MEDIA INFORMATION

The 2009 Mississippi State University Baseball Media Guide has been prepared to assist the media with its coverage of Bulldog Baseball. It should provide answers to most MSU baseball-related questions. Should you need additional information, please contact MSU Assistant Media Relations Director Joe Dier (662-325-8040/FAX 325-3600 • jbdier@athletics.msstate.edu).

THE JOE PHILLIPS PRESS BOX:

The press box at Dudy Noble Field is named in honor of Joe Phillips, a pioneer in radio broadcasting in Mississippi and a driving force behind the formation of Mississippi State University's radio networks for sports broadcasts. The facility features media seating in three compartments as well as two radio booths.

CREDENTIALS: Media credentials for Mississippi State home baseball games are required for media covering games at Dudy Noble Field and are issued through the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office for working press only. Written requests by accredited media members on company letterhead should be submitted well in advance of the requested game(s) and directed to Assistant Director of Athletic Media Relations Joe Dier (P.O. Box 5308, Mississippi State, MS 39762 — jbdier@athletics.msstate.edu). If needed, credentials can be left at the "Will Call" window at the stadium ticket office under the main grandstand, which opens two hours prior to SEC and weekend games and 90 minutes prior to all other games.

Mississippi State is scheduled to make two appearances this season in Pearl, Miss., at Trustmark Park, the home of the Mississippi Braves, Atlanta's Class AA affiliate in the Southern League. MSU is the designated visiting team for both a March 17 game against Southern Miss and the third annual Governor's Cup game against Ole Miss April 14. Requests for media credentials for the games should be directed to the Mississippi Braves ticket office (888-272-8374).

Credentials are also required for photographers and videographers at MSU home games, and on-field photographers must operate from designated photo zones. Photographers are restricted from entering the field of play and team dugouts, and flash photography is not permitted at Dudy Noble Field.

INTERVIEWS: Following a 10-minute cooling off period, head coach John Cohen, Mississippi State players and MSU assistant coaches will be available for interviews following most games on the field near the MSU dugout. To facilitate the process, a member of the MSU Media Relations staff will solicit from media members the names of those needed for interviews in the final two innings of the game, and will be available to assist with those interviews on the field. The Mississippi State locker room and stadium dugouts at Dudy Noble Field are restricted to team officials and are not open to the media.

Coach Cohen will also be available for additional non-gameday interviews throughout the week. The best time to reach Cohen by telephone is from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. weekdays. These interviews can also be arranged through the MSU Baseball Office by contacting April Edwards at (662) 325-3597.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS: Mississippi State welcomes media representation at all baseball games and practices. Media members should contact the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office for practice times and to make known requests for player interviews. In most cases, players will be available for a brief time before and for a lengthier time following practices.

To arrange pregame interviews with players, please make advance contact with Joe Dier. Players are generally available for brief pregame interviews approximately two hours prior to each game near the dugout. Telephone interviews can also be scheduled with players on a call-back basis during the week, also with advance arrangement through the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office.

PARKING: Media members are advised the MSU Athletic Department does not provide reserved media parking at Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium and that traffic around the stadium is heavily congested before and after most home games. It is recommended that media utilize the paved parking area east of the stadium and Humphrey Coliseum. MSU baseball media credentials will be honored at all public entrances to the stadium.

PRESS BOX SERVICES: The MSU Media Relations Office provides pregame notes, statistics and scorecards in the Joe Phillips Press Box prior to each game at Dudy Noble Field. A complete box score along with a play-by-play is available approximately 15 minutes after each game. Wired and wireless internet connections are available for media use in the press box.

RADIO: MSU provides a radio booth for the broadcast entity designated by the visiting SEC team. Two telephone lines and an ISDN line are available for use in the visiting radio booth in the Joe Phillips Press Box. Telephone lines will also be made available for use by radio networks of non-conference opponents on a reciprocating basis. Please contact Jim Ellis (662-325-8950) in advance to confirm arrangements for the use of telephone lines.

SATELLITE FEEDS: The MSU Television Center will provide highlight packages via satellite following most of MSU's home Friday night SEC games. Contact Bennie Ashford (662-325-1332) of the MSU Television Center for specific uplink schedules and additional information to access this video service.

Postgame interview with head coach John Cohen and the Bulldogs will be conducted on the field.

THE BOB HARTLEY MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP

Bob Hartley

Providing training opportunities for young SIDs

For more than half a century Robert M. "Bob" Hartley dedicated his life's work to promoting Mississippi State University athletics. From his hiring as the school's first sports publicity director in August 1946 to his initial "retirement" as assistant athletic director for communications in June 1985, through his later years as an invaluable consultant for the Mississippi State University Department of Athletics, the man we called "Hart" gave special meaning to the words "loyalty" and "devotion to duty."

Mr. Bob's labors of love with MSU have not gone unrecognized. He has taken his place among college athletics' greats as a member of both the university's and the state's sports halls of fame and the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Hall of Fame.

His willingness to generously give of his talent, his time and his friendship serves as an inspiration to the countless lives he touched and to those that aspire to follow in his footsteps.

In that respect, the Bob Hartley Memorial Fellowship was created by the MSU Department of Athletics to provide hands-on training opportunities for young media relations practitioners.

Stephen Foshee is the seventh recipient of the Bob Hartley Memorial Fellowship for the 2008-2009 academic year. A native of Hoover, Ala., Foshee is in his first season working with the Mississippi State athletic media relations office. He currently oversees video and audio streaming for broadcasts of Maroon to the Max, the premium extension of the MSU Athletic Department's official web site, and works in the Bulldog Club.

Foshee earned a bachelor's degree in communication and arts from Union University in 2006. He is currently pursuing a master's degree in sports administration at State.

Previous recipients of Mississippi State's Bob Hartley Memorial Fellowship include Scott Kuykendall, Larry Little, Brock Turnipseed, Rene Oakes Garner, Tony Schmidt and Jay Middleton.

Mississippi State University formally reiterates and reaffirms its commitment to the principles of equal opportunity, affirmative action and diversity. Discrimination based upon race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, or veteran's status is a violation of federal and state law and MSU policy and will not be tolerated. Discrimination based upon sexual orientation or group affiliation is a violation of MSU policy and will not be tolerated. This nondiscrimination policy applies to all programs administered by the University. However, this policy should not be construed to infringe upon the free exchange of ideas essential to the academic environment.

Mary Alexander, Interim Director of Diversity and Equity Programs, 106 McArthur Hall, P.O. Box 6199, Mississippi State, MS 39762, office telephone number (662) 325-2493, campus mailstop 9609, has been designated as the responsible employee to coordinate efforts to carry out responsibilities and make investigation of complaints relating to discrimination in conforming with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1974, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

MSU BASEBALL RADIO NETWORK

Mississippi State Baseball is the home for one of the nation's largest and oldest collegiate baseball radio networks, affording fans throughout the Magnolia State and beyond an opportunity to regularly follow the exploits of the Baseball Bulldogs throughout the season.

The 2009 Mississippi State University Baseball Radio Network, a team of nearly two dozen radio outlets throughout Mississippi, carries the broadcasts of a 40-game network schedule (all 30 SEC weekend contests and 10 selected non-conference games) plus all postseason competition. The broadcasts of the entire Bulldog Baseball schedule of games are carried in the Golden Triangle area by 100,000-watt WFCA-FM (107.9) in French Camp, Miss., which has served as the flagship station of the MSU Baseball Radio Network over the past nine seasons.

Additionally, most MSU baseball network radio broadcasts are also available on a subscription basis via the internet through the official web site of Mississippi State University Athletics (www.MStateAthletics.com).

The broadcasts feature a pregame interview with head baseball coach John Cohen, the play-by-play and game analysis of the "voice" of the Diamond Dogs, Jim Ellis, and conclude with a postgame show that includes an interview with a Bulldog player.

Radio broadcasts of Bulldog Baseball got their start in the 1960s on Starkville radio station WSSO thanks to the work of the late Joe Phillips, a pioneer in radio broadcasting in Mississippi. The MSU baseball stadium press box is named in honor of Phillips.

But credit for turning the single-station broadcast into an impressive collection of radio outlets blanketing Mississippi goes to veteran MSU sports broadcaster, Jim Ellis, who in 2009 enters his 31st season of describing the exploits of the Baseball Bulldogs. A native of West Point, Miss., and a 1969 MSU grad, Ellis coordinates the operation of State's baseball radio network. His voice is also a familiar one with State basketball and football fans, having teamed with MSU play-by-play legend Jack Cristil for three decades on MSU's football and basketball radio network broadcasts.

MSU's weekly baseball television coach's show returns for its 22nd season in 2009. "Mississippi State Baseball with John Cohen" is a joint production of the Mississippi State University Television Center and the Bulldog Sports Properties, a property of Learfield Sports. The 30-minute television program featuring the Bulldogs' skipper is hosted by Ellis and includes game highlights and interviews with Bulldog coaches and players along with other insightful looks into the unique world of MSU baseball.

The show is produced at the Mississippi State University Television Center by Bennie Ashford, Coordinator of Electronic Media for Mississippi State University athletics. Ashford also coordinates the video board production at Dudy Noble Field and the video highlights package made available to TV stations following select Mississippi State home games.

M2M: MAXIMUM VIDEO AND AUDIO COVERAGE OF BULLDOG BASEBALL

Bulldog fans around the world can watch most of State's 32 home games in 2009 live on the internet (www.MStateAthletics.com). "Maroon to the Max", the premium extension of MSU's official athletics department web site, begins its third season of providing live four-camera video streaming of most MSU home games backed with the audio simulcast from the MSU Baseball Radio Network broadcasts. Games not shown live will be offered on a delayed same-day broadcast basis.

M2M subscribers can also listen to the radio network broadcasts of all games played by the Baseball Bulldogs.

2009 BASEBALL OUTLOOK

A new era of baseball dawns at Mississippi State University in 2009 when the Diamond Dogs take the field at Dudy Noble Field under the guidance of new head baseball coach John Cohen.

The 41-year old Cohen needed little introduction to the Mississippi State family and the Southeastern Conference community when he was introduced in June as the successor to MSU coaching legend Ron Polk.

The Tuscaloosa, Ala., native became a Mississippi State fan favorite and earned All-Southeastern Conference accolades as an outfielder during his three-year playing career (1988-90) at State under Polk.

Many Diamond Dog fans tracked Cohen's subsequent steady progression through the collegiate coaching ranks, which included assistant coaching stops along the way at Missouri and Florida and successful head coaching positions at Northwestern (La.) State and most recently in the rugged Southeastern Conference at the University of Kentucky.

Cohen and the new MSU baseball coaching staff return the lion's share of the 2008 Bulldog team that finished with a 23-33 record. Available for duty are 20 of the 30 Diamond Dogs that drew game-opening assignments a year ago. In fact, the Bulldogs' losses include just one regular starting position player – first baseman Tyler Moore, and one starting rotation pitcher, lefty Justin Pigott. Maturity should indeed be an ally of the Diamond Dogs, who enter the new season with 10 seniors, eight of them fifth-year performers.

Factoring in nine eager newcomers and three returning redshirts, there is a high level of competition for starting positions in the Bulldogs' starting lineup, which likely won't completely crystallize until opening weekend.

No where is that more evident than in the Bulldog infield, where eight players are jockeying for positions on the opening day lineup card.

Junior infielder Connor Powers (25) and junior right-hander Ricky Bowen (31) are expected to play key roles for the Bulldogs in 2009.

Junior third baseman Connor Powers (Naperville, Ill.) returns, along with his team-leading .348 batting average and a .644 slugging percentage. Despite missing the final 21 games of the season with a hamstring injury, Powers piled up 47 hits and ranked second on the team with 11 home runs and 38 RBI. A corner infielder, Powers could also factor into MSU's plans at first base, where freshman Nick Ray (Gulfport, Miss.) junior college transfer Jarrod Parks (Madison, Miss.) are also considered strong candidates for the starting position.

The battle for the starting job at second base naturally includes junior Jet Butler (Pensacola, Fla.), who hit .271 and drew starts in 45 of 56 games, the most at any one position among MSU's returnees. Butler, coming off a productive fall practice, has shared practice time at second base with sophomore Ryan Powers (Beacon, N.Y.), who drew 27 starts in the infield and hit .239 as one of six freshmen to take the field for the Diamond Dogs in '08, and an impressive true freshman infielder, Frank Rawdow (Lakeland, Fla.).

The team's lone 56-game starter in 2008, junior Russ Sneed (Senatobia, Miss.), drew starts at shortstop in the first 35 games of the campaign before replacing injured third baseman Connor Powers in the final 21 games of the year. Both Powers, who replaced Sneed as State's starting shortstop the final 21 games, and Rawdow, are in the mix at shortstop. So, too, is junior college transfer Justin Bussey (Dora, Ala.), a dual-position standout who is expected to see duty out of the bullpen with the pitching corps.

Behind the plate the Bulldogs have five players battling for the starting catcher job. Junior Ryan Duffy (West Melbourne, Fla.) is the most experienced member of that group. Duffy caught 31 games as a starter, hitting .306 with 11 doubles and seven home runs. Three other Bulldogs drew starting assignments behind the dish --- sophomore Cody Freeman (Collinsville, Miss.), who hit .310 and started 17 games as a true freshman, and a pair of seniors, Johnny Allen (Grenada, Miss.), a six-game starter and Brooks Lewis (Heidelberg, Miss.), who drew two game-opening assignments. Also in the mix is third-year senior squadman Scott DeLoach (Madison, Miss.).

The Bulldogs figure to have their greatest depth in 2009 in the outfielding corps. Five players who combined for 90 percent of State's starts in the outfield are back. A pair of seniors, Grant Hogue (Hattiesburg, Miss.) and Mark Goforth (Covington, Tenn.), shared starting time in center field. Hogue (.321) paced State at the plate with 63 hits and 47 runs scored and swiped 25 bases as a junior, the most by a Bulldog since 1985. Goforth was the sixth Bulldog to hit .300 (.304) last season and ranks second on the club with 15 career stolen bases.

Sophomore corner outfielder Ryan Collins (Callaway, Fla.), a 34-game starter, has returned from a late-season shoulder injury on his non-throwing arm and could challenge for team hitting honors after finishing second on the club (.345) as a true freshman in '08. Sophomore Jason Nappi (Birmingham, Ala.), a 28-game starter in left field and a 25-game starting DH, hit .274, led State with 32 walks, finished fourth on the team with 54 hits, third with eight home runs and 37 RBI and turned a few heads when as a freshman he piled up an SEC-record 11 RBI in a three-home run explosion at UAB.

Another senior and corner outfielder, Nick Hardy (Flora, Miss.), played in 49 games last spring, 19 as a starter, and hit .263. Also expected to challenge for playing time is junior outfielder Luke Adkins (Nettleton, Miss.), who sat out the 2008 season after transferring from Southern Miss, where he was coached for two seasons by current MSU assistant Lane Burroughs. Redshirt freshman Brent Brownlee (Oxford, Miss.) is back after battling injury problems and poised to make his debut as a Bulldog.

The Bulldog pitching staff also features a bevy of returning players, including 10 of the 15 players that took the hill for State in 2008 and eight of the 12 that did so as starters.

Junior right-hander Ricky Bowen (Jasper, Ala.) proved to be the iron man of the MSU pitching staff. Bowen drew a staff-high 13 starts, worked a staff-high 73-1/3 innings and paced MSU's hurlers with 64 strikeouts while fashioning a 3-6 record and a 7.61 ERA. Bowen and senior righty Chad Crosswhite (Brandon, Miss.) drew a combined 25 of MSU's 56 starts. Crosswhite, the most experienced of State's hurlers, has registered 11 wins and two saves in 62 career appearances over the past three seasons and could be utilized as a starter or in relief.

Junior lefty Tyler Whitney (Lakeland, Tenn.) started five games while sophomore lefty Forrest Moore (Baton Rouge, La.) and senior right-hander Lee Swindle (Eupora, Miss.) drew four starts each while juniors Drew Hollinghead (Leakesville, Miss.) and Greg Houston (Hoover, Ala.) made their starting debuts with game-opening performances in two games each.

Sophomore righty Michael Busby (Vicksburg, Miss.) and seniors Jared Koon (Tupelo, Miss.) and Jared Wesson (Tupelo, Miss.) saw relief duty in a combined 27 games. Busby, with 19 appearances as a true freshman, could eventually move to a starting role.

The Bulldog mound staff also features six talented but untested pitchers eager to make their collegiate debuts.

Redshirt freshman right-hander Paxton Pace (Collinsville, Miss.) is well on his way to recovering from a late-spring Tommy John surgery and is expected to take the hill for State in 2009. Other rookie righties include Tyler Johnson (Trussville, Ala.), Devin Jones (Eupora, Miss.) and Caleb Reed (Cleveland, Miss.). Jones was a 49th-round draft pick of the Cleveland Indians last June.

The State staff also includes a pair of promising lefties, David Hayes (Homewood, Ala.) and Nick Routt (Silver Spring, Md.).

NEW STAFF: During his first few weeks on the job new head coach John Cohen assembled a solid four-man baseball staff that has strong ties to the Magnolia State and to the Southeastern Conference.

Amory, Miss., native Butch Thompson, who played for and later coached under former MSU assistant Brian Shoop at Birmingham-Southern, has joined the MSU staff as pitching coach. Thompson has seven years of coaching in the league, the last four at Auburn.

Hitting coach Lane Burroughs is a native of Meridian, Miss., and a graduate of Mississippi College. He joined the State staff after coaching a season at Kansas State, but MSU fans likely connect him with Southern Miss, where he served for nine seasons on USM's baseball staff.

Nick Mingione, from Cape Coral, Fla., is MSU's new coordinator of baseball camps. Mingione, an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator last season at Western Carolina, previously served two seasons on Cohen's staff at Kentucky.

All three have served as recruiting coordinators as well as position coaches during their careers.

Tyler Bratton, an MSU undergraduate assistant and former Bulldog player from West Point, Miss., has joined the State staff as the Coordinator of Baseball Operations.

2009 SCHEDULE: The Diamond Dogs' attractive '09 slate features a blend of familiar teams and new opponents with some new scheduling wrinkles mixed in for good measure. State launches a 32-game home schedule Feb. 20-22 with the BankFirst Baseball Challenge, a three-day, three-team, six-game event at Dudy Noble Field that pits the Bulldogs against Northern Illinois and last year's season-opening opponent, North Florida. MSU plays its first nine and 16 of its opening 20 games at home.

In addition to SEC rivals Alabama, Auburn, Kentucky, Louisiana State and South Carolina, State also hosts the likes of non-conference opponents Middle Tennessee State, Memphis, Mississippi Valley State, Nicholls University, South Alabama, Southern Miss, UAB and first-time opponent Valparaiso University.

One of the highlights of the Bulldogs' baseball lineup in '09 is a four-game, series at the University of Hawaii (Mar. 5-8), the fourth for MSU baseball and the first since 1989.

State will be the designated visiting team in two neutral site games at Trustmark Park in Pearl, Miss., meeting Southern Miss (Mar. 17) and Governor's Cup opponent Ole Miss (Apr. 14).

MSU's three-game series with Kentucky Apr. 17-19 will be the centerpiece of Super Bulldog Weekend 2009.

WHAT'S NEW AT THE DUDE

At least two major enhancements have been put in motion at Dudy Noble Field since the Diamond Dogs' 2008 season.

Difficult to miss is the expanded HD-compatible video board above the Dudy Noble Field scoreboard in right field. The new video panel is 36 feet wide and 19 feet high, replacing the previous 20-by-15 video panel.

Mississippi State has also added a natural turf practice infield. The new facility is situated on the north end of the Palmeiro Center adjacent to Dudy Noble Field.

Additional enhancements are also in the planning stages for the home of the Diamond Dogs.

John Cohen

Head coach (Mississippi State University, 1990)

John Cohen, regarded by many as one of the top offensive tacticians on the collegiate baseball scene, is in his first year as head baseball coach at Mississippi State University. He was introduced as MSU's 16th head baseball June 7, 2008, exactly 18 years to the day after leaving Omaha, Neb., and the 1990 NCAA College World Series following his final game as a Mississippi State player.

Cohen's return to Starkville, Miss., and Dudy Noble Field completes a success-filled and fast-paced circle that began when the Tuscaloosa, Ala., native first joined the Baseball Bulldog family as a player in 1987.

He came back to Mississippi State seasoned with 17 years of collegiate coaching experience, nine years as a collegiate head coach, the last five as head coach at Southeastern Conference Eastern Division rival Kentucky.

The Bulldog skipper, an All-Southeastern

Conference outfielder during his playing career at Mississippi State, sports a 321-197-1 coaching mark (.619) as he enters his 10th season as a collegiate head coach in 2009.

In his previous coaching assignments at Missouri (1992-97), Northwestern (La.) State (1998-2001), Florida (2002-03) and Kentucky (2004-08), Cohen has been associated with teams that piled up 555 wins and earned five NCAA postseason advancements.

His prowess as one of the nation's top young hitting instructors has mounted with each step along the way in his coaching career. But it took on national proportions in 2006 when, in his third season at Kentucky, he guided the Wildcats to a remarkable worst-to-first finish in the rugged Southeastern Conference.

Under Cohen's direction, Kentucky posted a school-best 44-win season, the school's first Southeastern Conference baseball championship and brought the first NCAA regional baseball tournament to the Lexington campus noted more for its hoops prominence. That team, featuring the likes of All-American standout and SEC Player of the year Ryan Strieby and All-SEC performers John Shelby and Sean Coughlin, virtually rewrote the Kentucky record book.

Cohen's coaching efforts did not go unnoticed. He was accorded national coach of the year honors by both the College Baseball Foundation and CollegeBaseballInsider.com and, for the third time in his career, was tabbed by his peers for conference coach of the year accolades.

The new Bulldog coach has maintained a torrid pace in the months since his arrival at Mississippi State.

He quickly assembled a well-respected and highly-skilled staff, featuring coaches well-versed in Mississippi State's colorful baseball history, the Magnolia State's high school and junior college programs, and the highly-competitive Southeastern Conference.

All the while Cohen has continued to move the MSU baseball program forward. On the facilities front, Mississippi State's impressive baseball campus added an auxiliary outdoor practice infield adjacent to the spacious Palmeiro Center.

His commitment to excellence in the classroom resulted in a 3.31 team grade point average during the fall (2008) semester, MSU Baseball's best semester GPA in school history and the second-highest of the semester among men's sports team at State.

Continuing a trademark that has grown during his coaching career, Cohen has rapidly become a highly sought-after featured speaker and clinician. He has criss-crossed the nation sharing his baseball expertise at baseball clinics in 30 states. And since arriving at Mississippi State last summer, Cohen has maintained a full schedule of speaking engagements at alumni gatherings, civic organization meetings and at baseball banquets on a variety of levels in the Magnolia State.

He rates as one of 22 active college head coaches to have played in the NCAA College World Series. Cohen is also one of three SEC head baseball coaches coaching at his alma mater and the fifth Mississippi State grad to serve in that capacity at MSU.

Cohen, 42, is married to the former Nelle Bashinsky, also from Tuscaloosa, Ala., and they have two daughters - Jordan Baker and Avery Lawson.

COHEN THE DIAMOND DOG

Mississippi State skipper John Cohen wears a No. 11 baseball jersey.

It's the same number he wore during his collegiate career at State.

Cohen was an accomplished two-sport prep athlete at Tuscaloosa Academy, earning all-state honors in both baseball and basketball. His TA hoops teams won three straight state titles and a school-record 100 consecutive games. But it was on the baseball diamond as a four-year regular playing for coach Don McNabb that Cohen excelled.

He capped his prep career with a stellar senior season in 1985, the same year that, 90 miles away, the likes of Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Rafael Palmeiro and Bobby Thigpen were leading MSU's Baseball Bulldogs to a school-best third-place finish in the NCAA College World Series.

After graduation, he inked with Birmingham-Southern. As a rookie he was the Panthers' starting center fielder, hitting at a crisp .333 clip and earning team defensive MVP honors. On April 24 that season Cohen made his Dudy Noble Field debut in a Birmingham-Southern uniform, delivering a double, a triple and driving three runs in the split of a Mississippi State-Birmingham-Southern doubleheader in Starkville.

Cohen transferred to State that fall, sitting out the 1987 campaign before beginning his Diamond Dog career playing under legendary MSU head coach Ron Polk. He was a key contributor during the most successful three-year span in MSU's storied baseball history. The Bulldogs advanced to an NCAA regional tournament berth in each of Cohen's three seasons as a player, capped by a run to Omaha and the 1990 NCAA College World Series. In 1989, he helped lead the Bulldogs to the SEC championship and a school-record 54 wins. During that span the Bulldogs compiled a 148-46 record (.763) that included two of the program's three 50-win campaigns.

Along the way Cohen finished his career ranked in the top 10 in several statistical categories at Mississippi State and earned first-team All-Southeastern Conference distinction as a senior. He was selected by the Minnesota Twins in the 22nd round of the 1990 Major League Baseball Draft and played two years in the Twins' minor league system prior to beginning his coaching career at Missouri.

COHEN THE COACH

Cohen traveled to Columbia, Mo., in the fall of 1991 to begin his coaching career, initially serving as a graduate assistant on coach Gene McArtor's baseball staff at the University of Missouri. Tim Jamieson followed McArtor as the Tigers' head coach following the '95 campaign, and Jamieson tabbed Cohen as his chief assistant, hitting coach and recruiting coordinator.

That season, Missouri won the Big Eight championship and advanced to an NCAA regional berth

His well-rounded clubs set 18 individual and team offensive records during his tenure, while his pitching staff set 10 school marks. The 1998 team posted the nation's fifth-best team earned run average (3.82) while the 1999 edition fashioned the college baseball's seventh-best fielding percentage (.967).

NSU's baseball team also excelled in the classroom, averaging 18 players with grade-point averages of 3.0 or better each semester while notching 3.0 team GPA's in both 1998 and 1999.

In 2002, Cohen's Gator offense led the nation in hits while ranking second in batting average, runs scored and home runs. That year, Florida led the Southeastern Conference in nine team categories and set or tied a total of 41 offensive school records (20 team, 21 individual) en route to its most successful season since 1998 (46-19) and a berth in the NCAA Tournament.

At Florida Cohen coached a pair of consensus All-Americans, Mark Kiger and SEC batting champ Pat Osborn, each of whom batted over .400 and scored more than 100 runs. Cohen's balanced UF offense also included five players hitting 10 or more home runs.

In the 2003 season, Florida's high-octane offense paced the SEC in five offensive categories. For the second straight year two Gators finished in the top five in the league in batting average and Brian Rose became the third Gator to earn All-America honors under Cohen's tutelage. Bolstered by its tremendous offense, Florida earned its second consecutive NCAA regional tournament berth.

ON TO LEXINGTON

Cohen's time away from the head coaching circle was brief. After two record-setting seasons at Florida and following the 2003 campaign, Cohen was hired as head coach at the University of Kentucky.

In five seasons as the Wildcats' taskmaster, Cohen guided Kentucky to unprecedented success on the diamond, elevating UK to national prominence.

His teams posted a 175-113-1 (.607) mark over the span, claiming much attention as Cohen developed Kentucky into a major player on the national scene.

After a 24-30 finish in his first season at UK for the first time in 16 years. The Tigers broke nine offensive school records that season, part of 17 total records set by Cohen's offenses over his six years in Columbia.

Following the 1997 season, Cohen headed to Natchitoches, La., for his first head coaching assignment, a four-year term at Northwestern State. His two predecessors at Northwestern State now also serve as head coaches in the Southeastern Conference --- Arkansas' Dave Van Horn and Alabama's Jim Wells.

Under Cohen, the Demons compiled a 146-84 (.635) mark and claimed a pair of Southland Conference titles (1998 and 2001). He was named the Cohen also spearheaded a highly-successful fund-raising campaign for Northwestern State's baseball facility, Brown-Stroud Field. The ball park's grandstand seating increased from 298 to 1,000. All of those seats and then some were needed on April 18, 2001 when a school-record 4,214 fans watched Cohen's Demons knock off defending-national champion LSU.

Cohen established himself as one of the nation's best hitting coaches during a successful two-year stint at the University of Florida as an assistant coach on the staff of Pat McMahon. In Gainesville, his Gator offenses pulverized opposing pitching and led the SEC in nearly every statistical category.

THE COACHING STAFF

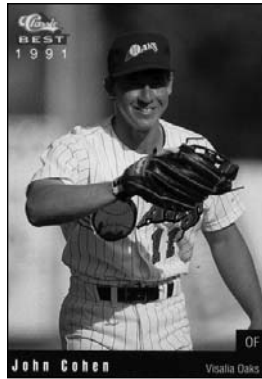

(2004), Cohen directed the '05 Wildcats to a 29-27 finish, the second winning campaign in nine seasons for Kentucky. But that paled in comparison to what followed the next three seasons.

Cohen's 2006 Wildcat edition, sparked by SEC Player of the Year Ryan Striby, turned many heads when it rolled to a 44-17 mark, the school's first Southeastern Conference baseball championship, and registered the initial worst-to-first one-season turnaround in SEC baseball history. That season and the two that followed saw Cohen's 'Cats virtually rewrite the school record book. He earned national coach of the year plaudits (College Baseball Foundation and CollegeBaseballinsider.com) in 2006, a season which also saw Kentucky host its initial NCAA regional tournament.

Honored as the 2006 SEC Coach of the Year, Cohen directed the Southeastern Conference's best offensive club that season, piling up a school-record 500 runs. His 2007 club hit for a stellar .320 average, just one point shy of the UK school record. That team led the SEC in eight offensive categories and ranked third nationally in home runs, slugging percentage.

The record-breaking parade continued in 2008. UK raced to a 19-0 start, a top five national ranking, and matched its school-best win total with a 44-19 finish. UK advanced to an NCAA regional tournament berth, the second under Cohen and the school's fourth overall. Along the way in 2008 UK racked up school records for highest fielding percentage, putouts, at bats, runs scored, doubles, RBI, sacrifice bunts, sacrifice flies and innings pitched.

While his team's have been noted for their offensive prowess, Cohen-coached clubs also excel in the other facets of the sport. Last year's Kentucky team led the SEC and ranked seventh nationally with a 3.71 earned run average. And UK's school-record .974 fielding percentage was the second-best in the SEC, ranking 14th nationally.

Increased attendance, enhanced facilities and additional national recognition were by-products of the Cohen era at Kentucky.

A school-record six UK players selected in the Major League Baseball's 2006 draft, five were selected in 2007 and four more, all in the top 10 rounds, were chosen in 2008.

At UK Cohen also firmly established himself as one of the best recruiters in the game. His initial UK recruiting class was rated as one of the top 25 by Collegiate Baseball in 2004, and his final Wildcats recruiting class was ranked fourth-best nationally by Baseball America.

The Cohen impact on the Kentucky baseball program was also felt in the classroom, where in five years 56 Wildcat baseball players earned academic all-conference honors. In his first year, a then-school record nine Wildcats were named to the 2004 SEC Academic Honor Roll. That number climbed yearly to a school-best 17 in 2008, second-most in the Southeastern Conference behind Mississippi State.

Lane Burroughs

• Assistant coach (Mississippi College, 1995)

Native Mississippian Lane Burroughs is in his first season on John Cohen's Mississippi State University baseball staff.

Burroughs joined the MSU staff in June 2008 after having served as an assistant coach for the Kansas State Wildcats in 2008.

The Meridian, Miss., native is in his 14th season as a baseball coach and is well-schooled in Magnolia State baseball. He played the sport on the high school, junior college and senior college level in Mississippi, and all but three of his first 13 years in the coaching profession have come in the state of Mississippi, including a highly-successful nine-year stint as an assistant coach at Southern Miss.

This is Burroughs's second coaching assignment under John Cohen. He was a member of Cohen's coaching team at Northwestern (La.) State in 1997 and 1998.

At USM Burroughs served as recruiting coordinator, infield coach, and handled in-game duties as USM's coach in the third base coaching box. He excelled in each, but gained much acclaim in his role as hitting coach and in the development of Southern Miss' hitters. He coached seven all-Americans, nine freshman all-Americans, 10 position players that went on to sign professional baseball contracts, five of those as top 10 round selections in the Major League baseball draft.

During his nine-year coaching term in Hattiesburg, Southern Miss made its first six NCAA postseason regional tournament appearances. Among the Burroughs-coached Golden Eagles that earned all-American status was Jarrett Hoffpauir, who reigned as the toughest player to strike out in 2004. That record-setting season saw USM establish school marks for hits, runs scored and RBI.

Burroughs launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Mississippi College, serving there one season before assuming a post as an assistant coach under Bill Baldner at East Mississippi Community College in Scooba, Miss., in 1997.

He began his coaching association with John Cohen a year later as an assistant coach at Northwestern (La.) State, helping direct the Demons to a 40-20 mark and the 1998 Southland Conference Championship.

Following the 2007 campaign, Burroughs moved from Conference USA to the Big 12 Conference, accepting an assistant coaching position on the staff of Brad Hill at Kansas State University. That season the Wildcats advanced to the finals of the Big 12 Conference tournament championship game.

Burroughs played high school baseball at West Lauderdale High School in Collinsville, Miss., where he was coached by Jerry Boatner, one of the all-time winningest coaches in Mississippi high school history, and was a teammate of Mississippi State All-American and Major League pitching standout Jay Powell.

He continued his baseball career at Meridian Community College playing for coach Corky Palmer, where MCC claimed MJCAA state titles in both 1992 and 1993. Burroughs continued his baseball career playing for coach Tom Gladney at Mississippi College the next two seasons and was honored as an All-Gulf South Conference outfielder and the team MVP in 1995, his final campaign with the Choctaws.

Burroughs is married to the former Susan Parker of Meridian, Miss., and they are the parents of three children, daughters Parker Grace, 7, and Camryn Lane, 5, and son Thomas Jackson, 1.

Butch Thompson

• Assistant coach (Birmingham-Sou., 1992)

Butch Thompson, a native of Amory, Miss., is in his first season on coach John Cohen's Mississippi State baseball coaching staff.

Thompson, in his eighth season of coaching in the Southeastern Conference, coaches Mississippi State pitchers and works closely with recruiting. He joined the MSU coaching staff last June after having coached the previous three seasons at Auburn.

The 16-year coaching veteran, regarded as one of the nation's top pitching instructors, has a strong familiarity with baseball in the state of Mississippi.

Thompson prepped at Amory (Miss.) High School, where he was a two-sport standout as a defensive end playing for football coach Bobby Hall and as a pitching playing for baseball coach Bill Miley. He signed a football scholarship with Itawamba Community College in Fulton, Miss., but ended up walking on in baseball and starring as a pitcher at ICC for coach Roy Cresap in 1989 and 1990. He continued his baseball career the next two seasons at NAIA power Birmingham-Southern, where he helped lead the Panthers, coached by former Mississippi State assistant Brian Shoop, to back-to-back Southern States Conference championships. Daron Schoenrock, who would later serve as an assistant coach at State, coached the pitchers on Shoop's BSC staff.

It would be the first of Thompson's three career affiliations with Shoop and the Panthers baseball program in Birmingham. After launching his coaching career as pitching coach and top assistant to Scot Patterson at Huntingdon College in Montgomery, Ala., Thompson returned to his alma mater in Birmingham, where he as an assistant coach he was reunited with Shoop and Schoenrock from 1994 to 1996. During that span BSC won a pair of conference crowns and in 1995 advanced to its first NAIA World Series berth.

Thompson left BSC briefly to serve as head baseball coach at Jefferson State Community College in Birmingham in 1997.

While at JSCC he was honored as the Regional Tournament Coach of the Year, the ABCA Alabama Junior College Coach of the Year and the Southeast Region Coach of the Year after guiding JSCC to a 39-21 mark, the AJCAA Region 22 State Championship and a third-place finish in the NJCAA Division II World Series.

He returned to Birmingham-Southern as Shoop's top assistant the following season, beginning a four-year run during the most successful span in BSC baseball history. The Panthers won 196 games and four TranSouth Conference championships and made three consecutive appearances in the NAIA World Series. BSC's 2001 team posted a school-best 55-11 mark and captured the NAIA National Championship.

In 2002 Thompson joined the Southeastern Conference baseball coaching family, beginning a four-year term as pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Georgia under head coach David Perno. Georgia's 2003 recruiting class was ranked 10th nationally and UGA's 2004 edition captured the SEC baseball Championship, advancing to the NCAA College World Series.

He continued his SEC affiliation at Auburn following the 2005 season, serving as pitching coach and recruiting coordinator on the staff of Tom Slater. Each of his three recruiting classes at Auburn was ranked among the nation's top 18, including a No. 5 national ranking in 2007.

In seven years as an SEC pitching coach since 2001, Thompson has coached 20 pitchers that have been selected in the Major League Baseball draft, five of them in the 2008 June draft.

Thompson, honored as the 2006 Fellowship of Christian Athletes SEC Coach of the Year, earned a bachelor's degree in history at BSC in 1992 and completed a master's degree in sports administration at UAB in 1996. He is married to the former Robin Ashe of Birmingham, Ala., and they are the parents of three daughters --- Anna, 10, Olivia, 8, and Madelyn Gail, 4.

Nick Mingione

• Coordinator of Camps (Embry-Riddle, 1996)

Nick Mingione, who joined the Mississippi State baseball family in June 2008, is in his first year as the coordinator of baseball camps. In addition to his duties directing Mississippi State's popular summer and winter baseball camps, Mingione serves as a volunteer assistant coach.

Mingione, who served as an assistant coach in 2008 at Western Carolina University in Cullowhee, N.C., renews a coaching affiliation with State skipper John Cohen.

He served for two seasons on Cohen's 2006 and 2007 baseball staffs at the University of Kentucky, where he worked extensively with the UK outfielding corps and with the Wildcat hitters. During that span, Kentucky won 78 games, set or reestablished 12 team marks, and posted a school-best 44 wins en route to winning the school's first SEC championship in 2006.

On coach Bobby Moranda's staff at Western Carolina, Mingione was recruiting coordinator and hitting coach, helping direct a Catamount team that in 2008 earned top 40 national ranking among 286 NCAA Division I programs in 11 different offensive categories.

Mingione, a native of Tarrytown, N.Y., grew up in Florida and played high school baseball for coach Scott Jones at Mariner High School in Cape Coral, Fla. He continued his baseball career and was a standout outfielder for four years at Embry-Riddle University in Daytona Beach, Fla., where he played for coaches Greg and Todd Guilliams. He earned a bachelor's degree in aerospace studies with a triple minor in business, psychology and humanities in 2000. Upon graduation, Mingione served two years as Assistant Dean of Students and as an assistant coach on Steve Larsen's staff at Mariner High School.

Mingione then moved on to coach on the collegiate level, first as a volunteer assistant baseball coach under Dave Tollet at Florida Gulf Coast University in Fort Myers, Fla., in 2002, and later at his alma mater, Embry-Riddle. The Eagles captured Florida Sun Conference crowns and advanced to the NAIA World Series in Lewiston, Idaho, all three seasons, earning national runnerup honors in 2005.

During six seasons as an assistant coach, Mingione has helped direct teams to four conference titles, three advancements to the NAIA World Series and one NCAA regional tournament berth.

Mingione, 29, is single.

Tyler Bratton

• Baseball operations director (Mississippi State, 2007)

In his first season on the Mississippi State University coaching staff and serving as the director of baseball operations is West Point, Miss., native Tyler Bratton.

Bratton, 25, is a 2007 graduate of Mississippi State University. He coordinates team travel arrangements, directs the team's video operations and oversees a wide range of tasks associated with the day-to-day operation of the Mississippi State baseball program.

"Tyler is a great catch for Mississippi State because of his love for Bulldog Baseball," said Cohen. "He has a passion and an energy level that make him a perfect match for our program."

Bratton was a three-year, two-sport standout and played outfield for coach Bill Miley at West Point's Oak Hill Academy. He continued his baseball career in 2003 and 2004 at East Mississippi Community College, where he was coached by Bill Baldner.

He then matriculated to Mississippi State University, earning a berth on the Mississippi State baseball team in 2006 as an outfielder. That MSU squad ascended to a No. 1 inseason national ranking and advanced to the finals of the 2006 NCAA Clemson Regional.

Bratton earned an undergraduate degree in secondary education at Mississippi State in 2007 and is completing graduate studies in sports administration at Mississippi State University.

He served as an assistant baseball coach at Heritage Academy in Columbus, Miss., in 2005 and at Oak Hill Academy in 2007 before returning to MSU as a student assistant coach for the Baseball Bulldogs in 2008.

Bratton is married to the former Bree Munger of Hartselle, Ala.

2009 BASEBALL SUPPORT STAFF

Ray Berryhill

Assistant AD/Academic Advising
(Mississippi State, 1980)

Administering the day-to-day academic needs of the Baseball Bulldogs is Ray Berryhill, in his 20th year overall with the Mississippi State University Athletic Department.

A native of Gloster, Miss., Berryhill is in his second tour of duty in the department. A 1980 graduate of Mississippi State University, he served first as a graduate assistant coach with the MSU track program. In 1984 he was named supervisor of athletic academics at the University of Alabama, overseeing the academic progress of all Crimson Tide student-athletes.

He returned to State in a similar position as director of athletic academics in January 1989, and in August 2000 was promoted to assistant athletic director for academic advising.

Under his supervision, MSU's student-athletes have enjoyed unprecedented success in the classroom, frequently establishing school records for combined grade point average. Berryhill also serves State's student-athletes as M-Club advisor and through MSU's student housing office supervises on-campus housing for all student-athletes.

An avid turkey hunter, Berryhill, 50, is a member of the National Wild Turkey Federation. He and his wife, the former Amy Huff of Ferriday, La., are the parents of a son, Cody, and a daughter, Caroline.

Joe Dier

Asst. Media Relations Director
(Mississippi State, 1975)

Overseeing the publicity needs of the Baseball Bulldogs is Joe Dier, in his 23rd year on the Mississippi State staff and his 11th as the primary media relations contact for MSU baseball and volleyball.

Dier, 55, has been affiliated with Mississippi State athletics and MSU baseball since 1978 — eight years as editor of Dawgs' Bite and since 1986 as a member of the MSU Athletics Department staff. He also previously served as the sports editor at the Yazoo City (Miss.) Daily Herald and the Starkville (Miss.) Daily News.

A 1975 graduate of Mississippi State University, Dier followed the late Bob Hartley and Bo Carter as MSU's third full-time sports information director in November 1986, initially serving as the primary media contact for all 15 Mississippi State sports. He served as media coordinator for MSU-hosted NCAA regional baseball tournaments in 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990 and 1992 and for MSU's 1991 Liberty Bowl football team. He was named to the board of directors of the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) in 2005 and in 2008-09 serves as the organization's president. He is also charter member of the MSU Chapter of the National Football Foundation & College Football Hall of Fame.

In 1992 he began a four-year term as editor of the weekly athletic department publication Dawgs' Bite, returning to sports information work in July 1996.

A native of Baton Rouge, La., and the son of a career Air Force chaplain, Dier traveled extensively as a youth, following military moves to Washington, British Columbia, Oregon, Alabama, Florida, Okinawa, Mississippi and Alaska. He is married to the former Kim Monroe of Starkville, a teacher in the Starkville public

Greg Drye

Assistant Strength Coach
(Southern Miss, 1998)

Greg Drye is in his fifth season with the Bulldog Baseball program, assisting with the implementation of State's comprehensive in-season and offseason strength and conditioning program.

Prior to his arrival at MSU, Drye served as a graduate assistant at Delta State University on the baseball staff of coach Mike Kinnison. Drye coached the outfielders on the DSU teams that captured the Gulf South Conference titles and advanced to the NCAA Division II South Regional in both 1999 and 2000. He then returned to his roots, serving for three years as an assistant baseball coach at Long Beach High School.

The Gulfport, Miss., native is an instructor in the physical education department at Mississippi State. He has also served as an administrative assistant on the MSU baseball staff over the past four seasons, handling a wide array of duties and assisting with the team's advancement to the championship of the 2005 SEC Tournament and to the 2007 NCAA College World Series.

A graduate of Long Beach (Miss.) High School, Drye continued his baseball career at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College, where he earned MJCAA all-state honors as an infielder playing for coach Cooper Farris. He later played baseball at Baylor University, coached by Steve Smith.

Drye, 34, earned his undergraduate degree in coaching and sports administration from Southern Miss in 1998 and a graduate degree in physical education, health and recreation at Delta State in 2000. He has a daughter, Dylan, 4.

John McCallister

Assistant Strength Coach
(West Virginia University, 2000)

Overseeing the strength and conditioning program for Mississippi State's Baseball Bulldogs is John McCallister, in his fifth year as assistant strength coach at MSU. In addition to baseball, McCallister also assists in the strength program for Mississippi State's football Bulldogs.

He worked closely with MSU teams that advanced to the 2007 NCAA College World Series and the 2007 Liberty Bowl.

McCallister, 32, hails from Ona, West Virginia. He joined the MSU strength staff in January 2004 after serving for more than five years in the strength department at West Virginia University. A 2000 graduate of WVU, McCallister first served as an undergraduate assistant strength coach at the Morgantown, W.V., school in 1999 and 2000. He then continued his affiliation with West Virginia's strength program as a graduate assistant until 2002 before joining the Mountaineer's athletic staff full-time in July 2002.

During his term at WVU he worked with a variety of sports teams and assisted in the strength training of 28 football athletes and seven baseball athletes who continued their athletic careers on the professional level. He also served on the staff of for West Virginia teams that advanced to the 2000 Music City Bowl, the 2002 Continental Tire Bowl and the 2004 Toyota Gator Bowl.

He served as an instructor in the physical education department at West Virginia in 2000-2001 and staffed the Mountain State Speed/Strength Camp from 1999 to 2003.

McCallister, certified by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA), earned both a bachelor's degree (2000) and masters degree in physical education (2004) at West Virginia University.

He is married to the former Jennifer Yon of Beckley, W.V., and they are the parents of two daughters, Emma Lynn, 2, and Ava Grace (four months)

Allen Thompson

Assistant Athletic Trainer
(West Alabama, 2000)

Allen Thompson is in his second year as the athletic trainer for the Baseball Bulldogs. Thompson joined the Mississippi State University Athletic Department in October 2007.

A native of Butler, Ala., Thompson served five seasons as an athletic trainer in the St. Louis Cardinals organization, his last three as the head trainer for the Palm Beach (Fla.) Cardinals in the Florida State League, where he also served as the club's supervisor of strength and conditioning. He was honored as the Florida State League Athletic Trainer of the Year and selected to serve as the athletic trainer for the FSL's 2006 All-Star Game.

He also served as trainer with the Johnson City (Tenn.) Cardinals and in the New York Mets organization with the Capital City Bombers in Columbia, S.C., and the Kingsport Mets in Kingsport, Tenn.

Thompson began his career in athletic training as a student assistant trainer from 1995 to 2000 at the University of West Alabama and later was a graduate assistant trainer at Troy University, where he earned a graduate degree in sports fitness management.

He is married to the former Mandy Kjeldahl of Troy, Ala., and they are the parents of two children, Ally, 6 and McKenzie, 2.

The Mississippi State University Diamond Girls

This year the Diamond Girls celebrate their 35th season as one of the primary support organizations for Mississippi State Baseball. First organized in 1976, the Diamond Girls handle a wide array of tasks in support of the Mississippi State baseball operation throughout the school year. They are most visible on game days at Dudy Noble Field, serving as hosts and distributing programs to fans as they enter the stadium, operating the stadium's souvenir and gift stand, and serving on the field during games as bat handlers. There are six newcomers among this year's 22-member squad.

$ - SEC Baseball Tournament

MSU hosts North Florida, Northern Illinois in BankFirst Challenge

The Bulldogs' season-opening tournament takes on a new name and a new format in 2009 as Mississippi State opens the season hosting North Florida and Northern Illinois at Dudy Noble Field Feb. 20-22 in the inaugural BankFirst Baseball Challenge.

It's the ninth such early-season baseball event hosted by the Bulldogs and the first sponsored by BankFirst, which has branch banks throughout the Golden Triangle and in the Jackson area.

The tournament was initiated in 2001 by former Bulldog head coach Pat McMahon, with Notre Dame and the University of New Orleans joining host MSU in the first NBC Classic, sponsored by Starkville-based National Bank of Commerce. In odd-numbered years the event was contested as a three-team, five-game event over three days. To accommodate scheduling opportunities in even-numbered years, the event format was modified into a three-game, two-team weekend "challenge" series that brought the likes of Arizona, Baylor and Southern Cal to Starkville.

This year's format has been expanded to six games over the three-day period, with each team playing four games on opening weekend.

The event has over the past nine years featured regional foes Austin Peay, Birmingham-Southern, New Orleans, Troy and UAB in addition to long-distance opponents Arizona, Baylor, Connecticut, Kansas, Michigan, Notre Dame, Ohio State, and Southern California.

2008 SEASON IN REVIEW

2008 SEASON IN REVIEW

Mississippi State's incredible Southeastern Conference-leading run of 32 consecutive winning seasons came to a close for the Diamond Dogs in 2008.

After stunning the college baseball world with an improbable march to Omaha and the 2007 NCAA College World Series, the Bulldogs were beset with critical injuries throughout the 2008 campaign. And when the dust settled on a season-ending three-game mid-May series at Dudy Noble Field, the Bulldogs closed the book on an un-Stately 23-33 season and last-place finish in the Southeastern Conference. State fell short in a bid for a postseason SEC or NCAA tournament berth for the first time since 1986.

It was a strikingly atypical finish to a splendid coaching career for veteran Mississippi State skipper Ron Polk, who on March 27, two weekends into the Bulldogs' 10-weekend SEC schedule, announced that his 29th campaign at Mississippi State and his 35th as a collegiate head coach, would be his last.

Polk's final Mississippi State edition claimed the season-ending series against Arkansas, its second league series win of the year and its second in the final three weekends of the season.

The season finale, televised regionally by FOX Sports Net, featured a pregame salute to Polk, who concluded his career with a 1,373-700-2 overall mark, the seventh-most wins in college baseball history. His 1,139-588-2 record in 29 seasons as State's skipper made him the winningest coach in any sport in the storied 75-year history of the Southeastern Conference.

The 2008 campaign was not without its bright spots.

State topped instate SEC rival Ole Miss 6-5 to capture the second annual Governor's Cup game held at Trustmark Park in Pearl, Miss., and registered extra-inning wins at home over South Alabama, Georgia and Kentucky and on the road against Kentucky.

State staged one of its more dramatic reversals in a March 18 game at UAB. In that contest, the Blazers bolted to an 8-2 lead after four innings before State thundered back for a 24-10 win. MSU piled up 18 hits, second-most on the year, including a school record-tying six home runs. Third baseman Connor Powers launched two of those bombs in an impressive 3-for-5, 5-RBI performance. But Powers' showing was overshadowed by a Bulldog playing in his hometown, outfielder Jason Nappi. Nappi went 3-for-5 with two walks and a school record-tying three bombs tied the school record with three home runs. At game's end he had driven in a Southeastern Conference-record 11 runs, surpassing the league mark of 10 RBI shared by nine others, including former State greats Bruce Castoria and Rafael Palmeiro.

Likely the most memorable of those came March 16 in the final game of an SEC season-opening home series against instate rival Ole Miss. In that game, sophomore righthander Ricky Bowen flirted with history, coming within an out of a no-hitter in a 4-0 complete-game shutout of the fifth-ranked Rebels. For his performance, Bowen was accorded Southeastern Conference and national player of the week recognition.

Bowen was the workhorse of a Bulldog pitching staff that battled injuries throughout the season. In his first season in State's starting rotation, the Jasper, Ala., product led the State staff with 13 starts, 73-1/3 innings pitched and 62 strikeouts. He was the lone constant on the mound over the course of State's 10 three-game SEC series. Seven other pitchers and four different catchers drew starting nods for State in league competition.

Junior righty Aaron Weatherford, who missed a month of the season with tendonitis, was the ace of the Bulldog bullpen and one of college baseball's best relief artists in 2008. Weatherford picked up three wins and a team-best seven saves in 19 relief appearances, fashioning a remarkable 0.85 earned run average with 62 punchouts in 31-2/3 innings.

Weatherford, one of six Diamond Dogs selected in Major League Baseball's First-Year Player Draft, signed with Arizona after the Diamondbacks selected him in the third round of the June draft.

MSU IN THE 2008 MLB DRAFT

- 3 Aaron Weatherford, RHP (D'backs)
- 12 Brandon Turner, 2B (Marlins)
- 16 Tyler Moore, 1B (Nationals)
- 27 Jeff Flagg, OF (Mets)
- 38 *Ricky Bowen, RHP (Reds)
- 46 *Grant Hogue, OF (Reds)

Health issues also created shuffles in the Bulldog infield, where Mississippi State used 34 different starting defensive lineups in 56 games.

Junior first baseman Tyler Moore, who hit .299 and led the Bulldogs with 14 home runs and 46 RBI, was the lone constant on the infield for State, drawing starts at the right corner of the MSU infield in all 56 contests. Like relief ace Weatherford, Moore was chosen in the MLB draft (16th round, Washington) and later signed with the Nationals.

Sophomore infielder Russ Sneed was the only other 56-game starter, with 35 game-opening appearances at shortstop before taking over at third base for injured slugging star Connor Powers.

State saw its team batting average slip from .316

2007 to .289 in 2008, though six Bulldogs finished with batting averages of .300 or better. Third baseman Connor Powers claimed the team hitting title, hitting at a .348 clip and leading the club with 11 home runs and 38 RBI when his sophomore season was curtailed in mid-April by a hamstring injury.

Bulldog trainer Allen Thompson and the MSU medical staff were kept busy with other Diamond Dog ailments, including knee and shoulder ailments for promising freshman catcher Cody Freeman. Freeman had solidified his role as MSU's top catcher and ranked among the league leaders with a .397 batting average when he was sidelined and restricted to limited DH and pinch-hitting roles over the second half of the season.

True freshman Ryan Collins, a 34-game starter and one of five freshmen to letter for the Bulldogs in '08, pushed Powers for the team batting lead with .345 average. Not far behind was junior outfielder Grant Hogue (.321), who posted team-leading totals in hits (63) and runs scored (47) and registered 25 stolen bases in 29 attempts, the most by a Bulldog since 1985.

Mississippi State maintained its place among the nation's leaders in baseball attendance. State averaged 6,008 fans on 29 regular season dates to rank third in the national in home paid attendance. State's total home attendance, 174,282, ranked sixth nationally behind teams that played anywhere from three to 13 more home dates.

State enjoyed another record-setting year in the classroom, where a school-best and Southeastern Conference-leading 23 Diamond Dogs earned berths on the 2008 SEC Academic Honor Roll.

The honorees include Ricky Bowen, Jet Butler, Jesse Carver, Will Coggins, Scott DeLoach, Nick Hardy, Cade Hoggard, Grant Hogue, Drew Hollinghead, Greg Houston, Jared Koon, John Lalor, Brooks Lewis, Tyler Moore, Jason Nappi, Justin Pigott, Connor Powers, Ryan Powers, Russ Sneed, Lee Swindle, Aaron Weatherford, Tyler Whitney and Andy Wilson.

Since the SEC first launched its academic awards program in 1971, State has piled up 268 academic all-conference honors, 80 more than the next nearest SEC baseball program.

Additionally, three Diamond Dog freshmen were included on the 2008 SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll --- Brent Brownlee, Shawn Marquardt and Forrest Moore.

Former Diamond Dog players, managers, trainers and coaches joined the 2008 MSU team on the field for a tribute to retiring MSU head baseball coach Ron Polk on the final weekend of the '08 campaign.

118 seasons of Mississippi State Baseball

1885

MAY 2 — Mississippi A&M, behind team captain W.J. (Bill) Jennings, defeats Durant 7-2 in the first baseball game in MSU history. Jennings, who holds the distinction of being credited as the first man in Southern college baseball who could throw a curveball, baffles batters from all over the South in claiming A&M's first 12 wins. His composite four-year record, during which time he pitched every game for the Maroons, was a sparkling 12-1.

The 1892 A&M College team was the university's first baseball team outfitted in an official team uniform.

OCTOBER 12 — A&M defeats the University of Mississippi 6-3 in its first intercollegiate baseball game. The schools have met 426 times, easily the longest baseball rivalry for both schools.

In 1909 Willie Mitchell struck out 26 LSU batters en route to registering a perfect game, the first in SEC history.

APRIL 11 — Willie Mitchell hurls the first perfect game in Mississippi A&M history by striking out 26 LSU batters and helping the Maroons slip past the Tigers 1-0 in the second game of a twinbill at Baton Rouge, La. Mitchell finishes with a 6-1 worksheet and dazzles his opponents by striking out 97 batters in 56-1/3 innings. Of his six victories, Mitchell throws one no-hitter, two one-hitters, two no-hitters, and one six-hitter.

1918

APRIL 5-6 — Maroon hurlers R.H. Pepper and J.T. Peatross shut down Mississippi College by tossing back-to-back no-hitters. Pepper opens the two-game series by allowing the Choctaws only four walks in a 5-0 A&M win. But his shining accomplishment is overshadowed the following day as Peatross pitches only the second perfect game in MSU history, downing Mississippi College 1-0.

1920

APRIL 5 — Legendary Dudy Noble Field namesake Clarke Randolph "Dudy" Noble coaches his first game at his alma mater, a 5-3 loss to the University of Illinois. Noble will go on to coach at MSU for 26 years, during which time he compiles a 267-201-9 record and wins three Southern Intercollegiate Conference Championships.

C.R. "Dudy" Noble

MAY 13 — Two baseball rarities occur in the same game during a campus contest against Mississippi. Not only does A&M retire the Rebels on three straight pitches in one inning, but shortstop C.S. (Buddy) Myer gives the Maroons a much-needed boost by cranking out a grand slam to lead his team to a 6-4 victory. Myer's shot is believed to be the first grand slam in the history of MSU. Myer would go on to play 17 years in the major leagues with Washington and Boston, hitting for a career average of .303.

APRIL 18 — LSU outfielder Joe Bill Adcock launches a shot an estimated 500 feet into the MSU swimming pool at "old" Dudy Noble Field. Adcock would play only one season at LSU before playing 16 years in the major leagues, but his tremendous blow is still talked about by long-time Bulldog baseball fans.

1948

MAY 31 — R.P. "Doc" Patty guides the Bulldogs to their first Southeastern Conference Championship in his initial season as head coach. MSU defeats Auburn in the championship playoff, three games to none, thanks to the efforts of all-SEC outfielder Johnny Grace, who led the Bulldogs with a .375 batting average.

1949

JUNE — Mississippi State College wins its second consecutive SEC Championship by downing Kentucky three games to one in the title series. All-conference infielder Alex Grammas and brother Pete Grammas were crowd favorites in helping lead the Bulldogs to a 19-6 record. Alex Grammas would go on to play 10 seasons in the National League and later coach for the Detroit Tigers.

1965

MAY 9 — Outfielder Del Unser belts three round-trippers and picks up a double to set a single-game team record for total bases with 14. Unser spreads his blasts around, sending a shot to all three fields as the Bulldogs fall to Mississippi, 10-7. The power outburst gives Unser seven homers, all coming in the last six regular-season games.

1965

MAY 22 — Behind conference hits-leader Mike Burns, the Bulldogs top Auburn in the SEC Championship Series, winning two games out of three. After falling to the Tigers in the series opener, MSU battles back with the strong pitching of Ken Tatum, who leads the Bulldogs to 10-1 and 10-2 victories to claim the conference crown. The title marked the first of four won under the guidance of coaching-great Paul Gregory.

1966

APRIL 2 — Pitcher James Carroll hurls 14 innings of four-hit baseball as he out-duels Alabama's Kenny Stabler, 2-1. All-America outfielder Del Unser scores the winning run with two out in the bottom of the 14th.

1966

MAY 14 — Right-hander Ken Tatum starts on only two days rest and shuts down the Tennessee Volunteers 9-3, giving the Bulldogs their second-straight SEC Championship. The game marked MSU's final appearance at Redbird Park in Columbus, which provided State with a home for two years while their "new" Dudy Noble Field was being built.

1970

MAY 5 — Sophomore left-hander Gene Henderson stymies Arkansas in the nightcap with a no-hit performance that gives the Bulldogs, ranked fifth nationally, a doubleheader sweep over the Razorbacks, 6-0 and 1-0. Henderson, along with conference ERA-leader Dennis Hall (0.63) and wins-leader Brantley Jones (9-0), carries MSU to its fifth SEC title. Mississippi State loses the first game of the best-of-three championship series against Tennessee but rebounds to claim the final two contests, 4-3 and 1-0.

President William Giles (left) presents coach Paul Gregory and the Baseball Bulldogs their 1966 SEC Baseball Championship trophy. Mississippi State won back-to-back SEC titles in 1965 and 1966, the first two of four won during Gregory's 18-year term as skipper of the Baseball Bulldogs.

MAY 14 — All-America third baseman Phil Still and All-SEC pitcher Mike Proffitt help lead the Bulldogs to 5-1 and 3-1 victories over Vanderbilt for their second consecutive SEC Championship on the way to a 32-12 record, and the school's first-ever appearance in the NCAA College World Series. After defeating the Commodores in two straight games for the conference title, MSU then downs Georgia Tech 5-2 in the NCAA District III championship game.

BULLDOG BASEBALL HISTORY

1972 APRIL 14 — Dudy Noble Field hosts its first night game thanks to a new lighting system. MSU alumnus E.B. "Dutch" McCool, a former teammate of coach Paul Gregory, donates the lights to his alma mater, allowing the Bulldogs to play games at night when it is more convenient for fans to attend. McCool was one of the original founders of Holiday Inn.

1976 MARCH 8 — New Mississippi State head coach Ron Polk wins his first game as the Bulldog skipper, 4-0 over Louisiana Tech. MSU finishes the season 28-17, which begins the current streak of 32 consecutive winning seasons for Mississippi State.

1977 MARCH 19 — Junior outfielder Nat Showalter begins the season with a modest six-game hitting streak in which he hits .700 (14-for-20) on his way to posting the MSU single-season record for batting average. Showalter, who later would skipper the New York Yankees, the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Texas Rangers, hits a gaudy .459 as he garners numerous all-America honors.

1979 MAY 14 — Down 11-9 with one out in the bottom of the eighth, designated hitter Rick Dixon launches a slider nearly 400 feet over the left-center field fence for a three-run homer in the SEC Championship final. The win gives fourth-year head coach Ron Polk his first conference title in the first SEC Tournament held at Dudy Noble Field.

1979 MAY 27 — After falling to nationally-ranked New Orleans in the opening game, the Bulldogs successfully sweep through the loser's bracket to claim the NCAA South Regional Championship. An 8-6 win over Murray State in the championship game of the first NCAA regional at Dudy Noble Field lifted MSU to its second appearance all-time in the prestigious NCAA College World Series.

1981 MARCH 15 — Junior first baseman Bruce Castoria sets a school record and ties the conference mark by driving in 10 runs against UNLV in Las Vegas. Castoria, who would set another school record by cranking four grand slams on the year, hits his second of the season against the Runnin' Rebels, along with a three-run shot, an RBI single and two walks with the bases loaded to account for his runs 10 RBI.

1981 MAY 24 — State jumps out to an early six-run lead and holds off a late rally by East Tennessee State to win the NCAA Atlantic Regional Championship at Clemson, S.C., 6-5. The Bulldogs would go on to finish fifth nationally at the NCAA College World Series.

1983 FEBRUARY 25 — Freshman Rafael Palmeiro slaps the first pitch he sees as a collegian over the right field fence for a three-run homer during the season-opener against Mississippi College. Palmeiro, who would later pile up 3,020 hits and 569 home runs in a remarkable 20-year pro career, proceeds to hit safely in his first 20 games en route to a team-high .406 batting average.

1983 APRIL 2 — Future major league slugger Will Clark hits his first collegiate home run, an eighth-inning grand slam to straight-away center field, to help lead MSU to a 27-10 pounding over rival Mississippi. The following day, Clark comes in late as a pinch runner and scores the winning run in a 7-6 come-from-behind victory over the Rebels.

1985 MAY 12 — Behind strong pitching and excellent defense, the Bulldogs overpower the field in three games to win the SEC Tournament at LSU, clinching the title with an 8-3 win over Georgia.

1985 MAY 27 — MSU tops Michigan 19-8 in the championship game of the NCAA South I in batting average (.391).

1987 MARCH 1 — The "new" Dudy Noble Field re-opens its gates to 4,040 fans who brave the chilly weather and experience what is considered by many to be the nicest baseball stadium in all of college baseball. The $3.5 million showcase consists of 3,700 chairback seats, two 1,500-seat bleachers down each line, and the spacious Joe Phillips Press Box. MSU doesn't disappoint the home crowd, downing Birmingham-Southern 4-1.

1987 MAY 14 — Freshman center fielder Jody Hurst blasts two homers and Mississippi State scores four runs in the bottom of the ninth to lead the sixth-seeded Bulldogs over top-seeded Georgia, 6-5, in the opening-round of the SEC Tournament in Athens, Ga. MSU swept three games from Alabama in the final regular season series to qualify for the tournament and won four straight SEC Tournament games to claim the championship and earn a spot in an NCAA Regional.

1988 APRIL 16 — Mississippi State shatters its own NCAA on-campus attendance record (10,619) as 14,378 Bulldog faithful jam Dudy Noble Field for MSU's doubleheader split with LSU. The following evening, State plays its fifth regular-season game ever on ESPN, besting the Tigers 1-0 on the strength of outfielder John Cohen's fifth-inning solo shot to center field.

1989 APRIL 22 — Mississippi State once again sets the NCAA on-campus attendance record when a crowd of 14,991 witness the Bulldogs' doubleheader sweep of Florida. Junior second baseman Burke Masters caps the evening off in fine fashion by drilling a solo shot into the famous Outfield Terrace during the Bulldogs' final at-bat to lift MSU over the Gators 5-4.

1989 APRIL 30 — Coach Ron Polk's Bulldogs claim their third SEC Championship in five years and the 10th in school history by winning a 28-16 slugfest at Kentucky, setting the single-game team record for most hits (30) and tying the record for most home runs (6). Junior outfielder Tracy Echols ties an SEC record by recording six hits in the contest.

1989 May 25-28 — Dudy Noble Field hosts its fifth NCAA regional in six years. The 1989 South Regional draws an NCAA-record 56,906 fans during the 11-game event, an average of 5,173 per game.

All-American Will Clark (center) helped point the Bulldogs to their highest finish ever (3rd) in 1985. That highly-celebrated team also featured future pro stars Jeff Brantley, Rafael Palmeiro and Bobby Thigpen.

Regional to earn its third trip to the NCAA College World Series under Ron Polk. Right fielder-relief pitcher Bobby Thigpen, who hit a grand slam in his first-ever at-bat at Dudy Noble Field the year before, shines in his home finale by cranking another bases-loaded blast. MVP Jeff Brantley is among seven Bulldogs named to the 11-member all-tournament team.

1985 OCTOBER 23 — The United States Baseball Federation names Mississippi State all-American Will Clark the recipient of the Golden Spikes Award, amateur baseball's most prestigious honor. Clark had been the second player taken overall during baseball's June draft by the San Francisco Giants. Clark still ranks as MSU's all-time career leader

State captured its first two SEC baseball titles in 1948 and 1949 playing at the original Dudy Noble Field site, shown in this 1949 photo. Following the 1964 season the bleachers and grandstand were dismantled and moved to the present stadium site to make way for the construction of Dorman Hall.

Team and school officials gathered at Dudy Noble Field on May 4, 1986 to break ground on the new grandstand. Demolition crews needed less than a week to remove the old grandstand and ready the site for construction.

BULLDOG BASEBALL HISTORY

1990 MAY 28 — Jon Shave drives in Tommy Raffo with two out in the top of the eighth to cap a three-run MSU rally and give State a 4-3 win over Florida State in the championship game of the NCAA South II Regional in Starkville. With the win, MSU earns its fifth trip to the College World Series in Omaha, Neb. Five Bulldogs were named to the all-tournament team, including MVP Burke Masters, whose dramatic ninth-inning grand slam against Florida State had earlier provided MSU with an 11-8 victory.

1990 MAY 21 — Left-hander B.J. Wallace strikes out 19 Nicholls State batters in 10 innings of work at the NCAA Mid-east Regional in Starkville, setting a new MSU single-season record with 145 strikeouts. His mark breaks the old record of 136 set by Jeff Brantley in 1985. A month later Montreal made Wallace the No. 3 pick in pro baseball's June draft.

1993 MAY 8 — State plays its 1,000th Southeastern Conference game, defeating in-state rival Mississippi 10-2 in the first game of a double-header at Oxford.

1994 MARCH 30 — Head coach Ron Polk notches his 900th career coaching win as the Bulldogs defeat in-state rival Mississippi in the 15th annual Mayor's Trophy Game in Jackson, Miss. Polk became only the 16th college baseball coach all-time and the 13th active Division I coach to have 900 career victories. In his 34 seasons as a head coach, Polk has amassed a 1,350-668-2 career record to rank seventh among college baseball's all-time winningest coaches.

1994 OCTOBER — Mississippi State's 10-man recruiting class is ranked the nation's best

NCAA South II Regional MVP Burke Masters is mobbed by fans and media after the Bulldogs downed Florida State 4-3 to clinch a berth in the 1990 NCAA College World Series.

1997 APRIL 19 — In ceremonies prior to the Mississippi State-Alabama game, MSU's baseball facility is renamed Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium in honor of coach Ron Polk and a longtime MSU baseball fan from Indianola, Miss., the late Gordon DeMent. In the game, MSU downs the eventual NCAA runners-up in an 11-10 thriller.

1997 JUNE 5 — After hosting and winning the NCAA Mid-east Regional and finishing tied for fifth at the College World Series in Omaha, Neb., MSU announces the retirement of head baseball coach Ron Polk and introduces Pat McMahon as the school's 14th head baseball coach. Polk, remaining on staff with the MSU administration in fund raising, announced August 18 the beginning of a drive to expand seating by more than 1,000 at the MSU stadium, including the addition of 18 skyboxes.

1998 FEBRUARY 17 — Mississippi State launches the coaching era of Pat McMahon at Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium with the Diamond Dogs' season opener against South Alabama. The Jaguars, who eventually advanced to the finals of the 1998 NCAA East Regionals, emerge with a closely-contested 14-13 win in a 12-inning marathon that lasted four hours and 30 minutes. It is the earliest home opener in 108 seasons of Bulldog Baseball.

1998 MAY 24 — The Bulldogs complete a remarkable late-season surge, downing host Texas A&M 11-5 in the title game of the NCAA Central Regional at College Station, Texas, to earn the school's first repeat appearance in the NCAA College World Series. State claims one-run wins over Washington, Rice and Texas A&M to reach the regional finals. Earlier, State won eight of its last 11 SEC games, qualifying for the SEC Tournament on the final weekend of the season and earning an at-large berth in the NCAA regionals. In the summer, construction gets underway on the skybox/stadium expansion project at Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium.

2000 MAY 28 — Ty Martin launches a dramatic solo home run in the bottom of the ninth to give MSU a 10-9 win over Notre Dame in the championship game of NCAA Starkville Regional. The tournament attendance (47,365) set an NCAA four-team regional record while the seven-game average (6,766) was the largest for an NCAA regional. Mississippi State set a school record by selling 4,555 season tickets at expanded Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium.

2001 MARCH 13 — MSU stages a two-run rally with two outs in the ninth to post a 6-5 win at New Orleans and become the 18th NCAA baseball program to reach the 2,000-win milestone. For the second consecutive year MSU fans break the school season ticket sales record by purchasing 4,585 season tickets.

2001 MAY 20 — Freshman Paul Maholm and sophomore Chris Young limit defending NCAA champ LSU to one run as the Bulldogs top the Tigers 4-1 in the championship game of the 2001 SEC Baseball Tournament in Hoover, Ala. It is the second tournament win in relief for Young, who earns tournament MVP honors.

2001 JUNE 19 — Ron Polk, the winningest coach in SEC history, is named head baseball coach at Mississippi State, replacing four-year MSU skipper Pat McMahon, who resigned to become head baseball at Florida. In 2001 Polk capped a two-year term at Georgia and became the second coach in NCAA history to guide teams at three different schools to the College World Series when he directed the Bulldogs to an SEC title and a trip to Omaha.

2005 MAY 29 — Mississippi State defeats in-state rival Mississippi 4-1 to complete a four-game tournament sweep and capture the 2005 SEC Baseball Tournament at the Hoover Met. It was MSU's sixth SEC Tournament championship and vaulted State on to its ninth NCAA regional tournament in the past 10 seasons.

MSU's Edward Easley received the 2007 Johnny Bench Award as college baseball's top catcher.

2007 JUNE 8-9 — After winning the NCAA Tallahassee Regional in three games, Mississippi State hosted its first NCAA Super Regional June 8-9, knocking off Clemson 8-6 and 8-5 to earn the school's eighth berth in the NCAA College World Series. An NCAA Super Regional-record 26,335 jammed Dudy Noble Field for the two 11:30 a.m. games televised nationally on ESPN. With a single in MSU's regional-clinching 9-4 win at Florida State, senior second baseman/outfielder Jeffrey Rea broke Mississippi State's career hits record, and with four hits at the College World Series, Rea finished his career with 335 hits.

2007 JUNE 27 — In Wichita, Kans., junior catcher Edward Easley is named the recipient of the Johnny Bench Award as college baseball's best catcher. A supplemental first-round draft pick of the Arizona Diamondbacks, Easley has earlier claimed college baseball's top honor in Mississippi, the Cellular South Ferriss Trophy.

2008 MARCH 27 — Head coach Ron Polk announces that the 2008 season, his 29th at Mississippi State and his 35th in collegiate baseball, would be his final season as head coach of the Baseball Bulldogs. The Bulldogs ended the year with a 23-33 mark, the only sub-.500 season of his coaching career, and Polk concluded his career with 1,373 wins, seventh most in NCAA baseball history.

2008 JUNE 7 — Former State standout John Cohen is introduced by Director of Athletics Greg Byrne as MSU's 16th head baseball coach. Cohen, with previous coaching stints at Missouri, Northwestern State, Florida and Kentucky, was an All-SEC outfielder at State, helping the Bulldogs set the school-record for wins (54) en route to the 1989 SEC baseball championship.

With an 11-4 win over Delta State in 1997 Bulldog skipper Ron Polk became the 16th college coach to reach the 1,000-win milestone.

by Collegiate Baseball magazine, the highest ranking by a class of MSU baseball newcomers ever.

1995 JANUARY 7 — Mississippi State head coach Ron Polk is inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame. Polk joins 160 other all-time amateur baseball coaching greats enshrined in the ABCA Hall of Fame, coach C.R. "Dudy" Noble, inducted in 1967, and Paul Gregory, who joined the group in 1977.

1996 MAY 23-25 — State returns to the NCAA postseason playoffs after a two-year absence, traveling to Palo Alto, Calif., to compete in the NCAA West Regional. Sophomore ace lefty Eric DuBose, who fanned 174 batters in 1996 to establish an MSU single-season strikeout record, went the distance in MSU's 6-2 win over California-Santa Barbara.

1997 FEBRUARY 27 — With MSU's 11-4 win over Delta State at Dudy Noble Field, coach Ron Polk becomes the 16th college coach to reach 1,000 career wins.

Mississippi State is a comprehensive land-grant institution and the largest university in Mississippi, with a statewide enrollment of more than 17,000 students.

Established in 1878 as the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Mississippi, the university has traditional strengths in engineering and scientific agriculture but has evolved into a comprehensive institution with a diverse array of programs in teaching, research, and service.

Growth and success

For the first time in its 130-year history, Mississippi State in 2007 surpassed the 17,000 mark in enrollment and posted enrollment gains again in 2008. Enrollment includes a record number of African-Americans, as well as record enrollment for the Meridian campus, graduate and distance learning students.

Through an innovative Pathfinders program—a mentoring and intervention effort—the freshman-to-sophomore retention rate is 83.4 percent. In 2008, Pathfinders celebrates its 10th anniversary and has generated significant research about student retention. Other institutions now are adopting the model.

Mississippi State has one of the largest cooperative education programs in the Southeast, with more than 750 students enrolled. More than 10,000 students have participated since the program's inception in 1955.

In 2008, Mississippi State students for the second consecutive year won the top prize in the Challenge X competition to redesign a fuel efficient and environmentally friendly SUV. Another 17-member student team brought home the 2008 Best Flight Award of the Association for Unmanned Vehicle Systems International. A recent MSU graduate also won $100,000 and the top prize in the nationally televised game show, Jeopardy.

Research gains

Research at Mississippi State has a direct impact on the state's economy and competitiveness in a global market, as well as providing tangible benefits for students. Fiscal year 2007 marked a record year for total amount of research awards for the university, $187 million compared the $154 million in fiscal year 2006.

Centers of excellence identified in the university's strategic plan are agriculture and natural resource systems; computational science and engineering; applied social sciences; transportation systems; and materials and devices.

The impact of research programs at Mississippi State is recognized nationally and internationally. The university is placing increased emphasis on taking research results to market and providing industry-specific research needed by the state.

MSU is partnering with a Starkville high-tech business to develop small, low-cost satellites for the United States market. The university is working with InfiniSat, a company spun off from MSU research, to develop less expensive technologies that can be deployed quickly.

The university is one of about two dozen National Centers of Academic Excellence in Information Assurance Research. The designation, made by the National Security Agency and Department of Homeland Security, enables research institutions to seek ways to secure the worldwide information grid.

A first-ever MSU conference on avian genomics and gene ontology drew scientists from around the world. Sponsored by the Institute for Digital Biology, the conference focused on ways to use genomics to develop new medical procedures and understand diseases such as the bird flu, as well as improving poultry and egg production, among other areas.

The Sustainable Energy Research Center at MSU coordinates university research efforts in alternative energy, especially related to resources available in Mississippi and the Southeast. Currently, a center team is creating fuel from crops, waste water and other sources.

Outreach and service

When it comes to providing educational opportunities to the people of Mississippi, there are not many paths Mississippi State University has overlooked. That is especially true in the Division of Agriculture, Forestry and Veterinary Medicine.

Each year, thousands of Mississippians turn to the MSU Extension Service, the Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Experiment station or other units in the division for continuing education opportunities, information related to their farm or other business, management of their personal resources or for self improvement. Sometimes all that is involved is a visit to an MSU Web site or a call or visit to one of Mississippi's 82 county Extension offices. Several thousand people also take advantage of the chance to participate in activities on the Starkville campus, an MSU experiment station or other facilities.

The Mississippi State University Extension Service is a primary source of leadership development programs designed to improve overall community engagement as well as to provide community leaders with the tools necessary to address specific community issues. Available to both rural and urban locales, these programs have proven effective in advancing community initiatives and providing a basis for local residents to take a more active role in their community.

Dr. Mark E. Keenum

President

Dr. Mark Everett Keenum became Mississippi State University's 19th president Jan. 5, 2009, following a distinguished public service career.

After completing his bachelor's and master's degrees in agricultural economics at Mississippi State, Dr. Keenum joined the university faculty in 1984 as a marketing specialist with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service. Two years later, he accepted a position as a research associate with the Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Experiment Station at MSU.

He continued his education at the university, in 1988 receiving a doctorate in agricultural economics, and he joined the faculty of that department as an assistant professor/economist. During his professional tenure at Mississippi State, his primary research and extension work focused on the marketing and economics of aquaculture, specialty crops and forestry. He continued his faculty ties at the university 1997-2006 as an adjunct professor, teaching an annual course on agricultural legislative policy.

Prior to being named president of Mississippi State in November 2008, Dr. Keenum served as Under Secretary of the U.S. Department of Agriculture for two years, where he provided leadership and oversight for the Farm Service Agency, the Risk Management Agency and the Foreign Agricultural Service. The mission area, comprised of the three agencies, had a total operating budget of $1.7 billion and approximately $40 billion in program authority. The three agencies employed more than 16,500 people at more than 2,300 offices nationwide and 98 locations around the globe.

In 1989, Dr. Keenum joined the Washington, D.C., staff of U.S. Senator Thad Cochran as Legislative Assistant for Agriculture and Natural Resources. As Sen. Cochran's adviser on agricultural affairs, he worked on numerous issues important to U.S. agriculture, including the 1990, 1996, and 2002 Farm Bills. From 1996-2006, he served as Chief of Staff for Sen. Cochran. In this role, Dr. Keenum was the chief adviser to the senator on political, legislative and appropriations issues. He also was responsible for managing all administrative and legislative functions of Sen. Cochran's Washington, D.C., office and three Mississippi offices, including direct oversight of the U.S. Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry and the U.S. Senate Committee on Appropriations.

Dr. Keenum and his wife Rhonda have four children.

Greg Byrne

Director of Athletics

When Greg Byrne was named Mississippi State University's 15th Director of Athletics on February 21, 2008, he became the youngest top current athletic administrator in the Southeastern Conference. At 36 years of age, he also became the youngest to lead an athletic program at the NCAA Division I-A level.

Despite his age, Byrne is anything but inexperienced. He has been around successful athletic programs, and the director's chair at those institutions, literally all his life. He is the son of long-time athletic administrator Bill Byrne, currently the Director of Athletics at Texas A&M University.

Byrne, however, has made a name for himself in intercollegiate athletics. He has 15 years of professional experience, a resume' that shows progressive growth in both responsibility and achievement. He has been directly involved in raising over $120 million in gifts during his career in athletics. He has finalized and implemented an annual giving renovation for athletics at three different institutions. Byrne has also helped in the reorganization of the athletic program at one school while renovating the department's budgeting systems, development, marketing and compliance programs. Byrne was on the ground floor of resurrecting a football program and athletic department at another institution, one that achieved success for the first time in three decades.

Prior to being named to head State's athletic program, Byrne came to MSU in June 2006 as Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs. In just his first year on the job, Byrne initiated a first-ever volunteer fund-drive that resulted in 969 new Bulldog Club members for Mississippi State. He implemented a priority seating program for football and men's basketball that led to a $1 million increase in annual giving. He also led the effort to package State's donor and ticketing software, in connection with the department's athletic web site, for fan convenience. In doing so, MSU became the first Bowl Championship Series school to enlist XOS Technologies for total donor support in those areas.

Byrne held a similar position at the University of Kentucky prior to coming to Starkville. As Associate Athletic Director for Development and Fund-Raising at UK from 2002-05, he managed the development staff and operated a multi-million dollar budget. He oversaw development efforts that raised annual gifts from $4 million to $9 million annually. While in Lexington, Byrne led a $35 million athletic facility campaign, and participated in the design, funding and marketing for Kentucky's $30 million basketball practice facility. He worked with a corporate sponsorship team to manage UK marketing and development efforts, including signing one of the nation's top multi-media rights packages. Byrne was one of four members on the UK search committees that brought new head football and baseball coaches to the Wildcat athletic program.

Byrne possibly made his greatest athletic program impact as Associate Athletic Director for Development at Oregon State University from 1998-2002. Managing an eight-person staff, he replaced an antiquated 60-year old fund-raising organization and increased annual giving from $1 million to over $5 million in cash during his tenure there. He assisted the Director of Major Gifts in raising more than $30 million in capital gifts for facilities and budget enhancement while in Corvallis. He participated in securing a $12.5 million gift to rename the Beavers' football stadium. Byrne was involved in the department's transition of corporate sponsorships for radio, television, stadium and arena signage and game program sales to increase revenue.

Byrne began his athletic fund-raising career as Regional Director of Development at the University of Oregon from 1995 through '98, overseeing development efforts for Portland, Southern and Central Oregon, Northern California and the Oregon coast. While overseeing the Duck's letterman's organization, he participated in raising $14 million for an indoor football facility and soccer complex.

The energetic Byrne launched his professional career as Special Projects Coordinator for the Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Ariz., from 1993-95. During that time, he managed a 1,000-person volunteer base for 63 Fiesta Bowl annual events.

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Byrne earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona State University in 1994. He anticipates receiving his master's degree from Mississippi State this summer.

Byrne is married to the former Regina Misa of Junction City, Ore., and the couple has two sons, Nick (12) and Davis (10).

Director of Athletics Greg Byrne presents a maroon blazer and MSU baseball cap to his first MSU hire, baseball coach John Cohen, at the June press conference introducing Cohen.

MISSISSIPPI State

MSU has the largest enrollment in the state of Mississippi. Founded as a land-grant institution, its grass, flowers and trees are as prevalent as buildings, sidewalks and parking lots. Large enough to sport diversity in all areas, the university still maintains a warm, friendly atmosphere.

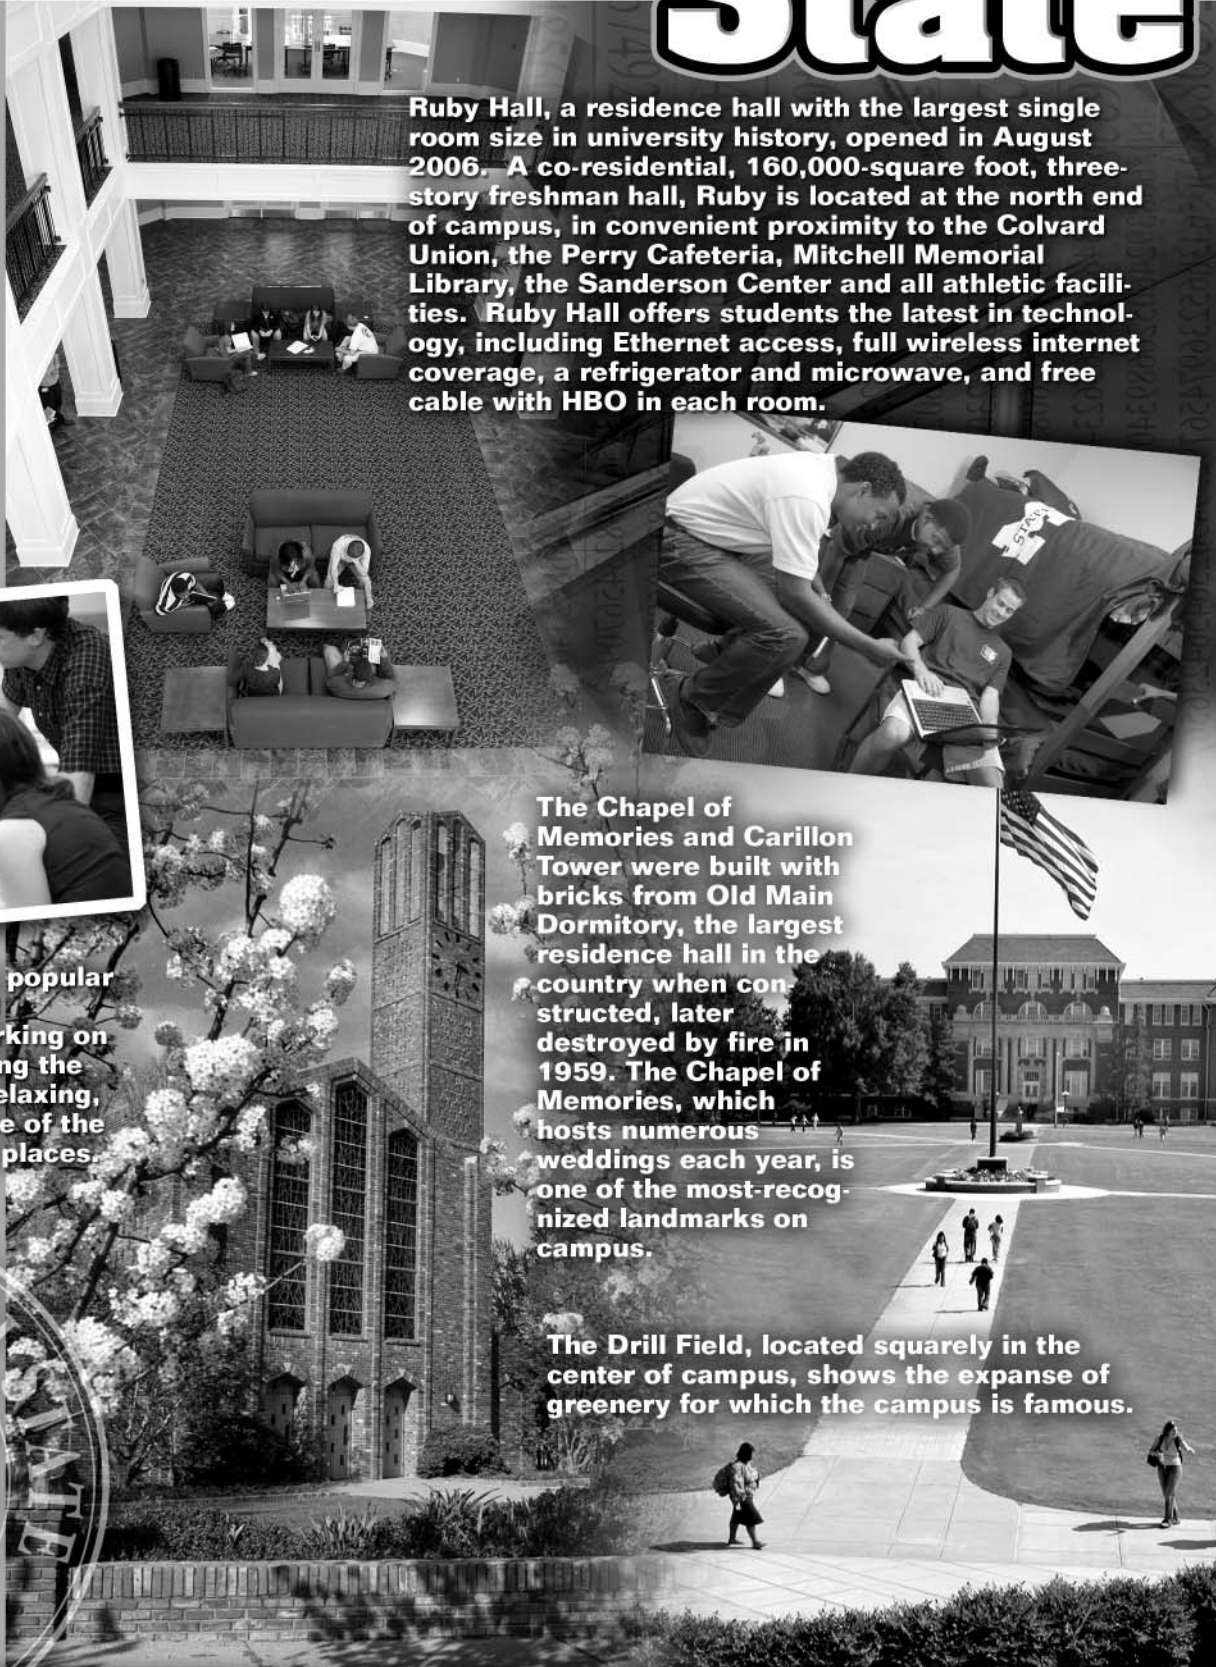

The Colvard Union is a popular meeting place for MSU students. Whether working on a group project, enjoying the food court, or simply relaxing, the student union is one of the campus' main meeting places.

Ruby Hall, a residence hall with the largest single room size in university history, opened in August 2006. A co-residential, 160,000-square foot, three-story freshman hall, Ruby is located at the north end of campus, in convenient proximity to the Colvard Union, the Perry Cafeteria, Mitchell Memorial Library, the Sanderson Center and all athletic facilities. Ruby Hall offers students the latest in technology, including Ethernet access, full wireless internet coverage, a refrigerator and microwave, and free cable with HBO in each room.

The Chapel of Memories and Carillon Tower were built with bricks from Old Main Dormitory, the largest residence hall in the country when constructed, later destroyed by fire in 1959. The Chapel of Memories, which hosts numerous weddings each year, is one of the most-recognized landmarks on campus.

The Drill Field, located squarely in the center of campus, shows the expanse of greenery for which the campus is famous.

The People's University

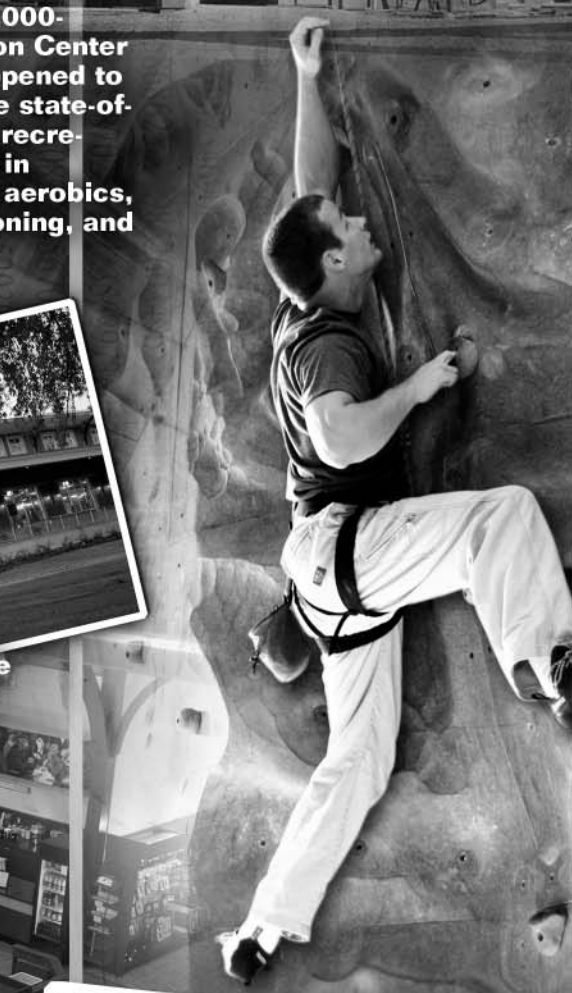

When built in the 1920s, Perry Cafeteria was the largest dining hall in the country. The 300-foot long, Gothic style interior is one of the most beautiful buildings on the campus. It has accommodations for 600 students, faculty and staff and serves as the dining hall for MSU athletes.

The $19 million, 150,000-square foot Sanderson Center recreation complex opened to students in 1996. The state-of-the-art facility offers recreational opportunities in aquatics, fitness and aerobics, strength and conditioning, and intramural sports.

Barnes & Noble opened on the MSU campus in August 2006 and features a world-class bookstore, apparel and gift shop, and café.

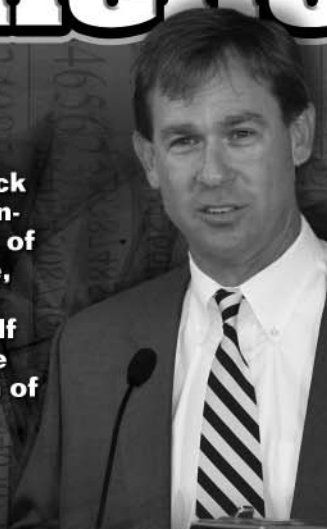

ATHLETIC Excellence

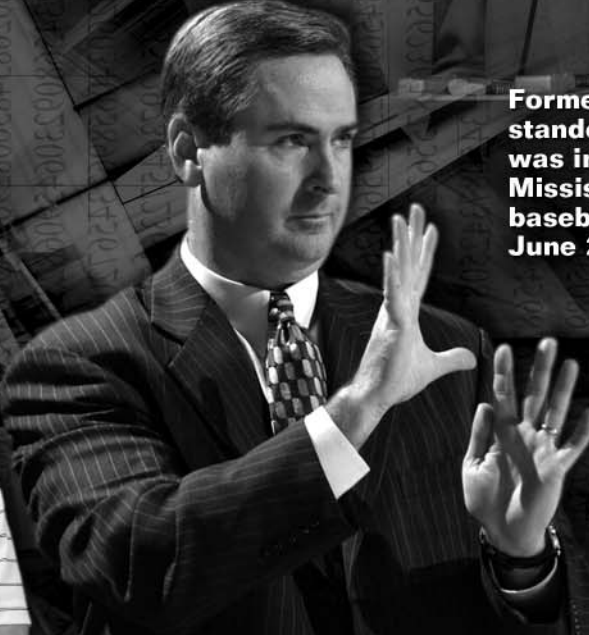

State's coaches care for their student-athletes and the school's sports programs. Each has a passion for their specialty, experience as a player and coach, and expertise to instruct at the highest levels. Their goal is to coach champions on the field and mold productive college graduates from the university's classroom.

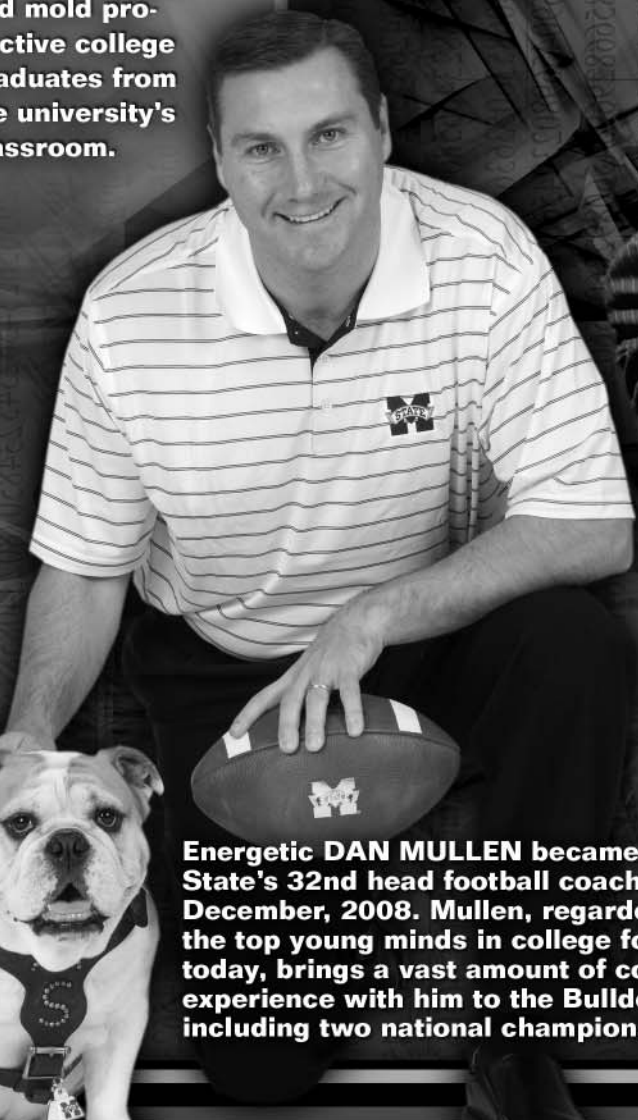

CHRISTI SANDERS (back left) has the longest, consecutive coaching reign of any head coach at State, with 21 seasons at the helm of the women's golf program. She has twice been named SEC Coach of the Year (1990, 2000).

Former MSU baseball standout JOHN COHEN was introduced as Mississippi State's new baseball skipper in June 2008.

RICK STANSBURY, the winningest coach in MSU basketball history, has guided the Bulldogs to 208 wins and eight post-season appearances in his 10 seasons at State.

Energetic DAN MULLEN became Mississippi State's 32nd head football coach in December, 2008. Mullen, regarded as one of the top young minds in college football today, brings a vast amount of coaching experience with him to the Bulldog program, including two national championships.

NEIL MACDONALD is the only head coach to guide the MState soccer program to an SEC Tournament appearance in his first season (2004).

On Nov. 10, 2006, SHARON FANNING became the 29th NCAA Division I women's basketball head coach to reach the 500-win plateau. Fanning is also the winningest basketball coach in Lady Bulldog history.

Great Teachers

CLAY HOMAN, a second-team all-SEC performer during his MState playing career, has led the men's golf program to 43 top 10 finishes in five years.

TRACY LANE has the most wins of any head women's tennis coach in MSU history. She directed the 2005 Lady Bulldogs to an SEC Western Division title and has guided MSU to four NCAA Championship berths in her 12 seasons at the State helm.

Returning home to coach his alma-mater, PER NILSSON was a part of the 1993 SEC Championship team.

JENNY HAZELWOOD returned to her alma mater as the head volleyball coach in 2009. During her career at State she set the school record for assists in a match, a season and a career.

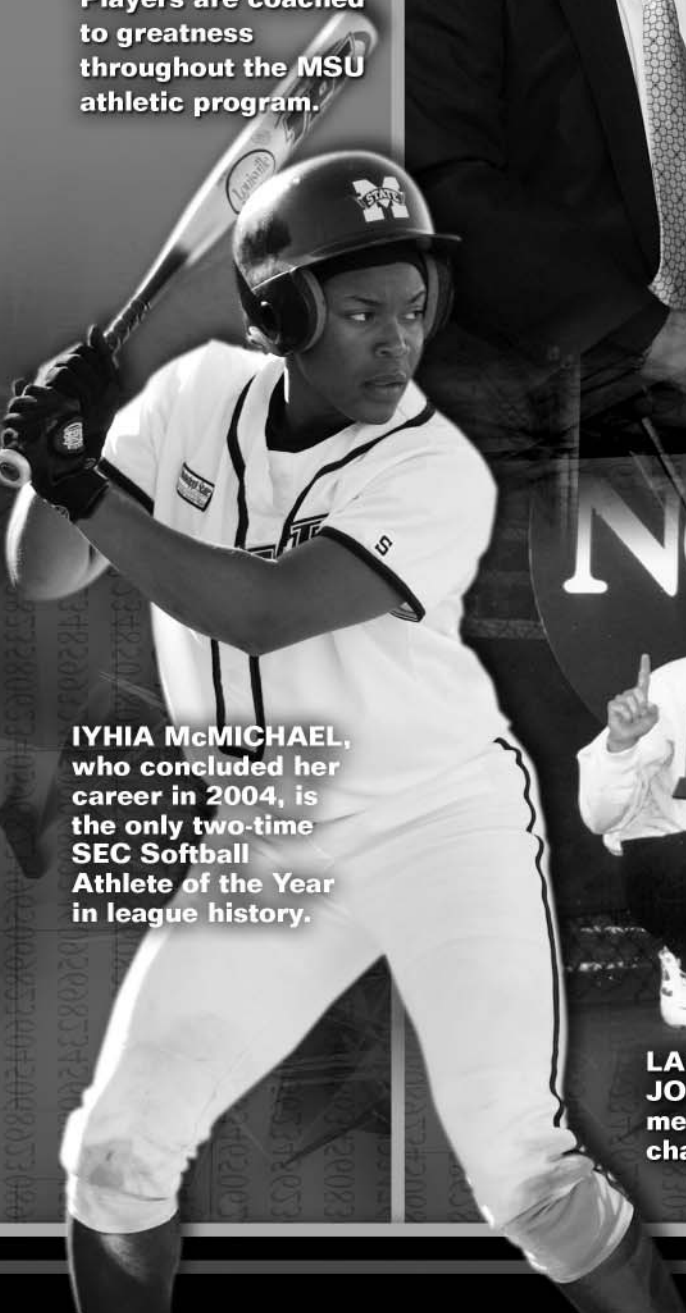

JAY MILLER is one of the most respected coaches around the country, and a key contributor to USA Softball in various capacities. The NFCA Hall of Famer has directed the State softball program to five NCAA postseason appearances in his six seasons.

Now in his second decade as the head coach of the men's and women's track teams, AL SCHMIDT has coached three MState athletes to national titles.

ATHLETIC Excellence

Mississippi State student-athletes have been achievers on the playing fields and off them. For every Bulldog winning all-SEC or All-America honors, another earns recognition for academic achievement. Players are coached to greatness throughout the MSU athletic program.

Bulldog catcher EDWARD EASLEY (R) was named the winner of the 2007 Coleman Company Johnny Bench Award as the nation's top collegiate catcher. Bench (L) presented Easley with the award. Easley also won the 2007 Cellular South Ferriss Trophy as Mississippi's top collegiate baseball player.

IYHIA McMICHAEL, who concluded her career in 2004, is the only two-time SEC Softball Athlete of the Year in league history.

LAURENT MIQUELARD (L) and JOC SIMMONS won the NCAA men's tennis doubles national championship in 1994.

LAWRENCE ROBERTS was the SEC Player of the Year in 2004 and a national finalist for the Wooden Award, given annually to college basketball's top player.

Great Players

As a relief pitcher with the Boston Red Sox, JONATHAN PAPELBON has been an MLB All-Star in each of his first three seasons.

JERIOUS NORWOOD concluded his football career in 2005 as the school's single-game and career rushing leader. He was named winner of the Conerly Trophy as the state's top college football player, was selected to play in the Senior Bowl, and was taken by the Atlanta Falcons in the NFL Draft.

LATOYA THOMAS concluded her career in 2003 as a two-time SEC Player of the Year and became only the sixth player in NCAA Division I history to be named a four-time Kodak All-America.

TIFFANY McWILLIAMS won the NCAA national championship in the 1500 meter run in 2003 and '04, and the national title in the indoor mile in 2004.

ATHLETIC Excellence

Mississippi State athletes play in some of the nation's finest facilities. Almost every Bulldog competition site has either been constructed or renovated in the last 15 years. During that time alone, more than $60 million in facility enhancements have been made.

DAVIS WADE STADIUM AT SCOTT FIELD: Near-sellout crowds have become the norm at Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field, where the Bulldogs have played before masses reaching 85 percent of stadium capacity. Since the 2000 season when expansion and renovation projects gave the nation's second-oldest stadium a gleaming new look, crowds have grown by nearly 30 percent.

PITTS TENNIS CENTRE: Considered among the finest tennis facilities in the collegiate ranks, the modern, six-court, 1,000-seat A.J. Pitts Tennis Centre recently completed its 25th year serving the men's and women's programs. Recent enhancements at the facility include new locker areas and concession stands (1998) and a permanent press box (2004).

W.O. SPENCER STADIUM/
CARL MADDOX TRACK: Co-named in honor of a two-time Mississippi State Olympian and a former MSU athletic director, the W.O. Spencer Stadium/Carl Maddox Track has served as host to the Southeastern Conference Outdoor Track and Field Championships three times since 1985, joining Tennessee as the most frequent host for that event during that time.

DUDY NOBLE FIELD, POLK-DEMENT STADIUM: One of the nation's leaders in baseball season ticket sales and attendance, Dudy Noble Field, Polk-Dement Stadium still holds the nation's on-campus single-game attendance mark — 14,991. With a seating capacity of more than 7,000 and more space in the world-famous outfield, Sports Illustrated magazine named the park, the "Best Place To Watch College Baseball" in a 1997 issue.

NEWELL GRISSOM BUILDING:

The 12,000-square foot, hardwood-floored Newell-Grisson Building serves as the home for Mississippi State's volleyball program and serves as a practice facility for both of the school's basketball programs. A state-of-the-art heating and air conditioning system was installed in 2004.

Great Places

MSU GOLF COURSE:

Nominated by Golfweek and Golf Digest magazines as one of the premier public golf courses in the United States, Mississippi State's championship University Golf Course is the home to the men's and women's programs. The 18-hole course was recently furnished with a 5,000-square-foot clubhouse, complete with locker areas, snack bar, golf shop and classroom.

MSU SOCCER FIELD: Built in 1995, the lighted Mississippi State Soccer Field gives the Bulldog women one of the finest playing surfaces in the Southeast, a 114-yard long, 72-yard wide regulation NCAA Championship field. The lush turf is Mississippi Pride grass, developed by researchers on the MSU campus.

HUMPHREY COLISEUM: Season ticket sales records and all-time attendance marks have also been set over the past decade by Bulldog and Lady Bulldog basketball teams in the Humphrey Coliseum, the state's largest on-campus basketball arena. The latest addition to the facility was a $1.8 million, center-hung, four-sided video scoreboard and jumbotron screen installed in 2004.

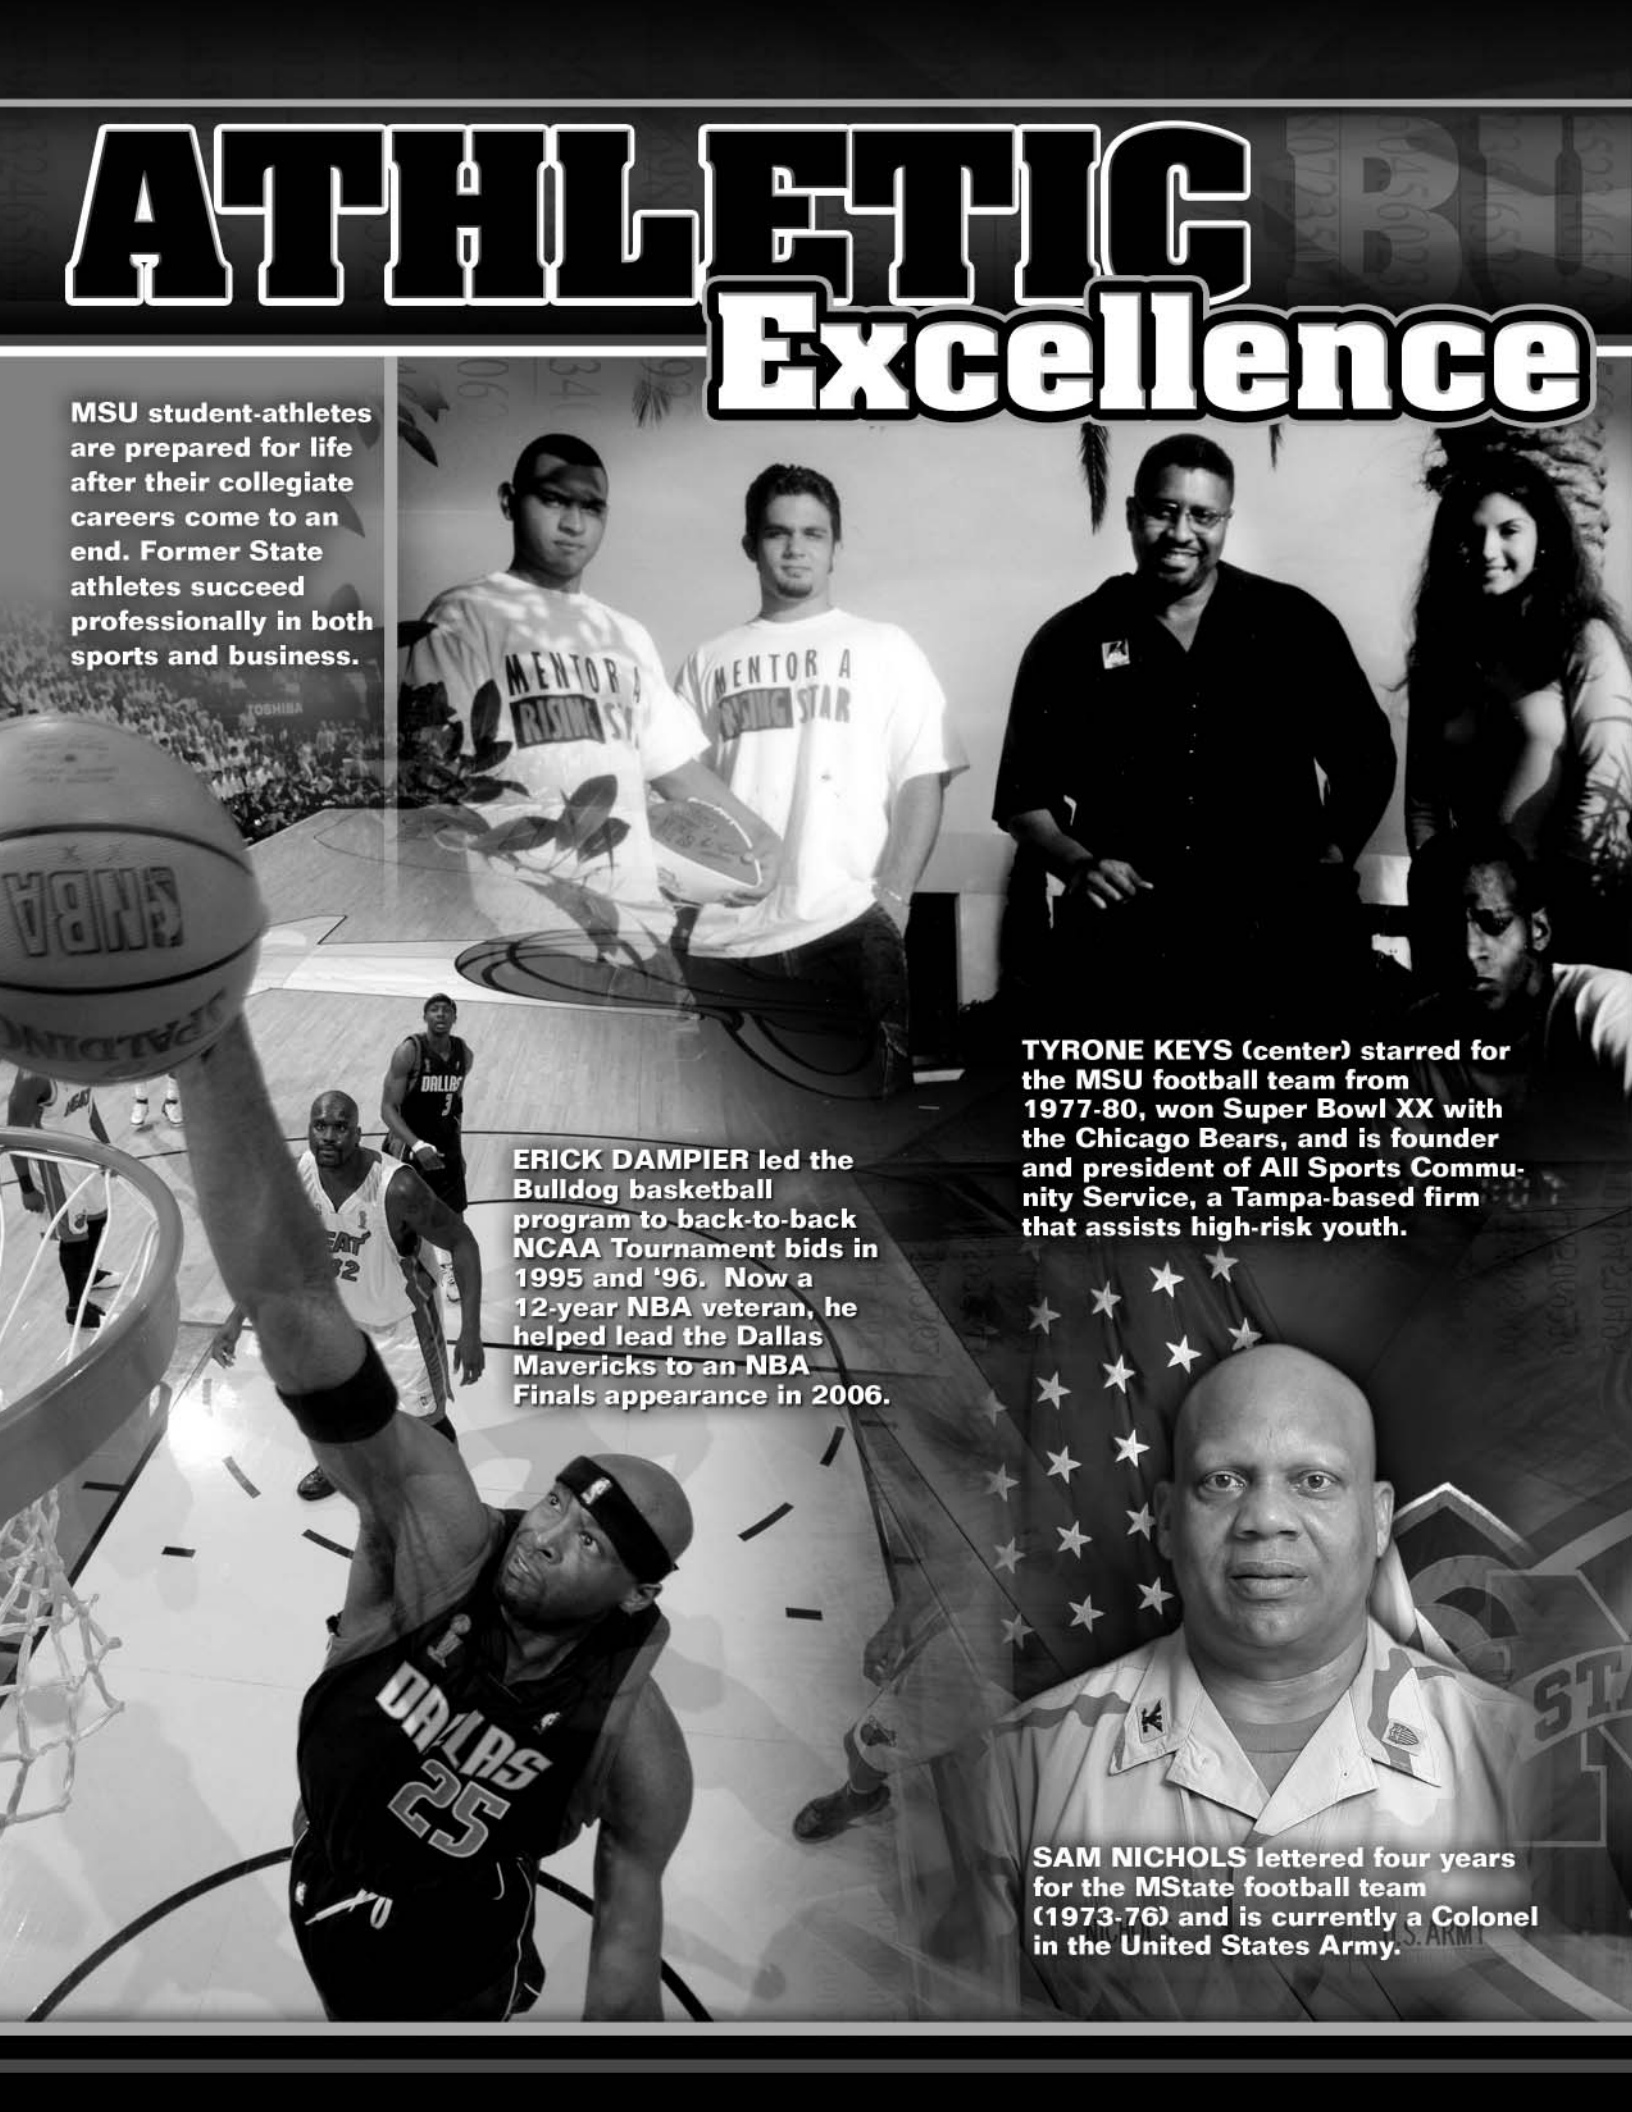

MSU SOFTBALL FIELD: Constructed in 1997, the Mississippi State Softball Field has undergone almost constant improvement at the northern-most point of campus. Lights were added to the facility in 1998, brick work was added to the dugouts two years later and, in 2001, additional batting cages were built. In 2005, softball moved into a new locker, training and meeting facility adjacent to the park.

BRYAN BUILDING: The state-of-the-art John H. Bryan Athletic Administration Building is the crown jewel of MSU's expansion projects of the last decade. Opened in 1996, this showcase facility is named for longtime Bulldog friend and supporter John H. Bryan Sr., and houses athletic administration, football, ticket, athletic development and media relations offices.

ATHLETIC Excellence

MSU student-athletes are prepared for life after their collegiate careers come to an end. Former State athletes succeed professionally in both sports and business.

ERICK DAMPIER led the Bulldog basketball program to back-to-back NCAA Tournament bids in 1995 and '96. Now a 12-year NBA veteran, he helped lead the Dallas Mavericks to an NBA Finals appearance in 2006.

TYRONE KEYS (center) starred for the MSU football team from 1977-80, won Super Bowl XX with the Chicago Bears, and is founder and president of All Sports Community Service, a Tampa-based firm that assists high-risk youth.

SAM NICHOLS lettered four years for the MState football team (1973-76) and is currently a Colonel in the United States Army.

BAILEY HOWELL, who still ranks second on the school's all-time basketball scoring list, enjoyed a 12-year career in the NBA and was elected to the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1997.

Great Alumni

ROSA MARIELLA (JIMINEZ) MAHAN was an ITA All-Academic Scholar women's tennis player for State in 1988, and is Senior VP and Regional Manager for Central America, the Caribbean, and Northern South America for Prisma Energy International in Houston, Texas.

BUCK SHOWALTER, currently a senior advisor to baseball operations for the Cleveland Indians, was an all-America baseball player at MSU in 1977 and has managed three clubs in the major leagues, including the Texas Rangers.

BOBBY THIGPEN helped MSU baseball to the College World Series in 1985 and still holds the Major League record for saves in a season (57 in 1990 with the Chicago White Sox).

Bulldog right-hander JEFF BRANTLEY (1982-85) still holds SEC records for pitching wins in a season (18) and career (45). He is now a radio broadcaster for the Cincinnati Reds.

There is truly no place like home for Mississippi State's Baseball Bulldogs, especially when that home is Dudy Noble Field, one of the nation's top venues for college baseball.

The 2009 campaign marks the 43rd season of baseball at the current site of Mississippi State baseball's on-campus home field, Dudy Noble Field. MSU first settled into Dudy Noble Field in 1967, and over the past four decades the facility has evolved into the nation's largest campus facility for college baseball and what many regard as the sport's finest all-around baseball complex.

MSU has surpassed the 200,000 mark in paid attendance at Dudy Noble Field in five of the past seven seasons and last season topped the four million mark in home attendance since 1976, the first year fan attendance was charted.

The field is named in honor of longtime MSU baseball coach, athletic director and ABCA Hall of Famer Clarke Randolph "Dudy" Noble. And on April 27, 1998 the facility was renamed Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium, honoring another ABCA Hall of Famer, former Bulldog skipper Ron Polk and the late Gordon DeMent, a successful businessman and longtime fan of the Baseball Bulldogs from Indianola, Miss.

Dudy Noble Field has twice hosted crowds in excess of 14,000, including an NCAA on-campus-record 14,991 that watched the Bulldogs take on SEC Eastern Division rival Florida in a Saturday twinbill in 1989. The home of the Baseball Bulldogs has hosted crowds of 10,000 or better 22 times. MSU eclipsed the 10,000 mark in attendance three times in 2007, including NCAA Super Regional-record draws of 13,715 and 12,620 for nationally-televised late morning games against Clemson. Dudy Noble Field has served as the home to seven Southeastern Conference championship teams, has twice hosted NCAA District III tournaments (1973 and 1974), five SEC tournaments (1979, 1981, 1983, 1988 and 1995), 11 NCAA Regional tournaments (1979, 1984, 1985, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1992, 1997, 2000 and 2003) and in 2007 its first NCAA Super Regional.

From 1929 until 1964, Mississippi State hosted its baseball games at the original on-campus site for Dudy Noble Field several hundred yards to the south of Scott Field, State's football stadium. The baseball field was closed following the 1964 season to make way for the construction of Dorman Hall. And for the next two seasons, while a "new" Dudy Noble Field was being built, the Diamond Dogs played their home games in Columbus at Redbird Park. State captured SEC championships both seasons at their Columbus home. Meanwhile, the tin-roofed grandstand and 2,000-seat bleachers at the old field were moved to the stadium's present site, which became playable for the 1967 season.

Facility enhancements have followed a steady pace over the years ever since.

In 1971, thanks to the generosity of the late E.B. "Dutch" McCool, a former MSU baseball player and one of the founding fathers of Holiday Inns, Inc., MSU took the lead in the Southeastern Conference with the installation of a lighting system. The advent of night baseball in Starkville helped build a solid fan base. A drainage and sprinkler system and an expanded scoreboard and animation-equipped message center, new batting ranges and an infield tarp became the stadium's next improvements.

Mississippi State hosted its first SEC Baseball Tournament and NCAA Regional in 1979, winning both and setting attendance marks while opening eyes along the way.

The crowds mushroomed further in the 1980s as future Major League stars Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Rafael Palmeiro and Bobby Thigpen helped the 1985 Bulldogs win the SEC championship, host and win another regional championship and earn MSU's highest national finish, a tie for third place at the NCAA College World Series.

It was obvious that support for Bulldog Baseball had easily out-grown its cozy Dudy Noble Field facility. Two years after that magical '85 season Mississippi State unveiled a dramatic advancement for its baseball facilities — an impressive $3.5 million project that would give MSU the biggest baseball stadium in the league.

The new facility at Dudy Noble Field, built in less than nine months, featured an impressive concrete grandstand structure with 3,700 maroon theater-style seats, a spacious elevated press box, and rest room, ticket, souvenir and concession-vending facilities. And the team clubhouse featured a 40-locker dressing room and team area. A pair of 1,500-seat bleachers that once overlooked the end zones at Scott Field, the home of MSU's football Bulldogs, were refurbished and installed along the foul lines, raising seating capacity at Dudy Noble Field to 6,700. The facility was later chosen by Sports Illustrated as the best play to watch college baseball, and it became a model for future college baseball facilities built across the nation. The "new" Dudy Noble Field facility also helped ignite a drive to update baseball facilities throughout the SEC.

The expanded capacity at the stadium also triggered an increase in MSU's annual baseball season ticket base to more than 5,000, virtually assuring Mississippi State of a place among national leaders in college baseball attendance every year.

A second permanent concession stand was added in 1989, and a year later, the cinder warning track at the outfield fence was extended to completely encircle the playing field. That project, along with the installation of a six-foot high padded outfield fence, was made possible by a donation by former MSU All-American and Major League standout Will Clark.

Best-selling author, MSU alumnus and avid MSU baseball fan John Grisham donated funding in 1993 for an indoor batting range under the first base grandstand, and in August 1998 construction got under way on an ambitious project that added 18 skysuites and more than 600 additional chairback seats in the grandstand. When it was completed during the 2000 season, permanent seating capacity at Dudy Noble Field had eclipsed the 7,000 mark.

The aura of Mississippi State baseball at Dudy Noble Field is certainly not confined to the loyal legions in the impressive grandstand, pro-style luxury skysuites and bleachers.

In fact, some of the more highly-prized seats at Bulldog Baseball games are found beyond the outfield fence in the "Left Field Lounge". Waiting lists greet those seeking to purchase one of nearly 75 renewable season parking passes for an assigned

DUDY NOBLE FIELD, POLK-DEMENT STADIUM

Thanks in part to the financial support of the MSU Dugout Club, the Bulldog clubhouse features an expanded training room, new carpeting, enhanced lighting and all-new individual lockers, along with other amenities such as a satellite television system and sound system, new furniture and other furnishings in the player lounge, and tables for billiards and table tennis.

position in one of three rows beyond the outfield fence. There, a colorful assortment of pickup trucks, motor homes, and trailers — most equipped with barbecue grills — line the outfield fence, completing a circle of humanity at Dudy Noble Field.

What began in the late 1960s as a popular gathering spot for baseball-loving MSU students now forms college baseball's largest tailgate party. A 10-foot wide boardwalk has since been added to the area between the outfield fence and the first row of outfield terrace parking.

Not surprisingly MSU ranks each year among the nation's leaders in attendance. Single-game paid attendance totals have reached the five-digit mark 22 times, three of those in 2007. SEC weekend games typically draw the largest crowds, giving rise to huge weekend gatherings. Six of the last seven three-game Super Bulldog Weekend series have drawn more than 25,000, including an SEC series-record 29,915 fans that watched the 2006 MSU-Georgia series.

Still, the improvements continue at Dudy Noble Field. Prior to the start of the 2003 season 46-foot "major league" foul poles were added, and a year later a new state-of-the-art scoreboard/message center, courtesy of the Henry Mize Foundation, was installed along with new fencing and gates surrounding the main grandstand.

The landscape surrounding Dudy Noble Field took on an even more impressive look in 2005 with the completion of the Palmeiro Center, a massive 68,000-square foot climate-controlled turfed indoor practice facility located adjacent to Dudy Noble Field. The spacious facility, made possible by a generous lead gift from former MSU great Rafael Palmeiro and his wife Lynne, features a regulation infield practice area, additional training area and three retractable batting cages.

The latest enhancements at Dudy Noble Field include a new practice infield (above), adjacent to the Palmeiro Center, and an expanded high definition video board more than twice the size of the system that it replaces.

Nestled between the Palmeiro Center and Dudy Noble Field is the baseball coaches office complex, also completed in 2005. The complex, which also houses a baseball heritage room, was made possible by contributions from former Bulldog players Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Eric DuBose, Paul Maholm, Jay Powell and Bobby Thigpen and former MSU manager James "Bo" McKinnis.

Mississippi State's baseball complex received a boost with the addition of the Bryce Griffis Boardroom, a $1.5 million, meeting/banquet hall extension on the south end of the Palmeiro Center. The facility features banquet seating for approximately 350.

The latest enhancements at the facility include the addition of an outdoor practice infield adjacent to the Palmeiro Center on the north end, and an expanded state-of-the-art high definition video board.

It's all part of an on-going campaign to maintain Dudy Noble Field's standing as one of the nation's premier venues for college baseball.

SEC Baseball Tournament
Regions Park (Hoover, Ala.)

The Southeastern Conference, which celebrated its 75th anniversary in 2007-08, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The SEC baseball posted another banner season in 2007 as the conference tied its own NCAA mark when nine teams advanced to NCAA postseason play — Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, South Carolina, and Vanderbilt. Two of those, Georgia and LSU, advanced to the NCAA College World Series, marking the 23rd time in the last 24 years that the Southeastern Conference has had representation in college baseball's "elite eight" in Omaha.

Louisiana State turned back Ole Miss to earn its SEC record-matching seventh league tournament title in 2008. The SEC regular season title went to Georgia after the Bulldogs posted a 20-9-1 record. Georgia, like LSU, advanced to the NCAA College World Series, with Georgia reaching the National Championship Series before bowing to Fresno State. It marked the fourth time since 2000 that an SEC team played for college baseball's national crown at Rosenblatt Stadium.

The Southeastern Conference boasts of 11 former National Players of the Year, nine Baseball America Coach of the Year and seven Collegiate Baseball Coach of the Year honorees and 140 student-athletes that have been accorded all-America team honors, including seven in 2008.

In 2008 eight SEC baseball players had their names called in the first round of Major League Baseball's Amateur Draft. That raises to 76 the number of SEC players drafted in the opening round.

Vanderbilt, which saw its star pitcher David Price taken first in the 2007 MLB draft, had the draft's No. 2 overall selection in 2008, Pedro Alvarez.

The league also enjoyed a banner year at the gate, with the 12 teams drawing in excess of 1.6 million fans to its on-campus ballparks and averaging 4,044 fans per game. Six SEC teams eclipsed the 100,000 mark in home paid attendance.

ABOUT THE SEC

Mississippi State University is a charter member of the Southeastern Conference, a pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition and a national leader as intercollegiate athletics marches on into the 21st century.

Centrally headquartered in Birmingham, Ala., the Southeastern Conference is comprised of 12 universities that span a nine-state area, conducting championships in 11 women's and nine men's sports. The member schools are split into two divisions. Mississippi State is joined in the SEC West by instate rival Mississippi, Louisiana State, Alabama, Auburn and Arkansas. The Eastern Division features Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. All but Arkansas and South Carolina were among 13 charter members of the SEC, with those schools joining the league for competition in 1991-92.

Three SEC schools begin the 2009 campaign with new head coaches --- Auburn (John Pawlowski), Kentucky (Gary Henderson) and Mississippi State (John Cohen).

THE SEC TOURNAMENT

At the conclusion of a 10-weekend, 30-game league schedule, the Southeastern Conference conducts a postseason tournament, with the winner receiving the league's automatic qualifying bid for the NCAA baseball tournament. The teams with the eight highest conference winning percentages qualify for the double-elimination SEC tournament. A College World Series-styled, double-bracket format is used, with the winners of each bracket meeting in a televised championship game.

The 2009 SEC Tournament (May 20-24) will be the league's 33rd dating back to 1978. And for the 14th time overall and the 12th consecutive year, the event will be staged in Hoover, Ala., at the recently-renovated Regions Park, the home of the Class AA Southern League's Birmingham Barons (Chicago White Sox). The facility has seating for 10,800 but can accommodate crowds of up to 16,000.

The SEC Tournament drew 124,139 fans to Regions Park in 2008, making it the second-best attended of the Southeastern Conference's 32 baseball tournaments.

Mississippi State has won six SEC Baseball Tournament championships, second-most in the league, with three of those championships won in Hoover, Ala.

SEC BASEBALL POINTS OF PRIDE

- The SEC has sent 36 teams to the College World Series since 1990. During that span LSU has been to Omaha 11 times, Georgia five times and both Florida and Mississippi State four times each. Alabama and South Carolina have made three CWS appearances during that span. Overall, LSU has made 14 trips to the national championship tournament while Mississippi State is second with eight CWS appearances.

- SEC teams have won six of the last 19 national championships while claiming runner-up honors four times.

- The SEC has sent nine of its 12 schools to the College World Series since 1990 — Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina and Tennessee.

- Since 1990, SEC squads have received 122 NCAA Tournament bids, an average over six per season. The SEC sent an NCAA-record nine teams to the NCAA Tournament three times --- in 2004, 2005 and 2008.

- SEC teams registered six of the nation's top 10 and 10 of the top 25 home attendance averages in 2008, with SEC Western Division rivals LSU (7,590), Arkansas (6,968) and Mississippi State (6,008) ranking 1-2-3.

- The SEC posted a 247-107 record against non-conference opponents in 2008, a 69.8 winning percentage.

Burke Masters represented MSU as a "Story of Character" during the SEC's 75th anniversary celebration in 2007-08.
