Head Coach Ben Howland December 16, 2017 Mississippi State vs. UT Martin

On tonight's second half defense...

"In the first half, we played a well as we could defensively. UT Martin made two great shots at the end of the shot clock and had great defensive stances. It did not feel, going into halftime, that it would end up being a 30-point game. It was our defense in the second half that really spearheaded that. (Aric) Holman and (Abdul) Ado did a wonderful job on defense, and we got 24 rebounds out of them. Holman had another double-double tonight, and he is playing very good basketball right now. I thought we played very unselfishly tonight, with 21 assists on 34 baskets. We talked a lot about how quickly we shot, in our last game, playing against a zone. In the first half tonight, we had the ball 31 times and passed it four or more time on 27 of those possessions. We missed a number of threes in the first half, but only two them were truly bad shots. (Tyson) Carter was out a bit too far on some of his shots, but both him and (Q) Weatherspoon had seven assists, which was big for us."

On what Nick Weatherspoon brings to the team as a freshman...

"He brings and unbelievable motive and competitive edge. When he is on the bench he gets so excited to see his teammates score, which goes to show how he is an unbelievable teammate. He's always excited to see others do well, and he cares about his team and teammates. In the first half, we struggled from the three-point line, but he had two great shots. (Nick) Weatherspoon has been fantastic the past 10 games. As a freshman, I think he is our best on ball defender. He takes such pride in what he does, so that is why I think he has a great chance to do something special in his career.

On Quinndary Weatherspoon's impact on the game...

"I thought I did a better job managing his minutes tonight. In the first half, he played 13 minutes and we did a better job of spreading it around. He had very good energy to start the second half, defensively, because we were not as tired. The first half was very nip and tuck. They are a team that will be very tough within their conference.

Mississippi State Player Quotes December 16, 2017 Mississippi State vs. UT Martin

F- Aric Holman- Jr.

On contributions from the bench players...

"It was very important because you never know when someone's going to have an off game, so I'm glad some of the guys stepped up today."

On how he has specifically improved this season...

"I would say rebounding, because you don't need a whole team to do just that part. And in that part you can be selfish, and that's the way I think about it when I'm on the court."

G- Quinndary Weatherspoon- Jr.

On difference in the second half...

"We just had to come out and play hard on defense. We had a lot of break downs in the first half on the defensive end. We came in at halftime and [Coach Howland] told us that we need to tighten it up on defense and I thought we did a good job of that in the second half."

On bouncing back from season's lone loss...

"We just looked at it as we took the loss and we just have to move on and prepare for the next team, because the next team we were playing was going to be in a zone. So we just put that game behind us and wanted to come out and do better against the zone than we did when we played Cincinnati."
