HEAD COACH Ben Howland

February 24, 2018

Mississippi State vs. South Carolina

On tonight's win...

"The key was to stay tough. They were really tough and we saw how they could have Auburn down 26, a week ago at home. It's so hard to prepare for that, they were overplaying everything. We should have had some more back-cut plays, but we finally battled them in our defense to keep us close enough. When a good player makes a three, he's going to go make another three. (Tyson) Carter made a big shot to cut it to seven at the half. The hero of the game was (Eli) Wright. I thought when Wright came in he really inspired our team. He had three and-ones in transition, he was solid defensively and did a nice job today. When he was in there we made the change and got rolling. There's no question in the coach's mind that he is the player of the game. They out boarded us, and our lack of blocking out hurt us. I thought our defense was great, forcing 21 turnovers tonight. As good as (Hassani) Gravett was at shooting the ball, he still had eight turnovers. To finish the game in regulation, we don't want a layup. We want them to foul us, then run out as much clock as we can. We tried to foul in the last five seconds, but apparently didn't foul hard enough to get the call. These are plays we need to learn from."

On trying to foul in the last moments...

"Yes, we talked about it. I was never one to believe that early in my career. The NBA has done all the analytics. We want to foul and trust that we will block out on the second free throw. When you're four-against-two, you should be able to accomplish that. Although, I'm thrilled for our team. What a great win and atmosphere--our crowd was awesome today. I can't thank them enough for being so loud and supportive. That adrenaline pump comes from our crowd."

On Gravett...

"We wanted to take it at him and their point guards in general. Their biggest issue, when we played them there, was the point. They are a lot better with him, but our crowd made it a tough environment for them. I thought we did a good job on Silva, getting him into foul trouble. You need to credit them. South Carolina is really good--you don't want to play them in the SEC tournament. They are a team that could win three or four games. They play a lot of guys and are so tough. It's hard to prepare for the type of defense they play. I'm excited for our team--we will enjoy it for a couple hours, then start getting ready for Tennessee. This is a quick turnaround to Tuesday at 6 p.m. I hope everyone comes out for this last home game in The Hump for our men's basketball program this year. We know the women will get two more, with the first and second rounds of the NCAA tournament, so this will be our last opportunity to play at home. We've been so excited about being so successful and establishing a home court tradition of winning. We need everyone there. 6 p.m. should help people from Jackson and Tupelo get here. We will do everything in our power to get people here."

HEAD COACH Frank Martin

South Carolina vs. Mississippi State

Opening Statement...

“Really happy for Ben and his kids. I know how hard they have worked over the past three years. The fans of Mississippi State, every year I have come here, they have been incredible. Disappointed in our inability not to play offensive in the second half, and that’s been our downfall the whole year. Turnovers and inability to consistently play well offensively.”

On the changes in the second half...

“Our inability to pass the ball to us and them instead. Our inability to come up with loose balls, they beat us to everyone. I don’t know how many turnovers we had, they had thirteen steals. There’s your answer. Twenty one turnovers, thirteen are steals, and now they’re playing downhill at you. It’s been our downfall all year. Our inability to be consistently good on offense.”

On guards from Mississippi State getting loose...

“It makes no sense. I don’t care how many games they play, that’s why fans love freshman and coaches like old guys. We had freshman just make back to back mistakes on just discipline plays. Even with all that said, it’s a two point game and Chris (Silva) doesn’t execute the last two possessions. We had the last two possessions and he doesn’t execute either time. Not only the one he can’t catch the ball and make a lay-up, but then the last play I don’t know what he did. He just didn’t do what we asked him to do. We called a timeout, and he didn’t execute.”

On what’s different with this year’s Mississippi State team compared to them earlier in the year...

“They’re old. These kids have been together for three years now. (Lamar) Peters is a year older. Nick Weatherspoon gives them a dynamic aspect. We did a pretty good job on him today, and he gets loose and shoots an off the dribble bomb to give them the first lead. The biggest difference on their team is (Abdul) Ado, because he can score at the rim. In the past their bigs screen, rebound, and defend but they didn’t score at the rim. Now they’ve got all that fire power from the guards spot, and they’ve got a bonafide scorer inside. They’re old. Q’s been around for three years. He’s a winner. Peters is a competitive kid, and he’s older now. The question about the mistakes my freshman made, they’re all mistakes he made last year. He’s not making those this year. (Nick) Stapleton’s an athletic kid. Eli Wright is a year older, he’s aggressive and an athlete. The young man, number 23 (Tyson Carter), every time he sees us, it’s like he absolutely loves our uniform because he never misses against us. That’s the biggest difference, this league is old right now. Teams like Mississippi State that were young two years ago, now they’re getting old. They know how to win these games, and when you win these close games your record looks a lot better than when you don’t win.”

MISSISSIPPI STATE PLAYER QUOTES

February 24, 2018

South Carolina vs. Mississippi State

G – Lamar Peters – So.

On the intensity in the second half...

“South Carolina was the more physical team, hands down, anybody can see that. We just wanted to go into halftime picking our heads up. Tyson hit a big shot to cut the lead to seven. Before that, the big guy missed a three so it could have been 13. We just wanted to capitalize on everything we could and everybody was on the same page. We didn’t want to lose when we are trying to make this run for the tournament, so everyone was on the same page and locked in.”

On it being his job to distribute the ball...

“Yeah, that has always been my first look to see if it is those guys night, to see if it is Q’s night, Tyson’s night, anybody’s night. I am always the second or third option. If I feel like I can make a shot, I feel like I know whose shooting then I will take a shot. Most of the time I am looking to see if those guys have been facilitating.”

On how much the tournament is on their mind and driving them...

“It is in the back of our mind all day. It has been in the back of our mind for two weeks now. Two weeks straight we have been focused on making the tournament. We lost two tough loses back-to-back, but we just wanted to stay in their and keep fighting. We still have a chance to go, but with the SEC being so good everybody is taking loses, everybody is winning. It is up for grabs and we just have to win out, go to the SEC tournament and give a good push to make that run.”

G – Eli Wright– So.

On what he was seeing defensively from South Carolina...

“I was seeing that they were kind of a little tired. I knew I could run the floor, so I wanted to run the floor and get passes to Lamar (Peters).”

On the depth of the team...

“Oh yeah, we have a lot of depth. Everyone can score in a variety of ways and I feel like that is what helps our team a lot. We have a deep bench. It can be anyone’s night any night.”

SOUTH CAROLINA PLAYER QUOTES

Missouri vs. Mississippi State

G– Hassani Gravett– RJr.

On finding shots late in the game...

“We were running thick and roll, and they kept hard heading so I would hit the switch board and then do a back dunk. You know I would take it if I had a open shot.”

On the last shot of regulation...

“The guys guarding me kind of tripped up when we were guarding the ball. I think it was Q (Quinnndary) Weatherspoon, he didn’t know if he should take me or Justin (Minaya). I did an in and out and crossed over to see whether or not I should take it to the corner and take the shot myself, and he bit on it and had an open shot.”

On thinking about the last shot of regulation the whole way through...

“Kind of, I was looking for it because I had it going again, I am never selfish and if there is an open guy definitely give them the ball.”
