ABOUT THE SCARLET KNIGHTS

• Rutgers opened the 2026 season at the NFCA Leadoff Classic in Clearwater, Florida, at 3-2. The Scarlet Knights posted a no-hitter in a 5-0 win over North Carolina Central, an 11-3 win over South Alabama in six innings and a 6-4 victory over Notre Dame for the first win over the Fighting Irish since 2012.

• Kelsey Hoekstra was named the Big Ten Pitcher of the Week on February 9. She was named to the NFCA Leadoff Classic All-Tournament team after going 2-0 in the circle with a no-hitter and batted .556 with three runs and three RBIs in leading Rutgers to a 3-2 opening weekend. Hoekstra collected her first career no-hitter in a 5-0 victory over NCCU, striking out a career high nine Eagles. She also tossed four scoreless innings versus South Alabama in the 11-3 five-inning run-rule win. The right-hander is currently holding down a 0.60 ERA with 13 strikeouts in 11.2 innings of work.

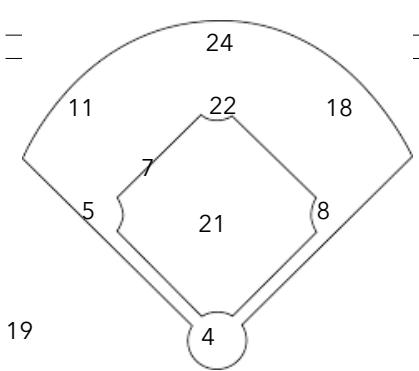

• In the 5-0 win over NCCU, Hoekstra's no-no gave the Scarlet Knights a no-hitter in each of the last three seasons. Her sister, Siera Hoekstra, captured RU's first home run of the year and finished the game with a pair of runs, Riley Hwang punched in the first RU run of the year on a stolen base and added a sacrifice fly and Etta Garofalo pinch hit to knock in a pair of runs.

• No. 4 Tennessee picked up a 9-1 win in five innings in the nightcap of day one. RU's lone run came off the bat of Addie Osborne with a home run in the top of the fourth.

• Rutgers rebounded with an 11-3 run-rule victory over South Alabama to open up day two. Kelsey Hoeskstra improved to 2-0 going four scoreless innings with four strikeouts in the circle, while at the plate she was 2-for-3 with a two-RBI double to put the Scarlet Knights up in their first at-bat. Sister Siera went 2-for-2 with a two-run walk-off single in the sixth. Sophomore Bailey Burtis batted 3-for-3 with an RBI and two runs while Osborne collected a two-run double and scored on Hoeskstra's walk-off.

• Osborne captured five RBIs on a two-run home run and a bases-loaded clearing double in a 6-4 win over Notre Dame. It was Osborne's second home run of the weekend. Gewecke picked up her first Scarlet Knight victory with 5.2 innings of work and giving up only one extra base hit. Sam Rohwer sent in RU's other run of the game on a single.

Kristen Butler, a former SEC Player of the Year and record-setting professional softball player in both the United States and Japan, enters her eighth season as the Rutgers head softball coach in 2026 with the Scarlet Knights reaching historic new heights during her tenure.

Altogether under Butler's guidance, Rutgers has made a pair of National Invitational Softball Championship appearances with Scarlet Knights earning a total of 11 All-Region, 10 All-Big Ten, four All-Big Ten Freshman, two All-Big Ten Defense, 69 All-Academic Big Ten and 18 Big Ten Distinguished Scholar honors. Scarlet Knights have also earned some of the country's most prestigious honors with Morgan Smith being named First Team All-America by Softball America and Second Team All-America by the NFCA and Payton Lincavage earning the Rawlings Golden Glove Award as the nation's top defensive third baseman. With Butler at the helm, RU has also set 15 team, individual, and career school records, including home runs, runs scored, RBIs, and strikeouts.

During her tenure, Rutgers softball has also made major facility upgrades, including a new stadium complex set to open for the 2026 campaign. Butler has also been the architect behind adding a new all-weather turf field, state-of-the-art video board, new bullpens, fencing and backstop, along with a modern, high-tech locker room at Jersey Mike's Arena and infrastructure to bring nationally televised games to the RU Softball Complex.

Altogether under Butler's guidance, Rutgers has made a pair of National Invitational Softball Championship appearances, with Scarlet Knights earning a total of 10 All-Region, nine All-Big Ten, three All-Big Ten Freshman, two All-Big Ten Defense, 62 All-Academic Big Ten and 16 Big Ten Distinguished Scholar honors. Scarlet Knights have also earned some of the country's most prestigious honors with Morgan Smith being named First Team All-America by Softball America and Second Team All-America by the NFCA in 2024 and Payton Lincavage earning the Rawlings Golden Glove Award as the nation's top defensive third baseman in 2023. With Butler at the helm, RU has also set 14 team, individual, and career school records, including home runs, runs scored, RBIs, and strikeouts.

During her tenure, Rutgers softball has also made major facility upgrades, including a new all-weather turf field, state-of-the-art video board, new bullpens, fencing, and backstop at the Rutgers Softball Complex, along with a modern, high-tech locker room at Jersey Mike's Arena. Most recently, infrastructure was completed to bring nationally televised games to the RU Softball Complex with further upgrades to the home of the Scarlet Knights still planned.

The 2024 season was one of the most prolific seasons in recent Scarlet Knight history, with the team capturing back-to-back 30-win seasons for the first time in program history, the most victories in Big Ten play, the most Big Ten series victories, and the highest Big Ten Tournament seed since joining the league back in 2015. Rutgers saw its first-ever NFCA All-American in Morgan Smith, along with team records in runs scored and RBIs, individual season records in runs, and career records in home runs, RBIs, batting average, runs, walks, and at-bats. The Scarlet Knights also captured series wins over Ohio State, Wisconsin and Minnesota for the first time in Big Ten action.

In 2023, the Scarlet Knights picked up a 30-win season for the first time since 1994, ending the year at 32-25 overall with its best start since 1980, its first top 25 victory since 2012, and a school record 288 runs. The Scarlet Knights opened the year at 8-0 for the first time in 43 seasons and finished the nonconference schedule at 23-11. RU returned to the Big Ten Tournament behind a victory over No. 18/19 and Big Ten champion Northwestern, along with series sweeps of Illinois and Maryland. The Scarlet Knights earned five conference postseason honors, with three named Second Team All-Big, along with nods to the all-defense and all-freshman team. Outfielder/pitcher Morgan Smith and Kyleigh Sand were also named All-Region honorees, while third baseman Payton Lincavage was bestowed the prestigious Rawlings Golden Glove Award as the nation's top third baseman, having committed only one error during Big Ten play. In addition to recognizing RU's talent on the field, the Scarlet Knights were honored in the classroom with a record 17 Big Ten All-Academic accolades and three members of the squad named to the College Sports Communicators Academic All-District Team.

The 2022 season saw Butler's Scarlet Knights qualify for their second National Invitational Softball Championship after jumping out to the best start in program history. The year began with RU opening at 10-3 for the best opening for the program since 1981, a year in which the Scarlet Knights advanced to the AIAW College World Series. After two challenging years due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Rutgers surpassed its win total from the previous season just three weeks into the year and also put together an eight-game winning streak, the longest for the Scarlet Knights since 1994. Outfielder Gabrielle Callaway and shortstop Kyleigh Sand were named First Team All-Big Ten, RU's first-ever first team honorees since the Scarlet Knights joined the league. The duo was also named First Team All-Great Lakes Region, marking two Scarlet Knight first-team all-region selections for the first time since 1994. As a team, RU finished the 2022 campaign with the most strikeouts in history (305), fifth in doubles (73), eighth in runs (238) and ninth in RBIs (212).

In her inaugural season in 2019, Butler led the Scarlet Knights to their best season since 2015 with 29 overall wins and 11 in conference play in 2019. Rutgers qualified for its first non-conference postseason tournament since 1996 by participating in the National Invitational Softball Championship, setting a school record for single-season home runs in the process and earning its highest seed in the Big Ten Tournament since joining the conference in 2015. Under Butler's tutelage, three Scarlet Knights were honored in the NFCA All-Region awards, marking just the third time in Rutgers softball history that at least three Scarlet Knights have been named to All-Region teams, and the first time since 1999.

Prior to making her way to the state university of New Jersey, Butler spent four years turning around the program as head coach at Toledo while earning the 2018 Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year honor. Under Butler's guidance, the Rockets enjoyed their best four-year stretch since the late 1990s with 104 overall victories. Toledo reached the 30-win plateau in 2018 for the first time since 1995 and earned a share of the MAC West regular season title with a 16-7 league record, marking its first such championship since 1992. Butler was subsequently named the MAC Coach of the Year.

The Orlando, Florida native was a four-year starter for the University of Florida from 2003-06, primarily playing catcher. Butler, who was named one of the Gators' All-Time Greatest Players, was voted the 2006 Southeastern Conference Player of the Year after setting a new program single-season home run record and still ranks among the top ten in the category. Additionally, she continues to hold the record for most runners picked off (8) and runners caught stealing (22) in a season, as well as the career record for most runners caught stealing (61).

Butler joined the professional ranks following graduation as a member of the Akron Racers of the National Professional Fastpitch league, where she was named the Defensive Player of the Year in 2008. She continued her pro career in Japan with Denso Softball and collected another record as the first player to hit three home runs in a game. Butler then joined the Chicago Bandits of the NPF until she retired in 2015 after breaking the league's all-time records in both home runs and RBIs. She still remains in the Top 5 all-time in both categories.

Kristen and her husband, Marcus, are the parents of sons, Austin and Nolan, and a daughter, Kalli. Butler graduated cum laude from Florida with a degree in sport management before earning a Master's from Toledo in recreation and leisure administration in 2017.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK NOTES

KELSEY HOEKSTRA

2/9 - Big Ten Co-Pitcher of the Week
NFCA Honor Roll

• The Overland Park, Kansas native was named to the NFCA Leadoff Classic All-Tournament team after going 2-0 in the circle with a no-hitter and batted .556 with three runs and three RBIs in leading Rutgers to a 3-2 opening weekend.

• Hoekstra collected her first career no-hitter in a 5-0 victory over North Carolina Central, striking out a career high nine Eagles. She also tossed four scoreless innings versus South Alabama in the 11-3 six-inning run-rule win. The right-hander is currently holding down a 0.60 ERA with 13 strikeouts in 11.2 innings of work.

• At the plate, Hoekstra was 5-for-9 across four games with two RBIs and two runs scored against South Alabama and posted a run in RU's first win over Notre Dame since 2012 in the 6-4 win.
