2018 MEET RECAPS

BLAZER INVITATIONAL - JAN. 12

A pair of All-Americans led the way for Mississippi State at the 2018 Blazer Invite, as Rhianwedd Price-Weimer and Logan Boss each tasted their first bit of success of the 2018 season.

The All-American Price-Weimer continued her dominance on the track by taking the 1,000 meter run at a pace of 2:47.82—winning by more than five seconds and shattering the previous record at the Birmingham CrossPlex by nearly six full seconds.

In the men's distance medley relay, the Bulldogs ran a meet-record 10:10.86 en route to winning the event.

All-American Logan Boss had a solid afternoon in her first action of the spring, placing second in the women's high jump. Sprinter Lawrence Crawford started off his indoor season on a good note, finishing second in the men's 60-meter dash.

Brianna Smith took runner-up honors in the women's weight throw. In addition to the veterans, 10 new Bulldogs were able to showcase their abilities on Friday.

VULCAN INVITATIONAL - JAN. 13

The Bulldogs wrapped up their first week of competition in Birmingham with the Vulcan Invite. While the previous day's top results came on the track. Saturday saw State's field athletes shine.

The Bulldogs were paced by All-American Tiffany Flynn, who took the women's triple jump crown. After placing second in the weight throw on Friday, Brianna Smith replicated the feat on Saturday with a throw of 20.43m.

Willie-Lionel Reed finished fifth in the men's long jump, while Alexis Farley placed seventh in the women's event. Reed also finished fourth in the 60m hurdles after running the third-best time in the preliminaries.

On the track, MSU's Katherine Badham and Alex Wallace placed second and third in the women's 3K run. Additionally, Bulldog track and field alum Ffion Price took the 800-meters crown by running a Vulcan Invite record 2:09.79.

VANDERBILT INVITATIONAL - JAN. 19-20

Mississippi State claimed 25 Top 10 finishes in Nashville as 24 athletes surpassed their previous collegiate-best marks. Brianna Smith took second in the weight throw with a school-record mark of 21.05m (69-0.75). Logan Boss won the high jump, clearing 1.80m (5-10.75). Monica Mosley won the 60m hurdles with a personal-best time of 8.45 seconds. Charlotte Cayton-Smith's 800m time was a personal best and took first place.

On the men's side, Marco Arop won the men's 800m with a time of 1:48.21 which is the second-fastest mark in the country this season and the second-best indoor time in school history. The Bulldog men finished first, third, fifth and eighth in the event. Aaron Phelps set a new career-best in the mile, and Stephen Jones turned in his best time in the 3K.

MSU's men finished second and fourth in the 4x400m relay, while the women earned fifth place.

CRIMSON ELITE MEET - FEB. 2

Logan Boss broke her own school record on her way to the highest mark in the nation this year in the high jump as the Bulldogs recorded eight Top 10 finishes in seven events. Boss' record leap of 1.92m (6-3.50) was the 10th-best in the world this season.

Three field event crowns propelled the women to a second-place finish with 64 team points. The men put up 30 points while competing in just four events to finish fifth. The Bulldog men and women set six personal bests each.

On the track, the Bulldogs took first and third in the women's 60m hurdles and the men's 60m dash. The two events combined for 32 points between the men's and women's teams.

The field events contributed plenty of scoring for MSU. Brianna Smith won the weight throw, and Tiffany Flynn took the triple jump crown while being closely followed by Alexis Farley in third. Bulldogs went second and third in the men's high jump with both DeVantre Young and Reggie Miller clearing personal-bests of 2.10m (6-10.75).

BRUCE LEHANE SCARLET & WHITE - FEB. 3

Mississippi State used strong relay performances to claim victories on both the men's and women's sides. The Bulldog men put up 84 points, while the women scored 80. The two teams combined to win six events and put up 35 Top 10 finishes. In the 4x400m relay, MSU men took second and third, and the women finished second while matching the fourth-fastest time in school history.

MSU's men found plenty of success in the 400m and 800m. Five Bulldogs finished in the Top 10 of the 400m. Marco Arop once again won the 800m, improving on his second-fastest time in school history. Arop was followed closely by Dejon Devroe who took third and moved into third place all-time in the event.

The women made their best moves in the 3000m where Antonia Hehr won the event and saw three of her teammates join her in the Top 10. Rhianwedd Price-Weimer won the mile, while Mia Meydrich finished second.

Tiffany Flynn took home two victories in the 60m hurdles and triple jump. Brianna Smith claimed the weight throw crown, and Alicia Viveros took second in the weight throw.

TIGER PAW INVITATIONAL - FEB. 9-10

Facing its toughest competition of the year, MSU opened the Tiger Paw Invitational with Ro'Derick Spears turning in the top performance for the Bulldogs. Friday marked the first time in the 2018 season, the Bulldogs have failed to record multiple Top 10 finishes on a single day of a meet. Only Spears cracked the Top 10, finishing seventh in the 60m hurdles (8.01).

The women were led by Tiffany Flynn, who finished 16th in the 60m hurdles, and Keturah Smith, who placed 14th in the 400m. Meanwhile, freshman Riley Smith set a new personal-best in the 400m, finishing in 57.51.

The Bulldogs began to turn the corner on Saturday. Charlotte Cayton-Smith took fifth in the 800m, while Alon Lewis followed in 10th with a personal-best of 2:10.69. The 800m success continued for the men as Dejon Devroe took second and Kenya Small finished ninth. MSU's women would pick up two more Top 10's in the Tiger Paw Invitational's field events. Logan Boss finished third in the high jump, while Tiffany Flynn took sixth in the triple jump. Alexis Farley just missed the Top 10, finishing 11th with a season-best leap of 12.59m (41-3.75).

MUSIC CITY CHALLENGE - FEB. 9-10

The Bulldogs tough Friday night carried over to Nashville where the second half of the squad was competing. Shayla Broughton took seventh in the women's high jump with a leap of 1.66m (5-5.25). She was followed by Brianna Smith who claimed fifth in the women's weight throw, tossing the weight 20.17m (66-2.25). Shannon Fair's 16:33.32 in the women's 5000m was good for ninth place and the Bulldogs' third Top 10 finish in Nashville.

Bulldogs set new 19 new personal-bests on Saturday. Alyssa Staubach trimmed her 800m time. Katherine Badham shaved nearly four seconds off her mile, and Alex Wallace finished more than 2.5 seconds faster in the 3000m. Distance runners Rhianwedd Price-Weimer and Antonia Hehr finished second and third respectively in their events. Stephen Jones took sixth in the men's 3000m, and Aaron Phelps finished fifth in the mile while moving into third in school-history at 4:07.52. All four men's milers set new personal bests. Shayla Broughton broke her personal-best in the 60m hurdles twice, advancing to the finals where she finished in 8.42 seconds for sixth place.

ALEX WILSON INVITATIONAL - FEB. 17

Three relay teams traveled to Notre Dame, and all three turned in times that rank inside the Top Five in Mississippi State indoor school history. Twelve men's teams in the distance medley relay were faster than the quickest time in the nation entering the weekend.

The day's successes started in the distance medley relay. MSU's women finished the event in 11:12.51, good for third in the Bulldog's indoor record book. The men's quartet finished in 9:34.44, good for the second-fastest time in Bulldog history and 11th in the NCAA this year.

Tiffany Flynn was the only female competitor in a combined triple jump where she put up a season-best mark of 13.26m (43-6.0). Her leap was second in MSU history only to her own school record, set at last year's Southeastern Conference Championships.

In the men's 4x400m relay, the Bulldogs finished second with a time of 3:07.33. The men ran the fifth-fastest time in school history and now rank 14th in the nation this season.

SEC INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS DAY 1 - FEB. 24

Mississippi State advanced four athletes to Sunday's finals at the SECIndoor Championships. While not all of them advanced, 14 athletes broke or matched 16 personal bests on the first day of competition.

Terryon Conwell had his best day on the track in both of his events, finishing the 200m in 21.09 and the 60m dash in 6.77. Monica Mosley also set two new personal bests, completing the 60m in 8.37 and recording the fastest time of her career in the 400m. Her 54.48 in the 400m ranks fifth in school history.

Tiffany Flynn was the first Bulldog to advance to finals, finishing eighth the 60m hurdles (8.24). She was followed by Rhianwedd Price-Weimer, who won the prelims in the mile with a time of 4:43.28. On the men's side, two 800m runners advanced. Dejon Devroe, who entered the meet third in the SEC, and Daniel Nixon, who entered as the eighth-fastest competitor, moved on to the final. Nixon's time of 1:49.21 was a personal best.

In the combined events, Zaria Tillman finished 13th in the pentathlon, while Shayla Broughton placed 10th.

SEC INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS DAY 2 - FEB. 25

The senior high jumper claimed the SEC Championship with a meet record of 1.91m (6-3.25) on Sunday afternoon.

Mississippi State claimed five total medals in the competition, highlighted by Dejon Devroe and Daniel Nixon taking home silver and bronze, respectively, in the 800m. Rhiannwedd Price-Weimer earned the silver medal in the mile, then picked up her second medal as a member of the distance medley relay team that finished third. Mia Meydrich, Keturah Smith and Alon Lewis opened that event before she ran the mile leg.

The Bulldog women posted 31 points, while the men scored 21. Their combined total of 52 points is the most the two have scored together since 2003, the final year of the men's team competing at the SEC meet before they returned last year.

MSU narrowly missed the podium in the women's weight throw as Brianna Smith placed fourth. Tiffany Flynn earned a point in both the 60m hurdles and the triple jump with eight-place finishes. Willie-Lionel Reed finished eighth in the heptathlon with 4,332 points to score for the Bulldogs. Both of the men's relays finished sixth to pick up three more points apiece.

NCAA INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS DAY 1 - MARCH 9

For the second year in a row, Mississippi State high jumper Logan Bossclaimed a bronze medal at the NCAA Division I Indoor Track and Field Championships.

Boss was one of three athletes to clear 1.87m (6-1.5), but it took her all three attempts. Though no athlete cleared the next height of 1.90m (6-2.75), both Cincinnati's Loretta Blaut and North Carolina's Nicole Greene had needed only two chances to get over the previous bar, resulting in Boss' third-place finish. Boss' performance gave the Bulldog women six points.

On the track, two Bulldogs advanced to the finals. Rhianwedd Price-Weimer was the first MSU athlete in action and the fastest runner in the women's mile prelims. She won her heat in 4:37.71.

In the men's 800m, Dejon Devroe, who slipped in as the final qualifier to make the championships, advanced with an eighth-place finish in the prelims. Devroe's time of 1:48.17 beat the ninth-place finisher by just 0.07 seconds. He is the first No. 16 seed to advance in the 800m since 2014. Marco Arop, the only freshman in the event, fell behind in the final turn to place 11th in 1:48.55.

NCAA INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS DAY 2 - MARCH 10

Two more athletes scored points for Mississippi State at the NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships on Saturday. Senior Rhianwedd Price-Weimer finished fourth in the mile with a season-best time of 4:33.00. That's just off her personal-best time of 4:32.74.

For the second day in a row, Dejon Devroe set a new personal best in the 800m, crossing the line in 1:47.69. Devroe is now one of three Bulldogs to ever run under 1:48.00 in the indoor 800m.

Tiffany Flynn advanced to the finals in the women's triple jump, where she placed ninth with a leap of 13.23m (43-5). The mark is short of her personal-best, but still better than that of the second-best performer in MSU indoor history.

MSU finished with three first-team All-Americans: Devroe, Price-Weimer and Logan Boss, who won the bronze medal in the high jump on Friday. On the women's side, State totaled 11 points, the most the Bulldogs have scored since 2015, and finished tied for 20th. Devroe's finish gave the Bulldogs three points in the men's competition.
