The 2010 Mississippi State University Baseball Media Guide has been prepared to assist the media with its coverage of Bulldog Baseball. It should provide answers to most MSU baseball-related questions. Should you need additional information, please contact MSU Assistant Media Relations Director Joe Dier (662-325-8040/FAX 325-3600 • jbdier@athletics.msstate.edu).

THE JOE PHILLIPS PRESS BOX:

The press box at Dudy Noble Field is named in honor of Joe Phillips, a pioneer in radio broadcasting in Mississippi and a driving force behind the formation of Mississippi State University's radio networks for sports broadcasts. The facility features media seating in three compartments as well as two radio booths.

CREDENTIALS: Media credentials for Mississippi State home baseball games are required for media covering games at Dudy Noble Field and are issued through the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office for working press only. Written requests by accredited media members on company letterhead should be submitted well in advance of the requested game(s) and directed to Assistant Director of Athletic Media Relations Joe Dier (P.O. Box 5308, Mississippi State, MS 39762 — jbdier@athletics.msstate.edu). If needed, credentials can be left at the "Will Call" window at the stadium ticket office under the main grandstand, which opens two hours prior to SEC and weekend games and 90 minutes prior to all other games.

Mississippi State is scheduled to make three appearances this season in Pearl, Miss., at Trustmark Park, the home of the Mississippi Braves, the Atlanta Braves' affiliate in the Class AA Southern League. MSU is the designated home team for both the fourth annual Governor's Cup game against Ole Miss (March 30) and a May 4 game against Southern Miss. Jackson State is the home team for the MSU-JSU game May 5. Requests for media credentials for the games at Trustmark Park should be directed through the Mississippi Braves ticket office (888-272-8374).

Credentials are also required for photographers and videographers at MSU home games, and on-field photographers must shoot from and stow equipment in the photo boxes located on the outfield end of each dugout. Photographers are restricted from entering the field of play and team dugouts, and flash photography is not permitted at Dudy Noble Field.

INTERVIEWS: Following a 10-minute cooling off period, head coach John Cohen, Mississippi State players and MSU assistant coaches will be available for interviews following most games on the field near the MSU dugout. To facilitate the process, a member of the MSU Media Relations staff will solicit interview requests from media members in the final two innings of the game, and will be available to assist with those interviews on the field. The Mississippi State locker room and stadium dugouts at Dudy Noble Field are restricted to team officials and are not open to the media.

Coach Cohen will also be available for additional non-gameday interviews throughout the week. The best time to reach Cohen by telephone is from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. weekdays. These interviews can also be arranged through the MSU Baseball Office by contacting April Edwards at (662) 325-3597.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS: Mississippi State welcomes media representation at all baseball games and practices. Media members should contact the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office for practice times and to make known requests for player interviews. In most cases, players will be available for a brief time before and for a lengthier time following practices.

To arrange pregame interviews with players, please make advance contact with Joe Dier. Players are generally available for brief pregame interviews approximately two hours prior to each game near the dugout. Telephone interviews can also be scheduled with players on a call-back basis during the week, also with advance arrangement through the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office.

PARKING: Media members are advised the MSU Athletic Department does not provide reserved media parking at Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium and that traffic around the stadium is heavily congested before and after most home games. It is recommended that media utilize the paved parking area east of the stadium and Humphrey Coliseum. MSU baseball media credentials will be honored at all public entrances to the stadium.

PRESS BOX SERVICES: The MSU Media Relations Office provides pregame notes, statistics and scorecards in the Joe Phillips Press Box prior to each game at Dudy Noble Field. A complete box score along with a play-by-play is available approximately 15 minutes after each game. Wired and wireless internet connections are available for media use in the press box.

RADIO: MSU provides a radio booth for the broadcast entity designated by the visiting SEC team. Two telephone lines and an ISDN line are available for use in the visiting radio booth in the Joe Phillips Press Box. Telephone lines will also be made available for use by radio networks of non-conference opponents on a reciprocating basis. Please contact Jim Ellis (662-325-8950) in advance to confirm arrangements for the use of telephone lines.

SATELLITE FEEDS: The MSU Television Center has expanded its satellite-fed video highlight service to television outlets this spring. Game highlights will be available all three days of the Bank-First Baseball Challenge and following each of Mississippi State's 15 SEC home games. Contact Bennie Ashford (662-325-1332) of the MSU Television Center for specific uplink schedules and satellite coordinates to access this video service.

MSU's post-game interviews are conducted on the field.

The 2010 Mississippi State University Baseball Media Guide is a publication of the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office and was compiled by Joe Dier, with editorial and graphic assistance from Sam Anderson, Kyle Bass, Christina Hilliard, Amy Robertson and Lee VanHorn. Photography by Joe Dier, Russ Houston and the late Fred Faulk (MSU University Relations), Mansel Guerry, Craig Jackson (LeftFieldLounge.com), David Lann (Birmingham, Ala.), Chad Ray, Bill Simmonds, Bob Smith, Melford Smith, Starkville Daily News and Gene Swindoll. Baseball trading cards by Donrus, Fleer, Upper Deck and Topps. Color cover designs by John Schaffhauser of Schaffhauser Design, Inc. of Canton, Miss. Printing by Interstate Printers, Mobile, Ala. Additional copies of this media guide can be purchased for $15 through the MSU Athletic Ticket Office (Box 5327, MSU, MS 39762) in the Bryan Athletic Administration Building (662-325-2600).

The 2010 Mississippi State University Baseball Media Guide is dedicated to the memory of Don Foster, a great and loyal friend of Mississippi State University and Bulldog Baseball throughout a remarkable sports writing career at the Starkville Daily News that spanned five decades.

THE BOB HARTLEY MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP

Bob Hartley

Providing training opportunities for young SIDs

For more than half a century Robert M. "Bob" Hartley dedicated his life's work to promoting Mississippi State University athletics. From his hiring as the school's first sports publicity director in August 1946 to his initial "retirement" as assistant athletic director for communications in June 1985, through his later years as an invaluable consultant for the Mississippi State University Department of Athletics, the man we called "Hart" gave special meaning to the words "loyalty" and "devotion to duty."

Mr. Bob's labors of love with MSU have not gone unrecognized. He has taken his place among college athletics' greats as a member of both the university's and the state's sports halls of fame and the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Hall of Fame.

His willingness to generously give of his talent, his time and his friendship serves as an inspiration to the countless lives he touched and to those that aspire to follow in his footsteps.

In that respect, the Bob Hartley Memorial Fellowship was created by the MSU Department of Athletics to provide hands-on training opportunities for young media relations practitioners.

Janelle Finley is the eighth recipient of the Bob Hartley Memorial Fellowship for the 2009-2010 academic year. A native of Mobile, Ala., Finley is in her third season working with the Mississippi State athletic media relations office. She serves as Mississippi State's media relations contact for cross country and track and field media.

Finley earned a bachelor's degree in communication/public relations from Mississippi State University in 2009. She is currently pursuing a master's degree in sports administration at State.

Previous recipients of the Bob Hartley Memorial Fellowship include Scott Kuykendall, Larry Little, Brock Turnipseed, Rene Oakes Garner, Tony Schmidt, Jay Middleton and Stephen Foshee.

Mississippi State University formally reiterates and reaffirms its commitment to the principles of equal opportunity, affirmative action and diversity. Discrimination based upon race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, or veteran's status is a violation of federal and state law and MSU policy and will not be tolerated. Discrimination based upon sexual orientation or group affiliation is a violation of MSU policy and will not be tolerated. This nondiscrimination policy applies to all programs administered by the University. However, this policy should not be construed to infringe upon the free exchange of ideas essential to the academic environment.

Mary Alexander, Director of Diversity & Equity Programs, 106 McArthur Hall, P.O. Box 6199, MS State, MS 39762, office telephone number 662-325-2493, campus mailstop 9609, has been designated as the responsible employee to coordinate efforts to carry out responsibilities and make investigation of complaints relating to discrimination in conforming with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1974, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

Mississippi State Baseball is the home for one of the nation's oldest and most extensive collegiate baseball radio networks, affording fans throughout the Magnolia State and beyond an opportunity to regularly follow the exploits of the Baseball Bulldogs throughout the season.

Network programming for the MSU baseball broadcasts is distributed and coordinated through the facilities of Learfield Sports, Inc., headquartered in Jefferson City, Mo.

The 2010 Mississippi State University Baseball Radio Network, a team of more than a dozen radio outlets, carries the broadcasts of a 40-game network schedule (all 30 SEC weekend contests and 10 selected non-conference games) plus all postseason competition. In addition to the 40-game network schedule, the broadcasts of most non-network games are carried in the Golden Triangle area by WFCA-FM (107.9) in French Camp, Miss., a 100,000-watt affiliate which has served as the flagship station of the MSU Baseball Radio Network over the past 10 seasons.

Additionally, most MSU baseball network radio broadcasts are also available on a subscription basis via the internet through the official web site of Mississippi State University Athletics (www.MStateAthletics.com).

The broadcasts feature a pregame interview with head baseball coach John Cohen and play-by-play and game analysis by the "voice" of the Diamond Dogs, Jim Ellis, and conclude with a postgame show that includes an interview with a Bulldog player.

Radio broadcasts of Bulldog Baseball got their start in the 1960s on Starkville radio station WSSO thanks to the work of the late Joe Phillips, a pioneer in radio broadcasting in Mississippi. The MSU baseball stadium press box is named in honor of Phillips.

But credit for turning the single-station broadcast into an impressive collection of radio outlets blanketing Mississippi goes to veteran MSU sports broadcaster, Jim Ellis, who in 2010 enters his 32nd season of describing the exploits of the Baseball Bulldogs. A native of West Point, Miss., and a 1969 MSU grad, Ellis coordinates the operation of State's baseball radio network. His voice is also a familiar one with State basketball and football fans, having teamed with MSU play-by-play legend Jack Cristil for three decades on MSU's football and basketball radio network broadcasts.

New to the MSU baseball broadcast lineup in 2010 is a baseball version of the popular MSU coaches' call-in radio show "Dawgtalk". The show will air on eight consecutive Monday's from 7-8 p.m. on affiliated radio stations in Mississippi. Listeners can call 866-998-4893 to participate in the show.

MSU's weekly baseball television coach's show returns for its 23rd season in 2010. "Mississippi State Baseball with John Cohen" is a joint production of the Mississippi State University Television Center and Bulldog Sports Properties, a property of Learfield Sports. The 30-minute television program runs for eight weeks in April and May and is hosted by the Bulldogs' skipper and Jim Ellis. The show includes game highlights and interviews with Bulldog coaches and players along with other insightful looks into the unique world of MSU baseball. It is produced at the Mississippi State University Television Center by Bennie Ashford, Coordinator of Electronic Media for Mississippi State University athletics. Ashford also coordinates the video board production at Dudy Noble Field and the video highlights package made available to TV stations following select Mississippi State home games.

M2M: MAXIMUM VIDEO AND AUDIO COVERAGE OF BULLDOG BASEBALL

Bulldog fans around the world can watch most of State's 33 home games in 2010 live on the internet (www.MStateAthletics.com). "Maroon to the Max", the premium extension of MSU's official athletics department web site, begins its fourth season of providing live four-camera video streaming of most MSU home games backed with the audio simulcast from the MSU Baseball Radio Network broadcasts. Home games not shown live will be offered on a delayed same-day broadcast basis.

M2M subscribers can also listen to the radio network broadcasts of all games played by the Baseball Bulldogs (some limited exceptions).

May 26-30 --- SEC Tournament			Hoover, Ala. (Region)

The Bulldogs saw their team batting averages and fielding percentages climb and staff earned run averages drop in 2009 en route to a 25-29 finish that, over the final two weekends of the campaign, included three wins in six games played against top 10-ranked opponents.

John Cohen's first Mississippi State baseball edition showed improvement from the start of the season to the end. And if projections hold true, the pace of that improvement is expected to quicken considerably in 2010.

"Our execution level in practice is dramatically better than it was a year ago," said Cohen. "The overall athleticism of our club is better. Everyone who has returned in our program is better, and our coaching staff has put together a highly-skilled recruiting class. What will jump out at people this year is that we will be dramatically better defensively."

Mississippi State's 120th baseball edition figures to be an interesting blend of battle-tested veterans and highly-skilled newcomers in Cohen's second season as MSU skipper.

State returns 17 lettermen in 2010 and 14 of the 27 players that drew starts during the course of the 2009 campaign.

And for the first time in recent history, the newcomers --- 18 in all --- out-number the returning players on Mississippi State's 35-player squad. Those newcomers --- featuring 11 high school players and seven junior college transfers, are part of a recruiting class ranked eighth nationally, State's highest-ranked baseball recruiting class since 2000.

There's plenty of high-level competition at most positions in the MSU infield, where three of MSU's four primary starters return for the 2010 campaign.

The highest profile of those returnees is senior first baseman Connor Powers (Naperville, Ill.), an 11th-round draft pick of the Los Angeles Dodgers last June. Powers, who started at third base his first two seasons at State, excelled in his debut year across the diamond at first base, registering one error in 422 defensive chances and posting the second-highest fielding percentage (.998) among the SEC's first basemen. He was equally impressive at the plate, fashioning a .301 batting average that included team-leading totals in doubles (15), home runs (19), RBI (63), runs scored (49), slugging percentage (.688) and walks (35). In the SEC, Powers ranked sixth in home runs, seventh in slugging percentage and ninth in RBI. A league-best 14 of his blasts came in SEC, where he carved an impressive .711 slugging percentage.

On the other corner position in the infield MSU returns fifth-year senior starter Russ Sneed (Senatobia, Miss.). Sneed posted a career-best .333 batting average with a team-leading 62 hits in 47 starts at third base. A career .303 hitter, Sneed missed most of MSU's fall drills recovering from his second hip surgery in as many years.

Senior Jarrod Parks (Madison, Miss.), who was challenging Sneed for the starting job at third base, will redshirt in 2010 after undergoing successful back surgery in January. The former Meridian Community College standout had drawn six starts at third base.

Providing depth at third base are senior Jet Butler (Pensacola, Fla.), the Bulldogs' starting second baseman in 43 games in 2009, and sophomore infielder Frank Rawdow (Lakeland, Fla.), who split his 21 rookie season starts at shortstop and second base. Butler, a 114-game starter and .303 career hitter, opened one game last spring at third base and could also factor in Mississippi State's plans behind the plate.

Solid showings during fall drills have helped a pair of junior college transfers, Jonathan Ogden (Cypress, Texas) and Nick Vickerson (Tuscaloosa, Ala.), position themselves for possible starting jobs in the middle infield. Both shortstops by trade, Ogden, one of three newcomers from Blinn (Texas) College, and Vickerson, from Shelton (Ala.) State Community College, are among leading candidates for starts at shortstop and second base on opening day. In addition to his defensive prowess, Vickerson led the Bulldogs at the plate during fall scrimmages.

Depth in the middle infield is expected to come from sophomore Frank Rawdow (Lakeland, Fla.), a 21-game starter at second and short last year, and left-handed hitting true freshman Sam Frost (Hoover, Ala.).

With the departure of 2009 starting receiver Scott DeLoach, the Bulldogs have a pair of juniors positioned to take over as State's starting catcher. Cody Freeman (Collinsville, Miss.) started 13 games behind the dish last spring and 30 in his first two years at State and has recovered from the knee and shoulder injuries that eventually sidelined him as a freshman in 2008.

Wes Thigpen (Luling, La.), one of MSU's seven junior college signees for 2008-09, impressed the MSU staff during fall drills. Thigpen was an NJ CA A All-Region selection in 2009 following his second season as the starting catcher at Meridian Community College.

Senior Jet Butler (Pensacola, Fla.), worked out behind the plate during the fall as did freshman signee Kolby Byrd (Bogue Chitto, Miss.) and walk-on rookie Dallas Hannah (Meridian, Miss.).

The Bulldog outfielding corps features an interesting blend of seasoned veterans and promising newcomers after the departure of senior outfielders Grant Hogue and Mark Goforth.

Three players return with starting experience from the 2009 campaign -- senior Luke Adkins (Nettleton, Miss.), sophomore Brent Brownlee (Oxford, Miss.) and junior Ryan Collins (Callaway, Fla.).

Collins, with 92 starts in two years at MSU, rates as the most experienced of the Bulldog outfielders and ranked second on the team with 11 stolen bases. Adkins, who played his first two years collegiate seasons at Southern Miss, drew 30 starts in left field for the Bulldogs in 2009, and the .293 career hitter has played in 156 games over the past four years. Brownlee drew starts in all three outfield positions as a freshman in 2009 and could be in line to replace departed senior starter Grant Hogue in centerfield.

Power hitting fifth-year senior Ryan Duffy (Malabar, Fla.) refined his skills as an outfielder during fall drills after drawing a team-leading 25 starts as a DH, hitting a career-best .339 and clubbing 10 home runs in 2009.

And two highly-skilled outfielders from the Texas junior college ranks, Trey Johnson (Tyler, Texas) and Jaron Shepherd (Kilgore, Texas), could quickly make their presence felt in the outfield. Johnson, one of MSU's three Blinn College signees, earned junior college all-America team honors in 2009. Shepherd, the son of former Major Leaguer Ronald Shepherd, had his name called in both the 2008 and 2009 professional baseball drafts.

One of the main goals in Mississippi State's recruiting efforts for 2008-09 was to bolster the Mississippi State pitching corps with talented arms. With 10 newcomers on the State pitching, it would appear that MSU's recruiting efforts were successful.

That's not to say State pitching coach Butch Thompson will enter his second season at MSU with a staff short on pitching experience. The Bulldogs' seven returning pitchers include three veteran hurlers projected as likely weekend starters to open the season.

Sophomore southpaw Nick Routt (Silver Spring, Md.) is the most celebrated of the three. Routt enjoyed quite a debut season, earning rookie all-America team and SEC All-Freshman honors after pacing MSU's hurlers with five wins and 4.15 ERA, 13 starts, an SEC-high four complete games, 86.2 innings pitched and 87 strikeouts.

Right behind Routt in most statistical categories in 2009 was senior Tyler Whitney (Lakeland, Tenn.), MSU's Friday night starter for much of the season. Whitney, 8-7 in three seasons, leads the MSU staff with 25 career starts and 131-2/3 career innings pitched.

After a strong off-season, sophomore righty Devin Jones (Eupora, Miss.) is expected to make a strong bid for starting weekend status in 2010. Named the top pro prospect in the New England Collegiate League, Jones has worked diligently to get past an injury-slowed rookie campaign (0-4, 9.26).

The Bulldog returnees also include battle-tested senior relief pitchers Greg Houston (Hoover, Ala.) and Justin Bussey (Dora, Ala.) and sophomores Paxton Pace (Collinsville, Miss.) and Caleb Reed (Cleveland, Miss.). Houston has appeared in a staff-most 50 games (all but four in relief) and has recorded the only two career saves on the staff.

There will be plenty of Bulldog newcomers making their mound debuts in 2010. State added a pair of right-handed hurlers from the junior college ranks -- Michael Dixon (Austin Texas) from Blinn (Texas) College and Corey Collins (Littleton, Colo.) from Seward County (Kans.) Community College. Dixon's MSU debut will be delayed a year after he sustained an arm injury that required surgery during the early going of fall practice.

Five of MSU's talented eight freshman pitchers hail from neighboring Alabama, where the Bulldogs signed lefties C.C. Watson (Heflin), and prep teammates Luke Bole and Chad Girodo (Hartselle, Ala.), and right-handers Ben Bracewell (Chelsea, Ala.) and Kendall Graveman (Alexander City, Ala.). The recruiting class also includes lanky lefty Matt Lane (Marietta, Ga.) and Mississippi right-handers Jared Miller (Sumrall, Miss.) and Chris Stratton (Tupelo, Miss.). Their roles as potential starters, middle relief pitchers or closers with the Bulldog pitching staff will develop with the season.

2010 SCHEDULE: The NCAA expanded the playing season to a 14th week beginning this year, and for Mississippi State that change translates into only one week where the Bulldogs play two midweek games.

What hasn't changed is the fact that the Bulldogs face another attractive and challenging 56-game schedule. MSU is set to play 33 games at Dudy Noble Field. And half of its 56-game slate is against teams that advanced to the 2009 NCAA Baseball Tournament. BoydsWorld.com rated the schedule as the nation's 24th toughest.

The Bulldogs open the campaign and a season-longest 13-game homestand with a three-game weekend series against first-time opponent Rhode Island. During that run of home games State also hosts Southeastern Louisiana in a three-game weekend set before hosting the second annual BankFirst Baseball Challenge March 5-7. The three-day, six-game event pits the Bulldogs against Big 10 Conference foe Michigan State and Southeastern Missouri, coached by former MSU assistant Mark Hogan.

State also makes a program-first trip to Corpus Christi, Texas, for the fifth annual Whataburger College Classic. In addition to host Texas A&M-Corpus Christi, the Bulldogs also square off against UCLA of the Pac 10 Conference and the Big 12's Oklahoma, a national seed and one of 10 Bulldog opponents that played in last year's NCAA Baseball Tournament.

The Bulldogs play host to SEC rivals Arkansas, Georgia, Ole Miss, Tennessee and Vanderbilt in 2010, and also welcome non-conference foes Alcorn State, Jackson State, Memphis, Michigan State, Mississippi Valley State, Northwestern State, Rhode Island, South Alabama, Southeast Missouri State, Southeastern Louisiana, UAB and Western Kentucky to Dudy Noble Field.

State also makes three 2010 appearances at Trustmark Park in Pearl, Miss. The Diamond Dogs are the designated home team for both the Governor's Cup meeting with Ole Miss March 30 and a May 5 matchup with Southern Miss. MSU also squares off against Jackson State at Trustmark Park May 4. The three-game weekend series against Tennessee April 16-18 will be a central part of Super Bulldog Weekend 2010, State's annual spring homecoming event.

COACHES & STAFF

John Cohen

Head coach (Mississippi State University, 1990)

John Cohen, regarded by many as one of college baseball's top offensive tacticians, is in his second year as head baseball coach at Mississippi State University. He was introduced as MSU's 16th head baseball coach June 7, 2008, exactly 18 years to the day after leaving Omaha, Neb., and the 1990 NCAA College World Series following his final game as a Mississippi State player.

Cohen's return to Starkville, Miss., and Dudy Noble Field in 2009 completed a success-filled and fast-paced circle that began when the Tuscaloosa, Ala., native first joined the Baseball Bulldog family as a player in 1987.

He returned to Mississippi State seasoned with 17 years of collegiate coaching experience, nine years as a collegiate head coach, the previous five as head coach at Southeastern Conference Eastern Division rival Kentucky.

The Bulldog skipper, an All-Southeastern Conference outfielder during his playing career at Mississippi State, sports a 346-226-1 coaching mark (.605) entering his 11th season as a collegiate head coach in 2010.

In his previous coaching assignments at Missouri (1992-97), Northwestern (La.) State (1998-2001), Florida (2002-03) and Kentucky (2004-08), Cohen has been associated with teams that piled up 555 wins and earned five NCAA postseason advancements.

His prowess as one of the nation's top young hitting instructors has mounted with each step along the way in his coaching career. But it took on national proportions in 2006 when, in his third season at Kentucky, he guided the Wildcats to a remarkable worst-to-first finish in the rugged Southeastern Conference.

Under Cohen's direction, Kentucky posted a school-best 44-win season, the school's first Southeastern Conference baseball championship and brought the first NCAA regional baseball tournament to a Lexington campus noted more for its hoops prominence. That team, featuring the likes of All-American standout and SEC Player of the year Ryan Strieby and All-SEC performers John Shelby and Sean Coughlin, virtually rewrote the Kentucky record book.

Cohen's coaching efforts did not go unnoticed. He was accorded national coach of the year honors by both the College Baseball Foundation and CollegeBaseballInsider.com and, for the third time in his career, was tabbed by his peers for conference coach of the year accolades.

The new Bulldog coach has maintained a torrid pace since his arrival at Mississippi State.

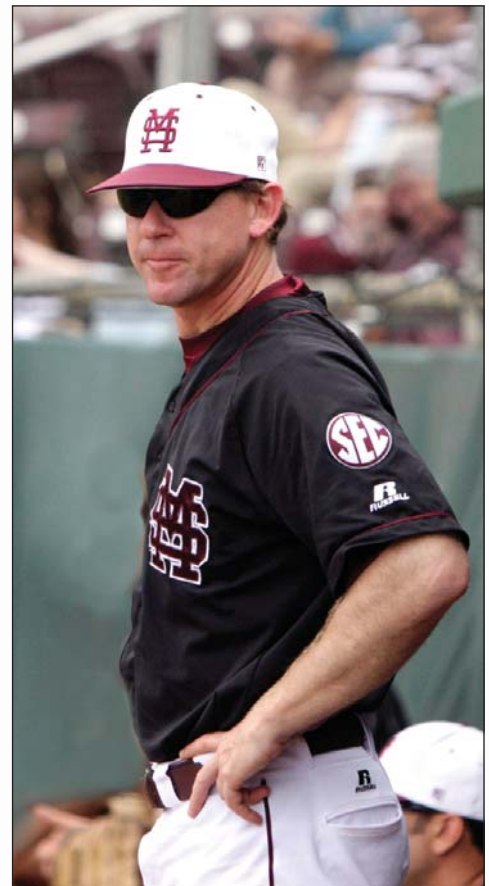

He assembled a well-respected and highly-skilled staff, featuring coaches well-versed in Mississippi State's colorful baseball history, the Magnolia State's high school and junior college programs, and the highly-competitive Southeastern Conference.

All the while Cohen has continued to move the MSU baseball program forward.

In the all-important recruiting realm, Cohen's first full recruiting class, 20 signees strong, was the SEC's largest for 2008-09. More importantly, it was ranked by Baseball America as the nation's eighth-best, the highest national for an MSU baseball recruiting class since 2000.

On the facilities front, Mississippi State's already-impressive baseball plant added an auxiliary outdoor practice infield adjacent to the spacious Palmeiro Center. And over the summer the playing surface at Dudy Noble Field received a dramatic and badly-needed $700,000 makeover that included all-new drainage and irrigation systems and a complete resodding.

His commitment to excellence in the classroom resulted in a 3.31 team grade point average during the 2008 fall semester, MSU Baseball's best semester GPA in school history and the second-highest of the semester among men's sports team at State that semester. Mississippi State added to its SEC lead in all-time academic all-conference awards when a league-best 19 Diamond Dogs were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll for 2009. In addition, five MSU freshmen were accorded SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll status.

Continuing a trademark that has grown during his coaching career, Cohen is a highly sought-after featured speaker and clinician. He has criss-crossed the nation sharing his expertise at baseball clinics in 30 states, most recently at the annual 2010 American Baseball Coaches Association Convention held this January in Dallas, Tex.

And since arriving at Mississippi State, Cohen has maintained a full schedule of speaking engagements at alumni gatherings, civic organization meetings and at baseball banquets on a variety of levels throughout the Magnolia State and beyond.

He rates as one of 22 active college head coaches to have played in the NCAA College World Series. Cohen is also one of three SEC head baseball coaches coaching at his alma mater and the fifth Mississippi State grad to serve in that capacity at MSU.

Cohen, 43, is married to the former Nelle Bashinsky, also from Tuscaloosa, Ala., and they have two daughters - Jordan Baker and Avery Lawson.

COHEN THE DIAMOND DOG

Mississippi State skipper John Cohen wears a No. 11 baseball jersey.

It's the same number he wore during his collegiate career at State.

Cohen was an accomplished two-sport prep athlete at Tuscaloosa Academy, earning all-state honors in both baseball and basketball. His TA hoops teams won three straight state titles and a school-record 100 consecutive games. But it was on the baseball diamond as a four-year regular playing for coach Don McNabb that Cohen excelled.

He capped his prep career with a stellar senior season in 1985, the same year that, 90 miles away, the likes of Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Rafael Palmeiro and Bobby Thigpen were leading MSU's Baseball Bulldogs to a school-best third-place finish in the NCAA College World Series.

He inked with Birmingham-Southern following his prep career, and as a rookie was the Panthers' starting center fielder, hitting at a crisp .333 clip and earning team defensive MVP honors. On April 24 that season Cohen made his Dudy Noble Field debut in a Birmingham-Southern uniform, delivering a double, a triple and driving in three runs in a split of a Mississippi State-Birmingham-Southern doubleheader in Starkville.

Cohen transferred to State that fall, sitting out the 1987 campaign as a redshirt before beginning his Diamond Dog career playing under legendary MSU head coach Ron Polk.

He was a key contributor during the most successful three-year span in MSU's storied baseball history. The Bulldogs advanced to an NCAA regional tournament berth in each of Cohen's three seasons as a player, capped by a run to Omaha and the 1990 NCAA College World Series. In 1989, he helped lead the Bulldogs to the SEC championship and a school-record 54 wins. During that span the Bulldogs compiled a 148-46 record (.763) that included two of the program's three 50-win campaigns.

won the Big Eight championship and advanced to an NCAA regional berth for the first time in 16 years. The Tigers broke nine offensive school records that season, part of 17 total records set by Cohen's offenses over his six years in Columbia.

Following the 1997 season, Cohen headed

Conference distinction as a senior. He was selected by the Minnesota Twins in the 22nd round of the 1990 Major League Baseball Draft and played two years in the Twins' minor league system.

COHEN THE COACH

In the fall of 1991 Cohen launched his coaching career in Columbia, Mo., where he joined coach Gene McArtor's University of Missouri baseball coaching staff as a graduate assistant. When Tim Jamieson followed McArtor as the Tigers' head coach after the 1995 campaign, he tabbed Cohen as his chief assistant, hitting coach and recruiting coordinator.

That season, Missouri won the Big Eight championship and advanced to an NCAA regional berth for the first time in 16 years. The Tigers broke nine offensive school records that season, part of 17 total records set by Cohen's offenses over his six years in Columbia.

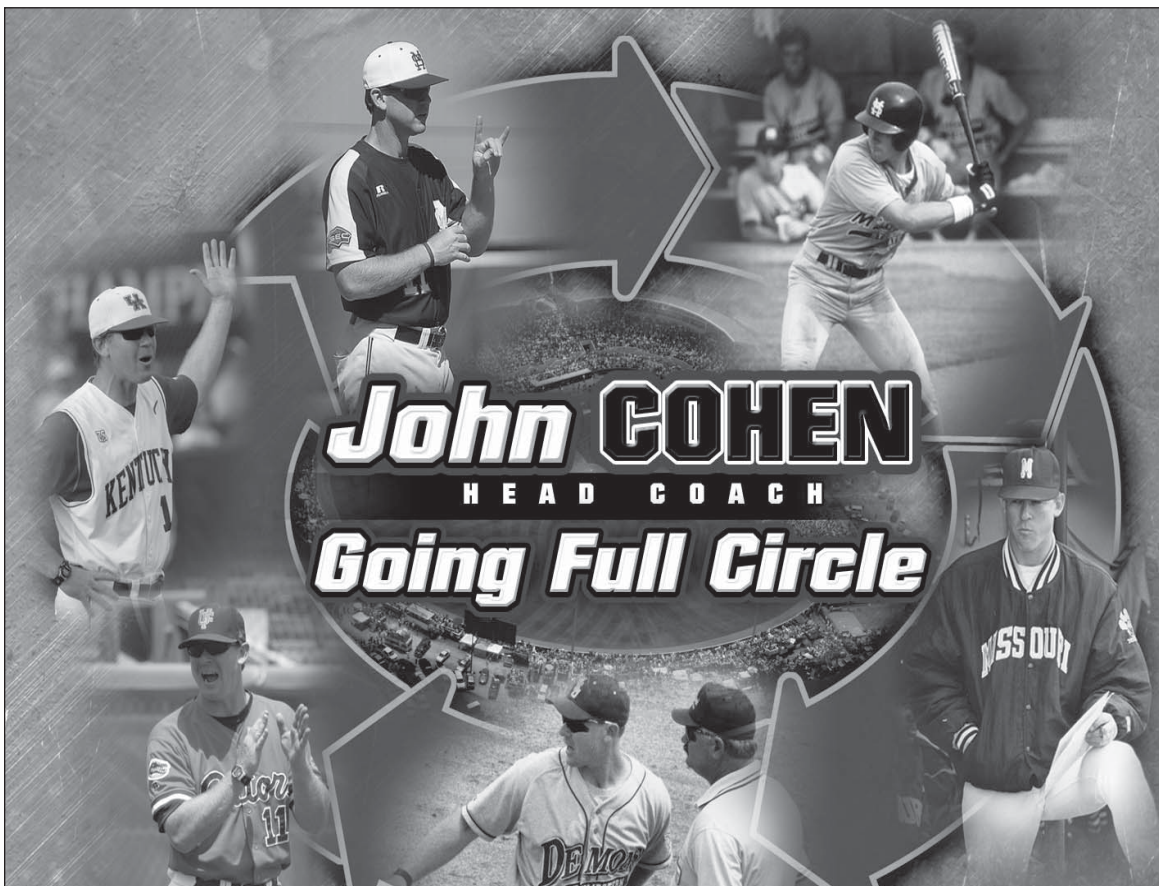

to Natchitoches, La., for his first head coaching assignment, a four-year term at Northwestern State. His two predecessors at Northwestern State have also served as head coaches in the Southeastern Conference --- Arkansas' Dave Van Horn and recently-retired Alabama skipper Jim Wells.

Under Cohen, the Demons compiled a 146-84 (.635) mark and claimed a pair of Southland Conference titles (1998 and 2001). He was named the Southland Conference Coach of the Year during both championship seasons.

His well-rounded clubs set 18 individual and team offensive records during his tenure, while his pitching staff set 10 school marks. The 1998 team posted the nation's fifth-best team earned run average (3.82) while the 1999 edition fashioned college baseball's seventh-best fielding percentage (.967).

NSU's baseball team also excelled in the classroom, averaging 18 players with grade-point averages of 3.0 or better each semester while notching 3.0 team GPA's in both 1998 and 1999.

Cohen also spearheaded a highly-successful fund-raising campaign for Northwestern State's baseball facility, Brown-Stroud Field. The ball park's grandstand seating increased from 298 to 1,000. All of those seats and then some were needed on April 18, 2001 when a school-record 4,214 fans watched Cohen's Demons knock off defending-national champion LSU.

Following his career as a player at Mississippi State, John Cohen played in the Minnesota Twins organization (1990-91) and later served as an assistant coach on the 2005 USA National baseball team.

in the top five in the league in batting average and Brian Rose became the third Gator to earn All-America honors under Cohen's tutelage. Bolstered by its tremendous offense, Florida earned its second consecutive NCAA regional tournament berth.

ON TO LEXINGTON

Cohen's time away from the head coaching circle was brief. After two record-setting seasons at Florida and following the 2003 campaign, Cohen was hired as head coach at the University of Kentucky.

In five seasons as the Wildcats' taskmaster, Cohen guided Kentucky to unprecedented success on the diamond, elevating UK to national prominence.

His teams posted a 175-113-1 (.607) mark over the span, claiming much attention as Cohen developed Kentucky into a major player on the national scene.

After a 24-30 finish in his first season at UK (2004), Cohen directed the '05 Wildcats to a 29-27 finish, the second winning campaign in nine seasons for Kentucky. But that paled in comparison to what followed the next three seasons.

Cohen's 2006 Wildcat edition, sparked by SEC Player of the Year Ryan Strieby, turned many heads when it rolled to a 44-17 mark, the school's first Southeastern Conference baseball championship, and registered the initial worst-to-first one-season turnaround in SEC baseball history. That season and the two that followed saw Cohen's 'Cats virtually rewrite the school record book. He earned national coach of the year plaudits (College Baseball Foundation and CollegeBaseballinsider.com) in 2006, a season which also saw Kentucky host its initial NCAA regional tournament.

Honored as the 2006 SEC Coach of the Year, Cohen directed the Southeastern Conference's best offensive club that season, piling up a school-record 500 runs. His 2007 club hit for a stellar .320 average, just one point shy of the UK school record. That team led the SEC in eight offensive categories and ranked third nationally in home runs, slugging percentage.

The record-breaking parade continued in 2008. UK raced to a 19-0 start, a top five national ranking, and matched its school-best win total with a 44-19 finish. UK advanced to an NCAA regional tournament berth, the second under Cohen and the school's fourth overall. Along the way in 2008 UK racked up school records for highest fielding percentage, putouts, at bats, runs scored, doubles, RBI, sacrifice bunts, sacrifice flies and innings pitched.

While his team's have been noted for their offensive prowess, Cohen-coached clubs also excel in the other facets of the sport. Last year's Kentucky team led the SEC and ranked seventh nationally with a 3.71 earned run average. And UK's school-record .974 fielding percentage was the second-best in the SEC, ranking 14th nationally.

Increased attendance, enhanced facilities and additional national recognition were by-products of the Cohen era at Kentucky.

A school-record six UK players selected in the Major League Baseball's 2006 draft, five were selected in 2007 and four more, all in the top 10 rounds, were chosen in 2008.

At UK Cohen also firmly established himself has one of the best recruiters in the game. His initial UK recruiting class was rated as one of the top 25 by Collegiate Baseball in 2004, and his final Wildcats recruiting class was ranked fourth-best nationally by Baseball America.

The Cohen impact on the Kentucky baseball program was also felt in the classroom, where in five years 56 Wildcat baseball players earned academic all-conference honors. In his first year, a then-school record nine Wildcats were named to the 2004 SEC Academic Honor Roll. That number climbed yearly to a school-best 17 in 2008, second-most in the Southeastern Conference behind Mississippi State.

Lane Burroughs

• Assistant coach (Mississippi College, 1995)

Mississippi native Lane Burroughs is in his second year on John Cohen's Mississippi State University baseball staff.

Burroughs joined the MSU staff in June 2008 after having served as an assistant coach for the Kansas State Wildcats in 2008.

The Meridian, Miss., native is in his 15th season as a baseball coach and is well-schooled in Magnolia State baseball. He played the sport on the high school, junior college and senior college level in Mississippi, and all but three of his first 13 years in the coaching profession have come in the state of Mississippi, including a highly-successful nine-year stint as an assistant coach at Southern Miss.

This is Burroughs' second coaching assignment under John Cohen. He was a member of Cohen's coaching team at Northwestern (La.) State in 1997 and 1998.

At USM Burroughs served as recruiting coordinator, infield coach, and handled in-game duties as USM's coach in the third base coaching box. He excelled in each, but gained much acclaim in his role as hitting coach and in the development of Southern Miss' hitters. He coached seven all-Americans, nine freshman all-Americans, 10 position players that went on to sign professional baseball contracts, five of those as top 10 round selections in the Major League baseball draft.

During his nine-year coaching term in Hattiesburg, Southern Miss made its first six NCAA postseason regional tournament appearances. Among the Burroughs-coached Golden Eagles that earned all-American status was Jarrett Hoffpauir, who in 2004 reigned as the nation's toughest player to strike out. During Burroughs' stay USM claim the program's only C-USA title, set the school mark with 47 wins in 2003 and establish standards for hits, runs scored and RBI in 2004.

Burroughs launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Mississippi College, serving there one season before assuming a post as an assistant coach under Bill Baldner at East Mississippi Community College in Scooba, Miss., in 1997.

He began his coaching association with John Cohen a year later as an assistant coach at Northwestern (La.) State, helping direct the Demons to a 40-20 mark and the 1998 Southland Conference Championship.

Following the 2007 campaign at USM, Burroughs moved from Conference USA to the Big 12 Conference, accepting an assistant coaching position on the staff of Brad Hill at Kansas State University. That season the Wildcats advanced to the finals of the Big 12 Conference tournament championship game.

Burroughs played high school baseball at West Lauderdale High School in Collinsville, Miss., where he was coached by Jerry Boatner, one of the all-time winningest coaches in Mississippi high school baseball history, and was a teammate of Mississippi State All-American and Major League pitching standout Jay Powell.

He continued his baseball career at Meridian Community College playing for coach Corky Palmer, where MCC claimed NJCAA Region 23 titles in both 1992 and 1993. Burroughs continued his baseball career playing for coach Tom Gladney at Mississippi College the next two seasons and was honored as an All-Gulf South Conference outfielder and the team MVP in 1995, his final campaign with the Choctaws.

Burroughs is married to the former Susan Parker of Meridian, Miss., and they are the parents of three children, daughters Parker Grace, 8, and Camryn Laine, 6, and son Thomas Jackson, 2.

Butch Thompson

• Assistant coach (Birmingham-Southern, 1992)

Butch Thompson, a native of Amory, Miss., is in his second year on coach John Cohen's Mississippi State baseball coaching staff.

Thompson, in his ninth season of coaching in the Southeastern Conference, coaches Mississippi State pitchers and works closely with recruiting. He joined the MSU coaching staff in June 2008 after having coached the previous three seasons at Auburn.

One of his first pitching pupils at Mississippi State, rookie left-hander Nick Routt, earned freshman All-American and SEC All-Freshman honors after leading the 2009 Bulldog pitching staff in wins, strikeouts and innings pitched.

The 18-year coaching veteran is regarded as one of the nation's top pitching instructors. He has a strong familiarity with baseball in the state of Mississippi.

Thompson prepped at Amory (Miss.) High School and later starred as a pitcher at ICC for coach Roy Cresap in 1989 and 1990.

He continued his baseball career the next two seasons at NAIA power Birmingham-Southern, where he helped lead the Panthers, coached by former Mississippi State assistant Brian Shoop, to back-to-back Southern States Conference championships. Daron Schoenrock, who would later serve as an assistant coach at State, coached the pitchers on Shoop's BSC staff.

It would be the first of Thompson's three career affiliations with Shoop and the Panthers baseball program in Birmingham. He launched his coaching career as pitching coach and top assistant to Scot Patterson at Huntingdon College in Montgomery, Ala., then returned to his alma mater, where as an assistant coach he was reunited on the BSC staff with Shoop and Schoenrock from 1994 to 1996. During that span the Panthers won a pair of conference crowns and in 1995 advanced to its first NAIA World Series berth.

Thompson left BSC briefly to serve as head baseball coach at Jefferson State Community College in Birmingham in 1997. While at JSCC he was honored as the Regional Tournament Coach of the Year, the ABCA Alabama Junior College Coach of the Year and the Southeast Region Coach of the Year after guiding JSCC to a 39-21 mark, the AJCAA Region 22 State Championship and a third-place finish in the NJCAA Division II World Series.

He returned to Birmingham-Southern as Shoop's top assistant the following season, beginning a four-year run during the most successful span in BSC baseball history. The Panthers won 196 games and four TranSouth Conference championships and made three consecutive appearances in the NAIA World Series. BSC's 2001 team posted a school-best 55-11 mark and captured the NAIA National Championship.

In 2002 Thompson joined the Southeastern Conference baseball coaching family, beginning a four-year term as pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Georgia under head coach David Perno. Georgia's 2003 recruiting class was ranked 10th nationally and UGA won the 2004 SEC title and advanced to the NCAA College World Series.

He continued his SEC affiliation at Auburn following the 2005 season, serving as pitching coach and recruiting coordinator on the staff of Tom Slater. Each of his three recruiting classes at Auburn was ranked among the nation's top 18, including a No. 5 national ranking in 2007.

In eight seasons as a pitching coach in the SEC (since 2001), Thompson has coached 21 pitchers that have been selected in the Major League Baseball draft.

Thompson, honored as the 2006 Fellowship of Christian Athletes SEC Coach of the Year, has shared his expertise as a featured speaker at numerous baseball coaching clinics throughout the Southeast.

He earned a bachelor's degree in history at BSC in 1992 and completed a master's degree in sports administration at UAB in 1996. He is married to the former Robin Ashe of Birmingham, Ala., and they are the parents of three daughters --- Anna, 11, Olivia, 9, and Madelyn Gail, 5

Nick Mingione

• Coordinator of Camps (Embry-Riddle, 2000)

Nick Mingione, who joined the Mississippi State baseball family in June 2008, is in his second year as the Bulldogs' coordinator of baseball camps. In addition to his duties directing Mississippi State's popular summer and winter baseball camps, Mingione also serves as a volunteer assistant coach. He works with MSU's outfielders, first basemen and hitters and in-game he serves as MSU's first base coach.

Mingione, who worked as an assistant coach in 2008 at Western Carolina University in Cullowhee, N.C., is in his second coaching tour affiliated with State skipper John Cohen.

He served on Cohen's 2006 and 2007 baseball staffs at the University of Kentucky, where he worked extensively with the UK outfielding corps and with the Wildcat hitters. During that span, Kentucky won 78 games, set or reestablished 12 team marks, and posted a school-best 44 wins en route to winning the school's first SEC championship in 2006.

On coach Bobby Moranda's staff at Western Carolina, Mingione was recruiting coordinator and hitting coach, helping direct a Catamount team that in 2008 earned top 40 national ranking among 286 NCAA Division I programs in 11 different offensive categories.

Mingione, a native of Tarrytown, N.Y.,

grew up in Florida and played high school baseball for coach Scott Jones at Mariner High School in Cape Coral, Fla. He continued his baseball career and was a standout outfielder for four years at Embry-Riddle University in Daytona Beach, Fla., where he played for coaches Greg and Todd Guiliams. He earned a bachelor's degree in aerospace studies with a triple minor in business, psychology and humanities in 2000.

Upon graduation, Mingione served two years as assistant dean of students and as an assistant coach on Steve Larsen's baseball staff at Mariner High School.

Mingione then moved on to coach on the collegiate level, first as a volunteer assistant baseball coach under Dave Tollet at Florida Gulf Coast University in Fort Myers, Fla., in 2002, and later at his alma mater, Embry-Riddle. The Eagles captured Florida Sun Conference crowns and advanced to the NAIA World Series in Lewiston, Idaho, all three seasons, earning national runner-up honors in 2005.

During seven seasons as an assistant coach, Mingione, 31, has helped direct teams to four conference titles, three advancements to the NAIA World Series and one NCAA regional tournament berth and has been a part of nationally-ranked recruiting baseball

Administering the day-to-day academic needs of the Baseball Bulldogs is Ray Berryhill, in his 21st year overall with the Mississippi State University Athletic Department.

A native of Gloster, Miss., Berryhill is in his second tour of duty in the department. A 1980 graduate of Mississippi State University, he served first as a graduate assistant coach with the MSU track program. In 1984 he was named supervisor of athletic academics at the University of Alabama, overseeing the academic progress of all Crimson Tide student-athletes.

He returned to State in a similar position as director of athletic academics in January 1989, and in August 2000 was promoted to assistant athletic director for academic advising.

Under his supervision, MSU's student-athletes have enjoyed unprecedented success in the classroom, frequently establishing school records for combined grade point average. Berryhill also serves State's student-athletes as M-Club advisor and through MSU's student housing office supervises on-campus housing for all student-athletes.

An avid turkey hunter, Berryhill, 51, is a member of the National Wild Turkey Federation. He and his wife, the former Amy Huff of Ferriday, La., are the parents of a son, Cody, and a daughter, Caroline.

Dean Demetriadis

Assistant Athletic Trainer
(Florida State University, 2004)

Constatine "Dean" Demetriadis is in his initial year as the athletic trainer for the Baseball Bulldogs. He joined the Mississippi State University Athletic Department in July 2009.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Demetriadis, 29, served the past two seasons as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at the University of Oklahoma.

Demetriadis spent most of his later years in Florida, graduating from high school at East Lake High School in Tarpon Springs, Fla. and continuing his education at Florida State University.

While in Tallahassee, Demetriadis served a three-year term as an athletic training student, working with the Tallahassee Community College women's softball team and later with the Seminoles' 2003 Sugar Bowl and 2004 Orange Bowl football editions as well as FSU's 2004 ACC championship baseball team that advanced to the NCAA Super Regionals.

He began his post-graduate studies at the University of Central Florida in 2004, where he served as a graduate assistant trainer until 2006. He worked as the head athletic trainer for the Florida Seals professional hockey team and later served two internships in the NFL as an athletic trainer with the New York Jets and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Demetriadis completed his graduate studies at Oklahoma in June 2009. While in Norman he served as the trainer for the women's soccer team.

Daniel Desselle

Assistant Strength Coach
(Louisiana State University, 2000)

Overseeing the strength and conditioning program for Mississippi State's Baseball Bulldogs is Daniel Desselle, in his first year as assistant strength coach at MSU. In addition to baseball, Desselle also oversees the strength and conditioning programs for the women's soccer and men's and women's golf teams at Mississippi State.

A native of Walker, La., Desselle joined the Mississippi State strength and conditioning staff in September 2009. He served the past year as the strength and conditioning coordinator and defensive coordinator for the football team at his alma mater, Walker High School.

Desselle is in his second tour of duty with Mississippi State University. He previously served as a graduate assistant strength coach and worked with the Mississippi State baseball program from 2000-2002, earning a graduate degree in sport administration in 2002. While at MSU, Desselle also worked with State's basketball and soccer teams.

Deselle earned an undergraduate degree in kinesiology in 2000 at Louisiana State University, where he was a member of the LSU football team that captured a share of the 1997 SEC Western Division title and played in the Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La.

He began his career in strength and conditioning work as an undergraduate assistant at LSU, where he assisted in the training of LSU's football, baseball, men's basketball, women's soccer and men's tennis teams.

Upon completion of his graduate studies at Mississippi State, Desselle served in 2002-03 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Tulane University, where he coached the Green Wave's C-USA championship men's tennis team. He then launched a six-year term (2003-09) in the Louisiana high school ranks, which included stops as a teacher and strength coach at Denham Springs High School and Walker High School.

Joe Dier

Assistant Media Relations Director
(Mississippi State, 1975)

Coordinating the publicity needs of the Baseball Bulldogs is Joe Dier, in his 24th year on the Mississippi State staff and his 12th as the primary media relations contact for MSU baseball and volleyball.

Dier, 56, has been affiliated with Mississippi State athletics and MSU baseball since 1978 — eight years as editor of Dawgs' Bite and since 1986 as a member of the MSU Athletics Department staff. He also previously served as the sports editor at the Yazoo City (Miss.) Daily Herald and the Starkville (Miss.) Daily News.

A 1975 graduate of Mississippi State University, Dier followed the late Bob Hartley and Bo Carter as MSU's third full-time sports information director in November 1986, initially serving as the primary media contact for all 15 Mississippi State sports. He served as media coordinator for MSU-hosted NCAA regional baseball tournaments in 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990 and 1992 and for MSU's 1991 Liberty Bowl football team. He was named to the board of directors of the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) in 2005 and in 2008-09 served as the organization's president. He is also charter member of the MSU Chapter of the National Football Foundation & College Football Hall of Fame.

In 1992 he began a four-year term as editor of the weekly athletic department publication Dawgs' Bite, returning to sports information work in July 1996.

A native of Baton Rouge, La., and the son of a career Air Force chaplain, Dier traveled extensively in his youth, following family military assignments in Washington, British Columbia, Oregon, Alabama, Florida, Okinawa, Mississippi and Alaska.

He is married to the former Kim Monroe of Starkville, a teacher in the Starkville public schools, and they are the parents of a son, Reed Burton, 19, a freshman at Mississippi State University.

Greg Drye

Assistant Strength Coach
(Southern Miss, 1998)

Greg Drye is in his sixth season with the Bulldog Baseball program, assisting with the implementation of State's comprehensive in-season and offseason strength and conditioning program.

Prior to his arrival at MSU, Drye served as a graduate assistant at Delta State University on the baseball staff of coach Mike Kinnison. Drye coached the outfielders on the DSU teams that captured the Gulf South Conference titles and advanced to the NCAA Division II South Regional in both 1999 and 2000.

Drye then returned to his roots, serving for three years as an assistant baseball coach at Long Beach High School.

The Gulfport, Miss., native is an instructor in the physical education department at Mississippi State. He has also served as an administrative assistant on the MSU baseball staff over the past four seasons, handling a wide array of duties and assisting with the team's advancement to the championship of the 2005 SEC Tournament and to the 2007 NCAA College World Series.

A graduate of Long Beach (Miss.) High School, Drye continued his baseball career at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College, where he earned MJCAA all-state honors as an infielder playing for coach Cooper Farris. He later played baseball under coach Steve Smith at Baylor University.

Drye, 35, earned his undergraduate degree in coaching and sports administration from Southern Miss in 1998 and a graduate degree in physical education, health and recreation at Delta State in 2000. He has a daughter, Dylan, 5.

Community involvement is a key component of the baseball program at Mississippi State University, and the Diamond Dogs are active participants in numerous projects that help bond the MSU team with the Starkville community.

Last fall the Bulldogs traded their caps for hard hats during work days at one of the latest Habitat for Humanity work sites in Starkville.

The Diamond Dogs lend their support each year to "Bully's Book Blitz" (bottom right), an athletics department program that encourages reading among local elementary school students. They also connect with their fans by delivering baseball season tickets in the Starkville community (bottom left).

The Diamond Girls

The 2010 season marks the Diamond Girls' 36th season as one of the primary support organizations for Mississippi State Baseball. First organized in 1976, the Diamond Girls handle a wide array of tasks in support of the Mississippi State baseball operation throughout the school year. They are most visible on game days at Dudy Noble Field, serving as hosts and distributing programs to fans as they enter the stadium, operating the stadium's souvenir and gift stand, and serving on the field during games as bat handlers. There are 10 newcomers among this year's 23-member squad.

$ - SEC Baseball Tournament

Diamond Dogs welcome Michigan State, Southeast Missouri State to 10th Classic

Mississippi State's early-season baseball tournament celebrates its 10th anniversary in 2010 when the Bulldogs welcome Michigan State and Southeast Missouri State to Starkville for the BankFirst Baseball Challenge.

The three-day, six-game event is scheduled March 5-7 at Dudy Noble Field.

It's the 10th such early-season baseball event hosted by the Bulldogs and the second under the sponsorship of BankFirst, a banking system with branch banks throughout the Golden Triangle and in the Jackson area.

The tournament was initiated in 2001 by former Bulldog skipper Pat McMahon, with Notre Dame and the University of New Orleans joining host MSU in the inaugural NBC Classic, sponsored by Starkville-based National Bank of Commerce. In odd-numbered years the three-day event was contested as a three-team, five-game event, while in even-numbered years, to accommodate scheduling opportunities, the event's format was modified into a three-game, two-team weekend "challenge" series. That format has featured weekend series competition with the likes of Arizona, Baylor and Southern Cal.

Last year, the first under the sponsorship of BankFirst, the format was been expanded to six games spread over the three-day period, with each team playing four games.

The event has over the past nine years featured regional foes Austin Peay, Birmingham-Southern, North Florida, New Orleans, Troy and UAB in addition to long-distance opponents Arizona, Baylor, Connecticut, Kansas, Michigan, Northern Illinois, Notre Dame, Ohio State, and Southern California.

2009 SEASON IN REVIEW

Senior catcher Scott DeLoach led the Bulldogs with a .353 batting average and paced the Southeastern Conference with a .488 on-base percentage.

Mississippi State welcomed home a favorite son in 2009, as former Diamond Dog standout John Cohen, nearly two decades removed from his stellar three-year career as an MSU outfielder, returned to Dudy Noble Field as the 16th skipper of the Bulldogs.

The results of the '09 campaign fell far short of the high expectations the former All-SEC and SEC Coach of the Year has for Mississippi State's oldest and most successful athletic team.

The Diamond Dogs raced to an 8-1 start to the 2009 campaign and owned a 12-5 mark after opening conference play winning twice in a three-game series against 17th-ranked South Carolina at Dudy Noble Field.

But the Bulldogs, hounded by pitching woes, endured their share of struggles through much of the remainder of the 2009 season. State managed to match its 2008 SEC win total, but its 9-20 final conference mark fulfilled the preseason projections by league coaches for a sixth-place divisional finish for Mississippi State. And while MSU closed out its 119th season of baseball with a two-win improvement over 2008, the 25-29 final overall worksheet left the Bulldogs strapped with back-to-back sub-.500 finishes for the first time since 1974-75.

Mississippi State's first season under the direction of John Cohen wasn't without its memorable moments, close calls and noteworthy achievements.

For starters, the Bulldogs showed improvement in virtually every statistical category --- climbing from .289 to .298 in team batting average, lowering the staff earned run average from 6.82 to 6.57, and raising the team fielding mark from .965 to .968. Against Southeastern Conference pitching, the Bulldogs raised their batting average by 37 points to .307, third-highest conference-only hitting average in the SEC.

State had its share of close encounters, posting a 12-11 mark in games decided by one or two runs. All 11 of those narrow setbacks came in league competition. Two of MSU's three SEC wins decided by two runs or less came during an impressive finish by the Bulldogs. Mississippi State split its six games played the final two weekends of the season against the SEC's co-champions. The Bulldogs notched their second SEC series win of the campaign taking two of three games against No. 7 Ole Miss in Oxford, Miss., and the next weekend handed No. 2-ranked and eventual national champ LSU its final regular season loss in 2009 during a three-game set at Dudy Noble Field.

There were some impressive individual performances on the diamond in 2009 as well.

One of the more remarkable showings was turned in by catcher Scott DeLoach, who made his senior season a memorable one. DeLoach, in his first season as a regular in the MSU starting lineup, surprised many with a team-leading .353 batting average. He led the SEC with a .488 on-base percentage and his .365 SEC batting average was the fifth-highest in the SEC. DeLoach also shared the team lead with seven sacrifice hits.

Six Bulldogs hit .300 or better, including junior infielders Russ Sneed (.333) and Jet Butler (.335), who ranked 1-2 in hits.

State saw an increase in its power hitting in 2009, much of it thanks to powerful swings of the bat by junior first baseman Connor Powers. State hit eight more home runs in 2009 and added nearly 50 points to its 2008 team slugging percentage.

Powers (.301) drove in a team-high 63 runs and led the State with 15 doubles and 19 home runs, the ninth-most jacks by a Bulldog in a single season and sixth-most in the SEC in 2009. His .688 slugging percentage ranked seventh in the SEC and his 63 RBI ranked ninth.

Powers was equally impressive defending the field at first base. After two seasons as the Bulldogs' starter at third base, Powers crossed the diamond to start at first base, where he compiled a sterling .988 fielding percentage, second-highest among the SEC's first basemen in '09.

Junior Ryan Duffy (.339) cracked a career-best 10 home runs to give MSU two players with double-digit home run totals.

Another of MSU's nine seniors, centerfielder Grant Hogue (.315), warmed up the base paths for the Bulldogs in 2009. Despite missing the first five games with a shoulder injury, Hogue registered 29 pilfers, third-most in the SEC and the most by a Bulldog since Dan Van Cleve's school-record 38 base thefts in 1985. His 54 career stolen bases ties for the fourth-most at MSU and the most registered in two seasons. Sophomore outfielder Ryan Collins (.286) followed Hogue's lead, recording 11 steals in 12 attempts as MSU registered its highest stolen base total (72) since 1998.

The Bulldogs dug in at the plate as never before in 2009. Seventeen of MSU's 20 batters were struck by pitches (a combined 67 times), with Hogue leading the way and ranking second in the SEC with 17 plunkings.

Among the members of the MSU pitching staff, a skillful freshman lefthander from Maryland claimed top billing for the Bulldogs. Nick Routt (5-3, 4.15) earned freshman all-America and SEC All Freshman Team honors after leading the Bulldogs in virtually every statistical category. He moved into MSU's starting weekend rotation early in the season and registered team-highs with 87 strikeouts in 86.2 innings pitched. He shared the SEC lead with four complete-game pitching performances. The Bulldog rookie turned a few heads with a complete-game, team season-high 12 strikeout performance in a win over Auburn. Routt and junior lefty Tyler Whitney (3-4, 5.18) combined for 19 of MSU's 29 SEC starts.

Junior righty Greg Houston (2-2, 6.93) made a staff-high 18 relief appearances while senior Chad Crosswhite (0-4, 7.38) led the Bulldogs and ranked eighth in the SEC with six saves.

Mississippi State defended the field at a solid .968 rate in 2009. The Bulldogs turned 56 double plays, second-most in the Southeastern Conference.

MSU FIFTH IN ATTENDANCE

Mississippi State maintained its top five status in national average home paid attendance in 2009. The Bulldogs drew 157,530 paying customers on 25 game dates at Dudy Noble Field. State averaged 6,301 per home date, fifth-most in the NCAA.

SECOND-LARGEST SEASON TICKET SALES

For the eighth consecutive year Mississippi State fans eclipsed the 5,000 mark in baseball season ticket sales. The MSU Athletic Ticket Office reported the distribution of 5,559 baseball season tickets, just 37 shy of the school-record 5,596 distributed in 2002.

VARIETY IN STARTING LINEUPS

Mississippi State opened the 2009 campaign with a different starting lineup in its first 14 games. And when the dust settled on the season in May, MSU had 32 different starting defensive combinations.

State used seven different starting designated hitters, five leftfielders, five rightfielders, four centerfielders, three second basemen, three shortstops, three third basemen and two first basemen.

ACADEMIC HONORS

Mississippi State's tradition of excellence in the classroom continued in 2009 when 24 Diamond Dogs received academic all-conference honors.

An SEC-leading 19 Diamond Dogs were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll and five more were named to the SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll.

Qualifying for the SEC Academic Honor Roll were Ricky Bowen, Brent Brownlee, Michael Busby, Justin Bussey, Jet Butler, Ryan Collins, Scott DeLoach, Nick Hardy, Grant Hogue, Drew Hollinghead, Greg Houston, Brooks Lewis, Forrest Moore, Jason Nappi, Paxton Pace, Connor Powers, Russ Sneed, Jared Wesson and Tyler Whitney.

The five Bulldog rookies named to the SEC Freshman Honor Roll include David Hayes, Tyler Johnson, Devin Jones, Frank Rawdow and Caleb Reed.

NOTE: SEC baseball competition began in 1933; the first SEC baseball tournament was held in 1977

HONORS & HISTORY

Former State skipper Ron Polk and Bulldog All-American outfielder Rafael Palmeiro became the second and third Mississippi State baseball standouts to join the National College Baseball Hall of Fame during ceremonies held in July 2009 in Lubbock, Texas. MSU All-American first baseman Will Clark, recipient of the 1985 Golden Spikes Award, was a member of the National College Baseball Hall of Fame's first induction class in 2006.

MSU head coach Ron Polk is flanked by All-Americans Will Clark (left) and Rafael Palmeiro, who helped power Mississippi State to a school-best third place finish in the 1985 NCAA College World Series.

119 seasons of Mississippi State Baseball

1885

MAY 2 — Mississippi A&M, behind team captain W.J. (Bill) Jennings, defeats Durant 7-2 in the first baseball game in MSU history. Jennings, who holds the distinction of being credited as the first man in Southern college baseball who could throw a curveball, baffles batters from all over the South in claiming A&M's first 12 wins. His composite four-year record, during which time he pitched every game for the Maroons, was a sparkling 12-1.

The 1892 A&M College team was the university's first baseball team outfitted in an official team uniform.

OCTOBER 12 — A&M defeats the University of Mississippi 6-3 in its first intercollegiate baseball game. The schools have met on the diamond 430 times, the most-contested baseball rivalry for both schools.

In 1909 Willie Mitchell struck out 26 LSU batters en route to registering a perfect game, the first in SEC history.

1909

APRIL 11 — Willie Mitchell hurls the first perfect game in Mississippi A&M history by striking out 26 LSU batters and helping the Maroons slip past the Tigers 1-0 in the second game of a twinbill at Baton Rouge, La. Mitchell finishes with a 6-1 worksheet and dazzles his opponents by striking out 97 batters in 56-1/3 innings. Of his six victories, Mitchell throws one no-hitter, two one-hitters, two two-hitters, and one six-hitter.

1918

APRIL 5-6 — Maroon hurlers R.H. Pepper and J.T. Peatross shut down Mississippi College by tossing back-to-back no-hitters. Pepper opens the two-game series by allowing the Choctaws only four walks in a 5-0 A&M win. But his shining accomplishment is overshadowed the following day as Peatross pitches only the second perfect game in MSU history, downing Mississippi College 1-0.

1920

APRIL 5 — Legendary Dudy Noble Field namesake Clarke Randolph "Dudy" Noble coaches his first game at his alma mater, a 5-3 loss to the University of Illinois. Noble will go on to coach at MSU for 26 years, during which time he compiles a 267-201-9 record and wins three Southern Intercollegiate Conference Championships.

C.R. "Dudy" Noble

MAY 13 — Two baseball rarities occur in the same game during a campus contest against Mississippi. Not only does A&M retire the Rebels on three straight pitches in one inning, but shortstop C.S. (Buddy) Myer gives the Maroons a much-needed boost by cranking out a grand slam to lead his team to a 6-4 victory. Myer's shot is believed to be the first grand slam in the history of MSU. Myer would go on to play 17 years in the major leagues with Washington and Boston, hitting for a career average of .303.

APRIL 18 — LSU outfielder Joe Bill Adcock launches a shot an estimated 500 feet into the MSU swimming pool at "old" Dudy Noble Field. Adcock would play only one season at LSU before playing 16 years in the major leagues, but his tremendous blow is still talked about by long-time Bulldog baseball fans.

1948

MAY 31 — R.P. "Doc" Patty guides the Bulldogs to their first Southeastern Conference Championship in his initial season as head coach. MSU defeats Auburn in the championship playoff, three games to none, thanks to the efforts of all-SEC outfielder Johnny Grace, who led the Bulldogs with a .375 batting average.

1949

JUNE — Mississippi State College wins its second consecutive SEC Championship by downing Kentucky three games to one in the title series. All-conference infielder Alex Grammas and brother Pete Grammas were crowd favorites in helping lead the Bulldogs to a 19-6 record.

Alex Grammas would go on to play 10 seasons in the National League and later coach for the Detroit Tigers.

1965

MAY 9 — Outfielder Del Unser belts three round-trippers and picks up a double to set a single-game team record for total bases with 14. Unser spreads his blasts around, sending a shot to all three fields as the Bulldogs fall to Mississippi, 10-7. The power outburst gives Unser seven homers, all coming in the last six regular-season games.

1965

MAY 22 — Behind conference hits-leader Mike Burns, the Bulldogs top Auburn in the SEC Championship Series, winning two games out of three. After falling to the Tigers in the series opener, MSU battles back with the strong pitching of Ken Tatum, who leads the Bulldogs to 10-1 and 10-2 victories to claim the conference crown. The title marked the first of four won under the guidance of coaching-great Paul Gregory.

1966

APRIL 2 — Pitcher James Carroll hurls 14 innings of four-hit baseball as he out-duels Alabama's Kenny Stabler, 2-1. All-America outfielder Del Unser scores the winning run with two out in the bottom of the 14th.

1966

MAY 14 — Right-hander Ken Tatum starts on only two days rest and shuts down the Tennessee Volunteers 9-3, giving the Bulldogs their second-straight SEC Championship. The game marked MSU's final appearance at Redbird Park in Columbus, which provided State with a home for two years while their "new" Dudy Noble Field was being built.

1970

MAY 5 — Sophomore left-hander Gene Henderson stymies Arkansas in the nightcap with a no-hit performance that gives the Bulldogs, ranked fifth nationally, a doubleheader sweep over the Razorbacks, 6-0 and 1-0. Henderson, along with conference ERA-leader Dennis Hall (0.63) and wins-leader Brantley Jones (9-0), carries MSU to its fifth SEC title. Mississippi State loses the first game of the best-of-three championship series against Tennessee but rebounds to claim the final two contests, 4-3 and 1-0.

President William Giles (left) presents coach Paul Gregory and the Baseball Bulldogs their 1966 SEC Baseball Championship trophy. Mississippi State won back-to-back SEC titles in 1965 and 1966, the first two of four won during Gregory's 18-year term as skipper of the Baseball Bulldogs.

MAY 14 — All-America third baseman Phil Still and All-SEC pitcher Mike Proffitt help lead the Bulldogs to 5-1 and 3-1 victories over Vanderbilt for their second consecutive SEC Championship on the way to a 32-12 record, and the school's first-ever appearance in the NCAA College World Series. After defeating the Commodores in two straight games for the conference title, MSU then downs Georgia Tech 5-2 in the NCAA District III championship game.

State captured its first two SEC baseball titles in 1948 and 1949 playing at the original Dudy Noble Field site, shown in this 1949 photo. Following the 1964 season the bleachers and grandstand were dismantled and moved to the present stadium site to make way for the construction of Dorman Hall.

Team and school officials gathered at Dudy Noble Field on May 4, 1986 to break ground on the new grandstand. Demolition crews needed less than a week to remove the old grandstand and ready the site for construction.

1972 APRIL 14 — Dudy Noble Field hosts its first night game thanks to a new lighting system. MSU alumnus E.B. "Dutch" McCool, a former teammate of coach Paul Gregory, donates the lights to his alma mater, allowing the Bulldogs to play games at night when it is more convenient for fans to attend. McCool was one of the original founders of Holiday Inn.

1976 MARCH 8 — New Mississippi State head coach Ron Polk wins his first game as the Bulldog skipper, 4-0 over Louisiana Tech. MSU finishes the season 28-17, which begins the current streak of 32 consecutive winning seasons for Mississippi State.

1977 MARCH 19 — Junior outfielder Nat Showalter begins the season with a modest six-game hitting streak in which he hits .700 (14-for-20) on his way to posting the MSU single-season record for batting average. Showalter, who later would skipper the New York Yankees, the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Texas Rangers, hits a gaudy .459 as he garners numerous all-America honors.

1979 MAY 14 — Down 11-9 with one out in the bottom of the eighth, designated hitter Rick Dixon launches a slider nearly 400 feet over the left-center field fence for a three-run homer in the SEC Championship final. The win gives fourth-year head coach Ron Polk his first conference title in the first SEC Tournament held at Dudy Noble Field.

1979 MAY 27 — After falling to nationally-ranked New Orleans in the opening game, the Bulldogs successfully sweep through the loser's bracket to claim the NCAA South Regional Championship. An 8-6 win over Murray State in the championship game of the first NCAA regional at Dudy Noble Field lifted MSU to its second appearance all-time in the prestigious NCAA College World Series.

1981 MARCH 15 — Junior first baseman Bruce Castoria sets a school record and ties the conference mark by driving in 10 runs against UNLV in Las Vegas. Castoria, who would set another school record by cranking four grand slams on the year, hits his second of the season against the Runnin' Rebels, along with a three-run shot, an RBI single and two walks with the bases loaded to account for his runs 10 RBI.

1981 MAY 24 — State jumps out to an early six-run lead and holds off a late rally by East Tennessee State to win the NCAA Atlantic Regional Championship at Clemson, S.C., 6-5. The Bulldogs would go on to finish fifth nationally at the NCAA College World Series.

1983 FEBRUARY 25 — Freshman Rafael Palmeiro slaps the first pitch he sees as a collegian over the right field fence for a three-run homer during the season-opener against Mississippi College. Palmeiro, who would later pile up 3,020 hits and 569 home runs in a remarkable 20-year pro career, proceeds to hit safely in his first 20 games en route to a team-high .406 batting average.

1983 APRIL 2 — Future major league slugger Will Clark hits his first collegiate home run, an eighth-inning grand slam to straight-away center field, to help lead MSU to a 27-10 pounding over rival Mississippi. The following day, Clark comes in late as a pinch runner and scores the winning run in a 7-6 come-from-behind victory over the Rebels.

1985 MAY 12 — Behind strong pitching and excellent defense, the Bulldogs overpower the field in three games to win the SEC Tournament at LSU, clinching the title with an 8-3 win over Georgia.

1985 MAY 27 — MSU tops Michigan 19-8 in the championship game of the NCAA South I in batting average (.391).

1987 MARCH 1 — The "new" Dudy Noble Field re-opens its gates to 4,040 fans who brave the chilly weather and experience what is considered by many to be the nicest baseball stadium in all of college baseball. The $3.5 million showcase consists of 3,700 chairback seats, two 1,500-seat bleachers down each line, and the spacious Joe Phillips Press Box. MSU doesn't disappoint the home crowd, downing Birmingham-Southern 4-1.

1987 MAY 14 — Freshman center fielder Jody Hurst blasts two homers and Mississippi State scores four runs in the bottom of the ninth to lead the sixth-seeded Bulldogs over top-seeded Georgia, 6-5, in the opening-round of the SEC Tournament in Athens, Ga. MSU swept three games from Alabama in the final regular season series to qualify for the tournament and won four straight SEC Tournament games to claim the championship and earn a spot in an NCAA Regional.

1988 APRIL 16 — Mississippi State shatters its own NCAA on-campus attendance record (10,619) as 14,378 Bulldog faithful jam Dudy Noble Field for MSU's doubleheader split with LSU. The following evening, State plays its fifth regular-season game ever on ESPN, besting the Tigers 1-0 on the strength of outfielder John Cohen's fifth-inning solo shot to center field.

1989 APRIL 22 — Mississippi State once again sets the NCAA on-campus attendance record when a crowd of 14,991 witness the Bulldogs' doubleheader sweep of Florida. Junior second baseman Burke Masters caps the evening off in fine fashion by drilling a solo shot into the famous Outfield Terrace during the Bulldogs' final at-bat to lift MSU ver the Gators 5-4.

1989 APRIL 30 — Coach Ron Polk's Bulldogs claim their third SEC Championship in five years and the 10th in school history by winning a 28-16 slugfest at Kentucky, setting the single-game team record for most hits (30) and tying the record for most home runs (6). Junior outfielder Tracy Echols ties an SEC record by recording six hits in the contest.

1989 May 25-28 — Dudy Noble Field hosts its fifth NCAA regional in six years. The 1989 South Regional draws an NCAA-record 56,906 fans during the 11-game event, an average of 5,173 per game.

All-American Will Clark (center) helped point the Bulldogs to their highest finish ever (3rd) in 1985. That highly-celebrated team also featured future pro stars Jeff Brantley, Rafael Palmeiro and Bobby Thigpen.

Regional to earn its third trip to the NCAA College World Series under Ron Polk. Right fielder-relief pitcher Bobby Thigpen, who hit a grand slam in his first-ever at-bat at Dudy Noble Field the year before, shines in his home finale by cranking another bases-loaded blast. MVP Jeff Brantley is among seven Bulldogs named to the 11-member all-tournament team.

1985 OCTOBER 23 — The United States Baseball Federation names Mississippi State all-American Will Clark the recipient of the Golden Spikes Award, amateur baseball's most prestigious honor. Clark had been the second player taken overall during baseball's June draft by the San Francisco Giants. Clark still ranks as MSU's all-time career leader

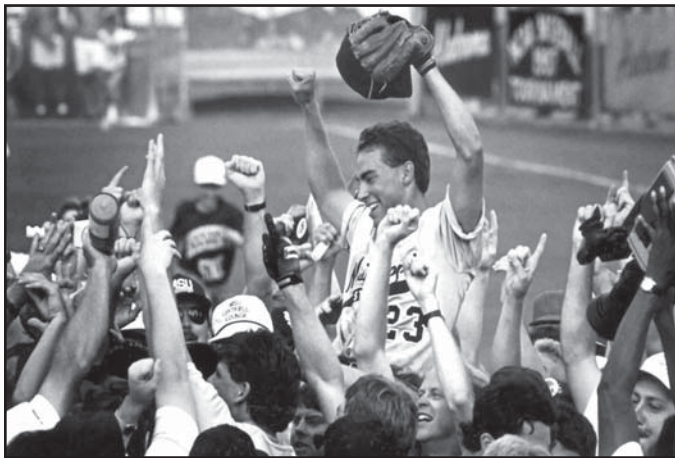

1990 MAY 28 — Jon Shave drives in Tommy Raffo with two out in the top of the eighth to cap a three-run MSU rally and give State a 4-3 win over Florida State in the championship game of the NCAA South II Regional in Starkville. With the win, MSU earns its fifth trip to the College World Series in Omaha, Neb. Five Bulldogs were named to the all-tournament team, including MVP Burke Masters, whose dramatic ninth-inning grand slam against Florida State had earlier provided MSU with an 11-8 victory.

1990 MAY 21 — Left-hander B.J. Wallace strikes out 19 Nicholls State batters in 10 innings of work at the NCAA Mid-east Regional in Starkville, setting a new MSU single-season record with 145 strikeouts. His mark breaks the old record of 136 set by Jeff Brantley in 1985. A month later Montreal made Wallace the No. 3 pick in pro baseball's June draft.

1993 MAY 8 — State plays its 1,000th Southeastern Conference game, defeating in-state rival Mississippi 10-2 in the first game of a double-header at Oxford.

1994 MARCH 30 — Head coach Ron Polk notches his 900th career coaching win as the Bulldogs defeat in-state rival Mississippi in the 15th annual Mayor's Trophy Game in Jackson, Miss. Polk became only the 16th college baseball coach all-time and the 13th active Division I coach to have 900 career victories. In his 34 seasons as a head coach, Polk has amassed a 1,350-668-2 career record to rank seventh among college baseball's all-time winningest coaches.

1994 OCTOBER — Mississippi State's 10-man recruiting class is ranked the nation's best

NCAA South II Regional MVP Burke Masters is mobbed by fans and media after the Bulldogs downed Florida State 4-3 to clinch a berth in the 1990 NCAA College World Series.

1997 APRIL 19 — In ceremonies prior to the Mississippi State-Alabama game, MSU's baseball facility is renamed Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium in honor of coach Ron Polk and a longtime MSU baseball fan from Indiana, Miss., the late Gordon DeMent. In the game, MSU downs the eventual NCAA runners-up in an 11-10 thriller.

1997 JUNE 5 — After hosting and winning the NCAA Mid-east Regional and finishing tied for fifth at the College World Series in Omaha, Neb., MSU announces the retirement of head baseball coach Ron Polk and introduces Pat McMahon as the school's 14th head baseball coach. Polk, remaining on staff with the MSU administration in fund raising, announced August 18 the beginning of a drive to expand seating by more than 1,000 at the MSU stadium, including the addition of 18 skysuites.

1998 FEBRUARY 17 — Mississippi State launches the coaching era of Pat McMahon at Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium with the Diamond Dogs' season opener against South Alabama. The Jaguars, who eventually advanced to the finals of the 1998 NCAA East Regionals, emerge with a closely-contested 14-13 win in a 12-inning marathon that lasted four hours and 30 minutes. It is the earliest home opener in 108 seasons of Bulldog Baseball.

1998 MAY 24 — The Bulldogs complete a remarkable late-season surge, downing host Texas A&M 11-5 in the title game of the NCAA Central Regional at College Station, Texas, to earn the school's first repeat appearance in the NCAA College World Series. State claims one-run wins over Washington, Rice and Texas A&M to reach the regional finals. Earlier, State won eight of its last 11 SEC games, qualifying for the SEC Tournament on the final weekend of the season and earning an at-large berth in the NCAA regionals. In the summer, construction gets underway on the skybox/stadium expansion project at Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium.

2000 MAY 28 — Ty Martin launches a dramatic solo home run in the bottom of the ninth to give MSU a 10-9 win over Notre Dame in the championship game of NCAA Starkville Regional. The tournament attendance (47,365) set an NCAA four-team regional record while the seven-game average (6,766) was the largest for an NCAA regional. Mississippi State set a school record by selling 4,555 season tickets at expanded Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium.

2001 MARCH 13 — MSU stages a two-run rally with two outs in the ninth to post a 6-5 win at New Orleans and become the 18th NCAA baseball program to reach the 2,000-win milestone. For the second consecutive year MSU fans break the school season ticket sales record by purchasing 4,585 season tickets.

2001 MAY 20 — Freshman Paul Maholm and sophomore Chris Young limit defending NCAA champ LSU to one run as the Bulldogs top the Tigers 4-1 in the championship game of the 2001 SEC Baseball Tournament in Hoover, Ala. It is the second tournament win in relief for Young, who earns tournament MVP honors.

2001 JUNE 19 — Ron Polk, the winningest coach in SEC history, is named head baseball coach at Mississippi State, replacing four-year MSU skipper Pat McMahon, who resigned to become head baseball at Florida. In 2001 Polk capped a two-year term at Georgia and became the second coach in NCAA history to guide teams at three different schools to the College World Series when he directed the Bulldogs to an SEC title and a trip to Omaha.

2005 MAY 29 — Mississippi State defeats instate rival Mississippi 4-1 to complete a four-game tournament sweep and capture the 2005 SEC Baseball Tournament at the Hoover Met. It was MSU's sixth SEC Tournament championship and vaulted State on to its ninth NCAA regional tournament in the past 10 seasons.

MSU's Edward Easley received the 2007 Johnny Bench Award as college baseball's top catcher.

2007 JUNE 8-9 — After winning the NCAA Tallahassee Regional in three games, Mississippi State hosted its first NCAA Super Regional June 8-9, knocking off Clemson 8-6 and 8-5 to earn the school's eighth berth in the NCAA College World Series. An NCAA Super Regional-record 26,335 jammed Dudy Noble Field for the two 11:30 a.m. games televised nationally on ESPN. With a single in MSU's regional-clinching 9-4 win at Florida State, senior second baseman/outfielder Jeffrey Rea broke Mississippi State's career hits record, and with four hits at the College World Series, Rea finished his career with 335 hits.

2007 JUNE 27 — In Wichita, Kans., junior catcher Edward Easley is named the recipient of the Johnny Bench Award as college baseball's best catcher. A supplemental first-round draft pick of the Arizona Diamondbacks, Easley had earlier claimed college baseball's top honor in Mississippi, the Cellular South Ferriss Trophy.

2008 MARCH 27 — Head coach Ron Polk announces that the 2008 season, his 29th at Mississippi State and his 35th in collegiate baseball, would be his final season as head coach of the Baseball Bulldogs. The Bulldogs ended the year with a 23-33 mark, the only sub-.500 season of his coaching career, and Polk concluded his career with 1,373 wins, seventh most in NCAA baseball history.

2008 JUNE 7 — Former State standout John Cohen is introduced by Director of Athletics Greg Byrne as MSU's 16th head baseball coach. Cohen, with previous coaching stints at Missouri, Northwestern State, Florida and Kentucky, was an All-SEC outfielder at State, helping the Bulldogs set the school-record for wins (54) en route to the 1989 SEC baseball championship.

With an 11-4 win over Delta State in 1997 Bulldog skipper Ron Polk became the 16th college coach to reach the 1,000-win milestone.

by Collegiate Baseball magazine, the highest ranking by a class of MSU baseball newcomers ever.

1995 JANUARY 7 — Mississippi State head coach Ron Polk is inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame. Polk joins 160 other all-time amateur baseball coaching greats enshrined in the ABCA Hall of Fame, coach C.R. "Dudy" Noble, inducted in 1967, and Paul Gregory, who joined the group in 1977.

1996 MAY 23-25 — State returns to the NCAA postseason playoffs after a two-year absence, traveling to Palo Alto, Calif., to compete in the NCAA West Regional. Sophomore ace lefty Eric DuBose, who fanned 174 batters in 1996 to establish an MSU single-season strikeout record, went the distance in MSU's 6-2 win over California-Santa Barbara.

1997 FEBRUARY 27 — With MSU's 11-4 win over Delta State at Dudy Noble Field, coach Ron Polk becomes the 16th college coach to reach 1,000 career wins.

Mississippi State is a comprehensive land-grant institution and the largest university in Mississippi, with an expected statewide fall 2009 enrollment of 18,601 students. MSU eclipsed the 17,000 mark in enrollment for the first time in 2007.

Established in 1878 as the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Mississippi, the university has traditional strengths in engineering and scientific agriculture, but has evolved into a comprehensive institution with a diverse array of programs in teaching, research and service.

Emerging areas of national prominence are computational science and information assurance; applied social sciences; materials and devices; biomedical sciences; and energy systems, among others.

Academics and Student Life

Mississippi State students consistently earn honors such as the prestigious Harry S. Truman Scholarship, awarded for those who will enter public service, and, with 16 Truman Scholars to date, the university has been recognized as a Truman Honor Institution. The university in 2009 also had its 12th national Goldwater Scholar, an award recognizing academic excellence in mathematics, the natural sciences and engineering.

In the past year, a student team competed for and won first place in a national ChallengeX competition to redesign a fuel-efficient and environmentally friendly SUV and has earned a spot in the succeeding national competition, called EcoCAR.

Under the leadership of President Mark Keenum, who became the university's 19th president in January 2009, Mississippi State has placed an increased emphasis on outreach that serves and improves the state, and has re-energized private fund-raising efforts to support student scholarships and faculty support.

In 2009, Forbes magazine ranked MSU 18th nationally among schools where students "get the most quality for each tuition dollar spent." Mississippi State was given a higher designation than all other Mississippi public and private institutions of higher learning by the prestigious business publication.

Research and Economic Development

As the state's flagship research university and land-grant institution, Mississippi State's role in economic development encompasses the creation and application of knowledge and a statewide mission of service.

MSU ranks 58th among all U.S. public universities in research and development expenditures, with more than $206 million recorded for FY 2007. The university ranks 34th in engineering and fifth in agricultural sciences.

Research at the university has played a vital role in attracting industries, such as Aurora Flight Sciences, American Eurocopter and Stark Aerospace to the Golden Triangle area. In addition, spin-off industries are expanding into the nearby Thad Cochran Research, Technology and Economic Development Park.

Outreach and Service

From its academic programs to the work of countless individuals, Mississippi State has "extended farther" and gone "beyond the limit" to make a difference in the lives of citizens around the state.

Often described as MSU's "classroom in the field," the Mississippi State Extension Service has offices and educators located in all 82 counties.

Specialists and faculty members at the university develop curricula on a wide range of topics that are delivered by county Extension agents to people across the state, close to where they live and work.

More recently, the Mississippi State Community Action Team, which pulls together expertise from around campus, is providing targeted assistance to communities that wish to improve quality of life and economic development potential.

Through annual programs, such as MSU's Service DAWGS, students, faculty and staff reach out to the community to help with an identified need. In 2009, the university was named to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll by the Corporation for National and Community Service. The Washington, D.C.-based federal agency recognized the university's "exemplary service efforts and service to America's communities."

Dr. Mark E. Keenum

President

Dr. Mark Everett Keenum became Mississippi State University's 19th president Jan. 5, 2009, following a distinguished public service career.

After completing his bachelor's and master's degrees in agricultural economics at Mississippi State, Dr. Keenum joined the university faculty in 1984 as a marketing specialist with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service. Two years later, he accepted a position as a research associate with the Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Experiment Station at MSU.

He continued his education at the university, in 1988 receiving a doctorate in agricultural economics, and he joined the faculty of that department as an assistant professor/economist. During his professional tenure at Mississippi State, his primary research and extension work focused on the marketing and economics of aquaculture, specialty crops and forestry. He continued his faculty ties at the university 1997-2006 as an adjunct professor, teaching an annual course on agricultural legislative policy.

Prior to being named president of Mississippi State in November 2008, Dr. Keenum served as Under Secretary of the U.S. Department of Agriculture for two years, where he provided leadership and oversight for the Farm Service Agency, the Risk Management Agency and the Foreign Agricultural Service. The mission area, comprised of the three agencies, had a total operating budget of $1.7 billion and approximately $40 billion in program authority. The three agencies employed more than 16,500 people at more than 2,300 offices nationwide and 98 locations around the globe.

In 1989, Dr. Keenum joined the Washington, D.C., staff of U.S. Senator Thad Cochran as Legislative Assistant for Agriculture and Natural Resources. As Sen. Cochran's adviser on agricultural affairs, he worked on numerous issues important to U.S. agriculture, including the 1990, 1996, and 2002 Farm Bills. From 1996-2006, he served as Chief of Staff for Sen. Cochran. In this role, Dr. Keenum was the chief adviser to the senator on political, legislative and appropriations issues. He also was responsible for managing all administrative and legislative functions of Sen. Cochran's Washington, D.C., office and three Mississippi offices, including direct oversight of the U.S. Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry and the U.S. Senate Committee on Appropriations.

Dr. Keenum and his wife Rhonda have four children.

Greg Byrne

Director of Athletics

When Greg Byrne was named Mississippi State University's 15th Director of Athletics on February 21, 2008, he became the youngest top current athletic administrator in the Southeastern Conference. At 36 years of age, he also became the youngest to lead an athletic program at the NCAA Division I-A level.

In just his first year in the director's chair, he has already made the tough decisions normally associated with an experienced veteran of the profession. He led searches that resulted in the hiring of head football coach Dan Mullen, head volleyball coach Jenny Hazelwood and head baseball coach John Cohen.

As the son of long-time athletic administrator Bill Byrne, currently the Director of Athletics at Texas A&M University, he has been around successful athletic programs, and the director's chair at those institutions, literally all his life.

Byrne, however, has made a name for himself in intercollegiate athletics. Prior to assuming the AD post at State in 2008, he had 15 years of professional experience, a resume' that shows progressive growth in both responsibility and achievement.

Byrne joined the MSU athletic department staff in June 2006 as Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs. In his first year on the job, Byrne initiated a first-ever volunteer fund-drive that resulted in 969 new Bulldog Club members for Mississippi State. He implemented a priority seating program for football and men's basketball that led to a $1 million increase in annual giving. He worked in conjunction with the MSU Alumni Office to create a first-ever Road Dawgs Tour, putting Mississippi State coaches and staff in front of more than 6,000 Bulldog fans each summer.

Byrne held a similar position at the University of He also led the effort to package State's donor and ticketing software, in connection with the department's athletic web site, for fan convenience. In doing so, MSU became the first Bowl Championship Series school to enlist XOS Technologies for total donor support in those areas.

Byrne held a similar position at the University of Kentucky from 2002 to 2005. As Associate Athletic Director for Development and Fund-Raising at UK, he managed the development staff and operated a multi-million dollar budget. He oversaw development efforts that raised annual gifts from $4 million to $9 million. While in Lexington, Byrne led a $35 million athletic facility campaign, and participated in the design, funding and marketing for Kentucky's $30 million basketball practice facility.

Byrne possibly made his greatest athletic program impact as Associate Athletic Director for Development at Oregon State University from 1998-2002. Managing an eight-person staff, he replaced an antiquated 60-year old fund-raising organization and increased annual giving from $1 million to over $5 million in cash during his tenure there. He assisted the Director of Major Gifts in raising more than $30 million in capital gifts for facilities and budget enhancement while in Corvallis. He participated in securing a $12.5 million gift to rename the Beavers' football stadium. Byrne was involved in the department's transition of corporate sponsorships for radio, television, stadium and arena signage and game program sales to increase revenue.

Byrne began his athletic fund-raising career as Regional Director of Development at the University of Oregon from 1995 through '98, overseeing development efforts for Portland, Southern and Central Oregon, Northern California and the Oregon coast. While overseeing the Duck's letterman's organization, he participated in raising $14 million for an indoor football facility and soccer complex.

The energetic Byrne launched his professional career as Special Projects Coordinator for the Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Ariz., from 1993-95. During that time, he managed a 1,000-person volunteer base for 63 Fiesta Bowl annual events.

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Byrne earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona State University in 1994 and received his master's degree from Mississippi State in 2009.

Byrne is married to the former Regina Misa of Junction City, Ore., and the couple has two sons, Nick and Davis.

Director of Athletics Greg Byrne presents a maroon blazer and MSU baseball cap to his first MSU hire, baseball coach John Cohen, at the June 2008 press conference introducing Cohen.

MISSISSIPPI STATE

MSU has the largest enrollment in the state of Mississippi. Founded as a land-grant institution, its grass, flowers and trees are as prevalent as buildings, sidewalks and parking lots. Large enough to sport diversity in all areas, the university still maintains a warm, friendly atmosphere.

Ruby Hall, a residence hall with the largest single room size in university history, opened in August 2006. A co-residential, 160,000-square foot, three-story freshman hall, Ruby is located at the north end of campus, in convenient proximity to the Colvard Union, the Perry Cafeteria, Mitchell Memorial Library, the Sanderson Center and all athletic facilities. Ruby Hall offers students the latest in technology, including Ethernet access, full wireless internet coverage, a refrigerator and microwave, and free cable with HBO in each room.

The Colvard Union is a popular meeting place for MSU students. Whether working on a group project, enjoying the food court, or simply relaxing, the student union is one of the campus' main meeting places.

The Chapel of Memories and Carillon Tower were built with bricks from Old Main Dormitory, the largest residence hall in the country when constructed, later destroyed by fire in 1959. The Chapel of Memories, which hosts numerous weddings each year, is one of the most-recognized landmarks on campus.

The Drill Field, located squarely in the center of campus, shows the expanse of greenery for which the campus is famous.

The People's University

When built in the 1920s, Perry Cafeteria was the largest dining hall in the country. The 300-foot long, Gothic style interior is one of the most beautiful buildings on the campus. It has accommodations for 600 students, faculty and staff and serves as the dining hall for MSU athletes.

Barnes & Noble opened on the MSU campus in August 2006 and features a world-class bookstore, apparel and gift shop, and café.

The $19 million, 150,000-square foot Sanderson Center recreation complex opened to students in 1996. The state-of-the art facility offers recreational opportunities in aquatics, fitness and aerobics, strength and conditioning, and intramural sports.

ATHLETIC Excellence

State's coaches care for their student-athletes and the school's sports programs. Each has a passion for their specialty, experience as a player and coach, and expertise to instruct at the highest levels. Their goal is to coach champions on the field and mold productive college graduates from the university's classroom.

CHRISTI SANDERS (back left) has the longest, consecutive coaching reign of any head coach at State, with 21 seasons at the helm of the women's golf program. She has twice been named SEC Coach of the Year (1990, 2000).

RICK STANSBURY, the winningest coach in MSU basketball history, has guided the Bulldogs to 231 wins and eight postseason appearances in his 11 seasons at State.

Former MSU baseball standout JOHN COHEN was introduced as Mississippi State's new baseball skipper in June 2008.

DAN MULLEN is widely regarded as one of the top young minds in college football. With 15 years of experience in the collegiate coaching ranks, Mullen was named the 32nd head football coach in the history of Mississippi State University on December 10, 2008.

NEIL MACDONALD is the only head coach to guide the MState soccer program to an SEC Tournament appearance in his first season (2004).

SHARON FANNING the winningest basketball coach in Lady Bulldog history, led her 2008-09 team to a 23-10 record and the second round of the NCAA Tournament. On Nov. 10, 2006, she became the 29th NCAA Division I women's basketball head coach to reach 500 wins.

Great Teachers

Returning home to coach his alma mater, PER NILSSON was a part of the 1993 SEC Championship team.

DARYL GREENAN assumes the reigns of the Mississippi State Women's Tennis program in 2010.

CLAY HOMAN, a second-team all-SEC performer during his MState playing career, has led the men's golf program to 52 top-10 finishes in six years.

JENNY HAZELWOOD returned to her alma mater as the head volleyball coach in 2009. During her career at State she set the school record for assists in a match, a season and a career.

JAY MILLER is one of the most respected coaches in the country. The USA National Team head coach and NFCA Hall of Fame inductee has directed the State softball program to six NCAA postseason appearances in his seven seasons.

Now in his second decade as the head coach of the men's and women's track teams, AL SCHMIDT has coached three MState athletes to national titles.

ATHLETIC Excellence

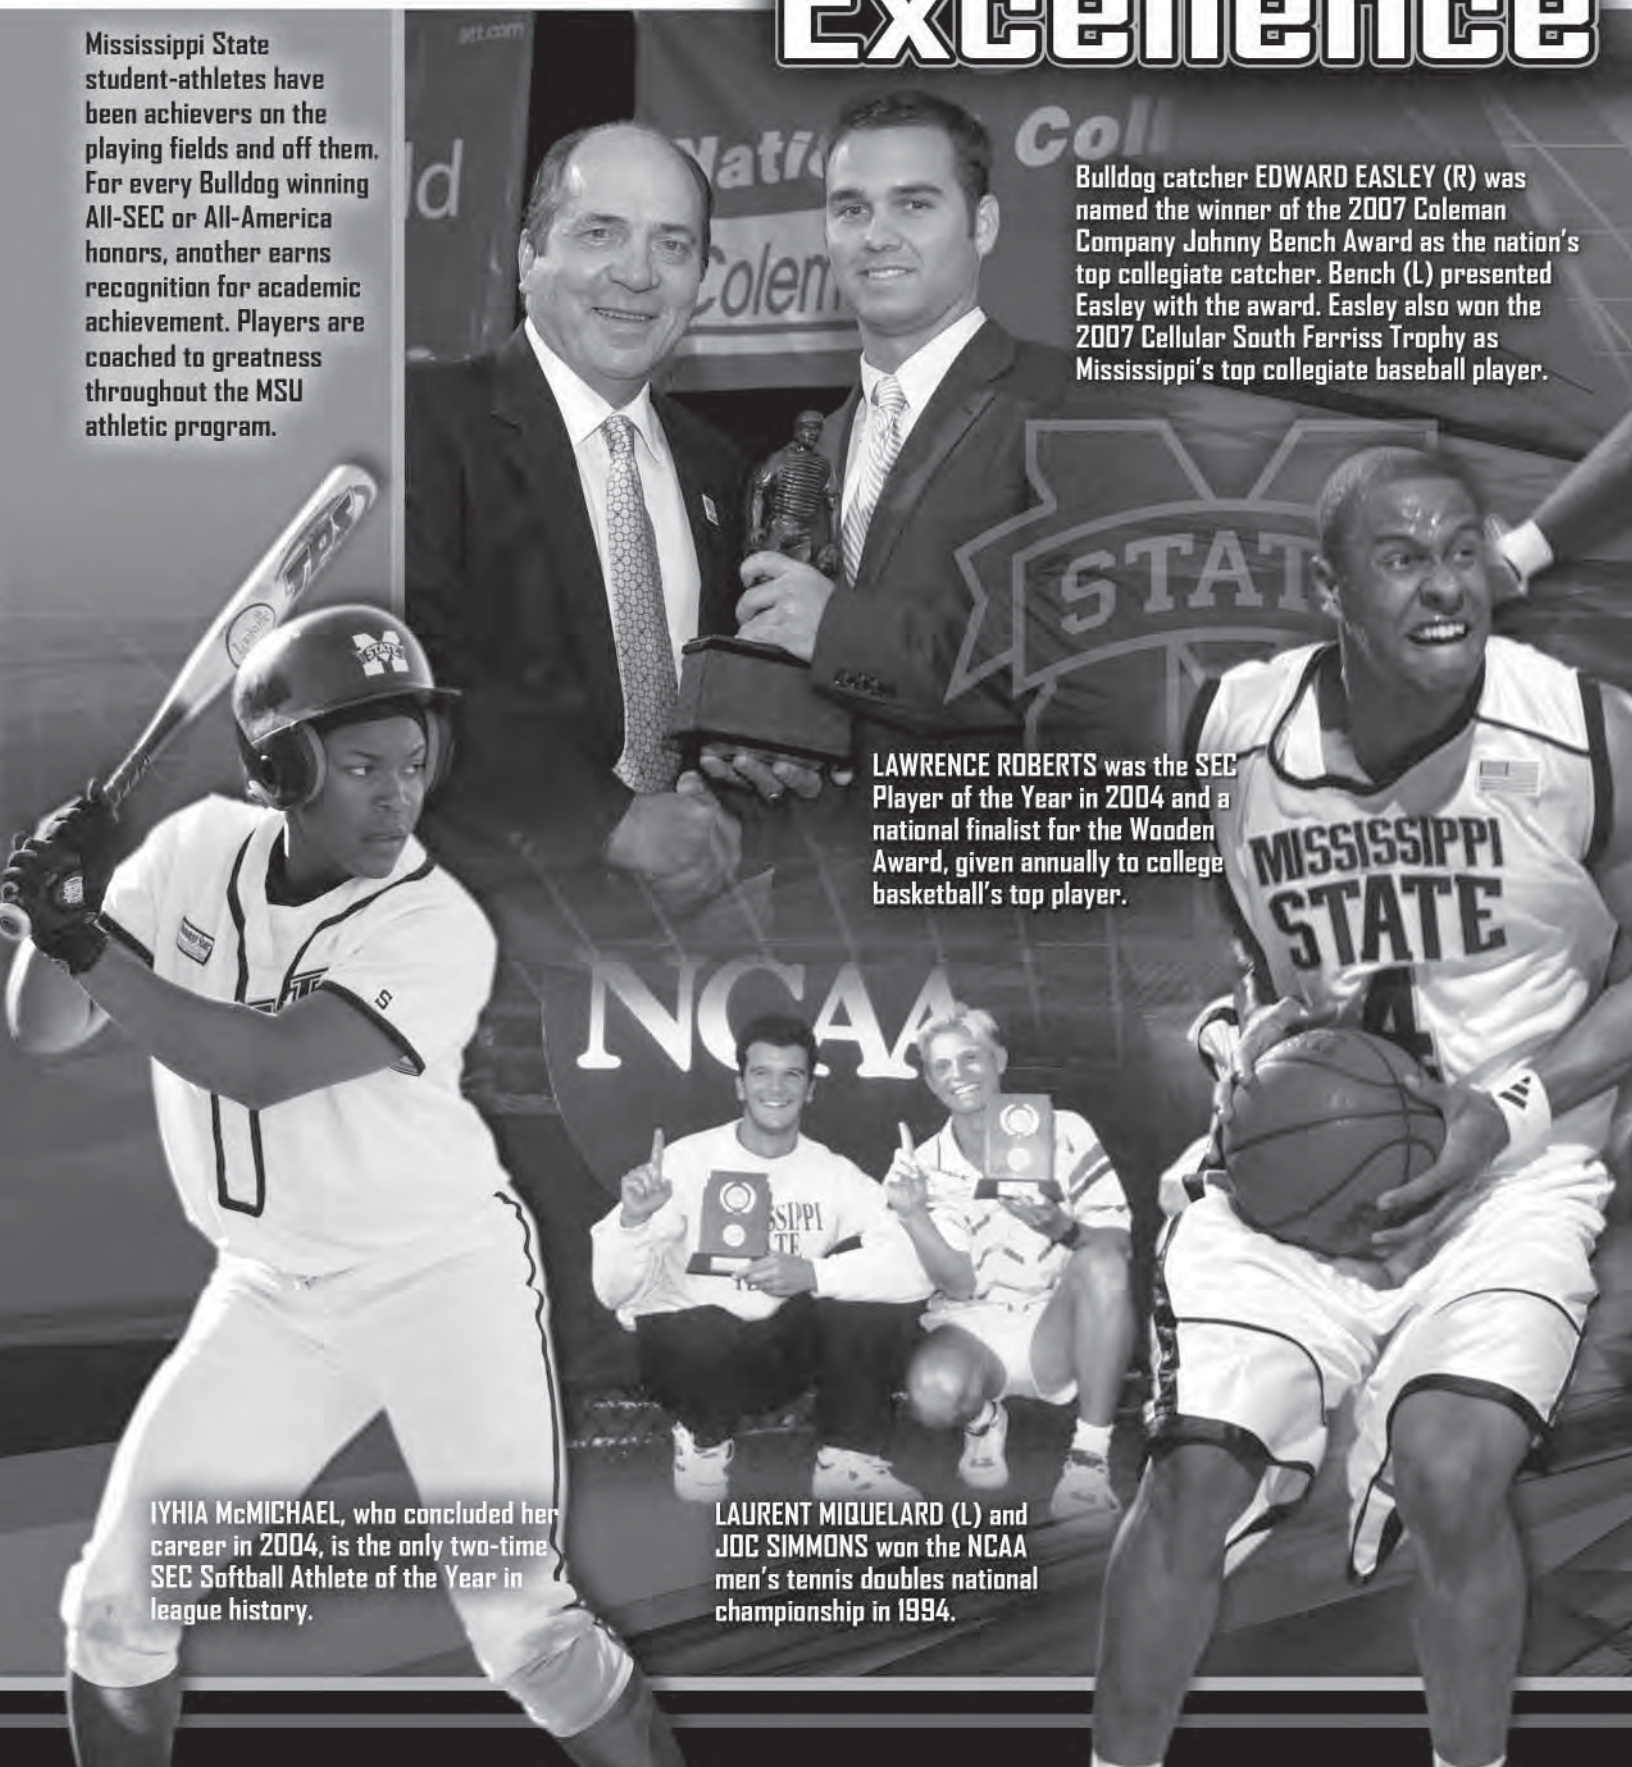

Mississippi State student-athletes have been achievers on the playing fields and off them. For every Bulldog winning All-SEC or All-America honors, another earns recognition for academic achievement. Players are coached to greatness throughout the MSU athletic program.

Bulldog catcher EDWARD EASLEY (R) was named the winner of the 2007 Coleman Company Johnny Bench Award as the nation's top collegiate catcher. Bench (L) presented Easley with the award. Easley also won the 2007 Cellular South Ferriss Trophy as Mississippi's top collegiate baseball player.

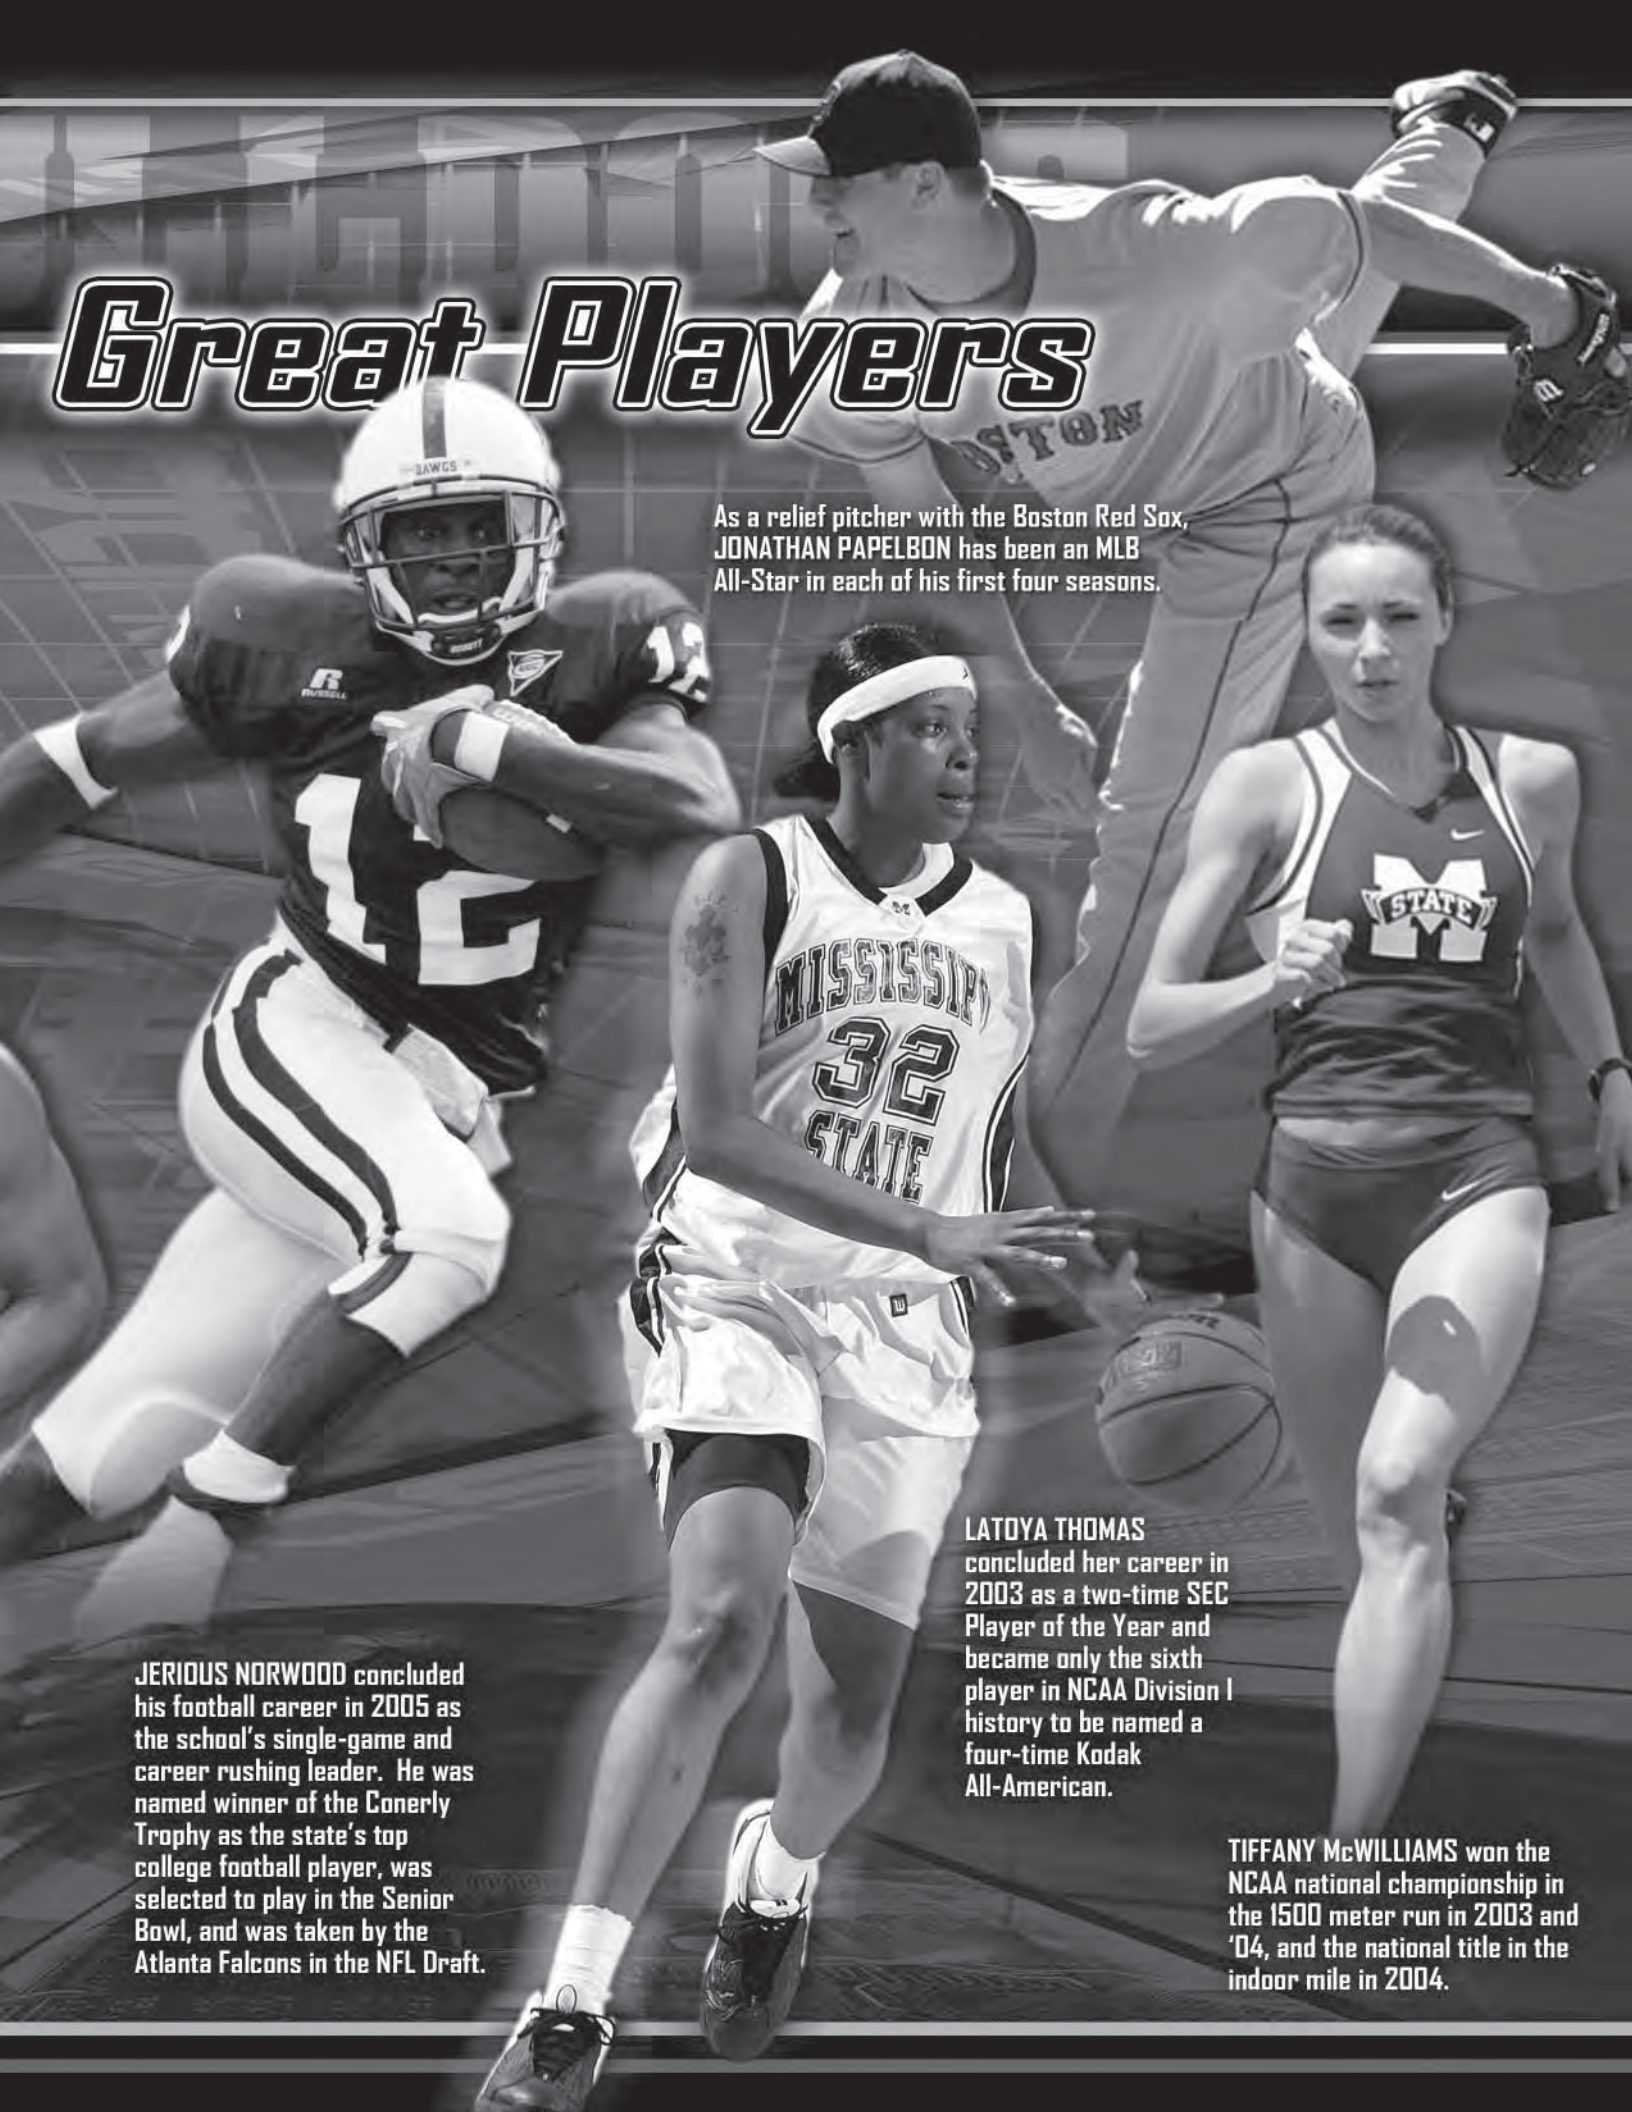

LAWRENCE ROBERTS was the SEC Player of the Year in 2004 and a national finalist for the Wooden Award, given annually to college basketball's top player.

IYHIA McMICHAEL, who concluded her career in 2004, is the only two-time SEC Softball Athlete of the Year in league history.

LAURENT MIQUELARD (L) and JOC SIMMONS won the NCAA men's tennis doubles national championship in 1994.

Great Players

As a relief pitcher with the Boston Red Sox, JONATHAN PAPELBON has been an MLB All-Star in each of his first four seasons.

JERIOUS NORWOOD concluded his football career in 2005 as the school's single-game and career rushing leader. He was named winner of the Conerly Trophy as the state's top college football player, was selected to play in the Senior Bowl, and was taken by the Atlanta Falcons in the NFL Draft.

LATOYA THOMAS concluded her career in 2003 as a two-time SEC Player of the Year and became only the sixth player in NCAA Division I history to be named a four-time Kodak All-American.

TIFFANY McWILLIAMS won the NCAA national championship in the 1500 meter run in 2003 and '04, and the national title in the indoor mile in 2004.

ATHLETIC Excellence

Mississippi State athletes play in some of the nation's finest facilities. Almost every Bulldog competition site has either been constructed or renovated in the last 15 years. During that time alone, more than $60 million in facility enhancements have been made.

DAVIS WADE STADIUM AT SCOTT FIELD: Near-sellout crowds have become the norm at Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field, where the Bulldogs have played before masses reaching 85 percent of stadium capacity. Since the 2000 season when expansion and renovation projects gave the nation's second-oldest stadium a gleaming new look, crowds have grown by nearly 30 percent.

PITTS TENNIS CENTRE: Considered among the finest tennis facilities in the collegiate ranks, the modern, six-court, 1,000-seat A.J. Pitts Tennis Centre recently completed its 26th year serving the men's and women's programs. Recent enhancements at the facility include new locker areas and concession stands (1998) and a permanent press box (2004).

W.D. SPENCER STADIUM/
CARL MADDOX TRACK:
Co-named in honor of a two-time Mississippi State Olympian and a former MSU athletic director, the W.D. Spencer Stadium/Carl Maddox Track has served as host to the Southeastern Conference Outdoor Track and Field Championships three times since 1985, joining Tennessee as the most frequent host for that event during that time.

DUDY NOBLE FIELD, POLK-DEMENT STADIUM:
One of the nation's leaders in baseball season ticket sales and attendance, Dudy Noble Field, Polk-Dement Stadium still holds the nation's on-campus single-game attendance mark — 14,991. With a seating capacity of more than 7,000 and more space in the world-famous outfield, Sports Illustrated magazine named the park, the "Best Place To Watch College Baseball" in a 1997 issue.

NEWELL GRISSOM BUILDING:

The 12,000-square foot, hardwood-floored Newell-Grissom Building serves as the home for Mississippi State's volleyball program and serves as a practice facility for both of the school's basketball programs. Recent improvements include the addition of an air conditioning/heating system and chairback seating.

Great Places

MSU GOLF COURSE:

Nominated by Golfweek and Golf Digest magazines as one of the premier public golf courses in the United States, Mississippi State's championship University Golf Course is the home to the men's and women's programs. The 18-hole course was recently furnished with a 5,000-square-foot clubhouse, complete with locker areas, snack bar, golf shop and classroom.

MSU SOCCER FIELD: Built in 1995, the lighted Mississippi State Soccer Field gives the Bulldog women one of the finest playing surfaces in the Southeast, a 114-yard long, 72-yard wide regulation NCAA Championship field. The lush turf is Mississippi Pride grass, developed by researchers on the MSU campus.

HUMPHREY COLISEUM: Season ticket sales records and all-time attendance marks have also been set over the past decade by Bulldog and Lady Bulldog basketball teams in the Humphrey Coliseum, the state's largest on-campus basketball arena. The latest addition to the facility was a $1.8 million, center-hung, four-sided video scoreboard and jumbotron screen installed in 2004.

MSU SOFTBALL FIELD: Constructed in 1997, the Mississippi State Softball Field has undergone almost constant improvement at the northern-most point of campus. Lights were added to the facility in 1998, brick work was added to the dugouts two years later and, in 2001, additional batting cages were built. In 2005, softball moved into a new locker, training and meeting facility adjacent to the park.

BRYAN BUILDING: The state-of-the-art John H. Bryan Athletic Administration Building is the crown jewel of MSU's expansion projects of the last decade. Opened in 1996, this showcase facility is named for longtime Bulldog friend and supporter John H. Bryan Sr., and houses athletic administration, football, ticket, athletic development and media relations offices.

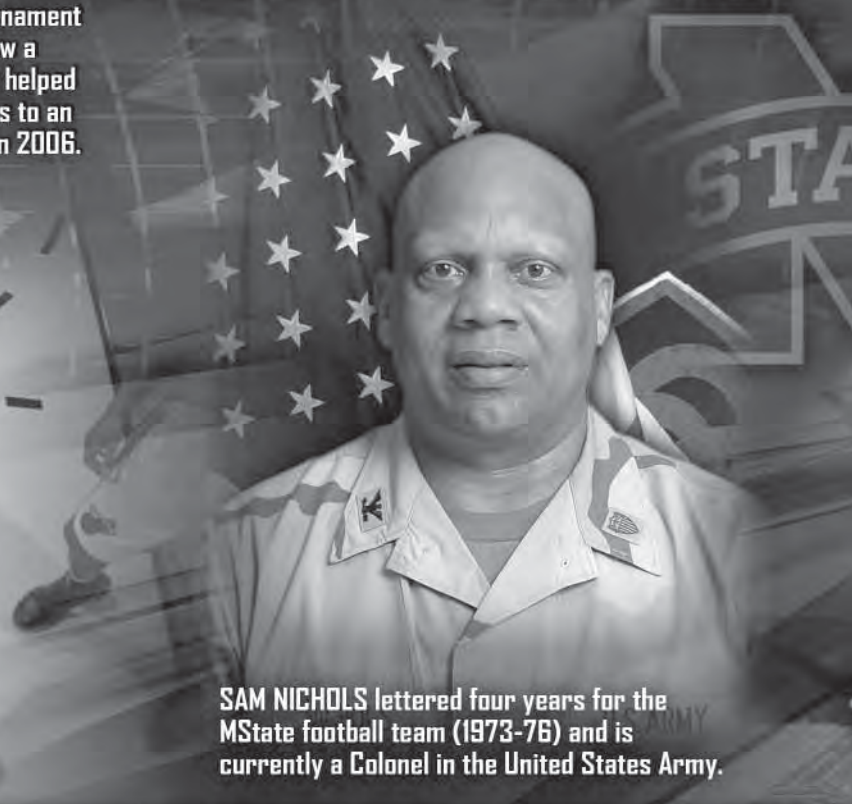

ATHLETIC Excellence

MSU student-athletes are prepared for life after their collegiate careers come to an end. Former State athletes succeed professionally in both sports and business.

ERICK DAMPIER led the Bulldog basketball program to back-to-back NCAA Tournament bids in 1995 and '96. Now a 13-year NBA veteran, he helped lead the Dallas Mavericks to an NBA Finals appearance in 2006.

TYRONE KEYS (center) starred for the MSU football team from 1977-80, won Super Bowl XX with the Chicago Bears, and is founder and president of All Sports Community Service, a Tampa-based firm that assists high-risk youth.

SAM NICHOLS lettered four years for the MState football team (1973-76) and is currently a Colonel in the United States Army.

BAILEY HOWELL, who still ranks second on the school's all-time basketball scoring list, enjoyed a 12-year career in the NBA and was elected to the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1997.

Great Alumni

ROSA MARIELLA (JIMINEZ) MAHAN was an ITA All-Academic Scholar women's tennis player for State in 1988, and is Senior VP and Regional Manager for Central America, the Caribbean, and Northern South America for Prisma Energy International in Houston, Texas.

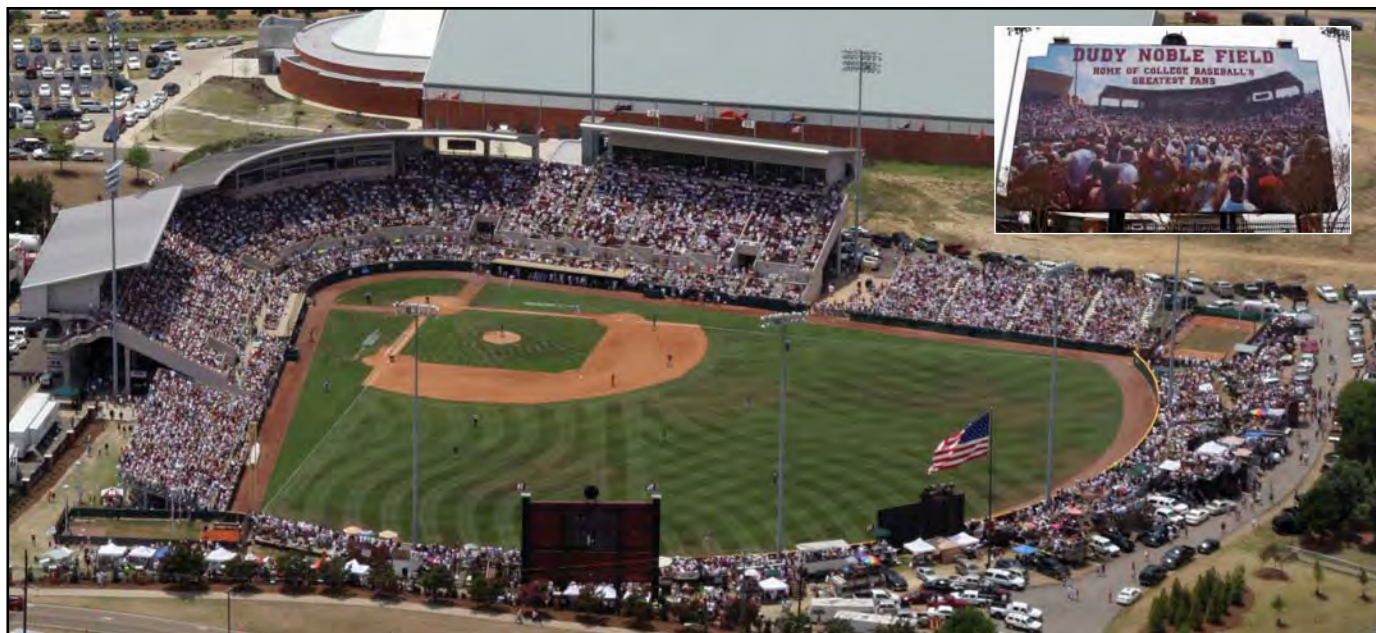

BUCK SHOWALTER is the former manager of three major league clubs and a former ESPN analyst.

BOBBY THIGPEN helped MSU baseball to the College World Series in 1985. He held the Major League record for saves in a season (57 in 1990 with the Chicago White Sox) for nearly 20 seasons.

Bulldog right-hander JEFF BRANTLEY (1982-85) still holds SEC records for pitching wins in a season (18) and career (45). He is now a radio broadcaster for the Cincinnati Reds.

DUDY NOBLE FIELD, POLK-DEMENT STADIUM

There is truly no place like home for Mississippi State's Baseball Bulldogs, especially when that home is Dudy Noble Field, one of the nation's top venues for college baseball.

The 2010 campaign marks the 44th season of baseball at the current site of Mississippi State baseball's on-campus home field, Dudy Noble Field. MSU first settled into Dudy Noble Field in 1967, and over the past four decades the facility has evolved into the nation's largest campus facility for college baseball and what many regard as the sport's finest all-around baseball complex.

Dudy Noble Field is the home to the top 13 and 21 of the top 25 largest on-campus baseball crowds.

MSU has surpassed the 200,000 mark in paid attendance at Dudy Noble Field in five of the past eight seasons and in 2007 MSU topped the four million mark in home attendance since 1976, the first year seasonal fan attendance was charted.

The field is named in honor of longtime MSU baseball coach, athletic director and ABCA Hall of Famer Clarke Randolph "Dudy" Noble. And on April 27, 1998 the facility was renamed Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium, honoring another ABCA Hall of Famer, former Bulldog skipper Ron Polk and the late Gordon DeMent, a successful businessman and longtime fan of the Baseball Bulldogs from Indianola, Miss.

Dudy Noble Field has twice hosted crowds in excess of 14,000, including an NCAA on-campus-record 14,991 that watched the Bulldogs take on SEC Eastern Division rival Florida in a Saturday twinbill in 1989. The home of the Baseball Bulldogs has hosted crowds of 10,000 or better 22 times. MSU eclipsed the 10,000 mark in attendance three times in 2007, including NCAA Super Regional-record draws of 13,715 and 12,620 for nationally-televvised late morning games against Clemson. Dudy Noble Field has served as the home to seven Southeastern Conference championship teams, has twice hosted NCAA District III tournaments (1973 and 1974), five SEC tournaments (1979, 1981, 1983, 1988 and 1995), 11 NCAA Regional tournaments (1979, 1984, 1985, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1992, 1997, 2000 and 2003) and in 2007 its first NCAA

Super Regional.

From 1929 until 1964, Mississippi State hosted its baseball games at the original on-campus site for Scott Field, State's football stadium. The baseball field was closed following the 1964 season to make way for the construction of Dorman Hall. And for the next two seasons, while a "new" Dudy Noble Field was being built, the Diamond Dogs played their home games in Columbus at Redbird Park. State captured SEC titles both seasons at their Columbus home. Meanwhile, the tin-roofed grandstand and 2,000-seat bleachers at the old field were moved to the stadium's present site, which became playable for the 1967 season.

Facility enhancements have followed a steady pace over the years ever since.

In 1971, thanks to the generosity of the late E.B. "Dutch" McCool, a former MSU baseball player and one of the founding fathers of Holiday Inns, Inc., MSU took the lead in the Southeastern Conference with the installation of a lighting system. The advent of night baseball in Starkville helped build a solid fan base. A drainage and sprinkler system and an expanded scoreboard and animation-equipped message center, new batting ranges and an infield tarp became the stadium's next improvements.

Mississippi State hosted its first SEC Baseball Tournament and NCAA Regional in 1979, winning both and setting attendance marks while opening eyes along the way.

The crowds mushroomed further in the 1980s as future Major League stars Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Rafael Palmeiro and Bobby Thigpen helped the 1985 Bulldogs win the SEC championship, host and win another regional championship and earn MSU's highest national finish, a tie for third place at the NCAA College World Series.

It was obvious that support for Bulldog Baseball had easily out-grown its cozy Dudy Noble Field facility. Two years after that magical '85 season Mississippi State unveiled a dramatic advancement for its baseball facilities — an impressive $3.5 million project that would give MSU the biggest baseball stadium in the league.

The new facility at Dudy Noble Field, built in less than nine months, featured an impressive concrete grandstand structure with 3,700 maroon theater-style seats, a spacious elevated press box, and rest room, ticket, souvenir and concession-vending facilities. And the team clubhouse featured a 40-locker dressing room and team area. A pair of 1,500-seat bleachers that once overlooked the end zones at Scott Field, the home of MSU's football Bulldogs, were refurbished and installed along the foul lines, raising seating capacity at Dudy Noble Field to 6,700. The facility was later chosen by Sports Illustrated as the best play to watch college baseball, and it became a model for future college baseball facilities built across the nation. The "new" Dudy Noble Field facility also helped ignite a drive to update baseball facilities throughout the SEC.

The expanded capacity at the stadium also triggered an increase in MSU's annual baseball season ticket base to more than 5,000, virtually assuring Mississippi State of a place among national leaders in college baseball attendance every year.

A second permanent concession stand was added in 1989, and a year later, the cinder warning track at the outfield fence was extended to completely encircle the playing field. That project, along with the installation of a six-foot high padded outfield fence, was made possible by a donation by former MSU All-American and Major League standout Will Clark.

Best-selling author, MSU alumnus and avid MSU baseball fan John Grisham donated funding in 1993 for an indoor batting range under the first base grandstand, and in August 1998 construction got under way on an ambitious project that added 18 skysuites and more than 600 additional chairback seats in the grandstand. When it was completed during the 2000 season, permanent seating capacity at Dudy Noble Field had eclipsed the 7,000 mark.

The aura of Mississippi State baseball at Dudy Noble Field is certainly not confined to the loyal legions in the impressive grandstand, pro-style luxury skysuites and bleachers.

In fact, some of the more highly-prized seats at Bulldog Baseball games are found beyond the outfield fence in the "Left Field Lounge". Waiting lists greet those seeking to purchase one of nearly 75 renewable season parking passes for an assigned position in one of three rows beyond the outfield fence. There, a colorful assortment of pickup trucks, motor homes, and trailers — most equipped with barbecue grills — line the outfield fence, completing a circle of humanity at Dudy Noble Field.

What began in the late 1960s as a popular gathering spot for baseball-loving MSU students now forms college baseball's largest tailgate party. A 10-foot wide boardwalk has since been added to the area between the outfield fence and the first row of outfield terrace parking.

Not surprisingly MSU ranks each year among the nation's leaders in attendance. Single-game paid attendance totals have reached the five-digit mark 22 times, three of those in 2007. SEC weekend games typically draw the largest crowds, giving rise to huge weekend gatherings. Six of the last eight three-game Super Bulldog Weekend series have drawn more than 25,000, including an SEC series-record 29,915 fans that watched the 2006 MSU-Georgia series.

Still, the improvements continue at Dudy Noble Field. Prior to the start of the 2003 season 46-foot "major league" foul poles were added, and a year later a new state-of-the-art scoreboard/message center, courtesy of the Henry Mize Foundation, was installed along with new fencing and gates surrounding the main grandstand.

The landscape surrounding Dudy Noble Field took on an even more impressive look in 2005 with the completion of the Palmeiro Center, a massive 68,000-square foot climate-controlled turfed indoor practice facility located adjacent to Dudy Noble Field. The spacious facility, made possible by a generous lead gift from former MSU great Rafael Palmeiro and his wife Lynne, features a regulation infield practice area, additional training area and three retractable batting cages.

Nestled between the Palmeiro Center and Dudy Noble Field is the baseball coaches office complex, also completed in 2005. The complex, which also houses a baseball heritage room, was made possible by contributions from former Bulldog players Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Eric DuBose, Paul Maholm, Jay Powell and Bobby Thigpen and former MSU manager James "Bo" McKinnis.

Mississippi State's baseball complex received a boost with the addition of the Bryce Griffis Boardroom, a $1.5 million, meeting/banquet hall extension on the south end of the Palmeiro Center. The facility features banquet seating for approximately 350.

In 2008-09 State constructed an outdoor practice infield adjacent to the Palmeiro Center, and an expanded state-of-the-art high definition video board was put in place for the 2009 season.

The field itself was the recipient of a complete makeover in 2009. The irrigation and drainage system was replaced, new sod installed, and the dugouts were expanded and then enclosed with net-covered railing. The Bulldog bullpen in the left field corner was rebuilt with artificial turf and enclosed.

The Bulldog locker room and clubhouse was also remodeled and upgraded with new lighting, audio-visual equipment, and attractive wall displays.

SEC Baseball Tournament
Regions Park (Hoover, Ala.)

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 76-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

SEC baseball posted another banner season in 2009 as the conference advanced eight teams to NCAA postseason play — Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Ole Miss, South Carolina and Vanderbilt. Two of those, Arkansas and LSU, marched on to the NCAA College World Series, marking the 24th time in the last 25 years that the Southeastern Conference has had representation in college baseball's "elite eight" in Omaha. And for the fifth time since 2000, an SEC team played for the national title, with LSU knocking off Texas in the 2009 championship series.

With a 20-10 league record, LSU shared the SEC Western Division title and overall league championship in 2009 with divisional rival Ole Miss. The Tigers later downed Vanderbilt at Regions Park in Hoover, Ala., to earn its SEC-record eighth conference league tournament title.

Florida finished atop the SEC Eastern Division's regular season standings with a 19-11 league mark.

The Southeastern Conference boasts of 11 former National Players of the Year, 10 Baseball America Coach of the Year and eight Collegiate Baseball Coach of the Year honorees. Additionally, 143 student-athletes that have been accorded all-America team honors, including three in 2009.

In 2009 four SEC baseball players had their names called in the first round of Major League Baseball's First-Year Player Draft last June. The SEC has now had at least one player drafted in the first round each year since 1991 and a total of 80 during that span.

Baseball in the SEC enjoyed a banner year at the gate, with the 12 teams combining to draw an NCAA-record 1.9 million fans to their on-campus ballparks. Seven SEC teams, including Mississippi State, eclipsed the 100,000 mark in paid home attendance, with the league averaging 4,689 fans per game in 2009. Two teams, LSU and South Carolina, opened new baseball stadiums in 2009. And led by Mississippi State, four teams, all in the SEC West, can house baseball crowds of 10,000.

ABOUT THE SEC

Mississippi State University is a charter member of the Southeastern Conference, a pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition and a national leader as intercollegiate athletics marches on into the 21st century.

Centrally headquartered in Birmingham, Ala., the Southeastern Conference is comprised of 12 universities that span a nine-state area, conducting championships in 11 women's and nine men's sports. The member schools are split into two divisions. Mississippi State is joined in the SEC West by in-state rival Mississippi, Louisiana State, Alabama, Auburn and Arkansas. The Eastern Division features Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. All but Arkansas and South Carolina were among 13 charter members of the SEC, with those schools joining the league for competition in 1991-92.

The SEC baseball coaching fraternity welcomes one newcomer in 2010 as Mitch Gaspard takes over at Alabama following the retirement of long-time Crimson Tide coach Jim Wells.

SEC ON TV

SEC baseball will enjoy expanded television exposure in 2010 thanks to the SEC's landmark 15-year agreement with cable sports giant ESPN. In the first year of that agreement, the ESPN family will televise 13 regular season games and the championship game of the 2010 SEC Tournament. The opening weekend of ESPN's SEC baseball coverage includes the MSU-South Carolina game Apr. 4 at Columbia, S.C.

Dozens of other SEC games will also be televised regionally by the league's TV partners FOX Sports Network and Comcast Sports Southeast.

SEC TOURNEY

At the conclusion of a 10-weekend, 30-game league schedule, the Southeastern Conference conducts a postseason tournament, with the winner receiving the league's automatic qualifying bid for the NCAA baseball tournament. The teams with the eight highest conference winning percentages qualify for the double-elimination SEC tournament. A College World Series-styled, double-bracket format is used, with the winners of each bracket meeting in a televised championship game.

The 2010 SEC Tournament (May 20-24) will be the league's 34th dating back to 1978. And for the 15th time overall and the 13th consecutive year, the event will be staged in Hoover, Ala., at the recently-renovated Regions Park, the home of the Class AA Southern League's Birmingham Barons (Chicago White Sox).

The facility has seating for 10,800 but can accommodate crowds of up to 16,000.

The 2009 SEC Tournament drew 86,048 fans to Regions Park, topping the draws of the previous three SEC tournaments.

Mississippi State has won six SEC Baseball Tournament championships, second-most in the league, and three of those tournament championships were won in Hoover, Ala.

SEC BASEBALL POINTS OF PRIDE

- The NCAA College World Series in Omaha, Neb., has taken on a distinctive SEC flavor over the last few decades. The SEC has sent 38 teams to the CWS since 1990, including 12 appearances by LSU, five by Georgia and four each by Mississippi State and Florida. Alabama and South Carolina have made three CWS appearances the past two decades. Overall, LSU has made 15 trips to the national championship tournament while Mississippi State is second with eight CWS appearances.

- Including the 2009 title, SEC teams have won seven of the last 20 national championships while claiming runner-up honors four times.

- The SEC has sent nine of its 12 schools to the College World Series since 1990 — Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina and Tennessee.

- Since 1990, SEC squads have combined for 130 NCAA Tournament bids, an average over seven per season. The SEC sent an NCAA-record nine teams to the NCAA Tournament three times — in 2004, 2005 and 2008. An NCAA-high five SEC teams served as regional hosts in 2004 and 2006.

- The SEC was again well-represented among the nation's leaders in paid home attendance in 2009. Led by LSU's NCAA-leading average of 9,611, the SEC swept the top five and eight of the top 20 positions in average home paid attendance. Despite playing an SEC-fewest 25 home dates, Mississippi State finished fifth nationally, averaging 6,301 2008, with SEC Western Division rivals LSU (7,590), Arkansas (6,968) and Mississippi State (6,008) ranking 1-2-3.

- The SEC posted a 253-91 record against non-conference opponents in 2009, a 73.5 winning percentage.
