Requests for credentials must be sent to Alex Sims (apsims@olemiss.edu) at least 24 hours prior to each game. Please only submit credential requests for games you are sure to attend. Priority will be given to media outlets and members who regularly cover Ole Miss baseball.

ON A HEATER

No player in the Rebel lineup has been hotter in SEC play than Tim Elko. The Rebel captain is batting .407 in conference play to lead the SEC, also pacing the league with 23 runs batted in during conference games. Elko has clobbered eight home runs against SEC opposition, the second most in the conference.

BIG LOOSH

In his only two starts of the season, junior college product Dylan DeLucia has been nothing short of electric. In his first start on the road at Kentucky, DeLucia held the Wildcats to one unearned run and three hits with five strikeouts in 6.1 innings. At South Carolina, DeLucia produced the longest outing by a Rebel this season, tossing 7.2 frames with one run on six hits, striking out four.

DeLucia has been nearly unhittable on the road all season, posting a 1.27 ERA with 20 strikeouts to just three walks in 21.1 innings.

THRICE AS NICE

Sophomore Jacob Gonzalez had himself a day in the Saturday game against Alabama, crushing three long balls to tie the single-game school record and become the first Rebel to hit three home runs in a game since Jude Voltz against Vanderbilt on April 2, 1999. It is the eighth time a Rebel has ever hit three big flies in one game and Gonzalez becomes the 7th different player to accomplish the feat. For his efforts, Gonzalez was one of four nominees for the Golden Spikes Award Performance of the Week.

REBS DIG THE LONG BALL

Ole Miss has been doing much of its damage this season by sending balls over the fence, ranking 11th in the nation with 61 home runs on the year. The Rebels have two double-digit home run hitters in SEC leader Tim Elko (15) and Jacob Gonzalez (11). The Rebels have hit back-to-back home runs three times this season, including launching three in a row at UCF.

#MLBREBS

Ole Miss has three former players currently on MLB rosters in Lance Lynn (Chicago White Sox), Mike Mayers (Los Angeles Angels) and Drew Pomeranz (San Diego Padres).

PACK SWAYZE

Ole Miss ranks fourth in the nation in both total and average attendance this season. In the 22 home games available in the most recent data, 218,848 total fans have packed the stands at Swayze Field, good for an average of 9,948 per game.

CAP'N CRUSH

Overall, Ole Miss' 22 sac flies are the 14th most in college baseball, second in the SEC.

MIKE BIANCO

RUN DOWN

Ole Miss named Mike Bianco head coach of the Rebel baseball program on June 7, 2000. Since then, Bianco has become the winningest coach in program history and one of the top coaches in Southeastern Conference history while establishing Ole Miss as one of the premier programs in college baseball.

In 21 seasons leading the program, Bianco has delivered 17 postseason appearances, including seven Super Regional berths and a trip to the College World Series in 2014. He has racked up 812 victories, holding a 812-462-1 (.637) record. Those wins are the most in Rebel baseball history and rank third all-time among coaches in the SEC. He also stands as the winningest and longest-active coach in the SEC among the sports of baseball, men's basketball and football. The Rebels have reached the 30-win plateau in each of Bianco's 20 full seasons, including nine 40-win campaigns, proving that the Rebels don't rebuild under Bianco—they reload.

The Rebels posted three straight 40-win seasons from 2005-07 for the first time in school history and have hit the program record of 48 wins three times, most recently a 48-17 (.738) season in 2018, which came as the best win percentage by a Rebel team in the past 48 seasons. That 48-win campaign set in motion another trio of 40-win seasons in 2018, 2019 and 2021.

Ole Miss was poised for another 40-win season in 2020, racing out to a 16-1 start before the campaign was cut short due to the spread of COVID-19. The Rebels ended the season on a 16-game win streak—the longest in the nation in 2020 and one short of the program record for consecutive wins. At the conclusion of the shortened season, Bianco became the first Rebel head coach to be named National Coach of the Year, earning the honor from Collegiate Baseball.

To become the all-time winningest coach in Ole Miss history, Bianco passed Rebel legend Jake Gibbs with his 486th win on March 9, 2013, against Lipscomb in non-conference action. On March 6, 2016, he won his 600th game at Ole Miss to become just the ninth coach in SEC history to record at least 600 wins. On May 11, 2018, Bianco became just the fifth coach in history to record 700 wins with an SEC school, as well as earning his 800th career win with a victory over Auburn.

The Rebel skipper added multiple milestones in 2019, including notching his 300th win in SEC play as Ole Miss turned in a dominant 12-4 victory over Florida on April 5. When his Rebels defeated Texas A&M 13-3 on Friday, April 26, Bianco won his 739th game as the head coach in Oxford, moving him to third all-time in SEC history ahead of South Carolina's Ray Tanner.

With a road SEC win at Texas A&M on May 8, 2021, gave Bianco 900 for his career, including 800 in a Rebel uniform to become one of 16 active head coaches with 900 career victories and one of just two in the SEC alongside LSU's Paul Mainieri and Arkansas' Dave Van Horn. The SEC's winningest active coach joined Ron Polk and Skip Bertman as the only coaches in conference history with 800 wins.

The winning tradition has led to a wealth of success in the nation's strongest baseball conference. Under Bianco, the Rebels have won four SEC Western Division titles, two SEC Tournament titles and one SEC regular-season championship, coming in 2009. Ole Miss captured the SEC Tournament title in 2006 and again in 2018. The Rebels also won the SEC West crown in 2018, becoming just the second in program history to win both a divisional and tournament title in the same season. The Rebels have finished .500 or above in 17 of Bianco's 20 seasons.

MLB Rebs

The excellence on the field has not gone unnoticed over the past 21 seasons under Bianco. The Rebels have seen 119 Major League Baseball draft picks in that time, including a combined 20 in the past four seasons.

At least three Rebels have been selected in each of the past 17 full seasons of the Bianco Era. Prior to Bianco's arrival, Ole Miss eclipsed four draftees just three times.

In the Bianco Era, Rebel pitchers have accounted for 68 selections in the MLB Draft, including three first-rounders. Drew Pomeranz was selected fifth overall in 2010, becoming the highest-selected Rebel ever, part of a class that featured five Ole Miss pitchers taken in the top 100 picks. Ryan Rolison joined Pomeranz as a first-round selection in 2018 when he was taken 22nd overall by the Colorado Rockies. Gunnar Hoglund became the third Rebel pitcher coached by Bianco selected in the first round, earning the No. 19 pick from the Toronto Blue Jays.

Bianco has also tutored 18 catchers who have gone on to sign professional contracts. In 2018 and 2019, three Rebels were drafted as catchers in the top six rounds. Nick Fortes signed with the Miami Marlins after they chose him in the fourth round in 2018, while Thomas Dillard (5th Round - Milwaukee Brewers) and Cooper Johnson (6th Round - Detroit Tigers) were quickly taken off the board in 2019.

In his 28 years as either an assistant or head coach at Northwestern State, LSU, McNeese State and Ole Miss, Bianco has coached 159 players who have gone on to sign professional contracts. Among those 159 players, 31 have made Major League rosters, including 20 Rebels in the past 21 seasons.

National Treasure

Bianco's on-field accomplishments have been recognized nationally, as the Rebel skipper was selected to serve as an assistant coach with the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team in the summer of 2013.

Ole Miss has a strong history with Team USA. Ten Rebels have competed internationally for USA Baseball in the Bianco Era. Seth Smith and Stephen Head both competed for the 2003 edition of the Collegiate National Team. Zack Cozart made the national squad in 2006, and Cody Satterwhite and Lance Lynn kept that going in 2007.

Drew Pomeranz became the sixth Rebel to sport the American flag uniform in 2009, followed by Bobby Wahl in 2012 and Dallas Woolfolk in 2017. Parker Caracci carried on the tradition in 2018, earning a spot on the Team USA roster, where he posted a perfect 0.00 ERA with two saves and opposing batting average of .094 in 9.2 innings of work. Doug Nihazy made it three straight seasons with a Rebel arm wearing the Stars and Stripes, earning a spot on the 24-man roster for the 2019 summer.

Three Rebels were selected for the 2021 Collegiate National Team: Jacob Gonzalez, Hayden Dunhurst and Derek Diamond. Gonzalez and Dunhurst both represented the Rebels in red, white and blue, though Diamond elected not to join the team in competition.

Bianco will once again don the stars and stripes this coming summer, being selected as the manager for the 2022 USA Collegiate National Team.

Title Time in Oxford

Not to be content with the success of previous years, Bianco's Rebels used the achievements of 2005 to springboard into the 2006 season.

The Rebels posted a 44-22 record, marking the first time in history that Ole Miss had turned in back-to-back 40-win seasons. Ole Miss also claimed the 2006 SEC Tournament Championship on the way to hosting its third-consecutive NCAA Regional as well as a second-straight Super Regional against the Miami Hurricanes.

The Rebels again had two players gain national recognition as Zack Cozart and Cody Satterwhite were named All-Americans and three Rebels gained All-SEC honors. With the conclusion of the 2006 season, Ole Miss found itself holding a spot as one of the top teams in the nation and atop the Southeastern Conference. The Rebels were the only team in the SEC to post a winning record in conference play each of the previous four seasons. Ole Miss also posted more wins in the SEC than any other program over the same time frame.

Ole Miss extended that streak in 2007 as the Rebels posted a fifth-straight winning season in SEC action, remaining the league's winningest program in a five-year span. The Rebels also set a new standard with a third consecutive 40-win season as Ole Miss advanced to the Tempe Super Regional and posted a 40-25 mark on the year. The Rebels became one of only two schools to have hosted an NCAA Regional each of the previous four years and one of only four schools to have advanced to Super Regional play three-straight years.

Several players pulled in honors in 2007 as Ole Miss added a third SEC Freshman of the Year in Jordan Henry and seven Rebels took slots on All-SEC teams. Cozart was named an All-SEC First Team selection, while Henry, Lance Lynn and Cody Satterwhite were named to the second team. Henry also joined Nathan Baker and Zach Miller on the SEC All-Freshman team. The trio also pulled in Freshman All-America honors, marking the first time the Rebels earned the honor for three players in the same season.

The honors continued to come in for the Rebels in 2008 as Ole Miss advanced to a sixth-straight NCAA Regional, playing in Coral Gables at No. 1 Miami. The Rebels advanced to the championship game before falling to the top-ranked Hurricanes. Scott Bittle brought home the program's third Ferriss Award as the state of Mississippi's top collegiate player and also earned First Team All-America honors.

Ole Miss continued to pull in the accolades in 2009 as the Rebels claimed the SEC Regular-Season Championship for the first time since 1977 with a 20-10 record in conference play. The 20 wins set the school record for wins in SEC play and helped Ole Miss secure a seventh straight berth in the NCAA Tournament, hosting for the fifth time in Bianco's nine years. The Rebels advanced to an NCAA Super Regional for the fourth time in five seasons, becoming one of only six schools to advance to at least four Super Regionals in that time.

In 2010, the Rebels made an appearance in the postseason with an eighth consecutive berth, competing in an NCAA Regional at the University of Virginia. With the appearance, Ole Miss became one of only 12 schools nationally to advance to eight straight NCAA Tournaments. Left-hander Drew Pomeranz claimed SEC Pitcher of the Year honors, becoming the first Rebel to claim the award since its inception, and also garnered All-SEC and All-America honors. Right-hander Brett Huber also claimed postseason accolades as he was also named an All-SEC selection and earned Freshman All-America honors. Pomeranz became the highest draft pick in school history when he was taken fifth overall by the Cleveland Indians and led a group of five Rebels drafted in 2010. The left-hander also became the fourth Rebel to claim the Ferriss Trophy, giving Ole Miss more winners of the award than any other program in the state.

In 2011, the Rebels continued to bring in postseason accolades as Alex Yarbrough was named an All-SEC selection. Ole Miss also continued the trend of sending Rebels to the pros with six players selected in the 2011 MLB Draft.

The 2012 season saw the Rebels advance to the NCAA Tournament for the 10th time in the Bianco era as Ole Miss advanced to the championship at the College Station Regional hosted by Texas A&M. The Rebels defeated the eighth-ranked Aggies on the way to the program's sixth regional championship game in an eight-year span, a feat accomplished by only 15 teams nationally at the time. Yarbrough was tabbed as an All-SEC and All-America selection at the conclusion of the season and was one of six Rebels drafted in the 2012 MLB Draft.

Ole Miss made the NCAA Tournament in 2013 with a berth in the Raleigh Regional hosted by N.C. State after a 38-win season and advancing to the third day of play at the SEC Tournament. Stuart Turner and Bobby Wahl became All-SEC and All-America honorees, while Turner was named the winner of the Johnny Bench Award as the top collegiate catcher in the nation. Ole Miss also continued the trend of sending players to the professional ranks with five players drafted, marking the 10th consecutive season with at least five players taken in the MLB Draft.

Rebels Return to Omaha

The 2014 season will go down as one of the best in Ole Miss history. The Rebels advanced to the College World Series for the fifth time in program history and the first time since the 1972 season.

Ole Miss claimed the SEC Western Division title for the third time under Bianco's leadership, posting a 19-11 record before hosting an NCAA Regional for the sixth time during the head coach's watch. The Rebels blew through the Regional with a win over Jacksonville State and a pair of wins over Washington on the way to a fifth NCAA Super Regional in 10 seasons.

In the NCAA Super Regional, the Rebels traveled to face top-ranked Louisiana-Lafayette and rallied after losing the first game to claim the NCAA Super Regional with wins in game two and three to secure the program's berth in the College World Series.

In Omaha, the Rebels faced No. 1 seed Virginia, falling to the Cavaliers 2-1 in the opening-round game before picking up win a dramatic walk-off win over Texas Tech and a 6-4 victory over TCU in elimination contests to set up another showdown against Virginia with a berth in the CWS Championship Series on the line. Ole Miss fell to the Cavaliers to end the season with a third-place finish, tying the best finish in the CWS by an Ole Miss team with the 1956 Rebels.

Top Recruiter

Not only have fans and the media covering college baseball noticed Ole Miss' resurgence under Bianco, some of the top talent in the country is also taking a close look at the Rebels.

Sixteen of Bianco's 21 recruiting classes at Ole Miss have garnered top-20 national rankings, including nine that have placed in the top-10. His first recruiting class was rated as one of the nation's 10 best by both Collegiate Baseball and Baseball America, including a No. 6 ranking by Collegiate Baseball.

The 2003 recruiting class was ranked No. 10 by Collegiate Baseball, while the 2011 class was ranked third nationally by Collegiate Baseball and fifth by Baseball America. It marked the first top-5 recruiting class for Bianco at Ole Miss. In the fall of 2016, Rebel Baseball earned the No. 1 ranking in national recruiting rankings by both Baseball America and D1Baseball.com. The top ranking was the first No. 1 recruiting class in the history of not only the baseball program but all of Ole Miss athletics.

Just when that 2016 class cycled through, the Rebels reloaded with another elite class. The 2019 Ole Miss class ranked No. 2 in the nation, highlighted by four prospects who were taken in the MLB Draft but chose instead to play in Oxford. The 2019 group included four of Perfect Game's top 50 prospects—the only class in the country of its kind—and the top-rated incoming freshman, two-sport star Jerrian Ealy.

Foundation of Success

Bianco's winning ways can be traced back to his playing days. After spending two seasons at Indian River (Fla.) Community College, he played two seasons for Skip Bertman at perennial national-power LSU in 1988 and 1989. He was the starting catcher and team captain for the Tigers' 1989 team that finished third at the College World Series in Omaha, Nebraska. He homered in LSU's 6-3 win over Miami (Fla.) in the 1989 CWS to help advance the Tigers to the semifinals.

While working behind the plate for LSU, Bianco caught major league pitchers Ben McDonald, Russ Springer, Curtis Leskanic, John O'Donoghue, Chad Ogea and Paul Byrd.

His time behind the plate as a player would later benefit him as he served as LSU's pitching coach during three World Series championship teams in the 1990s. Bianco also worked with the pitchers during his three years as head coach at McNeese State, and continues to serve in that same capacity with the Rebels.
