CHRIS LEMONIS

Head Coach | First Season at Mississippi State (Fifth Overall)

When Chris Lemonis stepped to the podium on June 25, 2018 at Dudy Noble Field to become the 18th head baseball coach in Mississippi State's storied history, a journey of nearly 40 years came full circle. The son of a 1973 State graduate, Lemonis resided in Starkville as a child and now returned to lead one of the perennial powerhouses in college baseball.

One of the top recruiters and player development coaches in the country, Lemonis has seen success at every coaching stop. After helping his alma mater, The Citadel, to five NCAA Regional appearances in 12 seasons as an assistant coach, Lemonis joined college teammate Dan McDonnell's staff at Louisville and quickly turned the Cardinals into a consistent Omaha contender. After helping Louisville to seven postseason berths in eight years, the 2013 American Baseball Coaches Association/Baseball America Assistant Coach of the Year headed to Indiana University to take his first head coaching job in 2015.

In his first season at the helm of Indiana, the Hoosiers found themselves in the NCAA Tournament and, after finishing third in the Big Ten standings during his second season, Lemonis became the first coach in program history to take IU to back-to-back NCAA Tournaments in years three and four. The 2018 Hoosiers took the No. 2 seed into the NCAA Austin Regional, falling in the regional final to eventual College World Series participant Texas. Three of IU's eight appearances in the NCAA Tournament came under Lemonis' watch.

Overall, Lemonis enters his 25th season as a collegiate coach in 2019, making three College World Series appearances as a coach, earning 15 NCAA tournament berths and aiding in three 50-win seasons. His pupils have earned 25 All-America honors, 12 Freshman All-America laurels and 65 have signed professional baseball contracts, with 14 getting the call up to Major League Baseball.

Owning a head coaching record of 141-91-2, Lemonis was also a part of nearly 800 wins as an assistant coach. During his time at Indiana, Lemonis' teams averaged 35.3 wins per season, including a 40-win campaign during his final season in Bloomington. He averaged 39.2 victories per year during his career in an assistant role, bolstered by a 44.9 wins-per-season average at Louisville. The Cardinals were college baseball's winningest program during that eight-year span.

Lemonis' 15 postseason appearances have spanned all three of his coaching stops, with five coming as an assistant at The Citadel, seven during his assistant coaching tenure at Louisville and three as the head coach at Indiana. The Cardinals advanced to the Super Regionals on four occasions, punching a ticket to Omaha three times.

Along with his success on the field, Lemonis has always held academics to the highest standard, as well. In his final season at Indiana, a program-record 16 baseball student-athletes were named to the Big Ten Spring Academic Honor Roll, while 26 Cardinal baseball student-athletes earned ACC Honor Roll selections during his final season in Louisville. Already at Mississippi State, Lemonis has shown his dedication to his student-athletes in the classroom, as the program posted a 3.04 GPA during the fall semester.

Lemonis not only understands what it takes to get to Omaha as a coach but also as a player. A 1992 graduate of The Citadel, Lemonis added a 1990 appearance in the College World Series as a student-athlete. The appearance makes the Bulldogs one of just three school in Southern Conference history (Duke, Wake Forest) and only current member of the conference to advance to Omaha.

A two-time All-Southern Conference honoree, Lemonis led The Citadel in home runs three times. During his senior season, Lemonis led the Bulldogs with a .367 average, 19 doubles, 52 runs, 10 home runs and 66 RBIs. A member of the 1993 All-Southern Conference Tournament team, Lemonis ranks among the top 15 all-time at The Citadel in RBIs (152), home runs (23) and slugging percentage (.538).

Lemonis' father, Thomas, was a 1973 Mississippi State graduate in electrical engineering, with Chris living in Starkville as a newborn during his father's time at State.

A native of Myrtle Beach, S.C., Lemonis and his wife, Jill, have two daughters, Marissa and Mackenzie.

Lemonis Wins No. 1

- Head coach Chris Lemonis earned his first Mississippi State victory in his first game as head coach, joining eight other Bulldog skippers to accomplish the feat.
- Lemonis joins John Cohen, Jimmy Bragan, Paul E. Gregory, S.L. Robinson, F.P. Plass, S.A. Jehl, S.W. Scales and G.C. Creelman, who each won their first games as the Maroon and White's head coach.
- Ron Polk won the first game of his second stint as the MSU skipper in 2002. However, Polk dropped his MSU debut, 2-1, to Louisiana Tech in 1976.
- Of the nine coaches to win their first game, Lemonis joins Creelman and Robinson as the only three to start 4-0 or better. Creelman won his first 14 games over five seasons and was 15-0-3 before suffering his first loss, while Robinson started 6-0 in 1919. Lemonis began the season 4-0.

- The new Dudy Noble Field features home and visiting radio booths inside the Jim Ellis Radio Suite, named for the iconic "Voice of the Diamond Dawgs."

Filling the #NewDude

Opening a new stadium always drums up elevated interest from fans, but opening the nicest facility in college baseball combined with a baseball-hungry fan base is a perfect combination to create an unbelievable atmosphere.

The best fans in college baseball have shown up in near-record numbers entering the final two weeks of the 2019 to help christen the "New Dude" in style.

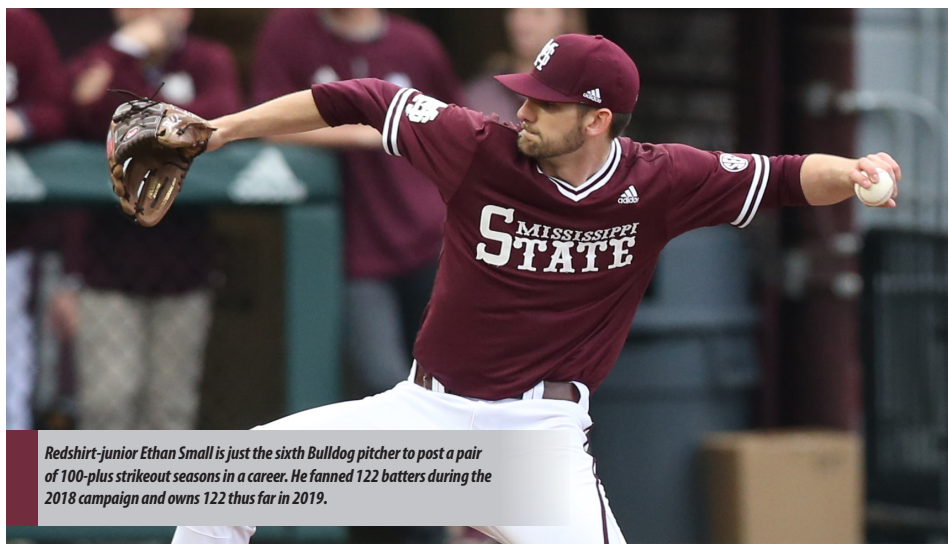

- Through 31 home dates, MSU is averaging 8,603 in home attendance. The school record for average attendance is 8,127, which came during 2014 season.
 - That average is helped by six crowds of 10,000-plus, which are already the second-most in a single season in program history with eight regular season home games left.

SEC Pitcher of the Week

- After not allowing a hit in seven scoreless innings at No. 15 Texas A&M on May 3, redshirt-junior Ethan Small earned his first-career SEC Pitcher of the Week honor.
- The conference honor is the first pitcher of the week accolade earned by a Diamond Dawg since the 2016 season, when Dakota Hudson earned the award on three occasions.
- Against the nationally-ranked Aggies, Small retired the first 19 batters he faced in the series opener on his way to seven hitless, shutout innings. The left-hander posted eight strikeouts, allowing just two base runners in the contest.
- Small was perfect six innings, but after recording the first out of the seventh inning, he lost his perfect game with a hit-by-pitch and followed that with a walk. He then got a flyout and struck out the final batter he faced in his sixth win of the season.

K to BB

- While the strikeout numbers have been impressive for redshirt-junior Ethan Small, he has also held down the walk numbers throughout his career.
- In 184 2/3 career innings pitched, Small has walked only 61 batters to 264 strikeouts. That equates into a 4.32 K-to-BB ratio.
- To start the 2019 campaign, Small went 80-straight plate appearances before issuing his first walk.

- The third honor came after Small produced 15 of his 18 out via the strikeout in a six-inning start against Alabama. He scattered three hits and three walks, while not allowing a run in the outing. The fanned the first five batters he faced and added a string of seven-straight hitters retired - all by strikeout.

Pen Production

Below is a listing of decisions (win or loss), holds and saves from the Mississippi State bullpen in 2019.

NOTE: A hold occurs when a relief pitcher enters the game in a save situation and maintains the team's lead, while recording at least one out. In order for a pitcher to be credited with a hold one of two conditions must be met: 1) He enters with a lead of three runs or less and maintains that lead while recording at least one out. 2) He enters the game with the tying run on-deck, at the plate or on the bases, and records an out.

SEC Awards Rolling In

- Mississippi State has earned six SEC weekly awards in 2019, with Elijah MacNamee, Jake Mangum and Jordan Westburg each garnering SEC Player of the Week, Ethan Small taking home SEC Pitcher of the Week and JT Ginn grabbing a pair of SEC Freshman of the Week honors.
- The six weekly honors are tied for the most in program history for a single season;
 - 6 - 2016 (2 Player, 3 Pitcher, 1 Freshman)
 - 2019 (3 Player, 1 Pitcher, 2 Freshman)
 - 5 - 2012 (3 Pitcher, 3 Freshman)
 - 4 - 2007 (1 Player, 1 Pitcher, 2 Freshman)
 - 1985 (4 Player)
- With MacNamee, Mangum and Westburg each earning SEC Player of the Week, it marks the first time in school history that three different Diamond Dawgs win the SEC's Player of the Week award in the same season.
- With MacNamee and Westburg winning the award in back-to-back weeks, it marked the fourth time in program history a MSU student-athlete won the award in consecutive weeks;
 - 1985 - Brantley (March 12), Will Clark (March 19 & 26)
 - 2013 - Hunter Renfroe (April 15), Nick Ammirati (April 22)
 - 2017 - Brent Rooker (April 7 & 12)
- For Ginn, he is just the third Diamond Dawg since the SEC began awarding the FOTW award in 2006 to claim multiple awards, joining;
 - Brandon Turner (2007)
 - Daryl Norris (2011)

Small Earns SEC Pitcher of the Week

- After not allowing a hit in seven scoreless innings at No. 15 Texas A&M on May 3, redshirt-junior Ethan Small earned his first-career SEC Pitcher of the Week honor.
- The conference honor is the first pitcher of the week accolade earned by a Diamond Dawg since the 2016 season, when Dakota Hudson earned the award on three occasions.

MacNamee Earns SEC Player of the Week

- Senior Elijah MacNamee collected multiple hits in each of his four starts during the fifth week of the season, as he earned Southeastern Conference Player of the Week.
- MacNamee helped the Diamond Dawgs to a 3-1 week, including a SEC-opening series win over a top-five Florida program on the road.
- The senior opened the week with a five-RBI showing against Grambling, including a sixth-inning grand slam.
- In the series opener at Florida, MacNamee made two of the biggest plays in the game, running down a flyball for the final out of the eighth to save a run from scoring. He then belted a two-RBI double in the ninth, which would account for the eventual game-winning runs. He contributed a career-high-tying three hits in the first game of a doubleheader, including a home run and a double and chipped in a pair of singles in the finale.
- The player of the week honor is the first for a Diamond Dawg since the 2017 season, when Brent Rooker claimed the award on three occasions.

Westburg Earns SEC Player of the Week

- Sophomore Jordan Westburg hit .583 to help Mississippi State to a series win over No. 16 Auburn and for his efforts was named the Southeastern Conference Player of the Week.
- In five total games between March 18-24, Westburg led the Diamond Dawgs with a .556 batting average and reached base in all five games to help MSU to a 4-1 week.
- His .571 on-base percentage for the week was tied for tops on the team and he piled up 11 RBIs. Westburg posted multiple hits in four of the five contests and ran his reached base streak to nine games after finding his way on base in all five games.
- He opened the week with a three-hit contest, scoring twice and driving in two runs against Little Rock, before reaching base just once at Samford – via walk.
- The New Braunfels, Texas had a monster weekend against Auburn, hitting .583 (7-of-12) to lead the Bulldogs in the three-game series and reached base at a .647 clip. He had multiple hits in each game versus the Tigers and reached base at least three times in each contest.
- He posted at least one extra base hit in all three games versus Auburn, including a double and home run in each of the final two contests. To cap his impressive weekend, Westburg drove in the eventual game winning run with an RBI double in the eighth inning to break a 15-15 tie and give MSU its second-straight SEC series win.

Mangum Earns First SEC Player of the Week Honor

- Senior Jake Mangum helped Mississippi State to a perfect 4-0 week against ranked opponents and became the SEC's career hits leader during a series sweep over then-No. 3 Georgia to earn his first-career SEC Player of the Week honor.
- Mangum broke an SEC record that stood for nearly 21 years on Saturday (April 27) versus Georgia with his 353rd career hit. That hit broke the conference's career hits record, which was previously held by LSU's Eddie Furniss (352; 1995-98). Most impressive, Mangum accomplished his 353rd hit in his 239th game, while Furniss did so in 265 games.
- Mangum became the SEC's career hits leader with his second of three hits in the middle game of the series with Georgia. The senior reached base three times in each game versus the Bulldogs, while finding himself on base twice in his fourth-straight Governor's Cup victory on Tuesday. Mangum also scored a run in each game of the week.
- After reaching twice in the midweek tilt with Ole Miss, Mangum found himself on base in his first eight plate appearances on the weekend (five singles, two walks and one fielder's choice), scoring four times. He tied his career high with two walks in both the series opener and series finale.
- In the middle game of the series, Mangum's second-inning single gave him 353 hits for his career, which pushed him past Furniss on the SEC's career hits list. He added two walks and a base hit in the series finale, scoring twice. He also stole his 20th base of the year, moving into a tie for 12th on the MSU single season charts.

Ginn Grabs Back-to-Back SEC FOTW Honors

- Freshman JT Ginn grabbed back-to-back Southeastern Conference Co-Freshman of the Week honors in weeks two and three of the 2019 season.
- The rookie collected victories over back-to-back ranked opponents, defeating No. 21 Southern Miss and No. 8 Texas Tech.
- He fired off seven innings of three-hit, two-run baseball to earn a victory over Texas Tech on Saturday, March 2. Ginn fanned eight batters and walked only one in the outing. The Red Raiders were averaging 11.2 hits and 9.3 runs per game entering the weekend, but Ginn was able to scatter three hits, as he retired 12-straight batters from the second inning to the sixth inning.
- Against Southern Miss, Ginn tossed seven shutout innings and allowed just two hits and walked one batter. He struck out a career-high nine and didn't face more than four hitters in any inning.

Skelton on Posey Watch List

- Junior catcher Dustin Skelton is one of 79 Division I catchers named to the Buster Posey Award Watch List, which is awarded by the Greater Wichita Area Sports Commission.
- Skelton is among the initial candidates for the National Collegiate Catcher of the Year Award, formerly the Johnny Bench Award, which honors the nation's top Division I catcher as voted on by head coaches and sports information directors.
- Former MSU catcher Edward Easley won the prestigious award following a stellar 2007 campaign, which also saw him drafted in the first round of the Major League Baseball Draft.

Trio Earns Midseason Honors from Perfect Game

- Perfect Game honored three Diamond Dawgs with midseason awards, as freshman JT Ginn earned the publication's Midseason National Freshman of the Year, while senior Jake Mangum was a first-team midseason All-American pick and sophomore Jordan Westburg earned second-team midseason All-American.
- After winning his first six starts on the mound, Ginn was named top freshman at the season's mid-way point by Perfect Game. The rookie started seven games on the mound during the first half of the season, with four of those quality starts
- Among the victories that made up his 6-1 overall mark at the middle point of 2019, the right hander posted four wins over ranked foes, including No. 21 Southern Miss, No. 8 Texas Tech, No. 4 Florida and No. 16 Auburn.
- Arguably the best leadoff hitter in the NCAA, Mangum posted 53 hits through the first half of 2019. Mangum is the NCAA active leader in hits, while he is chasing the Mississippi State and Southeastern Conference hits records. Westburg hit the mid-way point of the season having already surpassed his career totals for hits (44), runs (35), RBIs (33), doubles (13), triples (2), home runs (5) and walks (15). He had also been hit-by-pitch seven times.
- He carried a pair of double-digit reached base streaks during the first half of 2019, with a 14-game stretch to start the season and a current 14-game streak.

Three Earn Frisco Classic Honors

- After finishing the Frisco Classic at 2-0, three Diamond Dawgs were honored with all-tournament honors, as JT Ginn was named the MVP of the event, and Justin Foscoe and Elijah MacNamee each earned all-tournament nods.
- Ginn fired off seven innings of three-hit, two-run baseball in his third career start to improve to 3-0 with a victory over No. 3 Texas Tech on Saturday afternoon. The right hander fanned eight batters and walked only one in the outing.
- Foscoe led MSU with a .500 (4-for-8) average at the event. His four hits were the most for a Bulldog and he scored the game-winning run vs. Sam Houston State after leading off the eighth inning with a double down the left-field line.
- MacNamee hit .333 (2-for-6) at the Frisco Classic, but owned a .556 on-base percentage with two walks and a hit-by-pitch. He scored two runs and drove in one RBI on the weekend.

Allen Earns National POTW Honors

- Sophomore Tanner Allen opened the 2019 season with a bang against Youngstown State to earn national honors from a pair of publications.
- Allen had a monster opening weekend for the Diamond Dawgs, hitting .538 with five extra base hits and 13 RBIs versus Youngstown State. Of his seven hits, five went for extra bases, including the two home runs, to account for 16 total bases on the weekend.
- For his efforts, Allen earned Perfect Game National Hitter of the Week and was named to the Collegiate Baseball Newspaper National Player of the Week Honor Roll. MORE ON PAGE 4

Dudy Noble Field

Biography

The largest on-campus facility in college baseball, Dudy Noble Field will see the 53rd season of Mississippi State baseball at its current site in 2019. With nearly 1,600 games played at the venue, the Diamond Dawgs bring a .726 winning percentage into the brand new $68-million facility.

The field is named in honor of longtime MSU baseball coach, athletics director and ABCA Hall of Famer Clarke Randolph "Dudy" Noble. On April 27, 1998 the facility was renamed Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium, honoring another ABCA Hall of Famer, former Bulldog skipper Ron Polk, and the late Gordon DeMent, a successful businessman and longtime fan of the Diamond Dawgs from Indianola, Mississippi.

The Origin

From 1929 until 1964, Mississippi State hosted its baseball games at the original on-campus venue, Hardy Field, which was located several hundred yards to the south of the Bulldogs' home football venue, Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field. The baseball field was closed following the 1964 season to make way for the construction of Dorman Hall and for the next two seasons the Diamond Dawgs played their home games at Redbird Park in Columbus, Mississippi, capturing SEC titles both seasons at their temporary home.

The tin-roofed grandstand and 2,000-seat bleachers from the original Dudy Noble Field were transported to the stadium's present site, which became playable for the 1967 season. Since that time, facility enhancements have followed at a steady pace to make the "Carnegie Hall of College Baseball" one of the finest all-around facilities on the road to Omaha. Among with numerous upgrades, the current site has seen two complete demolitions and reconstructions, the latest occurring during a three-year span from 2017-2019 and opening prior to the start of the 2019 campaign.

Leading the Attendance Boom

With a laundry list of legendary names on its all-time roster, it comes as no surprise that Mississippi State ranks among the nation's attendance leaders year in and year out. The Dudy Noble Field faithful have sold out the reserved seating allotment every season since 1987.

Along with routinely hosting some of the largest crowds in the SEC, 10 of the last 12 three-day Super Bulldog Weekend series have drawn more than 25,000 fans.

MSU eclipsed the 200,000 mark in paid attendance at Dudy Noble Field for six-straight seasons between 2012-17, marking the first such occurrence in the program's history. In 2013, the Diamond Dawgs' five-millionth fan walked through the turnstiles at Dudy Noble Field. Since home attendance figures were charted starting in 1976, the "Carnegie Hall of College Baseball" has seen 6,250,621 fans rush through the gates.

In 18 of the last 19 seasons, Mississippi State has averaged 6,000 fans per game, including a record average of 8,127 during the 2014 campaign. Overall, State has eclipsed the 200,000-fan mark 11 times since 2002, with a school-record 302,558 viewing the 2016 home schedule.

Of the top 25 all-time college baseball on-campus attendances, Dudy Noble Field finds itself on the list 17 times, most notably owning the all-time on-campus attendance record of 15,586 on April 12, 2014. The Bulldogs own 14 of the top 15 marks in NCAA on-campus history and are the only NCAA baseball program to boast on-campus attendances of 14,000 or more. The four largest NCAA Super Regional crowds have assembled in Starkville, Mississippi, as well.

From April 11-13, the Bulldog faithful flooded the gates at Dudy Noble Field to the tune of 39,181 fans for a three-game series versus Ole Miss. The nearly 40,000 fans on the weekend set an NCAA on-campus attendance record for a three-game series.

Dudy Noble Field has ushered in crowds of 10,000 or better 55 times, including 2007 NCAA Super Regional-record draws of 13,715 and 12,620 for nationally-televised, late-morning games against Clemson. With the stadium under construction in 2018, State added a 10,000-plus crowd to the tally, drawing 10,147 fans for the final date against Arkansas on April 21.

Mississippi State has hosted 23 postseason events at the facility, including three NCAA District III Tournaments (1973, 74 & 75), five SEC tournaments (1979, 1981, 1983, 1988 & 1995), 13 NCAA Regionals (1979, 1984, 1985, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1992, 1997, 2000, 2003, 2013 & 2016) and a pair of NCAA Super Regionals (2007 & 2016).

The aura of Mississippi State baseball at Dudy Noble Field is certainly not confined to the loyal legions in the impressive grandstand, pro-style luxury sky suites or luxurious Left Field Lofts.

In fact, some of the more highly-prized seats at Bulldog Baseball games are found beyond the outfield fence in the Left Field Lounge™. Waiting lists greet those seeking to purchase one of the 96 outfield lounges in the iconic two-level outfield tailgate.

Once a colorful assortment of pickup trucks, motor homes, and trailers — most equipped with barbecue grills — lined the outfield fence, completing a circle of humanity at Dudy Noble Field. Now, the permanent lounge spaces are connected to the concourse, allowing everyone to stroll through and experience the iconic lounge culture.

What began in the late 1960s as a popular gathering spot for baseball-loving MSU supporters now forms college baseball's largest tailgate party.

The "New Dude"

The second demolition at the current site occurred following the 2017 season and the $68 million facility opened its gates for the 2019 campaign. Architect Wier Boerner Allin, along with consultants Populous and famed stadium architect/State alum Janet Marie Smith designed the project, while construction manager ICM and general contractor JESCO Construction, Inc. oversaw the construction.

Covering 12 acres of land on the Mississippi State University campus, the 230,000 square foot facility carries on Dudy Noble Field's legacy as the "Carnegie Hall of College Baseball." Installation of the second largest scoreboard in college baseball, measuring 43 feet wide by 60 feet high, started the project in 2017. The board, which was the largest in college baseball upon installation, is larger than boards owned by three Major League Baseball teams. The addition of 96 permanent Left Field Lounge rigs encircling the outfield followed during the fall of 2018.

The concourse and lower-level grandstands were in place for the 2018 season, with the Diamond Suites, upper-deck reserved seating area and three unique club areas — Farm Bureau Triple Crown Club, Charlie and Dana Stephenson Omaha Club and The Rooftop Club — were completed prior to the 2019 campaign. The newest version of Dudy Noble Field also features increased restroom facilities and concession points of sale.

The player spaces also received an upgrade, expanding to cover 18,000 square feet underneath the facility. The fully-equipped Bruce and Julie Martin Locker Room includes an embedded equipment room, houses 40 wooden lockers and features an oversized, dimensional halo-lit '85 Script Mississippi State sign is suspended overhead in the middle of the room.

The more spacious locker room includes an attached training room with whirlpool and fully-functional fueling station. The Mitch Moreland Hitting Tunnel, which is equipped with HitTrax, and Turner & Gloria Wingo Team Lounge are easily accessed from the home dugout, with the eye-popping player entrance and Hassell H. Franklin Omaha Room greeting players as they enter the facility. The Pitching Lab is also housed under the stadium, featuring arm care and conditioning equipment, one oversized turfed mound with three pitching rubbers and state of the art video equipment.
