MSU BASEBALL RADIO NETWORK

Mississippi State University is home to one of the nation's largest and oldest collegiate baseball radio networks, affording fans throughout the Magnolia State and beyond an opportunity to regularly follow the exploits of Starkville's Team throughout the season.

Network programming for the MSU baseball broadcasts is distributed and coordinated through the facilities of Learfield Sports, Inc., headquartered in Jefferson City, Mo.

The 2015 Mississippi State University Baseball Radio Network, a team of more than a dozen radio outlets, carries the broadcasts of a 40-game network schedule (all 30 SEC weekend contests and 10 selected non-conference games) plus all postseason competition. In addition to the 40-game network schedule, the broadcasts of most non-network games are carried in the Golden Triangle area by WKBB-FM (100.9) in West Point, Miss.

Mississippi State baseball network radio broadcasts (some limited exceptions) are also available on a subscription basis via the internet through HailState.com.

The broadcasts feature pregame and postgame interviews, hosted by the "voice" of the Diamond Dawgs, Jim Ellis, and Bart Gregory, who joined the MSU baseball broadcast team in 2012.

Radio broadcasts of Bulldog Baseball originated in the 1960s on Starkville radio station WSSO thanks to the work of the late Joe Phillips, a pioneer in radio broadcasting in the state of Mississippi. The press box at Dudy Noble Field is named in honor of Phillips.

But credit for turning the single-station broadcast into an impressive collection of radio outlets blanketing the Magnolia State goes to veteran MSU sports broadcaster, Jim Ellis, who in 2015 enters his 37th season of describing the exploits of the Diamond Dawgs. A native of West Point, Miss., and a 1969 MSU grad, Ellis coordinates the operation of State's baseball radio network. Ellis also handles the play-by-play for MSU football and basketball after having teamed on those broadcasts for more than three decades with MSU radio legend Jack Cristil.

Bart Gregory, a native of Nanih Waiya, Miss., and a 1999 Mississippi State graduate, joined Ellis in the broadcast booth in 2012. He began his career in sports broadcasting at the University of West Alabama in 2000 and returned to Starkville the following year. While at MSU, he initially served as on-air talent for women's basketball games and select baseball games, while hosting MSU football pregame and postgame shows.

Gregory's affiliation with the MSU athletics family began in 2000 with his appointment as an account representative for the Bulldogs Sports Network. Since 2008, he has served in the Bulldog Club as assistant athletics director for annual giving.

DAWG TALK

The MSU baseball broadcast lineup also includes the popular weekly John Cohen call-in radio show "DawgTalk". The show begins an eight-week run March 23 and airs each Monday from 7-8 p.m. live from Dawg House Sports Grill II, downtown Starkville's newest restaurant. Fans can attend in person for free at 217 East Main Street, listen on affiliated radio stations in Mississippi or ask Cohen a question by calling 866-998-4893.

MSU BASEBALL WITH JOHN COHEN

MSU's weekly baseball television coach's show returns for its 28th season in 2015. "Mississippi State Baseball with John Cohen" is a joint production of Hail State Video and Bulldog Sports Properties, a property of Learfield Sports. The 30-minute television program runs for eight weeks this spring and is an all-access look inside the Mississippi State baseball program.

SEC NETWORK +

Bulldog fans around the world can watch 36 of State's 56 regular-season games in 2015 live on the SEC Network + digital app, which replaces the 2014 online video platform HailStateTV as MSU's HD digital live stream provider.

John Cohen, who has directed Mississippi State to the NCAA Tournament in each of the last four seasons, including a program-record runner-up finish in the 2013 College World Series, is in his third decade in the collegiate coaching ranks and his seventh campaign as head coach in Starkville.

Regarded by many as one of the most innovative coaches in the collegiate baseball ranks, Cohen was introduced as MSU's 16th head baseball coach on June 7, 2008, exactly 18 years to the day after leaving Omaha, Neb., and the 1990 NCAA College World Series following his final game as a MSU player.

Cohen's return to Dudy Noble Field completed a success-filled and fast-paced circle that began when the Tuscaloosa, Ala., native first joined MSU's baseball family as a player in 1987. He returned with 17 years of collegiate coaching experience, nine of those as a collegiate head coach. Immediately prior to his arrival back in StarkVegas, Cohen enjoyed a successful five-year run as head coach at Southeastern Conference Eastern Division foe Kentucky.

An All-SEC outfielder during his playing career at State, Cohen enters his 16th season as a collegiate head coach in 2015 with an overall record of 537-351-1, including a 216-155 record in six seasons at Mississippi State.

Including previous career coaching assignments at Missouri (1992-97), Northwestern (La.) State (1998-2001), Florida (2002-03) and Kentucky (2004-08), Cohen has been associated with teams over the past 23 seasons that have piled up 805 wins while producing more than 111 Major League Baseball Draft selections and 23 All-Americans.

His prowess as one of the nation's top hitting instructors has mounted with each step along the way in his coaching career.

That coaching expertise gained nationwide attention in 2006 when, in his third season at Kentucky, he guided the Wildcats to a remarkable worst-to-first finish in the rugged SEC. That season, UK posted a school-best 44-win season, captured the school's first league baseball crown and brought the first NCAA regional baseball tournament to a Lexington campus noted more for its hoops prominence. With 13 top-10 draft picks over a three-year span, the Wildcats virtually rewrote the Big Blue record book, powered by the likes of All-American standout and SEC Player of the Year Ryan Strieby and All-SEC performers John Shelby and Sean Coughlin.

Cohen's coaching efforts did not go unnoticed. He was awarded national coach of the year honors by both the College Baseball Foundation and CollegeBaseballInsider.com. In addition, he was tabbed by his peers for conference coach of the year accolades for the third time in his career.

At each coaching stop in his career, MSU's skipper has had an adaptability factor like no other. At smaller ballparks where offense was critical to each team's success, Cohen excelled. In his time at each campus, the Tuscaloosa, Ala., native broke the single-season school runs record at Florida (2002) and Kentucky (2006 and 2008).

As the hitting coach at Missouri in 1996, the Tigers broke the school record for hits (659) and doubles (144). In the same position at Florida in 2002, the Gators led the country in hits (825) and ranked second nationally in average (.346), runs per game (9.74) and home runs per game (1.71). Cohen's hitters also set or tied 41 total offensive school records (20 team/21 individual).

When Cohen was coaching at bigger ballparks, he adjusted accordingly. His Northwestern State pitching staffs set 10 school records from 1998-2001 as Cohen took home two Southland Conference championships and Coach of the Year honors. In Starkville at the spacious Dudy Noble Field, Cohen's pitching staff enters 2014 leading the country in double plays the last three seasons (151), while ranking third in strikeouts.

At MSU, Cohen has assembled a well-respected and highly-skilled coaching staff featuring coaches well-versed in the Maroon and White's colorful baseball tradition, the Magnolia State's high school and junior college programs and the nation's top college baseball league. All the while, Cohen has continued to lay and build upon a strong foundation for success on the diamond at Mississippi State.

An annual leader nationally in college baseball attendance, Starkville's Team has registered seven of its top nine all-time marks in baseball season-ticket sales during Cohen's tenure, including a school-record 5,874 in 2014. In a program initiated at State by Cohen, many of those tickets are hand-delivered by MSU players to Starkville patrons each year. Cohen also organized "The Dudes" in 2012, a student support group for baseball designed to grow his program's brand among students on campus.

Mississippi State players have received All-SEC recognition in each of Cohen's six years at State, while 24 Diamond Dawgs have had their names called during the MLB Draft conducted the past seven seasons, including the 2012-13 first-round combo of Chris Stratton and Hunter Renfroe, the first time in history a Mississippi school produced a first rounder in consecutive drafts.

In the all-important recruiting realm, Cohen's recruiting classes at State garnered high national acclaim. His 2009 debut recruiting class was ranked as the nation's eighth best by Baseball America. Cohen's second class in 2010 earned a No. 18 ranking, followed by a No. 14 ranking the following year. After a rare ranking of 37 in 2012, Cohen reeled in a No. 2 recruiting class (2013) and a No. 6-ranked group (2014) by Collegiate Baseball the last two years, marking the highest-ranked consecutive classes in school history. The No. 2 class marked the second-highest ever for the Bulldogs by Collegiate Baseball, which began ranking classes in 1983.

On the facilities front, Cohen's enormous success in Starkville has led to the August 2014 announcement of an ambitious $40 million facility project that aims to remake Dudy Noble Field into the finest in college baseball.

The Dudy Noble Field Master Plan calls for a new double-tiered grandstand with chairback seating, an elevated concourse that encircles the playing field and allows a constant view of the game action, welcoming entry plazas, spacious restrooms, concessions, a kids' play area, berm seating, upgraded field lighting, HD video board, digital ribbon signage, team areas (clubhouse, training room, equipment room, coaches' offices, etc.) and dramatically improved aesthetics.

Off the field, Cohen maintains a strong commitment to excellence in the classroom, having produced a 3.0 GPA average or better in 11 of his first 13 semesters as head coach in Starkville. Led by 2014 SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year Seth Heck, the team's 2014 fall term GPA was a 3.08, the highest of any male sport on campus. MSU's wide lead in all-time academic all-conference awards has grown during Cohen's term at State, with 105 selections to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in six seasons. In addition, 39 MSU newcomers received SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll status the past six years, including a record 10 in 2014. Following the 2012 campaign, first-round draft pick Chris Stratton became the 17th Diamond Dog to receive academic All-America team honors.

Continuing a trademark that has grown during his coaching career, Cohen is a highly sought-after featured speaker and clinician. He has traveled the nation sharing his expertise at numerous baseball clinics in 30 states, including a speaking engagement at the 2010 American Baseball Coaches Association Convention, his third appearance at the annual event. Cohen has also maintained a full schedule of speaking engagements at alumni gatherings, civic organization meetings and baseball banquets on a variety of levels throughout the Magnolia State.

Cohen, the fifth MSU grad to serve as skipper at State, is one of two current SEC head baseball coaches coaching at his alma mater. He is also one of seven coaches in history to lead his alma mater to the NCAA College World Series as both a player and a coach.

Cohen, 48, is married to the former Nelle Bashinsky, also from Tuscaloosa. The couple has two daughters - Jordan Baker and Avery Lawson.

COHEN THE PLAYER

Mississippi State skipper John Cohen wears No. 11 because it's the same number he wore during his successful collegiate career as a player at State.

Before college, Cohen was an accomplished two-sport prep athlete at Tuscaloosa Academy, earning all-state honors in both baseball and basketball. His TA hoops teams won three-straight state titles and a school-record 100-consecutive games. But it was on the baseball diamond as a four-year regular playing for coach Don McNabb that Cohen excelled.

He capped his prep career with a stellar senior season in 1985, the same year that, 84 miles away, the likes of Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Rafael Palmeiro and Bobby Thigpen were leading the Diamond Dawgs to a then school-best third-place finish in the NCAA College World Series.

He inked with Birmingham-Southern following his prep career, and as a rookie started in center field for the Panthers, hitting at a .333 clip and earning team defensive MVP honors. On April 24, 1986, Cohen made his Dudy Noble Field debut in a Birmingham-Southern uniform, delivering a double, a triple and driving in three runs in a doubleheader split against the Bulldogs.

Cohen transferred to Mississippi State that fall, sitting out the 1987 campaign as a redshirt before beginning his SEC career playing under legendary MSU head coach Ron Polk.

He was a key contributor during the most successful three-year span in MSU's storied baseball history. The Bulldogs advanced to an NCAA regional tournament berth in each of Cohen's three seasons as a player, capped by a run to Omaha and the 1990 NCAA College World Series. In 1989, he helped lead the Bulldogs to the SEC championship and a school-record 54 wins. During that span, the Bulldogs compiled a 148-46 record (.763) that included two of the program's three 50-win campaigns.

Cohen concluded his career ranked in the top 10 in several statistical categories at MSU and earned First-Team All-SEC distinction as a senior. He was selected by the Minnesota Twins in the 22nd round of the 1990 MLB Draft and played two years in the Twins' minor league system.

COHEN THE COACH

In the fall of 1991, Cohen launched his coaching career in Columbia, Mo., where he joined coach Gene McArtor's Missouri staff as a graduate assistant. When Tim Jamieson followed McArtor as the Tigers' head coach after the 1995 campaign, he tabbed Cohen as his chief assistant, hitting coach and recruiting coordinator.

In 1996, Missouri won the Big Eight championship and advanced to an NCAA regional berth for the first time in 16 years. The Tigers broke nine offensive school records that season, part of 17 total records set by Cohen's offenses over his six years in Columbia.

Following the 1997 season, Cohen headed to Natchitoches, La., for his first head coaching assignment, a four-year term at Northwestern State University. His two predecessors at NSU served as head coaches in the SEC - Arkansas' Dave Van Horn and former Alabama skipper Jim Wells.

Under Cohen, the Demons compiled a 146-84 (.635) mark and claimed a pair of Southland Conference titles (1998 and 2001). He was named the Southland Conference Coach of the Year during both championship seasons.

His well-rounded clubs set 18 individual and team offensive records during his tenure, while his pitching staff set 10 school marks. The 1998 team posted the nation's fifth-best team earned run average (3.82) while the 1999 edition tallied college baseball's seventh-best fielding percentage (.967). His NSU squads also excelled in the classroom, averaging 18 players with GPAs of 3.0 or better each semester while notching 3.0 team GPAs in both 1998 and 1999.

Cohen also spearheaded a highly successful fundraising campaign for NSU's baseball facility, Brown-Stroud Field. The ballpark's grandstand seating increased from 298 to 1,000. All of those seats and then some were needed on April 18, 2001, when a school-record 4,214 fans watched Cohen's Demons knock off defending-national champion LSU.

Cohen further established himself as one of college baseball's best coaches during a successful two-year stint at Florida as an assistant coach on the staff of Gator head coach and former MSU skipper Pat McMahon. While in Gainesville, his UF hitters pulverized opposing pitching and led the SEC in nearly every offensive statistical category. In 2002, the Gators paced the SEC in nine team categories en route to a 46-19 finish and a berth in the NCAA Tournament.

At Florida, Cohen coached a pair of consensus All-Americans who hit .400 and scored more than 100 runs each, Mark Kiger and SEC batting champ Pat Osborn. Cohen's balanced UF offense also included five players hitting 10-plus home runs.

In the 2003 season, the Orange and Blue's high-octane offense paced the SEC in five offensive categories. The Gators finished in the top five in the league for the second-straight season in batting average and Brian Rose became the third UF slugger to earn All-America honors under Cohen's tutelage. Bolstered by its tremendous offense, UF earned its second-consecutive NCAA regional tournament berth.

Cohen's time away from the head coaching circle was brief. After two record-setting campaigns in the Sunshine State, the Tuscaloosa native was hired as head coach at Kentucky in 2003. After a 24-30 finish in his first season at UK (2004), the Wildcats reeled off four-straight winning campaigns. In five seasons as the Wildcats' dugout general, Cohen guided the Blue and White to unprecedented success on the diamond, guiding his teams to a 175-113-1 (.607) record while developing UK into a major player on the national scene.

Cohen's 2006 Wildcat edition turned many heads when it rolled to a 44-17 mark, the school's first SEC baseball title and registered the league's first worst-to-first one-season turnaround in baseball. For his efforts, Cohen received national and conference coach of the year plaudits in 2006, a season in which UK hosted its first NCAA regional tournament.

That 2006 UK team piled up a school-record 500 runs, while his 2007 club led the SEC in eight offensive categories. The 2007 edition of the Wildcats also ranked third nationally in home runs and slugging percentage and hit for a stellar .320 average, which fell just one point shy of the school record.

The record-breaking parade continued in 2008 when UK raced to a 19-0 start and a top-five national ranking. Kentucky matched its school-best win total with a 44-19 finish and for the second time during Cohen's term in Lexington, advanced to an NCAA regional tournament.

Cohen arrived back in Starkville in June 2008 and returned Mississippi State to the NCAA postseason scene in 2011. State recorded with an overall record of 38-25 that year, sweeping three games to capture the NCAA Atlanta Regional before pushing No. 2 national seed Florida to a third game in a dramatic Super Regional in Gainesville. A year later, the 2012 Diamond Dawgs won their seventh SEC Baseball Tournament and went on to compete in the NCAA Tallahassee Regional. The Bulldogs registered a 40-24 record for the program's 18th 40-win campaign and State's first since 2005.

In 2013, Cohen led State to the best finish of any sport in the history of his alma mater - a No. 2 final national ranking and a finalist finish in the NCAA College World Series. The Maroon and White finished 51-20 overall, streamrolling through the NCAA Starkville Regional and upsetting No. 6 national seed Virginia on the road to advance to the school's ninth College World Series.

At the plate, his Bulldogs racked up a school-record 713 hits, good for third in the country, while junior shortstop Adam Frazier led the NCAA with 107 base knocks and paced the SEC with 20 doubles. Junior outfielder Hunter Renfroe led the SEC in both home runs and total bases, going on to be drafted 13th overall by the San Diego Padres in the June 2013 MLB Draft.

As good as MSU was offensively, the pitching and defense carried the load as much as anyone. Six pitchers had ERAs under 2.00, with a collective team ERA of 2.79 and an SEC-high 588 strikeouts. State finished second nationally with a school-record 80 double plays. Cohen's pitchers were one of two staffs in 2013 to finish the top-10 nationally in ERA, strikeouts per nine innings and hits allowed per nine innings.

While 2014 did not end in Omaha, Cohen's sixth season at the helm still produced successful results, ending with a fourth-straight trip to the NCAA Tournament. Mississippi State finished with an overall record of 39-24, including its best SEC mark (18-12) since going 19-11 in 1997. Including his 500th win as head coach on Feb. 16, 2014, Cohen won 38-plus games for the fourth-consecutive season, marking the first time since 1998-2001 the Bulldogs accomplished the feat. Also in that tally was the fact Cohen helped MSU win 16-plus SEC games for the third-consecutive season, marking the third time in history and the first time in 24 years it accomplished the feat (1983-85, 1988-90).

Nationally, the Diamond Dawgs continued to earn a reputation as one of the top fielding programs in the country, leading the SEC and finishing fifth in the NCAA with a school-record .981 fielding percentage in 2014. On the mound, MSU ranked top-20 in the country in strikeouts per nine innings (8.1, 13th) and shutouts (8, 19th). Bulldog pitchers allowed an SEC-low 13 home runs all season.

Overall, Cohen coached a league-high tying six All-SEC selections, placing three members on the All-SEC team, two on the All-Defensive squad and one on the All-Freshman team.

Cohen, wherever he has been, has proven himself as a builder of programs, a coach capable of sustaining success, winning championships and developing both players and people.

Widely regarded as one of the premier pitching coaches in America, Mississippi State associate head coach Butch Thompson enters his seventh season on John Cohen's staff in Starkville as the reigning 2014 Baseball America and American Baseball Coaches Association National Assistant Coach of the Year.

Having turned 23 student-athletes who went undrafted out of high school into Major League Baseball draft picks, the Amory, Miss., native's resume speaks for itself. Player development is key for Thompson, who has been in the trenches for 13 seasons inside the Southeastern Conference and has over two decades of collegiate baseball coaching experience.

With experience comes success for the 1992 Birmingham-Southern graduate, both with his individual tutelage and his teams. Thompson has coached 22 Division I All-Americans and 29 all-conference honors, including 2013 staff ace Kendall Graveman, who on Sept. 5, 2014 at Fenway Park in Boston became the ninth player Thompson tutored to pitch in the big leagues.

The old adage "Pitching wins championships" still rings true for the mound vet, who has appeared in seven College World Series, including a national finalist finish in Omaha in 2013. Thanks in part to recruiting nine nationally-ranked recruiting classes, Thompson has been on nine conference championship teams and one national championship squad.

Inside the toughest conference in college baseball the past three seasons, Thompson has guided the Bulldogs to a nation-leading 201 double plays. In almost 70 percent of games the last three campaigns, MSU gave up four runs or less (136 times), winning 84 percent of the time when doing so (114-22). The preaching of mental toughness has also rang true, as MSU is 144-2 under Thompson the last four seasons when holding a lead after eight innings.

This past season, Thompson had three pitchers drafted in the first 11 rounds of the 2014 MLB Draft, and another one (Ben Bracewell) sign a free agent contract with the Oakland Athletics. Left-handed All-American junior Jacob Lindgren was the New York Yankees' first selection with the 55th overall pick in the second round, before the Yankees drafted MSU junior Jonathan Holder, who finished his career with the most saves of any three-year player in SEC history (37). Righty Brandon Woodruff was taken in the 11th round by the Milwaukee Brewers.

In 2013, Thompson's group was one of two nationally to finish in the top 15 in ERA, strikeouts per nine innings and hits allowed per nine innings. As a result of the success, Thompson saw five pitchers get drafted, including top-10 picks Kendall Graveman (8th Round, Toronto) and All-American Chad Gironi (9th Round, Toronto).

In addition to Gironi, Thompson also coached Holder and Ross Mitchell to All-American honors in 2013. Mitchell, a reliever, was the only pitcher in the country with at least 13 wins and zero losses, owning a microscopic 1.53 ERA. Holder, a closer, became the ninth player in NCAA history with 21 saves in a single season, tying the SEC single-season saves record in the process.

COACHING STAFF

The previous season in 2012, the pitching general guided MSU's staff to the nation's second-lowest staff ERA (2.58), the best at State in nearly 40 seasons (1973). Thompson's group ranked third in the SEC with 536 strikeouts and his hurlers came up big when it mattered most in the postseason, pitching State to five wins in six days en route to the 2012 SEC Baseball Tournament Championship. Leading the group was Stratton, who ranked first or second in the league and among the nation's leaders in wins, strikeouts and ERA.

In 2011, State pitchers ranked as the SEC league's most improved after shaving 2.50 points off its staff ERA as the Bulldogs came within a win of a berth in the NCAA College World Series.

A Mississippi man at heart, Thompson prepped at Amory (Miss.) High School and later starred as a pitcher at Itawamba (Miss.) Community College for head coach Roy Cresap in 1989 and 1990. On Oct. 25, 2014, Thompson was inducted into the ICC Athletic Hall of Fame.

Thompson launched his coaching career as pitching coach and top assistant at Huntingdon College (Montgomery, Ala.) in 1993, before returning to his alma mater in Birmingham, where he helped lead the Panthers to back-to-back Southern States Conference championships and in 1995 coached BSC to its first NAIA World Series berth.

Thompson left BSC briefly to serve as head coach at Jefferson State Community College in Birmingham in 1997. While at JSCC, he was honored as the Regional Tournament Coach of the Year, the ABCA Alabama Junior College Coach of the Year and the Southeast Region Coach of the Year after guiding JSCC to a 39-21 mark, the AJCAA Region 22 State Championship and a third-place finish in the NJCAA Division II World Series.

He returned to Birmingham-Southern as Shoop's top assistant the following season, beginning a four-year run during the most successful span in BSC baseball history. The Panthers won 196 games and four TranSouth Conference championships and made three consecutive appearances in the NAIA World Series. BSC's 2001 team posted a school-best 55-11 mark and captured the NAIA National Championship.

In 2002, Thompson joined the SEC baseball coaching fraternity, beginning a four-year term as pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at Georgia under head coach David Perno. Georgia's 2003 recruiting class was ranked 10th nationally, while capturing the SEC title in 2004 en route to advancing to the NCAA College World Series.

Following the 2005, campaign he continued his SEC affiliation at Auburn, serving as pitching coach and recruiting coordinator on the staff of Tom Slater. Each of his three recruiting classes at Auburn was ranked among the nation's top 18, including a No. 5 national ranking in 2007.

Thompson, honored as the 2006 Fellowship of Christian Athletes SEC Coach of the Year, has shared his expertise as a featured speaker at numerous baseball coaching clinics throughout America.

He earned a bachelor's degree in history at BSC in 1992 and completed a master's degree in sports administration at UAB in 1996. He is married to the former Robin Ashe of Birmingham, Ala., and they are the parents of three daughters --- Anna, Olivia and Madelyn Gail.

COACHING STAFF

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT BUTCH THOMPSON

"To me, Butch Thompson is one of the best coaches I have ever been around. His knowledge of the game shows on the field and he is a superb example off the field as well. He leads his players in the right direction for their life."

– Roy Oswalt, 13-year MLB Veteran, Three-Time MLB All-Star and 2005 NLCS MVP

"His enthusiasm and passion for coaching, recruiting and most importantly pitching is exciting and contagious. I knew he had a bright future ahead of him. I am not surprised he is considered one of the best college pitching coaches in the nation."

– David Eckstein, 10-year MLB Veteran, Two-Time MLB All-Star (2005 and 2006) and 2006 World Series MVP

"It took me only 15 minutes of talking pitching with Butch Thompson before it became apparent to me that I was not only speaking with one of the best pitching coaches in college baseball, but in the professional ranks as well. He is that good."

– Paul Byrd, 14-year MLB Veteran and 1999 MLB All-Star

"Butch Thompson is a tremendous man of integrity and character that just so happens to be one outstanding college baseball coach. If I had a son that had the ability to play baseball on an elite Division 1 level, finding a way to place him under the instruction and mentorship of Butch Thompson would be of the utmost priority."

– Scott Sullivan, 10-year MLB Veteran

"Coach Thompson is like a second dad to me. For him to be a mentor to me, not only on the field but off the field, has always stood out to me. How he develops relationships with recruits and players is huge. He is somebody that means the world to me and I would do anything for him."

– Kendall Graveman, Oakland A's Pitcher

"I love Coach Thompson to death. He is like a father to me. I would do anything for him and I know he would do anything for me. People like him are why I come back (to Starkville). Coach Thompson has taught me a lot and I have to give him all the credit for how far I have gotten."

– Chris Stratton, 2012 San Francisco Giants First-Round Draft Pick

"Butch is one of the best pitching coaches in the country. He is very detailed and it shows on how competitive his pitchers are."

– John Savage, UCLA Head Coach

"I consider Butch Thompson to be a go-to guy for me when it comes to the development of pitchers. He is a lifelong learner who continues to grow himself and the pitchers under his watch."

– Steve Smith, Baylor Head Coach

"Butch has developed into one of the premier coaches in college baseball. Much more importantly, in an era when much of the news around college athletics is bad, Butch is an incredible role model of integrity and character. He is committed to God, to his wife Robin and to his three daughters. As good a coach as he is, Butch is even a better person. It has been an honor to have coached him, to have coached with him and it brings great joy, almost like the joy of a father, to watch Butch have such a huge impact on young lives today."

– Brian Shoop, UAB Head Coach

"One of the great joys during my tenure as president of Mississippi State University has been the growing success of our MSU baseball program. Coach Butch Thompson has been an integral part of the success of our program and I'm keenly aware of the confidence and trust that head coach John Cohen has in him. Mississippi State University is very proud of this richly deserved honor from Baseball America for Butch Thompson."

– Dr. Mark Keenum, Mississippi State University President

"In addition to being an outstanding student of the game, Butch Thompson is a tremendous leader of young people. He combines an unbelievable competitive fire with a true heart for those he coaches. Mississippi State is proud to have Butch as part of our family."

– Scott Stricklin, Mississippi State Director of Athletics

"Butch Thompson is not only one of the most elite coaches in the country – he is one of the best human beings I have ever known. His never-ending dedication to his craft, his loyalty to our program and his devotion to this university is why he is so deserving of this distinguished award."

– John Cohen, Mississippi State Head Coach

2009-12 Coordinator of Baseball Camps, Mississippi State
2012-Present Assistant Coach, Mississippi State

Averaging four players drafted in Major League Baseball for every year coached in college baseball, perhaps no other assistant on the collegiate level has more proven success at player development than Nick Mingione, who has been part of the Mississippi State baseball family since June 2008. Having completed his sixth season in Starkville and 13th total as an assistant coach in 2014, the current Diamond Dawg assistant has worked with 53 MLB Draft picks, coached 33 All-American Honors and developed four conference players of the year.

Along with setting MSU's outfielders, first basemen and hitters up to have success at the next level professionally, State's third base coach is a proven winner. Mingione has appeared in eight college regionals, won seven overall championships and overseen eight nationally-ranked recruiting classes, including two top-10 classes in both 2013 and 2014.

Mingione has won five conference championships, coached in five College World Series and has been a national championship finalist twice, the latest of which came in 2013 as the Bulldogs wrapped up the best season by any sport in the history of MSU athletics.

In 2014, Mingione helped MSU have phenomenal patience at the plate, finishing first in the SEC and 12th nationally with 273 walks. Going up against the best pitchers in the country, he helped coach the Maroon and White to second in the SEC with a .369 on-base percentage. In addition, he continued to develop the talent of Brett Pirtle, who led the league with a .363 batting average on his way to earning All-SEC honors for the second-straight year. With Mingione's help, Pirtle then went on to be drafted by the Detroit Tigers in the 2014 MLB Draft.

Mingione's star pupil in 2013 was right fielder Hunter Renfroe, who earned All-America honors before being chosen 13th overall by the San Diego Padres in that year's MLB Draft. Renfroe's $2.7 million signing bonus was the largest ever given to a prospect from the state of Mississippi. Additionally, MSU's four players chosen in the top 10 rounds were the most in 28 years, while the five All-Americans were the most in school history.

In 2012, the Bulldogs captured their seventh SEC Tournament crown as the team advanced to the NCAA Tallahassee Regional. The year before, Mingione helped coach the Diamond Dawgs to the NCAA Atlanta Regional championship, before falling one out short of the College World Series in the NCAA Gainesville Super Regional at Florida.

Before arriving in Starkville, Mingione was an assistant coach and the recruiting coordinator on head coach Bobby Moranda's staff at Western Carolina. As the hitting coach, Mingione helped direct a Catamount team which earned Top-40 national ranking among 286 NCAA Division I programs in 11 different offensive categories. Showing his skills at developing players, eight players coached by Mingione in 2008 eventually were selected in the MLB Draft.

In his first stint with MSU skipper John Cohen, Mingione served as an assistant coach at Kentucky. Despite winning 36 conference games in the five seasons before his arrival, the Wildcats won 33 SEC games in just two seasons with Mingione in Lexington. The Wildcats went from worst to first in his first year, going from 29-27 (7-22 SEC) in 2005 to 44-17 (20-10 SEC) in 2006. The season culminated in the school's first SEC championship, giving UK its most successful campaign in the 100-plus year history of the program.

COACHING STAFF

As a result, the school hosted a NCAA Regional for the first time and made an appearance in the postseason for the first time in 13 years. In all, Mingione was part of a coaching staff with Cohen that helped set or reestablish 12 school records, including single-season wins.

Working extensively with the UK outfield corps and with Wildcat hitters for two seasons, Mingione coached four eventual All-Americans and six All-South Region players. One of those All-Americans was Ryan Strieby, who was named SEC Player of the Year, marking the third-straight season Mingione had worked with a conference player of the year.

Off the field, Mingione mentored 2006 Academic All-American and current Los Angeles Angels' star Colin Cowgill, as UK had 27 players selected to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in the two seasons Mingione was in Lexington.

Mingione's SEC debut was preceded by the same amount of success he experienced as an assistant coach from 2003-05 at his alma mater, Embry-Riddle. In three years as an assistant, the Eagles went 154-36 overall (.811), won the Florida Sun Conference championship each season and went to the NAIA World Series every year, finishing as a national finalist in 2005.

In three years as an assistant in Daytona Beach, Fla., the Eagles boasted 17 all-region honors, 20 all-conference accolades and two conference players of the year. Off the field, ERU registered a school-record five NAIA All-America Scholar-Athletes in 2004.

Under Mingione's watch, the Eagles' defense excelled. After not having a fielding percentage above .960 in the first 11 years of the program, ERU recorded fielding percentages of .964 in Mingione's first year (fourth all-time), .966 in 2004 (second) and a still school-record .970 in 2005. Thanks to the defense, the Eagles set a single-season school record with 53 total wins in both the 2004 and 2005 seasons.

As an assistant at Florida Gulf Coast in 2002, Mingione helped build the foundation of the program before its inaugural season in 2003, recruiting such players as Justin Stiver and Jason Louwsma. Stiver went on to become the first student-athlete from FGCU to get drafted by a major professional sports league, being taken by the Houston Astros in the 2006 MLB Draft. With Mingione having a keen eye for talent early on, Louwsma also went on to be drafted in the 2006 draft.

Born in Tarrytown, N.Y., Mingione eventually grew up in the Sunshine State and played high school baseball for head coach Scott Jones at Mariner High School in Cape Coral, Fla., before playing collegiately at Embry-Riddle.

He earned a bachelor's degree in aerospace studies with a triple minor in business, psychology and humanities in 2000. Upon graduation, Mingione started his coaching career in 2001 as an assistant coach for his high school alma mater.

Away from the field, Mingione is a frequent traveler, from speaking engagements to mission trips, including one in late 2013 to the island of Eleuthera in the Bahamas. While there, he and six current and former members of the MSU baseball program joined 19 others in building houses and putting on baseball clinics for youth on the island.

Upon arriving back in the States from the Bahamas, Mingione joined the likes of Ted Williams (2002), Ron Polk (2003) Leo Mazzone (2006) and Cohen (2008) by being inducted into the "Be The Best You Are" Baseball Clinic Speaker Hall of Fame.

Mingione received the honor in January 2014 after speaking for a third year at the 41st-annual clinic in Cherry Hill, N.J. While there, he spent time sharing ideas with such baseball minds as New York Yankees hitting coach Kevin Long (2010 inductee), Yankees Director of Pitching Development Gil Patterson and former Bulldog skipper Pat McMahon (2003 inductee).

The clinic, which has been going on for more than four decades, includes "Ultimate Rap Sessions" with multiple-speakers going at one time for 25 minutes on a variety of topics. Mingione has done more than 24 different sessions in a two-day stretch.

Mingione is married to the former Christen Reeves. The couple has one son, Reeves.

COACHING CAREER

2010-11 Volunteer Assistant Coach, Iowa
2012 Volunteer Assistant Coach, Baylor
2013 Assistant Coach, Iowa
2015-Present Coordinator of Baseball Camps, Mississippi State

Zach Dillon was named Mississippi State baseball coordinator of camps, head baseball coach John Cohen announced in July 2014. In addition to his duties associated with directing MSU's summer and winter baseball camps, Dillon also serves as the Bulldogs' volunteer assistant coach and first base coach during the season.

Dillon joins the MSU coaching staff after spending the previous 11 months as the director and head coach of the 18U Iowa Sticks, the premier youth baseball club in Iowa. The new MSU first base coach also worked as the director of the Premier Baseball High School Spring League as well as the PPC Showcase Camps.

Prior to his time in Wauke, Iowa, Dillon served as an assistant coach at the University of Iowa. While there, the Hawkeyes' third base coach was the hitting coach and recruiting coordinator, responsible in all areas of program development including player development, in-game decisions and opponent scouting reports.

Dillon returned to Iowa City after helping Baylor in 2012 as a volunteer assistant. He aided the Bears in reaching a Super Regional and finishing 49-17 overall, one win shy of a school record and a trip to Omaha for the College World Series. Dillon's club captured the Big 12 regular-season championship, reached No. 1 in the nation for the first time in school history and was the No. 4 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament.

In terms of player development, Dillon coached a school-record 11 All-Big 12 players that season, including six first-team selections, including Big 12 Player of the Year Josh Ludy and Big 12 Newcomer of the Year Nathan Orf. A conference-record four Bears garnered Louisville Slugger All-America recognition, while a total of six players were taken in the 2012 Major League Baseball Draft.

Before coaching in Waco, Dillon worked as the volunteer assistant and camp coordinator at Iowa. In his first two seasons in Iowa City, Dillon was part of a coaching staff which led the Black and Yellow to 50 victories and six All-Big Ten honors. Off the field, the Hawkeyes tallied 20 Academic All-Big Ten honors, including a school-record 12 in 2011.

In 2010, Iowa finished 30-28 overall after winning 11 of its final 14 games, finishing third in the Big Ten. Dillon's club tied its highest finish in school history with a runner-up finish in the Big Ten Tournament, the first tournament victories for the program since 1990.

As a player, the 2006 Big 12 Player of the Year played collegiately at Baylor from 2002-06, where he was an integral part of three NCAA Tournament appearances, two NCAA Super Regionals and a College World Series berth. The two-time ABCA All-Region all-star was also named to a pair of NCAA Tournament All-Regional teams, named All-Big 12 twice and was a semifinalist for the Johnny Bench Award his senior season.

As a senior at BU, Dillon recorded a school-record .421 batting average with an eye-popping .496 on-base percentage in Big 12 play. He led the league in average and base on balls, finishing in the top-20 nationally in walks per game. Dillon wrapped up his career with a .307 average, 124 RBIs and 115 walks.

Away from the diamond, Dillon was a four-time academic all-conference selection, a First-Team ESPN The Magazine Academic All-American and a 10-time member of the Big 12 Conference Commissioner's Honor Roll. In 2009, he was also the recipient of a spring post-graduate scholarship.

Following his collegiate playing days, the catcher was selected by the Baltimore Orioles in the 20th Round of 2006 MLB Draft. In 2007, he powered the Frederick Keys (Class A-Advanced) to the Carolina League championship, earning a big league spring training invite a few months later.

Dillon graduated Magna Cum Laude from Baylor with a bachelor's degree in education in 2005. He later earned his master's degree in education and sports management in 2009. Dillon has a 3-year-old son, Hayden.

SUPPORT STAFF

MIKE NEMETH

Senior Associate AD, Sport Administrator for Baseball
30th Season

As the Senior Associate AD for Administration, Mike Nemeth serves as the sport administrator for baseball. In addition to his duties with the Diamond Dawgs, the Ohio native also owns specific responsibilities in the areas of department-wide contracts, summer camp management, football bowl game and other postseason competition organization and scheduling athletic events.

Nemeth, a member of the senior executive staff, also leads future football scheduling efforts, serves as the department liaison with auxiliary groups such as the band and all spirit groups and oversees and directs an employee orientation program and staff development. In addition to baseball, he also serves as the sport administrator for soccer.

A veteran member of the MSU staff, Nemeth is in his 30th year with the athletic department. He previously served as senior associate athletics director for marketing and corporate development and associate athletics director for media relations and marketing, in which he worked as the primary media relations contact for the football program from 1993-2007.

RAY BERRYHILL

Assistant AD, Athletic Academic Support Services
30th Season

Administering the day-to-day academic needs of the Diamond Dawgs is Ray Berryhill, in his 30th year overall with the Mississippi State athletic department.

A native of Gloster, Miss., Berryhill is in his second tour of duty in the department. A 1980 graduate of State, he served first as a graduate assistant coach with the MSU track program. In 1984, he was named supervisor of athletic academics at Alabama, overseeing the academic progress of all Crimson Tide student-athletes.

He returned to State in a similar position as director of athletic academics in January 1989, and in August 2000 was promoted to assistant athletics director for academic advising.

Under his supervision, MSU's student-athletes have enjoyed unprecedented success in the classroom, frequently establishing school records for combined GPA. Berryhill also supervises on-campus housing for all student-athletes through MSU's Office of Student Housing and Residence Life.

Berryhill, 56, and his wife, the former Amy Huff of Ferriday, La., are the parents of a son, Cody, and a daughter, Carolina.

#20 GREG DRYE

Assistant Strength Coach
11th Season

Greg Drye is in his 11th season with the Mississippi State baseball program, assisting with the implementation of State's comprehensive in-season and offseason strength and conditioning program.

Drye also coordinates team travel arrangements and equipment purchases, directs the team's video operations and oversees a wide range of additional tasks associated with the day-to-day operation of the Diamond Dawgs.

Prior to his arrival at MSU, Drye served as a graduate assistant at Delta State on the baseball staff of coach Mike Kinnison. Drye coached the outfielders on the DSU teams that captured the Gulf South Conference titles and advanced to the NCAA Division II South Regional in both 1999 and 2000.

Drye then returned to his roots, serving for three years as an assistant baseball coach at Long Beach (Miss.) High School.

The Long Beach, Miss., native previously served as an administrative assistant on the MSU baseball staff and as an instructor in the physical education department at Mississippi State. With baseball, he handled a wide array of duties and assisting with the team's advancement to the championship of the 2005 SEC Tournament and the 2007 NCAA College World Series.

A graduate of Long Beach High School, Drye continued his baseball career at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College, where he earned MJCAA all-state honors as an infielder playing for coach Cooper Farris. He later played baseball under coach Steve Smith at Baylor.

Drye earned his undergraduate degree in coaching and sports administration from Southern Miss, as well as a graduate degree in physical education, health and recreation at Delta State. He has a 10-year-old daughter, Dylan, and is married to the former Priscilla Giachelli of Blue Spring, Miss.

BRIAN NEAL

Assistant Strength Coach
Fifth Season

Entering his fifth season overseeing the strength and conditioning programs for the Bulldog baseball team is Brian Neal.

Neal, 31, is a native of Forest, Va. He joined the MSU staff in February 2011 following a four-year stint as assistant strength coach at Sam Houston State.

He trained baseball athletes at Sam Houston State, assisted with football strength training and directed the strength training of SHSU's track, golf, women's soccer and women's basketball athletes.

Neal was a linebacker on the Bridgewater College football team, and while an undergraduate there served internships with the strength and conditioning programs at Virginia Tech in 2003 and North Carolina in 2004.

Upon graduation at Bridgewater College, where he double-majored in exercise science and allied health sciences, Neal served as a graduate assistant strength coach at Southern Miss (2005-2007), where he earned a graduate degree in sports coaching education. He also served an internship with the United States Olympic Committee (2007), working primarily with Summer Olympic athletes.

He holds certification with the NSCA (National Strength and Conditioning Association), the USAW (United States Weightlifting) and CSCCA (Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association).

Neal also coordinates strength and conditioning at Mississippi State for women's soccer and both men's and women's golf. Away from his duties at MSU, Neal also trains and competes in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and mixed martial arts.

ROB SHILLITO

Assistant Athletic Academic Counselor
First Season

Rob Shillito, a native of Corinth, Miss., is in his first year overseeing the academic needs of the Diamond Dawgs. Shillito is a two-time graduate of Mississippi State: first in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in political science and then again in 2012 with a master's degree in sport administration.

As assistant athletic academic counselor, Shillito facilitates the academic progress of each baseball player during their time on campus. This is his second stint in MSU's Athletic Academic Support Services, as he served as lead graduate assistant from 2011-2012. Between his times serving MSU's student-athletes, Shillito remained in Starkville and worked in college ministry.

Shillito, 25, and his wife, the former Jeane Carroll Brookshire of Dothan, Ala., are the proud parents of a son, Luke.

JASON WIRE

Assistant Athletic Trainer
Fifth Season

Beginning his fifth season as the athletic trainer for the Maroon and White is Jason Wire, who joined the Mississippi State athletic department in September 2010.

Wire, 31 is a native of St. Cloud, Minn., and a graduate of St. Cloud State University, where in 2006 he earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology. He began his career in athletic training while attending SCSU, serving as a student athletic trainer working with the Husky baseball, football and hockey programs.

He continued his educational career at San Jose State, earning a graduate degree in athletic training in May 2009. During his two years at San Jose State, Wire handled the athletic training needs of the Spartan baseball, men's and women's soccer and women's tennis teams.

Upon graduation from SJSU, Wire, a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association, worked for a year in professional baseball in Salisbury, Md., where he was an assistant athletic trainer and the head strength and conditioning coach for the Delmarva Shorebirds, the Class A South Atlantic League affiliate for the Baltimore Orioles.

ABOUT THE MISSISSIPPI STATE DIAMOND GIRLS

Mississippi State's Diamond Girls serve as one of the primary support organizations for the Mississippi State baseball program. The Diamond Girls have handled a wide array of tasks year-round in support of the Diamond Dawgs' baseball operation since the organization came into being in 1976. They are most visible on game days at Dudy Noble Field, serving as stadium hosts and distributing programs to fans as they enter the stadium. The Diamond Girls also operate the souvenir and gift stand and serve on the field during games as bat handlers.

#17 PAUL YOUNG

6-2 • 205 • RSO. • RHP • R-R • RS
Milton, Fla. (Central Alabama [Ala.] CC)

2014: Redshirted his first year on campus • Member of the 2014 SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Both Cleveland and San Diego showed interest in selecting him between the fifth and 10th round of the 2013 MLB Draft if he agreed to the slotted salary • Has been clocked at 94 MPH • Went 5-0 with two saves in 13 games in his first collegiate campaign, registering a 2.44 ERA and 57 strikeouts in 55.1 innings pitched as a state and national champion • Originally signed as an outfielder, but after running out of arms halfway through the season in a 17-inning affair, came out of the bullpen and excelled on the mound to the point where he tossed a complete-game victory in the 2013 NJCAA National Championship Game • Chose Mississippi State over offers from Florida, LSU, Florida State, Missouri and Ole Miss.

HIGH SCHOOL: Went 4-3 his senior season on the rubber with a 1.94 ERA and 55 strikeouts in 39 innings pitched • Received football scholarship offers from USF, FAU, FIU and Troy.

DRAFT HISTORY: Chosen by the Cleveland Indians in the 21st round of Major League Baseball's 2013 First-Year Player Draft.

PERSONAL: Born Paul Morgan Young on March 15, 1993 in Pensacola, Fla. • Son of Sonja and Paul Young of Milton, Fla. • Nicknamed "The Iceman" • Majoring in business administration.

NEWSOM AWARD (24)

The Newsom Award was begun in 1990 by retired MSU professor and State's former NCAA Athletic Faculty Representative Walt Newsom. Named in memory of his parents, Carroll and Francis Newsom, the award annually honors the scholastic achievement of a Mississippi State athlete in each MSU sport as well as overall male and female winners. Chuck Daniel and Jeremy Jackson were selected as the overall Newsom Award recipients in 1992 and 1998, respectively.

NOTES

* June Class AA Selections

^ January Secondary Phase

+ June Secondary Phase

Indicates players who did not sign with the club that drafted them.

! Thomas Berkery, drafted by Texas in 2005, signed with the Rangers in 2006 prior to the 2006 June draft.

Since 1965, 141 different Diamond Dawgs have been selected a total of 175 times in the Major League Baseball Draft, including a school-record eight in the 2003 draft.

In 2013, All-American Hunter Renfroe became the 12th MSU player drafted in the first round. With the San Diego Padres' pick, Renfroe and 2012 first-rounder Chris Stratton became the first-ever back-to-back first-round draft picks from the state of Mississippi.

HISTORY OF BULLDOG BASEBALL

1885

May 2 Mississippi A&M, behind team captain W.J. (Bill) Jennings, defeats Durant 7-2 in the first baseball game in MSU history. Jennings, who holds the distinction of being credited as the first man in Southern college baseball who could throw a curve ball, baffles batters from all over the South in claiming A&M's first 12 wins. His composite four-year record, during which time he pitched every game for the Maroons, was a sparkling 12-1.

1893

October 12 A&M defeats the University of Mississippi 6-3 in its first intercollegiate baseball game. The schools have met 446 times, easily the longest baseball rivalry for both schools.

1909

April 11 Willie Mitchell hurls the first perfect game in Mississippi A&M history by striking out 26 LSU batters and helping the Maroons slip past the Tigers 1-0 in the second game of a twinbill at Baton Rouge, La. Mitchell finishes with a 6-1 worksheet and dazzles his opponents by striking out 97 batters in 56-1/3 innings. Of his six victories, Mitchell throws one no-hitter, two one-hitters, two two-hitters, and one six-hitter.

1918

April 5-6 Maroon hurlers R.H. Pepper and J.T. Peatross shut down Mississippi College by tossing back-to-back no-hitters. Pepper opens the two-game series by allowing the Choctaws only four walks in a 5-0 A&M win. But his shining accomplishment is overshadowed the following day as Peatross pitches only the second perfect game in MSU history, downing Mississippi College 1-0.

1920

April 5 Legendary Dudy Noble Field namesake Clarke Randolph "Dudy" Noble coaches his first game at his alma mater, a 5-3 loss to the University of Illinois. Noble will go on to coach at MSU for 26 years, during which time he compiles a 267-201-9 record and wins three Southern Conference Championships.

1924

May 13 Two baseball rarities occur in the same game during a campus contest against Mississippi. Not only does A&M retire the Rebels on three straight pitches in one inning, but shortstop C.S. "Buddy" Myer gives the Maroons a much-needed boost by cranking out a grand slam to lead his team to a 6-4 victory. Myer's shot is believed to be the first grand slam in the history of MSU. Myer would go on to play 17 years in the major leagues with Washington and Boston, hitting for a career average of .303.

1947

April 18 LSU outfielder Joe Bill Adcock launches a shot an estimated 500 feet into the MSU swimming pool at "old" Dudy Noble Field. Adcock would play only one season at LSU before playing 16 years in the major leagues, but his tremendous blow is still talked about by long-time Bulldog baseball fans.

1948

May 31 R.P. "Doc" Patty guides the Bulldogs to their first Southeastern Conference Championship in his initial season as head coach. MSU defeats Auburn in the championship playoff, three games to none, thanks to the efforts of All-SEC outfielder Johnny Grace, who led the Bulldogs with a .375 batting average.

1949

June Mississippi State College wins its second consecutive SEC Championship by downing Kentucky three games to one in the title series. All-conference infielder Alex Grammas and brother Pete Grammas were crowd favorites in helping lead the Bulldogs to a 19-6 record. Alex Grammas would go on to play 10 seasons in the National League and later coach for the Detroit Tigers.

1965

May 9 Outfielder Del Unser belts three round-trippers and picks up a double to set a single-game team record for total bases with 14. Unser spreads his blasts around, sending a shot to all three fields as the Bulldogs fall to Mississippi, 10-7. The power outburst gives Unser seven homers, all coming in the last six regular-season games.

May 22

Behind conference hits-leader Mike Burns, the Bulldogs top Auburn in the SEC Championship Series, winning two games out of three. After falling to the Tigers in the series opener, MSU battles back with the strong pitching of Ken Tatum, who leads the Bulldogs to 10-1 and 10-2 victories to claim the conference crown. The title marked the first of four won under the guidance of coaching-great Paul Gregory.

1966

April 2 Pitcher James Carroll hurls 14 innings of four-hit baseball as he out-duels Alabama's Kenny Stabler, 2-1. All-America outfielder Del Unser scores the winning run with two out in the bottom of the 14th.

May 14

Right-hander Ken Tatum starts on only two days rest and shuts down the Tennessee Volunteers 9-3, giving the Bulldogs their second consecutive SEC Championship. The game marked MSU's final appearance at Redbird Park in Columbus, which for two seasons served as the home for of MSU Baseball while their "new" Dudy Noble Field was being built.

HISTORY OF BULLDOG BASEBALL

1970

May 5 Sophomore left-hander Gene Henderson stymies Arkansas in the nightcap with a no-hit performance that gives the Bulldogs, ranked fifth nationally, a doubleheader sweep over the Razorbacks, 6-0 and 1-0. Henderson, along with conference ERA-leader Dennis Hall (0.63) and wins-leader Brantley Jones (9-0), carries MSU to its fifth SEC title. State drops the first game of the best-of-three championship series against Tennessee but rebounds to claim the final two contests 4-3 and 1-0 at Dudy Noble Field.

1971

May 14 All-America third baseman Phil Still and All-SEC pitcher Mike Proffitt help lead the Bulldogs to 5-1 and 3-1 victories over Vanderbilt for their second consecutive SEC Championship on the way to a 32-12 record and the school's first-ever appearance in the NCAA College World Series. After defeating the Commodores in two straight games for the league title, MSU then downs Georgia Tech 5-2 in the NCAA District III championship game in Gastonia, N.C., to become the fifth team from the SEC to advance to CWS competition.

1972

April 14 Dudy Noble Field hosts its first night game thanks to a new lighting system. MSU alumnus E.B. "Dutch" McCool, a former teammate of coach Paul Gregory, donates the lights to his alma mater, allowing the Bulldogs to play games at night when it is more convenient for fans to attend. McCool was one of the original founders of Holiday Inn.

1976

March 8 New Mississippi State head coach Ron Polk wins his first game as the Bulldog skipper, 4-0 over Louisiana Tech. MSU finishes the season 28-17, which begins a streak of 32 consecutive winning seasons for Mississippi State.

1977

March 19 Junior outfielder Nat Showalter begins the season with a modest six-game hitting streak in which he hits .700 (14-for-20) on his way to posting the MSU single-season record for batting average. Showalter, the current manager of the Baltimore Orioles and former skipper of the New York Yankees, Arizona Diamondbacks and Texas Rangers, hits an SEC-leading .459 as he garners numerous all-America honors.

1979

May 14 Down 11-9 with one out in the bottom of the eighth, designated hitter Rick Dixon launches a slider nearly 400 feet over the left-center field fence for a three-run homer in the SEC Championship final. The win gives fourth-year head coach Ron Polk his first conference title in the first SEC Tournament held at Dudy Noble Field.

May 27 After falling to nationally-ranked New Orleans in the opening game, the Bulldogs successfully sweep through the loser's bracket to claim the NCAA South Regional Championship. An 8-6 win over Murray State in the championship game of the first NCAA regional at Dudy Noble Field lifted MSU to its second appearance all-time in the prestigious NCAA College World Series.

March 15 Junior first baseman Bruce Castoria sets a school record and ties the conference mark by driving in 10 runs against UNLV in Las Vegas. Castoria, who would set another school record by cranking four grand slams on the year, hits his second of the season against the Runnin' Rebels, along with a three-run shot, an RBI single and two walks with the bases loaded to account for his 10 RBI.

May 24 State jumps out to an early six-run lead and holds off a late rally by East Tennessee State to win the NCAA Atlantic Regional Championship at Clemson, S.C., 6-5. The Bulldogs would go on to finish fifth nationally at the NCAA College World Series.

February 25 Freshman Rafael Palmeiro slaps the first pitch he sees as a collegian over the right field fence for a three-run homer during the season-opener against Mississippi College. Palmeiro, who would later pile up 3,020 hits and 569 home runs in a remarkable 20-year pro career, proceeds to hit safely in his first 20 games en route to a team-high and SEC-best .406 batting average.

April 2 Future major league slugger Will Clark hits his first collegiate home run, an eighth-inning grand slam to straight-away center field, to help lead MSU to a 27-10 pounding over rival Mississippi. The following day, Clark comes in late as a pinch runner and scores the winning run in a 7-6 come-from-behind victory over the Rebels.

May 12 Behind strong pitching and excellent defense, the Bulldogs overpower the field in three games to win the SEC Tournament at LSU's Alex Box Stadium, clinching the title with an 8-3 win over Georgia.

May 27 MSU tops Michigan 19-8 in the championship game of the NCAA South I Regional to earn its third trip to the NCAA College World Series under Ron Polk. Right fielder/relief pitcher Bobby Thigpen, who a year before hit a grand slam in his first career at-bat at Dudy Noble Field, shines in his home finale by cranking another bases-loaded blast. MVP Jeff Brantley is among seven Bulldogs named to the 11-player all-tournament team.

1985 (CONTINUED)

October 23 The United States Baseball Federation names Mississippi State All-American Will Clark the recipient of the Golden Spikes Award, amateur baseball's most prestigious honor. Clark had been the second player taken overall during baseball's June draft by the San Francisco Giants. Clark still ranks as MSU's all-time career leader in batting average (.391).

1987

March 1 The "new" Dudy Noble Field re-opens its gates to 4,040 fans who brave the chilly weather and experience what is considered by many to be the nicest baseball stadium in all of college baseball. The $3.5 million showcase consists of 3,700 chairback seats, two 1,500-seat bleachers down each line, and the spacious Joe Phillips Press Box. MSU doesn't disappoint the home crowd, downing Birmingham-Southern 4-1.

May 14 Freshman center fielder Jody Hurst blasts two homers and Mississippi State scores four runs in the bottom of the ninth to lead the sixth-seeded Bulldogs over top-seeded Georgia, 6-5, in the opening-round of the SEC Tournament in Athens, Ga. MSU swept three games from Alabama in the final regular season series to qualify for the tournament and won four straight SEC Tournament games to claim the championship and earn a spot in an NCAA Regional.

April 16 Mississippi State shatters its own NCAA on-campus attendance record (10,619) as 14,378 Bulldog faithful jam Dudy Noble Field for MSU's doubleheader split with LSU. The following evening, State plays its fifth regular-season game ever on ESPN, besting the Tigers 1-0 on the strength of outfielder John Cohen's fifth-inning solo shot to center field.

1989

April 22 Mississippi State once again sets the NCAA on-campus attendance record when a crowd of 14,991 witness the Bulldogs' doubleheader sweep of Florida. Junior second baseman Burke Masters caps the evening off in fine fashion by drilling a solo shot into the famous Outfield Terrace during the Bulldogs' final at-bat to lift MSU over the Gators, 5-4.

April 30 Coach Ron Polk's Bulldogs claim their third SEC Championship in five years and the 10th in school history by winning a 28-16 slugfest at Kentucky, setting the single-game team record for most hits (30) and tying the record for most home runs (6). Junior outfielder Tracy Echols ties an SEC record by recording six hits in the contest.

May 25-28 Dudy Noble Field hosts its fifth NCAA regional in six years. The 1989 South Regional draws an NCAA-record 56,906 fans during the 11-game event, an average of 5,173 per game.

May 28 Jon Shave drives in Tommy Raffo with two out in the top of the eighth to cap a three-run MSU rally and give State a 4-3 win over Florida State in the championship game of the NCAA South II Regional in Starkville. With the win, MSU earns its fifth trip to the College World Series in Omaha, Neb. Five Bulldogs were named to the all-tournament team, including MVP Burke Masters, whose dramatic ninth-inning grand slam against Florida State had earlier provided MSU with an 11-8 victory.

May 21 Left-hander B.J. Wallace strikes out 19 Nicholls State batters in 10 innings of work at the NCAA Mideast Regional in Starkville, setting a new MSU single-season record with 145 strikeouts. His mark breaks the old record of 136 set by Jeff Brantley in 1985. A month later Montreal made Wallace the No. 3 pick in pro baseball's June draft.

May 8 State plays its 1,000th Southeastern Conference game, defeating in-state rival Mississippi 10-2 in the first game of a doubleheader at Oxford.

1994

October Mississippi State's 10-man recruiting class is ranked the nation's best by Collegiate Baseball magazine, the highest national ranking for a class of MSU baseball newcomers.

1995

January 7 Mississippi State head coach Ron Polk is inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame. Polk joins 160 other all-time amateur baseball coaching greats enshrined in the ABCA Hall of Fame, coach C.R. "Dudy" Noble, inducted in 1967, and Paul Gregory, who joined the group in 1977.

1996

May 23-25 State returns to the NCAA postseason playoffs after a two-year absence, traveling to Palo Alto, Calif., to compete in the NCAA West Regional. Sophomore ace lefty Eric DuBose, who fanned 174 batters in 1996 to establish an MSU single-season strikeout record, went the distance in MSU's 6-2 win over California-Santa Barbara.

1997

February 27 With MSU's 11-4 win over Delta State at Dudy Noble Field, coach Ron Polk becomes the 16th college coach to reach 1,000 career wins.

- April 19 In ceremonies prior to the Mississippi State-Alabama game, MSU's baseball facility is renamed Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium in honor of coach Ron Polk and a longtime MSU baseball fan from Indianola, Miss., the late Gordon DeMent. In the game, MSU downs the eventual NCAA runners-up in an 11-10 thriller.
- June 5 After hosting and winning the NCAA Mideast Regional and finishing tied for fifth at the College World Series in Omaha, Neb., MSU announces the retirement of head baseball coach Ron Polk and introduces Pat McMahon as the school's 14th head baseball coach. Polk, remaining on staff with the MSU administration in fund raising, announced August 18 the beginning of a drive to expand seating by more than 1,000 at the MSU stadium, including the addition of 18 sky suites.

- February 17 Mississippi State launches the coaching era of Pat McMahon at Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium with the Diamond Dawgs' season opener against South Alabama. The Jaguars, who eventually advanced to the finals of the 1998 NCAA East Regionals, emerge with a closely-contested 14-13 win in a 12-inning marathon that lasted four hours and 30 minutes. It is the earliest home opener in the first 108 seasons of MSU Baseball.
- May 24 The Bulldogs complete a remarkable late-season surge, downing host Texas A&M 11-5 in the title game of the NCAA Central Regional at College Station, Texas, to earn the school's first repeat appearance in the NCAA College World Series. State claims one-run wins over Washington, Rice and Texas A&M to reach the regional finals. Earlier, State won eight of its last 11 SEC games, qualifying for the SEC Tournament on the final weekend of the season and earning an at-large berth in the NCAA Regionals. In the summer, construction gets underway on the sky suites/stadium expansion project at Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium.

- May 28 Ty Martin launches a dramatic solo home run in the bottom of the ninth to give MSU a 10-9 win over Notre Dame in the championship game of NCAA Starkville Regional. The tournament attendance (47,365) sets an NCAA four-team regional record while the seven-game average (6,766) was the largest for an NCAA regional. Earlier MSU set a school record by selling 4,555 season tickets at expanded Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium.

2001

- March 13 MSU stages a two-run rally with two outs in the ninth to post a 6-5 win at New Orleans and become the 18th NCAA baseball program to reach the 2,000-win milestone. For the second consecutive year MSU fans break the school season ticket sales record by purchasing 4,585 season tickets.
- May 20 Freshman Paul Maholm and sophomore Chris Young limit defending NCAA champ LSU to one run as the Bulldogs top the Tigers 4-1 in the championship game of the 2001 SEC Baseball Tournament in Hoover, Ala. It is the second tourney win in relief for Young, who earns tournament MVP honors.
- June 19 Ron Polk, the winningest coach in SEC history, is named head baseball coach at Mississippi State, replacing four-year MSU skipper Pat McMahon, who resigned to become head baseball at Florida. In 2001 Polk capped a two-year term at Georgia and became the second coach in NCAA history to guide teams at three different schools to the College World Series when he directed UGA to an SEC title and a trip to Omaha.

2005

- May 29 Mississippi State defeats instate rival Mississippi 4-1 to complete a four-game tourney sweep and capture the 2005 SEC Baseball Tournament at the Hoover Met. It is MSU's sixth SEC Tournament championship and vaults State on to its ninth NCAA regional tournament in the past 10 seasons.

2007

- June 8-9 After winning the NCAA Tallahassee Regional in three games, Mississippi State hosted its first NCAA Super Regional June 8-9, knocking off Clemson 8-6 and 8-5 to earn the school's eighth berth in the NCAA College World Series. An NCAA Super Regional-record 26,335 jammed Dudy Noble Field for the two 11:30 a.m. games televised nationally on ESPN. With a single in MSU's regional-clinching 9-4 win at Florida State, senior second baseman/outfielder Jeffrey Rea breaks the MSU record for career hits, and with four hits at the College World Series, Rea concludes his career with 335 hits.
- June 27 In Wichita, Kans., junior catcher Edward Easley is named the recipient of the Johnny Bench Award as college baseball's best catcher. A supplemental first-round draft pick of the Arizona Diamondbacks, Easley earlier claimed college baseball's top honor in Mississippi, the Cellular South Ferriss Trophy.

- March 27 Head coach Ron Polk announces that the 2008 season, his 29th at Mississippi State and his 35th in collegiate baseball, would be his final season as head coach of the Diamond Dawgs. The Bulldogs ended the year with a 23-33 mark, the only sub-.500 season of his coaching career, and Polk concluded his career with 1,373 wins, seventh most in NCAA baseball history.

2008 (CONTINUED)

June 7 Former State standout John Cohen is introduced by Director of Athletics Greg Byrne as MSU's 16th head baseball coach. Cohen, with previous coaching stints at Missouri, Northwestern State, Florida and Kentucky, was an All-SEC outfielder at State, helping the Bulldogs set the school-record for wins (54) en route to the 1989 SEC baseball championship.

2009

July 3 Former MSU coach Ron Polk and MSU and MLB great Rafael Palmeiro are among 10 inductees in the fourth class of the College Baseball Hall of Fame in Lubbock, Texas. They join a third player with MSU ties enshrined in the hall of fame, former State great Will Clark, a member of the inaugural hall of fame induction class in 2006.

2010

June 18 Former MSU and MLB great Will Clark leads the national fan balloting for the College World Series Legends Team, honoring the sport's all-time greats that competed in the 60 College World Series held at old Rosenblatt Stadium.

2011

June 12 Nick Vickerson swats a dramatic two-run walk-off home run against No. 1 national seed Florida to send the Bulldogs to the title game of the NCAA Gainesville Super Regional. State, which earlier won the NCAA Atlanta Regional with a 3-0 mark, builds a 6-4 seventh-inning lead in the title game before bowing to the eventual national finalists. MSU's advancement to NCAA postseason play marks the 31 time in program history first since 2007.

2012

May 27 Ace starting pitcher Chris Stratton picks up his first career save to close out a 3-0 shutout of Vanderbilt as State claims its seventh SEC Tourney crown and the school's 32nd NCAA postseason advancement. Shortstop Adam Frazier goes 12-for-23 (.522) in the six-game stretch to earn MVP honors and joins Jonathan Holder and Demarcus Henderson on the all-tournament team. Stratton, the winner of the C-Spire Ferriss Trophy, later becomes the 11th MSU player taken in the first round of the MLB draft.

2013

Feb. 16 Demarcus Henderson delivers a clutch RBI single in the sixth inning and All-American closer Jonathan Holder tosses 1.2 innings of shutout relief as Mississippi State defeats Portland, 2-1, for MSU's 1,000th win at the current site of Dudy Noble Field, MSU's on-campus baseball home since 1967.

May 16 A total of 9,341 fans attend MSU's game vs. No. 2 LSU at Dudy Noble, pushing the "Carnegie Hall of College Baseball" past the five million attendance mark.

June 9 The Bulldogs hold on for a dramatic 6-5 win in game two of the NCAA Charlottesville Super Regional, clinching its ninth trip to Omaha. With the win, MSU becomes the fifth program in NCAA history and the only SEC team ever to make it to the NCAA College World Series in five-straight decades.

June 25 The Maroon and White play in the NCAA College World Series Championship Series for the first time ever as Omaha turns into "Dudy Noble North." John Cohen's ballclub battles UCLA in front of the largest single-game crowd in the history of TD Ameritrade Park (27,127) and the seventh-highest attended game in CWS history. The Bulldogs fall short against the Bruins in two games, but finish 2013 51-20 for the best finish in school history (NCAA Finalist).

April 12 Mississippi State broke their own NCAA on-campus attendance record as 15,586 Bulldog fans attended a 6-5 victory against in-state rival Ole Miss. Trailing 5-2 in the bottom of the 10th, All-SEC freshman catcher Gavin Collins ripped an RBI walkoff single to cap a monster four-run 10th inning. A total of 39,181 fans attended the three-game series April 11-13, marking a new NCAA on-campus attendance record for a three-game series.

ONE OF FIVE TEAMS IN NCAA HISTORY
AND THE ONLY SEC
PROGRAM TO PLAY IN THE NCAA COLLEGE
WORLD SERIES IN FIVE-STRAIGHT
DECADES

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 81-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The SEC posted another tremendous season in 2014 as the conference had a NCAA-record 10 teams receive bids for NCAA postseason play, with Vanderbilt and Ole Miss advancing to the College World Series. A SEC squad has now appeared in the College World Series 29 of the last 30 years. Vanderbilt won the national championship, marking the 10th time since 2000 a SEC team played for the national championship in Omaha and seventh in a row. LSU won the SEC tournament title 2-0 over Florida on national television in front of over 10,000 fans. Florida won the SEC regular-season title with a 21-9 conference record, while Ole Miss won the Western Division with a 19-11 record.

The Southeastern Conference boasts 13 former National Players of the Year (Kentucky's A.J. Reed won in 2014), 12 Baseball America Coach of the Year and 11 Collegiate Baseball Coach of the Year honors. Also, 166 student-athletes have been named first-team All-American, five of which came in 2014.

Two SEC players were taken in the first round of the 2014 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft, held in June in New York City. LSU's Aaron Nola was selected seventh overall by the Philadelphia Phillies. Vanderbilt's Tyler Beede was chosen 14th by the San Francisco Giants. With those two selections this year, the SEC has now had a first round selection in each year since 1991 and 98 total in the first round during that time.

The SEC drew a record of more than 2.3 million fans to its on-campus ballparks in 2014, the eighth year in a row to draw more than 1.6 million. Ten SEC teams drew in excess of 100,000 fans to their parks in 2014. The SEC averaged nearly 5,000 fans per game in 2014, the eighth straight year to exceed the 4,000 mark.

The SEC Baseball Tournament drew more than 120,000 fans in 2014, better than 7,000 per game. The event has become the Birmingham metro's highest attended sporting event annually, second in the state only to NASCAR races at Talladega. Birmingham Magazine recently named it the top sporting event annually in the Birmingham area. The SEC Championship Game was broadcast nationally on ESPN2, with the semifinals airing nationwide on ESPNNews.

ABOUT THE SEC

Mississippi State University is a charter member of the Southeastern Conference, a pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition and a national leader as intercollegiate athletics marches on into the 21st century.

With the addition of former Big 12 Conference members Missouri and Texas A&M in 2012-13, the Southeastern Conference, headquartered in Birmingham, Ala., is comprised of 14 universities that span an 11-state region. It conducts championships in 11 women's and nine men's sports. The member schools are split into two divisions. Mississippi State is joined in the SEC West by Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, LSU, Ole Miss and Texas A&M. The SEC East features Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Missouri, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. All but Arkansas and South Carolina, who joined the league in 1991-92, and conference newcomers Missouri and Texas A&M, were among 13 charter members of the SEC.

SEC BASEBALL ON TV

The Southeastern Conference and ESPN have signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create and operate a multiplatform network which launched August 14, 2014. The new network and its accompanying digital platform carry SEC content 24/7 including more than 1,000 events in its first year.

The network will televise 45 SEC football games, more than 100 men's basketball games, 60 women's basketball games, 75 baseball games, and events from across the SEC's 21 sports annually.

Programming also includes in-depth commentary and analysis in studio shows, daily news and information, original content such as SEC Storied, spring football games, and more.

The SEC Network will swing into its inaugural baseball season with 80 games slated to air on the network dedicated to Southeastern Conference sports, as part of the more than 100 planned across ESPN television networks (ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU or SEC Network). The new network will quadruple SEC baseball's coverage over last year's nationally televised schedule.

In addition to those games, more than 350 matchups will be digitally exclusive SEC Network + events available on SECNetwork.com and WatchESPN. In total, more than 450 SEC baseball games will be available to fans this season.

The schedule is highlighted with at least 12 television appearances of the 2014 College World Series Champions, Vanderbilt, and a special night of Bases Loaded Coverage on Friday, May 15, whipping around between games the weekend prior to the SEC Baseball Tournament.

The SEC Network and ESPN2 will conclude the regular season with comprehensive coverage of the SEC Baseball Tournament, marking the first time the entire tournament has aired on national television.

SEC TOURNAMENT

The SEC conducts a postseason tournament at the end of its 10-weekend, 30-game league schedule. The winner receives the league's automatic qualifying bid for the NCAA baseball tournament.

The SEC tournament field expanded from eight to 10 teams in 2012 and to 12 teams in 2013. The teams with the 12 highest conference winning percentages qualify for the double-elimination SEC tournament, with the top four teams receiving opening round tournament byes in the double-bracket event. The winners of each bracket meet May 24 in a nationally-televised championship game.

The 2015 SEC Tournament (May 19-24) will be the league's 39th dating back to 1977. And for the 20th time overall and the 18th consecutive year, the event will be staged in Hoover, Ala., at the Hoover Metropolitan Stadium, once the 10,800-seat home of the Class AA Southern League's Birmingham Barons (Chicago White Sox). The facility can accommodate crowds of up to 10,800.

Mississippi State claimed its seventh SEC Baseball Tournament title (second-most in the SEC) last May. With the Bulldogs playing in six games, the tournament drew a then-record 129,112 fans in 2012, averaging crowds of 7,595. State's six games in Hoover averaged 8,357 fans, including an MSU-dominated 12,526 in the championship game against Vanderbilt.

DR. MARK KEENUM

Mississippi State University President
January 2009-Present

Dr. Mark Everett Keenum became Mississippi State's 19th president Jan. 5, 2009, following a distinguished public service career.

Despite difficult economic times, Dr. Keenum guided Mississippi State to new heights during his first five years in office. His quick action to address budget shortfalls following the recession that began in 2008 put the university in position to meet those challenges and maintain the highest level of academic excellence. Since then, the university has experienced record enrollment growth to more than 20,000 students. The freshman class of fall 2013 was not only the largest in university history, but also reported the highest average ACT scores in university history. During 2011-12, Mississippi State awarded more than 4,000 degrees at all levels for the first time in its history, and followed that with more than 4,200 degrees in 2012-13.

The campus has expanded and improved since 2009 with the addition of three new residence halls, the Mize Pavilion, a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility, and the Leo W. Seal Jr. Football Complex. Major renovations of historic Lee Hall and Davis Wade Stadium were completed by August 2014. Construction of a new classroom building with built-in parking got under way in 2014.

Since 2009, fundraising has reached all-time record levels, with private giving exceeding $80 million a year in fiscal years 2011, 2012, and 2013. In fall 2013, the university formally announced Infinite Impact: the Campaign for Mississippi State with a goal of $600 million by 2018. Dr. Keenum has also been instrumental in expanding the MSU Promise Program, which provides need-based scholarship assistance to Mississippi students whose families have limited financial means. Through the Sonny Montgomery Center for America's Veterans, he has also led initiatives to make Mississippi State one of the most veteran-friendly universities in the nation.

Mississippi State has strengthened its role as the flagship research university in the state. The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching classified MSU as a university with "very high research activity," the only such designation in Mississippi. Dr. Keenum travels frequently to Washington, D.C., meeting with Congressional leaders and federal agency heads to pursue research opportunities and broaden the university's influence on the national level. He has also worked closely with state leaders in support of higher education in Mississippi.

Keenum serves as vice-chairman of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools' Commission on Colleges' Executive Council. SACS-COC is the recognized regional accrediting body in the 11 U.S. Southern states (Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia) and in Latin America for those institutions of higher education that award associate, baccalaureate, master's or doctoral degrees.

He also is a member of the American Public Land-Grant Universities Board of Directors. Based in Washington, D.C., the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities (APLU) is a research and advocacy organization of public research universities, land-grant institutions, and state university systems with member campuses in all 50 states, U.S. territories and the District of Columbia.

A graduate of Mississippi State University with degrees in agricultural economics, Dr. Keenum began his career at MSU as a faculty member with the Extension Service and the Department of Agricultural Economics. He went on to serve as chief of staff to U.S. Senator Thad Cochran in Washington, DC and was Under Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture prior to returning home to Mississippi State.

He graduated from Corinth (MS) High School and earned an associate of arts degree from Northeast Mississippi Community College in Booneville and was a member of the Northeast Tigers football team.

Dr. Keenum is married to the former Rhonda Newman of Booneville, also an MSU graduate. They have four children: Rett, Mary Phillips, Katie and Torie.

MSU DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

SCOTT STRICKLIN

Mississippi State University Director of Athletics
May 2010-Present

In his third decade of experience in intercollegiate athletics, Scott Stricklin has built a wave of momentum within the Mississippi State fan base during his tenure as the director of athletics.

From his first day on the job as Mississippi State's Director of Athletics in May 2010, Stricklin, integrating the department's three foundations of focus on student-athletes, possessing great integrity and aggressively promoting Mississippi State University, has overseen a stretch in which the Bulldogs enjoyed both on and off the field successes unparalleled in more than a decade.

With 35 sellouts in the last 37 games at Davis Wade Stadium, and a $100 million investment in football facilities, Coach Dan Mullen's football team has played in a school-record, five-consecutive bowl games, including MSU's first trip to the Orange Bowl since 1941. The sports of tennis baseball, softball, men's and women's golf and track and field have each excelled and advanced to NCAA postseason play under Stricklin's guidance. During the 2013-14 academic year, 11 Mississippi State sports advanced to NCAA postseason play, with seven earning top 25 rankings during the season. The year was capped by Brandon McBride winning the 800-meter run at the NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships in Oregon. This came one year after the baseball team played for the national championship in Omaha.

This past fall in the classroom, Mississippi State student-athletes combined to record a 3.02 cumulative GPA, representing the second-highest mark ever. In the 2013-14 academic year, Mississippi State's men and women athletes posted a combined GPA of 2.90.

Also in 2014, Bulldog student-athletes again excelled in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, with all 16 sports far exceeding the minimum standard.

Stricklin has overseen record fundraising for Bulldog Athletics, which has produced new facilities such as the $11.7 million Mize Pavilion at Humphrey Coliseum, the $25 million Leo W. Seal Jr. Football Complex, as well as $75 million in expansion and upgrades to Davis Wade Stadium.

The Davis Wade Stadium expansion and renovation pushed capacity to 61,337, making it the largest on campus football stadium in the state of Mississippi. In addition to new premium seating options, a new brick facade and updated west concourse, complete with renovated restrooms and concessions, now greets fans attending games at historic Scott Field, which just celebrated its 100th season of existence this past fall.

In addition to interacting with Bulldog fans through social media and personal interactions, Stricklin has also emerged as a regional and national leader in college athletics. He serves as chair of the SEC's Working Group on Fan Experience, and is also the SEC's representative on the NCAA Division I Leadership Council.

Stricklin certainly wasn't a stranger to the Bulldog family or college athletics when he took over the reins at State in 2010.

A 1992 graduate of Mississippi State, the Jackson, Miss., native's resume is highlighted by 25 years of experience on the collegiate level in various capacities at five different universities. In the two years prior to becoming athletics director, he served as Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at his alma mater, overseeing fundraising, football and men's basketball scheduling, managing MSU's all-sport agreement with Adidas, facility planning, and serving as the administrative sport liaison for men's basketball and softball.

It was those types of day-to-day tasks that prepared the personable Stricklin to take over the top seat in the Mississippi State athletic department.

Yet it's a journey that started during his formative days as a dedicated and tireless worker in the Mississippi State media relations department that's led to his highly-respected career coming full circle.

Prior to graduating, Stricklin's stint in the MSU media relations office included three seasons (1990-92) as the media contact for the nationally-renown baseball program. Upon graduation, he was named assistant media relations director at his alma mater.

He continued his climb up the ladder of success when he was named Associate Media Relations Director at Auburn, where he served from 1993-98. In 1998, Stricklin left Auburn to become Assistant Athletics Director at Tulane, where he served as the primary media contact for the Green Wave's 1998 12-0 football team. Next came a four-year run in the Big 12 Conference at Baylor (1999-2003) as Assistant AD for Communications and Marketing.

In 2003, Stricklin returned to the Southeastern Conference at Kentucky and spent five seasons as the Associate AD for Media Relations, where he oversaw the day-to-day publicity of the tradition-rich Wildcat basketball program. It was his last stop before returning to Mississippi State in the spring of 2008.

Stricklin, 44, is married to the former Anne Howell, the youngest daughter of Basketball Hall of Fame member Bailey Howell. The couple has two daughters, Abby and Sophie.

The 2014 season marked the 48th season of baseball at the current site of Mississippi State baseball's on-campus home field, Dudy Noble Field. The Diamond Dawgs have played 1,441 games at the current site, prevailing in more than 73 percent of its battles.

On April 12, 2014, Mississippi State broke their own NCAA on-campus attendance record as 15,586 Bulldog fans attended a 6-5 victory against in-state rival Ole Miss. Trailing 5-2 in the bottom of the 10th, All-SEC freshman catcher Gavin Collins ripped an RBI walkoff single to cap a monster four-run 10th inning. A total of 39,181 fans attended the three-game series April 11-13, marking a new NCAA on-campus attendance record for a three-game series.

Over the past five decades, the facility evolved into the nation's largest campus facility for college baseball and what many have regarded as the sport's finest all-around baseball complex.

MSU has eclipsed the 200,000 mark in paid attendance at Dudy Noble Field eight times in the past 13 years, including a school-record 281,840 in 2013 and a school-best average of 8,127 this past spring. In 2013, the Diamond Dawgs' fifth millionth fan walked through the turnstiles at Dudy Noble Field. Since home attendance figures were charted starting in 1976, the "Carnegie Hall of College Baseball" has seen 5,309,611 fans rush through the gates.

The field is named in honor of longtime MSU baseball coach, athletics director and ABCA Hall of Famer Clarke Randolph "Dudy" Noble. On April 27, 1998 the facility was renamed Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium, honoring another ABCA Hall of Famer, former Bulldog skipper Ron Polk and the late Gordon DeMent, a successful businessman and longtime fan of the Diamond Dawgs from Indianola, Miss.

Dudy Noble Field, the home to seven Southeastern Conference championship teams, has four times hosted crowds in excess of 14,000. State has hosted crowds of 10,000 or better 35 times, including 2007 NCAA Super Regional-record draws of 13,715 and 12,620 for nationally-televised late morning games against Clemson. MSU has hosted three NCAA District III Tournaments (1973-1975), five SEC tournaments (1979, 1981, 1983, 1988 and 1995), 12 NCAA Regional tournaments (1979, 1984, 1985, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1992, 1997, 2000, 2003 and 2013) and its first NCAA Super Regional in 2007.

From 1929 until 1964, Mississippi State hosted its baseball games at the original on-campus site for Dudy Noble Field

several hundred yards to the south of Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field, State's football stadium. The baseball field was closed following the 1964 season to make way for the construction of Dorman Hall. And for the next two seasons, while the "new" Dudy Noble Field was being built, the Diamond Dawgs played their home games in Columbus, Miss., at Redbird Park, capturing SEC titles both seasons at their temporary home. Meanwhile, the tin-roofed grandstand and 2,000-seat bleachers at the old field were moved to the stadium's present site, which became playable for the 1967 season.

Facility enhancements have followed a steady pace over the years ever since.

In 1971, thanks to the generosity of the late E.B. "Dutch" McCool, a former MSU baseball player and one of the founding fathers of Holiday Inn, Inc., MSU took the lead in the Southeastern Conference with the installation of a lighting system. The advent of night baseball in Starkville helped build a solid fan base. Drainage and irrigation systems and an expanded scoreboard with an animation-equipped message center, new batting ranges and an infield tarp became the stadium's next improvements.

Mississippi State hosted its first SEC Baseball Tournament and NCAA Regional in 1979, winning both and setting attendance marks while opening eyes along the way.

The crowds mushroomed further in the 1980s as future Major League stars Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Rafael Palmeiro and Bobby Thigpen helped the 1985 Bulldogs win the SEC championship, host and win another regional championship and earn MSU's highest national finish, a tie for third place at the NCAA College World Series.

It became apparent that support for baseball at State had easily out-grown its cozy Dudy Noble Field facility. Two years after that magical '85 season Mississippi State unveiled a dramatic advancement for its baseball facilities — an impressive $3.5 million project that would give MSU the biggest baseball stadium in the league.

The new facility at Dudy Noble Field, built in less than nine months, featured an impressive concrete grandstand structure with 3,700 maroon theater-style seats, a spacious elevated press box, restrooms, ticket, souvenir and concession-vending facilities. The team clubhouse featured a spacious 40-locker dressing room and team area. A pair of 1,500-seat bleachers that once overlooked the end zones at Scott Field, the home of MSU's football Bulldogs, were refurbished and installed along the foul lines, raising seating capacity at Dudy Noble Field to 6,700. The facility was later chosen by Sports Illustrated as the best place to watch college baseball, and it helped ignite a drive to update baseball facilities throughout the SEC and beyond.

The expanded capacity at the stadium also triggered an increase in MSU's annual baseball season ticket base to more than 5,600, virtually assuring Mississippi State's place among national leaders in college baseball attendance every year.

A second permanent concession stand was added in 1989, and a year later, the cinder warning track at the outfield fence was extended to completely encircle the playing field. That project, along with the installation of a six-foot high padded outfield fence, was made possible by a donation by former MSU All-American and Major League standout Will Clark.

Best-selling author, MSU alumnus and avid MSU baseball fan John Grisham donated funding in 1993 for an indoor batting range under the first base grandstand, and in August 1998 construction got under way on an ambitious project that added 18 sky suites and more than 600 additional chairback seats in the grandstand. When it was completed during the 2000 season, permanent seating capacity at Dudy Noble Field had eclipsed the 7,000 mark.

The aura of Mississippi State baseball at Dudy Noble Field is certainly not confined to the loyal legions in the impressive grandstand, pro-style luxury sky suites and bleachers.

In fact, some of the more highly-prized seats at Bulldog Baseball games are found beyond the outfield fence in the "Left Field Lounge™." Waiting lists greet those seeking to purchase one of nearly 75 renewable season parking passes for an assigned position in one of three rows beyond the outfield fence. There, a colorful assortment of pickup trucks, motor homes, and trailers — most equipped with barbecue grills — line the outfield fence, completing a circle of humanity at Dudy Noble Field.

What began in the late 1960s as a popular gathering spot for baseball-loving MSU students now forms college baseball's largest tailgate party. A 10-foot wide boardwalk has since been added to the area between the outfield fence and the first row of outfield terrace parking.

Not surprisingly MSU ranks each year among the nation's leaders in attendance. Single-game paid attendance totals have reached the five-digit mark 35 times, and each year Dudy Noble Field routinely hosts games with the Southeastern Conference's largest actual attendance. SEC weekend games typically draw the largest crowds, giving rise to huge weekend gatherings in the spring. Eight of the last 10 three-game Super Bulldog Weekend series have drawn more than 25,000.

Still, the improvements continue at Dudy Noble Field. Prior to the start of the 2003 season 46-foot "major league" foul poles were added, and a year later a new state-of-the-art scoreboard/message center, courtesy of the Henry Mize Foundation, was installed along with new fencing and gates surrounding the main grandstand.

The landscape surrounding Dudy Noble Field took on an even more impressive look in 2005 with the completion of the Palmeiro Center, a massive 68,000-square foot climate-controlled turfed indoor practice facility located adjacent to Dudy Noble Field. The spacious facility, made possible by a generous lead gift from former MSU great Rafael Palmeiro and his wife Lynne, features a regulation infield practice area, additional training area and three retractable batting cages.

Nestled between the Palmeiro Center and Dudy Noble Field is the baseball coaches office complex, also completed in 2005. The complex, which also houses a baseball heritage room, was made possible by contributions from former Bulldog players Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Eric DuBose, Paul Maholm, Jay Powell and Bobby Thigpen and former MSU manager James "Bo" McKinnis.

Mississippi State's baseball complex received a boost with the addition of the Bryce Griffis Boardroom, a $1.5 million, meeting/banquet hall extension on the south end of the Palmeiro Center. The facility features banquet seating for approximately 350.

Facility upgrades totaling more than $2 million in the past three years include an expanded state-of-the-art high definition video board, the addition of a new drainage and irrigation system along with a new carpet of natural sod and infield dirt, and expanded dugouts. Even the grandstand got a little more grand with a resurfacing and repainting project topped by all-new cupholder-equipped maroon chairback seats and the installation of a new sound system. Prior to the start of the 2012 campaign work was completed on the installation of a new sound system, a 36,000-watt amplification system evenly distributing sound on a 78-speaker system throughout the stadium.

These latest facility enhancements continue an on-going Mississippi State campaign to maintain the outstanding reputation of Dudy Noble Field.

THE NEW DUDY NOBLE FIELD

Mississippi State Athletics unveiled the Dudy Noble Field Master Plan on Aug. 12, 2014, an ambitious $40 million facility project that aims to remake the Bulldogs' home ballpark into the finest in college baseball.

The Jackson, Miss., design team of Wier Boerner Allin Architecture and national baseball stadium experts Populous, in consultation with MSU alum Janet Marie Smith, has produced the proposed Dudy Noble Field Master Plan concept. Populous has designed 20 of Major League Baseball's current 30 ballparks, in addition to TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, home of the NCAA Men's College World Series.

The Dudy Noble Field Master Plan calls for a new double-tiered grandstand with chairback seating, an elevated concourse that encircles the playing field and allows a constant view of the game action, welcoming entry plazas, spacious restrooms, concessions, a kids' play area, berm seating, upgraded field lighting, HD video board, digital ribbon signage, team areas (clubhouse, training room, equipment room, coaches' offices, etc.) and dramatically improved aesthetics.

"Mississippi State Baseball first set the standard for making college baseball games a happening, becoming one of the first schools to invest in a modern facility nearly 30 years ago," said MSU Director of Athletics Scott Stricklin. "The new Dudy Noble Field Master Plan will provide our players, coaches and fans the best ballpark in all of college baseball."

The timetable for the project is based on the Bulldog Club reaching its $20 million private fundraising goal. Fundraising efforts are currently underway and fans can contribute now to the stadium project at MSUBulldogClub.com or by calling 662-325-3074.

Several premium seating opportunities will be available. The new stadium will feature approximately 50 skyboxes (25 in the main grandstand, 25 in the outfield) and club and lodge seating. The outfield suites will feature two bedrooms, a bath, kitchen and living space and will be available for use year-round.

"This is a monumental day for our baseball program, and something every Bulldog player and fan deserves," said MSU head baseball coach John Cohen. "As a former player and now coach, I know the greatest fans in college baseball will take action to ensure our players and coaching staff have the necessary amenities and resources to recruit and compete at the highest level."

The Dudy Noble Field Master Plan will still showcase the unique and timeless features of the previous ballpark, including the Left Field Lounge™. The outfield 'spots' will be built permanently into place. Each of the 86 spots will be customized to retain the traditional look of the Left Field Lounge™ but with access to added amenities such as electricity, storage and a common concourse connecting the entire outfield facility to the rest of the stadium. New restroom and concession areas will also be located in the renovated outfield area.

Capacity is planned to allow MSU to continue to host the largest crowds in college baseball. The new grandstand will hold more fans than the current grandstand, berm seating down each line will allow for greater general admission seating and the outfield should accommodate the same number of fans, if not more. Additionally, there will be excellent standing room views of the field surrounding the concourse that the current facility does not provide.

Mississippi State currently owns the top 10 on-campus crowds in NCAA baseball history. On April 12, 2014, Bulldog fans shattered the single-game NCAA on-campus attendance record as 15,586 fans witnessed a 6-5 MSU victory against in-state rival Ole Miss. This past spring, a school-record average of 8,127 fans attended games, breaking the mark set the previous season (7,617). In all, more than five million fans have seen a game at the stadium affectionately nicknamed "The Dude."

ABOUT THE MSU BULLDOG CLUB

The Mississippi State University Bulldog Club is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that was established in 1974 as a funding resource for student-athlete scholarships and a means to build and upgrade athletic facilities. Donations to the Bulldog Club are used to provide MSU student-athletes with tuition, room and board, academic support and career development, athletic facilities maintenance and coaches and administrative support. The Bulldog Club has recently funded the expansion and renovation of Davis Wade Stadium. Since 2010, Bulldog fans have been incredibly generous, providing nearly $72 million in capital gifts.

Baseball holds a place of special importance at Mississippi State, where the Bulldogs' rich championship tradition has attracted record-breaking crowds and national attention. MSU fans, alumni, students, players, coaches and staff take great pride in positioning Bulldog Baseball to the front of the college baseball landscape.

With the above in mind, the Bulldog Club has spent several months studying the future of Mississippi State's on-campus baseball facility, Dudy Noble Field at Polk-Dement Stadium. The design team of Wier Boerner Allin Architecture and national baseball stadium experts Populous, in consultation with Mississippi State alum Janet Marie Smith, has produced the proposed Dudy Noble Field Master Plan concept, a bold idea that is befitting the great tradition of Mississippi State Baseball.

The Dudy Noble Field Master Plan calls for a new double-tiered grandstand, an elevated concourse that encircles the playing field and allows a constant view of the playing surface, welcoming entry plazas, restrooms, concessions, a kids' play area, berm seating, upgraded field lighting, HD video board, digital ribbon signage, team areas (clubhouse, training room, equipment room, coaches' offices, etc.), and dramatically improved aesthetics.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q – How much will the Master Plan cost to execute?

A – The current estimate is approximately $40 million.

Q – Why a complete rebuild of the current facility? Wouldn't a renovation of the existing structure been more economical?

A – Both options – a renovation and a new construction – have been explored. The smart long-term decision is to focus on new construction, which will provide Bulldog fans and the MSU baseball program with a premier facility, a structure representative of the stature of baseball at Mississippi State University.

Q – Were other locations considered?

A – Yes, but the combination of history at the current Dudy Noble Field, along with the proximity to the Palmeiro Center (indoor practice facility) and the Templeton Athletic Academic Center, made the current location the priority for the new stadium.

Q – Will a new stadium be able to be completed during one offseason, or will the team have to relocate for a year?

A – The goal would be to have enough construction done during the offseason to allow play at the current site the following year, understanding that it may be necessary to have to play through some construction. But all possible options will be reviewed in consultation with the design team, construction professionals and the baseball coaching staff.

Q – How will this be paid for?

A – The goal is to raise $20 million in private, capital gifts. The remainder will be financed through the sale of new premium seating opportunities. Since 2010, Bulldog fans have been incredibly generous, providing nearly $60 million in capital gifts. Continued donor support will be imperative for the new baseball stadium project to become a reality.

Q – When will construction begin?

A – We hope to move quickly, but there are two immediate priorities ... 1) achieving the Bulldog Club's fundraising goal of $20 million and 2) focusing on moving the current conceptual design forward toward schematic design.

Q – How much will seats be for those who didn't make a one-time donation for seats?

A – Specific donation levels associated with acquiring chair back seats have not been determined at this time.

Q – Will the current skybox holders receive priority in the new stadium?

A – Current skybox holders will receive the first right to retain skybox amenities in the new Dudy Noble Field/Polk-Dement Stadium. There will be additional skybox opportunities for Bulldog fans who have previously been unable to secure skybox seating. The current stadium has 18 skyboxes; the plan is for the new stadium to have approximately 50 skyboxes (25 in main grandstand and 25 in the outfield).

THE NEW DUDY NOBLE FIELD

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q – What other premium seating options will the new facility offer?

A – In addition to skyboxes, potential plans include both club and loge seating.

Q – What happens to those who made a one-time donation for chairback seats when the current Polk-Dement Stadium was constructed in the mid-1980s?

A – Mississippi State Athletics remains appreciative of those who helped make the current stadium a reality nearly 30 years ago, helping the Maroon and White become the benchmark for college baseball facilities in the process.

There are currently about 3,500 chairback seats whose ticketholders made one-time gifts. Those ticketholders have been allowed to keep those seats each year as long as they continued to purchase the season ticket. In a new stadium, those ticketholders will A) be guaranteed the opportunity to acquire a chairback seat(s) in the new facility, and B) will receive credit and consideration for gifts associated with their original chairback gift.

Mississippi State appreciates the input of our season ticket holders. Comments about the improvement of restrooms, concessions, viewing areas, walkways, etc., are addressed in the new facility. These improvements, of course, can not be made without your financial support.

Q – What is the capacity of the new facility? Will Mississippi State still be able to accommodate record crowds?

A – The goal is to continue to do what Mississippi State has always done: host the largest crowds in college baseball. Several details still remain to be determined, but the new grandstand will hold more fans than the current grandstand, berm seating down each line will allow for greater general admission seating, and the outfield should accommodate the same number of fans, if not more. Additionally, there will be outstanding standing room views of the field surrounding the concourse that the current facility does not allow.

Q – Will there still be a Left Field Lounge™?

A – Yes! It is important that the history and tradition of the Left Field Lounge™ be preserved. However, there will be some adjustments to allow for more fans to safely enjoy this unique college baseball experience, while maintaining the community feel that makes Left Field Lounge™ so special.

For safety purposes, the outfield 'spots' will be built permanently into place. The goal is for current passholders to be given the opportunity to help customize their location in the Left Field Lounge™. Each of the 86 spots will have access to added amenities such as electricity, storage, and a common concourse connecting the entire outfield facility to the rest of the stadium. New restroom and concession areas will also be located in the renovated outfield area.

No longer will outfield space holders be required to bring their "rigs" to campus and go through the painstaking process of parking, securing, making their areas safe, and then removing their "rigs" at season's end. Plus, as fall baseball continues to become a popular attraction, the permanency will allow fans more opportunities to enjoy this cherished location.

Q – Why change the outfield? The Left Field Lounge™ is a Mississippi State tradition, and iconic in college baseball.

A – As stated above, preservation of the Left Field Lounge™ is of the utmost importance to everyone, but safety, convenience, and comfort are key considerations. The new Left Field Lounge™ design maintains the ambiance Bulldog fans have enjoyed, removes potential hazards, allows for a permanent student area in right field and provides amenities that maintain this premier location fans have enjoyed for years.

Your safety is our primary goal – but rest assured, this will be done in a way that also allows the Left Field Lounge™ to retain its unique culture and appeal.

Q – Who will have the first shot at getting a spot in the Left Field Lounge™?

A – There are currently 86 outfield 'rigs' at Dudy Noble Field, and 86 outfield 'spaces' have been designed in the new facility. The current passholders will have first rights to those 86 spots. With all of the upgrades that our Left Field Lounge™ fans requested, there will be a reflected price adjustment; however, the Left Field Lounge™ is not intended to be priced as a premium location (even though we all know that it is!).

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q – Will Mississippi State students still be able to sit in the grandstand?

A – Yes. There will still be a reserved section available to MSU students, as there has been in the past. Members of The Dudes will still be able to access seats in the grandstand as well.

Additionally, the berms in right field are designed with students in mind, so that they have a place to call home in the Dudy Noble outfield.

Q – From the artist's renderings, it appears that right field has become a primary entrance to Dudy Noble Field. What was the reason for that?

A – There will be two primary entry points; behind home plate and in the right field corner. The largest parking areas are to the east of Dudy Noble Field, so most of the fans are coming from the southeast and the northeast parking lots. The right field corner gate will provide the most space for a dramatic entrance to what will become the premier baseball facility in the country.

Q – What is the building behind the Left Field Lounge™?

A – The concept is to build skyboxes in the outfield, but ones that have usefulness beyond baseball gamedays. We call them the Left Field Lofts™, 1,000-square-foot suites with balconies. In addition, the Left Field Lofts™ have two bedrooms, a kitchen and a common room that make them livable space throughout the year. It is a revolutionary concept that will add to the uniqueness of Dudy Noble Field.

Q – Will the name of the stadium change?

A – There are no current plans to change the name of the playing surface – Dudy Noble Field – nor the stadium itself – Polk-DeMent Stadium. There will, however, be several unique and exciting naming opportunities which will assist in financing the new facility.

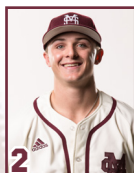

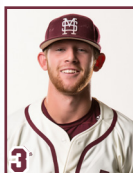

2014: 50 FACTS TO REMEMBER

1. Mississippi State finished with an overall record of 39-24 (22-12 at home, 11-8 away, 6-4 neutral).
2. State's 18-12 record in the Southeastern Conference was its best league record since 1997 (19-11) and tied for the third-best mark in school history.
3. The Maroon and White appeared in its fourth-straight NCAA Regional (34th NCAA Tournament, 11th Regional), advancing to Game Seven of the NCAA Lafayette Regional before losing 5-3 at No. 1 Louisiana-Lafayette.
4. State won at least 38 games for the fourth-straight season, marking the first time since 1998-2001 the Bulldogs accomplished the feat.
5. State won 16-plus SEC games for the third-consecutive season, marking the third time in history and the first time in 24 years it accomplished the feat (1983-85, 1988-90).
6. For the first time since 1997, MSU won seven league series and four road series in SEC play.
7. On Feb. 16, 2014, head coach John Cohen captured his 500th career victory as a head coach with a 7-2 series-clinching home victory against Western Carolina.
8. Cohen picked up his 200th career win as MSU skipper with a 16-2 thrashing of Alcorn State at home on April 15, 2014.
9. Cohen's club continued to be one of the top-fielding teams in the country, finishing fifth in the country with a .981 fielding percentage.
10. On the mound, MSU ranked top-20 nationally in strikeouts per nine innings (8.1, 13th) and shutouts (8, 19th).
11. Bulldog pitchers allowed an SEC-low 13 home runs all season.
12. Offensively, the Bulldogs showed patience at the plate, ending the spring 12th in the nation with a SEC-best 273 walks.
13. For the first time since 1993-94, MSU won eight-straight SEC road games (April 18-May 16).
14. State swept back-to-back SEC road series (Missouri and Auburn) for the first time since 2003.
15. The Diamond Dawgs won a series at Georgia (2-1) for the first time since 1997.
16. On March 29 and 30, MSU captured its first series against Arkansas since 2008.
17. From April 8 to May 16, State won 10-straight games on the road, its longest such streak in 20 years (1994).
18. First baseman Wes Rea was named MVP of the annual Governor's Cup with two hits and two RBIs in an 8-3 win against Ole Miss in front of a record 8,496 fans at Trustmark Park in Pearl.
19. From May 2 to May 4, the Bulldogs swept a three-game series at Auburn for the first time in school history, outscoring the Tigers by a 18-1 margin.
20. Butch Thompson's pitching staff recorded a 3-0 shutout at Auburn on both May 2 and May 3, marking the first time since 2003 MSU had back-to-back shutouts in league action.
21. On May 10 and 11, MSU walked off in consecutive games against Tennessee, defeating the Vols 1-0 in 10 innings to tie the series in Game Two, before winning the series in a 12-inning, 4-3 thriller in Game Three.
22. The Diamond Dawgs tied Florida with a league-high six All-SEC selections, placing three members on the All-SEC team, two on the All-Defensive squad and one on the All-Freshman team.
23. State had 27 players named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll.
24. First baseman Wes Rea and right-handed pitcher Ben Bracewell were voted team captains.
25. Left-handed pitcher Jacob Lindgren earned All-America honors from Baseball America (first team), Perfect Game (first team) and the NCBWA (second team), while also earning first-team All-SEC honors after leading the nation with 16.3 strikeouts per nine innings and finishing first nationally among all relievers with 100 strikeouts.
26. Shortstop Seth Heck became the fourth Bulldog to be named SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while also being named to the All-SEC Defensive Team after leading all SEC shortstops in league-games with a .986 fielding percentage.
27. Right-handed pitcher Jonathan Holder finished his collegiate career with the most saves by any three-year player in SEC history (school-record 37).
28. Southpaw Ross Mitchell became the second Bulldog in school history to be named SEC Pitcher of the Week three times in the same season, finishing the season with second-team All-SEC honors in a vote by the league coaches as well as earning a spot on the SEC Community Service Team.
29. Second baseman Brett Pirtle, a member of the 2014 ABCA All-South Region second team, the All-SEC second team, the All-SEC Defensive Team and the NCAA Lafayette Regional All-Tournament Team, led the SEC in overall hitting with a .363 average.
30. Four Diamond Dawgs were selected in the 2014 Major League Baseball Draft: Lindgren (2nd round, New York Yankees), Holder (6th round, Yankees), Brandon Woodruff (11th round, Milwaukee Brewers) and Pirtle (23rd round, Detroit Tigers).
31. Catcher Gavin Collins was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team after hitting .324 in 25 conference games with a team-high .456 slugging percentage, in addition to throwing out an SEC freshman-high 11 baserunners.
32. On April 12, 2014, Collins hit a walk-off single in the bottom of the 10th to give MSU a 6-5 win against in-state rival Ole Miss in front of 15,586, the largest on-campus crowd in NCAA baseball history.
33. The Super Bulldog Weekend total attendance of 39,181 marked the largest on-campus three-game series crowd in the history of college baseball.
34. The Bulldogs finished third in the country with 8,127 fans per game in attendance at Dudy Noble Field.
35. Dudy Noble Field averaged 8,000-plus fans per game for the first time ever.
