The 2013 Mississippi State University Baseball Media Guide has been prepared to assist the media with its coverage of MSU baseball. It should provide answers to most MSU baseball-related questions. Should you need additional information, please contact MSU Assistant Media Relations Director Joe Dier (662-325-8040/FAX 325-3600 • jbdier@athletics.msstate.edu).

Please address any corrections or revisions to MSU Baseball Media Relations, Box 5308, MSU, MS 39762.

THE JOE PHILLIPS PRESS BOX: The press box at Dudy Noble Field is named in honor of the late Joe Phillips, a pioneer in radio broadcasting in Mississippi and a driving force behind the formation of Mississippi State University's radio networks for sports broadcasts. The facility features media seating in three compartments as well as two radio booths.

CREDENTIALS: Media credentials for Mississippi State home baseball games are required for media covering games at Dudy Noble Field and are issued through the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office for working press only. Written requests by accredited media members on company letterhead should be submitted well in advance of the requested game(s) and directed to Assistant Director of Athletic Media Relations Joe Dier (P.O. Box 5308, Mississippi State, MS 39762 — jbdier@athletics.msstate.edu). If needed, credentials can be left at the "Will Call" window at the stadium ticket office under the main grandstand, which opens two hours prior to SEC and weekend games and 90 minutes prior to all other games.

Mississippi State is scheduled to make two appearances this season in Pearl, Miss., at Trustmark Park, the home of the Mississippi Braves, the Atlanta Braves' affiliate in the Class AA Southern League. MSU is the designated visiting team for both a March 12 meeting with Southern Miss and an April 9 game against Ole Miss in the seventh annual Governor's Cup. Season baseball credentials issued by the participating teams will be honored at the media gate at Trustmark Park.

Credentials are also required for photographers and videographers at MSU home games, and on-field photographers must operate from and stow equipment in the photo boxes located on the outfield end of each dugout. Photographers are restricted from entering the field of play and team dugouts, and flash photography is not permitted at Dudy Noble Field and most other baseball venues.

INTERVIEWS: Requested MSU players and MSU head coach John Cohen will be available for interviews approximately 10 minutes after most games near the third base camera well adjacent to the MSU dugout. To facilitate the process, a member of the MSU Athletic Media Relations staff will solicit interview requests from media members in the final two innings of the game and will be available to assist with those interviews on the field.

Due to time constraints, players and coaches will generally not be available for interviews between MSU doubleheader games. The Mississippi State locker room and stadium dugouts at Dudy Noble Field are restricted to team officials and are not open to the media.

Coach Cohen will also be available for additional non-gameday interviews throughout the week. The best time to reach Cohen by telephone is from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. weekdays. These interviews can also be arranged through the MSU Baseball Office by contacting April Edwards at (662) 325-3597.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS: MSU welcomes media representation at all baseball games and practices. Media members should contact the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office for practice times and to make known requests for player interviews. In most cases, players will be available for a brief time before and for a lengthier time following practices.

To arrange pregame interviews with players, please make advance contact with Joe Dier. With advance notice, players can generally be available for brief pregame interviews approximately two hours prior to each game near the dugout. Telephone interviews can also be scheduled with players on a call-back basis during the week, also with advance arrangement through the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office.

PARKING: Limited media parking at Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium is available in a designated media parking area on the east side of Humphrey Coliseum. A media parking pass issued in advance by MSU Athletic Media Relations is required. MSU baseball media credentials will be honored at all public entrances to Dudy Noble Field.

PRESS BOX SERVICES: The MSU Media Relations Office provides pregame notes and statistics, lineup sheets and scorecards in the Joe Phillips Press Box prior to each game at Dudy Noble Field. A complete box score along with a play-by-play is available approximately 15 minutes after each game. Wired and wireless internet connections are available for media use in the press box along with information for accessing live in-game stats through the Broadcast Stats system.

RADIO: MSU provides a radio booth for the broadcast entity designated by the visiting SEC team. Two telephone lines and an ISDN line are available for use in the visiting radio booth in the Joe Phillips Press Box. Telephone lines will also be made available for use by radio networks of non-conference opponents on a reciprocating basis.

Please contact Don Williams (662-325-8950) of Bulldog Sports Properties in advance to confirm arrangements for the use of telephone lines.

MSU BASEBALL RADIO NETWORK

Mississippi State University is home to one of the nation's largest and oldest collegiate baseball radio networks, affording fans throughout the Magnolia State and beyond an opportunity to regularly follow the exploits of the Baseball Bulldogs throughout the season.

Network programming for the MSU baseball broadcasts is distributed and co-ordinated through the facilities of Learfield Sports, Inc., headquartered in Jefferson City, Mo.

The 2013 Mississippi State University Baseball Radio Network, a team of more than a dozen radio outlets, carries the broadcasts of a 40-game network schedule (all 30 SEC weekend contests and 10 selected non-conference games) plus all postseason competition. In addition to the 40-game network schedule, the broadcasts of most non-network games are carried in the Golden Triangle area by WKBB-FM (100.9) in West Point, Miss.

Most MSU baseball network radio broadcasts are also available on a subscription basis via the internet through the official web site of Mississippi State University Athletics (www.HailState.com).

The broadcasts feature pregame and postgame interviews, hosted by the "voice" of the Diamond Dogs, Jim Ellis, and Bart Gregory, who joined the MSU baseball broadcast team in 2012.

Radio broadcasts of Bulldog Baseball got their start in the 1960s on Starkville radio station WSSO thanks to the work of the late Joe Phillips, a pioneer in radio broadcasting in Mississippi. The MSU baseball stadium press box is named in honor of Phillips.

But credit for turning the single-station broadcast into an impressive collection of radio outlets blanketing the Magnolia State goes to veteran MSU sports broadcaster, Jim Ellis, who in 2013 enters his 35th season of describing the exploits of the Baseball Bulldogs. A native of West Point, Miss., and 1969 MSU grad, Ellis coordinates the operation of State's baseball radio network. His voice is also a familiar one with State basketball and football fans. He also handles the play-by-play for MSU football and basketball after having teamed on those broadcasts for more than three decades with MSU radio legend Jack Cristil.

Bart Gregory, a native of Nanih Waiya, Miss., and a 1999 Mississippi State graduate, joined Ellis in the broadcast booth in 2012. He began his career in sports broadcasting at the University of West Alabama in 2000 and returned to MSU the following year. While at MSU he initially broadcast women's basketball games, select baseball games and hosted MSU football pregame and postgame shows and more recently joined Ellis on MSU basketball broadcasts.

Gregory's affiliation with the MSU athletics family began in 2000 with his appointment as an account representative for the Bulldogs Sports Network. Since 2008 he has served in the Bulldog Club as Assistant Athletic Director for Annual Giving.

The MSU baseball broadcast lineup also includes a weekly call-in radio show "DawgTalk". The show begins an eight-week run in April and airs each Monday from 7-8 p.m. on affiliated radio stations in Mississippi. Listeners can call 866-998-4893 to participate in the show.

MSU's weekly baseball television coach's show returns for its 26th season in 2013. "Mississippi State Baseball with John Cohen" is a joint production of the Mississippi State University Television Center and Bulldog Sports Properties, a property of Learfield Sports. The 30-minute television program runs for eight weeks in April and May and is hosted by the Bulldogs' skipper and Jim Ellis. It is a production of the Mississippi State University Television Center.

Bulldog fans around the world can watch many of State's 37 home games in 2013 live from Dudy Noble Field on the MSU athletic department's premium online video platform, HAILSTATETV (formerly Maroon to the Max). The service is available on a subscription basis through MSU's official athletics department web site, www.HailState.com.

Mississippi State is in its seventh season of providing live multi-camera video streaming of most non-televised Mississippi State home baseball games, with the audio simulcast from the MSU Baseball Radio Network broadcasts. Home games not televised live will be offered on a delayed same-day broadcast basis.

HAILSTATETV subscribers can also listen to the radio network broadcasts of all games played by the Baseball Bulldogs (some limited exceptions).

Mississippi State's No. 5 preseason ranking by Baseball America for 2013 is MSU's highest preseason ranking since 1989. State skipper John Cohen's junior season with the Diamond Dogs. The rankings were not lost on MSU's student body. Hundreds of State students gathered in the Palmeiro Center for the season's first meeting of "The Dudes", a student-based baseball support group initiated in 2012 by coach John Cohen.

Two years ago Mississippi State surprised many by sweeping through the 2011 NCAA Atlanta Regional and coming within a matter of outs of a Super Regional title and a berth in the NCAA College World Series. Last spring the Diamond Dogs overcame a spate of early-season injuries and went on to win the 2012 SEC Baseball Tournament and earn its 32nd trip to NCAA postseason competition.

Bulldog success on the diamond might not surprise many in 2013. In fact, John Cohen's fifth Mississippi State baseball edition enters the campaign with consensus preseason top 20 ranking. Baseball America tabbed State with the program's highest preseason national ranking (No. 5) since 1989, the year then-junior outfielder John Cohen helped State set a school wins record (54) and claim State's 10th SEC regular season baseball crown.

Experience and depth appear to be the Bulldogs' biggest allies in State's 123rd season of baseball. State returns 23 lettermen from the 2012 edition that gave MSU its first 40-win campaign since 2005. Returning are seven of MSU's eight starting position players from last season, 14 of the 18 players who drew starts in the MSU batting order and 12 of the 19 pitchers that combined for the NCAA's second-best earned run average (2.58) last spring.

"We're excited about this group of players," said head coach John Cohen, entering his 14th season as a collegiate head coach. "We have some experience and we have some depth. It all starts on the mound and defensively for us. But I feel like we're going to have a much more capable offensive club than we've had. And this is far and away the fastest team I've ever coached."

A trio of Bulldog players enter the 2013 campaign as preseason all-Americans.

Junior shortstop Adam Frazier, a member of the 2012 USA Baseball National Collegiate Team and 2012 SEC Tournament MVP, was accorded preseason A-A honors by Baseball America, College Sports Madness, CollegeBaseballInsider.com, Collegiate Baseball, the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association and Perfect Game. Frazier led State and ranked third in the SEC in hits (91) and batting average (.371). Frazier also led the SEC with 227 assists, tops all-time among MSU shortstops.

Junior outfielder Hunter Renfroe of Crystal Springs, Miss., solidified his credentials as a preseason all-American with a record-breaking summer of collegiate league baseball. Renfroe used his strong and accurate arm to lead the SEC and set a Mississippi State record for outfield assists (10) as a sophomore. He followed that up last summer with record-breaking totals in the Cal Ripken Collegiate League that included 19 home runs, 57 RBI and 52 runs scored.

Sophomore relief ace Jonathan Holder, a consensus 2012 freshman all-American, is poised for additional national accolades as a sophomore. Holder set a school record when he opened his career with 27.1 innings of scoreless relief work. He finished with a 2-1 record, nine saves and a 0.32 earned run average. Down the stretch the Gulfport, Miss., product recorded a win and eight saves in his last 11 appearances.

Both Frazier and Renfroe are on the initial watch list for college baseball's Heisman Trophy, USA Baseball's Golden Spikes Award, while Holder is among the early candidates for the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Stopper of the Year Award.

How frequently the combination of experience and depth on the mound, in the field and at the plate translate into wins for Mississippi State remains to be seen. Some see it as a melding that could power the Bulldogs deep into the postseason and perhaps the program's ninth advancement to Omaha, Neb., and a berth in the prestigious NCAA College World Series.

AROUND THE HORN...

Wes Rea (.249) grabbed starting duties at first base on opening day as a redshirt freshman in 2012 and started there in 64 of his 65 games played, leading the club with 41 RBI and sharing the team lead with five home runs. The Gulfport, Miss., native led the SEC with an MSU record 636 putouts and fielded a SEC-most 58 double plays. Newcomer Alex Detz, a junior college transfer from San Luis Obispo, Calif., has positioned himself as a capable backup to Rea, as has Hurley, Miss., senior Trey Porter (.259). Porter, like Rea, hit five home runs last spring and drew 50 of his 59 starts as the DH.

The Bulldogs' depth and versatility becomes apparent in the remainder of the infield. Frazier anchors a solid defensive unit at shortstop but is surrounded by talented athletes capable of playing at second, third or even shortstop. Senior Sam Frost from Hoover, Ala., begins his final season with a team-leading 84 starts in the infield, primarily at second and third. Sophomore Matthew Britton of Cullman, Ala., is well-seasoned after basically split starting time at second base last year with Frost. Also solidly in the mix for possible starting duty is smooth-fielding junior college transfer Brett Pirtle from Tyler, Texas.

There's plenty of hot competition for the starting position at the hot corner. Junior Daryl Norris of Fairhope, Ala., the team's second-leading hitter (.273) and a 35-game starter at third last year, has a now-healed leg up on the position. But the list of challengers for that position includes a pair of freshmen, redshirt rookie Nick Flair of Belle Chasse, La., and true freshman Kyle Hann of Oakville, Ont., Canada. Hann, like fellow freshman Jacob Robson, were members of the silver medal-winning Canadian National Team.

The MSU receiver corps features two solid seniors and a pair of gifted newcomers. Mitch Slaughter of Olathe, Kans., started 62 of MSU's 64 games last year and was among four Bulldogs named to the all-tournament team at the NCAA Tallahassee Regional. Slaughter shared playing time with switch-hitting Nick

SEC BASEBALL COACHES POLL

Mississippi State tallied 59 points and was picked to finish third in the SEC Western Division in the 22nd annual preseason SEC baseball coaches poll.

Arkansas and Vanderbilt were the coaches' choices to win their respective divisional titles, with the Razorbacks nudging out Vanderbilt as the pick to win the overall league title. Arkansas was listed first on 12 of 13 ballots for the SEC West championship and on nine ballots for the overall crown.

Points were compiled on a 7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis for each division. Coaches were not allowed to vote for their own team. Each coach also voted for one team as an overall conference champion.

| 7. Missouri (33-28)          | 23   | 10-14 / 6th-B12  |  |

Ammirati of Sparta, N.J., whose off-season improvement likely will land him more frequent stints as a starter. Junior college transfer Zack Randolph of Amory, Miss., and freshman Daniel Garner of Madison, Ala., are also in the mix for playing time behind the two veteran catchers.

State's seven-man outfielding corps features four veterans with starting experience and three speedy newcomers. Junior power-hitter Hunter Renfroe of Crystal Springs, Miss., replaced an injured C.T. Bradford in center field in 33 games but also drew starts in left (15 games) and right (12 games). Renfroe could move to right field now that Bradford, from Pace, Fla., and the son of former MSU third baseman Mike Bradford, has returned to full health. Bradford, the MVP of the 2011 NCAA Atlanta Regional, started 31 games in center last season.

Sophomore Tyler Fullerton of Murfreesboro, Tenn., and junior Demarcus Henderson of Waynesboro, Miss., combined for more than 50 starts as corner outfielders last year and provide the MSU staff with plenty of options.

Newcomers bidding for playing time and possible starting roles in the outfield include freshman Cody Brown of Biloxi, Miss., and two of the speedier Bulldogs, junior college transfer Derrick Armstrong of Columbia, Tenn., and Jacob Robson of Windsor, Ont., Canada.

Pitching coach Butch Thompson put together one of State's most impressive pitching corps in recent years last spring, and many of those star performers are back.

Leading the way are seniors Kendall Graveman, a right-hander from Alexander City, Ala., along with lefties Chad Gironde of Hartselle, Ala., and fan favorite Luis Pollorena of Laredo, Texas. Graveman, elected co-captain, last year became the first Bulldog player to earn SEC All-Defensive Team honors. Graveman and Pollorena enter the year with a staff-leading 11 career pitching wins. Sophomores Will Cox of Amory, Miss., and Brandon Woodruff of Wheeler, Miss., drew six starts each as freshmen last year and are positioned for more this spring. So, too, are junior right-hander Evan Mitchell of Marietta, Ga., and sophomore lefty Jacob Lindgren of Bay St. Louis, Miss.

One of the more celebrated Bulldog pitchers is relief ace

Jonathan Holder of Gulfport, Miss., who shared the team lead of nine saves with graduated relief ace Caleb Reed. But Thompson has prepped plenty of other hurlers for key roles this year, including junior Ben Bracewell of Chelsea, Ala., and sophomores Trevor Fitts of Helena, Ala., and Ross Mitchell of Smyrna, Tenn.

Eager to test their wings on the collegiate scene are red-shirt freshman Preston Brown and true freshman John Marc Shelly, both of Germantown, Tenn., true rookies Anthony Anello of Roswell, Ga., and Myles Gentry of Gulfport, Miss., and junior college transfer Wes Stokes of Collinsville, Miss.

WHAT'S NEW - In addition to a dozen program newcomers, including the first two Canadian players in program history (Kyle Hann and Jacob Robson), the Bulldogs' roster includes a new name and two new titles in the coaching staff. Pitching coach Butch Thompson has been promoted to associate head coach, Nick Mingione title has changed from coordinator of camps to assistant coach. Mingione steps into the position held previously by Lane Burroughs, now the head baseball coach at Northwestern State. Texas native Jacob Wells has joined the MSU staff as coordinator of camps.

MSU shortened the dimensions slightly from the left field foul pole to the gap in left-center at Dudy Noble Field. T move trimmed approximately 10 feet off the deepest portion of the left field fence, which now forms a straight line from the gap to the foul pole.

HOME DOGS - State's 2013 schedule features a school-record 37 regular season home games. MSU's Feb. 15 season-opener against Portland, one of four first-time opponents for the Bulldogs, is the second-earliest in school history. It begins a run that sees State play its first 19 and 23 of its first 24 games at Dudy Noble Field.

MSU's 30-game SEC slate includes home series against Alabama, Auburn, Florida, LSU and South Carolina. Among league road series is a weekend trip to SEC newcomer Texas A&M.

MSU plays twice at Trustmark Park in Pearl, Miss. (vs. Southern Miss Mar. 12 and Ole Miss Apr. 9) and once at Memphis' AutoZone Park (vs. Memphis Apr. 23).

John Cohen, who directed Mississippi State to a pair of NCAA regional tournament berths and a Southeastern Conference Tournament title over the past two seasons, is in his third decade in the collegiate coaching ranks and his fifth campaign as head baseball coach at Mississippi State University in 2013.

Regarded by many as one of the most innovative coaches in the collegiate baseball ranks, Cohen was introduced as MSU's 16th head baseball June 7, 2008, exactly 18 years to the day after leaving Omaha, Neb., and the 1990 NCAA College World Series following his final game as a Mississippi State player.

Cohen's return to Starkville, Miss., and Dudy Noble Field completed a success-filled and fast-paced circle that began when the Tuscaloosa, Ala., native first joined MSU's baseball family as a player in 1987. He returned to State in 2008 seasoned with 17 years of collegiate coaching experience, nine of those as a collegiate head coach. Immediately prior to his return to Starkville Cohen enjoyed a successful five-year run as head coach at Southeastern Conference Eastern Division rival Kentucky.

The MSU skipper, an All-Southeastern Conference outfielder during his playing career at Mississippi State, enters his 13th season as a collegiate head coach in 2013 with a 447-307-1 career coaching mark, 126-111 in his first four seasons at Mississippi State.

Including previous career coaching assignments on the collegiate level at Missouri (1992-97), Northwestern (La.) State (1998-2001), Florida (2002-03) and Kentucky (2004-08), Cohen has been associated with teams over the past 21 seasons that have piled up 715 wins while producing more than 100 draft selections and 17 All-Americans.

His prowess as one of the nation's top hitting instructors has mounted with each step along the way in his coaching career. That coaching expertise gained nationwide attention in 2006 when, in his third season at the University of Kentucky, he guided the Wildcats to a remarkable worst-to-first finish in the rugged Southeastern Conference. That season Kentucky posted a school-best 44-win season, captured the school's first league baseball crown and brought the first NCAA regional baseball tournament to a Lexington campus noted more for its hoops prominence. With 13 top 10 draft picks over a three-year span, the Wildcats virtually rewrote the Kentucky record book, powered by the likes of All-American standout and SEC Player of the Year Ryan Strieby and All-SEC performers John Shelby and Sean Coughlin.

Cohen's coaching efforts did not go unnoticed. He was accorded national coach of the year honors by both the College Baseball Foundation and CollegeBaseballInsider.com. And, for the third time in his career, he was tabbed by his peers for conference coach of the year accolades.

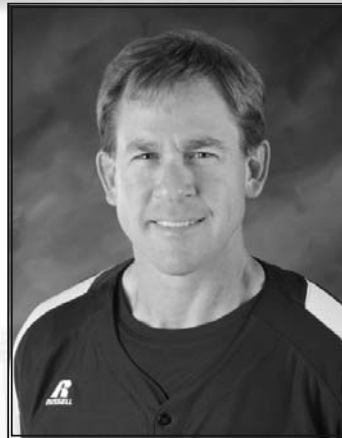

At Mississippi State Cohen has assembled a well-respected and highly-skilled coaching staff featuring coaches well-versed in Mississippi State's colorful baseball tradition, the Magnolia State's high school and junior college programs, and the nation's top college baseball league, the highly-competitive Southeastern Conference.

All the while Cohen has continued to lay and build upon a strong foundation for success on the diamond at Mississippi State.

Mississippi State, annually one of the nation's leaders in college baseball attendance, has registered four of its top six all-time marks in baseball season ticket sales during Cohen's tenure, including a school-record 5,632 in 2010. In a program initiated at State by Cohen, many of those tickets are hand-delivered by MSU players to Starkville patrons each year. Cohen also organized "The Dudes", a new student support group for baseball designed to grow the Mississippi State baseball fan base among the student population at Mississippi State.

Mississippi State players have received All-Southeastern Conference recognition in each of Cohen's four years at State while 14 Diamond Dogs have had their names called during Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft conducted the past four years.

In the all-important recruiting realm, Cohen's first three recruiting classes at State garnered high national acclaim. His 2009 MSU recruiting class was ranked as the nation's eighth-best by Baseball America, the highest such ranking for a State baseball recruiting class since 2000. Cohen's second MSU recruiting class, featuring five drafted players, four prep All-Americans, and three players honored as their state's player of the year, earned a No. 18 ranking.

On the facilities front, Mississippi State's already-impressive baseball plant has seen upgrades and improvements totaling more $2 million in recent years.

Expanded dugouts, all-new drainage and irrigation systems covered by a new carpet of natural turf and a renovation of the locker room and team areas are among the initial facility upgrades.

The concrete grandstand, which when completed in 1987 triggered a parade of baseball facility upgrades throughout the SEC and beyond, was resurfaced and fashioned with all-new chairback seating prior to the 2011 campaign. The most recent enhancements include a stadium-wide sound system and digital message board on the scoreboard.

Cohen maintains a strong commitment to excellence in the classroom, and three times over the past four years the Diamond Dogs have established records for highest grade points averages. The team's 2012 fall term GPA climbed to a program-best 3.36. Mississippi State's wide lead in all-time academic all-conference awards has grown during Cohen's term at State, with 66 selections to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in four seasons. In addition, 23 MSU freshmen received SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll status the past four seasons, including a record-matching seven in 2012. Following the 2012 campaign, pitcher Chris Stratton, a first-round draft pick of the San Francisco Giants, became the 17th Diamond Dogs to receive Academic All-America team selection.

Continuing a trademark that has grown during his coaching career, Cohen is a highly sought-after featured speaker and clinician. He has traversed the nation sharing his expertise at numerous baseball clinics in 30 states, including a speaking engagement at the 2010 American Baseball Coaches Association Convention, his third appearance before that body since 2002.

Cohen has also shared his baseball expertise through his recently-released instructional video "All Access With John Cohen", a top-selling production featuring three full days of Mississippi State baseball practice.

Since arriving at Mississippi State, Cohen has maintained a full schedule of speaking engagements at alumni gatherings, civic organization meetings and at baseball banquets on a variety of levels throughout the Magnolia State and beyond.

Cohen, the fifth Mississippi State grad to serve as head baseball coach at State, is one of three current Southeastern Conference head baseball coaches coaching at his alma mater and he's a member of an elite corps of active college head coaches who have played in the NCAA College World Series.

Cohen, 46, is married to the former Nelle Bashinsky, also from Tuscaloosa, Ala., and they have two daughters - Jordan Baker and Avery Lawson.

COHEN THE DIAMOND DOG

Mississippi State skipper John Cohen wears a No. 11 baseball jersey. It's the same number he wore during his successful collegiate career as a player at State.

Cohen was an accomplished two-sport prep athlete at Tuscaloosa Academy, earning all-state honors in both baseball and basketball. His TA hoops teams won three straight state titles and a school-record 100 consecutive games. But it was on the baseball diamond as a four-year regular playing for coach Don McNabb that Cohen excelled.

He capped his prep career with a stellar senior season in 1985, the same year that, 90 miles away, the likes of Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Rafael Palmeiro and Bobby Thigpen were leading MSU's Baseball Bulldogs to a school-best third-place finish in the NCAA College World Series.

He inked with Birmingham-Southern following his prep career, and as a rookie started in center field for the Panthers, hitting at a crisp .333 clip and earning team defensive MVP honors. On April 24 that season Cohen made his Dudy Noble Field debut in a Birmingham-Southern uniform, delivering a double, a triple and driving in three runs in a split of a Mississippi State-Birmingham-Southern doubleheader in Starkville.

Cohen transferred to Mississippi State that fall, sitting out the 1987 campaign as a redshirt before beginning his Diamond Dog career playing under legendary MSU head coach Ron Polk.

He was a key contributor during the most successful three-year span in MSU's storied baseball history. The Bulldogs advanced to an NCAA regional tournament berth in each of Cohen's three seasons as a player, capped by a run to Omaha and the 1990 NCAA College World Series. In 1989, he helped lead the Bulldogs to the SEC championship and a school-record 54 wins. During that span the Bulldogs compiled a 148-46 record (.763) that included two of the program's three 50-win campaigns.

Cohen concluded his career ranked in the top 10 in several statistical categories at Mississippi State and earned first-team All-Southeastern Conference distinction as a senior. He was selected by the Minnesota Twins in the 22nd round of the 1990 Major League Baseball Draft and played two years in the Twins' minor league system.

COHEN THE COACH

In the fall of 1991 Cohen launched his coaching career in Columbia, Mo., where he joined coach Gene McArtor's University of Missouri baseball coaching staff as a graduate assistant. When Tim Jamieson followed McArtor as the Tigers' head coach after the 1995 campaign, he tabbed Cohen as his chief assistant, hitting coach and recruiting coordinator.

That season, Missouri won the Big Eight championship and advanced to an NCAA regional berth for the first time in 16 years. The Tigers broke nine offensive school records that season, part of 17 total records set by Cohen's offenses over his six years in Columbia.

Following the 1997 season, Cohen headed to Natchitoches, La., for his first head coaching assignment, a four-year term at Northwestern State University. His two predecessors at Northwestern State served as head coaches in the Southeastern Conference — Arkansas' Dave Van Horn and former Alabama skipper Jim Wells.

Under Cohen, the Demons compiled a 146-84 (.635) mark and claimed a pair of Southland Conference titles (1998 and 2001). He was named the Southland Conference Coach of the Year during both championship seasons.

His well-rounded clubs set 18 individual and team offensive records during his tenure, while his pitching staff set 10 school marks. The 1998 team posted the nation's fifth-best team earned run average (3.82) while the 1999 edition fashioned college baseball's seventh-best fielding percent-age (.967). His NSU baseball teams also excelled in the classroom, averaging 18 players with grade-point averages of 3.0 or better each semester while notching 3.0 team GPA's in both 1998 and 1999.

Cohen also spearheaded a highly-successful fund-raising campaign for Northwestern State's baseball facility, Brown-Stroud Field. The ball park's grandstand seating increased from 298 to 1,000. All of those seats and then some were needed on April 18, 2001 when a school-record 4,214 fans watched Cohen's Demons knock off defending-national champion LSU.

Cohen further established himself as one of college baseball's best hitting coaches during a successful two-year stint at the University of Florida as an assistant coach on the staff of Gator head coach and former MSU skipper Pat McMahon. While in Gainesville, his UF hitters pulverized opposing pitching and led the SEC in nearly every offensive statistical category. The 2002 Gator offense led the nation in hits while ranking second in batting average, runs scored and home runs. That year, Florida paced the SEC in nine team categories and set or tied a total of 41 offensive school records (20 team, 21 individual) en route to a 46-19 finish and a berth in the NCAA Tournament.

At Florida, Cohen coached a pair of consensus All-Americans who hit .400 and score more than 100 runs each, Mark Kiger and SEC batting champ Pat Osborn. Cohen's balanced UF offense also included five players hitting 10 or more home runs.

In the 2003 season, Florida's high-octane offense paced the SEC in five offensive categories. For the second straight year two Gators finished in the top five in the league in batting average and Brian Rose became the third Gator to earn All-America honors under Cohen's tutelage. Bolstered by its tremendous offense, Florida earned its second consecutive NCAA regional tournament berth.

Cohen's time away from the head coaching circle was brief. After two record-setting campaigns at Florida Cohen was hired as head coach at the University of Kentucky in 2003. After a 24-30 finish in his first season at UK (2004), the Wildcats reeled off four straight winning campaigns. In five seasons as the Wildcats' taskmaster, Cohen guided Kentucky to unprecedented success on the diamond, guiding his teams to a 175-113-1 (.607) record while developing Kentucky into a major player on the national scene.

Cohen's 2006 Wildcat edition turned many heads when it rolled to a 44-17 mark, the school's first Southeastern Conference baseball championship, and registered SEC baseball's first worst-to-first one-season turnaround in baseball. For his efforts Cohen received national and SEC coach of the year plaudits in 2006, a season in which Kentucky hosted its initial NCAA regional tournament.

That 2006 UK team piled up a school-record 500 runs. His 2007 club hit for a stellar .320 average, just one point shy of the UK school record, led the SEC in eight offensive categories and ranked third nationally in home runs and slugging percentage.

The record-breaking parade continued in 2008 when UK raced to a 19-0 start and a top five national ranking. Kentucky matched its school-best win total with a 44-19 finish and for the second time during Cohen's term in Lexington, advanced to an NCAA regional tournament.

Cohen returned Mississippi State to the NCAA postseason scene in 2011. State rang up a 38-25 worksheet, sweeping three games in winning the NCAA Atlanta Regional and then extending No. 2 national seed Florida in a three-game Super Regional series in Gainesville. A year later the 2012 Diamond Dogs won the SEC Baseball Tournament, State's seventh SECT title, and went on to compete in the NCAA Tallahassee Regional. The Bulldogs registered a 40-24 record for the program's 18th 40-win campaign and State's first since 2005

COACHING STAFF

Associate head coach Butch Thompson

Associate head coach Butch Thompson, a native of Amory, Miss., is in his fifth year on John Cohen's MSU baseball coaching staff.

Thompson, in his 12th season of coaching in the Southeastern Conference, coaches pitchers and is heavily involved with the recruitment of future MSU baseball players. He joined the MSU coaching staff in June following a three-year coaching stint at Auburn and was named associate head coach following the 2012 season.

Thompson's Bulldog moundmen compiled the nation's second-lowest staff earned run average in 2012 --- 2.58, the best at State since 1973, and ranked third in the Southeastern Conference with 536 strikeouts. MSU hurlers starred as State won five games over a six-day span to capture the 10-team SEC Baseball Tournament championship and advance to NCAA postseason play for the 32nd time. The 2012 MSU mound staff featured 14 pitchers hitting 90 miles per hour or better in a game and nine hurlers registering earned run averages of 3.00 or less. Leading that group was rookie Jonathan Holder (0.32), who allowed one earned run and set a school mark for consecutive scoreless innings pitched en route to 2012 Freshman All-American honors.

Perfect Game tabbed Thompson as one of the nation's top 10 assistant coaches in 2012 in the scouting service's annual survey of coaching staffs.

In 11 seasons as a pitching coach in the rugged Southeastern Conference, Thompson has seen 28 of his pupils selected in the Major League Baseball draft, including 2012 draft selections Kendall Graveman, Nick Routh, and first-round pick Chris Stratton. Since 2003, eight of Thompson's recruiting classes have attained top 20 national ranking by either Collegiate Baseball or Baseball America.

The 20-year coaching veteran and native Mississippian is regarded as one of the nation's top pitching instructors. One of his pupils, Chris Stratton, a 2012 consensus All-American, became the first Bulldog pitcher accorded SEC Pitcher of the Year honors and the 11th Bulldog selected in the first round of Major League Baseball's annual draft. The All-SEC performer ranked first or second in the league and among the nation's leaders in wins, strikeouts and ERA. Two other MSU pitchers coached by Thompson, 2012 draft selection Nick Routh and relief ace Caleb Reed, also received all-conference honors.

Over the past four years, Bulldog pitching has made a swift advancement in the rugged Southeastern Conference. State pitchers ranked as the league's most improved in 2011 after shaving 2.50 points off its staff ERA as the Bulldogs came within a win of the program's ninth berth in the NCAA College World Series. And in 2012, led by Stratton and a host of young hurlers, the Diamond Dog pitchers claimed the top spot in the SEC.

Thompson prepped at Amory (Miss.) High School and later starred as a pitcher at Itawamba (Miss.) Community College for Coach Roy Cresap in 1989 and 1990.

2012 SEASON IN REVIEW

It's the middle of April and Mississippi State's Bulldogs, after enduring a rash of key injuries prior to the start of league play, looked little like a team destined for postseason play. A three-game series sweep at two-time defending SEC champion South Carolina left the Bulldogs bobbing just above the .500 mark with a 21-16 overall record and nursing the 12-team SEC's 11th-best league worksheet at 5-10.

But John Cohen's fourth Mississippi State edition soldiered on down the stretch, posting an 11-4 second half record that helped make State's 122nd season of baseball one of the program's more memorable campaigns on the diamond.

State opened and closed its stretch run with SEC series sweeps at Dudy Noble Field, against Tennessee on Super Bulldog weekend and against a league-leading and second-ranked Kentucky team that entered the final series a win away from the 2012 SEC regular season championship.

State swept the Wildcats at Dudy Noble Field on that final weekend to finish tied for second in the SEC West with a 16-14 league mark, the program's best since 2003. It also propelled State on to the 10-team field of the SEC Tournament in Hoover, Ala., as the No. 7 seed and heightened State's NCAA postseason possibilities.

MSU made the most of the opportunity at Regions Park, winning four of five games played over a five-day span to reach the title round of the SEC Tournament. On championship Sunday and with more than 10,000 maroon-clad State fans cheering them on, the Diamond Dogs blanked Vanderbilt 3-0 to claim Mississippi State's seventh Southeastern Conference tournament title and the Bulldogs' 32nd advancement to NCAA postseason play, this time to the NCAA Tallahassee (Fla.) Regional.

Superb pitching, solid defense and timely offense came together to produce State's first 40-win season since 2005 (40-24) and a top 25 finish for a team picked to finish near the bottom of the highly-competitive SEC.

Led by junior righthander Chris Stratton (11-2, 2.38, 127 Ks) and a pair nine-save relief aces, senior Caleb Reed and freshman Jonathan Holder, the Bulldogs fashioned a league-best 2.58 earned run average, the nation's second-best and MSU's lowest since 1974.

Stratton, a consensus All-American and a CoSIDA Academic All-American, was honored as the SEC Pitcher of the Year and the recipient of Mississippi's player of the year award, the C-Spire/Ferriss Trophy. The San Francisco Giants would later make him the 11th Mississippi State baseball player ever selected in the first round of the MLB draft.

Holder, who opened his career with a school-record 27-1/3 innings of scoreless pitching and allowed just one earned run in 24 relief appearances, was included on virtually every All-American team for freshmen.

There were plenty of other highlights.

On defense, the Bulldogs led the nation and set a school record with 71 double plays turned. Shortstop Adam Frazier, the MVP of the SEC Tournament, led the SEC and set an MSU record for shortstops with 227 assists. Freshman first baseman Wes Rea led the SEC and set a Mississippi State record with 636 putouts and fielded a SEC-best 58 double plays. Outfielder Hunter Renfro, who moved to centerfield to replace injured regular

C.T. Bradford, set a school mark and led the SEC with 10 outfield assists.

Frazier paced State at the plate with a .371 batting average mark and 91 hits, the most by a Bulldog since 2006. Bulldog batters set a school record with 99 HBPs.

SHORT HOPS: Pitcher Kendall Graveman became the first MSU player named to the SEC's All-Defensive Team ... Ticket distribution for State's 33 home dates in 2012 was 206,920, fifth-most in the NCAA ... Three Bulldogs had their names called in the 2012 MLB Draft: Chris Stratton (1st round, San Francisco), Nick Routt (16th round, Cincinnati) and Kendall Graveman (36th round, Miami Marlins) ... Six different Bulldogs combined for seven all-tournament team selections. Adam Frazier, the MVP of the SEC Tournament, was joined on the SECT all-tourney squad by Jonathan Holder and outfielder Demarcus Henderson. Frazier, first baseman Wes Rea, second baseman Matthew Britton and catcher Mitch Slauter represented State on the NCAA Tallahassee Regional All-Tournament Team ... MSU finished with a final NCAA RPI rating of 22 ... MSU placed 19 players on the SEC Academic Honor Roll (Nick Ammirati, C.T. Bradford, Brent Brownlee, Adam Frazier, Sam Frost, Chad Gironde, Kendall Graveman, Brayden Jones, Evan Mitchell, Ross Mitchell, Daryl Norris, Luis Pollorena, Trey Porter, Hunter Renfro, Nick Routt, Mitch Slauter, Taylor Stark, Chris Stratton, C.C. Watson) and seven more on the SEC Freshman Academic Honor (Matthew Britton, Phillip Casey, Trevor Fitts, Tyler Fullerton, Jonathan Holder, Jacob Lindgren, Brandon Woodruff).

Early all-conference baseball teams were compiled by media outlets before the Southeastern Conference initiated its All-SEC baseball teams in 1951. From 1951 through 2012, MSU players have been accorded first or second-team all-conference honors 124 times. That includes 99 different players representing 50 teams. State has placed five players on the All-SEC teams in 1977, 1988 and 1989 while the 1949 media-selected all-conference team also included five Bulldog players from State's second SEC championship squad.

All-American first baseman Tommy Raffo earned All-SEC honors a school-most three times (1988-90) while 23 other Diamond Dogs are MSU's two-time All-SEC honorees.

The SEC initiated its SEC All-Freshman team in 2005, and six Diamond Dogs have earned berths on the SEC's first eight all-rookie teams. In 2008, the SEC started saluting its top defensive performers. MSU junior pitcher Kendall Graveman (right) in 2012 became MSU's first SEC All-Defensive Team honoree.

122 seasons of Mississippi State Baseball

1885 MAY 2 — Mississippi A&M, behind team captain W.J. (Bill) Jennings, defeats Durant 7-2 in the first baseball game in MSU history. Jennings, who holds the distinction of being credited as the first man in Southern college baseball who could throw a curve ball, baffles batters from all over the South in claiming A&M's first 12 wins. His composite four-year record, during which time he pitched every game for the Maroons, was a sparkling 12-1.

1893 OCTOBER 12 — A&M defeats the University of Mississippi 6-3 in its first intercollegiate baseball game. The schools have met 442 times, easily the longest baseball rivalry for both schools.

1909 APRIL 11 — Willie Mitchell hurls the first perfect game in Mississippi A&M history by striking out 26 LSU batters and helping the Maroons slip past the Tigers 1-0 in the second game of a twinbill at Baton Rouge, La. Mitchell finishes with a 6-1 worksheet and dazzles his opponents by striking out 97 batters in 56-1/3 innings. Of his six victories, Mitchell throws one no-hitter, two one-hitters, two two-hitters, and one six-hitter.

1918 APRIL 5-6 — Maroon hurlers R.H. Pepper and J.T. Peatross shut down Mississippi College by tossing back-to-back no-hitters. Pepper opens the two-game series by allowing the Choctaws only four walks in a 5-0 A&M win. But his shining accomplishment is overshadowed the following day as Peatross pitches only the second perfect game in MSU history, downing Mississippi College 1-0.

1920 APRIL 5 — Legendary Dudy Noble Field namesake Clarke Randolph "Dudy" Noble coaches his first game at his alma mater, a 5-3 loss to the University of Illinois. Noble will go on to coach at MSU for 26 years, during which time he compiles a 267-201-9 record and wins three Southern Intercollegiate Conference Championships.

1924 MAY 13 — Two baseball rarities occur in the same game during a campus contest against Mississippi. Not only does A&M retire the Rebels on three straight pitches in one inning, but shortstop C.S. (Buddy) Myer gives the Maroons a much-needed boost by cranking out a grand slam to lead his team to a 6-4 victory. Myer's shot is believed to be the first grand slam in the history of MSU. Myer would go on to play 17 years in the major leagues with Washington and Boston, hitting for a career average of .303.

1947 APRIL 18 — LSU outfielder Joe Bill Adcock launches a shot an estimated 500 feet into the MSU swimming pool at "old" Dudy Noble Field. Adcock would play only one season at LSU before playing 16 years in the major leagues, but his tremendous blow is still talked about by long-time Bulldog baseball fans.

1948 MAY 31 — R.P. "Doc" Patty guides the Bulldogs to their first Southeastern Conference Championship in his initial season as head coach. MSU defeats Auburn in the championship playoff, three games to none, thanks to the efforts of All-SEC outfielder Johnny Grace, who led the Bulldogs with a .375 batting average.

1949 JUNE — Mississippi State College wins its second consecutive SEC Championship by downing Kentucky three games to one in the title series. All-conference infielder Alex Grammas and brother Pete Grammas were crowd favorites in helping lead the Bulldogs to a 19-6 record. Alex Grammas would go on to play 10 seasons in the National League and later coach for the Detroit Tigers.

1965 MAY 9 — Outfielder Del Unser belts three round-trippers and picks up a double to set a single-game team record for total bases with 14. Unser spreads his blasts around, sending a shot to all three fields as the Bulldogs fall to Mississippi, 10-7. The power outburst gives Unser seven homers, all coming in the last six regular-season games.

1965 MAY 22 — Behind conference hits-leader Mike

The 1892 A&M College team was the university's first baseball team outfitted in an official team uniform.

In 1909 Willie Mitchell struck out 26 LSU batters en route to registering a perfect game, the first in SEC history.

C.R. "Dudy" Noble

State captured its first two SEC baseball titles in 1948 and 1949 playing at the original Dudy Noble Field site, shown in this 1949 photo. Following the 1964 season the bleachers and grandstand were dismantled and moved to the present stadium site to make way for the construction of Dorman Hall.

Burns, the Bulldogs top Auburn in the SEC Championship Series, winning two games out of three. After falling to the Tigers in the series opener, MSU battles back with the strong pitching of Ken Tatum, who leads the Bulldogs to 10-1 and 10-2 victories to claim the conference crown. The title marked the first of four won under the guidance of coaching great Paul Gregory.

1966 APRIL 2 — Pitcher James Carroll hurls 14 innings of four-hit baseball as he out-duels Alabama's Kenny Stabler, 2-1. All-America outfielder Del Unser scores the winning run with two out in the bottom of the 14th.

1966 MAY 14 — Right-hander Ken Tatum starts on only two days rest and shuts down the Tennessee Volunteers 9-3, giving the Bulldogs their second consecutive SEC Championship. The game marked MSU's final appearance at Redbird Park in Columbus, which for two seasons served as the home for of MSU Baseball while their "new" Dudy Noble Field was being built.

1970 MAY 5 — Sophomore left-hander Gene Henderson stymies Arkansas in the nightcap with a no-hit performance that gives the Bulldogs, ranked fifth nationally, a doubleheader sweep over the Razorbacks, 6-0 and 1-0. Henderson, along with conference ERA-leader Dennis Hall (0.63) and wins-leader Brantley Jones (9-0), carries MSU to its fifth SEC title. State drops the first game of the best-of-three championship series against Tennessee but rebounds to claim the final two contests 4-3 and 1-0 at Dudy Noble Field.

1971 MAY 14 — All-America third baseman Phil Still and All-SEC pitcher Mike Proffitt help lead the Bulldogs to 5-1 and 3-1 victories over Vanderbilt for their second consecutive SEC Championship on the way to a 32-12 record and the school's first-ever appearance in the NCAA College World Series. After defeating the Commodores in two straight games for the league title, MSU then downs Georgia Tech 5-2 in the NCAA District III championship game in Gastonia, N.C., to become the fifth team from the SEC to advance to CWS competition.

1972 APRIL 14 — Dudy Noble Field hosts its first night game thanks to a new lighting system. MSU alumnus E.B. "Dutch" McCool, a former teammate of coach Paul Gregory, donates the lights to his alma mater, allowing the Bulldogs to play games at night when it is more convenient for fans to attend. McCool was one of the original founders of Holiday Inn.

1976 MARCH 8 — New Mississippi State head coach Ron Polk wins his first game as the Bulldog skipper, 4-0 over Louisiana Tech. MSU finishes the season 28-17, which begins a streak of 32 consecutive winning seasons for Mississippi State.

1977 MARCH 19 — Junior outfielder Nat Showalter begins the season with a modest six-game hitting streak in which he hits .700 (14-for-20) on his way to posting the MSU single-season record for batting average. Showalter, who later would skipper the New York Yankees, the Arizona Diamondbacks, the Texas Rangers and the Baltimore Orioles, hits a gaudy SEC-leading .459 as he garners numerous all-America honors.

1979 MAY 14 — Down 11-9 with one out in the bottom of the eighth, designated hitter Rick Dixon launches a slider nearly 400 feet over the left-center field fence for a three-run homer in the SEC Championship final. The win gives fourth-year head coach Ron Polk his first conference title in the first SEC Tournament held at Dudy Noble Field.

1979 MAY 27 — After falling to nationally-ranked New Orleans in the opening game, the Bulldogs successfully sweep through the loser's bracket to claim the NCAA South Regional Championship. An 8-6 win over Murray State in the championship game of the first NCAA regional at Dudy Noble Field lifted MSU to its second appearance all-time in the prestigious NCAA College World Series.

1981 MARCH 15 — Junior first baseman Bruce Castoria sets a school record and ties the conference mark by driving in 10 runs against UNLV in Las Vegas. Castoria, who would set another school record by cranking four grand slams on the year, hits his second of the season against the Runnin' Rebels, along with a three-run shot, an RBI single and two walks with the bases loaded to account for his 10 RBI.

1981 MAY 24 — State jumps out to an early six-run lead and holds off a late rally by East Tennessee State to win the NCAA Atlantic Regional Championship at Clemson, S.C., 6-5. The Bulldogs would go on to finish fifth nationally at the NCAA College World Series.

1983 FEBRUARY 25 — Freshman Rafael Palmeiro slaps the first pitch he sees as a collegian over the right field fence for a three-run homer during the season-opener against Mississippi College. Palmeiro, who would later pile up 3,020 hits and 569 home runs in a remarkable 20-year pro career, proceeds to hit safely in his first 20 games en route to a team-high and SEC-best .406 batting average.

1983 APRIL 2 — Future major league slugger Will Clark hits his first collegiate home run, an eighth-inning grand slam to straight-away center field, to help lead MSU to a 27-10 pounding over rival Mississippi. The following day, Clark comes in late as a pinch runner and scores the winning run in a 7-6 come-from-behind victory over the Rebels.

1985 MAY 12 — Behind strong pitching and excellent defense, the Bulldogs overpower the field in three games to win the SEC Tournament at LSU's Alex Box Stadium, clinching the title with an 8-3 win over Georgia.

1985 MAY 27 — MSU tops Michigan 19-8 in the championship game of the NCAA South I Regional to earn its third trip to the NCAA College World Series under Ron Polk. Right fielder/relief pitcher Bobby Thigpen, who a year before hit a grand slam in his first career at-bat at Dudy Noble Field, shines in his home finale by cranking another bases-loaded blast. MVP Jeff Brantley is among seven Bulldogs named to the 11-player all-tournament team.

MSU President William Giles (left) presents coach Paul Gregory and the Baseball Bulldogs their 1966 SEC Baseball Championship trophy. Mississippi State won back-to-back SEC titles in 1965 and 1966, the first two of four won during Gregory's 18-year term as skipper of the Baseball Bulldogs.

Outfielder Mike Kelley was named the MVP of the 1979 SEC Baseball Tournament. It was the first of five SEC tournaments hosted by MSU at Dudy Noble Field.

BULLDOG BASEBALL HISTORY

1985 OCTOBER 23 — The United States Baseball Federation names Mississippi State all-American Will Clark the recipient of the Golden Spikes Award, amateur baseball's most prestigious honor. Clark had been the second player taken overall during baseball's June draft by the San Francisco Giants. Clark still ranks as MSU's all-time career leader in batting average (.391).

1987 MARCH 1 — The "new" Dudy Noble Field re-opens its gates to 4,040 fans who brave the chilly weather and experience what is considered by many to be the nicest baseball stadium in all of college baseball. The $3.5 million showcase consists of 3,700 chairback seats, two 1,500-seat bleachers down each line, and the spacious Joe Phillips Press Box. MSU doesn't disappoint the home crowd, downing Birmingham-Southern 4-1.

1987 MAY 14 — Freshman center fielder Jody Hurst blasts two homers and Mississippi State scores four runs in the bottom of the ninth to lead the sixth-seeded Bulldogs over top-seeded Georgia, 6-5, in the opening-round of the SEC Tournament in Athens, Ga. MSU swept three games from Alabama in the final regular season series to qualify for the tournament and won four straight SEC Tournament games to claim the championship and earn a spot in an NCAA Regional.

1988 APRIL 16 — Mississippi State shatters its own NCAA on-campus attendance record (10,619) as 14,378 Bulldog faithful jam Dudy Noble Field for MSU's doubleheader split with LSU. The following evening, State plays its fifth regular-season game ever on ESPN, besting the Tigers 1-0 on the strength of outfielder John Cohen's fifth-inning solo shot to center field.

1989 APRIL 22 — Mississippi State once again sets the NCAA on-campus attendance record when a crowd of 14,991 witness the Bulldogs' doubleheader sweep of Florida. Junior second baseman Burke Masters caps the evening off in fine fashion by drilling a solo shot into the famous Outfield Terrace during the Bulldogs' final at-bat to lift MSU over the Gators 5-4.

1989 APRIL 30 — Coach Ron Polk's Bulldogs claim their third SEC Championship in five years and the 10th in school history by winning a 28-16 slugfest at Kentucky, setting the single-game team record for most hits (30) and tying the record for most home runs (6). Junior outfielder Tracy Echols ties an SEC record by recording six hits in the contest.

1989 MAY 25-28 — Dudy Noble Field hosts its fifth NCAA regional in six years. The 1989 South Regional draws an NCAA-record 56,906 fans during the 11-game event, an average of 5,173 per game.

1990 MAY 28 — Jon Shave drives in Tommy Raffo with two out in the top of the eighth to cap a three-run MSU rally and give State a 4-3 win over Florida State in the championship game of the NCAA South II Regional in Starkville. With the win, MSU earns its fifth trip to the College World Series in Omaha, Neb. Five Bulldogs were named to the all-tournament team, including MVP Burke Masters, whose dramatic ninth-inning grand slam against Florida State had earlier provided MSU with an 11-8 victory.

1990 MAY 21 — Left-hander B.J. ## THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 79-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

SEC baseball posted another banner season in 2012 as the conference advanced eight teams to NCAA postseason play — Arkansas, Florida, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi State, Ole Miss, South Carolina and Vanderbilt. Three of those, Arkansas, Florida and South Carolina, marched on to the NCAA College World Series, marking the 27th time in the last 28 years that the Southeastern Conference has had representation in college baseball's "elite eight" in Omaha. With South Carolina's advancement to the 2012 championship series, an SEC team has played for the national title for five consecutive years and eight times since 2000.

At the conclusion of the SEC's 30-game, 10-weekend regular season schedule, LSU emerged as the SEC's Western Division and overall regular-season title winner with a 19-11 record in conference play. Two-time defending NCAA champion South Carolina claimed the SEC East with an 18-11 record. And fast-finishing Mississippi State won five of six games in the SEC Tournament to earn its seventh league tourney title.

The Southeastern Conference boasts of 12 former National Players of the Year, 11 Baseball America Coach of the Year and 10 Collegiate Baseball Coach of the Year honorees. Additionally, 155 student-athletes have been accorded all-America team honors. State's Chris Stratton was among six so-honored in 2012.

Stratton was also one of four SEC baseball players taken in the first round of Major League Baseball's 2012 First-Year Player Draft last June. The SEC has now had at least one player drafted in the first round each year since 1991 and 93 overall during that span.

The SEC further solidified its position as the nation's attendance leader in college baseball in 2012. Some 2.2 million tickets were distributed for games at the SEC's 12 ball parks last year. Seven SEC teams eclipsed the 100,000 mark in total home baseball attendance, with average paid attendance surpassing the 5,000 mark in the SEC for the first time.

Thanks to a large contingent of Mississippi State fans attending the event in Hoover, Ala., the SEC Tournament drew a new event record of 129,112 in 2012 at Regions Park, and average of 7,595 per contest. The championship game between MSU and Vanderbilt was televised nationally on ESPN2.

ABOUT THE SEC

Mississippi State University is a charter member of the Southeastern Conference, a pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition and a national leader as intercollegiate athletics marches on into the 21st century.

With addition in 2012-13 of former Big 12 Conference members Missouri and Texas A&M in 2012-13, the Southeastern Conference, headquartered in Birmingham, Ala., is now comprised of 14 universities that span an 11-state region. It conducts championships in 11 women's and nine men's sports. The member schools are split into two divisions. Mississippi State is joined in the SEC West by Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Arkansas LSU, Ole Miss and Texas A&M. The SEC Eastern Division features Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Missouri, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. All but Arkansas and South Carolina, who joined the league in 1991-92, and conference newcomers Missouri and Texas A&M, were among 13 charter members of the SEC.

SEC BASEBALL ON TV

SEC baseball's television exposure, bolstered in 2010 by the league's landmark 15-year agreement with cable sports giant ESPN, gives the league unparalleled television exposure.

That TV package, expanded on 2010 to include and SEC Thursday Night Game of the Week on ESPN, includes 10 regular season games and coverage of the SEC Baseball Tournament. More than 70 SEC baseball broadcasts are included in the SEC's 2013 baseball TV lineup televised, with exposure on ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, ESPNEWS and the league's other TV partners FOX Sports Network, SportSouth and Comcast Sports Southeast. Additionally, many of the games will also be available online through WatchESPN/ESPN3.

In 2011 the SEC partnered with ESPN to launch a groundbreaking seven-game Thursday night SEC Game of the Week series. That series returns for 2013 and for the second straight year includes a Super Bulldog Weekend series-opening game at Dudy Noble Field. State's series against Auburn has been adjusted for inclusion in the popular Thursday night TV package (April 18). MSU's Friday night series-opener at Dudy Noble Field against Alabama (May 3) will also be televised nationally on ESPNU.

THE SEC TOURNAMENT

The SEC conducts a postseason tournament at the end of its 10-weekend, 30-game league schedule. The winner receives the league's automatic qualifying bid for the NCAA baseball tournament.

The SEC tournament field expanded from eight to 10 teams in 2012 and grows to 12 teams in 2013. The teams with the 12 highest conference winning percentages qualify for the double-elimination SEC tournament, with the top four teams receiving opening round tournament byes in the double-bracket event. The winners of each bracket meet May 26 in a nationally-televised championship game.

The 2013 SEC Tournament (May 21-26) will be the league's 37th dating back to 1978. And for the 18th time overall and the 16th consecutive year, the event will be staged in Hoover, Ala., at the Hoover Metropolitan Stadium, once the 10,800-seat home of the Class AA Southern League's Birmingham Barons (Chicago White Sox). The facility can accommodate crowds of up to 16,000.

Mississippi State claimed its seventh SEC Baseball Tournament title (second-most in the SEC) last May. With the Bulldogs playing in six games, the tournament drew a record 129,112 fans in 2012, averaging crowds of 7,595. State's six games in Hoover averaged 8,357 fans, including an MSU-dominated 12,526 in the championship game against Vanderbilt.

Dr. Mark E. Keenum President

Dr. Mark Everett Keenum became Mississippi State's 19th president January 5, 2009, following a distinguished public service career.

Despite difficult economic times, Dr. Keenum has guided Mississippi State to new heights. His quick action to address budget shortfalls put the university in position to meet those challenges and maintain the highest level of academic excellence. The university has experienced record enrollment growth, which includes students with the highest ACT average of any university in Mississippi. Increased enrollment has also spurred new construction on campus, with two new residence halls completed and opened in the last year. The Mize Pavilion, a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility, was dedicated in 2011. Plans in the immediate future include construction of another new residence hall, a new classroom building and renovation of historic Lee Hall. The Leo W. Seal Jr. Football Complex was completed in early 2013 and work is progressing for an extensive project to expand Davis Wade Stadium. That project is expected to be completed prior to the 2014 football season.

Since 2009, fundraising has reached all-time record levels at Mississippi State. Giving by alumni and friends has surpassed $290 million over that period, including the highly successful StatePride initiative that is providing scholarship for students and support for MSU faculty.

Dr. Keenum has also been instrumental in expanding the MSU Promise Program, which provides need-based scholarship assistance to Mississippi students whose families have limited financial means. Through the Sonny Montgomery Center for America's Veterans, he has also led initiatives to make Mississippi State one of the most veteran-friendly universities in the nation.

Mississippi State has strengthened its role as the flagship research university in the state. The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching classified MSU as a university with "very high research activity," the only such designation in Mississippi. Dr. Keenum travels frequently to Washington, D.C., meeting with Congressional leaders and federal agency heads to pursue research opportunities and broaden the university's influence on the national level. He has worked closely with the governor, lieutenant governor and Mississippi Legislature in support of higher education in our state.

A graduate of Mississippi State University with degrees in agricultural economics, Dr. Keenum began his career at MSU as a faculty member with the Extension Service and the Department of Agricultural Economics. He went on to serve as chief of staff to U.S. Senator Thad Cochran in Washington, DC and was Under Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture prior to returning home to Mississippi State.

He graduated from Corinth (Miss.) High School and earned as associate of arts degree from Northeast Mississippi Community College in Booneville and was a member of the Northeast Tigers football team.

Dr. Keenum is married to the former of Booneville, also an MSU graduate. They have four children: Rett, Mary Phillips, Katie and Torie.

Scott Stricklin Director of Athletics

Using more than two decades of intercollegiate experience in communications, development and marketing, Scott Stricklin has built a wave of momentum within the Mississippi State fan base during his tenure as the director of athletics.

From his first day on the job as Mississippi State's Athletics Director in May 2010, Stricklin, integrating the department's three foundations of focus on student-athletes, possessing great integrity and aggressively promoting Mississippi State University, has overseen a stretch in which the Bulldogs enjoyed both on and off the field successes unparalleled in more than a decade.

On the field, the Bulldog football team has advanced to appearances in three consecutive postseason bowl games. The men's tennis team claimed the SEC Western Division title in both 2011 and 2012. The Bulldog baseball team won the 2012 SEC Baseball Tournament and registered back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2011 and 2012 while the MSU softball team returned to NCAA postseason play in 2012.

Mississippi State's male and female athletes finished the 2011 fall semester with an aggregate 3.01 grade point average, the highest single semester grade point average in school history. Thirteen of MSU's 16 varsity sports surpassed the 3.00 GPA mark. Bulldog student-athletes again excelled in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, with all 16 sports far exceeding the minimum standard.

Stricklin has overseen record fundraising for Bulldog Athletics, which has produced new facilities such as the $11.7 million Mize Pavilion at Humphrey Coliseum, the $20 million Leo W. Seal Jr. football practice and training complex as well as expansion and upgrades, under way at Davis Wade Stadium.

The Bulldog Club has initiated the most ambitious fundraising drive in the athletic department's history --- "Today, Tomorrow, Forever" --- to generate funding for new construction and upgrades to existing facilities.

Supporters are responding at the turnstiles as well, with sellout crowds the norm and record season ticket sales the norm at Davis Wade Stadium.

Stricklin certainly wasn't a stranger to the Bulldog family or college athletics when he took over the reins at State. A 1992 graduate of Mississippi State, the Jackson, Miss., native's resume is highlighted by nearly two dozen years of experience on the collegiate level in various capacities at five different universities.

He served as a student assistant and later full-time assistant in MSU's athletic media relations office working primarily with publicity for the Bulldogs' baseball program. He then made successive moves to Auburn (1993-98) Tulane (1998) and Baylor (1999-2003). In 2003, Stricklin returned to the SEC at Kentucky as Associate AD for Media Relations overseeing publicity efforts for the UK basketball program for five years.

Stricklin, 43, is married to the former Anne Howell, the youngest daughter of Basketball Hall of Fame member and former MSU basketball great Bailey Howell. The couple has two daughters, Abby and Sophie.

Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium, regarded as one of nation's premier venues for college baseball, approaches a significant milestone during the 2013 campaign.

The 2013 season marks the 47th season of baseball at the current site of Mississippi State baseball's on-campus home field, Dudy Noble Field. And in the 46 seasons since MSU first settled into its current on-campus baseball home in 1967, Mississippi State has registered 998 wins, prevailing in more than 73 percent of the 1,366 contests it has hosted over the past six decades.

Over the past five decades the facility has evolved into the nation's largest campus facility for college baseball and what many regard as the sport's finest all-around baseball complex.

MSU has eclipsed the 200,000 mark in paid attendance at Dudy Noble Field six times in the past 11 years, including a school-record 233,015 in 2003 and a school-best average of 6,939 during MSU's run to the 2007 NCAA College World Series. Since home attendance figures were first charted in 1976, the home of the Diamond Dogs has drawn nearly 4.8 million fans.

The field is named in honor of longtime MSU baseball coach, athletic director and ABCA Hall of Famer Clarke Randolph "Dudy" Noble. And on April 27, 1998 the facility was renamed Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium, honoring another ABCA Hall of Famer, former Bulldog skipper Ron Polk and the late Gordon DeMent, a successful businessman and longtime fan of the Baseball Bulldogs from Indianola, Miss.

Dudy Noble Field, the home to seven Southeastern Conference championship teams, has twice hosted crowds in excess of 14,000, including an NCAA on-campus-record 14,991 that watched the Bulldogs take on SEC Eastern Division rival Florida in a Saturday twin-bill in 1989. State has hosted crowds of 10,000 or better 26 times, including 2007 NCAA Super Regional-record draws of 13,715 and 12,620 for nationally-televised late morning games against Clemson. MSU has hosted three NCAA District III tournaments (1973-1975), five SEC tournaments (1979, 1981, 1983, 1988 and 1995), 11 NCAA Regional tournaments (1979, 1984, 1985, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1992, 1997, 2000 and 2003) and its first NCAA Super Regional in 2007.

From 1929 until 1964, Mississippi State hosted its baseball games at the original on-campus site for Dudy Noble Field several hundred yards to the south of Scott Field, State's football stadium. The baseball field was closed following the 1964 season to make way for the construction of Dorman Hall. And for the next two seasons, while the "new" Dudy Noble Field was being built, the Diamond Dogs played their home games in Columbus at Redbird Park capturing SEC titles both seasons at their temporary Columbus home. Meanwhile, the tin-roofed grandstand and 2,000-seat bleachers at the old field were moved to the stadium's present site, which became playable for the 1967 season.

Facility enhancements have followed a steady pace over the years ever since.

In 1971, thanks to the generosity of the late E.B. "Dutch" McCool, a former MSU baseball player and one of the founding fathers of Holiday Inns, Inc., MSU took the lead in the Southeastern Conference with the installation of a lighting system. The advent of night baseball in Starkville helped build a solid fan base. Drainage and irrigation systems and an expanded scoreboard with an animation-equipped message center, new batting ranges and an infield tarp became the stadium's next improvements.

Mississippi State hosted its first SEC Baseball Tournament and NCAA Regional in 1979, winning both and setting attendance marks while opening eyes along the way.

The crowds mushroomed further in the 1980s as future Major League stars Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Rafael Palmeiro and Bobby Thigpen helped the 1985 Bulldogs win the SEC championship, host and win another regional championship and earn MSU's highest national finish, a tie for third place at the NCAA College World Series.

It became apparent that support for baseball at State had easily out-grown its cozy Dudy Noble Field facility. Two years after that magical '85 season Mississippi State unveiled a dramatic advancement for its baseball facilities — an impressive $3.5 million project that would give MSU the biggest baseball stadium in the league.

The new facility at Dudy Noble Field, built in less than nine months, featured an impressive concrete grandstand structure with 3,700 maroon theater-style seats, a spacious elevated press box, and rest room, ticket, souvenir and concession-vending facilities. The team clubhouse featured a spacious 40-locker dressing room and team area. A pair of 1,500-seat bleachers that once overlooked the end zones at Scott Field, the home of MSU's football Bulldogs, were refurbished and installed along the foul lines, raising seating capacity at Dudy Noble Field to 6,700. The facility was later chosen by Sports Illustrated as the best play to watch college baseball, and it helped ignite a drive to update baseball facilities throughout the SEC and beyond.

The expanded capacity at the stadium also triggered an increase in MSU's annual baseball season ticket base to more than 5,600, virtually assuring Mississippi State's place among national leaders in college baseball attendance every year.

A second permanent concession stand was added in 1989, and a year later, the cinder warning track at the outfield fence was extended to completely encircle the playing field. That project, along with the installation of a six-foot high padded outfield fence, was made possible by a donation by former MSU All-American and Major League standout Will Clark.

Best-selling author, MSU alumnus and avid MSU baseball fan John Grisham donated funding in 1993 for an indoor batting range under the first base grandstand, and in August 1998 construction got under way on an ambitious project that added 18 sky suites and more than 600 additional chairback seats in the grandstand. When it was completed during the 2000 season, permanent seating capacity at Dudy Noble Field had eclipsed the 7,000 mark.

The aura of Mississippi State baseball at Dudy Noble Field is certainly not confined to the loyal legions in the impressive grandstand, pro-style luxury sky suites and bleachers.

In fact, some of the more highly-prized seats at Bulldog Baseball games are found beyond the outfield fence in the "Left Field Lounge". Waiting lists greet those seeking to purchase one of nearly 75 renewable season parking passes for an assigned position in one of three rows beyond the outfield fence. There, a colorful assortment of pickup trucks, motor homes, and trailers — most equipped with barbecue grills — line the outfield fence, completing a circle of humanity at Dudy Noble Field.

What began in the late 1960s as a popular gathering spot for baseball-loving MSU students now forms college baseball's largest tailgate party. A 10-foot wide boardwalk has since been added to the area between the outfield fence and the first row of outfield terrace parking.

Not surprisingly MSU ranks each year among the nation's leaders in attendance. Single-game paid attendance totals have reached the five-digit mark 26 times, and each year Dudy Noble Field routinely hosts games with the Southeastern Conference's largest actual attendance. SEC weekend games typically draw the largest crowds, giving rise to huge weekend gatherings in the spring. Six of the last eight three-game Super Bulldog Weekend series have drawn more than 25,000, including an SEC series-record 29,915 fans that watched the 2006 MSU-Georgia series.

Still, the improvements continue at Dudy Noble Field. Prior to the start of the 2003 season 46-foot "major league" foul poles were added, and a year later a new state-of-the-art scoreboard/message center, courtesy of the Henry Mize Foundation, was installed along with new fencing and gates surrounding the main grandstand.

The landscape surrounding Dudy Noble Field took on an even more impressive look in 2005 with the completion of the Palmeiro Center, a massive 68,000-square foot climate-controlled turf indoor practice facility located adjacent to Dudy Noble Field. The spacious facility, made possible by a generous lead gift from former MSU great Rafael Palmeiro and his wife Lynne, features a regulation infield practice area, additional training area and three retractable batting cages.

Nestled between the Palmeiro Center and Dudy Noble Field is the baseball coaches office complex, also completed in 2005. The complex, which also houses a baseball heritage room, was made possible by contributions from former Bulldog players Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Eric DuBose, Paul Maholm, Jay Powell and Bobby Thigpen and former MSU manager James "Bo" McKinnis.

Mississippi State's baseball complex received a boost with the addition of the Bryce Griffis Boardroom, a $1.5 million, meeting/banquet hall extension on the south end of the Palmeiro Center. The facility features banquet seating for approximately 350.

Facility upgrades totaling more than $2 million in the past three years include an expanded state-of-the-art high definition video board, the addition of a new drainage and irrigation system along with a new carpet of natural sod and infield dirt, and expanded dugouts. Even the grandstand got a little grander with a resurfacing and repainting project topped by all-new cupholder-equipped maroon chairback seats and the installation of a new sound system. Prior to the start of the 2012 campaign work was completed on the installation of a new sound system, a 36,000-watt amplification system evenly distributing sound on a 78-speaker system throughout the stadium.

These latest facility enhancements continue an on-going Mississippi State campaign to maintain the standing of Dudy Noble Field* as one of the nation's premier venues for college baseball.
