2022 INDOOR MEET RECAPS

BLAZER INVITE - JAN. 14

The Bulldog track and field program broke 10 personal bests on its opening day of action in its 2022 indoor campaign. Jabari Bennett kicked things off in the shot put, throwing the third best mark in MSU indoor history. Bennett threw a 17.65m mark in one of the opening events of the day. It's the first time since Ed Wesela in 2012 that a Bulldog cracked the top-5 all-time men's Shot Put performances. In the women's shot put, Jhordyn Stallworth improved her indoor personal best with a throw of 13.68m. Emma Hunt and Maddy Kish finished tied for eighth in the women's pole vault, both improving their personal best marks in opening action.

In the women's 60m hurdles, a trio of Bulldogs finished in the top five, Shayla Broughton taking the top collegiate finish of the event, with Asia Poe and Cathrina Morris finishing second and fourth, respectively, for collegiate only participants. Poe's time of 8.50 shaved 12 seconds off her personal best. In the distance events, Sydney Steely finished first in the women's 1000m. State's three runners each finished in the top 10 of that event. In the men's weight throw, redshirt sophomore Daniel Pepper threw an indoor personal best mark of 17.55m to highlight the event.

VULCAN INVITE - JAN. 15

Five personal bests and 24 top-5 collegiate finishes highlighted the Bulldog track and field program's showing at the Vulcan Invite. Mississippi State athletes finished in the top five in all but one event they participated in.

The first event for the Maroon and White was the Women's 60m, that featured Rosealee Cooper and Jada McDougle who finished fourth and fifth, respectively. The duo also improved their own indoor personal best times, while Nykah Smith finished sixth in the event. On the men's side, Cameron Crump and Shamar Rose finished second and third, respectively.

In her first ever 60m hurdles event for MSU, Kennedy Jackson finished third, with Cathrina Morris crossing the line right behind her for fourth. It was the second straight women's event of the day with top-6 collegiate finishes for Mississippi State, when Aley Woodberry finished in sixth.

Safir Scott highlighted the jump events, winning both the high jump (2.06m | 6-9.25) and triple jump (14.68m | 48-2), followed by a second-place finish in the long jump (7.06m | 23-2).

SAMFORD UNIVERSITY OPEN - JAN. 22

In the third meet in two weekends for Mississippi State, the Bulldogs collected multiple top-10 finishes in its final regular season meet held at the Birmingham Crossplex.

In total, the Maroon and White set 20 personal bests and collected 76 top-10 collegiate finishes, spanning across the three Birmingham events.

The next time the Maroon and White would compete at the Birmingham venue would be for the NCAA Indoor Championships (March 11-12). Until then, State faces four different regular season meets ranging from Fayetteville, Arkansas to South Bend, Indiana.

RAZORBACK INVITE - JAN. 28-29

Day 1 - five personal-best and three season-best performances carry the Bulldogs to secure two top-3 finishes in the Pentathlon. Shayla Broughton finished first with 4,122 points, a new personal best for the Bulldog, and effectively secured the second best all-time performance in Mississippi State women's indoor history. The personal mark she broke now sits at third best in school history. Asia Poe's 4,039 points gave her a third-place finish in the event. The redshirt junior now holds the fifth best all time performance.

The fun didn't stop there, as redshirt junior Cameron Crump tied a 31-year-old school record in the men's long jump. His 7.86m mark secured a second-place finish for MSU.

Day 2 - Peyton Mickelson and Jabari Bennett each broke school records to put a stamp on the most competitive weekend of Mississippi State's 2022 season.

MUSIC CITY CHALLENGE - FEB. 11-12

Day 1 - In South Carolina, Cooper started the day for the Bulldogs with a semifinal-qualifying run (7.48, q) in the women's 60-meter dash. The run became a new personal best, as well as the fourth best time in women's indoor history.

In Nashville, Broughton won the women's long jump by a mark of 6.35m. The mark not only became her new personal best but also became the fourth best mark for the event in women's indoor history. Teammates Asia Poe, Kennedy Jackson and Aley Woodberry each placed top ten finishes in the event as well.

Day 2 - Action at both the Music City Challenge and Tiger Paw Invite concluded on Saturday as Sydney Steely finished 0.32 seconds short of breaking a school record in the women's 800 meters in Nashville. Her 2:05.77 run is now the second fastest time in Mississippi State track and field women's indoor history.

Over in Clemson, Rosealee Cooper continued where she left off, securing MSU's second fastest indoor time in the women's 200 meters on Saturday.

TIGER PAW INVITE - FEB. 11-12

Day 1 - In South Carolina, Cooper started the day for the Bulldogs with a semifinal-qualifying run (7.48, q) in the women's 60-meter dash. The run became a new personal best, as well as the fourth best time in women's indoor history.

In Nashville, Broughton won the women's long jump by a mark of 6.35m. The mark not only became her new personal best but also became the fourth best mark for the event in women's indoor history. Teammates Asia Poe, Kennedy Jackson and Aley Woodberry each placed top ten finishes in the event as well.

Day 2 - Action at both the Music City Challenge and Tiger Paw Invite concluded on Saturday as Sydney Steely finished 0.32 seconds short of breaking a school record in the women's 800 meters in Nashville. Her 2:05.77 run is now the second fastest time in Mississippi State track and field women's indoor history.

Over in Clemson, Rosealee Cooper continued where she left off, securing MSU's second fastest indoor time in the women's 200 meters on Saturday.

ALEX WILSON INVITATIONAL - FEB. 19

The Mississippi State track and field program wrapped up its indoor regular season on Saturday at Notre Dame. The day was highlighted by a first-place finish in the men's 4x400 meter relay. The Bulldogs placed in the top-six in each of the four events competed in. Safir Scott extended his personal best in the men's 400 meters.

SEC INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS - FEB. 25-26

Day 1 - MSU's day began in the pentathlon, featuring Shayla Broughton, Kennedy Jackson, Asia Poe and Aley Woodberry. The Bulldogs racked up six different personal bests across the five events, eventually ending with two top-five finishes for the conference championship's opening event. Broughton (second) and Poe (fifth) gave the MSU women's program its first 12 points of the weekend. On the men's side, Cameron Crump brought home five points for the Bulldogs in the long jump. The distance medley relay crew (Daniel Joyce, Tyrese Reid, Gabriel Moronta, Navasky Anderson) hauled in an additional point in the final event of the day.

Day 2 - Sydney Steely broke MSU's women's record in the women's 800 meters. Six different Bulldogs scored points for the MSU men's and women's programs, in addition the men's 4x400-meter-relay group.

The MSU women's program finished 11th overall with 18 points, while the men's team ended with 21 points for a 13th-place finish.

NCAA INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS - MARCH 11-12

Cameron Crump became MSU's first long jumper to earn All-American status since 1989, and the first Bulldog to be awarded first team honors in the event. Shayla Broughton, Jesse Henderson and Rosealee Cooper concluded Day One by earning second team All-American honors in the women's pentathlon, men's 60-meter hurdles and women's 60-meter hurdles, respectively. Cooper concluded her indoor season having extended her personal best time in four cosecutive meets (Razorback Invite, Tiger Paw Invite, SEC Indoor Championships, NCAA Indoor Championships.

On the final day of the meet, Safir Scott, Gabriel Moronta, Leon Clarke and Lee Eppie all earned second team All-American honors in the men's 4x400-meter relay. They became the first second-team honors for the event, and first All-Americans since 2016 for event.
