MISSISSIPPI STATE TRACK & FIELD

2021 MEET RECAPS

COMMODORE INDOOR - JAN. 15-16

After 321 days of no competition, the Bulldogs started the indoor season at Vanderbilt. The Dawgs came away with three first-place finishes on day one of the meet, with Helen Claire Edmonds securing a new personal best in the high jump at 1.70m, a new best for Jesse Henderson in the long jump at 7.40m, and the same for Shayla Broughton in the long jump at 6.13m, completing a long jump sweep for State. Cade Finley and Francesca Chambers also secured new bests in their respective events.

Day two brought more success for the hungry Bulldogs, with four more individual event wins secured. Jesse Henderson helped start it off with his second win, this time coming in the 60m hurdles at 7.96. He would also go on to record a new best in the 60m at 7.00 flat. Freshman Amy Warren found a win in the triple jump at 12.29m and newcomer Navasky Anderson won in the mile while recording a new best for himself at 4:15.69. Sydney Steely would round out the wins with a new best of 9:44.89 in the 3000m, putting her at the top of the conference early on. After so long without competition, Chris Woods' squad came out and gave their all at the Commodore Indoor.

CAROLINA CHALLENGE - JAN. 23

The Bulldogs came away from South Carolina with nine student-athletes recording personal bests, two recording top-five all-time marks for the record books in their respective events, seven performances inside the top five marks of their respective events in the meet, as well as five freshmen seeing their first collegiate meet.

Rosealee Cooper moved into the all-time top five for the women's 60m hurdles with her time of 8.24 in her first meet for the Bulldogs. Francesca Chambers became No. 3 for Mississippi State in the weight throw with her personal-best mark of 18.05m. That throw was a whopping 1.57m further than her previous throw of 16.48 at the Commodore Indoor.

Cooper, Chambers, Jesse Henderson, Terry Smith Jr., Jeremiah Pierce, and Peyton Mickelson all found top-five marks at the meet. The student-athletes who upped their personal bests were: Daniel Pepper, Trent Zelden, Madalyn Kish, Helen Claire Edmonds, Emilia Lesniak, Brock Isom, Smith Jr., Chambers, and Pierce.

RAZORBACK INVITATIONAL - JAN. 29-30

Mississippi State had one outright win at the Razorback Invite with Francesca Chamber's dub in the weight throw. Jesse Henderson was just 38 points away from becoming the new MSU record holder in the heptathlon, finishing with 5,123 points with one event win in the 60m hurdles. He moves into the No. 2 spot in the record book with that point total. New PRs and season-bests were set across the board for the Bulldogs, with freshman Rosealee Cooper taking a second off her previous 60m hurdle time to tie the No. 3 all-time MSU time of 8.23. Henderson and freshman Terry Smith Jr. both ran to new bests in the 60m hurdles at 7.85 and 8.12, respectively.

This meet was scored, with State placing fifth on the women's side with 35 points and seventh on the men's side with 22 points. The Bulldogs competed against Oregon, Arkansas, Ole Miss, Georgia, USC, Iowa State, and Colorado.

USC INDOOR OPEN - FEB. 13

In a split-meet weekend with the Music City Challenge, the USC Indoor Open saw its own successes. In the 60m hurdles, Jesse Henderson broke the school record at 7.74, taking first place in the finals. Also winning their events were Keshun Byrd in the triple jump, Faith Gilbert in the 200m, and Amy Warren in the triple jump.

Warren updated her personal best in the long jump to 5.84m, while Keshun Byrd did the same in the men's at 7.11m and also in the triple jump at 15.43m. Kareem Agostino updated his PR in the men's 60m at 7.09, and Katie Martin in the women's 400m to 56.34. In the men's 200m, Sema'J Daniels and Shamar Rose had new PRs at 21.66 and 21.30, respectively.

MUSIC CITY CHALLENGE - FEB. 12-13

On day one of the meet, Shayla Broughton nearly swept the pentathlon, setting three event personal bests in the process of setting a personal best in points in her win with 4,090 points. Eight personal bests were set overall on the day for the Bulldogs across their events.

On day two, Giacomo DeLuca finished the 3000m in 8:10.02, a new personal best and it broke the previous school record. Jeremiah Pierce finished ninth in the shot with a new PB, as did Navasky Anderson and Leon Clarke in the 800m, and Ashley Melcherts in the 800m. Shayla Broughton won the 60m hurdles with a new personal best time of 8.33. Peyton Mickelson tied her season-best height in the pole vault at 4m while Julia Lasley competed for the first time, finishing eighth at 3.45m. Jhordyn Stallworth rounded out the personal bests with a mark at 12.73m in ninth place in the women's shot.

SEC INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS - FEB. 25-27

There was one school record broken (Peyton Mickelson - Pole Vault) and several moves made in the all-time top five in several events at the SEC Championships. Eight student-athletes scored in their events for the Bulldogs, including Shayla Broughton and Asia Poe in the pentathlon (Broughton 5th, Poe 7th), Peyton Mickelson in the pole vault (tied for 8th), Kennedy Jackson in the long jump (8th), Jesse Henderson in the 60m hurdles (5th), Navasky Anderson in the 800m (8th), Amy Warren in the triple jump (8th), and Rosealee Cooper in the 60m hurdles (8th).

The Bulldogs finished in 13th for both the men and the women, with the men bringing in five points and the women having 11.5 points. Shayla Broughton and Jesse Henderson both had qualifying marks this season and will compete in the NCAA Indoor Championships back in Fayetteville.

2021 MEET RECAPS

NCAA INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS - MAR. 11-13

Shayla Broughton and Jesse Henderson both competed at the 2021 NCAA DI Indoor Track and Field Championships, hosted by Arkansas. Broughton competed in the pentathlon while Henderson competed in the 60m hurdles.

Broughton finished 11th overall, garnering Second Team All-American status. She finished with 4,061 points and came away with a new personal best in the 800m, finishing in 2:26.37. She finished third in the 60m hurdles, 10th in the high jump, 11th in the shot put, seventh in the long jump and 13th in the 800m. She competed against fellow SEC pentathlete Tyra Gittens from Texas A&M, who would break the collegiate record at the meet.

Henderson re-broke his own school record in the semifinals of the 60m hurdles, coming in fifth in 7.66 and qualifying for the finals. In the finals, he finished in seventh in 7.77 and became a First Team All-American.
