MATCH NOTES: MSU jumped out to a 2-0 lead, but Auburn was able to step in and take back command of the match winning in singles at No. 5, 3 and 2, but Antonio Lastre kept the match alive with his two-set handling at the No. 4 position. Things got interesting when Ryan Farlow was able to come back down 4-1 in the third set to take the set and the match for the Bulldogs. It was MSU's second straight win over the Tigers, first conference win of the season, first win on the road and their first win over a top 20 opponent since 2006.			MATCH NOTES: The Mississippi State men's tennis team missed out on a weekend sweep in conference play dropping the match 6-1 to the Alabama Crimson Tide. Alabama swept the doubles point and preceded to dominate the match winning the next 5 points in singles play, but the rookie Louis Cant helped the Bulldogs avoid the shutout, winning at No. 4 over Crimson Tide's Billy Mertz in a three-set dual.

MSU jumped out to a 1-0 lead claiming the doubles point after a tiebreaking performance by the freshman tandem of Louis Cant and Artem Ilyushin. UND would claim the next three points at the # 1, 4, and 6 spots, but junior Chris Doerr would keep MSU's hopes alive with a two-set ousting of the Irish's David Anderson, but sophomore Antonio Lastre fell at #3 giving UND the match.			MATCH NOTES: The Mississippi State men's tennis team fell behind early in their second match at the Blue Gray Classic but surged back in singles with two-set wins by the freshmen Louis Cant at the # 4 position and Artem Ilyushin at the #2 slot. OU would rebound soundly and claim the next three points to take the match, which was the third straigh loss by the Maroon and White and the second in the Blue-Gray.
