TEMPE - The defending Big 12 Champions and College Football Playoff quarterfinalist Arizona State Sun Devils hit the road for the first time this season, heading east to take on Mississippi State on Saturday, Sept. 6 in Starkville. Scheduled for a 4:30 p.m. AZT kickoff (6:30 local), the contest will be broadcast nationally on ESPN2 (Dave Flemming, Brock Osweiler, Stormy Buanton). The game will also be available over the local airwaves in Arizona on ESPN 620 AM (Tim Healey, Jeff Van Raaphorst, Kevin Turner, Jeff Munn). The Sun Devils enter the contest ranked No. 12 in the AP Poll and No. 10 in the Coaches.

ON THE BULLDOGS/SEC

- » The Sun Devils dominated in the first half and held off a late surge to top Mississippi State in Tempe last season, 30-23, in the lone meeting between the two programs. Cam Skattebo finished with 262 rushing yards, the second-most ever by a Sun Devil, as ASU outgained MSU 346-24 on the ground and held on to the ball for 40 minutes and 13 seconds.
- » The victory was the Sun Devils' first win over an SEC team in program history. ASU added the victory its three wins over Missouri and one over Oklahoma, but neither school was in the SEC at the time of those victories.
- » The Sun Devils will be looking for the program's first win in an true SEC road game, though the program has only played in one of those (2009 at Georgia). The Sun Devils have played true road contests at Missouri but not while it was in the SEC and in 1951 at Arkansas when it was in the Southwest Conference.
- » The contest will mark the first time ASU has played a regular season game east of the Mississippi River (Michigan State in 2019 and is just the seventh time in the last 20 years it has done so (97 Miami (Fl), 2004 Northwestern, 2009 Georgia, 2010 Wisconsin, 2011 Illinois, 2019 Michigan State)).

KICKING OFF

- » Arizona State was ranked in the AP Preseason Top-25 for the 25th time, checking in at No. 11. It was the third-highest AP Preseason ranking in program history (8th in 1998; 3rd in 1976).
- » The Sun Devils return 16 players in 2025 that started at least six games a year ago. The 16 returning starters are tied for the most among all FBS teams heading into this season. The total is notable as the Sun Devils had the second-most new players on the roster in the FBS (78) in 2022 and the ninth-most in 2023 (60). Arizona State had just 17 returning starters COMBINED entering the 2023 and 2024 seasons.
- » The Sun Devils have 23 players in their final year of eligibility, the 20th-highest tally among all FBS schools this season.
- » Jordyn Tyson has nine-straight games with over 75 receiving yards - the longest active streak in the nation. Since the start of that stretch against Kansas last year, no player in the country has more than his 1,030 receiving yards or 11 touchdowns or 49 receiving first downs - despite Tyson not playing in ASU's Big 12 Championship or College Football Playoff games. Perhaps more impressive in the next closest player in yards and touchdowns in that span (Ohio State's Jeremiah Smith with 990 yards and 10 touchdowns), has done so in 13 games compared to Tyson's nine.
- » Sam Leavitt recorded his first career game with two rushing touchdowns and two passing touchdowns. In doing so, it was just the third time since 1997 that a Sun Devil quarterback accomplished the feat with Taylor Kelly doing it twice in 2013. Only four quarterbacks have achieved the feat this season.
- » ASU converted 2-of-3 fourth down opportunities in the opener, resulting in touchdowns on both drives (with a turnover on downs). ASU made 19 fourth-down conversions in 2024, good for 14th in the country. After converting on those 19, ASU had 11 touchdowns, 2 field goals and took a knee to end the Mississippi State game.
- » Since 1996, Kyson Brown is just the 10th Sun Devil player to have 70+ rushing and receiving in the same game. Cam Skattebo accounted for two of those last year. Brown accomplished the feat on just 14 total touchdowns, the lowest of the group ahead of Rachad White in 2020 (15) and Demario Richard in 2015 (19). All other instances came on 24 or more touches. Of those 10 instances, six have happened since Shaun Aguano was hired prior to the 2019 season.
- » Under Kenny Dillingham, ASU now has seven games in which it has surpassed 200 passing and 200 rushing yards in the same game. It had only had eight such games total from the 2016-2022 seasons.
- » The have been 13 instances in 27 games that an opponent was held under the century mark on the ground since defensive coordinator Brian Ward took over in 2023. Between the 2018-2022 season, it had happened 13 times in 55 games. The 13 games are tied for the 12th-most in the FBS since 2023.

AN ASU VICTORY WOULD...

- Mark ASU's fifth regular season non-conference victory in a row
- Give ASU its fourth-straight ROAD victory in a regular season game dating back to last season, which would be its longest since a 7-game streak between the 2013 and 2014 seasons.
- Be the Sun Devils' first road victory over an SEC team
- Be just the second win over an SEC team in program history
- Bump ASU back to .500 all-time in regular season games played east of the Mississippi (currently 7-8)
- Extend ASU's regular season winning streak to seven straight games dating back to last season

- Raleek Brown posted Week One's sixth-best overall offensive grade at 86.5 (min. 20 snaps), a total good for fourth among all FBS running backs
- Kyson Brown recorded a 71.8 grade as a receiver for the week, a tally good for fifth among all Big 12 players, tops among Big 12 running backs and third among all FBS running backs
- Max Iheanachor and Jimeto Obigbo were the Big 12's fourth- and seventh-highest graded players as pass blockers in Week One (min 20 pass block snaps) with grades of 85.1 and 83.4, respectively. Iheanachor's mark was good for the 23rd-best grade in the category among all FBS tackles for the week.
- Clayton Smith was the Big 12's 25th-highest graded defender for the week, ranking seventh among league edge defenders and 45th among all FBS edge defenders with his 76.5 grade.

Last year, 54.1 percent of Sun Devil offensive drives resulted in ASU scoring a touchdown or getting in range for a field goal attempt - good for 11th nationally.

Only 40.7% of opponent drives did the same, a net +13.4 mark that was the 21st in the nation. ASU ranked last (133rd) in the category in 2023 with a net -29.0 percent tally. Only 28 percent of its drives resulted in a TD/FG attempt (124th) compared to a 57 percent success rate for opponents (132nd of 133). ASU averaged 3.03 points per drive, good for 12th nationally and allowing just 1.99 PPD on defense - 43rd. The net +1.04 PPD over opponents advantage was 14th.

Since 2018, ASU has held opponents to the 400 or less mark for total offensive yards on 47 occasions over 82 games (57.3 percent of the time) - including 10 of 14 last year. For comparison, ASU accomplished the feat just 24 times in the 65 previous games (36.9 percent) from 2013-2017. ASU have held opponents to 30 points or less in 54 of 82 games since 2018 (65.9 percent) - including 10 of 14 this year (though one one of those came in an OT game). This is notable as it DID allow 30+ in 32 of the 43 previous games (74.4 percent) in a span from 2013-17. ASU was 11 for 14 in holding opponents under their season scoring average last year, following the season opener

The Sun Devils return 16 players in 2025 that started at least six games a year ago - tied for the most among all FBS teams heading into this season. The total is notable as the Sun Devils had the second-most newcomers on the roster in the FBS (78) coming into the 2022 campaign and the ninth-most in 2023 (60). Arizona State had just 17 returning starters COMBINED entering the 2023 and 2024 seasons. Eight Sun Devils started all 14 games last year, and seven of them return with the lone exception being Walter Camp All-American center Leif Fautanu. The Sun Devils have 23 players in their final year of eligibility, the 20th-highest tally among all FBS schools this season.

There have been 13 instances in 27 games that an opponent was held under the century mark on the ground since defensive coordinator Brian Ward took over in 2023. Between the 2018-2022 season, it had happened 13 times in 55 games. The 13 games are tied for 12th most in the nation since 2013. The Sun Devils held opponents to just 112.9 rushing yards per game last year, the 21st-best total in the country and tops in the Big 12. That came despite ASU playing four of the Top-15 teams in the nation last season in rushing offense (5. UCF/11. Kansas State/13. Kansas/15. Texas State). No other team in the Top-30 faced more than two such opponents in the regular season.

13

Jordyn Tyson has nine-straight games with over 75 receiving yards - the longest active streak in the nation. Since the start of that stretch against Kansas last year (FBS Week 6), no player in the country has more than his 1,033 receiving yards or 11 touchdowns or 49 receiving first downs - despite Tyson not playing in ASU's Big 12 Championship or College Football Playoff games. Perhaps more impressive in the next closest player in yards and touchdowns in that span (Ohio State's Jeremiah Smith with 990 yards and 10 touchdowns), has done so in 13 games compared to Tyson's nine. Tyson has recorded four consecutive games with over 100 receiving yards dating back to last season.

The Sun Devils have no punted on an opening drive since Nov. 11, 2023 at UCLA. In the 17 games since then, ASU has recorded touchdowns in 10, field goals in three, threw interceptions in two, and turned the ball over on downs and missed a field goal once each. ASU scored on 78.6 percent of its opening drives last season, a total that ranked 2nd in the FBS behind only Army (12-for-14; 85.7%). It scored on its opening drive against NAU in the opener. ASU outscored opponents 121-36 in the first half of its last six games dating back to last season.

- » There have been 13 instances in 27 games that an opponent was held under the century mark on the ground since defensive coordinator Brian Ward took over in 2023. Between the 2018-2022 season, it had happened 13 times in 55 games. The 13 games are tied for 12th most in the nation since 2013
- » Javan Robinson's 79.3 grade on run defense was third among Big 12 corners and 29th among all corners in the nation (min. 250 run defense snaps). He was tied for eighth in the nation in fewest missed tackles on run plays (1) and showed his ability to sniff those plays out with his average depth of tackles being just 1.7 yards beyond the line of scrimmage - the second-shortest DOT among all FBS corners

- » In fact, much of ASU's run defense success can be attributed to the Sun Devil secondary, which received an overall run defensive grade of 91.3 last season between the corners and safeties - 11th best in the FBS.
- » The group recorded an average depth of tackle on run plays of 6.57 yards from the line of scrimmage - the 25th-best total in the FBS.

A HAND IN THE COOKIE JAR

- » The Sun Devils had 23 takeaways last season (16 interceptions, 7 fumble recovers), good for 23rd nationally after the program finished with only eight takeaways in 2023.
- » The team ranked 6th in the FBS and tops in the Big 12 with a +1.00 turnover margin per game.
- » The Sun Devils were 129th in the nation in turnover margin in 2023 at -11, improving that mark to +14 last year and the No. 6 mark in the country. The 25-turnover swing was the largest turnaround by any team in the FBS this season, the 5th-best in the last 10 years and the 25th-best of any program since the 1996 season
- » ASU was tied for 5th nationally with just three fumbles lost last year. It recovered seven, good for 55th after ranking 110th in 2023 with just four.
- » ASU has recorded four defensive touchdowns last season (2 pick sixes, 2 fumble returns), Top-10 in the FBS.
- » ASU has outscored opponents 984-561 in points off takeaways since 2012 and 77-21 this season.
- » Iowa State had lost just three fumbles during the entire regular season prior to losing two in the third quarter alone to the Sun Devils in the Big 12 Championship. The Cyclones had entered the contest 17th in the country with a +0.75 turnover margin per game prior to losing three in the third quarter to the Sun Devils.
- » Sun Devil true corners (excluded the nickelback) recorded interceptions in four straight games (Keith Abney vs. Utah and at Cincinnati/Javan Robinson at Oklahoma State/Laterrance Welch vs. UCF). It was the first time ASU has had corners accomplish that feat in four straight games since 2013 (Robert Nelson at Stanford/Osahon Irabor vs. USC and Notre Dame/Nelson and Lloyd Carrington vs. Colorado).
- » Last season marked the first since 2020 (at USC 4 TOs; at Arizona 7 TOs) that the Sun Devils forced three or more turnovers twice in a three-game span (3 vs. Wyoming, 3 at Texas State).
- » The Sun Devils picked off Utah's Cam Rising three times, matching the veteran's career high for a game. Rising had 17 interceptions in his career (on over 750 career passes), of which the Sun Devils are responsible for six of them (35.3 percent). The three interceptions in the game were the most for an ASU team since having three against Stanford on Oct. 8, 2021.
- » ASU was one of just five teams in the country with a fumble recovery in each of its first three games.
- » Taking out ASU's COVID-19 shortened 2020 season, the Sun Devils had a streak of at least one pick six in 23 consecutive seasons (2000-2022) come to a close last season - ending what was the longest streak in the FBS.
- » ASU immediately started a new streak with Zyrus Fiaseu's 29-yard return in the opener of 2024. ASU would also pick up a scoop-and-score from Justin Wodtly later in the contest on a 6-yard fumble return, giving ASU an interception AND fumble return for a touchdown in the same game for the first time since UCLA in 2008.

GRAND CANYON

- » Sun Devil punter Canyon Floyd showed major signs of development in his first game during his sophomore season, earning Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors in Week One.
- » He managed to flip the field for ASU on several occasions in their 38-19 win over NAU.
- » Floyd averaged 48.5 yards per attempt, the most among any Big 12 punter with multiple attempts.
- » It was 18th best average among all FBS punters with three or more punts.
- » Floyd's career-long 58-yard punt when the Sun Devils were pinned deep in their own territory was tied for the 17th-longest by a FBS punter and tied for the longest by any Big 12 punter this week.
- » He also took over kickoff duties after a long return midway through the game and eliminated the kick return threat.
- » His four kickoffs averaged 64.5 yards with no returns past the 25-yard line and a pair of touchbacks.
