HEAD COACH BEN HOWLAND
November 2, 2017
West Florida vs. Mississippi State

Opening Statement...

“In the first ten minutes we were too stretched out, in other words, we were not compact enough. Our rule for that team tonight was that they don’t get to go any further than one step past the three-point line. We kept getting stretched. That openness makes so much more space for them.”

On Nick Weatherspoon...

“He gave us great minutes off the bench today.”

On Lamar Peters...

“He is getting in better condition. What I love about Lamar, he ran a mile on his own, by himself, showing initiative at eight a.m. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, he is running on his own. Lamar’s like, ‘I’ve got to get in better shape.’ Our trainers are like ‘what are you doing Lamar’ and that made me really excited.”

On Quindary Weatherspoon...

“He tweaked his ankle last week during the last practice.”

On Fouls...

“We had six fouls in the first five minutes and ten seconds. We just can’t do that. We have to play without fouling.”

MISSISSIPPI STATE PLAYER QUOTES

November 2, 2017

West Florida vs. Mississippi State

F – Aric Holman – Jr.

On improvements to offense ...

“They changed some little things that we focus on. Part of our offense is screening, so it’s just something you got to get used to.”

On skill improvement ...

“I feel like that is what has been holding me back from being the player that my teammates and coaches all encourage me to be. I focus on running more on my own and just staying healthy.”

G – Nick Weatherspoon– Fr.

On improvments from last game ...

“Some of the passes I made and some of the shots I knocked down have been things I’ve worked on the last few games and playing good defensively in the second half.”

G – Lamar Peters– So.

On the first ten minutes of the game ...

“We came out a little shaky and slow on defense. We knew we had to pick it up on defense. When we pick it up on defense it turns into offense for us.”

On depth of guards ...

“We have a deep group of guards so we have to learn a lot of positions to make it equal for everybody. We have to sacrifice for the team so all of us get together and say whatever to make us win. We are willing to do it. Tonight we played for each other and it showed.”

On working as a team ...

“We get out there everyday and push each other. We also tell each other what we need to work on and get into the gym. Everybody has been working hard and getting out on there own running, working out and grinding it out this summer. I think it’s going to pay off.”
