Home to the Mississippi State women's soccer team since the program's berth in 1995, the Mississippi State Soccer Field has evolved into one of the finest playing surfaces in the Southeast.

Located on the north side of the Mississippi State University campus, the facility features a 500-seat grandstand with room for future expansion.

Over the past three seasons, additions and renovations to the pitch have turned the MSU Soccer Field into a premier soccer facility. The 2010 season saw the debut of a state-of-the-art, sand-based playing surface that includes new irrigation and sub-surface drainage systems.

Prior to the 2009 season the facility received a new LED-based scoreboard display and 15'x10' video board. A year earlier, the program opened a 2,600 square-foot brick facility that houses a concession stand, men's and women's restrooms and spacious press box.

The MSU Soccer Field also includes covered dugouts for participating teams, and lights were added to the facility at the conclusion of the 2002 season.

MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY

NEIL MACDONALD

Head Coach • 8th Year at Mississippi State • 12th Year Overall • Augusta State, 1997

Simply stated, and loosely defined, a coach is a person who teaches and directs another person via encouragement and advice. However, as in all of his everyday activities, coaching has become a form of commitment for eighth-year Mississippi State Head Coach Neil Macdonald.

With success having followed him every step of the way from his humble beginnings in the soccer world, to his time in Starkville, Macdonald knows no one can get anywhere in life without focus and hard work.

Just weeks before the Bulldogs would report for preseason camp and open the 2004 season at home with Middle Tennessee, Macdonald was named just the third head coach in the history of the MSU soccer program. The transition stage would be short-lived, but Macdonald was more than prepared to take on the task full circle.

Macdonald became the most successful rookie coach in MSU history, helping the Maroon and White to its most wins since 2001 while securing a record-tying five league victories en route to State's second SEC Tournament berth.

Having posted winning seasons in all but four seasons of his collegiate coaching career, Macdonald knew that building a competitive program would be an enduring process.

That endurance has starting paying results, as the 2009 Bulldog edition claimed the program's first winning season since 2003.

His 2009 Bulldog unit matched his inaugural team for the most wins under his guidance after opening the season with eight-straight victories, the most in program annals. It was also the first time that an MState contingent has gone perfect in the non-conference slate. In addition to those accomplishments, the 2009 team put together a school-record four consecutive shutouts and posted ties against top-10 ranked Florida and South Carolina.

Last season's success continues the foundation that has been laid by Macdonald since taking over the program in 2004.

Macdonald's run to the head position in Starkville came just a year after he accepted his first Division I coaching job as a volunteer assistant with the Bulldogs in 2003, where he was reunited with longtime friend Neil McGuire, who, three years earlier, had attained his first tenure as a Division I head coach at the Northeast Mississippi school.

Working primarily on the defensive unit during his initial spring season in Starkville, Macdonald was instrumental in helping to progressively enhance an already experienced defensive club. Prior to the Fall season in 2003, Macdonald was elevated to assistant coach where his primary duties included assuming day-to-day coaching duties with the defense, as well as recruiting. With his experience as a coach, the Bulldogs turned in a school-record goals against average and yielded just 0.86 goals per game en route to a 9-8-3 record — one that included a pair of victories over nationally-ranked squads, including No. 6 Florida. The victories were the first for an MSU team over a top 25 squad in school history.

Macdonald's tenure as a full-time assistant was short-lived, however, as he received the opportunity of a lifetime when longtime friend McGuire departed Starkville to become an assistant coach at Texas. On July 29, 2004, just days before he would welcome a squad of 21 players back to campus, he was named Mississippi State's third head coach.

"Coaching has always been something that has just fell into my lap," Macdonald said. "People have always told me that I would have a future in it. I have just been very fortunate to be in the right place at the right time. I've always had very good opportunities presented to me."

Macdonald's appointment to the head of the Mississippi State soccer program continues a passion for the sport that spans back to his days as a youngster growing up in Scotland.

Like all Scottish youngsters around his age growing up, Macdonald often found himself in the streets of his Inverness neighborhood refining his soccer skills on the blacktop, rather than on the grass of a freshly mowed pitch. To him, as well as his friends, it was perceived as normalcy to set up makeshift goals out of trash cans and jackets just to play the game they developed a strong love for early on in life.

There was always time for soccer, whether it be 15 minutes at break time or even an hour before school started, and finding foes and teammates was never a challenge. The challenge lied in finding enough daylight to play an entire game.

As Macdonald foraged his way through primary and secondary school, his skills could not do anything but develop. It did not take long before he was dominating his chums on the field, often times catching the eyes of professional scouts looking for young talent, or from coaches abroad looking to find talent for their collegiate programs in the United States.

At the still tender age of 18, Macdonald attended a coaching school in nearby Edinburgh where he would find himself playing on the other side of the ball from future college teammates and longtime friends McGuire and Kevin Moreland. Following his experience there, it was then that Macdonald got the call that would, inevitably, change his life.

In 1996, with his parents' blessing and his friends helping him to adjust, Macdonald made the transition to the United States, making a name for himself as a standout athlete at Augusta State University in southern Georgia. Having turned heads with both his tactical and technical skills from those who attended practices, Macdonald also impressed his coaches as well in his first preseason.

Macdonald saw action in every game of his rookie campaign and would go on to play a number of different positions at Augusta State, but he typically made most of his playing appearances in the center midfield role.

A four-year starter for the Jaguars, Macdonald captained the team during his junior and senior seasons and was also a recipient of a handful of team awards, as well as one conference player of the week accolade. He played and started in every game he was eligible for during his illustrious career in Augusta, and he left the distinguished academic institution as the career record holder in games played and games started.

Following his graduation from Augusta State in 1997, Macdonald had set his sights on graduate school at the university with the full intention of becoming a future history teacher. However, with McGuire in need of an assistant coach at his new job at Iowa Central Community College, Macdonald, once again, got a phone call that would set his path in a new direction. It was the years following he would find himself in the coaching world, trading the classroom for the soccer field.

During the duo's initial campaign in Fort Dodge, Iowa, as coaches of both the men's and women's teams, the ICCC women finished the season as regional champions with a 9-3-1 clip and featured the nation's leading scorer at that level. The men's team won the regional championship as well en route to concluding the season with a 15-4-1 record and a No. 14 national ranking.

Following a 1998 campaign that saw both the Tritons and Lady Tritons march to regional and national rankings, McGuire would depart the campus of ICCC for an assistant coaching job at Iowa State, thereby handing over his position as head coach to Macdonald, who took the reigns of the program at full speed.

Over the course of the next five seasons, he would skipper the men's team to five regional championships, four times reaching the Sweet 16 of the National Junior College Association of America (NJCAA) national tournament, including his final season in 2002 when the squad advanced through to the Final Four.

His accomplishments and rigor as a coach and mentor were equally noted on the women's side as well, where he led the Lady Tritons to five consecutive regional championships, including an appearance in the Elite Eight in 2002.

During his five-year tenure in Fort Dodge, Macdonald collected an impressive 149-34-5 coaching record. At the conclusion of the 2002 campaigns, he was honored with NJCAA Region Coach of the Year accolades, along with being named one of three finalists for NSCAA National Coach of the Year honors. He was also lauded with Who's Who of America's Teachers as well.

With the background of assistant and head coaching jobs at Iowa Central, along with a professional coaching stint with the W-League's Memphis Mercury,

Macdonald will begin his 14th season as a collegiate coach this year, having been successful at each step of his progression up the ladder rungs of the coaching world. Over the years, he has developed his coaching philosophies and tailored it to his work ethic and responsibilities.

Attitude and determination to succeed should always be number one when it comes to playing the game.

Commitment to the cause has been something that has translated into his recruiting philosophy as well.

"I look for character first of all," said Macdonald of the three things he looks for in a prospective student-athlete. "Because we are in the Southeastern Conference, you have to look at athleticism and pace as an incredibly important factor. Ideally, you'd like to have a technically sound player that has a good grasp of what the fundamentals of the game are. That makes things a lot easier."

Over the years, Macdonald has seen his share of life-changing experiences, but nothing comes close to what he experienced before his tenure as MState's head coach even began. Having met his wife Jamie, an assistant professor in the Graphic Design program at Mississippi State, when both were athletes at Augusta State, the couple celebrated the birth of their first child, Colin Ross, in May, 2004, and welcomed their second son, Liam Alexander in March, 2008.

Born May 16, 1972, in Banff, Scotland, Macdonald currently holds his coaching license from the Scottish Football Association. This past summer, Macdonald returned to his home country and completed his Scottish FA UEFA "B" license, one of the top coaching decorations in international soccer.

ANDY MANNERS

Assistant Coach • 7th Year at Mississippi State • 12th Year Overall • George Mason, 1999

Beginning his 12th year as a collegiate soccer coach, Andy Manners enters his seventh season at MSU, but his ninth working alongside Neil Macdonald.

Manners' duties include, but are not limited to, on-field instruction, day-to-day operations and recruiting. He is also in charge of scouting, purchasing and compliance.

"Andy brings an awful lot to the table for us," Macdonald said. "He is a very intelligent person and he knows the game of soccer inside-out. He is a very good on-field coach and I don't know if I have ever worked with anyone better than he is. He is the type of guy that will demand greatness from his players everyday."

Manners came to Starkville following a very successful coaching career in Fort Dodge, Iowa, where he was charged with the head coaching duties of both the Triton and Lady Triton soccer teams. As head coach of the nationally-ranked ICCC programs for two seasons, Manners collected a 33-6-3 record as head coach of the men's team and a 26-9-3 clip as skipper of the Lady Tritons.

Having secured the Region XI championship for the second-straight season under Manners' guidance, the ICCC men concluded the 2004 campaign with a 15-4-3 record that was stopped short on a heartbreaking overtime loss to South Suburban CC in the district tournament. The Lady Tritons finished their season with a standout 13-5-1 mark, but were stopped just shy of their seventh consecutive Region XI championship with a loss to Iowa Western in the region finals.

While in Fort Dodge, Manners mentored three females and one male to NJCAA all-America accolades, while his tutelage also led to eight all-region accolades (five women) for his athletes.

Prior to his appointment as ICCC head coach, Manners served two stints (1999, 2001-02) as an assistant in Fort Dodge under Macdonald where the duo led both squads to a pair of NJCAA national tournament berths.

"Neil and I worked alongside one another for three years in Iowa, and I am excited to be coaching with him again" Manners said. "He is an excellent coach and leader who I have learned a lot from, especially at the Division I level."

Manners played in 80 games (79 starts)

during his career at George Mason (1994-97) and scored 35 points on 12 goals and 11 assists from his central defender position. While in Fairfax, Va., he helped lead the Patriots to a combined 44-32-10 record, including a trip to the 1996 NCAA Tournament. A first team all-Colonial Athletic Association selection and second team all-Virginia honoree as a junior, Manners was also a three-time recipient of CAA Scholar-Athlete laurels as well. Manners has also played soccer in England for both Watford F.C. and Sunderland A.F.C.

Manners earned his Bachelor of Science degree in health, fitness and recreation resources from George Mason in 1999 before taking a break from coaching in 2000 to earn his Master's degree in education from Augusta State in 2002. He is currently pursuing his doctorate from Mississippi State.

A native of Sunderland, England, Manners holds his 'B' coaching license from the United States Soccer Federation, an English 'C' coaching certificate and a NSCAA level 2 goalkeeping diploma. He has also served as a staff coach for the Olympic Development Programs in both Alabama and Mississippi. He is currently the lead instructor for Mississippi Soccer Association's Northern District.

Born April 17, 1976, in Sunderland, England, Andy is married to the former Shannon Coleman. The couple have two children: a daughter, Riley, and a son, Andrew.

MYRANDA SANDERS

Assistant Coach • 2nd Year at Mississippi State • 3rd Year Overall • Tennessee Tech, 2003

Assistant coach Myranda Sanders brings a wealth of knowledge and excitement to her second season with the Bulldog soccer program.

Sanders' energy and diligent work ethic embodies the qualities that Mississippi State head coach Neil Macdonald expects from his program.

Sanders will assist with on-field instruction and the day-to-day operations of the program in addition to serving as the coordinator of Mississippi State's widely-respected summer camps.

"Myranda is an outstanding young coach, and we are excited that she joined our staff here at Mississippi State," Macdonald said. "Our players will benefit from her tremendous knowledge of the game. She is a highly-regarded young coach is a tremendous asset to our program."

In the short time she has been in the coaching ranks, Sanders has gained a tremendous amount of experience working on various levels and tutoring various positions on the pitch.

Following her inaugural season in Starkville, Sanders earned her NSCAA advanced national license while also being selected to the Region III Olympic Development Program coaching staff.

Sanders joined the Mississippi State program after a one-year stint as assistant coach at Northwestern (La.) State University. She helped the Lady Demons to the best start in program history and a Top 60 ranking in the TopDrawerSoccer.com Tournament Poll.

In addition to her on-field coaching, Sanders assisted in the preparation and instruction of all training sessions while also helping organize the school's recruiting efforts.

She returned to Northwestern State in an assistant coach capacity after earning her master's degree from the institution and serving as a graduate assistant coach just a few years earlier.

Between stops in Natchitoches, Sanders earned SEC experience as an intern with the Auburn Tigers.

During that year on "The Plains," she helped run practice sessions and assisted in training the Tigers' goalkeepers. She also helped organize recruiting information while getting first-hand experience in the administrative aspects of a Division I soccer program.

Sanders has always had a passion for helping young soccer players develop their games mentally and technically, and she has been able to accomplish that through her work as a club coach and camp instructor at various settings across the Southeast.

From 2000-2004, Sanders helped with the elite Duke Soccer School for Girls as well as the Elite Soccer Academy. She also instructed campers at Auburn, Louisiana-Lafayette, her alma mater Tennessee Tech and the Ralph Lundy Soccer Academy in Georgia.

The Tyler, Texas, native brings a tremendous insight into the game following a stellar playing career at Tennessee Tech University. She helped the Golden Eagles to the Ohio Valley Conference title in 2000, a year after she earned second-team all-conference accolades. In 2001 she was named to the OVC All-Tournament Team.

Sanders inked with TTU following a stellar career in soccer and basketball at Robet E. Lee High School in her hometown.

The oldest of five children, Sanders earned a Bachelor's degree in biology and health science from Tennessee Tech and a Master's degree in health and human performance with a concentration in sport administration from Northwestern State.

The former Myranda Hill married David Sanders this past July.

ROBBIE KRÖGER

Volunteer Assistant Coach • University of Witwatersrand • Johannesburg, South Africa

Mississippi State head coach Neil Macdonald was needing someone to work with the Bulldog goalkeepers, and he found a playing and coaching veteran right on campus in Robbie Kröger.

Kröger, a native of Johannesburg, South Africa, begins his second season working with State's goalies on a daily basis while also assisting with some of the program's summer camps.

Kröger presents the MSU keepers with a veteran soccer background that includes over 20 years of playing experience.

"We are excited to have Robbie on staff. He has tremendous experience as a player and coach, and that has proven valuable during his work with our goalkeepers," MSU head coach Neil Macdonald said. "He works with our keepers on a daily basis, and we are excited to see the amount of energy he brings to our team. We needed a specialist to work with our goalkeepers, and Robbie gives us that. He is a tremendous asset in helping with the development of our goalkeepers. When we were looking for someone to work with them, it was great that we found someone with Robbie's experience right here on campus."

During his playing career, Kröger played on several provincial teams.

His first taste of elite soccer action came as a member of the U12 and U14 Eastern Transvaal Provincial teams. A couple of years later he earned a place on the Southern Regional Schools U16 squad in his native Johannesburg.

During 1995 and 1996 he enjoyed a stint playing for VFL Michelstadt in the Hessen Regional Liga, Germany.

In 1996, Kröger also had the opportunity to play for Balfour Park in Johannesburg's U19 Premier Soccer League. Kröger earned Goalkeeper of the Club honors as he helped Balfour Park claim the Preseason Cup, Premier League title and the Premier Cup.

His play for Balfour Park helped earn him a professional trial with Wits University, a team in South Africa's Premier Soccer League.

Kröger's passion for goalkeeping stayed with him during his transition to the United States. Upon his arrival in Starkville, he had the opportunity to train the goalkeepers for both Starkville Academy and Starkville High School. Kröger also provides private goalkeeper training for aspiring net-minders in the area.

Kröger takes pride in developing quality goalkeepers because he believes that they "hold the heart of the team on their sleeve, and that good training, awareness and athletic skills translate to team confidence and positive playing mentality on the pitch."

When not on the soccer field instructing State's goalkeepers, Kröger is instructing students in the classroom as an Assistant Professor in Mississippi State's Department of Wildlife, Fisheries and Aquaculture.

Kröger, born July 28, 1978, in Rio De Janeiro, Brazil, came to Starkville after earning a Ph.D in Biology from the University of Mississippi.

Prior to continuing his studies in the Magnolia State, Kröger attended the University of Witwatersrand in South Africa, obtaining Bachelor of Science degrees in Botany and Environmental Conservation Biology and a Master of Science in River and Wetland Ecology.

Kröger is married to the former Lisa Blair Sloan of Memphis, Tenn.

COACHING RECORDS

WILLIAM B. FINDLEY II 1995-99 • 37-53-4 (.415)

The first coach in Mississippi State history, Findley guided the Bulldogs through their first five years of existence. He helped earmark the Maroon and White as the SEC's most improved squad in 1996, leading his squad to a 12-5-2 clip - an overall five-game improvement from the 1995 season. That same year, Findley also coached the Bulldogs to their best home record (12-2) in school history en route to nearly skipping the team to their first SEC Tournament berth.

NEIL MCGUIRE

2000-03 • 36-40-5 (.475)

In his first two seasons, McGuire led the Bulldogs to a 8-1/2 game improvement from a 4-16-0 record in 1999 to a 13-8 clip in 2001. McGuire led the Maroon and White to program highs in both overall and conference victories in 2001 en route to capturing the school's first-ever women's SEC championship of any kind, as well as the first SEC Coach of the Year laurel for the MSU Soccer program. During his four years, McGuire coached five different athletes to all-conference accolades, including first team selections in 2001 and 2003.

NEIL MACDONALD

2004-Present • 43-83-10 (.353)

Having spent 2002 as a volunteer assistant and 2003 as a full-time assistant on college teammate Neil McGuire's coaching staff, MacDonald took over the reigns of the MSU soccer program in August, 2004 - days before his team would report for preseason practice. The results of his tutelage were quick as State turned in its most wins since 2001 and matched the school record for conference victories with a 5-5-1 SEC clip. The most successful rookie coach in the history of the Bulldog soccer program, he also became the first MSU rookie coach to lead his team to the SEC Tournament - just the second SEC Tournament berth in school history.

ACADEMICS

2011 BULLDOG SOCCER

Dedicated on November 1, 2008, the Templeton Athletic Academic Center is a welcome addition to the Bulldog athletic program. The $10 million facility is named for former MSU Director of Athletics Larry Templeton.

The 34,000 square-foot building serves the entire athletic department, houses the Athletic Academics offices and staff, and includes individual computer rooms, tutor work areas, a large open study area and a 300-seat dining facility with a fully-functioning kitchen.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

DR. MARK EVERETT KEENUM

Mark E. Keenum became the 19th president of Mississippi State University on January 5, 2009. An MSU alumnus, he returned to Starkville following a distinguished public service career.

Keenum earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in agricultural economics at Mississippi State and joined the faculty in 1984 as a marketing specialist with the MSU Cooperative Extension Service. Two years later, he became a research associate with the Agricultural and Forestry Experiment Station at MSU. He completed his doctorate in agricultural economics at Mississippi State in 1988. He then joined the faculty of that department as an assistant professor/economist.

In 1989, Dr. Keenum was named to the Washington, D.C., staff of U.S. Senator Thad Cochran as legislative assistant for Agriculture and Natural Resources. He worked on wide-ranging issues affecting U.S. agriculture, including the 1990, 1996, and 2002 Farm Bills. From 1996-2006, he served as Senator Cochran's chief of staff. In that role, he was the chief adviser to the senator on political, legislative and appropriations issues. He managed all administrative and legislative functions of Sen. Cochran's Washington, D.C., office and three Mississippi offices. He also had oversight of the U.S. Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry and the Committee on Appropriations. He left Capitol Hill in 2008 to become Under Secretary of the U.S. Department of Agriculture in the George W. Bush Administration. He held the post for two years, leading the Farm Service Agency, the Risk Management Agency and the Foreign Agricultural Service.

While at USDA, Dr. Keenum headed initiatives to combat world hunger and promote capacity-building in developing countries. For his work, he earned the Hunger's Hope Award for Distinguished Public Service from America's Second Harvest, the nation's leading hunger relief charity. At MSU, Dr. Keenum has continued the focus on this issue, creating an International Institute in 2011 to coordinate university involvement in academic and research activities on a global scale. The initiative complements the university's broader service and outreach efforts in communities across Mississippi, the region and the nation.

Under Keenum's leadership, Mississippi State has strengthened its role as the flagship research university in the state. The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching in 2011 classified MSU as a research university with "very high research activity," one of just 108 in the nation and the only such designation in Mississippi.

Dr. Keenum is presiding over a period of record growth at MSU, with enrollment figures setting all-time highs. The totals also include record numbers of freshmen, who report the highest grade point averages in school history.

A $100 million fund raising campaign was launched in 2009 to secure the resources to provide scholarships for students and for MSU faculty support. Called StatePride, the effort had reported more than $65 million by Summer 2011 in gifts and pledges. The first awards were distributed in Fall 2010. Dr. Keenum has also led efforts to expand funding for the MSU Promise Program, which provides scholarship assistance to students whose families have limited financial means.

Dr. Keenum and his wife Rhonda have four children.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

SCOTT STRICKLIN

Using more than two decades of intercollegiate experience in communications, fundraising and marketing, Scott Stricklin has continued to build upon the momentum of the Mississippi State fan base over his first year as the director of athletics.

From his first day on the job as Mississippi State's Athletic Director in May 2010, Stricklin, using the department's foundations of focusing on student-athletes, possessing great integrity and aggressively promoting Mississippi State University, has overseen a year in which the Bulldogs enjoyed both on and off the field successes unparalleled in more than a decade.

The 2010 Bulldog football team compiled nine victories including the second-consecutive Egg Bowl win and a rout over Michigan in the Gator Bowl. The men's tennis team claimed the Southeastern Conference Western Division title and posted its highest-ever team grade point average in the fall. Baseball advanced to the NCAA Super Regional and men's outdoor track and field finished in the top 20 for the third-straight year.

Bulldog student-athletes again excelled in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, with all 16 sports far exceeding the minimum standard and 15 of 16 squads improving upon their previous year total.

Stricklin has overseen record fundraising for Bulldog Athletics, which has produced new facilities such as the $11.7 million Mize Pavilion at Humphrey Coliseum, a new football practice and training complex as well as future expansion and upgrades to Davis Wade Stadium. The Bulldog Club has solicited gifts totaling more than $20 million for the football facility, including a record $12 million gift from the Seal Family Foundation.

The Bulldog Club has initiated the most ambitious fundraising drive in the athletic department's history - an initiative called "Today, Tomorrow, Forever" - to generate funding for new construction and upgrades to existing facilities.

Supporters are responding at the turnstile as well. In 2010, Mississippi State fans packed Davis Wade Stadium for every game, buying all available season tickets for the first time in school history. A record 384,995 Bulldog supporters turned out in 2010, and the school has created a waiting list that has topped 1,000 requests for season ticket purchases.

Stricklin certainly wasn't a stranger to the Bulldog family or college athletics when he took over the reins at State.

A 1992 graduate of Mississippi State, the Jackson, Miss., native's resume is highlighted by 23 years of experience on the collegiate level in various capacities at five different universities. The last two years, he served as Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at his alma mater, overseeing fundraising, football and men's basketball scheduling, managing MSU's all-sport agreement with Adidas, facility planning, and serving as the administrative sport liaison for men's basketball and softball.

It was those types of day-to-day tasks that prepared the personable Stricklin to take over the top seat in the Mississippi State athletic department.

Yet it's a journey that started during his formidable days as a dedicated and tireless worker in the media relations department that's led to his highly-respected career coming full circle.

Prior to graduating, Stricklin's stint in the MSU media relations office included three seasons (1990-92) as the media contact for the nationally-renown baseball program. Upon graduation, he was named assistant media relations director at his alma mater.

He continued his climb up the ladder of success when he was named Associate Media Relations Director at Auburn, where he served from 1993-98. In 1998, Stricklin left Auburn to become Assistant Athletics Director at Tulane, where he served as the primary media contact for the Green Wave's 1998 12-0 football team. Next came a four-year run in the Big 12 Conference at Baylor (1999-2003) as Assistant AD for Communications and Marketing.

In 2003, Stricklin returned to the Southeastern Conference at Kentucky and spent five seasons as the Associate AD for Media Relations, where he oversaw the day-to-day publicity of the tradition-rich Wildcat basketball program. It was his last stop before returning to Mississippi State in the spring of 2008.

Stricklin, 41, is married to the former Anne Howell, the youngest daughter of Basketball Hall of Fame member Bailey Howell. The couple has two daughters, Abby and Sophie.
