HEAD COACH BEN HOWLAND

November 30, 2017

Mississippi State vs. North Dakota State

On tonight's win...

"It was really nice for a change to not have it come down to the wire. They are a very good team from watching film, and I was very concerned about this game. They play and slow it down very well. They average 19 seconds per possession on offense, they make you play defense and I thought we did a great job holding them to 38.6% and 28.6% from three. (Tyson) Carter had a very special performance, in the way he shot the ball. I thought Carter's teammates did a great job feeding him, keeping him going and setting great screens to make it happen. When they see their teammates hot they're going to keep it going, and that's a smart team. Looking at (Quinn) Weatherspoon's numbers, he had 10 assists and zero turnovers. That is big time, and his ability to play at the next level will be as a point. His passing is also growing so much. I was very happy about our rebounding and beating them on the boards. (Xavian) Stapleton gave us great minutes, especially in the second half doing some things defensively. (Nick) Weatherspoon's been playing great defensively, taking great shots and being unselfish. (Aric) Holman had a great second half, and he's one rebound away from another double-double. A lot of great performances for us tonight."

On confidence in shooting...

"We actually came in to work on shooting on Tuesday morning. Carter worked mostly on putting more arch on his shot, which is the only alteration he made. We have these great machines, in the Mize, that measure arch. They are called, Noah's Arch. I was incredibly pleased the work we put in helped us in shooting the ball."

On what Carter is doing to fuel explosive performances...

"He's put the time in in the offseason. What I am most pleased with in him is that he had six rebounds on defense tonight. He's our second leading rebounder, and he is doing other great things to make plays. He was great against SFA, and then getting to the rim today. We were getting a lot of open looks for him, and he kept knocking it down. He's playing a great overall game. I played him a lot of minutes tonight, more than I normally would, because he was doing so well tonight. He did a wonderful job today."

On Stapleton's confidence feeding his play...

"It does, and he had three great steals tonight. One of his strengths is his ability to defend, and he is a very good athlete and defender, especially on the ball. The offense we played tonight was a very difficult offense to defend. If you know anything about NDSU, SFA will be impressed by tonight's score. They won by four, and we came out with a 24-point victory. Our guys are playing extremely hard and unselfishly. (Lamar) Peters will be back in the next game, and I am hoping (E.J.) Datcher will be back soon. I can't wait till we are completely healthy."

MISSISSIPPI STATE PLAYER QUOTES

November 30, 2017

North Dakota State vs Mississippi State

G – Tyson Carter – So.

On his shooting performance...

“I just stay in the gym to work on my shot so that I can be consistent. Most of the shots I’ve been taking in the past were flat with not enough arch on it.”

On career-high performance ...

“I didn’t realize it at first. I just knew that the ball kept coming. Lately, they haven’t been falling; but when the first shot went in, I knew that I was in for a big night.”

F – Aric Holman – Jr.

On team’s performance during the second half...

“Our main thing was to communicate more. We were getting lost sometimes. Our biggest thing is to communicate and trust each other.”

On team’s confidence with players being out...

“It gives us a lot of confidence because every night you don’t know who will be out. The last couple of nights it has been Tyson, but it could be Nick, Xavian, or Q. It could be anybody. We built that into us saying if someone goes down, we have to be mentally strong so the next man can step up.”

G – Nick Weatherspoon – Fr.

On Tyson Carter...

“Whenever he is hot, we have to find him. Coach [Howland] calls out a lot of plays when he gets hot. As the guard, we have to give him those shots especially when he’s hot.”

On team’s performance during the second half ...

“Coach told us at the end of the half that we needed to start talking on defense. I know that starts with the point guard to set the tone on defense. So, I knew that if we got a couple of steals, we could get out and transition to find Tyson or Q and we could get going. We all needed to see a couple of shots to go in and we got to rolling.”
