MEDIA INFORMATION

The 2012 Mississippi State University Baseball Media Guide has been prepared to assist the media with its coverage of State baseball. It should provide answers to most MSU baseball-related questions. Should you need additional information, please contact MSU Assistant Media Relations Director Joe Dier (662-325-8040/FAX 325-3600 • jbdier@athletics.msstate.edu). THE JOE PHILLIPS PRESS BOX: The press box at Dudy Noble Field is named in honor of Joe Phillips, a pioneer in radio broadcasting in Mississippi and a driving force behind the formation of Mississippi State University's radio networks for sports broadcasts. The facility features media seating in three compartments as well as two radio booths.

CREDENTIALS: Media credentials for Mississippi State home baseball games are required for media covering games at Dudy Noble Field and are issued through the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office for working press only. Written requests by accredited media members on company letterhead should be submitted well in advance of the requested game(s) and directed to Assistant Director of Athletic Media Relations Joe Dier (P.O. Box 5308, Mississippi State, MS 39762 — jbdier@athletics.msstate.edu). If needed, credentials can be left at the "Will Call" window at the stadium ticket office under the main grandstand, which opens two hours prior to SEC and weekend games and 90 minutes prior to all other games.

Mississippi State is scheduled to make two appearances this season in Pearl, Miss., at Trustmark Park, the home of the Mississippi Braves, the Atlanta Braves' affiliate in the Class AA Southern League. MSU is the designated home team for both the sixth annual Governor's Cup game April 17 against Ole Miss and an April 24 game against Southern Miss. Requests for media credentials for the games at Trustmark Park should be directed to the Mississippi Braves ticket office (888-272-8374).

Credentials are also required for photographers and videographers at MSU home games, and on-field photographers must operate from and stow equipment in the photo boxes located on the outfield end of each dugout. Photographers are restricted from entering the field of play and team dugouts, and flash photography is not permitted at Dudy Noble Field.

INTERVIEWS: Following a 10-minute cooling off period, head coach John Cohen, Mississippi State players and MSU assistant coaches will be available for interviews following most games on the field near the MSU dugout. To facilitate the process, a member of the MSU Media Relations staff will solicit interview requests from media members in the final two innings of the game, and will be available to assist with those interviews on the field. Due to time constraints, players and coaches will generally not be available for interviews between MSU doubleheader games. The Mississippi State locker room and stadium dugouts at Dudy Noble Field are restricted to team officials and are not open to the media.

Coach Cohen will also be available for additional non-gameday interviews throughout the week. The best time to reach Cohen by telephone is from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. weekdays. These interviews can also be arranged through the MSU Baseball Office by contacting April Edwards at (662) 325-3597.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS: MSU welcomes media representation at all baseball games and practices. Media members should contact the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office for practice times and to make known requests for player interviews. In most cases, players will be available for a brief time before and for a lengthier time following practices.

To arrange pregame interviews with players, please make advance contact with Joe Dier. Players are generally available for brief pregame interviews approximately two hours prior to each game near the dugout. Telephone interviews can also be scheduled with players on a call-back basis during the week, also with advance arrangement through the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office.

PARKING: Limited media parking at Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium is available in a designated media/handicap parking area on the east side of Humphrey Coliseum. A media parking pass issued in advance by MSU Athletic Media Relations is required. MSU baseball media credentials will be honored at all public entrances to Dudy Noble Field.

PRESS BOX SERVICES: The MSU Media Relations Office provides pregame notes, statistics and scorecards in the Joe Phillips Press Box prior to each game at Dudy Noble Field. A complete box score along with a play-by-play is available approximately 15 minutes after each game. Wired and wireless internet connections are available for media use in the press box.

RADIO: MSU provides a radio booth for the broadcast entity designated by the visiting SEC team. Two telephone lines and an ISDN line are available for use in the visiting radio booth in the Joe Phillips Press Box. Telephone lines will also be made available for use by radio networks of non-conference opponents on a reciprocating basis. Please contact Don Williams (662-325-8950) in advance to confirm arrangements for the use of telephone lines.

Postgame interview with head coach John Cohen and the Bulldogs are conducted on the field.

THE BOB HARTLEY MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP

Bob Hartley

Providing training opportunities for young SIDs

For more than half a century Robert M. "Bob" Hartley dedicated his life's work to promoting Mississippi State University athletics. From his hiring as the school's first sports publicity director in August 1946 to his initial "retirement" as assistant athletic director for communications in June 1985, through his later years as an invaluable consultant for the Mississippi State University Department of Athletics, the man we called "Hart" gave special meaning to the words "loyalty" and "devotion to duty."

Mr. Bob's labors of love with MSU have not gone unrecognized. He has taken his place among college athletics' greats as a member of both the university's and the state's sports halls of fame and the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Hall of Fame.

His willingness to generously give of his talent, his time and his friendship serves as an inspiration to the countless lives he touched and to those that aspire to follow in his footsteps.

In that respect, the Bob Hartley Memorial Fellowship was created by the MSU Department of Athletics to provide hands-on training opportunities for young media relations practitioners.

Past recipients of Mississippi State's Bob Hartley Memorial Fellowship include Janelle Finley, Scott Kuykendall, Larry Little, Brock Turnipseed, Rene Oakes Garner, Tony Schmidt, Jay Middleton, Stephen Foshee and Jan Blaine.

Mississippi State University formally reiterates and reaffirms its commitment to the principles of equal opportunity, affirmative action and diversity. Discrimination based upon race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, or veteran's status is a violation of federal and state law and MSU policy and will not be tolerated. Discrimination based upon sexual orientation or group affiliation is a violation of MSU policy and will not be tolerated. This nondiscrimination policy applies to all programs administered by the University. However, this policy should not be construed to infringe upon the free exchange of ideas essential to the academic environment.

Dr. Tommy Stevenson, Jr., Interim Director of Diversity and Equity Programs, 106 McArthur Hall, P.O. Box 6199, Mississippi State, MS 39762, office telephone number (662) 325-2493, campus mailstop 9609, has been designated as the responsible employee to coordinate efforts to carry out responsibilities and make investigation of complaints relating to discrimination in conforming with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1974, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

MSU BASEBALL RADIO NETWORK

Mississippi State University is home to one of the nation's largest and oldest collegiate baseball radio networks, affording fans throughout the Magnolia State and beyond an opportunity to regularly follow the exploits of the Baseball Bulldogs throughout the season.

Network programming for the MSU baseball broadcasts is distributed and coordinated through the facilities of Learfield Sports, Inc., headquartered in Jefferson City, Mo.

The 2012 Mississippi State University Baseball Radio Network, a team of more than a dozen radio outlets, carries the broadcasts of a 40-game network schedule (all 30 SEC weekend contests and 10 selected non-conference games) plus all postseason competition. In addition to the 40-game network schedule, the broadcasts of most non-network games are carried in the Golden Triangle area by WKBB-FM (100.9) in West Point, Miss.

Most MSU baseball network radio broadcasts are also available on a subscription basis via the internet through the official web site of Mississippi State University Athletics (www.HailState.com).

The broadcasts feature pregame and postgame interviews, hosted by the "voice" of the Diamond Dogs, Jim Ellis, and Bart Gregory, who joins the MSU baseball broadcast team in 2012.

Radio broadcasts of Bulldog Baseball got their start in the 1960s on Starkville radio station WSSO thanks to the work of the late Joe Phillips, a pioneer in radio broadcasting in Mississippi. The MSU baseball stadium press box is named in honor of Phillips.

But credit for turning the single-station broadcast into an impressive collection of radio outlets blanketing the Magnolia State goes to veteran MSU sports broadcaster, Jim Ellis, who in 2012 enters his 34th season of describing the exploits of the Baseball Bulldogs. A native of West Point, Miss., and 1969 MSU grad, Ellis coordinates the operation of State's baseball radio network. His voice is also a familiar one with State basketball and football fans. He also handles the play-by-play for MSU football and basketball after having teamed with MSU radio legend Jack Cristil for more than three decades on those broadcasts.

Bart Gregory, a native of Nanih Waiya, Miss., and a 1999 Mississippi State graduate, joins Ellis in the broadcast booth in 2012. He began his career in sports broadcasting at the University of West Alabama in 2000 and returned to MSU the following year. While at MSU he initially broadcast women's basketball games, select baseball games and hosted MSU football pregame and postgame shows and more recently joined Ellis on MSU basketball broadcasts.

Gregory joined the MSU athletics family in 2000 as an account representative for the Bulldogs Sports Network and since 2008 has served in the Bulldog Club as Assistant Athletic Director for Annual Giving.

The MSU baseball broadcast lineup also includes a weekly call-in radio show "DawgTalk". The show begins an eight-week run April 2 and airs each Monday from 7-8 p.m. on affiliated radio stations in Mississippi. Listeners can call 866-998-4893 to participate in the show.

MSU's weekly baseball television coach's show returns for its 25th season in 2012. "Mississippi State Baseball with John Cohen" is a joint production of the Mississippi State University Television Center and Bulldog Sports Properties, a property of Learfield Sports. The 30-minute television program runs for eight weeks in April and May and is hosted by the Bulldogs' skipper and Jim Ellis. It is a production of the Mississippi State University Television Center.

Bulldog fans around the world can watch many of State's 37 home games in 2012 live from Dudy Noble Field on the MSU athletic department's premium online video platform, HAILSTATETV (formerly Maroon to the Max). The service is available on a subscription basis through MSU's official athletics department web site, www.HailState.com.

Mississippi State is in its sixth season of providing live multi-camera video streaming of most Mississippi State home baseball games, with the audio simulcast from the MSU Baseball Radio Network broadcasts. Home games not televised live will be offered on a delayed same-day broadcast basis.

HAILSTATETV subscribers can also listen to the radio network broadcasts of all games played by the Baseball Bulldogs (some limited exceptions).

2012 BASEBALL PREVIEW

Some might choose to label 2012 as a rebuilding season at Mississippi State.

After all, Mississippi State did lose all but two defensive regulars from a club that surpassed all expectations in 2011. That MSU edition finished with a 38-25 worksheet and a postseason advancement that carried the Diamond Dogs to within eight outs of the school's ninth appearance in the prestigious NCAA College World Series.

But head coach John Cohen, entering his fourth season as Mississippi State skipper, believes he and the MSU coaching staff have something cooking for 2012.

"We're excited about this group... it's different in so many ways from any of the other teams we've had since I've been back at Mississippi State. You just get the feeling that there's a good recipe here."

That recipe includes the return of 14 of the 16 pitchers that took the hill for the Diamond Dogs last spring. Those seasoned moundsmen, paced by preseason All-American relief ace Caleb Reed, accounted for 36 of MSU's 38 wins, all 16 saves and more than 80 percent of MSU's total innings pitched.

The Bulldogs' ingredient list also includes a pair of 2011 SEC All-Freshman Team selections, outfielder C.T. Bradford and infielder Adam Frazier, senior outfielder Brent Brownlee and four other position players who drew game-opening stints in the field.

Sprinkle in 14 newcomers from State's third consecutive nationally-ranked recruiting class and the table appears to be set for what could be a blue ribbon season.

"There's an athleticism with this group," continued Cohen. "I feel like we have some power and I feel like we have some runners. But more than anything I really like the way we defend the field and the way we pitch. The strength of our club is our pitching staff. For the first time, maybe in my coaching career, we have outstanding leadership with great, great experience on the mound and the skill level to go with it."

AROUND THE HORN

In the offseason Mississippi State replaced the infield dirt at Dudy Noble Field. And thanks to graduation losses, MSU must also replace the players that will defend on that new soil.

A trio of players with plenty of power potential --- redshirt freshman Wes Rea, junior college transfer Trey Porter, and sophomore corner infielder Daryl Norris, are the leading contenders to take over at first base for departed 44-game starter Ryan Collins. Norris (.277/20 RBI) started 10 of MSU's 30 games at first base, but is also firmly in the picture for playing time across the diamond at third base.

The offensive star of MSU's postseason run last season, Nick Vickerson (.319/9 HR/37 RBI), moved on to the pro ranks after starting 36 games at second base for the Bulldogs in 2011. Two Bulldogs who shared starting time at second with Vickerson, sophomore Adam Frazier (.274) and junior Sam Frost (.184), are primed for playing time in the middle of the infield this spring, along with redshirt freshman Demarcus Henderson and true freshmen Matthew Britton and Phillip Casey. One candidate must emerge as the replacement for Jonathan Ogden, who concluded his career after drawing 61 starts at shortstop.

Norris finished fall practice as one of the leading candidates to take over at the hot corner, along with Henderson, redshirt freshman Brayden Jones and true freshman Nick Flair.

One of the biggest holes to be filled in the Bulldog infield is behind the dish, where a pair of gritty seniors, Wes Thigpen and Cody Freeman, shared starting duty throughout the 2011 season. Sophomore Hunter Renfroe (.154), used primarily as the designated hitter and in the outfield, logged very limited playing time behind the dish last spring. He and a pair of junior college transfers, Mitch Slauter and Nick Ammirati, are the top candidates for the starting job behind the plate.

2012 BASEBALL PREVIEW

Solid outfield play was credited with sparking State's impressive sweep through the NCAA Atlanta Regional, and two of MSU's outfielding regulars return in 2012. Team co-captain Brent Brownlee (.279/24 RBI, 1.000F%), one of three seniors on the club, and Collegiate Baseball/Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American C.T. Bradford (.303/74H/34RBI/11SB), are positioned to anchor what promises to be a solid outfielding corps. The third starter in the outfield could come from a group that among others includes sophomore eight-game starter and relief pitcher Taylor Stark (.182), catcher Renfro, freshmen Tyler Fullerton and Brandon Woodruff and redshirt freshman middle infielder Demarcus Henderson.

The undeniable strength of the 2012 club is a highly-skilled and depth-blessed pitching staff.

Senior co-captain Caleb Reed (1.55/12 saves), who led the staff and ranked third in the SEC in both earned run average and saves, is the lead dog on the State staff. A second-team All-SEC selection in 2011, Reed was a save away from tying the school single-season saves record and is on the watch list for the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Award.

A pair of juniors, righty Chris Stratton (5-7/5.21/76.0IP/76K) and southpaw Nick Routt (3-3/3.86/56.0IP/49K) ranked 1-2 on the staff in starts with 14 and 13 respectively a year ago. Junior righty Kendall Graveman (5-0/3.65/56.2IP) was just behind with nine midweek starts, sophomore Evan Mitchell (6-2/4.62/48.2IP/49K) came on strong late and spirited lefty Luis Pollorena (7-5/4.45/58.2IP) developed into a major contributor who led the staff in wins.

Taylor Stark (3-0/2.95/18.1IP/18K/2Sv) Daryl Norris (2-0/3.20/25.1/19K/1Sv) and C.T. Bradford (1Sv) all took the hill in relief as freshmen last season while Chad Girodo (3-0/5.76/29.2/29K) ranked third on the staff with 16 relief appearances as a sophomore. Another junior, Andrew Busby, drew a pair of starts and picked up a win in 2011 while senior southpaw Tim Statz was utilized in relief and as a starter in his 14 appearances in 2011.

Though technically not among MSU's returnees from 2011, redshirt sophomore Ben Bracewell is expected to be a big player in MSU's pitching plans, possibly in a starting role. Lefty C.C. Watson, also returning from a 2011 medical redshirt season, could also take on a more prominent role in 2012.

And waiting in the wings to make their presence felt on the mound are rookies Will Cox, Trevor Fitts, Jonathan Holder, Jacob Lindgren and redshirt freshmen Tanner Gaines and Ross Mitchell.

2012 SCHEDULE: Mississippi State is scheduled to play a school-record 37 games at Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium in 2012.

The slate of games includes five SEC weekend series (vs. Arkansas, Kentucky, Ole Miss, Tennessee and Vanderbilt) and 12 non-conference foes, including first-time opponents Penn State from the Big 10 Conference and Washington State of the Pacific 12 Conference. The MSU-UT series anchors Super Bulldog Weekend and will begin on Thursday to accommodate Mississippi State's appearance on the ESPNU/SEC Thursday Night Game of the Week television package. Five other Bulldog home games are among at least nine MSU games set for television this season. And the regular season-ending Kentucky series (May 17-19), like the Tennessee series, will be a Thursday-through-Saturday series.

The Diamond Dogs host a pair of three-team, six-game early-season tournaments during a season-opening 17-game homestand. Kansas and Mississippi Valley State take part in the first double round-robin event Feb. 24-26 and Connecticut and Lipscomb visit Starkville for a similar three-day format Mar. 2-4. This is the 12th consecutive year that State has hosted early-season non-conference tournaments.

Outfielder C.T. Bradford, a 2011 Freshman All-American, is one of two returnees among starting position players.

State, ranked among the nation's leaders in strength of schedule in 2011, plays 22 games against teams that competed in the 2011 NCAA Tournament (Alabama, Alcorn State, Arkansas, Auburn, Connecticut, Florida, South Carolina, Southern Miss and Vanderbilt). UConn, like Mississippi State, advanced to the NCAA Super Regionals while two other opponents, Florida and South Carolina, won their Super Regionals and made it all the way to the NCAA Championship Series of the College World Series in Omaha.

State makes a pair of visits to Pearl, Miss., for neutral site games at Trustmark Park, the home of the Atlanta Braves' Class AA Southern League franchise, the Mississippi Braves. MSU meets instate SEC rival Ole Miss April 17 in the sixth annual Governor's Cup and a week later (Apr. 24) takes on Southern Miss. State is the designated home team for both games.

CAN YOU HEAR ME NOW: The sound system at Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium received a major overhaul prior to the start of the 2012 campaign.

A multi-zone sound distribution design incorporating 78 speakers located throughout the stadium and concourse area delivers even and seamless sound throughout the facility. The system is connected with more than four miles of wiring and driven by a powerful 36,000-watt amplification system.

The new computer controlled system replaces the stadium's center field tower and 2,400-watt sound system.

MSU DIAMOND GIRLS

Mississippi State University Diamond Girls

The 2012 season marks the Diamond Girls' 38th season as one of the primary support organizations for Mississippi State University baseball. First organized in 1976, the Diamond Girls handle a wide array of tasks in support of the Mississippi State baseball operation throughout the school year. They are most visible on game days at Dudy Noble Field, serving as hosts and distributing programs to fans as they enter the stadium, operating the stadium's souvenir and gift stand, and serving on the field during games as bat handlers. There are nine newcomers among this year's 25-member squad, which is led by tri-captains Adrienne Glover, a senior from Memphis, Tenn., Steve McKinnis, a junior from Watertown, Tenn., Whitley Winstead, a junior from Madison, Miss.

John Cohen, regarded by many as one of the most innovative coaches in the collegiate baseball ranks, is in his third decade as a collegiate coach and his fourth season as head baseball coach at Mississippi State University in 2012.

Cohen directed Mississippi State back to postseason competition in 2011, marking the second time in his head-coaching career that he has taken a last-place Southeastern Conference team and restored it to national prominence. The Bulldogs compiled a 38-25 record and finished with a No. 15 national ranking after sweeping the NCAA Atlanta Regional and advancing to a deciding third game at the NCAA Gainesville Super Regional.

He was introduced as MSU's 16th head baseball June 7, 2008, exactly 18 years to the day after leaving Omaha, Neb., and the 1990 NCAA College World Series following his final game as a Mississippi State player.

Cohen's return to Starkville, Miss., and Dudy Noble Field completed a success-filled and fast-paced circle that began when the Tuscaloosa, Ala., native first joined the Baseball Bulldog family as a player in 1987. He returned to State seasoned with 17 years of collegiate coaching experience, nine years as a collegiate head coach. Immediately prior to his return to Starkville Cohen enjoyed a successful five-year run as head coach at Southeastern Conference Eastern Division rival Kentucky.

The MSU skipper, an All-Southeastern Conference outfielder during his playing career at Mississippi State, enters his 13th season as a collegiate head coach in 2012 with a 407-283-1 career coaching mark (.590), 86-87 in three seasons at Mississippi State.

Including previous career coaching assignments on the collegiate level at Missouri (1992-97), Northwestern (La.) State (1998-2001), Florida (2002-03) and Kentucky (2004-08),

His prowess as one of the nation's top young hitting instructors has mounted with each step along the way in his coaching career. That coaching expertise garnered nationwide attention in 2006 when, in his third season at Kentucky, he guided the Wildcats to a remarkable worst-to-first finish in the rugged Southeastern Conference.

Under Cohen's direction, Kentucky posted a school-best 44-win season, the school's first Southeastern Conference baseball championship and brought the first NCAA regional baseball tournament to a Lexington campus noted more for its hoops prominence. That team, featuring the likes of All-American standout and SEC Player of the Year Ryan Strieby and All-SEC performers John Shelby and Sean Coughlin, virtually rewrote the Kentucky record book. During a three-year span at Kentucky Cohen produced 13 top 10 round draft picks, ranking among the most in the SEC over that span.

Cohen's coaching efforts did not go unnoticed. He was accorded national coach of the year honors by both the College Baseball Foundation and CollegeBaseballInsider.com. And, for the third time in his career, he was tabbed by his peers for conference coach of the year accolades.

At Mississippi State Cohen has assembled a well-respected and highly-skilled coaching staff featuring coaches well-versed in Mississippi State's colorful baseball tradition, the Magnolia State's high school and junior college programs, and the nation's top college baseball league, the highly-competitive Southeastern Conference.

All the while Cohen has continued to move the MSU baseball program forward.

Mississippi State, annually one of the nation's leaders in college baseball attendance, registered three of its top five all-time baseball season ticket sales marks during Cohen's term, including a school-record 5,632 in 2010. In a program initiated at State by Cohen, many of those tickets are hand-delivered by MSU players to Starkville patrons each year.

Mississippi State players have received All-Southeastern Conference recognition in each of Cohen's three years at State while 11 MSU players have had their names called during the past three Major League Baseball First-Year Player Drafts.

In the all-important recruiting realm, Cohen's first three recruiting classes have garnered top 25 status nationally. His 2009 recruiting class was ranked as the nation's eighth-best by Baseball America, the highest ranking for a State baseball recruiting class since 2000. His second recruiting class, featuring five drafted players, four prep All-Americans, and three players honored as the player of the year in their respective states, was ranked

On the facilities front, Mississippi State's already-impressive baseball plant has seen upgrades totaling nearly $2 million in recent years.

Expanded dugouts, all-new drainage and irrigation systems covered by a new carpet of natural turf and a renovation of the locker room and team areas are among the initial facility upgrades.

The concrete grandstand completed in 1987 that triggered a parade of baseball facility upgrades throughout the SEC was resurfaced and fashioned with all-new chairback seating prior to the 2011 campaign. The latest enhancements at the Bulldogs' home park include a new sound system and a new digital message board on the scoreboard.

Cohen maintains a strong commitment to excellence in the classroom, and twice over the past three years the Diamond Dogs have established records for highest grade points averages. The team's 2011 fall term GPA climbed to a program-best 3.32. Mississippi State's wide lead in all-time academic all-conference awards has grown during Cohen's term at State, with 47 selections to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in three seasons. In addition, 16 MSU freshmen received SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll status the past three seasons, and following the 2010 season veteran Bulldogs Greg Houston and Russ Sneed became the 15th and 16th Diamond Dogs to receive Academic All-America team selection.

Continuing a trademark that has grown during his coaching career, Cohen is a highly sought-after featured speaker and clinician. He has traversed the nation sharing his expertise at numerous baseball clinics in 30 states, including a speaking engagement at the 2010 American Baseball Coaches Association Convention, his third appearance before that body since 2002.

Cohen has also shared his baseball expertise through his recently-released instructional video "All Access with John Cohen", a best-selling video featuring three full days of Mississippi State baseball practice.

Since arriving at Mississippi State, Cohen has maintained a full schedule of speaking engagements at alumni gatherings, civic organization meetings and at baseball banquets on a variety of levels throughout the Magnolia State and beyond.

He rates as one of 22 active college head coaches to have played in the NCAA College World Series. Cohen, the fifth Mississippi State grad to serve as head baseball coach at State, is also one of three current Southeastern Conference head baseball coaches coaching at his alma mater.

Cohen, 45, is married to the former Nelle Bashinsky, also from Tuscaloosa, Ala., and they have two daughters - Jordan Baker and Avery Lawson.

COHEN THE DIAMOND DOG

Mississippi State skipper John Cohen wears a No. 11 baseball jersey. It's the same number he wore during his successful collegiate career as a player at State.

Cohen was an accomplished two-sport prep athlete at Tuscaloosa Academy, earning all-state honors in both baseball and basketball. His TA hoops teams won three straight state titles and a school-record 100 consecutive games. But it was on the baseball diamond as a four-year regular playing for coach Don McNabb that Cohen excelled.

He capped his prep career with a stellar senior season in 1985, the same year that, 90 miles away, the likes of Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Rafael Palmeiro and Bobby Thigpen were leading MSU's Baseball Bulldogs to a school-best third-place finish in the NCAA College World Series.

He inked with Birmingham-Southern following his prep career, and starring in center field as a freshman as a freshman while hitting at a crisp .333 clip and earning team defensive MVP honors. On April 24 that season Cohen made his Dudy Noble Field debut in a Birmingham-Southern uniform, delivering a double, a triple and driving in three runs in a split of a Mississippi State-Birmingham-Southern doubleheader in Starkville.

Cohen transferred to State that fall, sitting out the 1987 campaign as a redshirt before beginning his Diamond Dog career playing under legendary MSU head coach Ron Polk.

He was a key contributor during the most successful three-year span in MSU's storied baseball history. The Bulldogs advanced to an NCAA regional tournament berth in each of Cohen's three seasons as a player, capped by a run to Omaha and the 1990 NCAA College World Series. In 1989, he helped lead the Bulldogs to the SEC championship and a school-record 54 wins. During that span the Bulldogs compiled a 148-46 record (.763) that included two of the program's three 50-win campaigns.

Cohen concluded his career ranked in the top 10 in several statistical categories at Mississippi State and earned first-team All-Southeastern Conference distinction as a senior. He was selected by the Minnesota Twins in the 22nd round of the 1990 Major League Baseball Draft and played two years in the Twins' minor league system.

COHEN THE COACH

In the fall of 1991 Cohen launched his coaching career in Columbia, Mo., where he joined Coach Gene McArtor's University of Missouri baseball coaching staff as a graduate assistant. When Tim Jamieson followed McArtor as the Tigers' head coach after the 1995 campaign, he tabbed Cohen as his chief assistant, hitting coach and recruiting coordinator.

That season, Missouri won the Big Eight championship and advanced to an NCAA regional berth for the first time in 16 years. The Tigers broke nine offensive school records that season, part of John Cohen played in the Minnesota Twins organization (1990-91) and later served as an assistant coach on the 2005 USA National baseball team.

COACHING STAFF

17 total records set by Cohen's offenses over his six years in Columbia.

Following the 1997 season, Cohen headed to Natchitoches, La., and his first head coaching assignment, a four-year term at Northwestern State. His two predecessors at Northwestern State served as head coaches in the Southeastern Conference --- Arkansas' Dave Van Horn and Alabama's recently-retired skipper Jim Wells.

Under Cohen, the Demons compiled a 146-84 (.635) mark and claimed a pair of Southland Conference titles (1998 and 2001). He was named the Southland Conference Coach of the Year during both championship seasons.

His well-rounded clubs set 18 individual and team offensive records during his tenure, while his pitching staff set 10 school marks. The 1998 team posted the nation's fifth-best team earned run average (3.82) while the 1999 edition fashioned college baseball's seventh-best fielding percent-age (.967).

NSU's baseball team also excelled in the classroom, averaging 18 players with grade-point averages of 3.0 or better each semester while notching 3.0 team GPA's in both 1998 and 1999.

Cohen also spearheaded a highly-successful fund-raising campaign for Northwestern State's baseball facility, Brown-Stroud Field. The ball park's grandstand seating increased from 298 to 1,000. All of those seats and then some were needed on April 18, 2001 when a school-record 4,214 fans watched Cohen's Demons knock off defending-national champion LSU.

Cohen established himself as one of the nation's best hitting coaches during a successful two-year stint at the University of Florida as an assistant coach on the staff of Gator head coach Pat McMahon. While in Gainesville, his UF hitters pulverized opposing pitching and led the SEC in nearly every offensive statistical category.

In 2002, Cohen's Gator offense led the nation in hits while ranking second in batting average, runs scored and home runs. That year, Florida paced the Southeastern Conference in nine team categories and set or tied a total of 41 offensive school records (20 team, 21 individual) en route to its most successful season since 1998 (46-19) and a berth in the NCAA Tournament.

At Florida, Cohen coached a pair of consensus All-Americans, Mark Kiger and SEC batting champ Pat Osborn, each of whom batted over .400 and scored more than 100 runs. Cohen's balanced UF offense also included five players hitting 10 or more home runs.

In the 2003 season, Florida's high-octane offense paced the SEC in five offensive categories. For the second straight year two Gators finished in the top five in the league in batting average and Brian Rose became the third Gator to earn All-America honors under Cohen's tutelage. Bolstered by its tremendous offense, Florida earned its second consecutive NCAA regional tournament berth.

BACK IN THE SEC

Cohen's time away from the head coaching circle was brief. After two record-setting seasons at Florida and following the 2003 campaign, Cohen was hired as head coach at the University of Kentucky.

In five seasons as the Wildcats' taskmaster, Cohen guided Kentucky to unprecedented success on the diamond, elevating UK to national prominence.

His teams posted a 175-113-1 (.607) mark over the span, claiming much attention as Cohen developed Kentucky into a major player on the national scene.

After a 24-30 finish in his first season at UK (2004), Cohen directed the '05 Wildcats to a 29-27 finish, the second winning campaign in nine seasons for Kentucky. But that paled in comparison to what followed the next three seasons.

Cohen's 2006 Wildcat edition, sparked by SEC Player of the Year Ryan Strieby, turned many heads when it rolled to a 44-17 mark, the school's first Southeastern Conference baseball championship, and registered the initial worst-to-first one-season turnaround in SEC baseball history. That season and the two that followed saw Cohen's 'Cats virtually rewrite the school record book. He earned national coach of the year plaudits (College Baseball Foundation and CollegeBaseballinsider.com) in 2006, a season which also saw Kentucky host its initial NCAA regional tournament.

Honored as the 2006 SEC Coach of the Year, Cohen directed the Southeastern Conference's best offensive club that season, piling up a school-record 500 runs. His 2007 club hit for a stellar .320 average, just one point shy of the UK school record. That team led the SEC in eight offensive categories and ranked third nationally in home runs, slugging percentage.

The record-breaking parade continued in 2008. UK raced to a 19-0 start, a top five national ranking, and matched its school-best win total with a 44-19 finish. UK advanced to an NCAA regional tournament berth, the second under Cohen and the school's fourth overall. Along the way in 2008 UK racked up school records for highest fielding percentage, putouts, at bats, runs scored, doubles, RBI, sacrifice bunts, sacrifice flies and innings pitched.

More than 1,200 students joined "The Dudes", a baseball support group at Mississippi State University initiated by Bulldog baseball coach John Cohen before the start of the 2012 season.

COACHING STAFF

Lane Burroughs

• Assistant coach (Mississippi College, 1995)

Mississippi native Lane Burroughs is in his fourth year on John Cohen's Mississippi State University baseball staff.

The Meridian, Miss., native joined the MSU staff in June 2008 after having served as an assistant coach in the Big 12 Conference for the Kansas State Wildcats in 2008.

Burroughs, in his 17th season as a baseball coach, is well-schooled in Magnolia State baseball. He played the sport on the high school, junior college and senior college level in Mississippi, and all but three of his first 14 years in the coaching profession have come in the state of Mississippi, including a highly-successful nine-year stint as an assistant coach at Southern Miss.

This is Burroughs's second coaching assignment under John Cohen. He was a member of Cohen's coaching team at Northwestern (La.) State in 1997 and 1998.

At USM Burroughs served as recruiting coordinator, infield coach, and handled in-game duties as USM's coach in the third base coaching box. He excelled in each, but gained much acclaim in his role as hitting coach and in the development of Southern Miss' hitters. He coached seven all-Americans, nine freshman all-Americans, 10 position players that went on to sign professional baseball contracts, five of those as top 10 round selections in the Major League baseball draft.

During his nine-year coaching term on Corky Palmer's USM staff in Hattiesburg, Southern Miss made its first six NCAA post-season regional tournament appearances. Among the Burroughs-coached Golden Eagles that earned all-American status was Jarrett Hoffpauir, who in 2004 reigned as the nation's toughest player to strike out. During Burroughs's stay USM claimed the program's initial C-USA title, set the school mark with 47 wins in 2003 and establish standards for hits, runs scored and RBI in 2004.

Burroughs launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Mississippi College, serving there one season before assuming a post as an assistant coach under Bill Baldner at East Mississippi Community College in Scooba, Miss., in 1997.

He began his coaching association with John Cohen a year later as an assistant coach at Northwestern (La.) State, helping direct the Demons to a 40-20 mark and the 1998 Southland Conference Championship.

Following the 2007 campaign at USM, Burroughs moved from Conference USA to the Big 12 Conference, accepting an assistant coaching position on the staff of Brad Hill at Kansas State University. That season the Wildcats advanced to the championship game of the Big 12 Conference Tournament.

Burroughs played high school baseball at West Lauderdale High School in Collinsville, Miss., where he was coached by Jerry Boatner, one of the all-time winningest coaches in Mississippi high school baseball history, and was a teammate of Mississippi State All-American and Major League pitching standout Jay Powell.

He continued his baseball career at Meridian Community College playing for coach Corky Palmer, where MCC claimed NJCAA Region 23 titles in both 1992 and 1993. Burroughs continued his baseball career at Mississippi College, where he played for coach Tom Gladney the next two seasons and was honored as an All-Gulf South Conference outfielder and the team MVP in 1995, his final campaign with the Choctaws.

At Mississippi State Burroughs works extensively with State's recruiting efforts, which have garnered top 25 national ranking in each of his first three seasons in Starkville.

Burroughs is married to the former Susan Parker of Meridian, Miss., and they are the parents of three children, daughters Parker Grace and Camryn Laine, and son Thomas Jackson.

Bulldog pitching coach Butch Thompson, a native of Amory, Miss., is in his fourth year on John Cohen's baseball coaching staff at Mississippi State University.

Thompson, in his 11th season of coaching in the Southeastern Conference, coaches Mississippi State pitchers and is heavily involved with the recruitment of future MSU baseball players. He joined the MSU coaching staff in June 2008 after having coached the previous three seasons at Auburn.

One of his first pitching pupils at Mississippi State, rookie left-hander Nick Routt, earned freshman All-American and SEC All-Freshman honors in 2009, while in 2010 another Bulldog, right-hander Chris Stratton, became the second consecutive MSU hurler to receive SEC All-Freshman distinction. Relief ace Caleb Reed, a second-team All-SEC selection who ranked eighth in the NCAA with a 1.55 ERA in 2011, became the third Thompson-coached Bulldog pitcher in as many seasons accorded all-conference honors.

The 20-year coaching veteran is regarded as one of the nation's top pitching instructors and has a strong familiarity with baseball in the state of Mississippi. In 2011 Thompson's pitching corps rated as one of the league's most improved, shaving 2.50 points off its staff earned run average and helping spark the Bulldogs to the NCAA Tournament and within a win of the program's ninth berth in the College World Series.

Thompson prepped at Amory (Miss.) High School and later starred as a pitcher at ICC for coach Roy Cresap in 1989 and 1990.

He continued his baseball career the next two seasons at NAIA power Birmingham-Southern, where he helped lead the Panthers, coached by former Mississippi State assistant Brian Shoop, to back-to-back Southern States Conference championships. Daron Schoenrock, who would later serve as an assistant coach at State and head coach at the University of Memphis, coached the pitchers on Shoop's BSC staff.

It would be the first of Thompson's three career affiliations with Shoop and the Panthers baseball program in Birmingham. He launched his coaching career as pitching coach and top assistant to Scot Patterson at Huntingdon College in Montgomery, Ala., then returned to his alma mater in Birmingham, where as an assistant coach he was reunited on the BSC staff with Shoop and Schoenrock from 1994 to 1996. During that span the Panthers won a pair of conference crowns and in 1995 advanced to its first NAIA World Series berth.

Thompson left BSC briefly to serve as head baseball coach at Jefferson State Community College in Birmingham in 1997. While at JSCC he was honored as the Regional Tournament Coach of the Year, the ABCA Alabama Junior College Coach of the Year and the Southeast Region Coach of the Year after guiding JSCC to a 39-21 mark, the AJCAA Region 22 State Championship and a third-place finish in the NJCAA Division II World Series.

He returned to Birmingham-Southern as Shoop's top assistant the following season, beginning a four-year run during the most successful span in BSC baseball history. The Panthers won 196 games and four TranSouth Conference championships and made three consecutive appearances in the NAIA World Series. BSC's 2001 team posted a school-best 55-11 mark and captured the NAIA National Championship.

In 2002 Thompson joined the Southeastern Conference baseball coaching family, beginning a four-year term as pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Georgia under head coach David Perno. Georgia's 2003 recruiting class was ranked 10th nationally and UGA captured the 2004 SEC title and advanced through the NCAA Tournament to the NCAA College World Series.

Following the 2005 campaign he continued his SEC affiliation at Auburn, serving as pitching coach and recruiting coordinator on the staff of Tom Slater. Each of his three recruiting classes at Auburn was ranked among the nation's top 18, including a No. 5 national ranking in 2007.

In 10 seasons as a pitching coach in the Southeastern Conference, Thompson has seen 24 of his pupils selected in the Major League Baseball draft. Junior right-hander Devin Jones, a ninth-round 2011 draft pick and signer of the Baltimore Orioles, is the latest addition to that list.

Thompson, honored as the 2006 Fellowship of Christian Athletes SEC Coach of the Year, has shared his expertise as a featured speaker at numerous baseball coaching clinics throughout the Southeast.

He earned a bachelor's degree in history at BSC in 1992 and completed a master's degree in sports administration at UAB in 1996. He is married to the former Robin Ashe of Birmingham, Ala., and they are the parents of three daughters — Anna, Olivia and Madelyn Gail.

Nick Mingione

• Coordinator of Camps (Embry-Riddle, 2000)

Nick Mingione, who joined the Mississippi State baseball family in June 2008, is in his fourth year as the Bulldogs' coordinator of baseball camps. In addition to his duties directing Mississippi State's popular summer and winter baseball camps, Mingione also serves as a volunteer assistant coach. He works with MSU's outfielders, first basemen and hitters and in-game he serves as MSU's first base coach.

This is Mingione's second coaching affiliation with MSU skipper John Cohen. Mingione, who worked as an assistant coach in 2008 at Western Carolina University in Cullowhee, N.C., served on Cohen's 2006 and 2007 baseball staffs at the University of Kentucky, where he worked extensively with the UK outfielding corps and with the Wildcat hitters. During that span, Kentucky won 78 games, set or reestablished 12 team marks, and posted a school-best 44 wins en route to winning the school's first SEC championship in 2006.

On coach Bobby Moranda's staff at Western Carolina, Mingione was recruiting coordinator and hitting coach, helping direct a Catamount team that in 2008 earned top 40 national ranking among 286 NCAA Division I programs in 11 different offensive categories.

A native of Tarrytown, N.Y., Mingione grew up in Florida and played high school baseball for coach Scott Jones at Mariner High School in Cape Coral, Fla. He continued his baseball career and was a standout outfielder for four years at Embry-Riddle University in Daytona Beach, Fla., where he played for coaches Greg and Todd Guiliams. He earned a bachelor's degree in aerospace studies with a triple minor in business, psychology and humanities in 2000. Upon graduation, Mingione served two years as assistant dean of students and as an assistant coach on Steve Larsen's baseball staff at Mariner High School.

Mingione then moved on to coach on the collegiate level, first as a volunteer assistant baseball coach under Dave Tollet at Florida Gulf Coast University in Fort Myers, Fla., in 2002, and later at his alma mater, Embry-Riddle. The Eagles captured Florida Sun Conference crowns and advanced to the NAIA World Series in Lewiston, Idaho, all three seasons, earning national runner-up honors in 2005.

During nine seasons as an assistant coach, Mingione, 33, has helped direct teams to four conference titles, three advancements to the NAIA World Series and two NCAA regional tournament berths, including MSU's march to the title game of the 2011 NCAA Gainesville Super Regional. Five of the last six recruiting classes Mingione has been associated with have been ranked nationally.

Mingione, is married to the former Christen Reeves of Meridian, Miss.

Ray Berryhill

*Assistant AD/Academic Advising
(Mississippi State, 1980)*

Administering the day-to-day academic needs of the Baseball Bulldogs is Ray Berryhill, in his 23rd year overall with the Mississippi State University Athletic Department.

A native of Gloster, Miss., Berryhill is in his second tour of duty in the department. A 1980 graduate of Mississippi State University, he served first as a graduate assistant coach with the MSU track program. In 1984 he was named supervisor of athletic academics at the University of Alabama, overseeing the academic progress of all Crimson Tide student-athletes.

He returned to State in a similar position as director of athletic academics in January 1989, and in August 2000 was promoted to assistant athletic director for academic advising.

Under his supervision, MSU's student-athletes have enjoyed unprecedented success in the classroom, frequently establishing school records for combined grade point average. Berryhill also serves State's student-athletes as M-Club advisor and through MSU's student housing office supervises on-campus housing for all student-athletes.

An avid turkey hunter, Berryhill, 53, is a member of the National Wild Turkey Federation. He and his wife, the former Amy Huff of Ferriday, La., are the parents of a son, Cody, and a daughter, Caroline.

Joe Dier

*Assistant Media Relations Director
(Mississippi State, 1975)*

Coordinating the publicity needs of the Baseball Bulldogs is Joe Dier, in his 26th year on the Mississippi State staff and his 14th season as the primary media relations contact for MSU baseball and volleyball.

Dier, 58, has been affiliated with Mississippi State athletics and MSU baseball since 1978 — eight years as editor of the sports publication Dawg's Bite and since 1986 as a member of the MSU Athletics Department staff. He also previously served as the sports editor at the Yazoo City (Miss.) Daily Herald and the Starkville (Miss.) Daily News.

A 1975 graduate of Mississippi State University, Dier followed the late Bob Hartley and Bo Carter as MSU's third full-time sports information director in November 1986, initially serving as the primary media contact for all 15 Mississippi State sports. He served as media coordinator for MSU-hosted NCAA regional baseball tournaments in 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990 and 1992 and for MSU's 1991 Liberty Bowl football team. He was named to the board of directors of the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) in 2005 and in 2008-09 served as the organization's president. He is also a charter member of the MSU Chapter of the National Football Foundation & College Football Hall of Fame.

In 1992 he began a four-year term as editor of the weekly athletic department publication Dawg's Bite, returning to sports information work in July 1996.

Dier is a native of Baton Rouge, La. The son of a career Air Force chaplain, he traveled extensively in his youth, following family military assignments in

Greg Drye

*Assistant Strength Coach
(Southern Miss, 1998)*

Greg Drye is in his eighth season with the Bulldog Baseball program, assisting with the implementation of State's comprehensive in-season and off-season strength and conditioning program.

Prior to his arrival at MSU, Drye served as a graduate assistant at Delta State University on the baseball staff of coach Mike Kinnison. Drye coached the outfielders on the DSU teams that captured the Gulf South Conference titles and advanced to the NCAA Division II South Regional in both 1999 and 2000.

Drye then returned to his roots, serving for three years as an assistant baseball coach at Long Beach High School.

The Gulfport, Miss., native is an instructor in the physical education department at Mississippi State. He has also served as an administrative assistant on the MSU baseball staff over the past four seasons, handling a wide array of duties and assisting with the team's advancement to the championship of the 2005 SEC Tournament and to the 2007 NCAA College World Series.

A graduate of Long Beach (Miss.) High School, Drye continued his baseball career at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College, where he earned MJCAA all-state honors as an infielder playing for coach Cooper Farris. He later played baseball under coach Steve Smith at Baylor University.

Drye, 37, earned his undergraduate degree in coaching and sports administration from Southern Miss in 1998 and a graduate degree in physical education, health and recreation at Delta State in 2000. He has a daughter, Dylan.

Brian Neal

*Assistant strength coach
(Bridgewater College, 2005)*

Entering his second season overseeing the strength and conditioning programs for the Bulldog baseball team is Brian Neal.

Neal, 29, is a native of Forest, Va.. He joined the MSU staff in February 2011 following a four-year stint as assistant strength coach at Sam Houston State University.

He trained baseball athletes at Sam Houston State, assisted with football strength training directed the strength training of SHS's track, golf, women's soccer and women's basketball athletes.

Neal was a linebacker on the Bridgewater College football team, and while an undergraduate there served internships with the strength and conditioning programs at Virginia Tech in 2003 and North Carolina in 2004.

Upon graduation at Bridgewater College, where he double-majored in exercise science and allied health sciences, Neal served as a graduate assistant strength coach at Southern Miss (2005-2007), where he earned a graduate degree in sports coaching education. He also served an internship with the United States Olympic Committee (2007), working primarily with Summer Olympic athletes.

He holds certification with NSCA (National Strength and Conditioning Association), the USAW (United States Weightlifting) and CSCCa (Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association).

Neal also coordinates strength and conditioning at Mississippi State for the women's soccer and both the men's and women's golf teams. Away from his duties at MSU Neal also trains and competes in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and Mixed Martial Arts.

Jason Wire

*Assistant Athletic Trainer
(St. Cloud State, 2006)*

Beginning his second season as the athletic trainer for the Baseball Bulldogs is Jason Wire, who joined the Mississippi State University Athletic Department in September 2010.

Wire, 28, is a native of St. Cloud, Minn., and a graduate of St. Cloud State University, where in 2006 he earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology. He began his career in athletic training while attending SCSU, serving as a student athletic trainer working with the Husky baseball, football and hockey programs.

He continued his educational career at San Jose State, earning a graduate degree in athletic training in May 2009. During his two years at San Jose State Wire handled the athletic training needs of the Spartan baseball, the men's and women's soccer and women's tennis teams.

Upon graduation from San Jose State, Wire, a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association, worked for a year in professional baseball in Salisbury, Md. He was an assistant athletic trainer and the head strength and conditioning coach for the Delmarva Shorebirds, the Baltimore Orioles' affiliate in the Class A South Atlantic League.

2011 SEASON IN REVIEW

2011 SEASON IN REVIEW

Mississippi State's 2011 baseball team might be remembered as one that refused to follow the script it was assigned during the preseason.

Coach John Cohen's third Mississippi State edition, picked by the league's coaches and most baseball observers to finish last in the SEC West and on the lower rungs of the conference ladder, did an in-season rewrite of those projections and for good measure included a near-storybook finish, complete with a 38-25 record and a No. 15 national ranking.

For starters, the Diamond Dogs, with a school-best eight-win improvement over its 2010 conference record, challenged for the 2011 SEC Western Division title before finishing at 14-16, a game behind divisional champ Arkansas.

But MSU did much more than merely end a program-longest three-year absence from the postseason scene. The 2011 Diamond Dogs made an impressive return to NCAA tournament competition, sweeping to the championship of the NCAA Atlanta Regional and then extending the No. 2 national-seeded Gators in a three-game thriller at the NCAA Gainesville Super Regional.

State led the SEC co-champion Gators, 6-4 in the seventh inning before Florida rallied to halt MSU's bid for its ninth NCAA College World Series berth.

It was an interesting blend of battle-tested veterans and gifted newcomers that helped State win eight of its first nine games, begin a May stretch run with an eight-game winning streak and then close out its 121st season of baseball with a 4-2 NCAA postseason record.

Senior Jarrod Parks (.363) paced the Bulldogs at the plate, piling up team-leading totals with 77 hits, 44 walks, a school-record 20 HBPs, and a dandy .970 fielding percentage in his first and only season as MSU's starting third baseman. Parks, who led State with 24 multi-hit games, was in contention for the SEC batting crown deep into the 2011 campaign and later was a finalist for the 2011 Cellular South-Ferriss Trophy as the Magnolia State's college player of the year.

Senior second baseman Nick Vickerson (.319, 9 HR, 37 RBI) got the attention of the college baseball world in Gainesville, Fla., when he belted his team-leading eighth and ninth home runs of the season at Florida's McKeithan Stadium. His drama-filled two-run walk-off home run against the Gators moved State into its first Super Regional Game 3 title game. And in that title game, Vickerson launched a three-run blast and later delivered a game-tying RBI single as MSU claimed a 6-4 seventh-inning lead against the eventual national runners-up.

Freshman C.T. Bradford (.303), son of former Bulldog third baseman Mike Bradford, opened his collegiate career in impressive fashion, piling up 74 hits with 34 RBI and 11 stolen bases. The only Bulldog to play in all 63 games, Bradford anchored the MSU outfield in center field, earning tournament MVP honors in the NCAA Atlanta Regional and later receiving Louisville Slugger Freshman All-America team plaudits. He was joined on the SEC All-Freshman team by infielder Adam Frazer.

Two other Bulldog veterans, outfielder Jaron Shepherd (.289) and outfielder/first baseman Ryan Collins (.252) registered 12 and 10 stolen bases respectively as Mississippi State piled up 89 pilfers, the most since 1990.

The Mississippi State pitching corps rated as one of the more improved units in the SEC in 2011. Sixteen different pitchers combined for a 4.39 earned run average, shearing better than 2.50 points off of its 2010 staff ERA.

Sophomore newcomer Luis Pollorena (7-5, 4.45), who made a late season foray into MSU's starting rotation, paced the staff with seven wins. Sophomore righty Chris Stratton (5-7, 5.21), an SEC All-Freshman pick in 2010, led the staff with 76 innings pitched and 76 strikeouts. Junior Caleb Reed (1-2, 1.55 ERA) emerged as one of the nation's top closers, piling up his first 12 career saves and finishing third in the SEC in both ERA and saves. Another newcomer, freshman Evan Mitchell (6-2, 4.62), made a late-season splash and was among seven Diamond Dogs named to the NCAA Atlanta Regional All-Tournament team.

* - SEC Champion + - SEC Tournament Champion # - NCAA Regional Tournament $ - NCAA College World Series

NOTE: SEC baseball competition began in 1933; the first SEC baseball tournament was held in 1977

HONORS & HISTORY

Outfielder Trey Johnson was named the recipient of the inaugural Mike Burns Teammate of the Year Award at MSU. The award, created by teammates of the late All-SEC outfielder, honors the Bulldog player who best embodies the many fine qualities of Mike Burns, a much-respected leader and friend on and off the field for Mississippi State's 1965 and 1966 SEC championship teams.

BULLDOG BASEBALL HISTORY

121 seasons of Mississippi State Baseball

1885

MAY 2 — Mississippi A&M, behind team captain W.J. (Bill) Jennings, defeats Durant 7-2 in the first baseball game in MSU history. Jennings, who holds the distinction of being credited as the first man in Southern college baseball who could throw a curve ball, baffles batters from all over the South in claiming A&M's first 12 wins. His composite four-year record, during which time he pitched every game for the Maroons, was a sparkling 12-1.

OCTOBER 12 — A&M defeats the University of Mississippi 6-3 in its first intercollegiate baseball game. The schools have met 438 times, easily the longest baseball rivalry for both schools.

In 1909 Willie Mitchell struck out 26 LSU batters en route to registering a perfect game, the first in SEC history.

APRIL 11 — Willie Mitchell hurls the first perfect game in Mississippi A&M history by striking out 26 LSU batters and helping the Maroons slip past the Tigers 1-0 in the second game of a twinbill at Baton Rouge, La. Mitchell finishes with a 6-1 worksheet and dazzles his opponents by striking out 97 batters in 56-1/3 innings. Of his six victories, Mitchell throws one no-hitter, two one-hitters, two two-hitters, and one six-hitter.

1918

APRIL 5-6 — Maroon hurlers R.H. Pepper and J.T. Peatross shut down Mississippi College by tossing back-to-back no-hitters. Pepper opens the two-game series by allowing the Choctaws only four walks in a 5-0 A&M win. But his shining accomplishment is overshadowed the following day as Peatross pitches only the second perfect game in MSU history, downing Mississippi College 1-0.

1920

APRIL 5 — Legendary Dudy Noble Field namesake Clarke Randolph "Dudy" Noble coaches his first game at his alma mater, a 5-3 loss to the University of Illinois. Noble will go on to coach at MSU for 26 years, during which time he compiles a 267-201-9 record and wins three Southern Intercollegiate Conference Championships.

C.R. "Dudy" Noble

The 1892 A&M College team was the university's first baseball team outfitted in an official team uniform.

1924

MAY 13 — Two baseball rarities occur in the same game during a campus contest against Mississippi. Not only does A&M retire the Rebels on three straight pitches in one inning, but shortstop C.S. (Buddy) Myer gives the Maroons a much-needed boost by cranking out a grand slam to lead his team to a 6-4 victory. Myer's shot is believed to be the first grand slam in the history of MSU. Myer would go on to play 17 years in the major leagues with Washington and Boston, hitting for a career average of .303.

APRIL 18 — LSU outfielder Joe Bill Adcock launches a shot an estimated 500 feet into the MSU swimming pool at "old" Dudy Noble Field. Adcock would play only one season at LSU before playing 16 years in the major leagues, but his tremendous blow is still talked about by long-time Bulldog baseball fans.

1948

MAY 31 — R.P. "Doc" Patty guides the Bulldogs to their first Southeastern Conference Championship in his initial season as head coach. MSU defeats Auburn in the championship playoff, three games to none, thanks to the efforts of All-SEC outfielder Johnny Grace, who led the Bulldogs with a .375 batting average.

1949

JUNE — Mississippi State College wins its second consecutive SEC Championship by downing Kentucky three games to one in the title series. All-conference infielder Alex Grammas and brother Pete Grammas were crowd favorites in helping lead the Bulldogs to a 19-6 record. Alex Grammas would go on to play 10 seasons in the National League and later coach for the Detroit Tigers.

1965

MAY 9 — Outfielder Del Unser belts three round-trippers and picks up a double to set a single-game team record for total bases with 14. Unser spreads his blasts around, sending a shot to all three fields as the Bulldogs fall to Mississippi, 10-7. The power outburst gives Unser seven homers, all coming in the last six regular-season games.

1965

MAY 22 — Behind conference hits-leader Mike Burns, the Bulldogs top Auburn in the SEC Championship Series, winning two games out of three. After falling to the Tigers in the series opener, MSU battles back with the strong pitching of Ken Tatum, who leads the Bulldogs to 10-1 and 10-2 victories to claim the conference crown. The title marked the first of four won under the guidance of coaching-great Paul Gregory.

1966

APRIL 2 — Pitcher James Carroll hurls 14 innings of four-hit baseball as he out-duels Alabama's Kenny Stabler, 2-1. All-America outfielder Del Unser scores the winning run with two out in the bottom of the 14th.

1966

MAY 14 — Right-hander Ken Tatum starts on only two days rest and shuts down the Tennessee Volunteers 9-3, giving the Bulldogs their second consecutive SEC Championship. The game marked MSU's final appearance at Redbird Park in Columbus, which for two seasons served as the home for of MSU Baseball while their "new" Dudy Noble Field was being built.

1970

MAY 5 — Sophomore left-hander Gene Henderson stymies Arkansas in the nightcap with a no-hit performance that gives the Bulldogs, ranked fifth nationally, a doubleheader sweep over the Razorbacks, 6-0 and 1-0. Henderson, along with conference ERA-leader Dennis Hall (0.63) and wins-leader Brantley Jones (9-0), carries MSU to its fifth SEC title. State drops the first game of the best-of-three championship series against Tennessee but rebounds to claim the final two contests 4-3 and 1-0 at Dudy Noble Field.

President William Giles (left) presents coach Paul Gregory and the Baseball Bulldogs their 1966 SEC Baseball Championship trophy. Mississippi State won back-to-back SEC titles in 1965 and 1966, the first two of four won during Gregory's 18-year term as skipper of the Baseball Bulldogs.

MAY 14 — All-America third baseman Phil Still and All-SEC pitcher Mike Proffitt help lead the Bulldogs to 5-1 and 3-1 victories over Vanderbilt for their second consecutive SEC Championship on the way to a 32-12 record and the school's first-ever appearance in the NCAA College World Series. After defeating the Commodores in two straight games for the league title, MSU then downs Georgia Tech 5-2 in the NCAA District III championship game in Gastonia, N.C., to become the fifth team from the SEC to advance to CWS competition.

BULLDOG BASEBALL HISTORY

1972 APRIL 14 — Dudy Noble Field hosts its first night game thanks to a new lighting system. MSU alumnus E.B. "Dutch" McCool, a former teammate of coach Paul Gregory, donates the lights to his alma mater, allowing the Bulldogs to play games at night when it is more convenient for fans to attend. McCool was one of the original founders of Holiday Inn.

1976 MARCH 8 — New Mississippi State head coach Ron Polk wins his first game as the Bulldog skipper, 4-0 over Louisiana Tech. MSU finishes the season 28-17, which begins a streak of 32 consecutive winning seasons for Mississippi State.

1977 MARCH 19 — Junior outfielder Nat Showalter begins the season with a modest six-game hitting streak in which he hits .700 (14-for-20) on his way to posting the MSU single-season record for batting average. Showalter, who later would skipper the New York Yankees, the Arizona Diamondbacks, the Texas Rangers and the Baltimore Orioles, hits a gaudy SEC-leading .459 as he garners numerous all-America honors.

1979 MAY 14 — Down 11-9 with one out in the bottom of the eighth, designated hitter Rick Dixon launches a slider nearly 400 feet over the left-center field fence for a three-run homer in the SEC Championship final. The win gives fourth-year head coach Ron Polk his first conference title in the first SEC Tournament held at Dudy Noble Field.

1979 MAY 27 — After falling to nationally-ranked New Orleans in the opening game, the Bulldogs successfully sweep through the loser's bracket to claim the NCAA South Regional Championship. An 8-6 win over Murray State in the championship game of the first NCAA regional at Dudy Noble Field lifted MSU to its second appearance all-time in the prestigious NCAA College World Series.

1981 MARCH 15 — Junior first baseman Bruce Castoria sets a school record and ties the conference mark by driving in 10 runs against UNLV in Las Vegas. Castoria, who would set another school record by cranking four grand slams on the year, hits his second of the season against the Runnin' Rebels, along with a three-run shot, an RBI single and two walks with the bases loaded to account for his 10 RBI.

1981 MAY 24 — State jumps out to an early six-run lead and holds off a late rally by East Tennessee State to win the NCAA Atlantic Regional Championship at Clemson, S.C., 6-5. The Bulldogs would go on to finish fifth nationally at the NCAA College World Series.

1983 FEBRUARY 25 — Freshman Rafael Palmeiro slaps the first pitch he sees as a collegian over the right field fence for a three-run homer during the season-opener against Mississippi College. Palmeiro, who would later pile up 3,020 hits and 569 home runs in a remarkable 20-year pro career, proceeds to hit safely in his first 20 games en route to a team-high and SEC-best .406 batting average.

1983 APRIL 2 — Future major league slugger Will Clark hits his first collegiate home run, an eighth-inning grand slam to straight-away center field, to help lead MSU to a 27-10 pounding over rival Mississippi. The following day, Clark comes in late as a pinch runner and scores the winning run in a 7-6 come-from-behind victory over the Rebels.

1985 MAY 12 — Behind strong pitching and excellent defense, the Bulldogs overpower the field in three games to win the SEC Tournament at LSU's second player taken overall during baseball's June draft by the San Francisco Giants. Clark still ranks as MSU's all-time career leader in batting average (.391).

1987 MARCH 1 — The "new" Dudy Noble Field re-opens its gates to 4,040 fans who brave the chilly weather and experience what is considered by many to be the nicest baseball stadium in all of college baseball. The $3.5 million showcase consists of 3,700 chair-back seats, two 1,500-seat bleachers down each line, and the spacious Joe Phillips Press Box. MSU doesn't disappoint the home crowd, downing Birmingham-Southern 4-1.

1987 MAY 14 — Freshman center fielder Jody Hurst blasts two homers and Mississippi State scores four runs in the bottom of the ninth to lead the sixth-seeded Bulldogs over top-seeded Georgia, 6-5, in the opening round of the SEC Tournament in Athens, Ga. MSU swept three games from Alabama in the final regular season series to qualify for the tournament and won four straight SEC Tournament games to claim the championship and earn a spot in an NCAA Regional.

1988 APRIL 16 — Mississippi State shatters its own NCAA on-campus attendance record (10,619) as 14,378 Bulldog faithful jam Dudy Noble Field for MSU's doubleheader split with LSU. The following evening, State plays its fifth regular-season game ever on ESPN, besting the Tigers 1-0 on the strength of outfielder John Cohen's fifth-inning solo shot to center field.

1989 APRIL 22 — Mississippi State once again sets the NCAA on-campus attendance record when a crowd of 14,991 witness the Bulldogs' doubleheader sweep of Florida. Junior second baseman Burke Masters caps the evening off in fine fashion by drilling a solo shot into the famous Outfield Terrace during the Bulldogs' final at-bat to lift MSU over the Gators 5-4.

1989 APRIL 30 — Coach Ron Polk's Bulldogs claim their third SEC Championship in five years and the 10th in school history by winning a 28-16 slugfest at Kentucky, setting the single-game team record for most hits (30) and tying the record for most home runs (6). Junior outfielder Tracy Echols ties an SEC record by recording six hits in the contest.

1989 May 25-28 — Dudy Noble Field hosts its fifth NCAA regional in six years. The 1989 South Regional draws an NCAA-record 56,906 fans during the 11-game event, an average of 5,173 per game.

All-American Will Clark (center) helped point the Bulldogs to their highest finish ever (3rd) in 1985. That highly-celebrated team also featured future pro stars Jeff Brantley, Rafael Palmeiro and Bobby Thigpen.

Alex Box Stadium, clinching the title with an 8-3 win over Georgia.

1985 MAY 27 — MSU tops Michigan 19-8 in the championship game of the NCAA South I Regional to earn its third trip to the NCAA College World Series under Ron Polk. Right fielder/relief pitcher Bobby Thigpen, who a year before hit a grand slam in his first career at-bat at Dudy Noble Field, shines in his home finale by cranking another bases-loaded blast. MVP Jeff Brantley is among seven Bulldogs named to the 11-player all-tournament team.

1985 OCTOBER 23 — The United States Baseball Federation names Mississippi State all-American Will Clark the recipient of the Golden Spikes Award, amateur baseball's most prestigious honor. Clark had been the State captured its first two SEC baseball titles in 1948 and 1949 playing at the original Dudy Noble Field site, shown in this 1949 photo. Following the 1964 season the bleachers and grandstand were dismantled and moved to the present stadium site to make way for the construction of Dorman Hall.

Team and school officials gathered at Dudy Noble Field on May 4, 1986 to break ground on the new grandstand. Demolition crews needed less than a week to remove the old grandstand and ready the site for construction.

BULLDOG BASEBALL HISTORY

NCAA South II Regional MVP Burke Masters is mobbed by fans and media after the Bulldogs downed Florida State 4-3 to clinch a berth in the 1990 NCAA College World Series.

1990 MAY 28 — Jon Shave drives in Tommy Raffo with two out in the top of the eighth to cap a three-run MSU rally and give State a 4-3 win over Florida State in the championship game of the NCAA South II Regional in Starkville. With the win, MSU earns its fifth trip to the College World Series in Omaha, Neb. Five Bulldogs were named to the all-tournament team, including MVP Burke Masters, whose dramatic ninth-inning grand slam against Florida State had earlier provided MSU with an 11-8 victory.

1990 MAY 21 — Left-hander B.J. Wallace strikes out 19 Nicholls State batters in 10 innings of work at the NCAA Midwest Regional in Starkville, setting a new MSU single-season record with 145 strikeouts. His mark breaks the old record of 136 set by Jeff Brantley in 1985. A month later Montreal made Wallace the No. 3 pick in pro baseball's June draft.

1993 MAY 8 — State plays its 1,000th Southeastern Conference game, defeating in-state rival Mississippi 10-2 in the first game of a doubleheader at Oxford.

1994 MARCH 30 — Head coach Ron Polk notches his 900th career coaching win as the Bulldogs defeat in-state rival Mississippi in the 15th annual Mayor's Trophy Game in Jackson, Miss. Polk became only the 16th college baseball coach all-time and the 13th active Division I coach to have 900 career victories. In his 35 seasons as a head coach, Polk has amassed a 1,373-700-2 career record to rank seventh among college baseball's all-time winningest coaches.

1994 OCTOBER — Mississippi State's 10-man recruiting class is ranked the nation's best by Collegiate Baseball magazine, the highest national ranking for a class of MSU baseball newcomers.

1995 JANUARY 7 — Mississippi State head coach Ron Polk is inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame. Polk joins 160 other all-time amateur baseball coaching greats enshrined in the ABCA Hall of Fame, coach C.R. "Dud" Noble, inducted in 1967, and Paul Gregory, who joined the group in 1977.

1996 MAY 23-25 — State returns to the NCAA postseason playoffs after a two-year absence, traveling to Palo Alto, Calif., to compete in the NCAA West Regional. Sophomore ace lefty Eric DuBose, who fanned 174 batters in 1996 to establish an MSU single-season strikeout record, went the distance in MSU's 6-2 win over California-Santa Barbara.

1997 FEBRUARY 27 — With MSU's 11-4 win over Delta State at Dudy Noble Field, coach Ron Polk becomes the 16th college coach to reach 1,000 career wins.

1997 APRIL 19 — In ceremonies prior to the Mississippi State-Alabama game, MSU's baseball facility is renamed Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium in honor of coach Ron Polk and a longtime MSU baseball fan from Indianola, Miss., the late Gordon DeMent. In the game, MSU downs the eventual NCAA runners-up in an 11-10 thriller.

1997 JUNE 5 — After hosting and winning the NCAA Midwest Regional and finishing tied for fifth at the College World Series in Omaha, Neb., MSU announces the retirement of head baseball coach Ron Polk and introduces Pat McMahon as the school's 14th head baseball coach. Polk, remaining on staff with the MSU administration in fund raising, announced August 18 the beginning of a drive to expand seating by more than 1,000 at the MSU stadium, including the addition of 18 sky suites.

1998 FEBRUARY 17 — Mississippi State launches the coaching era of Pat McMahon at Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium with the Diamond Dogs' season opener against South Alabama. The Jaguars, who eventually advanced to the finals of the 1998 NCAA East Regionals, emerge with a closely-contested 14-13 win in a 12-inning marathon that lasted four hours and 30 minutes. It is the earliest home opener in the first 108 seasons of MSU Baseball.

1998 MAY 24 — The Bulldogs complete a remarkable late-season surge, downing host Texas A&M 11-5 in the title game of the NCAA Central Regional at College Station, Texas, to earn the school's first repeat appearance in the NCAA College World Series. State claims one-run wins over Washington, Rice and Texas A&M to reach the regional finals. Earlier, State won eight of its last 11 SEC games, qualifying for the SEC Tournament on the final weekend of the season and earning an at-large berth in the NCAA regionals. In the summer, construction gets underway on the sky suites/stadium expansion project at Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium.

2000 MAY 28 — Ty Martin launches a dramatic solo home run in the bottom of the ninth to give MSU a 10-9 win over Notre Dame in the championship game of NCAA Starkville Regional. The tournament attendance (47,365) sets an NCAA four-team regional record while the seven-game average (6,766) was the largest for an NCAA regional. Earlier MSU set a school record by selling 4,555 season tickets at expanded Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium.

2001 MARCH 13 — MSU stages a two-run rally with two outs in the ninth to post a 6-5 win at New Orleans and become the 18th NCAA baseball program to reach the 2,000-win milestone. For the second consecutive year MSU fans break the school season ticket sales record by purchasing 4,585 season tickets.

2001 MAY 20 — Freshman Paul Maholm and sophomore Chris Young limit defending NCAA champ LSU to one run as the Bulldogs top the Tigers 4-1 in the championship game of the 2001 SEC Baseball Tournament in Hoover, Ala. It is the second tourney win in relief for Young, who earns tournament MVP honors.

2001 JUNE 19 — Ron Polk, the winningest coach in SEC history, is named head baseball coach at Mississippi State, replacing four-year MSU skipper Pat McMahon, who resigned to become head baseball at Florida. In 2001 Polk capped a two-year term at Georgia and became the second coach in NCAA history to guide teams at three different schools to the College World Series when he directed UGA to an SEC title and a trip to Omaha.

2005 MAY 29 — Mississippi State defeats instate rival Mississippi 4-1 to complete a four-game tourney sweep and capture the 2005 SEC Baseball Tournament at the Hoover Met. It is MSU's sixth SEC Tournament championship and vaults State on to its ninth NCAA regional tournament in the past 10 seasons.

2007 JUNE 8-9 — After winning the NCAA Tallahassee Regional in three games, Mississippi State hosted its first NCAA Super Regional June 8-9, knocking off Clemson 8-6 and 8-5 to earn the school's eighth berth in the NCAA College World Series. An NCAA Super Regional-record 26,335 jammed Dudy Noble Field for the two 11:30 a.m. games televised nationally on ESPN. With a single in MSU's regional-clinching 9-4 win at Florida State, senior second baseman/outfielder Jeffrey Rea breaks the MSU record for career hits, and with four hits at the College World Series, Rea concludes his career with 335 hits.

2007 JUNE 27 — In Wichita, Kans., junior catcher Edward Easley is named the recipient of the Johnny Bench Award as college baseball's best catcher. A supplemental first-round draft pick of the Arizona Diamondbacks, Easley earlier claimed college baseball's top honor in Mississippi, the Cellular South Ferriss Trophy.

2008 MARCH 27 — Head coach Ron Polk announces that the 2008 season, his MSU's Edward Easley received the 2007 Johnny Bench Award as college baseball's top catcher.

29th at Mississippi State and his 35th in collegiate baseball, would be his final season as head coach of the Baseball Bulldogs. The Bulldogs ended the year with a 23-33 mark, the only sub-500 season of his coaching career, and Polk concluded his career with 1,373 wins, seventh most in NCAA baseball history.

2008 JUNE 7 — Former State standout John Cohen is introduced by Director of Athletics Greg Byrne as MSU's 16th head baseball coach. Cohen, with previous coaching stints at Missouri, Northwestern State, Florida and Kentucky, was an All-SEC outfielder at State, helping the Bulldogs set the school-record for wins (54) en route to the 1989 SEC baseball championship.

2009 JULY 3 — Former MSU coach Ron Polk and MSU and MLB great Rafael Palmeiro are among 10 inductees in the fourth class of the College Baseball Hall of Fame in Lubbock, Texas. They join a third player with MSU ties enshrined in the hall of fame, former State great Will Clark, a member of the inaugural hall of fame induction class in 2006.

2010 JUNE 18 — Former MSU and MLB great Will Clark leads the national fan balloting for the College World Series Legends Team, honoring the sport's all-time greats that competed in the 60 College World Series held at old Rosenblatt Stadium.

2011 JUNE 12 — Nick Vickerson swats a dramatic two-run walk-off home run against No. 1 national seed Florida to send the Bulldogs to the title game of the NCAA Tallahassee Super Regional. State, which earlier won the NCAA Atlanta Regional with a 3-0 mark, built up a 6-4 seventh-inning lead in the title game before bowing to the eventual national runners-up. MSU's advancement to NCAA postseason play was its 31st all-time and first since 2007.

MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY

The foyer of the new Templeton Athletic Academic Building

MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY

Mississippi State is a comprehensive land-grant institution and the largest university in Mississippi, with a statewide fall enrollment of 20,484 students.

Established in 1878 as the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Mississippi, the university has traditional strengths in engineering and scientific agriculture, but has evolved into a comprehensive institution with a diverse array of programs in teaching, research and service.

Emerging areas of national prominence are computational science and information assurance; applied social sciences; materials and devices; biomedical sciences; and energy systems, among others.

Academics and Student Life

Mississippi State students consistently earn honors such as the prestigious Harry S. Truman Scholarship, awarded for those who will enter public service, and, with 16 Truman Scholars to date, the university has been recognized as a Truman Honor Institution. In the past year, a student team competed for and won first place in a national Challenge X competition to redesign a fuel-efficient and environmentally-friendly SUV.

Recently initiated programs are providing opportunities to develop leadership potential and global study options.

The University's Global Leadership Continuum provides "cradle-to-CEO" programming designed to develop leadership across a "global" spectrum that begins with high school and continues through the university experience and into professional life. Included are the Young Guns Leadership Camp for rising high school seniors; the Day One Leadership Community for incoming freshmen, focusing on shared academic and service experiences; and the highly-competitive Appalachian Leadership Honors Program for sophomores and juniors.

To complement these efforts, the university has launched a minor in leadership studies open to students in all majors. A university honor code adopted in 2007 institutionalizes a campus culture of integrity and personal responsibility in academic studies. Through the Global Leadership Program, students may experience significantly expanded opportunities for study abroad.

Under the leadership of President Mark Keenum, Mississippi State has placed an increased emphasis on outreach that serves and improves the state, and has re-energized private fund-raising efforts to support student scholarships and faculty support.

In 2009, Forbes magazine ranked MSU 18th nationally among schools where students "get the most quality for each tuition dollar spent." Mississippi State was given a higher designation than all other Mississippi public and private institutions of higher learning by the prestigious business publication.

Research

Among the nation's leading major research universities, Mississippi State has been designated by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching as a "very high research activity university," which represents the highest level of research activity for doctorate-granting universities in the U.S.

Mississippi State is the only school in the state with the distinction, and one of only 108 nationwide.

Of special note, MSU also holds the Carnegie Foundation's Community Engagement Classification. These designations illustrate Mississippi State's research commitment and capabilities, as well as the university's culture of engagement with the communities it serves.

Mississippi State possesses research strengths across all of its colleges, and is home to discipline-leading research centers and institutes that have been recognized nationally.

Not only a leader in research, Mississippi State is also making a difference in bringing high-technology jobs to our state. MSU has been an integral partner with local, regional and state economic developers, and repeatedly demonstrated that our research is exceptional, our service-oriented attitude solves vexing challenges to industry, and our students are ready to step into important positions on day one.

In FY 2010, the university secured $201 million in external research funding. In its most recent reporting of academic research and development expenditures (FY 2009), the National Science Foundation ranked Mississippi State 60th among public institutions for total R&D spending. Among all institutions — public and private — the university's expenditures in agricultural sciences ranked 6th nationally with engineering 35th.

Outreach and Service

From its academic programs to the work of countless individuals, Mississippi State has "extended farther" and gone "beyond the limit" to make a difference in the lives of citizens around the state.

In 2006, the University formed the Mississippi State Community Action Team to organize university resources and expertise for quick response to local issues around the state. MSU's Extension Service is the first in the nation to have an interactive videoconferencing system in every county Extension office. Through the Freedom Calls program, the system is being used to connect Mississippians with family members in the U.S. military serving our country in Iraq.

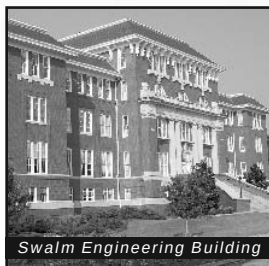

The MSU Extension Service maintains offices in almost every county of the state, and the Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Experiment Station (MAFES) operate 10 branch stations throughout Mississippi. Four strategically located research and extension centers coordinate the delivery of services statewide.

Specialists and faculty members at the university develop curricula on a wide range of topics that are delivered by county Extension agents to people across the state, close to where they live and work.

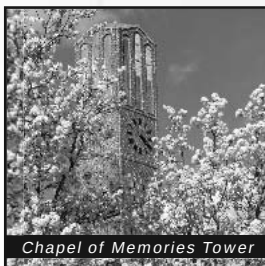

Through annual programs, such as MSU's Service DAWGS, students, faculty and staff reach out to the community to help with an identified need. In 2009, the university was named to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll by the Corporation for National and Community Service. The Washington, D.C.-based federal agency recognized the university's "exemplary service efforts and service to America's communities."

MSU PRESIDENT/DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Dr. Mark E. Keenum

President

Dr. Mark Everett Keenum became Mississippi State University's 19th president Jan. 5, 2009, following a distinguished public service career.

After completing his bachelor's and master's degrees in agricultural economics at Mississippi State, Dr. Keenum joined the university faculty in 1984 as a marketing specialist with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service. Two years later, he accepted a position as a research associate with the Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Experiment Station at MSU.

He continued his education at the university, in 1988 receiving a doctorate in agricultural economics, and he joined the faculty of that department as an assistant professor/economist. During his professional tenure at Mississippi State, his primary research and extension work focused on the marketing and economics of aquaculture, specialty crops and forestry. He continued his faculty ties at the university 1997-2006 as an adjunct professor, teaching an annual course on agricultural legislative policy.

Prior to being named president of Mississippi State in November 2008, Dr. Keenum served as Under Secretary of the U.S. Department of Agriculture for two years, where he provided leadership and oversight for the Farm Service Agency, the Risk Management Agency and the Foreign Agricultural Service. The mission area, comprised of the three agencies, had a total operating budget of $1.7 billion and approximately $40 billion in program authority. The three agencies employed more than 16,500 people at more than 2,300 offices nationwide and 98 locations around the globe.

In 1989, Dr. Keenum joined the Washington, D.C., staff of U.S. Senator Thad Cochran as Legislative Assistant for Agriculture and Natural Resources. As Sen. Cochran's adviser on agricultural affairs, he worked on numerous issues important to U.S. agriculture, including the 1990, 1996, and 2002 Farm Bills. From 1996-2006, he served as Chief of Staff for Sen. Cochran. In this role, Dr. Keenum was the chief adviser to the senator on political, legislative and appropriations issues.

He also was responsible for managing all administrative and legislative functions of Sen. Cochran's Washington, D.C., office and three Mississippi offices, including direct oversight of the U.S. Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry and the U.S. Senate Committee on Appropriations.

Dr. Keenum and his wife Rhonda have four children.

Scott Stricklin

Director of Athletics

Seasoned with more than two decades of inter-collegiate experience in communications, fundraising and marketing, Scott Stricklin has continued to build upon the momentum of the Mississippi State fan base over his first year as the director of athletics.

From his first day on the job as Mississippi State's Athletic Director in May 2010, Stricklin, using the department's foundation of focusing on student-athletes, possessing great integrity and aggressively promoting Mississippi State, has overseen a year in which the Bulldogs enjoyed successes both on and off the field.

The Bulldog football team, on the heels of a nine-win 2010 season that included a rout of Michigan in the Gator Bowl, registered a third-consecutive win over in-state rival Ole Miss before knocking off Wake Forest in the 2011 Music City Bowl. The Bulldog tennis team claimed the 2011 SEC Western Division title while the baseball team advanced to the NCAA Super Regional finals, where they came within seven outs of the school's ninth advancement to the NCAA College World Series.

Bulldog student-athletes have again excelled in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, with all 16 sports far exceeding the minimum standard and 15 of 16 sports improving upon their previous year total.

Stricklin has overseen planning for new facilities, including the Mize Pavilion at Humphrey Coliseum, a new football practice and training complex as well as future expansion and upgrades to MSU's football home, Scott Field.

Recently, the Bulldog Club announced the most ambitious fundraising drive in the athletic department's history --- an initiative called "Today, Tomorrow, Forever" designed to generate funding for new construction and upgrades to existing facilities.

A 1992 graduate of Mississippi State, the Jackson, Miss., native's resume is highlighted by nearly two dozen years of experience on the collegiate level in various capacities at five different universities.

Prior to assuming his current post as AD at State, Stricklin served as Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs, overseeing fundraising, football and men's basketball scheduling, managing MSU's all-sport agreement with Adidas, facility planning and serving as the administrative liaison for men's basketball and softball.

Prior to graduating from State, Stricklin's stint in the MSU media relations office included three seasons (1990-92) as the media contact for MSU baseball. Upon graduation, he was named assistant media relations director.

He continued to climb the ladder of success with stops at Auburn, Tulane, Baylor and at Kentucky, where he spent five seasons as Associate AD for Media Relations.

Stricklin, 41, is married to the former Anne Howell, the youngest daughter of Basketball Hall of Fame member Bailey Howell. The couple has two daughters, Abby and Sophie.

SEC Baseball Tournament
Regions Park (Hoover, Ala.)

• Includes Thursday night ESPNU series-opener

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 78-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

SEC baseball posted another banner season in 2011 as the conference advanced seven teams to NCAA postseason play — Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi State, South Carolina and Vanderbilt. Three of those, Vanderbilt, Florida and South Carolina, marched on to the NCAA College World Series, marking the 26th time in the last 27 years that the Southeastern Conference has had representation in college baseball's "elite eight" in Omaha. The Gamecocks and Gators advanced to the title series, marking the seventh time since 2000 that an SEC team has played for the national title. USC knocked off Florida for the 2011 crown to give the SEC its fourth consecutive NCAA baseball championship.

South Carolina, Florida and Vanderbilt shared the SEC overall title and Eastern Division crown with 22-8 league records, while Arkansas posted a 15-15 mark to win a tight SEC West race. Florida topped Vandy to claim the 2011 SEC Tournament in Hoover, Ala.

The Southeastern Conference boasts of 11 former National Players of the Year, 10 Baseball America Coach of the Year and eight Collegiate Baseball Coach of the Year honorees. Additionally, 147 student-athletes have been accorded all-America team honors, including four in 2010.

Six SEC baseball players had their names called in the first round of Major League Baseball's 2011 First-Year Player Draft in June. The SEC has now had at least one player drafted in the first round each year since 1991 and 89 overall during that span.

The SEC solidified its position as the nation's attendance leader in college baseball in 2011, with SEC teams holding down five of the top six spots nationally in both overall and average home attendance. The 12 teams combined to draw a record of more than two million fans to their on-campus baseball facilities, with seven teams eclipsing the 100,000 mark in paid home attendance. The SEC averaged a record 4,990 fans per game in 2011, marking the fifth consecutive year average paid attendance surpassed the 4,000 mark.

ABOUT THE SEC

Mississippi State University is a charter member of the Southeastern Conference, a pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition and a national leader as intercollegiate athletics marches on into the 21st century.

Centrally headquartered in Birmingham, Ala., the Southeastern Conference is comprised of 12 universities that span a nine-state area, conducting championships in 11 women's and nine men's sports. The member schools are split into two divisions. Mississippi State is joined in the SEC West by instate rival Mississippi, Louisiana State, Alabama, Auburn and Arkansas. The Eastern Division features Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. All but Arkansas and South Carolina were among 13 charter members of the SEC, with those schools joining the league for competition in 1991-92. The SEC will undergo further transformation in 2012-13 when Missouri and Texas A&M join the league.

SEC ON TV

SEC baseball's television exposure, bolstered in 2010 by the league's landmark 15-year agreement with cable sports giant ESPN, gives the league unparalleled television exposure.

In 2010, the first year of the SEC-ESPN agreement, 10 regular season games and the 2010 SEC Baseball Tournament title game were televised by the ESPN family of networks, with dozens of other SEC baseball games were televised regionally by the league's TV partners FOX Sports Network, SportSouth and Comcast Sports Southeast.

Last spring the SEC partnered with ESPNU in 2011 to launch a groundbreaking seven-game Thursday night SEC Game of the Week series, which continues in 2012. Mississippi State's Super Bulldog Weekend series (Apr. 19-21) against Tennessee has been moved for inclusion in the popular Thursday night TV package.

SEC TOURNEY

The SEC conducts a postseason tournament at the end of a 10-weekend, 30-game league schedule. The winner receives the league's automatic qualifying bid for the NCAA baseball tournament.

The SEC tournament field expands from eight to 10 teams in 2012. The teams with the 10 highest conference winning percentages qualify for the double-elimination SEC tournament, and divisional champions receive an opening round tournament bye in the double-bracket event. The winners of each bracket meet in a nationally-televised championship game.

The 2012 SEC Tournament (May 22-27) will be the league's 36th dating back to 1978. And for the 17th time overall and the 15th consecutive year, the event will be staged in Hoover, Ala., at the recently-renovated Regions Park, the 10,800-seat home of the Class AA Southern League's Birmingham Barons (Chicago White Sox). The facility can accommodate crowds of up to 16,000. The 2011 tourney drew almost 100,000 fans and averaged nearly 7,000 fans per game. MSU has won six SEC Baseball Tournament championships, second-most in the league, and half of those tournament crowns were won in Hoover, Ala.

POINTS OF PRIDE

- The NCAA College World Series in Omaha, Neb., has taken on a distinctive SEC flavor over the last few decades. The SEC has sent 46 teams to the CWS since 1990, including 12 appearances by LSU, six by Georgia, five each by South Carolina and Florida and four by Mississippi State. Ten of the league's 12 schools have advanced to the College World Series since 1990. Overall, LSU has made 15 trips to the national championship tournament while Mississippi State is second with eight CWS appearances.

- Including the 2011 title, SEC teams have won nine of the last 22 national championships while claiming runner-up honors five times over that span. The SEC has missed having a team in college baseball's "final four" only five times since 1990.

- Since 1990, SEC squads have combined for 145 NCAA Tournament bids, an average of nearly seven per season. The SEC has sent an NCAA-record nine teams to the NCAA Tournament three times --- in 2004, 2005 and 2008. Additionally, an NCAA-high five SEC teams served as regional hosts in 2004 and 2006.

- Three SEC teams posted 50-win seasons in 2011, and league teams fashioned a 249-82 record (75.2 %) against non-conference opponents last spring.

- National champ South Carolina finished atop the national rankings at the end of the 2011 campaign. In the final USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll, USC, Florida and Vanderbilt lined up to give the Southeastern Conference a unique 1-2-3 sweep of the poll's top three positions. Five SEC teams appeared in at least one of the final national rankings.

DUDY NOBLE FIELD, POLK-DEMENT STADIUM

The 2012 campaign marks the 46th season of baseball at the current site of Mississippi State baseball's on-campus home diamond, Dudy Noble Field. MSU first settled into Dudy Noble Field at its current site in 1967, and over the past five decades the facility has evolved into the nation's largest campus facility for college baseball and what many regard as the sport's finest all-around baseball complex.

MSU has eclipsed the 200,000 mark in paid attendance at Dudy Noble Field five times in the past 10 years, including a school-record 233,015 in 2003 and a school-best average of 6,939 during MSU's run to the 2007 NCAA College World Series. Since home attendance figures were first charted in 1976, the home of the Diamond Dogs has drawn more than 4.5 million fans.

The field is named in honor of longtime MSU baseball coach, athletic director and ABCA Hall of Famer Clarke Randolph "Dudy" Noble. And on April 27, 1998 the facility was renamed Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium, honoring another ABCA Hall of Famer, former Bulldog skipper Ron Polk and the late Gordon DeMent, a successful businessman and longtime fan of the Baseball Bulldogs from Indianola, Miss.

Dudy Noble Field, the home to seven Southeastern Conference championship teams, has twice hosted crowds in excess of 14,000, including an NCAA on-campus-record 14,991 that watched the Bulldogs take on SEC Eastern Division rival Florida in a Saturday twinbill in 1989. State has hosted crowds of 10,000 or better 25 times, including 2007 NCAA Super Regional-record draws of 13,715 and 12,620 for nationally-televvised late morning games against Clemson. MSU has hosted three NCAA District III tournaments (1973-1975), five SEC tournaments (1979, 1981, 1983, 1988 and 1995), 11 NCAA Regional tournaments (1979, 1984, 1985, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1992, 1997, 2000 and 2003) and its first NCAA Super Regional in 2007.

From 1929 until 1964, Mississippi State hosted its baseball games at the original on-campus site for Dudy Noble Field several hundred yards to the south of Scott Field, State's football stadium. The baseball field was closed following the 1964 season to make way for the construction of Dorman Hall. And for the next two seasons, while the "new" Dudy Noble Field was being built, the Diamond Dogs played their home games in Columbus at Redbird Park capturing SEC titles both seasons at their temporary Columbus home. Meanwhile, the tin-roofed grandstand and 2,000-seat bleachers at the old field were moved to the stadium's present site, which became playable for the 1967 season.

Facility enhancements have followed a steady pace over the years ever since.

In 1971, thanks to the generosity of the late E.B. "Dutch" McCool, a former MSU baseball player and one of the founding fathers of Holiday Inns, Inc., MSU took the lead in the Southeastern Conference with the installation of a lighting system. The advent of night baseball in Starkville helped build a solid fan base. Drainage and irrigation systems and an expanded scoreboard with an animation-equipped message center, new batting ranges and an infield tarp became the stadium's next improvements.

Mississippi State hosted its first SEC Baseball Tournament and NCAA Regional in 1979, winning both and setting attendance marks while opening eyes along the way.

The crowds mushroomed further in the 1980s as future Major League stars Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Rafael Palmeiro and Bobby Thigpen helped the 1985 Bulldogs win the SEC championship, host and win another regional championship and earn MSU's highest national finish, a tie for third place at the NCAA College World Series.

It became apparent that support for baseball at State had easily out-grown its cozy Dudy Noble Field facility. Two years after that magical '85 season Mississippi State unveiled a dramatic advancement for its baseball facilities — an impressive $3.5 million project that would give MSU the biggest baseball stadium in the league.

The new facility at Dudy Noble Field, built in less than nine months, featured an impressive concrete grandstand structure with 3,700 maroon theater-style seats, a spacious elevated press box, and rest room, ticket, souvenir and concession-vending facilities. The team clubhouse featured a spacious 40-locker dressing room and team area. A pair of 1,500-seat bleachers that once overlooked the end zones at Scott Field, the home of MSU's football Bulldogs, were refurbished and installed along the foul lines, raising seating capacity at Dudy Noble Field to 6,700. The facility was later chosen by Sports Illustrated as the best play to watch college baseball, and it helped ignite a drive to update baseball facilities throughout the SEC and beyond.

The expanded capacity at the stadium also triggered an increase in MSU's annual baseball season ticket base to more than 5,600, virtually assuring Mississippi State's place among national leaders in college baseball attendance every year.

A second permanent concession stand was added in 1989, and a year later, the cinder warning track at the outfield fence was extended to completely encircle the playing field. That project, along with the installation of a six-foot high padded outfield fence, was made possible by a donation by former MSU All-American and Major League standout Will Clark.

Best-selling author, MSU alumnus and avid MSU baseball fan John Grisham donated funding in 1993 for an indoor batting range under the first base grandstand, and in August 1998 construction got under way on an ambitious project that added 18 sky suites and more than 600 additional chairback seats in the grandstand. When it was completed during the 2000 season, permanent seating capacity at Dudy Noble Field had eclipsed the 7,000 mark.

The aura of Mississippi State baseball at Dudy Noble Field is certainly not confined to the loyal legions in the impressive grandstand, pro-style luxury sky suites and bleachers.

In fact, some of the more highly-prized seats at Bulldog Baseball games are found beyond the outfield fence in the "Left Field Lounge". Waiting lists greet those seeking to purchase one of nearly 75 renewable season parking passes for an assigned position in one of three rows beyond the outfield fence. There, a colorful assortment of pickup trucks, motor homes, and trailers — most equipped with barbecue grills — line the outfield fence, completing a circle of humanity at Dudy Noble Field.

What began in the late 1960s as a popular gathering spot for baseball-loving MSU students now forms college baseball's largest tailgate party. A 10-foot wide boardwalk has since been added to the area between the outfield fence and Adjacent to Dudy Noble Field the spacious Palmeiro Center and a new auxiliary practice infield provide the Bulldogs with ample opportunities for training. the first row of outfield terrace parking.

Not surprisingly MSU ranks each year among the nation's leaders in attendance. Single-game paid attendance totals have reached the five-digit mark 24 times, and each year Dudy Noble Field routinely hosts games with the Southeastern Conference's largest actual attendance. SEC weekend games typically draw the largest crowds, giving rise to huge weekend gatherings in the spring. Six of the last eight three-game Super Bulldog Weekend series have drawn more than 25,000, including an SEC series-record 29,915 fans that watched the 2006 MSU-Georgia series.

Still, the improvements continue at Dudy Noble Field. Prior to the start of the 2003 season 46-foot "major league" foul poles were added, and a year later a new state-of-the-art scoreboard/message center, courtesy of the Henry Mize Foundation, was installed along with new fencing and gates surrounding the main grandstand.

The landscape surrounding Dudy Noble Field took on an even more impressive look in 2005 with the completion of the Palmeiro Center, a massive 68,000-square foot climate-controlled turfed indoor practice facility located adjacent to Dudy Noble Field. The spacious facility, made possible by a generous lead gift from former MSU great Rafael Palmeiro and his wife Lynne, features a regulation infield practice area, additional training area and three retractable batting cages.

Nestled between the Palmeiro Center and Dudy Noble Field is the baseball coaches office complex, also completed in 2005. The complex, which also houses a baseball heritage room, was made possible by contributions from former Bulldog players Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Eric DuBose, Paul Maholm, Jay Powell and Bobby Thigpen and former MSU manager James "Bo" McKinnis.

Mississippi State's baseball complex received a boost with the addition of the Bryce Griffis Boardroom, a $1.5 million, meeting/banquet hall extension on the south end of the Palmeiro Center. The facility features banquet seating for approximately 350.

Facility upgrades totaling more than $2 million in the past three years include an expanded state-of-the-art high definition video board, the addition of a new drainage and irrigation system along with a new carpet of natural sod and infield dirt, and expanded dugouts. Even the grandstand got a little grander with a resurfacing and repainting project topped by all-new cupholder-equipped maroon chairback seats and the installation of a new sound system. Prior to the start of the 2012 campaign work was completed on the installation of a new sound system, a 36,000-watt amplification system evenly distributing sound on a 78-speaker system throughout the stadium.

These latest facility enhancements continue an on-going Mississippi State campaign to maintain the standing of Dudy Noble Field as one of the nation's premier venues for college baseball.
