MSU RECORD: 4-0 0-0 SEC • 2-0 Home 1-0 Away 1-0 Neutral

MATCH NOTES: The No. 11 MSU Bulldogs defeated the No. 21 Auburn Tigers in thrilling fashion, thanks to the performance of No. 25 freshman Romain Bogaerts. After dropping the doubles point, the Bulldogs needed four victories in singles play, finding three of those from true freshmen. Also adding a crucial victory was No. 81 Malte Stropp, who cruised to a straight-sets win. The match-clincher came when Bogaerts fought back from being down 5-3 in the second set to force a tiebreaker, eventually sealing the victory against Mies 7-5, 7-6(6). The Bulldogs advance to the ITA National Team Indoors for the first time since 1999.

MATCH NOTES: In a heated match that lasted nearly 6 hours, the No. 10 Mississippi State Bulldogs defeated the No. 12 Ole Miss Rebels to win the River Hills Cup for the second consecutive season. The win also was the fourth straight for MSU in the rivalry. State started off 1-0 after clinching the doubles point with an 8-5 win from the No. 28 duo of Jordan Angus and Malte Stropp and an 8-6 victory from the freshmen duo of Romain Bogaerts and Pedro Dumont. In singles play, State picked up wins from No. 25 Bogaerts and No. 81 Stropp, with the clincher from Angus, all three set victories. With the wins, the three improved to 5-0 on the season in dual match play.

MATCH NOTES: With rain covering Starkville for the day, the first match of Sunday's double-header was moved indoors to McCarthy Gymnasium. The No. 10 Bulldogs dominated for majority of the match, with No. 53 South Alabama tying it up once early on with a victory on court one. However, three consecutive straight-set victories from MSU's James Chaudry, Jordan Angus and Zach White clinched the Bulldogs' sixth victory of the season, all coming against ranked opponents. With the win, State also moved to 13-7 all-time against the Jaguars and 2-0 in the Per Nilsson era. With a straight-sets win against USA's Alex Bernard, MSU's Malte Stropp is now a career-best 6-0 to start the season.

MSU RECORD: 14-7 4-5 SEC • 7-5 Home 4-0 Away 3-2 Neutral

MATCH NOTES: For the fourth-straight season, the MSU men's tennis squad has found themselves victorious on senior day. As State honored James Chaudry and Ethan Wilkinson for their dedication to MSU tennis, they also fought off a gritty South Carolina squad to close out the home regular-season slate with a victory. Tied at 2-2, the deciding matches on courts one and two went to three sets, when the Bulldogs grinded out victories to win their third straight against the Gamecocks. State closed home play for 2013 with a 7-5 record.

MATCH NOTES: In their first Wednesday match of the season, the No. 11 Mississippi State Bulldogs downed No. 20 LSU for their third-straight top 20 victory, second straight on the road. State took its 10th doubles point of the spring and earned victories on courts three, five and six to claim victory. Four of the six first sets went into tiebreakers, with the Bulldogs claiming three of those first sets to propel themselves to victory. State is now 9-1 when taking the doubles point this season. MSU also improves its road record to 6-0, the best start on the road since the 1975 squad started 7-0. The Bulldogs have the last four meetings against LSU and have won consecutive matches in Baton Rouge for first time since 1992-1994.

MATCH NOTES: For the third time this season, the two Magnolia State rivals battled, this time at the friendly confines of the A.J. Pitts Tennis Centre. Ole Miss gained the doubles point with wins on courts two and three. State fired back strong by taking five of the first six sets in singles play before a three hour and 14 minute rain delay halted play. As play resumed, State captured wins on courts one and six, but Ole Miss clawed back on courts two and three, along with taking a straight-set victory on court five to clinch the victory.

After dropping the doubles point, UF fired back to take a 3-1 lead and put MSU on the brink of losing its first road match of the season. However, it was the outstanding play from junior Zach White on court five that saved the Bulldogs, battling back from down 4-1 in the second set and 5-2 in the second set tiebreaker force a third set, taking that in dominating fashion 6-0. Freshman Pedro Dumont clinched the match on court six in a three setter.
