About Mississippi State: The Golden Eagles and Mississippi State complete their three-game, home-and-home series in Starkville this weekend. Southern Miss swept the Bulldogs in Hattiesburg last season, outscoring the visitors 23-6. The two teams have played six times over the last two seasons, playing three times in 2017 (once at Pearl and twice in Hattiesburg for the NCAA Regional) and three times in 2018 (season-opening series). The Bulldogs reached the College World Series last season, finishing with a 39-29 record and now are under first-year coach Chris Lemonis.

Opening Series Notes: Southern Miss opened its fifth-straight season with a three-game sweep of its opponent, Purdue, at Pete Taylor Park. The Golden Eagles outscored the Boilermakers 27-15 during the weekend, including 20-4 from the sixth inning or later over the three games. The two teams opened the season with an extra-inning affair, but the Golden Eagles rallied with solo runs in the eighth and ninth innings, before Matt Guidry delivered the game-winning single - the first game-winner of his career - as the Golden Eagles enjoyed their 12th walk-off win since the start of the 2017 campaign. In the middle contest, Stevie Powers retired the last 11 batters he faced and he and Cody Carroll retired 19 of the final 20 Boilermaker batters. In the finale, the Golden Eagles scored in only three innings, but produced their season-high output of runs, including a seven-run eighth to put the game out of reach.

Tough Opening Stretch: The Golden Eagles continue their stretch of playing nine of their first 10 games against NCAA Tournament teams from a season ago. That includes Purdue (3-0), Mississippi State and Gonzaga, with six of those games being at home. Southern Miss was also supposed to play Troy in Pearl, Wednesday, but that game was rained out. They also play New Orleans at home next Tuesday night.

Golden Eagles Win Both C-USA Titles: Southern Miss captured the 2018 Conference USA regular season and tournament titles, winning the league race by 2 1/2 games and then collected the tournament title for the second time in three seasons. It was the second time Southern Miss won both C-USA championships in the same season with the other time coming in 2003. Southern Miss won nine of 10 C-USA series last season, including five sweeps to capture 20 or more league games for the third-straight year and the sixth time overall. It also marked the fifth time that it has achieved the regular-season title as well as its fourth tournament crown. Four of the five regular season titles have come under current head coach Scott Berry, while he has led Southern Miss to three of their four tournament titles.

More C-USA Notes: The Golden Eagles have not finished lower than tied for third place in the league standings since Scott Berry took over in 2010, including first three times, second on two occasions and third four times...Southern Miss is the first time to win at least 20 league games in three-straight seasons since Rice did it (2006-08)...The 48 C-USA wins over the last two seasons are the most by any program over a two-year span in the history of the league...Offensively, the Golden Eagles have led the league in batting average, hits, runs, RBI, total bases, walks, on-base percentage and slugging, while have led the lead in striking out batters and fielding assists in each of the last two seasons...The Golden Eagles are the fourth different school - the others were Tulane (97-98), Houston (99-00) and Rice (06-08, 10-15) - to win the league regular-season crown in consecutive seasons...The 94 overall victories over the previous two seasons also ranks as the most wins in program history over a two-year span.

In the NCAA Tournament: Southern Miss made its 15th NCAA Tournament appearance last spring by playing in the Fayetteville Regional. After a 1-2 showing, the Golden Eagles are now 20-31 (.392) in NCAA Tournament play. The program has won one regional, one super regional and have appeared in the CWS once, all three coming during the 2009 campaign. It marked their third-straight NCAA appearance in 2018.

Preseason Rankings: Here is a look at Southern Miss in the national preseason polls this week: Baseball America - 21; NCBWA - 26; Collegiate Baseball - 29.

C-USA All-Conference Preseason Honors: Conference USA announced its 2019 preseason baseball awards, as chosen by the league's 12 head coaches. Southern Miss junior outfielder/pitcher Matt Wallner was selected as the preseason Player of the Year for the second straight season, while Rice junior right-hander Matt Canterino was named the preseason Pitcher of the Year. Southern Miss was picked as the favorite to win the league's championship. Joining Wallner on the preseason All-Conference team are three Southern Miss teammates including senior first baseman Hunter Slater (.309, 30 BB, 12 HR, 55 RBI), senior right-handed pitcher Walker Powell (7-3, 3.80 ERA, 83.0 IP, 62 K, 14 BB) and senior left-handed pitcher Stevie Powers (5-2, 4.07 ERA, 73.0 IP, 73K, 13 BB). The Golden Eagles four preseason All-Conference choices are the most of any league school.

Wallner Named to 2018 USA Baseball National Collegiate Team: Southern Miss sophomore outfielder/pitcher Matt Wallner (Forest Lake, Minn.) joined the 24-man USA Baseball Collegiate National Team roster last summer. He was with the team for the first five games, before playing the remainder of the summer in the Cape Cod League for the Falmouth Commodores.

Ferriss Trophy Winner: Nick Sandlin collected the 2018 C Spire Ferriss Trophy, May 21, at a luncheon held at the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame in Jackson. The Perfect Game National Pitcher of the Year won national pitcher of the week honors five times during the campaign, as well as capturing the Conference USA weekly honor four times. He was the third Southern Miss player to capture this award, as outfielder Tyler Koelling won the honor in 2011 and pitcher James McMahon earned the accolade in 2015. Sandlin, who was taken in the second round of the MLB First-Year Player Draft last June by Cleveland and finished his season in Double AA Akron, posted a 10-0 record last season with a 1.06 ERA and fanned 144 in 102 1/3 innings.

Reynolds Finishes Lone Season with .389 Average: Junior Luke Reynolds looked to become the first Southern Miss player since Jarrett Hoffpauir (.405) in 2004 to finish the season leading the squad in hitting with at least a .400 average but finished at .389. Reynolds ended the year ranked nationally in the Top 10 in the following categories: second in both walks (65), walks per game (1.05) and on-base percentage (.551), ninth in slugging percentage (.699) tied for 10th in runs (70). His walk mark also established a single-season school record. He earned C-USA Player and Newcomer of the Year honors and was taken in the MLB Draft last June in the 10th round by the Chicago Cubs.

Wallner Jumps into Top 10 Home Run List at School: With his three-run home run last Sunday against Purdue, Matt Wallner hit his 36th career homer, tying him for 10th place on the career school charts with Kyle Logan (1994-97). Doug Cronk (1986-88) sits in ninth with 38 and Derek Reams (1994-96) hit 39 good for eighth place at the university.

Random Golden Eagle Notes: The pitching staff allowed just 152 walks last season. The previous last three times Southern Miss allowed fewer than 200 walks in a season were in 2015 (167), 2007 (180) and 1982 (137)..The Golden Eagles were 21-8 at home last season. It was the fourth-straight year that Southern Miss has won at least 20 home games in a season and the 7th time during the Scott Berry era. The Golden Eagles opened the 2019 campaign with just nine walks, including one game in which they did not surrender a free pass. The squad posted a 39-8 when they give up three or fewer walks in a game last season.

40 Wins: The Golden Eagles have now won 40 or more games, 11 times in their history. USM first won 40 games in 1990. Southern Miss set its school record for victories in 2017 with 50, surpassing the previous best of 47 set in 2003. The Golden Eagles have won 40 or more games in each of the last three seasons.

Scott Berry Head Coach 10th Year (346-191-1, .644)

In nine years at the helm of Southern Miss baseball, Scott Berry has taken the program to sustained heights that no previous Golden Eagle coach has been able to match.

Under Berry's tutelage, Southern Miss has captured three Conference USA tournament titles, registered four league regular-season crowns, obtained five NCAA Tournament appearances and won the league's Coach of the Year Award three times, including in each of the last two years.

It's easy to see why he has won that award from his league peers the last two seasons as he has led the program to its two-year best total in terms of victories (94) over that span, collecting the C-USA regular-season title twice and the tournament championship once, while also reaching the final game in the other season.

In 2018, the Golden Eagles posted a 44-18 record en route to winning the league crown by 2 1/2 games in the regular season and upended Florida Atlantic 14-3 in the C-USA title game as the squad reached the NCAA postseason for the third-straight year and 15th overall berth.

Junior pitcher Nick Sandlin led the way for the program as a consensus first-team All-American as well as the Perfect Game National Pitcher of the Year, the Boo Ferriss Trophy Winner as well as the C-USA Pitcher of the Year before getting drafted in the second round by the Cleveland Indians.

Luke Reynolds, who captured the league's Player and Newcomer of the Year honors, also earned All-America honors as did 2017 National Freshman of the Year Matt Wallner.

Berry led the Golden Eagles to arguably its best season in the program's 90-plus year history in 2017 with the school's first-ever 50-win season, another Conference USA regular season crown and the hosting of the school's second regional.

For his accomplishments, Berry was named the C-USA Coach of the Year for the second time in his tenure, and the accolades for his program included the league's Player of the Year (Dylan Burdeaux) – the first in the school's time in the league – Freshman of the Year (Matt Wallner) and Assistant Coach of the Year (Chad Caillet). For the second consecutive year, the Golden Eagles had the most first team all-league selections including Burdeaux, Taylor Braley, Kirk McCarty, Nick Sandlin and Colt Smith. Wallner and Mason Irby enjoyed second-team picks.

Wallner also earned a spot on almost every All-American and Freshman All-American squad and became the first Golden Eagle to capture the Baseball America National Freshman of the Year and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Freshman Hitter of the Year. In all, four different Golden Eagles enjoyed All-America status including Braley, Burdeaux, Nick Sandlin and Wallner. The program also enjoyed their first Academic All-Americans since 2011 with Kirk McCarty (second team) and Sandlin (third team) collecting those awards.

The 2016 team battled for the C-USA regular season title up until the final weekend before snaring their first league tournament title since 2010 by winning four-straight games at Pete Taylor Park, including a 3-2 championship game victory over perennial favorite Rice.

The Golden Eagles enjoyed a league-high, five first-team all-league selections including first baseman Tim Lynch, center fielder Jake Sandlin, right fielder Dylan Burdeaux, catcher Chuckie Robinson and pitcher Kirk McCarty. The five selections matched Southern Miss' honorees in 2011, tying for the most Golden Eagles ever named first-team All-C-USA.

Senior pitcher Cord Cockrell was a second-team All-C-USA pick, giving the Golden Eagles' a conference-best six selections on the first two teams. Outfielder Hunter Slater and closer Nick Sandlin were each named to the C-USA All-Freshman team, with Southern Miss one of four conference schools with two selections each.

With the C-USA tournament title, the Golden Eagles returned to the NCAA Tournament after a four-year absence making their first appearance in Tallahassee, Fla., in a quarter of a decade since both teams were member of the old Metro Conference.

Berry's squad produced yet a couple more All-America selections as Tim Lynch garnered third-team honors by D1Baseball.com and Nick Sandlin collected Louisville Slugger Freshman All-America accolades.

In 2015, Berry's baseball Golden Eagles tallied a 36-18-1 record. What made 2015 so special for the Golden Eagles included the fact that the team went 4-0 against Southeastern Conference foes, including 2-0 against Ole Miss, while also beating Mississippi State and Alabama in the two schools' only meeting of the year. In addition, Southern Miss also swept Tulane and South Alabama during both of its meetings during the year. The team also won its last 10 league games to capture 19 C-USA contests during the year.

Senior pitcher James McMahon became only the second Golden Eagle to win the Ferriss Award for top collegiate player in the state of Mississippi, marking the second time that the program has won that accolade – both coming under the tutelage of Berry.

McMahon, who was also the C-USA Pitcher of the Year, went on to become the school's first All-American since Todd McInnis collected the honor in 2011.

During the season, Golden Eagle pitchers tallied a school-record 10 shutouts, while the offense collected their most home runs (42) since the 2010 campaign.

His 2014 club finished 10 games over .500 and reach the bracket final of the C-USA Tournament, finished 35-25 overall and 19-11 in league play. The 19 wins in C-USA play was the most since the 2005 club tallied 20.

In 2013, the Golden Eagles tied with Rice for the second time in the three seasons as the conference's regular-season champion. The program reached the C-USA title game for the second time under Berry, dropping the contest in 11 innings to Rice at Reckling Park in Houston. The Golden Eagles had previously defeated Rice in the 2010 C-USA title matchup, a victory that sent Southern Miss to the postseason in Berry's first year as head coach. The team finished 30-27 in 2013.

Four players from the 2013 squad earned All-C-USA honors. Senior catcher Chase Fowler, senior pitcher Andrew Pierce and senior infielder Isaac Rodriguez earned first-team accolades while sophomore pitcher/outfielder Mason Robbins garnered second-team honors.

In 2012, a young Southern Miss squad went through growing pains but still captured 32 wins during the campaign.

The development of youth was evident in the club as four players earned Conference USA All-Freshman honors, including Freshman of the Year Mason Robbins, along with pitcher Jake Drehoff, infielder/outfielder Michael Sterling and pitcher/infielder Bradley Roney.

The Golden Eagles also boasted the league's Newcomer of the Year in Andrew Pierce. A junior college pitcher, Pierce was also a first-team league selection with Ashley Graeter earning second-team honors.

In 2011, Berry earned C-USA Coach of the Year Honors as he led the program to its ninth-consecutive NCAA postseason as Southern Miss captured a share of the Conference USA regular season title en route to a 39-19 mark and a berth in the 2011 NCAA Atlanta Regional.

The 2011 season produced many awards for Berry's squad. Outfielder Tyler Koelling became the school's first recipient of the Ferriss Trophy, awarded to the top collegiate baseball player in the state of Mississippi, and was one of four Golden Eagles to earn First-Team All-Conference USA honors. The other honorees were Todd McInnis, Marc Bourgeois and B.A. Vollmuth. McInnis also garnered Pitcher of the Year honors in the league for the second time in his career.

Veteran reliever Collin Cargill, along with Adam Doleac, captured second-team honors, while Jared Bales earned league All-Freshman honors. In addition, Bales earned mention to two different Freshman All-America teams.

The Golden Eagles also excelled off the field as Bourgeois was named the program's first Academic All-American since 2009, earning first-team honors at designated hitter. He was named the C-USA Scholar-Athlete of the Year for the sport and also spearheaded a group of three players – himself, McInnis and Doleac – that made the league's All-Academic Team.

In Berry's first season as head coach, 2010, he was able to continue the success that he helped build while an assistant. That season, the Golden Eagles compiled a 36-24 record and won their first Conference USA tournament title since 2003 when they defeated nationally-ranked Rice 7-4 in the championship game, a win that earned the program its eighth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance.

Southern Miss boasted two All-Americans that year, pitcher Scott Copeland and shortstop B.A. Vollmuth. The duo, along with Todd McInnis and Collin Cargill, was named first-team All-Conference USA.

Berry's initial success as the top man in the program came on the heels of a magical 2009 season in which Berry, as associate head coach to Corky Palmer, helped lead the program to its first Super Regional. In that round of the postseason, Southern Miss swept Florida in Gainesville and earned an inaugural visit to the College World Series. The team finished with a No. 8 final ranking in three different polls.
