TENNESSEE HEAD BASEBALL COACH: TONY VITELLO

Full Bio on UTSports.com

Tony Vitello accepted the position of head coach for the Tennessee Volunteers baseball program on June 7, 2017.

In just four years, Vitello has elevated the Tennessee program from the bottom of the SEC to one of the nation's top programs. Vitello was named the National Coach of the Year by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association and Perfect Game in 2021 after leading the Vols to their first College World Series since 2005.

A native of St. Louis, Missouri, Vitello arrived on Rocky Top following four seasons as assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at Arkansas. His rise to the head coaching ranks also includes stops at Missouri (his alma mater) and TCU. He has earned a reputation as one of the elite recruiters on the college baseball landscape, having assembled eight top-15 signing classes--including America's top-rated crop of talent in 2014.

Under the leadership of Vitello, the 2022 season has already been one for the record books. The Vols claimed their first SEC Regular-Season Championship since 1995 and a second-straight SEC East division title. The Vols posted the best start to Southeastern Conference play since the inception of the league and reached 40 wins in just 44 games.

Tennessee continued its ascension through the college baseball ranks during an historic 2021 season. Vitello's Vols won 50 games for just the third time in program history, finishing with a 50-18 record while advancing to their first College World Series in 16 years. UT also hosted an NCAA regional for the first time since 2005 and hosted its first-ever super regional, sweeping LSU to punch its ticket to Omaha for the fifth time in program history. Tennessee's 50 wins were tied for the most in the country in 2021.

Under Vitello's guidance, Tennessee won its first SEC Eastern division title since 1997 after posting a 20-10 record in league play and winning eight of its 10 conference series, including all five series on the road for the first time ever. The Vols also made their first appearance in the SEC Tournament Championship game since 1995 and advanced to back-to-back NCAA regionals for the first time since 2004 and 2005.

Vitello was named the 2021 National Coach of the Year by the NCBWA and Perfect Game, becoming just the second head coach in program history to earn that honor, joining legendary Vols' skipper Rod Delmonico, who was named National Coach of the Year by Baseball America in 1995.

With an 11-6 win over Georgia on March 19, Vitello became the fastest head coach in program history to win 100 games with the Vols, overtaking Delmonico's mark of 163 games. Vitello needed just 153 contests to accomplish the feat. The St. Louis native has compiled a 134-68 record during his four seasons with the Big Orange despite having the majority of the 2020 season canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Tennessee was ranked for the entire 2021 season and checked in as high as No. 2 in the polls on multiple occasions--the program's highest ranking ever. The Vols set a program record with 16 road victories and hit 98 home runs--second most in school history. Tennessee also had five players earn All-America honors in 2021, another program record. Since Vitello took over the program prior to the 2018 season, the Vols have increased their win total during every full season (29 - 2018, 40 - 2019, 50 - 2021).

For the third year in a row, Tennessee was also well-represented in the MLB Draft. UT's seven total picks were tied for the sixth most among Division I programs, tied for the second most in a single draft in program history and marked the most Vols ever selected through the first 20 rounds of any draft. During Vitello's first four seasons as head coach, the Vols have had 17 players selected in the MLB Draft.

After leading the program back to the NCAA Tournament in 2019, Vitello and the Vols looked poised to take another step forward in 2020 after a strong start to the season. The Vols were ranked as high as No. 11 in the nation after a 13-0 start and were 15-2 heading into SEC play before the season was halted and eventually canceled due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. UT's No. 11 national ranking was its highest since being ranked No. 11 in the 2007 preseason poll.

Prior to the season being canceled, Tennessee led the country in total runs (180) and runs per game (10.6) while ranking second in home runs (31), slugging percentage (.556), walks (124), on-base percentage (.442) and WHIP (0.94). The Vols were also among the national leaders in a handful of other statistical categories, including: batting average: .320 (fifth), doubles: 43 (sixth), hits: 193 (third), ERA: 2.00 (fourth), fielding percentage: .981 (18th), hits allowed/nine innings: 6.41 (16th), shutouts: three (12th), strikeout-to-walk ratio: 4.89 (third) and walks allowed/nine innings: 2.06 (third).

The highlight of the shortened 2020 season was winning the inaugural Round Rock Classic. The Vols swept a loaded field that included No. 1 Texas Tech, Houston and No. 25 Stanford, outscoring those three teams by a combined score of 21-8. UT's 6-2 win over No. 1 Texas Tech to open the tournament was the program's sixth victory over a top-10 team and second over a top-ranked team since Vitello took over prior to the 2018 season.

In June's MLB Draft, Tennessee had three players selected, which was tied for second most in the SEC and fifth most in the nation. Garrett Crochet became the program's 17th first-round pick and the first under Vitello at Tennessee, going No. 11 overall to the Chicago White Sox. Alerick Soularie was taken in the second round by the Minnesota Twins and Zach Daniels was selected in the fourth round by the Houston Astros, giving UT three picks in the first four rounds for the first time since 2007. The 2020 draft was shortened to just five rounds due to the coronavirus.

Tennessee took a major step forward as a program during Vitello's second season at the helm in 2019. The Vols went 40-21 overall and 14-16 in SEC play to finish third in the Eastern Division, the program's highest finish since 2005. Vitello led the Big Orange to their first NCAA Regional since 2005, ending a 13-year drought.

The Vols exploded out of the gates in 2019 with the best start in program history, winning their first 15 games of the season. UT also won five series in SEC play (most since 2005) and finished the year with 26 victories over non-conference teams (most since 2000).

Tennessee was ranked in the Top 25 for 10 weeks in large part due to boasting one of the nation's top pitching staffs and fielding teams. The Vols tied the program record with 10 shutouts (second in the country) and also finished among the national leaders in strikeout-to-walk ratio (ninth), WHIP (10th), walks allowed/nine innings (14th), ERA (19th) and fielding percentage (14th). UT's .979 fielding percentage was the best in program history.

UT's offensive production also saw an increase under Vitello in 2019. The Vols scored 378 runs, had 173 extra-base hits, hit 53 home runs and had a slugging percentage of .407, all marks that were the highest since 2010. Tennessee was one of the country's most proficient base stealing teams as well, leading all Power 5 programs with 108 stolen bases. Junior speedster Jay Charleston finished the year with 41 steals, becoming the first SEC player to steal 40-plus bases in a season since VFLs Chris Burke (49) and Stevie Daniel (46) both accomplished the feat back in 2001.

Tennessee also had six players selected in the 2019 Major League Baseball Draft, tying the most since 2015. Andre Lipcius (third round), Stallings (fifth round), Andrew Schultz (sixth round), Zach Linginfelter (ninth round), Ricky Martinez (18th round) and Charleston (26th round) were all among those picked.

In his first season at Tennessee, Vitello led the Vols to a 29-27 overall record and engineered an impressive turnaround from 2017 in SEC play. After winning just seven conference games in 2017, Vitello helped lead UT to 12 wins and three series victories in conference play, including a sweep of Alabama and series victories over ranked foes Texas A&M and Kentucky. Tennessee posted a 9-6 record at home in league play, which was the program's best since 2005.

A three-year letterwinner at Missouri (2000-02), Vitello earned Academic All-Big 12 Conference honors as a senior and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll twice. Following his playing career and the completion of his management degree at MU, Vitello joined the Missouri coaching staff as a volunteer assistant in 2003 and completed his course work for his master's degree in Business. In 2004, he was elevated to full-time assistant coach.
