SERIES HISTORY: MISSISSIPPI STATE

Lipscomb and Mississippi State will meet for the fifth time and the 10th, 11th and 12th games in 2025. The Bulldogs have won the previous nine meetings.

Making their third trip to Starkville, the Bisons last played at Dudy Noble Field in 2023. That season, Lipscomb went on the win the Atlantic Sun Tournament and earn the AQ to the NCAA Tournament, competing in the Clemson Regional.

The Bisons have played nine SEC schools in program history since moving to the Division I ranks in 2001 (full members in 2004). Earning 17 wins against the league, here is the breakdown.

Alabama	2-9
Arkansas	1-0
Auburn	2-7
Georgia	1-10
Kentucky	5-5
LSU	2-1
Mississippi	0-6
Mississippi State	0-9
Vanderbilt	4-26

CARDIAC BISONS?

Lipscomb's four of its six wins so far have been in come-from-behind fashion.

Dayton, 2/13	trailed by 2 in 4th (3-5)
Dayton, 2/15	trailed by 2 in 5th (4-6)
Villanova, 2/21	trailed by 6 in 6th (2-8)
Toledo, 3/2	trailed by 4 in 4th (1-5)

Against Toledo on March 2, the Bisons countered every punch the Rockets gave. In the fourth, after scoring four times to lead 4-1, Lipscomb answered with 12 unanswered runs, four in the fourth, five in the fifth and three in the eighth, to beat Toledo, 13-5.

LEE KEEPS FOOLING THE OPPOSING BATS

Coming out of the bullpen on Feb. 24 against Belmont, Jackson Lee was the major reason Lipscomb ended a nine-game losing streak to the Bruins at home.

Tossing five shutout innings, the freshman punched out a career-best seven batters out of the 20 batters he faced. Firing 73 pitches, 49 of them caught the strike zone.

HOLM RETURNS TO BROOKS WALLACE WATCH LIST

For the second straight year, Kai Holm has been listed on the Brooks Wallace Award Watch List.

Given to the top shortstop in NCAA Division I, the Brooks Wallace Award is named for former Texas Tech shortstop Brooks Wallace, who played for the Red Raiders from 1977 to 1980. Wallace died of leukemia at the age of 27.

Holm is one of two representatives from the Atlantic Sun Conference, joining Leighton Jenkins from North Alabama.

MILLER AND MILES THE TRUE TABLE SETTERS

Brady Miller and Hutson Miles have been a 1-2 tandem in the lineup for the Bisons early in the 2026 season. Scoring 35% of the team's runs so far, Miller has drove in 14 runs, while Miles has added 13.

Miller has cracked the top 10 in runs scored in the conference, tied for eighth, while Miles is tied for 12th.

SKIP CELEBRATING THE BIG 2-0

The 2026 season will be the 20th for Jeff Forehand as the head coach of the Lipscomb Bisons.

Last season, he earned his 500th career victory with the Bisons against Eastern Kentucky on April 27, 2025.

The two-time ASUN Coach of the Year enters year number 20 in the Lipscomb dugout as the second-winningest coach in the ASUN, trailing Dave Tollett of Florida Gulf Coast.

OBIE IS BACK FOR HIS SENIOR YEAR

All-ASUN third team selection Cole O'Brien is looking to pick up where he left off in his first season with the Bisons.

After moving into the weekend rotation midway through the season, the senior posted a 2.62 ERA with a 3-3 record with 43 strikeouts in 55 innings.

In ASUN play, he posted a 2.39 ERA in nine appearances (seven starts), allowing 10 earned runs in 37.2 innings with a 3-2 record.

KENEALY LOOKING FOR THE THUNDER

Damion Kenealy Jr. is the returning leader in home runs (8) and RBI (37) last season, posting an .883 OPS.

In league play, he hit .356 to lead the team with a .911 OPS, posting eight extra-base hits and added 21 RBI.

MILLER TIME IN YEAR TWO

After a stellar first collegiate season that landed him on the ASUN All-Freshman Team, Brady Miller returns for his sophomore year.

Finishing as one of the top five freshman hitters last season with a .287 batting average and an .813 OPS, he was one of four players that hit .300 or better in ASUN games.

40 of 46 starts saw him at the top two spots of the lineup.

He was a true table setter for the Bisons last season, reaching base 40% of the time when leading off an innings (23-of-57).

PUCKETT ON NCBWA STOPPER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

Looking to solidify the back-end of the bullpen, Brock Puckett was one of 104 NCAA Division I pitchers named to the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Stopper of the Year Preseason Watch List.

A graduate student from Murfreesboro, Tennessee, he posted a 2.91 earned run average in 21.2 innings last season. Recording two wins and three saves, he struck out 27 batters, including a season-high three during the ASUN Tournament against Central Arkansas.

Allowing opposing batters to a .165 clip in 2025, Puckett allowed right-handed batters to an .089 mark (4-of-45) mark and had a .191 average (9-of-41) with runners on base.

FINDING THE STROKE IN 2026

Lipscomb finished second in the Gold Division in the Atlantic Sun Conference last season and finished second in a number of categories last season inside 30 league games:

- Batting average (.295)
- On-base percentage (.400)
- Slugging percentage (.486)
- Runs scored (219)
- Doubles (64)
- Home runs (48)
- Runs Batted In (203)

CATCHING THEM LOOKING AND SWINGING

One thing that went under the radar for Robert Zeigler’s pitching staff in 2025: strikeouts, and not the swinging variety.

While the Bisons finished fifth in the league with 131 called third strikes from their hurlers, 84 of them came in league play, which marked the most for any ASUN team last season.

The Bisons, in their ASUN Championship season in 2023, saw a league-best 88 opposing batters called out on strikes in league games.

FAMILY CONNECTION FOR HOUSTON HIGH

The name Houston High might not be familiar to Lipscomb University lore, but his parents might ring a bell.

His father, Brent High, played baseball at Lipscomb from 1992-96. After graduation, he served as Lipscomb’s sports information director from 1996-99. Later, he returned to Lipscomb to serve as Assistant Director of Athletics from 2007-11, overseeing development and external affairs. In the fall of 2011, he was promoted to Associate Athletic Director for Spiritual Formation until 2015.

His mother, Emily Pleasant High, was a NAIA All-American with the Bisons women’s basketball program in 1997. Attending Lipscomb from 1994-97, she scored 1,484 points and was a part of back-to-back NAIA national semifinal appearances in 1995 and 1996.

Playing at Lipscomb Academy during his prep career, Houston played collegiately at Union University (2021), Volunteer State Community College (2022), Freed-Hardeston University (2023-24) and Tennessee Tech (2025).

LOOKING TO IMPROVE IN ONE-RUN GAMES IN ‘26

Lipscomb recorded a 7-8 mark last season in one-run affairs last season, including a defeat that eliminated the Bisons from the ASUN Tournament in 2025.

However, Lipscomb’s 6-5 win over North Alabama on March 29 was the 100th one-run win at Dugan Field since 2001.

The Bisons are 100-68 (.595 winning percentage) in one-run games at home. Overall, they have 146 one-run wins.

DOING THE DIVISION THING AGAIN IN 2026

For the second straight year, the Atlantic Sun Conference will feature Division play in its conference schedule.

The 2026 ASUN Schedule will feature a divisional format, with teams playing home-and-home series inside their own division. There will not be any conference games played outside the division.

Lipscomb, playing in the Gold Division, will play Austin Peay, Bellarmine, Central Arkansas, Eastern Kentucky and North Alabama.

The Graphite Division will consist of Florida Gulf Coast, Jacksonville, North Florida, Queens, Stetson and West Georgia.

The top four teams in each division of the regular season conference standings, as determined by win percentage, will qualify for the conference championship.

Each team will be seeded 1-4 within each division, based on regular season winning percentage.

The 2026 ASUN Championship will take place May 19-23 in DeLand, Florida at Conrad Park at Melching Field.

WE ARE THE “BYE-SONS”

We are the “BYE-SONS” at Lipscomb. Don’t confuse us with North Dakota State as they are pronounced the “BYE-ZIN.”

Act like you are from the South.

The most commonly accepted plural of “bison” is bi-son, but at Lipscomb, we are the BISONS with an S. The unabridged Oxford English dictionary includes Bisons as a proper usage.

A two-time Atlantic Sun Coach of the Year selection, the 2025 season marks the 20th for Jeff Forehand as the head coach of the Lipscomb University baseball program.

After being named the 15th coach in the history of the storied Lipscomb program in 2007, Forehand has racked up over 600 collegiate wins and sits as the winningest skipper in the program's NCAA era with a 505-533 record.

His overall record as a collegiate head coach is 716-675-1 (.517) in 24 seasons. He earned his 600th career win on February 19, 2022 with a decisive 12-4 victory over Akron – only the second game of the season.

During his tenure, Forehand has led the Bisons to three ASUN Championships and the only three NCAA Tournament appearances in program history in 2008, 2015 and 2023.

He has mentored 63 All-ASUN selections and 13 superlative award winners, including 11 First Team All-Conference selections, 21 Freshman All-ASUN selections, three ASUN Defensive Players of the Year, two ASUN Tournament MVPs, two ASUN Scholar Athletes of the Year, two ASUN Pitchers of the Year, and one ASUN Freshman of the Year.

In addition, Forehand has coached one All-American, four Freshman All-Americans, five All-Region honorees and the program's first-ever ABCA/Rawlings Gold Glove recipient in 2017 – one of only nine to be honored in Division I.

His peers in the ASUN selected him as the league's coach of the year in 2022 and 2023.

Having players drafted is nothing new for Forehand as 17 of his student-athletes have received the call on draft day – including a program record three in 2017. There have been 33 total draftees in Lipscomb's history, with the most recent being Hayden Frank in the 15th round by the Chicago Cubs.

Casey Bond, who played in the Hollywood feature film Moneyball, and John King got the trend started in Forehand's first season in 2007 as both were selected by the San Francisco Giants. A right-handed pitcher, King was a 17th-round selection, while Bond got the call in the 25th round. Also, among the Lipscomb standouts who have been drafted under Forehand are right-handed pitcher Ike Buxton, drafted by the Miami Marlins in the 15th round in 2022, catcher Caleb Joseph, who was drafted in the 7th round by the Baltimore Orioles in 2008, and righty hurler Josh Smith, who was chosen by the Cincinnati Reds in the 21st round in 2010.

Highlighting the draftees under Forehand's direction was the 2017 class. Center fielder Michael Gigliotti was a fourth round pick by the Kansas City Royals, right-handed hurler Brady Puckett was taken in the 15th round by the Miami Marlins and Jeffrey Passantino heard his name called as the last selection of the draft by the defending champion Chicago Cubs in the 40th round.

It marked the first time in program history that the Bisons had multiple players chosen in the first 15 rounds of the draft, with the second coming in 2023 with Logan Van Treeck and Caleb Ketchup.

Prior to his arrival, Lipscomb had not posted a winning season since joining Division I as a full member in 2004.

After finishing just two games shy of .500 in his first season (28-30) in 2007, the Bisons posted a 33-30 overall mark and won a program-record 19 conference games en route to the team's first-ever ASUN title and NCAA postseason berth in 2008.

A major underdog, Lipscomb traveled to Athens, Georgia, taking out host Georgia in the opening round of the NCAA Tourney before falling to Georgia Tech in round two. That setup a rematch with the Bulldogs and Georgia prevailed in round two ending the Bisons first NCAA Regional.

Forehand's 2009 club came within one win of back-to-back trips to the NCAA tournament falling in the A-Sun championship game. That season would see another milestone for Forehand's program as pitcher Rex Brothers would become the second Lipscomb player drafted in the top round of the Major League Baseball draft. Taken as the 34th overall pick in the draft by the Colorado Rockies, the hard-throwing lefty made a quick rise to the majors making his MLB debut June 6th, 2011 with a 96-mph fastball against the San Diego Padres.

With the departure of a number of key contributors to graduation and the MLB Draft, Forehand and the Bisons went the next five seasons without ever winning more than 25 games or anything better than a 4th-place finish in the ASUN.

Those results didn't stop Forehand and his staff from making headlines on the recruiting trail. Forehand's 2015 signing class was the highest-ranked class in program history, according to Perfect Game's rankings. Lipscomb finished with the 56th-best class, trailing only Vanderbilt (1st) and Tennessee (42nd) inside the state lines.

In 2014 Lipscomb got off to a slow 2-8 start before heating up in a hurry. The Bisons stung together a NCAA-era best 10-game win streak and won 14 of their next 15 games to put together a 33-28 overall record – tying the then record for wins in a season in the NCAA era.

The team rolled into the ASUN Championship as the No. 4 seed, but after knocking off top seed and host FGCU twice, Lipscomb won its way into the championship series with Kennesaw State.

Offense was hard to come by against the Owls as the team stranded 12 runners on base in a 7-1 loss. KSU parlayed that win into a Super Regional berth.

In 2015, Forehand pioneered the best season in the program's NCAA era winning a school record 39 games. It was the first time the Bisons had won at least 30 games in back-to-back seasons in Division I era.

Closing the season as road warriors with 15-straight wins on the road, the Bisons clinched the No. 2 seed as they traveled to Fort Myers, Florida for the ASUN Championship.

Great pitching and timely hitting powered Lipscomb's 4-0 record in the championship with back-to-back victories over top-seeded North Florida – who possessed one of the most potent offenses in the country.

In the title game, Forehand made one of the best moves of his career going to freshman Allan Hooker off the bench as a pinch hitter. After going down three runs after three innings, Hooker blasted a go-ahead 3-run bomb in the top of the fourth to give Lipscomb a 5-3 lead and it never looked back en route to a dog pile at the mound when the final out was made.

The Bisons didn't have to travel far as the committee sent them down the road to the Vanderbilt Regional. Earlier in the season on April 7 in a midweek at Hawkins Field, Lipscomb earned a 3-1 victory over then-No. 1 Vandy behind a 7.1-inning gem from freshman Brady Puckett – it was the fewest runs for the Dores in 29 games.

The NCAA Tournament matchup was a different story however, facing an MLB first rounder in Carson Fulmer. Vandy rode the hard-throwing righty to a 9-1 win in front of more than 3,600 fans in attendance. The very next day, the Bisons' season came to an end with a 5-2 loss to No. 2 Radford.

In 2016, the Bisons put together a third straight 30-win season after finishing 31-27 overall and 12-9 in the ASUN for a fourth-place finish.

Puckett – as a sophomore – was voted unanimously the ASUN's Pitcher of the Year and earned a Louisville Slugger Third Team All-American nod. He tossed his way to a 9-2 record and a 2.93 ERA in 15 starts. He led the league in wins, strikeouts (101), innings pitched (107.2) and ASUN Pitcher of the Week awards (4).

Lipscomb hosted the ASUN Tournament and downed Jacksonville 10-8 in the first round, but eventually dropped games against North Florida and FGCU to end the year.

Forehand entered the 2017 with arguably the most talented roster in program history and one that was thought to be the best in the ASUN. The head coaches around the league voted Lipscomb the ASUN preseason favorite for the first time in program history. The team didn't quite live up to that billing as it came down to the last game of the regular season for the Bisons to clinch the No. 6 seed.

After falling to Jacksonville in the first round, the Bisons upended host and No. 2 seed Stetson, 8-6. They then fell to FGCU the next day to end the season.

With a new roster that saw 10 players leave due to graduation and the MLB Draft, Lipscomb took its growing pains in stride in 2018, finishing 24-30. The marquee win came on March 27 at First Tennessee Park where the Bisons took down No. 8 Vanderbilt, 5-1, while holding them to just one hit.

In June of 2018, Forehand had his 12th player selected in the draft when the San Diego Padres called the name of second baseman Lee Solomon.

The 2020 season was a unique one for Forehand and his squad. This Bisons got out to a quick start and set a program record by winning the first six games of the season. However, due to the unforeseen circumstances brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic, the season was brought to a halt and canceled with just 16 games being played out of the scheduled 53. Lipscomb went 11-5 in those 16 games.

The shortened 2021 season saw an 11-11 home record for the Bisons, on their way to an 18-29 overall record for the season with eight of their matchups canceled. The squad interspersed their season with attention-grabbing victories, including a 4-1 triumph over SEC opponent #4 Tennessee at Lindsey Nelson Stadium on April 27.

Forehand hit a major coaching milestone in the second game of the 2022 season as he hit 600 wins in a 12-4 home victory over Akron to kick off the season on a strong note. The Bisons logged a 35-23 record including a 20-10 record against conference opponents. Forehand's 2022 team logged six series sweeps and saw two of their members to the pros as right-handed pitcher Ike Buxton was drafted by the Miami Marlins in the 15th round of the MLB draft and Trey Nordmann signed with the Baltimore Orioles in July.

Lipscomb finished the 2022 season with a 35-23 overall record and a 20-10 ASUN record, improving from just 18 wins during the 2021 season. The Bisons won the ASUN West Regular Season Championship, Lipscomb Baseball's first regular season title since the 2008 season. Building off of that stellar 2022 season, Forehand's 2023 ball club won both the regular season and tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for just the third time in program history. Forehand is now eager to begin their 2024 season, returning a health number of guys from the 2023 Championship team.

The 2024 season saw the Bisons go 22-34 on the campaign and 15-15 in the ASUN. Playing four SEC teams in Kentucky, Alabama, Vanderbilt and Tennessee, the Bisons picked up a huge midweek win over the No. 3 Vols, who eventually became the national champions of Division I baseball, on April 30.

Prior to taking over the Lipscomb program in 2007, Forehand had a highly successful stint across town at Trevecca Nazarene where he led the Trojans to a 211-142-1 in six seasons. At Trevecca, Forehand earned 2004 NIAA Region XI Coach of the year and was twice named TransSouth Conference Coach of the Year in 2004 and 2005. The Trojans also excelled in the classroom as the team grade point average increased a half a point in his tenure.

While at Trevecca, Forehand saw three players have their names called on draft day as Mario Campos (Red Sox, 2001), B.J. Jenkins (San Diego Padres, 2004) and Brad Coon (Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, 2005) each were selected.

Before taking over the Trojan's program, Forehand got his head-coaching start at Nashville's Goodpasture Christian School where in seven seasons he won three state titles (1995, 1997, 1999). He is also a three-time Tennessee State Coach of the Year honoree winning the award each of those three years. Prior to taking over the Goodpasture program, Forehand served as an assistant coach from 1990-92 under his father, Fred, at Montgomery Bell Academy.

A native of the "Music City", the former second baseman played college ball at nearby Belmont under coach Dave Whitten graduating in 1989. Forehand also holds a Masters of Education degree from Tennessee State.

A lifelong resident of the city of Nashville, Forehand and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Gant and Brooks.
