CREDENTIALS

Media credentials for Mississippi State home baseball games are required for media covering games at Dudy Noble Field and are issued through the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office for working press only. Written requests by accredited media members on company letterhead should be submitted to Kyle Niblett at least 48 hours prior to the requested game(s). If needed, credentials can be left at will call, located at the stadium ticket office under the main grandstand. Will call opens two hours prior to SEC and weekend games and 90 minutes prior to all other games.

PRESS BOX MEDIA SERVICES

The MSU Media Relations Office provides pregame notes and statistics, lineup sheets and scorecards in the Joe Phillips Press Box prior to each game at Dudy Noble Field. A complete box score along with a play-by-play is available approximately 15 minutes after each game. Wired and wireless internet connections are available for media use in the press box along with information for accessing live in-game stats through the StatBroadcast® System. The Joe Phillips Press Box sits above the grandstand behind home plate. The press box phone number is (662) 325-3776.

COACH COHEN MEDIA AVAILABILITY

The day before each home weekend series begins, head coach John Cohen will preview the upcoming series immediately following afternoon practice in the Hall of Champions at Dudy Noble Field. For road weekends, Cohen will preview the series in the same location the day before departure or the day of. Follow @MSUMediaAlerts on Twitter for updates on all baseball media availability.

FACILITIES/PARKING

Limited media parking at Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium is available in a designated media parking area on the east side of the Humphrey Coliseum. A media parking pass issued in advance by MSU Athletic Media Relations is required.

MSU PLAYER/ASSISTANT COACH AVAILABILITY

Players and assistant coaches will be made available to the media each week to discuss the upcoming weekend series. On gameday, players are ONLY available POSTGAME.

For post-practice interviews, media members should contact Kyle Niblett or Nick Price no later than 9 a.m. the day of the requested interview. In most cases, players will be available for a brief time before and for a lengthier time after practice.

Telephone interviews can also be scheduled with players on a call-back basis during the week with arrangements made through Kyle Niblett or Nick Price.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Requested MSU players along with head coach John Cohen will be available for interviews approximately 10 minutes after all games near the third base camera well adjacent to the MSU dugout. To facilitate the process, a member of the MSU Athletic Media Relations staff will solicit interview requests from media members in the final two innings of the game and will be available to assist with those interviews on the field.

Due to time constraints, players and coaches will not be available for interviews between MSU doubleheader games.

The Mississippi State locker room and stadium dugouts at Dudy Noble Field are off limits to the media. Any media member found in such areas will immediately have their credentials revoked.

PHOTOGRAPHS

Credentials are also required for photographers and videographers at MSU home games, and on-field photographers must operate from and stow equipment in the photo boxes located on the outfield end of each dugout. Photographers are restricted from entering the field of play and team dugouts. For safety reasons, flash photography is not permitted at Dudy Noble Field. Other than marketing events (first pitch, national anthem, recognitions), no photography is permitted at field level pregame.

MSU BASEBALL RADIO NETWORK

Mississippi State University is home to one of the nation's largest and oldest collegiate baseball radio networks, affording fans throughout the Magnolia State and beyond an opportunity to regularly follow the exploits of the Diamond Dawgs throughout the season.

Network programming for the MSU baseball broadcasts is distributed and coordinated through the facilities of Learfield Sports, Inc., headquartered in Jefferson City, Missouri.

The 2016 Mississippi State University Baseball Radio Network, a team of more than a dozen radio outlets, carries the broadcasts of a 40-game network schedule (all 30 SEC weekend contests and 10 selected non-conference games) plus all postseason competition. In addition to the 40-game network schedule, the broadcasts of most non-network games are carried in the Golden Triangle area by WKBB-FM (100.9) in West Point, Mississippi.

Mississippi State baseball network radio broadcasts (some limited exceptions) are also available on a subscription basis via the internet through HailState.com.

The broadcasts feature pregame and postgame interviews, hosted by the "voice" of the Diamond Dawgs, Jim Ellis.

Radio broadcasts of Bulldog Baseball originated in the 1960s on Starkville radio station WSSO thanks to the work of the late Joe Phillips, a pioneer in radio broadcasting in the state of Mississippi. The press box at Dudy Noble Field is named in honor of Phillips.

But credit for turning the single-station broadcast into an impressive collection of radio outlets blanketing the Magnolia State goes to Ellis, who in 2016 enters his 38th season of describing the exploits of the Diamond Dawgs. A native of West Point, Mississippi, and a 1969 MSU grad, Ellis coordinates the operation of State's baseball radio network. Ellis also handles the play-by-play for MSU football and basketball after having teamed on those broadcasts for more than three decades with MSU radio legend Jack Cristil.

DAWG TALK

The MSU baseball broadcast lineup also includes the popular weekly John Cohen call-in radio show "DawgTalk". The show begins an eight-week run March 28 and airs each Monday from 7-8 p.m. live from Dawg House Sports Grill II, located in downtown Starkville. Fans can attend in person for free at 217 East Main Street, listen on affiliated radio stations in Mississippi or ask Cohen a question by calling 866-998-4893.

RELENTLESS

The 2016 season will feature season two of "Relentless," an all-access look inside John Cohen's program. The show is a joint production of Hail State Video and Bulldog Sports Properties, a property of Learfield Sports. Fans can watch the series on a weekly basis at HailState.com or YouTube.com/HailState once conference play begins.

SEC NETWORK +

Bulldog fans around the world can watch 37 of State's 56 regular-season games in 2016 live on the SEC Network + digital app, which in 2015 replaced the 2014 online video platform HailStateTV as MSU's HD digital live stream provider.

Bart Gregory, a native of Nanih Waiya, Mississippi, and a 1999 MSU graduate, is the SECN+ play-by-play commentator for the majority of MSU's broadcasts. Gregory joined Ellis in the radio booth in 2012 before switching over to television broadcasts in 2015. He began his career in sports broadcasting at the University of West Alabama in 2000 and returned to Starkville the following year. While at MSU, he initially served as on-air talent for women's basketball games and select baseball games, while hosting MSU football pregame and postgame shows.

Gregory's affiliation with the MSU athletics family began in 2000 with his appointment as an account representative for the Bulldogs Sports Network. Since 2008, he has served in the Bulldog Club as assistant athletics director for annual giving.

John Cohen, who has directed Mississippi State to the NCAA Tournament in four of his last five seasons, including a program-record runner-up finish in the 2013 College World Series, is in his third decade in the collegiate coaching ranks and his eighth campaign as head coach in Starkville. Cohen, wherever he has been, has proven himself as a rebuilders of programs, a coach capable of sustaining success, winning championships and developing both players and people.

Regarded by many as one of the most innovative coaches in collegiate baseball, Cohen was introduced as MSU's 16th head baseball coach on June 7, 2008, exactly 18 years to the day after leaving Omaha, Nebraska, and the 1990 NCAA College World Series following his final game as a MSU player. He has since become one of eight coaches in history to lead his alma mater to the NCAA College World Series as both a player and a coach. Of State's four 50-win teams, Cohen has been the head coach or a key player on three of them.

Including previous career coaching stops at Missouri (1992-97), Northwestern State (1998-2001), Florida (2002-03) and Kentucky (2004-08), the former All-SEC outfielder has been associated with teams over the past 24 seasons that have piled up 825 wins while producing more than 111 Major League Baseball Draft selections and 23 All-Americans. Cohen has racked up 561 wins in 16 years as a Division I head coach, including 240 in seven years at Mississippi State.

The former USA Baseball National Team coach has completely changed the culture of every program he has headed up, including both head coaching stops in the daunting SEC. After having a combined .459 winning percentage in his first two years at UK and MSU with rosters he mostly inherited, Cohen's success rate has skyrocketed to a .662 total winning percentage following his second full recruiting class making it to campus.

At each coaching stop in his career, MSU's skipper has had an adaptability factor like no other. At smaller ballparks where offense was critical to each teams' success, Cohen excelled. In his time at each campus, the Tuscaloosa, Alabama, native broke the single-season school runs record at Florida (2002) and Kentucky (2006 and 2008).

As the hitting coach at Missouri in 1996, the Tigers broke the school record for hits (659) and doubles (144). In the same position at Florida in 2002, the Gators led the country in hits (825) and ranked second nationally in average (.346), runs per game (9.74) and home runs per game (1.71). Cohen's hitters also set or tied 41 total offensive school records (20 team/21 individual).

When Cohen was coaching at bigger ballparks, he adjusted accordingly. His Northwestern State pitching staffs set 10 school records from 1998-2001 as Cohen took home two Southland Conference championships and Coach of the Year honors. In Starkville at the spacious Dudy Noble Field, Cohen's defense has recorded the fourth-highest fielding percentage in college baseball since the 2014 season began.

Depending on what his home field requires, Cohen has been one of the few coaches nationally to have consistently figured out a way to finish in the top 10 nationally in categories such as ERA, runs scored, double plays, fielding percentage and on-base percentage.

An annual leader nationally in college baseball attendance, MSU has registered eight of its top 10 all-time marks in baseball season-ticket sales during Cohen's tenure, including a school-record 5,874 in 2014. The success is a direct result of Cohen, who initiated a program where season tickets are hand-delivered by players to local ticket owners. The tradition, which has become wildly popular at MSU, has since been copied by athletic programs across the country. Cohen also invented "The Dudes" in 2012, a student support group for baseball designed to grow his program's brand among students on campus. Last year, more than 2,500 students showed up in 40-degree weather for the largest student pep rally for a college baseball team in history.

Off the field, Cohen has preached philanthropy to all those involved in his program. He routinely donates money from his camps to Blair E. Batson Hospital for Children in Jackson, Mississippi. Each Friday, every member of the MSU baseball program writes a personalized thank you note to a person who has had a positive impact on their life. On top of that, he has organized hospital visits for his team, encouraged players to volunteer for things such as tornado recovery and has watched the Diamond Dawgs become ingrained in the Starkville community with their community service.

On top of community service, his teams have worked hard in the classroom as well, having produced a 3.0 GPA average or better in 12 of his first 15 semesters as head coach in Starkville. In spring 2015, the Diamond Dawgs became the first program in SEC history to have three straight SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year winners (Seth Heck, 2014-15; Sam Frost, 2013). MSU's wide lead in all-time academic all-conference awards has grown during Cohen's term at State, with 122 selections to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in seven seasons. In addition, 44 MSU newcomers received SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll status the past seven years, including a record 10 in 2014. Following the 2015 campaign, two-time SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year Seth Heck became the 18th Diamond Dawg to receive academic All-America honors.

Cohen's positive reputation with his fanbase and success on the field led to the announcement during his tenure of an ambitious $40 million facility project that aims to give MSU the best non-Major League Baseball stadium in the country.

The Dudy Noble Field Master Plan calls for a new double-tiered grandstand with chairback seating, an elevated concourse that encircles the playing field and allows a constant view of the game action, welcoming entry plazas, spacious restrooms, concessions, a kids' play area, berm seating, upgraded field lighting, HD video board, digital ribbon signage, team areas (clubhouse, training room, equipment room, coaches' offices, etc.) and dramatically improved aesthetics.

Thanks to his success, along with academics and facilities, Cohen's recruiting classes at State has garnered national acclaim. His 2009 debut recruiting class was ranked as the nation's eighth best by Baseball America. Cohen's second class in 2010 earned a No. 18 ranking, followed by a No. 14 ranking the following year. After a rare ranking of 37 in 2012, Cohen has reeled in a top-10 class in each of the last three seasons, marking the first time in the 125-year history of MSU the program secured three straight top-10 classes. The No. 2 class in 2013 marked the second-highest ever for the Bulldogs by Collegiate Baseball, which began ranking classes in 1983.

A big reason for Cohen's recruiting success is his ability to attract and develop elite assistant coaches. Three former ABCA National Assistant Coach of the Year winners have been assistants on his staff. Two of those three are currently head coaches in the SEC, making Cohen the only coach in the league to square off yearly against two of his former assistant coaches.

His prowess as one of the nation's top hitting instructors has mounted with each step along the way in his coaching career. That coaching expertise gained nationwide attention in 2006 when, in his third season at Kentucky, he guided the Wildcats to a remarkable worst-to-first finish in the rugged SEC. That season, UK posted a school-best 44-win season, captured the school's first league baseball crown and brought the first NCAA regional baseball tournament to a Lexington campus noted more for its hoops prominence. With 13 top-10 draft picks over a three-year span, the Wildcats virtually rewrote the Big Blue record book, powered by the likes of All-American standout and SEC Player of the Year Ryan Strieby and All-SEC performers John Shelby and Sean Coughlin.

Mississippi State players have received All-SEC recognition in each of Cohen's seven years at State, while 24 Diamond Dawgs have had their names called during the MLB Draft conducted the past eight seasons, including the 2012-13 first-round combo of Chris Stratton and Hunter Renfroe, the first time in history a Mississippi school produced a first rounder in consecutive drafts.

Continuing a trademark that has grown during his coaching career, Cohen is a highly sought-after featured speaker and clinician. He has traveled the nation sharing his expertise at numerous baseball clinics in 30 states, including a speaking engagement at the 2010 American Baseball Coaches Association Convention, his third appearance at the annual event. Cohen has also maintained a full schedule of speaking engagements at alumni gatherings, civic organization meetings and baseball banquets on a variety of levels throughout the Magnolia State.

Cohen, the fifth MSU grad to serve as skipper at State, is one of two current SEC head baseball coaches coaching at his alma mater. The 49-year-old coach is married to the former Nelle Bashinsky, also from Tuscaloosa. The couple has two daughters - Jordan Baker and Avery Lawson.

COHEN THE PLAYER

Mississippi State skipper John Cohen wears No. 11 because it's the same number he wore during his successful collegiate career as a player at State.

Before college, Cohen was an accomplished two-sport prep athlete at Tuscaloosa Academy, earning all-state honors in both baseball and basketball. His TA hoops teams won three-straight state titles and a school-record 100-consecutive games. But it was on the baseball diamond as a four-year regular playing for coach Don McNabb that Cohen excelled.

He capped his prep career with a stellar senior season in 1985, the same year that, 84 miles away, the likes of Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Rafael Palmeiro and Bobby Thigpen were leading the Diamond Dawgs to a then school-best third-place finish in the NCAA College World Series.

He inked with Birmingham-Southern following his prep career, and as a rookie started in center field for the Panthers, hitting at a crisp .333 clip and earning team defensive MVP honors. On April 24, 1986, Cohen made his Dudy Noble Field debut in a Birmingham-Southern uniform, delivering a double, a triple and driving in three runs in a doubleheader split against the Bulldogs.

Cohen transferred to Mississippi State that fall, sitting out the 1987 campaign as a redshirt before beginning his SEC career playing under legendary MSU head coach Ron Polk.

He was a key contributor during the most successful three-year span in MSU's storied baseball history. The Bulldogs advanced to an NCAA regional tournament berth in each of Cohen's three seasons as a player, capped by a run to Omaha and the 1990 NCAA College World Series. In 1989, he helped lead the Bulldogs to the SEC championship and a school-record 54 wins. During that span, the Bulldogs compiled 148 wins and a winning percentage above .76 percent.

Cohen concluded his career ranked in the top 10 in several statistical categories at MSU and earned First-Team All-SEC distinction as a senior. He was selected by the Minnesota Twins in the 22nd round of the 1990 MLB Draft and played two years in the Twins' minor league system.

COHEN THE COACH

In the fall of 1991, Cohen launched his coaching career in Columbia, Missouri, where he joined coach Gene McArtor's Missouri staff as a graduate assistant. When Tim Jamieson followed McArtor as the Tigers' head coach after the 1995 campaign, he tabbed Cohen as his chief assistant, hitting coach and recruiting coordinator.

In 1996, Missouri won the Big Eight championship and advanced to an NCAA regional berth for the first time in 16 years. The Tigers broke nine offensive school records that season, part of 17 total records set by Cohen's offenses over his six years in Columbia.

Following the 1997 season, Cohen headed to Natchitoches, La., for his first head coaching assignment, a four-year term at Northwestern State University. His two predecessors at NSU served as head coaches in the SEC - Arkansas' Dave Van Horn and former Alabama skipper Jim Wells.

Under Cohen, the Demons won 146 games and claimed a pair of Southland Conference titles (1998 and 2001). He was named the Southland Conference Coach of the Year during both championship seasons.

His well-rounded clubs set 18 individual and team offensive records during his tenure, while his pitching staff set 10 school marks. The 1998 team posted the nation's fifth-best team earned run average (3.82) while the 1999 edition tallied college baseball's seventh-best fielding percentage (.967). His NSU squads also excelled in the classroom, averaging 18 players with GPAs of 3.0 or better each semester while notching 3.0 team GPAs in both 1998 and 1999.

Cohen also spearheaded a highly successful fundraising campaign for NSU's baseball facility, Brown-Stroud Field. The ballpark's grandstand seating increased from 298 to 1,000. All of those seats and then some were needed on April 18, 2001, when a school-record 4,214 fans watched Cohen's Demons knock off defending-national champion LSU.

Cohen further established himself as one of college baseball's best coaches during a successful two-year stint at Florida as an assistant coach on the staff of Gator head coach and former MSU skipper Pat McMahon. While in Gainesville, his UF hitters pulverized opposing pitching and led the SEC in nearly every offensive statistical category. In 2002, the Gators paced the SEC in nine team categories en route to 46 victories and a berth in the NCAA Tournament.

At Florida, Cohen coached a pair of consensus All-Americans who hit .400 and scored more than 100 runs each, Mark Kiger and SEC batting champ Pat Osborn. Cohen's balanced UF offense also included five players hitting 10-plus home runs.

In the 2003 season, the Orange and Blue's high-octane offense paced the SEC in five offensive categories. The Gators finished in the top five in the league for the second-straight season in batting average and Brian Rose became the third UF slugger to earn All-America honors under Cohen's tutelage. Bolstered by its tremendous offense, UF earned its second-consecutive NCAA regional tournament berth.

Cohen's time away from the head coaching circle was brief. After two record-setting campaigns in the Sunshine State, the Tuscaloosa native was hired as head coach at Kentucky in 2003. After finishing just under .500 in his first season at UK (2004), the Wildcats reeled off four-straight winning campaigns. In five seasons as the Wildcats' dugout general, Cohen guided the Blue and White to unprecedented success on the diamond, guiding his teams to 175 triumphs while developing UK into a major player on the national scene.

Cohen's 2006 Wildcat edition turned many heads when it rolled to a 44-win season, the school's first SEC baseball title and registered the league's first worst-to-first one-season turnaround in baseball. For his efforts, Cohen received national and conference coach of the year plaudits in 2006, a season in which UK hosted its first NCAA regional tournament.

That 2006 UK team piled up a school-record 500 runs, while his 2007 club led the SEC in eight offensive categories. The 2007 edition of the Wildcats also ranked third nationally in home runs and slugging percentage and hit for a stellar .320 average, which fell just one point shy of the school record.

The record-breaking parade continued in 2008 when UK raced to a 19-0 start and a top-five national ranking. Kentucky matched its school-best win total with a 44-19 finish and for the second time during Cohen's term in Lexington, advanced to an NCAA regional tournament.

Cohen arrived back in Starkville in June 2008 and returned Mississippi State to the NCAA postseason scene in 2011. State won 38 games and captured the NCAA Atlanta Regional before pushing No. 2 national seed Florida to a third game in a dramatic Super Regional in Gainesville. A year later, the 2012 Diamond Dawgs registered the program's first 40-win campaign since 2005, won their seventh SEC Baseball Tournament and went on to compete in the NCAA Tallahassee Regional.

In 2013, Cohen led State to the best finish of any sport in the history of his alma mater - a No. 2 final national ranking and a finalist finish in the NCAA College World Series. The Maroon and White finished 51-20 overall, steamrolling through the NCAA Starkville Regional and upsetting No. 6 national seed Virginia on the road to advance to the school's ninth College World Series.

At the plate, his Bulldogs racked up a school-record 713 hits, good for third in the country, while junior shortstop Adam Frazier led the NCAA with 107 base knocks and paced the SEC with 20 doubles. Junior outfielder Hunter Renfroe led the SEC in both home runs and total bases, going on to be drafted 13th overall by the San Diego Padres in the June 2013 MLB Draft.

As good as MSU was offensively, the pitching and defense carried the load as much as anyone. Six pitchers had ERAs under 2.00, with a collective team ERA of 2.79 and an SEC-high 588 strikeouts. State finished second nationally with a school-record 80 double plays. Cohen's pitchers were one of two staffs in 2013 to finish the top 10 nationally in ERA, strikeouts per nine innings and hits allowed per nine innings.

Cohen's coaching efforts did not go unnoticed. He was awarded national coach of the year honors by both the College Baseball Foundation and CollegeBaseballInsider.com. In addition, he was tabbed by his peers for conference coach of the year accolades for the third time in his career.

While 2014 did not end in Omaha, Cohen's sixth season at the helm still produced successful results, ending with a fourth-straight trip to the NCAA Tournament. Mississippi State finished with 39 wins, including its best SEC mark (18-12) since going 19-11 in 1997. Including his 500th win as head coach on Feb. 16, 2014, Cohen won 38-plus games for the fourth-consecutive season, marking the first time since 1998-2001 the Bulldogs accomplished the feat. Also in that tally was the fact Cohen helped MSU win 16-plus SEC games for the third-consecutive season, marking the third time in history and the first time in 24 years it accomplished the feat (1983-85, 1988-90).

Nationally, the Diamond Dawgs continued to earn a reputation as one of the top fielding programs in the country, leading the SEC and finishing fifth in the NCAA with a school-record .981 fielding percentage in 2014. On the mound, MSU ranked top-20 in the country in strikeouts per nine innings (8.1, 13th) and shutouts (8, 19th). Bulldog pitchers allowed an SEC-low 13 home runs all season.

Overall, Cohen coached a league-high tying six All-SEC selections, placing three members on the All-SEC team, two on the All-Defensive squad and one on the All-Freshman team.

While the 2015 regular season did not go as planned thanks in part to 13 players missing a total of 260-plus games, the Diamond Dawgs had the best summer in school history this past year. In January 2016 at the annual ABCA Convention, Cohen was presented with the 2015 National Alliance of College Summer Baseball Most Valuable Program Award.

The NACSB had 845 institutions send more than 3,800 players across the country in 2015, with MSU being named the top school as a result of the quantity and quality of players assigned to affiliated NACSB leagues. Of the 21 players from the 2016 MSU roster which competed this past summer, 11 earned All-Star honors. Two of those 11 were named Most Valuable Player in their respective league.

Cohen's 13 hitters combined to hit .316 in 438 total games, going 463 for 1464 with 241 RBIs, 86 doubles, 13 triples and 31 home runs. On the mound, MSU's nine pitchers recorded a 2.13 ERA in 292 innings with 251 strikeouts and a 1.15 WHIP.

At MSU, Cohen has assembled a well-respected and highly-skilled coaching staff featuring coaches well-versed in the Maroon and White's colorful baseball tradition, the Magnolia State's high school and junior college programs and the nation's top college baseball league. All the while, Cohen has continued to lay and build upon a strong foundation for success on the diamond at Mississippi State.

In Oct. 22, 2015, Mississippi State head baseball coach John Cohen tweeted a promise saying one of the nation's elite pitching coaches would be joining his program soon.

State's skipper fulfilled his promise on Oct. 30, 2015, when he announced 18-year coaching veteran Wes Johnson as MSU's new pitching coach. Known nationally for his player development and ability to increase velocity throughout his staff, Johnson arrived in Starkville after serving as the pitching coach from 2012-15 at Dallas Baptist University. During his tenure in Texas, DBU advanced to three NCAA Regionals, had 14 pitchers drafted and set single-season records for earned run average, strikeouts, saves and every other major statistical pitching category.

Johnson's track record for development is apparent in the fact that he has had 24 pitchers drafted or sign professional contracts from 2008-15. In 2015 alone, Johnson had five pitchers chosen in the first 12 rounds, more than any Southeastern Conference school. From 2013-15, Johnson had seven pitchers selected in the top-10 rounds, which would have tied for the most in the SEC during that span. Dallas Baptist had only six pitchers drafted in the first 10 rounds in the 44 years prior to Johnson's arrival (1967-2011).

Johnson was a key component in DBU winning a school-record 46 games in 2015, hosting their first NCAA Regional and earning the program's highest final ranking in school history. The Sherwood, Arkansas, native had three pitchers earn All-America honors and two more earn all-conference accolades from the Missouri Valley Conference.

Arguably his greatest success story is former DBU righty Brandon Koch, who arrived in Dallas as a shortstop and left as the greatest closer in school history. Working daily with Johnson, Koch went from a 7.20 ERA his freshman year to breaking the school record with a 0.64 ERA in 2014. That season, he and fellow pitcher Paul Voelker earned first-team All-MVC honors, leading the staff to new school records in strikeouts (506) and batting average against (.248), while winning the MVC Tournament and receiving the No. 2 seed in the TCU Regional.

In 2015, Koch shattered the school record with 15.91 strikeouts per nine innings. As a result, the hard-throwing righty earned All-America honors from four different media outlets in his final year with the Patriots, as well as being named an NCBWA Stopper of the Year finalist.

Prior to DBU, Johnson served as the pitching coach at Central Arkansas for three seasons, where his pitchers set Division I school records in ERA, WHIP, strikeouts, opponent batting average and fewest walks. Johnson had five players who were either drafted or signed professionally during his time in Conway.

Sandwiched in between stints at UCA, Johnson mentored pitchers as an assistant at Southern Arkansas, Led by Hayden Simpson, the 16th overall pick in the 2010 MLB Draft, five more of Johnson's pupils were drafted or went pro. In 2009, he helped lead the Muleriders to a 52-11 overall mark after owning a top-10 ERA nationally while setting school records in strikeouts and fewest walks allowed. The 499 strikeouts broke a Gulf South Conference record and were a big reason why USA was ranked No. 1 in the Division II Top-25 for 20 weeks.

Aside from his collegiate coaching experience, Johnson spent four seasons as the head coach of Abundant Life High School in Sherwood, Arkansas. During his tenure there, Johnson guided the Owls to an impressive 102-25 overall record. In his final two campaigns for ALHS, he led the team to two straight state championship games, which resulted in a state championship in 2006 and a runner-up finish in 2007. While coaching high school and American Legion from 1997-2007, 28 players signed an NCAA Letter of Intent. In addition, four players were drafted.

Johnson earned a degree in marketing in December 1994 from the University of Arkansas Monticello. While at DBU, Johnson earned 33 hours working toward his masters in kinesiology. Off the field, he and his wife Angie have three children - Ryan (22), Anna (16) and Ava (6).

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT WES JOHNSON

"I know Wes as one of the most forward thinking and knowledgeable pitching coaches in the game. Technology and reams of data have changed the way we evaluate and develop pitchers. No person I know has a better handle on how to blend this emerging science with the art of coaching like Wes. If you want to be sure to maximize your innate talent, you're in good hands with Wes Johnson."

– Scott Lovekamp, New York Yankees Pitching Analyst

"Wes Johnson is and has become one of the most innovative pitching coaches in college or professional baseball. His ability to take a holistic approach to the pitching delivery should bring MSU efficient and healthy pitchers. Wes' strength is his never-ending pursuit of a better way. The Houston Astros will definitely keep a close eye on his guys."

– Brent Strom, Houston Astros Pitching Coach

"Wes Johnson is one of the outstanding pitching minds in the game of baseball. He approaches the game with a growth mindset. Wes is always looking to learn, advance his ideas and think creatively. He continues to utilize all the information available to have the biggest and most positive impact on his players. The culture he creates is infectious. I love talking pitching with him and am beyond excited to see him step in at MSU and get to work."

– Eric Binder, Cleveland Indians Assistant Director of Player Development

"I had the opportunity to see the pitching program Wes Johnson put together at Dallas Baptist University up close, and I have to say in my opinion it is one of the most comprehensive programs I have ever seen in the professional or college ranks. With Wes' knowledge, expertise and experience, he gives his pitchers the best chance of reaching their full potential. Wes' track record speaks for itself – His pitchers get better. Mississippi State is getting one heck of a pitching coach."

– Dewey Robinson, Tampa Bay Rays Minor League Pitching Coordinator

"Wes is as good as they get. He has a passion for development and doing everything possible to help pitchers reach their full potential. He is innovative, but has the ability to make the complex seem very simple to pitchers, which is how it needs to be when they are in a game. He is also positive and personable, which enables him to treat each pitcher as an individual and helps them come up with their own plan of attacking hitters."

– Dan Heefner, Dallas Baptist Head Coach

"Mississippi State is fortunate to have Wes Johnson as part of their staff. I have known Wes for more than 20 years. I have played against him, coached against him and coached with him. From the first time I met him, I knew he had a burning passion for the game and knew he would do great things in baseball. Subsequently, this passion has landed him one of the best positions in college baseball and I could not be happier for him and his family."

– Allen Gum, Central Arkansas Head Coach

"I learned so much from Wes Johnson. I think he is one of the best pitching coaches in the country. He was real big on the mental side of the game and then, obviously, on how to be physically prepared to go out and pitch. I learned a lot about feel, and when I was throwing balls, I knew where to hit the zones with my breaking ball and the same thing with my fastball."

– Cy Sneed, 3rd Round Pick in 2014 MLB Draft

"Wes Johnson is a name that not a lot of people in Mississippi and elsewhere will know, but he's an outstanding pitching coach who has flown under the radar at Dallas Baptist. Not only has DBU had premier, big-time arms throughout Wes' tenure, but many of those big arms were developed into that by Wes. He is capable of making sure the power arm makes a smooth transition to college, and he can turn the average arm into one of the best. He is one of the best."

– Kendall Rogers, National Writer and Editor, D1Baseball.com

"Wes Johnson earned a strong reputation at Dallas Baptist for his ability to develop a hard-throwing pitching staff. The three power relievers drafted in the top five rounds out of Dallas Baptist in June (Chance Adams, Brandon Koch and Drew Smith) are prime examples of the kind of pitchers that populated the Patriots staff during his tenure."

– Teddy Cahill, National Writer, Baseball America

"Wes Johnson is highly regarded both as an elite pitching coach and an outstanding recruiter. His detailed and innovative approach produced remarkable results as his pitchers consistently made big jumps during their collegiate careers. Wes' staffs are known for having power-armed relievers with power breaking stuff but his versatility was seen in rotations that were more versed in pitchability and command."

Averaging four players drafted in Major League Baseball for every year coached in college baseball, perhaps no other assistant on the collegiate level has more proven success at player development than Nick Mingione, who has been part of the Mississippi State baseball family since June 2008. Having completed his seventh season in Starkville and 14th total as an assistant coach in 2015, the current Diamond Dawg assistant has worked with 53 MLB Draft picks, coached 33 All-American Honors and developed four conference players of the year.

Along with setting MSU's outfielders, first basemen and hitters up to have success at the next level professionally, State's third base coach is a proven winner. Mingione has appeared in eight college regionals, won seven overall championships and overseen nine nationally-ranked recruiting classes, including a school-record three straight top-10 classes from 2013-15.

Mingione has won five conference championships, coached in five College World Series and has been a national championship finalist twice, the latest of which came in 2013 as the Bulldogs wrapped up the best season by any sport in the history of MSU athletics.

In 2014, Mingione helped MSU have phenomenal patience at the plate, finishing first in the SEC and 12th nationally with 273 walks. Going up against the best pitchers in the country, he helped coach the Maroon and White to second in the SEC with a .369 on-base percentage. In addition, he continued to develop the talent of Brett Pirtle, who led the league with a .363 batting average on his way to earning All-SEC honors for the second-straight year. With Mingione's help, Pirtle then went on to be drafted by the Detroit Tigers in the 2014 MLB Draft.

Mingione's star pupil in 2013 was right fielder Hunter Renfroe, who earned All-America honors before being chosen 13th overall by the San Diego Padres in that year's MLB Draft. Renfroe's $2.7 million signing bonus was the largest ever given to a prospect from the state of Mississippi. Additionally, MSU's four players chosen in the top 10 rounds were the most in 28 years, while the five All-Americans were the most in school history.

In 2012, the Bulldogs captured their seventh SEC Tournament crown as the team advanced to the NCAA Tallahassee Regional. The year before, Mingione helped coach the Diamond Dawgs to the NCAA Atlanta Regional championship, before falling one out short of the College World Series in the NCAA Gainesville Super Regional at Florida.

Before arriving in Starkville, Mingione was an assistant coach and the recruiting coordinator on head coach Bobby Moranda's staff at Western Carolina. As the hitting coach, Mingione helped direct a Catamount team which earned Top-40 national ranking among 286 NCAA Division I programs in 11 different offensive categories. Showing his skills at developing players, eight players coached by Mingione in 2008 eventually were selected in the MLB Draft.

In his first stint with MSU skipper John Cohen, Mingione served as an assistant coach at Kentucky. Despite winning 36 conference games in the five seasons before his arrival, the Wildcats won 33 SEC games in just two seasons with Mingione in Lexington. The Wildcats went from worst to first in his first year, going from 29-27 (7-22 SEC) in 2005 to 44-17 (20-10 SEC) in 2006. The season culminated in the school's first SEC championship, giving UK its most successful campaign in the 100-plus year history of the program.

COACHING STAFF

As a result, the school hosted a NCAA Regional for the first time and made an appearance in the postseason for the first time in 13 years. In all, Mingione was part of a coaching staff with Cohen that helped set or reestablish 12 school records, including single-season wins.

Working extensively with the UK outfield corps and with Wildcat hitters for two seasons, Mingione coached four eventual All-Americans and six All-South Region players. One of those All-Americans was Ryan Strieby, who was named SEC Player of the Year, marking the third-straight season Mingione had worked with a conference player of the year.

Off the field, Mingione mentored 2006 Academic All-American and current Cleveland Indians' star Collin Cowgill, as UK had 27 players selected to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in the two seasons Mingione was in Lexington.

Mingione's SEC debut was preceded by the same amount of success he experienced as an assistant coach from 2003-05 at his alma mater, Embry-Riddle. In three years as an assistant, the Eagles went 154-36 overall (.811), won the Florida Sun Conference championship each season and went to the NAIA World Series every year, finishing as a national finalist in 2005.

In three years as an assistant in Daytona Beach, Florida, the Eagles boasted 17 all-region honors, 20 all-conference accolades and two conference players of the year. Off the field, ERU registered a school-record five NAIA All-America Scholar-Athletes in 2004.

Under Mingione's watch, the Eagles' defense excelled. After not having a fielding percentage above .960 in the first 11 years of the program, ERU recorded fielding percentages of .964 in Mingione's first year (fourth all-time), .966 in 2004 (second) and a still school-record .970 in 2005. Thanks to the defense, the Eagles set a single-season school record with 53 total wins in both the 2004 and 2005 seasons.

As an assistant at Florida Gulf Coast in 2002, Mingione helped build the foundation of the program before its inaugural season in 2003, recruiting such players as Justin Stiver and Jason Louwsma. Stiver went on to become the first student-athlete from FGCU to get drafted by a major professional sports league, being taken by the Houston Astros in the 2006 MLB Draft. With Mingione having a keen eye for talent early on, Louwsma also went on to be drafted in the 2006 draft.

Born in Tarrytown, N.Y., Mingione eventually grew up in the Sunshine State and played high school baseball for head coach Scott Jones at Mariner High School in Cape Coral, Florida, before playing collegiately at Embry-Riddle.

He earned a bachelor's degree in aerospace studies with a triple minor in business, psychology and humanities in 2000. Upon graduation, Mingione started his coaching career in 2001 as an assistant coach for his high school alma mater.

Away from the field, Mingione is a frequent traveler, from speaking engagements to mission trips, including one in late 2013 to the island of Eleuthera in the Bahamas. While there, he and six current and former members of the MSU baseball program joined 19 others in building houses and putting on baseball clinics for youth on the island.

Upon arriving back in the States from the Bahamas, Mingione joined the likes of Ted Williams (2002), Ron Polk (2003) Leo Mazzone (2006) and Cohen (2008) by being inducted into the "Be The Best You Are" Baseball Clinic Speaker Hall of Fame.

Mingione received the honor in January 2014 after speaking for a third year at the 41st-annual clinic in Cherry Hill, N.J. While there, he spent time sharing ideas with such baseball minds as New York Yankees hitting coach Kevin Long (2010 inductee), Yankees Director of Pitching Development Gil Patterson and former Bulldog skipper Pat McMahon (2003 inductee).

The clinic, which has been going on for more than four decades, includes "Ultimate Rap Sessions" with multiple-speakers going at one time for 25 minutes on a variety of topics. Mingione has done more than 24 different sessions in a two-day stretch.

Mingione is married to the former Christen Reeves. The couple has one son, Reeves.

2013-15 Assistant Coach, St. Johns River (Fla.) State College
2015-Present Coordinator of Baseball Camps, Mississippi State

In August 2015 former Mississippi State baseball player Will Coggin joined head coach John Cohen's staff as MSU coordinator of baseball camps. In addition to his duties associated with directing MSU's summer and winter baseball camps, Coggin also serves as the Bulldogs' volunteer assistant coach and coaches first base during the season.

Coggin came to Starkville after serving as an assistant coach from 2013-15 at St. Johns River State College in Palatka, Florida. While there, the Booneville, Mississippi, native helped lead the Vikings to a 122-42 overall record (.744), including a 57-14 mark (.803) inside the Mid-Florida Conference. The 122 wins during that three-year stretch were the most by a Florida junior college. After being ranked as high as 18th nationally in 2013 and fourth in the country in 2014 by Perfect Game, the Vikings earned a No. 1 ranking for much of the 2015 season.

Serving as the SJRSC third base coach and recruiting coordinator, Coggin was part of a 2015 squad which won a school-record 47 games (47-10), surpassing the previous mark of 38 set in 2013. In 2015, the Vikings won their third straight Mid-Florida Conference championship, accomplishing the feat for the first time since 1966-68. Coggin also helped lead SJRSC to its first Florida State Tournament win in 38 years, finishing the season first in the Florida junior college ranks in wins, runs, home runs, RBIs, walks, on-base percentage and total bases.

Individually, Coggin was instrumental in player development, recruiting & coaching 24 players who went on to sign with Division I programs. A total of 42 players signed NLI's to four-year universities during his tenure at SJRSC. Included in that number is 2016 MSU newcomer Nathaniel Lowe, who earned NJCAA First-Team All-America honors at first base in 2015 after hitting .372 with 59 runs, 53 RBIs and 17 home runs in 56 games.

Prior to coaching in Florida, Coggin was part of Cohen's staff at MSU from 2009-12. During that stretch, the Maroon and White won the 2011 NCAA Atlanta Regional, advanced to the 2011 NCAA Gainesville Super Regional and captured the 2012 SEC Tournament championship on their way to appearing in the 2012 NCAA Tallahassee Regional.

Before joining the staff in Starkville, Coggin was a middle infielder for the Bulldogs from 2007-08 after transferring from Northeast Mississippi Community College, where he played from 2005-06. Coggin earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2010 from MSU before receiving a master's degree in sports administration in 2012.

SUPPORT STAFF

BRIAN NEAL

Head of MSU Olympic Sports Strength & Conditioning
Sixth Season

Entering his sixth season overseeing the strength and conditioning programs for the Bulldog baseball team is Brian Neal.

Neal, 32, is a native of Forest, Virginia. He joined the MSU staff in February 2011 following a four-year stint as assistant strength coach at Sam Houston State. In January 2016 Neal was promoted to head of MSU Olympic sports strength and conditioning. He currently oversees all strength and conditioning training based out of the Holliman and Shira Center, including all staff, graduate assistants and interns.

He trained baseball athletes at Sam Houston State, assisted with football strength training and directed the strength training of SHSU's track, golf, women's soccer and women's basketball athletes.

Neal was a linebacker on the Bridgewater College football team, and while an undergraduate there served internships with the strength and conditioning programs at Virginia Tech in 2003 and North Carolina in 2004.

Upon graduation at Bridgewater College, where he double-majored in exercise science and allied health sciences, Neal served as a graduate assistant strength coach at Southern Miss (2005-2007), where he earned a graduate degree in sports coaching education. He also served an internship with the United States Olympic Committee (2007), working primarily with Summer Olympic athletes.

Certified with the NSCA (National Strength and Conditioning Association), the USAW (United States Weightlifting) and CSCCA (Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association), he also coordinates strength and conditioning at Mississippi State for women's soccer and both men's and women's golf. Away from his duties at MSU, Neal also trains and competes in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and mixed martial arts.

Neal is engaged to Amber Robertson of New Hope, Mississippi. The two plan to marry in Fall 2016.

MIKE NEMETH

Senior Associate AD, Sport Administrator for Baseball
31st Season

As the Senior Associate AD for Administration, Mike Nemeth serves as the sport administrator for baseball. In addition to his duties with the Diamond Dawgs, the Ohio native also owns specific responsibilities in the areas of department-wide contracts, summer camp management, football bowl game and other postseason competition organization and scheduling athletic events.

Nemeth, a member of the senior executive staff, also leads future football scheduling efforts, serves as the department liaison with auxiliary groups such as the band and all spirit groups and oversees and directs an employee orientation program and staff development. In addition to baseball, he also serves as the sport administrator for soccer.

A veteran member of the MSU staff, Nemeth is in his 31st year with the athletic department. He previously served as senior associate athletics director for marketing and corporate development and associate athletics director for media relations and marketing, in which he worked as the primary media relations contact for the football program from 1993-2007.

Nemeth is married to the former Renee Farris of Jackson, Mississippi, and the couple has three children: Mary Lowry, a graduate of MSU, Jacquelyn, a junior at MSU, and Michael, 14.

ROB SHILLITO

Athletic Academic Counselor
Second Season

Rob Shillito, a native of Corinth, Mississippi, is in his second year overseeing the academic needs of the Diamond Dawgs. Shillito is a two-time graduate of Mississippi State: first in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in political science and then again in 2012 with a master's degree in sport administration.

Promoted to athletic academic counselor in January 2016, Shillito facilitates the academic progress of each baseball player during their time on campus. Shillito helped former MSU shortstop Seth Heck win SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in 2015. This is his second stint in MSU's Athletic Academic Support Services, as he served as lead graduate assistant from 2011-2012. Between his times serving MSU's student-athletes, Shillito remained in Starkville and worked in college ministry.

Shillito, 26, and his wife, the former Jeane Carroll Brookshire of Dothan, Alabama, are the proud parents of a son, Luke.

LEE VANHORN

Coordinator of Baseball Operations
1st Season

Lee VanHorn joined the Mississippi State baseball program as coordinator of baseball operations in January 2016.

A 2012 graduate of MSU, VanHorn serves as the program's primary liaison with adidas baseball. He also coordinates all team travel and manages player relations. In addition, he oversees student managers and the Diamond Dawgs' video operations.

VanHorn returned to Starkville after serving as the baseball information manager for the Albuquerque Isotopes, the Triple-A affiliate for the Colorado Rockies. During the 2014 and 2015 seasons, he acted as the organization's primary public relations contact, managing all internal and external publicity efforts.

Working under Isotopes owner Ken Young, the Winona, Mississippi, native also served as a PR advisor for the Biloxi Shuckers, helping develop a strategic communications plan for the unveiling of the team name and logo for the Milwaukee Brewers' new Double-A affiliate.

Prior to working with such MLB stars as Carl Crawford, Joc Pederson and Corey Dickerson, VanHorn functioned as MSU's primary media relations contact for volleyball (2013) as well as men's and women's golf (2010-13). VanHorn also served as a direct assistant to legendary baseball media relations contact Joe Dier in 2012-13, coordinating player requests on the 2013 NCAA College World Series finalist squad.

Outside of sports, VanHorn spent the summer of 2012 working in the United States Intelligence Community in Washington D.C.

JASON WIRE

Assistant Athletic Trainer
Sixth Season

Beginning his sixth season as the athletic trainer for the Maroon and White is Jason Wire, who joined the Mississippi State athletic department in September 2010.

Wire, 32, is a native of St. Cloud, Minnesota, and a graduate of St. Cloud State University, where in 2006 he earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology. He began his career in athletic training while attending SCSU, serving as a student athletic trainer working with the Husky baseball, football and hockey programs.

He continued his educational career at San Jose State, earning a graduate degree in athletic training in May 2009. During his two years at San Jose State, Wire handled the athletic training needs of the Spartan baseball, men's and women's soccer and women's tennis teams.

Upon graduation from SJSU, Wire, a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association, worked for a year in professional baseball in Salisbury, Md., where he was an assistant athletic trainer and the head strength and conditioning coach for the Delmarva Shorebirds, the Class A South Atlantic League affiliate for the Baltimore Orioles.

Wire married fellow athletic trainer Sarah Williams at MSU's Longest Student Health Center in October 2015.

ABOUT THE MISSISSIPPI STATE DIAMOND GIRLS

Mississippi State's Diamond Girls serve as one of the primary support organizations for the Mississippi State baseball program. The Diamond Girls handle a wide array of tasks year-round in support of the Diamond Dawgs' baseball operation since the group's inception in 1976. They are most visible on game days at Dudy Noble Field, serving as stadium hosts and distributing programs to fans as they enter the stadium. The Diamond Girls also operate the souvenir and gift stand and serve on the field during games as bat handlers.

NEWSOM AWARD (25)

The Newsom Award was begun in 1990 by retired MSU professor and State's former NCAA Athletic Faculty Representative Walt Newsom. Named in memory of his parents, Carroll and Francis Newsom, the award annually honors the scholastic achievement of a Mississippi State athlete in each MSU sport as well as overall male and female winners. Chuck Daniel and Jeremy Jackson were selected as the overall Newsom Award recipients in 1992 and 1998, respectively.

NOTES

* June Class AA Selections

^ January Secondary Phase

+ June Secondary Phase

Indicates players who did not sign with the club that drafted them.

! Thomas Berkery, drafted by Texas in 2005, signed with the Rangers in 2006 prior to the 2006 June draft.

Since 1965, 141 different Diamond Dawgs have been selected a total of 175 times in the Major League Baseball Draft, including a school-record eight in the 2003 draft.

In 2013, All-American Hunter Renfroe became the 12th MSU player drafted in the first round. With the San Diego Padres' pick, Renfroe and 2012 first-rounder Chris Stratton became the first-ever back-to-back first-round draft picks from the state of Mississippi.

1885

May 2 Mississippi A&M, behind team captain W.J. (Bill) Jennings, defeats Durant 7-2 in the first baseball game in MSU history. Jennings, who holds the distinction of being credited as the first man in Southern college baseball who could throw a curveball, baffles batters from all over the South in claiming A&M's first 12 wins. His composite four-year record, during which time he pitched every game for the Maroons, was a sparkling 12-1.

1893

October 12 A&M defeats the Ole Miss 6-3 in its first intercollegiate baseball game. The schools have met nearly 500 times, easily the longest baseball rivalry for both schools.

1909

April 11 Willie Mitchell hurls the first perfect game in Mississippi A&M history by striking out 26 LSU batters and helping the Maroons slip past the Tigers 1-0 in the second game of a twinbill in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Mitchell finishes with a 6-1 worksheet and dazzles his opponents by striking out 97 batters in 56 1/3 innings. Of his six victories, Mitchell throws one no-hitter, two one-hitters, two two-hitters and one six-hitter.

1918

April 5-6 Maroon hurlers R.H. Pepper and J.T. Peatross shut down Mississippi College by tossing back-to-back no-hitters. Pepper opens the two-game series by allowing the Choctaws only four walks in a 5-0 A&M win. But his shining accomplishment is overshadowed the following day as Peatross pitches only the second perfect game in MSU history, downing Mississippi College 1-0.

1920

April 5 Legendary Dudy Noble Field namesake Clarke Randolph "Dudy" Noble coaches his first game at his alma mater, a 5-3 loss to the University of Illinois. Noble will go on to coach at MSU for 26 years, during which time he compiles a 267-201-9 record and wins three Southern Conference Championships.

1924

May 13 Two baseball rarities occur in the same game during a campus contest against Ole Miss. Not only does A&M retire the Rebels on three straight pitches in one inning, but shortstop C.S. "Buddy" Myer gives the Maroons a much-needed boost by cranking out a grand slam to lead his team to a 6-4 victory. Myer's shot is believed to be the first grand slam in the history of MSU. Myer would go on to play 17 years in Major League Baseball with Washington and Boston, hitting for a career average of .303.

1947

April 18 LSU outfielder Joe Bill Adcock launches a shot an estimated 500 feet into the MSU swimming pool at the "old" Dudy Noble Field. Adcock would play only one season at LSU before playing 16 years in the major leagues, but his tremendous blow is still talked about by long-time Bulldog baseball fans.

1948

May 31 R.P. "Doc" Patty guides the Bulldogs to their first Southeastern Conference Championship in his initial season as head coach. MSU defeats Auburn in the championship playoff, three games to none, thanks to the efforts of All-SEC outfielder Johnny Grace, who led the Bulldogs with a .375 batting average.

1949

June Mississippi State College wins its second-consecutive SEC Championship by downing Kentucky three games to one in the title series. All-conference infielder Alex Grammas and brother Pete Grammas were crowd favorites in helping lead the Bulldogs to a 19-6 record. Alex Grammas would go on to play 10 seasons in Major League Baseball with the St. Louis Cardinals, Cincinnati Reds and Chicago Cubs, before coaching for the Detroit Tigers.

1965

May 9 Outfielder Del Unser belts three round-trippers and picks up a double to set a then single-game team record for total bases with 14. Unser spreads his blasts around, sending a shot to all three fields as the Bulldogs fall to Ole Miss, 10-7. The power outburst gives Unser seven homers, all coming in the last six regular-season games.

May 22

Behind conference hits-leader Mike Burns, the Bulldogs top Auburn in the SEC Championship Series, winning two games out of three. After falling to the Tigers in the series opener, MSU battles back with the strong pitching of Ken Tatum, who leads the Bulldogs to 10-1 and 10-2 victories to claim the conference crown. The title marked the first of four won under the guidance of coaching-great Paul Gregory.

1966

April 2 Pitcher James Carroll hurls 14 innings of four-hit baseball as he out-duels Alabama's Kenny Stabler, 2-1. All-American outfielder Del Unser scores the winning run with two out in the bottom of the 14th.

May 14

Right-hander Ken Tatum starts on only two days rest and shuts down the Tennessee Volunteers 9-3, giving the Bulldogs their second-consecutive SEC Championship. The game marked MSU's final appearance at Redbird Park in Columbus, which for two seasons served as the home for of MSU Baseball while their "new" Dudy Noble Field was being built.

HISTORY OF BULLDOG BASEBALL

1970

May 5 Sophomore left-hander Gene Henderson stymies Arkansas in the nightcap with a no-hit performance that gives the Bulldogs, ranked fifth nationally, a doubleheader sweep versus the Razorbacks, 6-0 and 1-0. Henderson, along with conference ERA-leader Dennis Hall (0.63) and wins-leader Brantley Jones (9-0), carries MSU to its fifth SEC title. State drops the first game of the best-of-three championship series against Tennessee but rebounds to claim the final two contests 4-3 and 1-0 at Dudy Noble Field.

1971

May 14 All-America third baseman Phil Still and All-SEC pitcher Mike Proffitt help lead the Bulldogs to 5-1 and 3-1 victories against Vanderbilt for their second-consecutive SEC Championship on the way to a 32-12 record and the school's first-ever appearance in the NCAA College World Series. After defeating the Commodores in two straight games for the league title, MSU then downs Georgia Tech 5-2 in the NCAA District III championship game in Gastonia, North Carolina, to become the fifth team from the SEC to advance to CWS competition.

1972

April 14 Dudy Noble Field hosts its first night game thanks to a new lighting system. MSU alumnus E.B. "Dutch" McCool, a former teammate of coach Paul Gregory, donates the lights to his alma mater, allowing the Bulldogs to play games at night when it is more convenient for fans to attend. McCool was one of the original founders of Holiday Inn.

1976

March 8 New Mississippi State head coach Ron Polk wins his first game as the Bulldog skipper, 4-0 versus Louisiana Tech. MSU finishes the season 28-17, which begins a streak of 32-consecutive winning seasons for Mississippi State.

1977

March 19 Junior outfielder Nat Showalter begins the season with a modest six-game hitting streak in which he hits .700 (14-for-20) on his way to posting the MSU single-season record for batting average. Showalter, the current manager of the Baltimore Orioles and former skipper of the New York Yankees, Arizona Diamondbacks and Texas Rangers, hits an SEC-leading .459 as he garners numerous all-America honors.

1979

May 14 Down 11-9 with one out in the bottom of the eighth, designated hitter Rick Dixon launches a slider nearly 400 feet over the left-center field fence for a three-run homer in the SEC Championship final. The win gives fourth-year head coach Ron Polk his first conference title in the first SEC Tournament held at Dudy Noble Field.

May 27 After falling to nationally-ranked New Orleans in the opening game, the Bulldogs successfully sweep through the loser's bracket to claim the NCAA South Regional Championship. An 8-6 win versus Murray State in the championship game of the first NCAA regional at Dudy Noble Field lifted MSU to its second appearance all-time in the prestigious NCAA College World Series.

March 15 Junior first baseman Bruce Castoria sets a then school record and ties the conference mark by driving in 10 runs against UNLV in Las Vegas. Castoria, who would set another school record by cranking four grand slams on the year, hits his second of the season against the Runnin' Rebels, along with a three-run shot, an RBI single and two walks with the bases loaded to account for his 10 RBIs.

May 24 State jumps out to an early six-run lead and holds off a late rally by East Tennessee State to win the NCAA Atlantic Regional Championship at Clemson, South Carolina, 6-5. The Bulldogs would go on to finish fifth nationally at the NCAA College World Series.

February 25 Freshman Rafael Palmeiro slaps the first pitch he sees as a collegian over the right field fence for a three-run homer on Opening Day against Mississippi College. Palmeiro, who would later pile up 3,020 hits and 569 home runs in a remarkable 20-year pro career, proceeds to hit safely in his first 20 games en route to a team-high and SEC-best .406 batting average.

April 2 Future major league slugger Will Clark hits his first collegiate home run, an eighth-inning grand slam to straight-away center field, to help lead MSU to a 27-10 pounding versus rival Ole Miss. The following day, Clark comes in late as a pinch runner and scores the winning run in a 7-6 come-from-behind victory against the Rebels.

May 12 Behind strong pitching and excellent defense, the Bulldogs overpower the field in three games to win the SEC Tournament at LSU's Alex Box Stadium, clinching the title with an 8-3 win versus Georgia.

May 27 MSU tops Michigan 19-8 in the championship game of the NCAA South I Regional to earn its third trip to the NCAA College World Series under Ron Polk. Right fielder/relief pitcher Bobby Thigpen, who a year before hit a grand slam in his first career at-bat at Dudy Noble Field, shines in his home finale by cranking another bases-loaded blast. MVP Jeff Brantley is among seven Bulldogs named to the 11-player all-tournament team.

1985 (CONTINUED)

October 23 The United States Baseball Federation names Mississippi State All-American Will Clark the recipient of the Golden Spikes Award, amateur baseball's most prestigious honor. Clark had been the second player taken overall during baseball's June draft by the San Francisco Giants. Clark still ranks as MSU's all-time career leader in batting average (.391).

1987

March 1 The "new" Dudy Noble Field re-opens its gates to 4,040 fans who brave the chilly weather and experience what is considered by many to be the nicest baseball stadium in all of college baseball. The $3.5 million showcase consists of 3,700 chairback seats, two 1,500-seat bleachers down each line and the spacious Joe Phillips Press Box. MSU doesn't disappoint the home crowd, downing Birmingham-Southern 4-1.

May 14 Freshman center fielder Jody Hurst blasts two homers and Mississippi State scores four runs in the bottom of the ninth to lead the sixth-seeded Bulldogs against top-seeded Georgia, 6-5, in the opening-round of the SEC Tournament in Athens, Georgia. MSU swept three games from Alabama in the final regular season series to qualify for the tournament and won four straight SEC Tournament games to claim the championship and earn a spot in an NCAA Regional.

April 16 Mississippi State shatters its own NCAA on-campus attendance record (10,619) as 14,378 Bulldog faithful jam Dudy Noble Field for MSU's doubleheader split with LSU. The following evening, State plays its fifth regular season game ever on ESPN, besting the Tigers 1-0 on the strength of current MS skipper John Cohen's fifth-inning solo shot to center field.

1989

April 22 Mississippi State once again sets the NCAA on-campus attendance record when a crowd of 14,991 witness the Bulldogs' doubleheader sweep of Florida. Junior second baseman Burke Masters caps the evening off in fine fashion by drilling a solo shot into the famous Left Field Lounge™ during the Bulldogs' final at-bat to lift MSU versus the Gators, 5-4.

April 30 Coach Ron Polk's Bulldogs claim their third SEC Championship in five years and the 10th in school history by winning a 28-16 slugfest at Kentucky, setting the single-game team record for most hits (30) and tying the record for most home runs (6). Junior outfielder Tracy Echols ties an SEC record by recording six hits in the contest.

May 25-28 Dudy Noble Field hosts its fifth NCAA regional in six years. The 1989 South Regional draws an NCAA-record 56,906 fans during the 11-game event, an average of 5,173 per game.

May 28 Jon Shave drives in Tommy Raffo with two out in the top of the eighth to cap a three-run MSU rally and give State a 4-3 win versus Florida State in the championship game of the NCAA South II Regional in Starkville. With the win, MSU earns its fifth trip to the College World Series in Omaha, Nebraska. Five Bulldogs were named to the all-tournament team, including MVP Burke Masters, whose dramatic ninth-inning grand slam against Florida State had earlier provided MSU with an 11-8 victory.

May 21 Left-hander B.J. Wallace strikes out 19 Nicholls State batters in 10 innings of work at the NCAA Mideast Regional in Starkville, setting a new MSU single-season record with 145 strikeouts. His mark breaks the old record of 136 set by Jeff Brantley in 1985. A month later Montreal made Wallace the No. 3 pick in the Major League Baseball Draft.

May 8 State plays its 1,000th Southeastern Conference game, defeating in-state rival Ole Miss 10-2 in the first game of a doubleheader at Oxford.

1994

October Mississippi State's 10-man recruiting class is ranked the nation's best by Collegiate Baseball magazine, the highest national ranking for a class of MSU baseball newcomers.

1995

January 7 Mississippi State head coach Ron Polk is inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame. Polk joins 160 other all-time amateur baseball coaching greats enshrined in the ABCA Hall of Fame, coach C.R. "Dudy" Noble, inducted in 1967, and Paul Gregory, who joined the group in 1977.

1996

May 23-25 State returns to the NCAA postseason playoffs after a two-year absence, traveling to Palo Alto, California, to compete in the NCAA West Regional. Sophomore ace lefty Eric DuBose, who fanned 174 batters in 1996 to establish an MSU single-season strikeout record, went the distance in MSU's 6-2 win against UC Santa Barbara.

1997

February 27 With MSU's 11-4 win versus Delta State at Dudy Noble Field, coach Ron Polk becomes the 16th college coach to reach 1,000 career wins.

- April 19 In ceremonies prior to the Mississippi State-Alabama game, MSU's baseball facility is renamed Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium in honor of coach Ron Polk and a longtime MSU baseball fan from Indianola, Mississippi, the late Gordon DeMent. In the game, MSU downs the eventual NCAA runners-up in an 11-10 thriller.
- June 5 After hosting and winning the NCAA Mideast Regional and finishing tied for fifth at the College World Series in Omaha, Neb., MSU announces the retirement of head baseball coach Ron Polk and introduces Pat McMahon as the school's 14th head baseball coach. Polk, remaining on staff with the MSU administration in fund raising, announced August 18 the beginning of a drive to expand seating by more than 1,000 at MSU's home stadium, including the addition of 18 Diamond Suites.

- February 17 Mississippi State launches the coaching era of Pat McMahon at Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium with the Diamond Dawgs' season opener against South Alabama. The Jaguars, who eventually advanced to the finals of the 1998 NCAA East Regionals, emerge with a closely-contested 14-13 win in a 12-inning marathon that lasted four hours and 30 minutes. It is the earliest home opener in the first 108 seasons of MSU Baseball.
- May 24 The Bulldogs complete a remarkable late-season surge, downing host Texas A&M 11-5 in the title game of the NCAA Central Regional at College Station, Texas, to earn the school's first repeat appearance in the NCAA College World Series. State claims one-run wins versus Washington, Rice and Texas A&M to reach the regional finals. Earlier, State won eight of its last 11 SEC games, qualifying for the SEC Tournament on the final weekend of the season and earning an at-large berth in the NCAA Regionals. In the summer, construction gets underway on the Diamond Suites/stadium expansion project at Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium.

- May 28 Ty Martin launches a dramatic solo home run in the bottom of the ninth to give MSU a 10-9 win against Notre Dame in the championship game of NCAA Starkville Regional. The tournament attendance (47,365) sets an NCAA four-team regional record while the seven-game average (6,766) was the largest for an NCAA regional. Earlier MSU set a school record by selling 4,555 season tickets at expanded Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium.

2001

- March 13 MSU stages a two-run rally with two outs in the ninth to post a 6-5 win at New Orleans and become the 18th NCAA baseball program to reach the 2,000-win milestone. For the second-consecutive year MSU fans break the school season ticket sales record by purchasing 4,585 season tickets.
- May 20 Freshman Paul Maholm and sophomore Chris Young limit defending NCAA champ LSU to one run as the Bulldogs top the Tigers 4-1 in the championship game of the 2001 SEC Baseball Tournament in Hoover, Alabama. It is the second tourney win in relief for Young, who earns tournament MVP honors.
- June 19 Ron Polk, the winningest coach in SEC history, is named head baseball coach at Mississippi State, replacing four-year MSU skipper Pat McMahon, who resigned to become head baseball at Florida. In 2001 Polk capped a two-year term at Georgia and became the second coach in NCAA history to guide teams at three different schools to the College World Series when he directed UGA to an SEC title and a trip to Omaha.

- May 29 Mississippi State defeats instate rival Ole Miss 4-1 to complete a four-game tourney sweep and capture the 2005 SEC Baseball Tournament at the Hoover Met. It is MSU's sixth SEC Tournament championship and vaults State on to its ninth NCAA regional tournament in the past 10 seasons.

2007

- June 8-9 After winning the NCAA Tallahassee Regional in three games, Mississippi State hosted its first NCAA Super Regional June 8-9, knocking off Clemson 8-6 and 8-5 to earn the school's eighth berth in the NCAA College World Series. An NCAA Super Regional-record 26,335 jammed Dudy Noble Field for the two 11:30 a.m. games televised nationally on ESPN. With a single in MSU's regional-clinching 9-4 win at Florida State, senior second baseman/outfielder Jeffrey Rea breaks the MSU record for career hits, and with four hits at the College World Series, Rea concludes his career with 335 hits.
- June 27 In Wichita, Kansas, junior catcher Edward Easley is named the recipient of the Johnny Bench Award as college baseball's best catcher. A supplemental first-round draft pick of the Arizona Diamondbacks, Easley earlier claimed college baseball's top honor in Mississippi, the Ferriss Trophy.

- March 27 Head coach Ron Polk announces that the 2008 season, his 29th at Mississippi State and his 35th in collegiate baseball, would be his final season as head coach of the Diamond Dawgs. The Bulldogs ended the year with a 23-33 mark, the only sub-.500 season of his coaching career, and Polk concluded his career with 1,373 wins, seventh most in NCAA baseball history.

2008 (CONTINUED)

June 7 Former State standout John Cohen is introduced by former MSU Director of Athletics Greg Byrne as MSU's 16th head baseball coach. Cohen, with previous coaching stints at Missouri, Northwestern State, Florida and Kentucky, was an All-SEC outfielder at State, helping the Bulldogs set the school-record for wins (54) en route to the 1989 SEC championship.

2009

July 3 Former MSU coach Ron Polk and MSU and MLB great Rafael Palmeiro are among 10 inductees in the fourth class of the College Baseball Hall of Fame in Lubbock, Texas. They join a third player with MSU ties enshrined in the hall of fame, former State great Will Clark, a member of the inaugural hall of fame induction class in 2006.

2010

June 18 Former MSU and MLB great Will Clark leads the national fan balloting for the College World Series Legends Team, honoring the sport's all-time greats that competed in the 60 College World Series held at Rosenblatt Stadium.

2011

June 12 Nick Vickerson swats a dramatic two-run walk-off home run against No. 1 national seed Florida to send the Bulldogs to the title game of the NCAA Gainesville Super Regional. State, which earlier won the NCAA Atlanta Regional with a 3-0 mark, builds a 6-4 seventh-inning lead in the title game before bowing to the eventual national finalists. MSU's advancement to NCAA postseason play marks the 31st time in program history and the first since 2007.

2012

May 27 SEC Pitcher of the Year Chris Stratton picks up his first career save to close out a 3-0 shutout of Vanderbilt as State claims its seventh SEC Tourney crown and the school's 32nd NCAA postseason advancement. Shortstop Adam Frazier goes 12 for 23 (.522) in the six-game stretch to earn MVP honors and joins Jonathan Holder and Demarcus Henderson on the all-tournament team. Stratton, the winner of the Ferriss Trophy, later becomes the 11th MSU player taken in the first round of the MLB draft.

2013

Feb. 16 Demarcus Henderson delivers a clutch RBI single in the sixth inning and All-American closer Jonathan Holder tosses 1 2/3 innings of shutout relief as Mississippi State defeats Portland, 2-1, for MSU's 1,000th win at the current site of Dudy Noble Field, MSU's on-campus baseball home since 1967.

May 16 A total of 9,341 fans attend MSU's game vs. No. 2 LSU at Dudy Noble, pushing the "Carnegie Hall of College Baseball" past the five million attendance mark.

June 9 The Bulldogs hold on for a dramatic 6-5 win in game two of the NCAA Charlottesville Super Regional, clinching its ninth trip to Omaha. With the win, MSU becomes the fifth program in NCAA history and the only SEC team ever to make it to the NCAA College World Series in five-straight decades. On the same weekend, MSU All-American Hunter Renfroe (San Diego) becomes the 12th player in school history to be taken in the first round of the MLB Draft

June 25 The Maroon and White play in the NCAA College World Series Championship Series for the first time ever as Omaha turns into "Dudy Noble North." John Cohen's ballclub battles UCLA in front of the largest single-game crowd in the history of TD Ameritrade Park (27,127) and the seventh-highest attended game in CWS history. The Bulldogs fall short against the Bruins in two games, but finish 2013 51-20 for the best finish in school history (NCAA Finalist).

April 12 Mississippi State broke their own NCAA on-campus attendance record as 15,586 Bulldog fans attended a 6-5 victory against in-state rival Ole Miss. Trailing 5-2 in the bottom of the 10th, All-SEC freshman catcher Gavin Collins ripped an RBI walkoff single to cap a monster four-run 10th inning. A total of 39,181 fans attended the three-game series April 11-13, marking a new NCAA on-campus attendance record for a three-game series.

ONE OF FIVE TEAMS IN NCAA HISTORY
AND THE ONLY SEC
PROGRAM TO PLAY IN THE NCAA COLLEGE
WORLD SERIES IN FIVE-STRAIGHT
DECADES

THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 82-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

An SEC squad has now appeared in the College World Series 30 of the last 31 years, including four teams in 2015. Seven SEC teams were selected for NCAA Regional play with five advancing to NCAA Super Regionals.

The SEC has sent 54 teams to the College World Series since 1990. That was accomplished despite no SEC teams making the field in 1992. LSU has now been to Omaha 14 times, Florida nine times, South Carolina six times, Georgia and Mississippi State five times, Arkansas four times, while Alabama, Tennessee and Vanderbilt have been three times each. Auburn has been twice.

SEC teams have won 10 of the last 25 national championships, with LSU winning six (1991, 1993, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2009), South Carolina winning two (2010, 2011), Vanderbilt taking home the title in 2014 and Georgia claiming the 1990 title. The SEC has finished runner up nine times in that span, 1997, 2002, 2005, 2008, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015.

The SEC has averaged more than eight games played per year in the College World Series since 1990. In 2015, an SEC team played in each of the 16 games of the CWS. In 2004, 12 of the 15 games played in Omaha involved a SEC team. In 1997, the SEC had a team in 13 of the 14 games played in the CWS. Since 1990, an SEC team has played in 185 of the 376 games in the College World Series, an amazing 49 percent of games.

The SEC has played 55 games in the "Final Four" of the College World Series since 1990, an average of over three per year. Only five times, 1992, 1994, 2003, 2006 and 2007 has the SEC failed to get a team to the "Final Four" of the CWS.

The SEC Baseball Tournament drew more than 130,000 fans in 2015, better than 7,000 per game. The event has become the Birmingham metro's highest attended sporting event annually, second in the state only to NASCAR races at Talladega. Birmingham Magazine recently named it the top sporting event annually in the Birmingham area. The entire SEC Baseball Tournament was broadcast live on national television for the first time in the history of the event.

ABOUT THE SEC

Mississippi State University is a charter member of the Southeastern Conference, a pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition and a national leader as intercollegiate athletics marches on into the 21st century.

With the addition of former Big 12 Conference members Missouri and Texas A&M in 2012-13, the Southeastern Conference, headquartered in Birmingham, Alabama, is comprised of 14 universities that span an 11-state region. It conducts championships in 11 women's and nine men's sports. The member schools are split into two divisions. Mississippi State is joined in the SEC West by Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, LSU, Ole Miss and Texas A&M. The SEC East features Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Missouri, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. All but Arkansas and South Carolina, who joined the league in 1991-92, and conference newcomers Missouri and Texas A&M, were among 13 charter members of the SEC.

SEC BASEBALL ON TV

The Southeastern Conference and ESPN have signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create and operate a multiplatform network which launched August 14, 2014. The new network and its accompanying digital platform carry SEC content 24/7 including more than 1,000 events a year.

Programming also includes in-depth commentary and analysis in studio shows, daily news and information, original content such as SEC Storied, spring football games, and more.

The SEC Network will swing into its second baseball season with 75 games slated to air on the network dedicated to Southeastern Conference sports, as part of the more than 90 planned across ESPN television networks (ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU or SEC Network). The network will quadruple SEC baseball's coverage over 2014's nationally televised schedule.

In addition to those games, more than 350 matchups will be digitally exclusive SEC Network + events available on SECNetwork.com and WatchESPN. In total, more than 450 SEC baseball games will be available to fans this season.

The schedule is highlighted with at least 11 television appearances by MSU, and a special night of Bases Loaded Coverage on Friday, March 18, whipping around between games on the opening night of SEC play.

The SEC Network and ESPN2 will conclude the regular season with comprehensive coverage of the SEC Baseball Tournament, marking the second straight season the entire tournament has aired on national television.

SEC TOURNAMENT

The SEC conducts a postseason tournament at the end of its 10-weekend, 30-game league schedule. The winner receives the league's automatic qualifying bid for the NCAA baseball tournament.

The SEC tournament field expanded from eight to 10 teams in 2012 and to 12 teams in 2013. The teams with the 12 highest conference winning percentages qualify for the double-elimination SEC tournament, with the top four teams receiving opening round tournament byes in the double-bracket event. The winners of each bracket meet May 29 in a nationally-televised championship game.

The 2016 SEC Tournament (May 24-29) will be the league's 40th dating back to 1977. And for the 21st time overall and the 19th consecutive year, the event will be staged in Hoover, Alabama, at the Hoover Metropolitan Stadium, once the 10,800-seat home of the Class AA Southern League's Birmingham Barons (Chicago White Sox). The facility can accommodate crowds of up to 10,800.

Mississippi State claimed its seventh SEC Baseball Tournament title (second-most in the SEC) in May 2012. With the Bulldogs playing in six games, the tournament drew a then-record 129,112 fans in 2012, averaging crowds of 7,595. State's six games in Hoover averaged 8,357 fans, including an MSU-dominated 12,526 in the championship game against Vanderbilt.

DR. MARK KEENUM

Mississippi State University President
January 2009-Present

Dr. Mark Everett Keenum became Mississippi State's 19th president Jan. 5, 2009, following a distinguished public service career.

Dr. Keenum has guided Mississippi State to unprecedented heights during his six-year tenure. The university has experienced record enrollment growth to more than 20,000 students. The freshman class of fall 2014 was almost 3,000, and the average ACT score for 2014 was a record 24.4. During 2011-12, Mississippi State awarded more than 4,000 degrees at all levels for the first time in its history, and followed that with 4,222 degrees in 2014-15.

The campus has expanded and improved on Keenum's watch. Major renovations of historic Lee Hall and Davis Wade Stadium were completed by August 2014. Construction of a new classroom building with built-in parking and a Fresh Foods concept cafeteria began in 2014. In 2015, construction is under way on two new residence halls, the new G.V. "Sonny" Montgomery Center for America's Veterans, a Wise Center classroom building, and an expansion of Mitchell Memorial Library is set to begin this fall.

Since 2009, fundraising has reached all-time record levels, with private giving exceeding $80 million a year in fiscal years 2011, 2012 and 2013 and grew to $108.8 million in fiscal year 2014. In fall 2013, the university formally announced Infinite Impact: the Campaign for Mississippi State with a goal of $600 million by 2018. To date, more than $530 million of that goal had been met. Dr. Keenum has also been instrumental in expanding the MSU Promise Program, which provides need-based scholarship assistance to Mississippi students whose families have limited financial means.

Mississippi State has strengthened its role as the flagship research university in the state. The most recent research success has been MSU's designation as the Federal Aviation Administration's National Center of Excellence in Unmanned Aerial Systems and Boeing's decision to locate a composite research center at MSU's Raspet Flight Lab. The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching classifies MSU as a university with "very high research activity," the only such designation in Mississippi. Dr. Keenum travels frequently to Washington, D.C., meeting with Congressional leaders and federal agency heads to pursue research opportunities and broaden the university's influence on the national level. He has also worked closely with state leaders in support of higher education in Mississippi.

Keenum serves as vice-chairman of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools' Commission on Colleges' Executive Council. SACS-COC is the recognized regional accrediting body in the 11 U.S. Southern states (Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia) and in Latin America for those institutions of higher education that award associate, baccalaureate, master's or doctoral degrees.

He also is a member of the American Public Land-Grant Universities Board of Directors. Based in Washington, D.C., the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities (APLU) is a research and advocacy organization of public research universities, land-grant institutions, and state university systems with member campuses in all 50 states, U.S. territories and the District of Columbia. Keenum has also been appointed vice chairman of the Foundation for Food and Agricultural Research by U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Thomas J. Vilsack.

In 2015, Keenum was named to the College Football Playoff's (CFP) Board of Managers and elected vice president of the Southeastern Conference. He remains a member of the SEC Executive Committee and continues to serve on the SEC's Content Committee that oversees the SEC Network.

A graduate of Mississippi State University with degrees in agricultural economics, Dr. Keenum began his career at MSU as a faculty member with the Extension Service and the Department of Agricultural Economics. He went on to serve as chief of staff to U.S. Senator Thad Cochran in Washington, D.C. and was Under Secretary of the U.S. Department of Agriculture prior to returning home to Mississippi State.

He graduated from Corinth (MS) High School and earned an associate of arts degree from Northeast Mississippi Community College in Booneville and was a member of the Northeast Tigers football team.

Dr. Keenum is married to the former Rhonda Newman of Booneville, also an MSU graduate. They have four children: Rett, Mary Phillips, Katie and Torie.

SCOTT STRICKLIN

Mississippi State University Director of Athletics
May 2010-Present

Now in his third decade in intercollegiate athletics, Director of Athletics Scott Stricklin has overseen a wave of momentum within the Mississippi State fan base during his tenure. From his first day on the job in May 2010, Stricklin, with a focus on the student-athlete, a commitment to great integrity, and a dedication to promoting MSU aggressively, has facilitated a stretch of unparalleled Bulldog success.

With an investment of over $130 million in facilities, a strong roster of successful coaches, and significant increases in Bulldog Club membership and donations, MSU Athletics has achieved its highest-ever Learfield Director's Cup finish while consistently seeing the majority of its teams compete in post-season championships.

In an era that has seen 30-consecutive sellouts at Davis Wade Stadium and impressive football facility enhancements, Coach Dan Mullen's team has played in six-consecutive bowl games, while the Bulldogs spent five-straight weeks in 2014 ranked No. 1 in the polls for the first time in school history.

The sports of tennis, baseball, basketball, softball, men's and women's golf and track and field have each excelled and advanced to NCAA postseason play under Stricklin's leadership. During the 2014-15 academic year, 11 Mississippi State sports advanced to NCAA postseason play, with eight earning Top 25 rankings during the season, while the women's golf team ascended all the way to No. 1 in the fall. The year was capped by All-American Rhianwedd Price winning the 1500-meter run at the NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships in Oregon, one year after Brandon McBride claimed the crown in the 800-meter run and two years removed from the baseball team playing for the national championship in Omaha.

In addition, the 2014-15 campaign also saw two MSU coaches earn SEC Coach of the Year honors in Mullen and Vic Schaefer, who led the Bulldogs to a school record 27 wins en route to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

In the classroom, Bulldog students continue to excel. In the 2014-15 academic year, Mississippi State's men and women athletes posted a combined GPA of 3.0, the highest in school history. Also in 2015, Bulldog students again excelled in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, with all 16 sports far exceeding the minimum standard.

Stricklin has overseen record fundraising for Bulldog Athletics, which has produced new facilities such as the $11.7 million Mize Pavilion at Humphrey Coliseum, the $25 million Leo W. Seal Jr. Football Complex, as well as $75 million in expansion and upgrades to Davis Wade Stadium that were completed prior to the start of the 2014 campaign.

The Davis Wade Stadium expansion and renovation pushed capacity to 61,337, making it the largest on campus football stadium in the state of Mississippi. In addition to innovative premium seating options, a new brick facade and updated west concourse, complete with renovated restrooms and concessions, now greets fans attending games at historic Scott Field.

In February 2016, a $6 million new softball stadium opens, while a $40 million upgrade to Dudy Noble Field is in the planning process. In addition, the new $2.2 million Mississippi State Golf Center opens this spring at Old Waverly, one of the South's premier golf courses. The project includes a 6,300-square foot team clubhouse with locker rooms, players' lounge, coaches' offices and indoor putting center, along with a 2,431-square foot indoor hitting bay.

Stricklin's vision also drew attention when he announced the university is partnering with financial guru Dave Ramsey to help educate student-athletes in the area of personal finance. Ramsey's "Foundations in Personal Finance College Edition" curriculum is now being incorporated into teaching MSU student-athletes the basics of finance.

His attention to detail has also proven to be vital in the hiring process, as he received rave reviews with the hiring of men's basketball coach Ben Howland, who comes to MSU after leading Northern Arizona, Pittsburgh and UCLA to the NCAA Tournament, including 3 straight Final Four appearances with the Bruins.

In addition to engaging with Bulldog fans through personal interactions and social media, Stricklin has also emerged as a regional and national leader in college athletics. He serves as chair of the SEC's Working Group on Fan Experience, and has served as the SEC's representative on the NCAA Division I Leadership Council.

Stricklin certainly wasn't a stranger to the Bulldog family or college athletics when he took over the reins at State in 2010.

A 1992 graduate of Mississippi State, the Jackson, Mississippi, native's resume is highlighted by 25 years of experience on the collegiate level in various capacities at five different universities. In the two years prior to becoming athletic director, he served as Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at his alma mater, overseeing fundraising, football and men's basketball scheduling, managing MSU's all-sport agreement with Adidas, facility planning, and serving as the administrative sport liaison for men's basketball and softball.

It was those types of day-to-day tasks that prepared the personable Stricklin to take over the top seat in the Mississippi State athletic department. Yet it's a journey that started during his formative days as a dedicated and tireless worker in the Mississippi State media relations department that has led to his highly-respected career coming full circle.

Prior to graduating, Stricklin's stint in the MSU media relations office included three seasons (1990-92) as the media contact for the nationally-renown baseball program. Upon graduation, he was named Assistant Media Relations Director at his alma mater.

In 1993, he was named Associate Media Relations Director at Auburn, where he served from 1993-98. In 1998, Stricklin left Auburn to become Assistant Athletics Director at Tulane, where he served as the primary media contact for the Green Wave's 1998 12-0 football team. Next came a four-year run in the Big 12 Conference at Baylor (1999-2003) as Assistant AD for Communications and Marketing.

In 2003, Stricklin returned to the Southeastern Conference at Kentucky and spent five seasons as the Associate AD for Media Relations, where he oversaw the day-to-day publicity of the tradition-rich Wildcat basketball program. It was his last stop before returning to Mississippi State in the spring of 2008.

Stricklin, 45, is married to the former Anne Howell, the youngest daughter of Basketball Hall of Fame member Bailey Howell. The couple has two daughters, Abby and Sophie.

The 2016 season marks the 50th season of baseball at the current site of Mississippi State baseball's on-campus home field, Dudy Noble Field. The Diamond Dawgs have played 1,476 games at the venue, prevailing in more than 72 percent of its battles.

On April 12, 2014, Mississippi State broke their own NCAA on-campus attendance record as 15,586 Bulldog fans attended a 6-5 victory against in-state rival Ole Miss. Trailing 5-2 in the bottom of the 10th, catcher Gavin Collins ripped an RBI walkoff single to cap a monster four-run 10th inning. A total of 39,181 fans attended the three-game series April 11-13, marking a new NCAA on-campus attendance record for a three-game series.

Over the past five decades, the facility evolved into the nation's largest campus facility for college baseball and what many have regarded at one time as the sport's finest all-around baseball complex.

MSU has eclipsed the 200,000 mark in paid attendance at Dudy Noble Field in four straight years for the second time in its 125-year history, including a school-record 281,840 in 2013 and a school-best average of 8,127 this past spring. In 2013, the Diamond Dawgs' fifth millionth fan walked through the turnstiles at Dudy Noble Field. Since home attendance figures were charted starting in 1976, the "Carnegie Hall of College Baseball" has seen 5,535,949 fans rush through the gates.

The field is named in honor of longtime MSU baseball coach, athletics director and ABCA Hall of Famer Clarke Randolph "Dudy" Noble. On April 27, 1998 the facility was renamed Dudy Noble Field, Polk-DeMent Stadium, honoring another ABCA Hall of Famer, former Bulldog skipper Ron Polk and the late Gordon DeMent, a successful businessman and longtime fan of the Diamond Dawgs from Indianola, Mississippi.

Dudy Noble Field, the home to seven Southeastern Conference championship teams, has four times hosted crowds in excess of 14,000. State has hosted crowds of 10,000 or better 36 times, including 2007 NCAA Super Regional-record draws of 13,715 and 12,620 for nationally-televised late morning games against Clemson. MSU has hosted three NCAA District III Tournaments (1973-1975), five SEC tournaments (1979, 1981, 1983, 1988 and 1995), 12 NCAA Regional tournaments (1979, 1984, 1985, 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1992, 1997, 2000, 2003 and 2013) and its first NCAA Super Regional in 2007.

From 1929 until 1964, Mississippi State hosted its baseball games at the original on-campus site for Dudy Noble Field several hundred yards to the south of Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field, State's football stadium. The baseball field was closed following the 1964 season to make way for the construction of Dorman Hall. And for the next two seasons, while the "new" Dudy Noble Field was being built, the Diamond Dawgs played their home games in Columbus, Mississippi, at Redbird Park, capturing SEC titles both seasons at their temporary home. Meanwhile, the tin-roofed grandstand and 2,000-seat bleachers at the old field were moved to the stadium's present site, which became playable for the 1967 season.

Facility enhancements have followed a steady pace over the years ever since.

In 1971, thanks to the generosity of the late E.B. "Dutch" McCool, a former MSU baseball player and one of the founding fathers of Holiday Inn, Inc., MSU took the lead in the Southeastern Conference with the installation of a lighting system. The advent of night baseball in Starkville helped build a solid fan base. Drainage and irrigation systems and an expanded scoreboard with an animation-equipped message center, new batting ranges and an infield tarp became the stadium's next improvements.

Mississippi State hosted its first SEC Baseball Tournament and NCAA Regional in 1979, winning both and setting attendance marks while opening eyes along the way.

The crowds mushroomed further in the 1980s as future Major League stars Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Rafael Palmeiro and Bobby Thigpen helped the 1985 Bulldogs win the SEC championship, host and win another regional championship and earn MSU's highest national finish, a tie for third place at the NCAA College World Series.

It became apparent that support for baseball at State had easily out-grown its cozy Dudy Noble Field facility. Two years after that magical '85 season Mississippi State unveiled a dramatic advancement for its baseball facilities — an impressive $3.5 million project that would give MSU the biggest baseball stadium in the league.

The new facility at Dudy Noble Field, built in less than nine months, featured an impressive concrete grandstand structure with 3,700 maroon theater-style seats, a spacious elevated press box, restrooms, ticket, souvenir and concession-vending facilities. The team clubhouse featured a spacious 40-locker dressing room and team area. A pair of 1,500-seat bleachers that once overlooked the end zones at Scott Field, the home of MSU's football Bulldogs, were refurbished and installed along the foul lines, raising seating capacity at Dudy Noble Field to 6,700. The facility was later chosen by Sports Illustrated as the best place to watch college baseball, and it helped ignite a drive to update baseball facilities throughout the SEC and beyond.

The expanded capacity at the stadium also triggered an increase in MSU's annual baseball season ticket base to more than 5,600, virtually assuring Mississippi State's place among national leaders in college baseball attendance every year.

A second permanent concession stand was added in 1989, and a year later, the cinder warning track at the outfield fence was extended to completely encircle the playing field. That project, along with the installation of a six-foot high padded outfield fence, was made possible by a donation by former MSU All-American and Major League standout Will Clark.

Best-selling author, MSU alumnus and avid MSU baseball fan John Grisham donated funding in 1993 for an indoor batting range under the first base grandstand, and in August 1998 construction got under way on an ambitious project that added 18 sky suites and more than 600 additional chairback seats in the grandstand. When it was completed during the 2000 season, permanent seating capacity at Dudy Noble Field had eclipsed the 7,000 mark.

The aura of Mississippi State baseball at Dudy Noble Field is certainly not confined to the loyal legions in the impressive grandstand, pro-style luxury sky suites and bleachers.

In fact, some of the more highly-prized seats at Bulldog Baseball games are found beyond the outfield fence in the "Left Field Lounge™". Waiting lists greet those seeking to purchase one of nearly 75 renewable season parking passes for an assigned position in one of three rows beyond the outfield fence. There, a colorful assortment of pickup trucks, motor homes, and trailers — most equipped with barbecue grills — line the outfield fence, completing a circle of humanity at Dudy Noble Field.

What began in the late 1960s as a popular gathering spot for baseball-loving MSU students now forms college baseball's largest tailgate party. A 10-foot wide boardwalk has since been added to the area between the outfield fence and the first row of outfield terrace parking.

Not surprisingly MSU ranks each year among the nation's leaders in attendance. Single-game paid attendance totals have reached the five-digit mark 36 times, and each year Dudy Noble Field routinely hosts games with the Southeastern Conference's largest actual attendance. SEC weekend games typically draw the largest crowds, giving rise to huge weekend gatherings in the spring. Nine of the last 11 three-game Super Bulldog Weekend series have drawn more than 25,000.

Still, the improvements continue at Dudy Noble Field. Prior to the start of the 2003 season 46-foot "major league" foul poles were added, and a year later a new state-of-the-art scoreboard/message center, courtesy of the Henry Mize Foundation, was installed along with new fencing and gates surrounding the main grandstand.

The landscape surrounding Dudy Noble Field took on an even more impressive look in 2005 with the completion of the Palmeiro Center, a massive 68,000-square foot climate-controlled turfed indoor practice facility located adjacent to Dudy Noble Field. The spacious facility, made possible by a generous lead gift from former MSU great Rafael Palmeiro and his wife Lynne, features a regulation infield practice area, additional training area and three retractable batting cages.

Nestled between the Palmeiro Center and Dudy Noble Field is the baseball coaches office complex, also completed in 2005. The complex, which also houses a baseball heritage room, was made possible by contributions from former Bulldog players Jeff Brantley, Will Clark, Eric DuBose, Paul Maholm, Jay Powell and Bobby Thigpen and former MSU manager James "Bo" McKinnis.

Mississippi State's baseball complex received a boost with the addition of the Bryce Griffis Boardroom, a $1.5 million, meeting/banquet hall extension on the south end of the Palmeiro Center. The facility features banquet seating for approximately 350.

Facility upgrades totaling more than $2 million in the past four years include an expanded state-of-the-art high definition video board, the addition of a new drainage and irrigation system along with a new carpet of natural sod and infield dirt, and expanded dugouts. Even the grandstand got a little more grand with a resurfacing and repainting project topped by all-new cupholder-equipped maroon chairback seats and the installation of a new sound system. Prior to the start of the 2012 campaign work was completed on the installation of a new sound system, a 36,000-watt amplification system evenly distributing sound on a 78-speaker system throughout the stadium.

These latest facility enhancements continue an on-going Mississippi State campaign to maintain the outstanding reputation of Dudy Noble Field.

THE NEW DUDY NOBLE FIELD

Mississippi State Athletics unveiled the Dudy Noble Field Master Plan on Aug. 12, 2014, an ambitious $40 million facility project that aims to remake the Bulldogs' home ballpark into the finest in college baseball.

The Jackson, Mississippi, design team of Wier Boerner Allin Architecture and national baseball stadium experts Populous, in consultation with MSU alum Janet Marie Smith, has produced the proposed Dudy Noble Field Master Plan concept. Populous has designed 20 of Major League Baseball's current 30 ballparks, in addition to TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, home of the NCAA Men's College World Series.

The Dudy Noble Field Master Plan calls for a new double-tiered grandstand with chairback seating, an elevated concourse that encircles the playing field and allows a constant view of the game action, welcoming entry plazas, spacious restrooms, concessions, a kids' play area, berm seating, upgraded field lighting, HD video board, digital ribbon signage, team areas (clubhouse, training room, equipment room and dramatically improved aesthetics.

"Mississippi State Baseball first set the standard for making college baseball games a happening, becoming one of the first schools to invest in a modern facility nearly 30 years ago," said MSU Director of Athletics Scott Stricklin. "The new Dudy Noble Field Master Plan will provide our players, coaches and fans the best ballpark in all of college baseball."

The timetable for the project is based on the Bulldog Club reaching its $20 million private fundraising goal. Fundraising efforts are currently underway and fans can contribute now to the stadium project at MSUBulldogClub.com or by calling 662-325-3074.

Several premium seating opportunities will be available. The new stadium will feature approximately 50 skyboxes (25 in the main grandstand, 25 in the outfield) and club and lodge seating. The outfield suites will feature two bedrooms, a bath, kitchen and living space and will be available for use year-round.

"This is a monumental day for our baseball program, and something every Bulldog player and fan deserves," said MSU head baseball coach John Cohen. "As a former player and now coach, I know the greatest fans in college baseball will take action to ensure our players and coaching staff have the necessary amenities and resources to recruit and compete at the highest level."

The Dudy Noble Field Master Plan will still showcase the unique and timeless features of the previous ballpark, including the Left Field Lounge™. The outfield 'spots' will be built permanently into place. Each of the spots will be customized to retain the traditional look of the Left Field Lounge™ but with access to added amenities such as electricity, storage and a common concourse connecting the entire outfield facility to the rest of the stadium. New restroom and concession areas will also be located in the renovated outfield area.

Capacity is planned to allow MSU to continue to host the largest crowds in college baseball. The new grandstand will hold more fans than the current grandstand, berm seating down each line will allow for greater general admission seating and the outfield should accommodate the same number of fans, if not more. Additionally, there will be excellent standing room views of the field surrounding the concourse that the current facility does not provide.

Mississippi State currently owns the top 10 on-campus crowds in NCAA baseball history. On April 12, 2014, Bulldog fans shattered the single-game NCAA on-campus attendance record as 15,586 fans witnessed a 6-5 MSU victory against in-state rival Ole Miss. In the spring of 2015, an average of 7,448 fans attended games. In all, more than five million fans have seen a game at the stadium affectionately nicknamed "The Dude."

ABOUT THE MSU BULLDOG CLUB

The Mississippi State University Bulldog Club is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that was established in 1974 as a funding resource for student-athlete scholarships and a means to build and upgrade athletic facilities. Donations to the Bulldog Club are used to provide MSU student-athletes with tuition, room and board, academic support and career development, athletic facilities maintenance and coaches and administrative support. The Bulldog Club has recently funded the expansion and renovation of Davis Wade Stadium. Since 2010, Bulldog fans have been incredibly generous, providing nearly $80 million in capital gifts.
