason will be dedicated to getting less motion in his shot. He is so coachable, which is so fun for me as a coach. He does exactly what you ask him to—he is such a joy to coach. He is fun in that way. I know both of those boy’s parents are very proud of them tonight, after their games on both ends of the court. I thought our guard play was spectacular, both offensively and defensively. My only concern right now, is Aric (Holman’s) knee. He landed awkwardly on one knee, but it was the other knee he actually hurt.”

Ole Miss vs. Mississippi State

On staying “sane” when games keep going like they did tonight...

“It’s difficult to watch, especially when you know how hard it was to build. I tell the team a lot, that college sports are like climbing a mountain. You have to hold on tight every little step up, and the minute you let go, you plunge down to the bottom. For whatever reason, we can’t seem to hold on. It is very frustrating to watch for me, because I know how hard it was to build up.”

On Breein Tyree and other hitting shots early in the second half...

“We have really struggled shooting the ball all year, we are in the bottom of the SEC as it relates to efficiency. We don’t have a guard shooting over 50%, so it is challenging to create an offensive scheme. I just try to tell them to go play. You have worked your entire life for this chance, go out there and play as hard as you can.”

On the rivalry and MSU’s overall play...

“This is my twelfth time here. I thought the crowd was good tonight and Ben (Howland) has MSU playing really well. They have won four of their last six, and the two they lost, they should have won. The one thing that they have not been doing throughout the course of the season is shooting the three well. Tonight, they shot it excellent. They defended well, and (Abdual) Ado defended the paint great. They haven’t had an inside defender like him since Jarvis Varnardo, I remember him very well. He is the best this league’s ever seen. They are just getting better all around.”

MISSISSIPPI STATE PLAYER QUOTES

February 17, 2018

Ole Miss vs Mississippi State

G- Q Weatherspoon- Jr.

On how big of an emphasis was put on this game...

"I think it was a great win for us as a team, but as a rival, I think it was good for us to break the four-game losing streak we had with those guys. It is just exciting to get that win to get back over that hump against Ole Miss and hopefully when we play them again, we can start our own winning streak."

On how important it is to win the next set of games...

"We look at it as a must win, but we are just taking it game by game. We are not looking past the next game we have trying to see. Like we have South Carolina, but we have Texas A&M before them, so we are going to take it game by game. We are going to try to go win."

On trying to be aggressive when shooting or just going with the flow...

"I was just going through the offense. I got great looks and my teammates got me some good shots, so I was able to knock a couple of those down and get in a rhythm. I was just trying to let the game come to me."

G- Tyson Carter- So.

On why he thinks they were able to bounce back the way they did after a two-game losing streak...

"We knew today was kind of a must win game for us and we knew we had to put together 40 minutes of good defense because our defense was kind of slacking our last two games."

On what he knew about the rivalry with his dad being a former player...

"I knew that there was a lot of hate in the rivalry in all sports growing up watching it. I knew it was a big deal if we lost to those guys, so I knew we wanted to beat them every time we play them."

G- Xavian Stapleton- Jr.

On the differences going on with them or are the shots just falling...

"Guys have been getting up more shots. Coach puts an emphasis on us getting up more shots lately so maybe that's it or maybe it is just the flow of the game. It is late in the year. We haven't been making shots early and maybe it is just our time to be making shots. I really don't know, but I am glad we are making shots."

On going on the road to play Texas A&M...

"This is a big game. They are kind of high in the RPI and it is a road game. This is big for us because it will boost our resume and it will be a big game for us to win on the road which is something we need since we lost two on the road. It will be big for us to get that win and get our confidence back up."

Ole Miss vs. Mississippi State

G – Breein Tyree – So.

On the fast shot making in the beginning of the game...

“Credit to Mississippi State, they made a bunch of shots. They put pressure on us to make the same amount of shots. When we started missing shots it affected us on the defensive end. So, in the second half, with myself, I tried to come out and be aggressive offensively before they did. So I did, and it worked out for us a little bit, but we still lost. We have to get back in the gym.”

On stopping the slide...

“Just getting the win, that’s the only way we stop it. It’s hard to win in the SEC. There’s a lot of good teams. We have to play harder, and make shots.”

On how Mississippi state looks different than when at home...

“I saw a lot more passion and togetherness in the Mississippi State team. Last time they played us at home, they were arguing with each other a lot. Tonight they played together, and they were moving the ball. They got win, and credit to them.”
