In Starkville: 27th Meeting (Alabama leads, 22-4 (21-4 NCAA))

Current Streak: Alabama, Won 16

Last Meeting: Sept. 30, 2023 - Starkville (W, 40-17)

Series Notes: Alabama and Mississippi State will meet for the 109th time in series history when the cross-state foes kick off on Saturday morning inside Davis Wade Stadium. The two teams will face off for the first time since 2023 and have met 108 times since 1896 - tied for the most of any opponent for UA. The Crimson Tide holds an 88-17-3 advantage in series and is currently riding a 16-game winning streak over the Bulldogs dating back to the 2008 season. The Tide is also in front when playing in Starkville, managing a 22-4 record inside Davis Wade. Alabama head coach Kalen DeBoer has never faced MSU, while State's Jeff Lebbby will be pairing with the Tide for the first time in his head coaching career.

YEAR THREE UNDER KDB: For the first time since his beginnings at Sioux Falls, Kalen DeBoer is now in the third year of a coaching tenure. DeBoer led the Cougars to a NAIA Championship appearance during his third season in Sioux Falls but only spent two years at both Fresno State and Washington before heading to the Capstone. In his second season in Tuscaloosa, DeBoer guided the Crimson Tide to an 11-win season and a College Football Playoff appearance.

BEATING THE BEST: The Crimson Tide is 88-26 (.772) against the Associated Press Top 25 since the start of 2008. Saturday's game at No. 16 Mississippi State is Alabama's first matchup against a team ranked inside of the AP Poll at the date of competition this season. In 2025, the Tide went 5-3 in ranked matchups, including four ranked wins in four weeks – the first time an SEC team has achieved the feat without an open date.

STARING DOWN THE GAUNTLET: Alabama is set to play four of its next five games against teams currently ranked inside the Associated Press Top 25, including three matchups on the road. The Crimson Tide will open the gauntlet at No. 16 Mississippi State this weekend before returning to Tuscaloosa to host No. 2 Georgia on Oct. 10. The Tide will then travel to Knoxville for the Third Saturday in October against No. 17 Tennessee on Oct. 17 and head to Baton Rouge to face No. 11 LSU on Nov. 7.

300 AND COUNTING: Alabama has been ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 for each of the last 300 iterations of the poll, becoming just the second team in FBS history to achieve the feat. The Tide entered the AP Poll at the beginning of the 2008 season and has not exited since, nearly tripling the previous school record of 105 consecutive appearances. Nebraska holds the longest streak of all-time at 348 straight weeks from 1981-2002.

DEBOER AGAINST RANKED OPPONENTS: Alabama head coach Kalen DeBoer is 20-6 (.769) across 26 career matchups with teams ranked in the Associated Press Top 25, including an impressive 7-3 (.700) mark against top-10 teams as well as a perfect 4-0 record on the road against top-10 opponents. In 12 games since arriving at Alabama, DeBoer owns an 8-4 (.667) record against AP Top 25 foes. That mark includes five ranked wins last season: at then-No. 5 Georgia on Sept. 27 (24-21); vs. then-No. 16 Vanderbilt on Oct. 4 (30-14); at then-No. 14 Missouri on Oct. 11 (27-24); vs. then-No. 11 Tennessee (37-20); and at then-No. 8 Oklahoma on Dec. 19 (34-24). In 2024, Alabama produced three AP Top 25 wins including DeBoer's first with the Crimson Tide, a 41-34 win over then-No. 2 Georgia on Sept. 28.

Wins by Active FBS Coaches Over Ranked Teams (since 2021)

1. Kirby Smart (Georgia)	26
2. KALEN DEBOER (ALABAMA/WASHINGTON)	20
3. Marcus Freeman (Notre Dame)	16
4. Josh Heupel (Tennessee)	11

ALABAMA IN THE AP POLL: The Crimson Tide's No. 7 ranking in the Week 4 edition of the Associated Press Poll marked the 300th consecutive week that the Crimson Tide has appeared in the poll. That streak is the longest active streak in college football. The 300 weeks nearly doubles second-place Georgia with the Bulldogs appearing in the poll for 154 consecutive weeks. Alabama's 300 straight weeks tops the Crimson Tide's previous program-long streak of 105 consecutive weeks under head coach Gene Stallings in the mid-1990s.

ALABAMA IN THE AP SINCE 2008: Alabama began the 2008 season at No. 24 in the Associated Press Preseason Poll. The Crimson Tide opened the year with a dominant 34-10 win over then-No. 9 Clemson in Atlanta, and since that win over the Tigers, UA has not exited the 300 polls that have followed. According to the College Poll Archive, the Tide is the only team to be represented on all 300 editions of the poll from the start of the 2008 season to the current week. The next closest team is Ohio State with 285 appearances followed by Oklahoma at 264. Alabama has spent 91.0 percent of the 19 years ranked in the top 10. A whopping 74.7 percent of that time Alabama has been ranked in the top five. The Crimson Tide has also been ranked No. 1 a total of 110 times since 2008. Only 15 other teams have earned the No. 1 ranking over that time, with the second-most appearances coming from Georgia at 40, while Ohio State owns the third-most appearances at 29.

FRONT RUNNERS: Kalen DeBoer owns an impressive 52-3 (.945) record as an FBS head coach when his team is ahead at halftime. When leading after three quarters, DeBoer's teams hold an identical 52-3 (.945) mark. At Alabama, DeBoer has guided his teams to a 21-1 (.955) record when leading at halftime and a 22-1 (.957) record when taking a lead into the final frame. Below is a full breakdown of DeBoer's record as an FBS head coach when leading, trailing or tied at halftime and entering the fourth quarter.

Category	Alabama Record	FBS Record
Leading at Half	21-1	52-3
Trailing at Half	1-7	5-14
Tied at Half	2-0	4-0
Leading after 3Q	22-1	52-3
Trailing after 3Q	2-7	6-13
Tied after 3Q	0-0	3-1

CLUTCH KALEN: As an FBS head coach, Kalen DeBoer holds an impressive 21-8 (.724) mark in games decided by one score or less. In his first two seasons at Alabama, DeBoer owns a 6-4 record in such contests, including three wins against teams ranked in the top 15 of the Associated Press Poll. In 2025, the Crimson Tide was 3-1 in one-score games.

EARLY BIRD GETS THE WIN: Since 2007, Alabama has played in 33 regular season games that have kicked off at 11:30 a.m. CT or earlier and holds a perfect 33-0 record in those matchups. Including bowl games in that span, Alabama has played 35 such contests and holds a 34-1 record in those games. The Crimson Tide opened the season on Sept. 5 with a 48-10 victory over East Carolina that kicked off at 11:07 a.m. CT.

SEC NATION: When SEC Nation airs on Saturday, it will mark the 61st time since the show's inception in 2014 that the program has been hosted at a game featuring Alabama. The Crimson Tide's 61 appearances is the most in the conference, 12 more than the next-closest school (Georgia, 49). The Tide is 49-11 (.817) all-time in games with SEC Nation present. Saturday's game marks Alabama's second appearance this season – both coming in road contests – after SEC Nation was hosted at Kentucky before the Tide's 45-17 win over the Wildcats on Sept. 12.

DOUBLE-DIGIT WINS: Alabama's 11-win campaign in 2025 was the 28th time in program history that the Tide reached the 11-plus win plateau. The Crimson Tide has recorded 16 of its 11-win campaigns since 2008, including a streak of 13 straight seasons with at least 11 wins from 2011-23, which was the longest streak of its kind in SEC history. Additionally, Alabama has recorded at least 10 wins in 17 of the last 18 seasons. In the 17 10-plus win seasons, the Crimson Tide finished with a 12-2 record in 2008, 2014 and 2023; 14-0 in 2009; 10-3 in 2010; 12-1 in 2011; 13-1 in 2012 and 2017; 11-2 in 2013, 2019 and 2022; 14-1 in 2015, 2016 and 2018; 13-0 in 2020; and 11-4 in 2025.

ALWAYS IN THE HUNT: Since the 2008 season, Alabama has played in 212 of 218 regular season games that have had national championship implications. The final three games of the 2010 campaign and the final three weeks of the 2022 schedule marked the only six regular season contests without direct national championship implications over the last 19 seasons.

2026 TEAM CAPTAINS: The Crimson Tide's 2026 team captains were announced after practice on Sept. 4. Zabien Brown, Ryan Coleman-Williams and Bray Hubbard were each named permanent team captains for this season. The three captains were selected by their teammates.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

PILING UP THE POINTS: For just the third time in school history, Alabama has scored at least 45 points in each of its first four games this season. The feat was first achieved by the Crimson Tide in 1920 and then again in 2018. Alabama's 48.0 points per game through four games currently sits as the fourth-highest mark in the FBS and the third-best total in the SEC.

RED ZONE RUNDOWN: The Crimson Tide has scored on all 19 of its red zone trips through the first four games of the season. Alabama has scored 15 touchdowns, including 12 rushing and three passing, and has also added four field goals.

RUSHING ATTACK: Alabama has scored 13 of its 21 offensive touchdowns on the ground through the first four games of the season. Daniel Hill leads the way with four scores while Trae'shawn Brown, EJ Crowell and Keelon Russell have each crossed the goal line three times. In the first quarter of the season, the Crimson Tide found the end zone on the ground 11 times, the fifth time since 2009 an Alabama team has posted double-digit rushing touchdowns through three games.

TALE OF TWO YEARS: The Alabama rushing attack has shown significant improvement from last season to this season through four games. Below is a look at rushing statistics from 2025 and 2026 through the first third of the campaign.

Category	2026	2025
Rushing Yardage	753	488
Rushing Attempts	155	125
Yards Per Carry	4.9	3.9
Yards Per Game	188.3	122.0
Touchdowns Rushing	13	5

EXPLOSIVE OFFENSE: Through four games, Alabama has completed 25 plays of 20-plus yards, including a season-high eight against South Carolina on Sept. 26. Keelon Russell has made the offense go, currently ranking 12th nationally and third in the SEC with an average of 10.26 yards per pass attempt. In total, Russell has delivered 38 completions of over 10 yards. In the last two weeks, Russell has accounted for six touchdowns of over 20 yards, including five via the air and one on the ground.

GROUND GAME: Against Florida State on Sept. 19, Alabama rushed for 247 yards and three touchdowns, its best rushing performance against a power conference opponent since Nov. 9, 2024, at LSU (311 yards, 6 touchdowns). The Crimson Tide totaled 220 of its rushing yards in the second half of the contest, including 124 in the fourth quarter. The Tide was able to cement the win on a nine-play, 90-yard drive in the fourth quarter that included eight rushes for 80 yards and a touchdown from Trae'shawn Brown.

LIGHTNING STRUCK: Alabama's game against Florida State on Sept. 19 was delayed due to lightning on two different occasions – kickoff was delayed by an hour and 45 minutes and there was also a 34-minute suspension with 2:36 remaining in the second quarter. Trailing 21-6, the Crimson Tide scored a touchdown on the last play before the second delay and never looked back. Across the final 32:36 of the game, Alabama outscored Florida State, 44-15, including a pair of touchdowns in the second quarter after play resumed to lead 26-21 at halftime. In total, the Tide gained 388 of its 567 yards and scored points on all six completed possessions after the weather delay.

ALABAMA IN THE AP POLL

Alabama has been ranked in 912 of the 1,272 Associated Press college football polls since 1936, according to the AP Poll Archive. The Crimson Tide owns a 565-143-8 (.795) all-time record in games when ranked in the Associated Press college football poll. Alabama is also ranked in the AP Poll for the 300th consecutive week, topping its previous streak of 105 consecutive polls from 1991-97 under head coach Gene Stallings. The 300 consecutive weeks is the second-longest stretch by any program in the poll's history, trailing only Nebraska's all-time mark of 348 consecutive weeks. Alabama has started nine seasons at No. 1 (2022, 2021, 2018, 2017, 2016, 2013, 2010, 1978, 1966).

ALABAMA IN THE COACHES POLL

The Crimson Tide has enjoyed much success in the coaches' rankings over the past half century. The United Press International debuted the coaches poll in 1950 and ran the poll through the 1990 season. USA TODAY has administered the poll for the past 36 seasons (1991-present) with US LBM coming on the title sponsor of the poll at the start of the 2023 season. Alabama was ranked No. 1 in the 2010 preseason coaches poll after starting out the 2009 preseason poll at No. 5. Alabama remained in the top five the entire season, reaching No. 1 after defeating Florida in the SEC Championship and holding the position to claim the national championship after defeating Texas in Pasadena. The Tide then claimed the No. 1 spot to close out the 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2020 seasons. The Tide has compiled four UPI (1961, 1964, 1973 and 1979) and seven USA TODAY (1992, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2020) coaches poll national titles.

2026 Opponents in BOLD

EFFICIENT HALVES: Alabama has scored on every completed drive of a half twice this season. In the second half against Florida State on Sept. 19, the Crimson Tide scored three touchdowns and a field goal on its four completed possessions. In the season opener against East Carolina on Sept. 5, UA posted four touchdowns and a field goal. Under Kalen DeBoer, the Crimson Tide have scored on every possession in a half three times, including on Sept. 6, 2025, against ULM, a game in which Alabama scored on all 11 possessions.

CRIMSON COUNTDOWN: Alabama has won the time of possession battle in each of its first four games this season. Averaging 33:24 of possession per game, the Crimson Tide ranks 14th in the country and third in the SEC in that category.

BALL PROTECTION: In the last 251 games (dating back to the start of the 2008 season), Alabama has turned the ball over only 269 times (143 fumbles, 126 interceptions) for an average of 1.07 turnovers per game. Since 2009, the Tide has turned the ball over only 251 times in 239 games (1.05/game). The 251 turnovers since 2009 includes 106 interceptions in 6,442 attempts (one interception every 60.8 attempts) by UA starting quarterbacks and 33 lost fumbles in 5,987 carries (one fumble lost every 181.4 carries) by the Tide's top two running backs.

SCORING STREAK CONTINUES: Alabama extended its school record for consecutive games with a score to 342 thanks to a 75-yard touchdown pass from Keelon Russell to Lotzeir Brooks in the first quarter against South Carolina on Sept. 26. The Tide was last held off the scoreboard in a 9-0 loss to Auburn on Nov. 18, 2000. Alabama owns a 274-68 (.801) record over the course of the current streak.

OPENING DRIVE TOUCHDOWNS: The Crimson Tide has won 63 of its last 65 games when scoring a touchdown on the first offensive possession of the game. The most recent instance came on Nov. 22 of last season when Jam Miller rushed into the end zone for a one-yard score against Eastern Illinois. Alabama's only two losses during the current stretch occurred at Florida State on Aug. 30 to open the 2025 season and at Texas A&M on Oct. 9, 2021.

400+ YARDS OF TOTAL OFFENSE: Alabama has gained 400-plus yards of total offense in 81 of its last 114 games, dating back to the start of the 2018 season. After only going over 400 yards five times in 2025, the Tide has eclipsed that mark in three of its first four games, including 487 against East Carolina on Sept. 5, 567 vs. Florida State on Sept. 19 and 489 vs. South Carolina on Sept. 26. In the 33 instances where the offense did not go over 400 yards, the Tide is 23-10 overall.

500+ YARDS OF OFFENSE: Alabama has eclipsed 500 yards of offense in 63 games since the start of the 2015 season. The Tide gained 567 yards against Florida State on Sept. 19, its first game of over 500 yards in 2026. Under head coach Kalen DeBoer, the Tide has recorded six 500-plus yard performances in two-plus seasons, including three during the 2024 campaign and two during the 2025 season. The 2018 roster owns the Alabama single-season record with 12 games of 500-plus yards.

600+ YARDS OF OFFENSE: Alabama totaled 600 yards of offense in the 63-0 win over Western Kentucky to open the 2024 campaign. The 600-plus yard performance marked the 15th instance in program history that the Tide has been at or above 600 yards.

MOST PPG SINCE 2018: Alabama has produced an average of 40.09 points per game in 115 games since 2018, the highest scoring average among all Division I teams in that span. Ohio State owns the second-highest points per game mark over that time, managing a 40.02 points per game average.

Most Points Per Game (since 2018)

Team	Total Points/Total Games	PPG
2. Ohio State	4,362/109	40.02
3. SMU	3,860/105	36.8
4. Oklahoma	3,958/108	36.6
5. Oregon	3,962/109	36.3

MOST TOUCHDOWNS SINCE 2015: Alabama has produced 796 total touchdowns since the start of the 2015 season, the most by any team in the country. Ohio State is the next closest team in that span with 775.

Team	Touchdowns
2. Ohio State	775
3. Oklahoma	731
4. Clemson	715

LIGHTING IT UP: Across his first four starts, Keelon Russell has combined for at least 300 yards of offense in three games. Averaging 324.3 yards of total offense per game, Russell ranks seventh in the FBS and third in the SEC. The first-year quarterback has been efficient as a passer, holding a 70.9 completion percentage and a 177.5 passing efficiency rating – both marks that rank inside the top 20 nationally.

PRESIDENTIAL PERFORMANCES: Keelon Russell has put together his most complete performances to date in the past two weeks, accounting for a combined 776 all-purpose yards and nine touchdowns. Against Florida State on Sept. 19, Russell threw for 320 yards and three touchdowns on 23-of-30 passing while also adding 56 yards and a touchdown on the ground. Last week against South Carolina, the signal-caller amassed 365 yards and four touchdowns on 21-of-27 passing while also posting 35 yards and a score on the ground. Russell is the first Alabama quarterback since Tua Tagovailoa in 2018 with at least 300 yards passing, three passing touchdowns and one rushing touchdown in back-to-back games.

STRONG START: Keelon Russell made his debut as Alabama's starting quarterback on Sept. 5, going 18-of-30 for 256 yards on the day. Russell added 86 rushing yards, accounting for 342 yards of total offense against the Pirates, the second-highest tally for an Alabama quarterback making his starting debut behind only Bryce Young (343). In the first half alone, Russell tallied 182 passing yards and 54 rushing yards, the most total yards of offense (236) in a single half for an Alabama quarterback making his starting debut.

YOUNG ONE: When Keelon Russell made his first career start on Sept. 5, he became Alabama's youngest opening day starter in nearly a decade. At 19 years, four months and 13 days, Russell became the Crimson Tide's first teenage QB1 since Jalen Hurts in 2016 (18 years, one month and four days).

FIRST YEAR STARTING QBs AT ALABAMA: With Keelon Russell winning the job in fall camp, the Crimson Tide features a first year starting quarterback for the second season in a row. A total of 10 quarterbacks have maintained their starting role for 10-plus games of a season in which they were named QB1 for the first time. Dating back to 2009, the list of 10 includes: Ty Simpson (2025), Jalen Milroe (2023), Bryce Young (2021), Mac Jones (2020), Tua Tagovailoa (2018), Jalen Hurts (2016), Jake Coker (2015), Blake Sims (2014), AJ McCarron (2011) and Greg McElroy (2009). All but McCarron and Simpson won an SEC Championship in their first season at quarterback. All 10 guided Alabama to the BCS National Championship Game or College Football Playoff while McElroy (2009), McCarron (2011), Coker (2015) and Jones (2020) led their teams to a national title.

RIDING WITH RUSSELL: Keelon Russell was named the starting quarterback by head coach Kalen DeBoer on Aug. 22, replacing 2025 starter Ty Simpson, who was drafted in the first round (13th overall) by the Los Angeles Rams in the 2025 NFL Draft. As a true freshman in 2025, Russell played in two games as a backup and completed 11-of-15 passes for 143 yards and two touchdowns while adding three rushes for 17 total yards. A unanimous five-star recruit and No. 2 overall recruit by 247Sports out of high school, Russell was named the Maxwell High School Player of the Year, as well as the Texas and national Gatorade Player of the Year in 2024.

FRESHMAN FIRSTS: Trae'shawn Brown and EJ Crowell are the first freshmen in Alabama history to score a rushing touchdown in each of the first three games of their collegiate careers. Crowell's score against East Carolina on Sept. 5 was the first touchdown of the season for the Crimson Tide, making him the first freshman to post Alabama's opening touchdown of the year since Terry Grant in 2007.

ROUND THREE FOR RYAN: Ryan Coleman-Williams is averaging 99.75 all-purpose yards through four games this season, including the fourth 100-yard receiving game of his career against ECU on Sept. 5 (130). Coleman-Williams posted the third multi-touchdown game of his career on Sept. 26 against South Carolina, bringing a pair of 30-plus yard receptions to the house. The lone returning offensive starter for the Crimson Tide from 2025, Coleman-Williams has totaled 114 catches for 1,887 yards and 15 touchdowns, averaging 16.6 yards per catch and 60.9 yards per game, in 31 career contests. The junior currently ranks 10th in Alabama history in both career receiving yards and career receiving touchdowns.

NEW JERSEY, SAME PLAYER: Ryan Coleman-Williams' jersey has a different look this season. After being known as Ryan Williams and wearing No. 2 during his first two seasons in Tuscaloosa, the star wideout honored his mother, Tiffany Coleman, by switching his last name to Coleman-Williams. The junior is also wearing No. 1 this season, the number he donned as a prep player at Saraland High School.

100-YARD RECEIVERS: Through four games this season, Alabama has had two receivers go for at least 100 yards in a game, matching last season's total across 15 games. Ryan Coleman-Williams posted 130 yards on five catches in the season opener against East Carolina on Sept. 5 and Lotzeir Brooks hauled in 101 yards on eight receptions against Florida State on Sept. 19. Coleman-Williams nearly had a second 100-yard game of the year, going for 98 against South Carolina on Sept. 26.

BROOKS BROKE OUT: Lotzeir Brooks put together a career game against Florida State on Sept. 19, hauling in eight receptions for 101 yards, the first 100-yard receiving game of his career. Brooks quickly became a weapon for the Crimson Tide during his freshman season in 2025. The Millville, N.J., native saw time in 14 games last season, including one start, recording 32 catches for 441 yards and two touchdowns.

DOWNHILL: Daniel Hill eclipsed the century mark for the first time in his career during Alabama's 45-17 win at Kentucky on Sept. 12, rushing for a career-high 104 yards on 18 carries while also scoring one touchdown. Hill averaged 5.8 yards per carry in the game and broke away for three runs of 10-plus yards, including a career-long 31-yard rush. A physical back, 85 of Hill's 104 rushing yards in the contest came after contact. Hill became the first Alabama player to rush for over 100 yards since Jam Miller (136) against Vanderbilt on Oct. 4, 2025.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

SECOND HALF STRENGTH: The Alabama defense is allowing just 6.5 points per game in the second half this season, helping the Crimson Tide outscore its opponents 80-26 after halftime through the first four games. The Tide put together a dominant second-half performance at Kentucky on Sept. 12, shutting out the Wildcats across the final two quarters. The Crimson Tide held UK to just 62 yards of offense and three first downs after halftime to help flip a 17-13 deficit into a 45-17 victory. The dominant showing was the fifth time a Kane Wommack defense has held an SEC opponent to zero points in a half.

GIMME THAT: Alabama has forced nine turnovers (six interceptions, three fumbles) through its first four games this season to lead SEC and rank seventh in the country. The Crimson Tide forced three turnovers at Kentucky on Sept. 12 and against Florida State on Sept. 19, the first time Alabama has gained three takeaways in back-to-back contests since 2024. The nine turnovers through three games are the most for the Tide since 2019 (10). Alabama's +1.25 turnover margin is the best mark in the SEC and slots in at No. 13 in the FBS.

JUMP STARTERS: In addition to its nine takeaways, the Tide has also been able to force five turnovers on downs this season. From those 14 ensuing possessions, Alabama has scored 11 times and gone into victory formation from the other three. The Crimson Tide has converted its nine turnovers into 45 points this season and has also produced 25 points from its five turnovers on downs.

NO FLY ZONE: Alabama has intercepted six passes this season, including at least one in each of its first four games. The six interceptions leads the SEC and ranks fifth nationally. It is also the most interceptions through four games for a Crimson Tide defense since 2018 (7). Against Florida State on Sept. 19, the Tide picked off three passes, its most in a game since Oct. 26, 2024, against Missouri (3). Five different Tide defenders have picked off a pass this season, led by Red Morgan with two.

TURNOVERS, TURNOVERS, TURNOVERS: Alabama has forced at least one turnover in 138 of the last 158 contests (dating back to the start of the 2015 season). During the current run, Alabama has forced 252 turnovers (160 interceptions, 92 fumbles) and returned 49 of those miscues for touchdowns.

OWNING THE LINE: Alabama held each of its first three opponents this season to under 100 yards rushing (East Carolina, -2; Kentucky, 63; Florida State, 94), a first for the Tide since 2022. The Crimson Tide is currently allowing 93.8 rushing yards per game, ranking 24th in the country and third in the SEC.

TOUGH SLEDDING: The Alabama defense has been a force on third down this season, holding its opponents to a 23.1 conversion rate to lead the SEC and rank fourth nationally. The Tide has limited its opponents to three or fewer third-down conversions in three games this season. In its season opener on Sept. 5, the Crimson Tide held ECU to 0-for-9 on third-down conversions in the game, the first time the Crimson Tide defense has shut out a team on third down since 2017 against Ole Miss. In league play, Alabama held Kentucky to a 1-for-14 clip on Sept. 12 and forced South Carolina to just three conversions on 14 tries on Sept. 26.

RETURN TO SENDER: Alabama returned an interception for a touchdown on three occasions through four games, a feat the Tide had not achieved since 2018, matching the Tide's total from a season ago. The Crimson Tide currently lead the country in defensive touchdowns, with all three coming via the pick-six.

YOU SHALL NOT PASS: The Tide returned five players with significant experience, including three starters, to one of the most experienced secondaries in the country. Last season, Alabama allowed an average of just 169.9 passing yards per game to finish atop the SEC and rank ninth in Division I. Returning from this group is All-America honoree Bray Hubbard, two-year starter Keon Sabb, the cornerback duo of Zabien Brown and Freshman All-American Dijon Lee Jr. and the versatile Red Morgan. The Crimson Tide's '25 unit was the first to lead the SEC for fewest passing yards allowed since the 2012 team. The UA defense in 2012 gave up an average of 173.6 yards per game to finish seventh nationally.

SHUTOUTS SINCE 2007: Since 2007, Alabama has recorded 30 shutouts, including 13 in Southeastern Conference play. The Crimson Tide most recently kept Eastern Illinois off the scoreboard in its 56-0 win on Nov. 22, 2025. Earlier in the 2025 season, the Tide shut out ULM in a 73-0 win on Sept. 6. The win over the Warhawks was the largest margin of victory in a shutout in program history, surpassing the previous best of 66-0 against Cal on Sept. 15, 1973. The Crimson Tide defense has 13 more shutouts than its nearest competitor, with Ohio State's 17 shutouts the next-closest total in that span.

MAKING IT TOUGH: The Alabama defense allowed only 162 yards in the season-opening win over East Carolina on Sept. 5, the 63rd time since the start of the 2008 season that the Crimson Tide has held an opponent to under 200 yards. In 2025, the Crimson Tide allowed just 296.8 total yards per game. The 296.8 yards per game finished as the third-best mark in the conference and the 13th-best figure in the country.

POINTS AT A PREMIUM: The Alabama defense held East Carolina to just 10 points in the season opener on Sept. 5. It was the 114th time since 2007 that the Tide defense has surrendered 10 points or fewer in a game. In 2025, the unit allowed a scoring average of just 19.2 points per game, the fourth-lowest mark in the SEC and the 20th-best average in Division I.

HARD TO FIND THE END ZONE AGAINST THE TIDE: Since the start of the 2009 season, no team has allowed fewer touchdowns than the Crimson Tide. Alabama has surrendered only 438 touchdowns over the last 240 games. That is 31 fewer than second-place Iowa (469).

Fewest TDs Allowed (since 2009)

Team	Touchdowns
1. ALABAMA	438
2. Iowa	469
3. Ohio State	498
4. Wisconsin	503
5. Penn State	508

TOUGH SLEDDING ON THE GROUND: Alabama's defense has been a force in the run game since 2007. More recently, the Tide has given up just 126 rushing scores in the last 158 games (dating to the start of the 2015 season). Since 2007, UA has allowed the fewest rushing touchdowns in the nation at 182, a total that is 14 fewer than second-place Iowa (195).

Fewest Rushing Touchdowns Allowed (FBS teams since 2007)

2. Iowa	195
3. Ohio State	224
4. Wisconsin	245
4. Utah	245

RUSHING DEFENSE: Alabama has surrendered only 45 individual 100-yard rushing performances dating back to the 2005 season, a mark that is the fewest in the nation.

Fewest 100-Yard Rushing Games Allowed (FBS teams since 2005)

1. ALABAMA	45
2. Ohio State	51
3. Georgia	52
4. Utah	57
5. Wisconsin	68

NOT METZ-ING AROUND: Sophomore Luke Metz has been stellar in each of his first two SEC starts, totaling 21 tackles and a pair of turnovers. Wearing the green dot for the Tide, Metz delivered 13 tackles – a career-high – and added a fumble recovery against South Carolina on Sept. 26. At Kentucky on Sept. 12, Metz returned an interception for a touchdown in the first quarter, the first takeaway and score of his career, while adding eight tackles. Metz' performance in Lexington helped him earn SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Week, pairing with his teammate Caleb Woodson for the honors.

INTO THE WOODS: Caleb Woodson wasted no time adjusting to SEC play after transferring in from Virginia Tech, totaling a career-high 12 tackles in each of his first two league games. In addition to his 12 stops against Kentucky on Sept. 12, Woodson added two sacks (-13 yards) for a new career-high total. Prior to the game in Lexington, Woodson had only recorded two sacks in his entire career. The standout day earned Woodson recognition as SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Week, splitting the honors with Luke Metz.

GAME CHANGER: Devan Thompson got his first taste of SEC play in Alabama's 45-17 victory over Kentucky on Sept. 12., totaling six tackles, including two for loss (-12 yards) and two sacks. The USC transfer also added a forced fumble on one of his two sacks, setting up the Tide with a short field for the eventual go-ahead touchdown. His strip sack propelled Alabama to 26 unanswered points to close out the game. For his efforts, Thompson was named SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week.

BIG PLAY YHONZAE: Yhonzae Pierre opened his season with a statement against East Carolina, returning an interception for a touchdown on Sept. 5. Pierre also totaled three tackles, including one for loss, and one sack in the contest, helping him earn the highest Pro Football Focus grade among edge rushers in Week 1 at 95.4. Pierre enjoyed a breakout season in 2025, totaling 52 tackles while leading all Alabama defenders with 14.5 tackles for loss (-102 yards), eight sacks (-81 yards) and nine quarterback pressures.

NEW LOOK LINE, NO PROBLEM: After returning zero starters on the defensive line from a year ago, Alabama's new-look defensive line group has made a statement in the early stages of the season. Newcomers Kedrick Bingley-Jones, Terrance Green, Devan Thompson and Desmond Umeozulu have led the Crimson Tide at the line of scrimmage. Against East Carolina on Sept. 5, the quartet helped the Tide hold the Pirates to just two yards rushing. That total was the fewest that Alabama has surrendered in a game since holding Mississippi State to -2 rushing yards in 2021.

THIS IS THE BRAY: Bray Hubbard has been a key to the success of the Alabama secondary for multiple seasons, helping him garner multiple preseason All-America nods in 2026. This year, Hubbard already has one interception to go with 13 tackles, including 0.5 for loss (-1 yard). In 2025, Hubbard totaled 79 tackles, including 4.5 tackles for loss (-23 yards) and two sacks (-20 yards). He added a team-leading four interceptions for 42 yards to go with a team-high tying six pass breakups, three forced fumbles and one quarterback hurry.

BROWN ON LOCKDOWN: Zabien Brown has developed into one of the nation's most dependable cornerbacks in the nation. After totaling a team-high six pass breakups in 2025, Brown has already tallied four this season to lead the Crimson Tide. The cornerback gained notoriety after recording a pair of crucial pick-sixes last season, including a 99-yard interception return for a score against then-No. 11/11 Tennessee on Oct. 18 and a 50-yard pick-six at then-No. 8/8 Oklahoma on Dec. 19 in the College Football Playoff First Round game. Brown became just the 12th player in program history to return at least two interceptions for a touchdown in the same season and was the first Tide defender since Jordan Battle in 2021 to accomplish the feat.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

SPLIT SPECIALISTS: For the second time under Kalen DeBoer, the Crimson Tide kicking duties are being split amongst two players. Conor Talty is kicking field goals and extra points while Lorcan Quinn is handling kickoffs. In 2024, Talty was on kickoff duty and Graham Nicholson was in charge of field goals and extra points. The Tide are also splitting long snapping responsibilities, with Alex Rozier in charge of field goals and Ethan Stangle on the ball for punts.

TALTY TIME: Conor Talty has converted on all of his kicks through the first four games of the season. Talty is a perfect 8-of-8 on field goal attempts, including four from over 40 yards, and has connected on all 22 of his PAT tries. He is currently averaging 11.5 points per game, ranking second in the SEC and eighth in the country. The senior's 2.00 field goals per game is also the best mark in the league and sixth-best in the nation. Dating back to last season, Talty has converted his last 46 kicks, including each of his last 13 field goals attempts. The Chicago native was recognized as the SEC Special Teams Player of the Week for his career-high 14-point performance against FSU on Sept. 19.

PUNTING PROWESS: Despite only seeing the field five times during the first three games, the Alabama punt team has been performing at a high level. Returning from an injury last season, Alex Asparuhov has booted three punts over 50 yards and three kicks inside the 20, holding a net average of 44.60 yards per punt to rank 11th in the FBS and third in the SEC.

SERIES NOTES

THE ALABAMA-MISSISSIPPI STATE SERIES: Alabama and Mississippi State will meet for the 109th time on Saturday with the Crimson Tide holding an 88-17-3 lead in the all-time series. UA and MSU played in every season from 1948-2023 and are set to renew the series after a two-year hiatus. Alabama has more wins over Mississippi State (88) than any other opponent and the 108 meetings in the series is tied for the most in program history (Tennessee). The Tide and Bulldogs first met in 1896 with the Crimson Tide posting a 20-0 win in Tuscaloosa. From 1958-79, Alabama reeled off a series-long 22-game winning streak against MSU. State ended that streak by upsetting top-ranked Alabama, 6-3, on Nov. 1, 1980, at Mississippi Memorial Stadium in Jackson. That 6-3 win also snapped Alabama's school and SEC-record 28-game winning streak. The Tide then won the next 15 games in the series from 1981-95 before MSU ended the streak with a 17-16 win on Nov. 16, 1996, at Scott Field. The one-point win was State's first on-campus win over the Tide and first in the state of Mississippi since 1980. Heading into this weekend's matchup, Alabama is riding a 16-game winning streak in the series and has won by an average of 33.4-7.8 ppg (535-124) over that stretch.

ALABAMA-MISSISSIPPI STATE AT VARIOUS SITES: The Alabama-Mississippi State series has been played in eight different cities since the initial meeting on the Quad in Tuscaloosa in 1896. Tuscaloosa has hosted the most games in the series (56), with Alabama posting a 47-8-1 (46-9-1 NCAA) record on its campus. UA is also 6-2-1 all-time in Birmingham and 1-0 in Montgomery. The Tide and the Bulldogs have also met 26 times in Starkville, where UA is 22-4 (21-4 NCAA). Four other Mississippi cities have played host to this rivalry, including Jackson (9-1), Meridian (2-0), Columbus (1-1-1) and Aberdeen (0-1).

STATE IS TIDE'S MOST REGULARLY PLAYED FOE: Entering this weekend's matchup in Starkville, Alabama has played 108 games against Mississippi State - tied for the most against any one opponent in program history. Additionally, the Tide's series with the Bulldogs is the fifth-oldest in UA records as the two teams first met in 1896.

GENERAL NOTES

INGRAM TO THE HALL: Former Alabama running back Mark Ingram was selected to the 2026 National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame Class of 2026. Ingram became the 28th former Crimson Tide player or coach to be enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame and is the third Alabama inductee since 2024, joining Antonio Langham (2024) and Nick Saban (2025). The formal induction ceremony will take place on Tuesday, Dec. 8, 2026 and the running back was honored in Tuscaloosa during Alabama's game against South Carolina on Sept. 26. Ingram played in 39 career games at Alabama, helping lead the Crimson Tide to a win in the 2010 BCS National Championship. He received the Heisman Trophy that same season in 2009, becoming the first player in program history to earn college football's most prestigious award. During that Heisman campaign, Ingram produced 1,658 rushing yards and 17 rushing scores.

ALABAMA DEGREES: Alabama has seen significant success on the field as of late and that success has coincided with the Tide's efforts in the classroom. The 2026 squad is no exception as the Crimson Tide entered the season with 15 student-athletes who already have their degree in-hand. The list of student-athletes wearing an SEC Graduate patch includes: Kedrick Bingley-Jones, MJ Chirgwin, Peyton Fox, Edric Hill, Fatutoa Henry, Bray Hubbard, Jah-Marien Latham, Danny Lewis Jr., Austin Mack, Yhonzae Pierre, Casey Poe, Keon Sabb, Ethan Stangle, Conor Talty and Devan Thompkins.

CHAMPIONS IN THE CLASSROOM: Alabama's achievements in the classroom have been most impressive during national title seasons. Those six squads (2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2020) included 139 student-athletes who had earned their degrees prior to game time.

TIDE THRIVES IN GSR: The University of Alabama matched its all-time high in overall Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 96 percent, a record that was set in 2024, in the most recent numbers that were released by the NCAA on Nov. 19, 2025. Alabama tied for tops among all Southeastern Conference schools and ranked seventh-best among NCAA Power Five public institutions. A total of 15 Crimson Tide athletics programs scored 90-or-better, with 10 earning perfect 100s. A collection of 11 teams led the SEC in their respective sport in the 2024-25 GSR figures, including 10 teams that scored 100. Football's score of 98 finished as not only the best in the SEC and fifth overall nationally but also as the highest GSR in program history. Only Long Island, Harvard, Northwestern and Wake Forest scored higher in football. The GSR measures graduation rates at Division I institutions. GSR is believed to be a more accurate measure of academic performance in athletics departments as it holds schools responsible for student-athletes transferring into the institutions and allows them to subtract student-athletes who leave their institutions prior to graduation but are otherwise academically eligible to compete. The average GSR for all NCAA Division I student-athletes is 90.

APR SUCCESS: According to the most recent Academic Progress Rate (APR) numbers that were announced by the NCAA in May of 2026, figures that cover the four-year period extending from the 2021-22 through 2024-25 school years, the Crimson Tide continued to score well above the national cutoff standard. The Crimson Tide boasted seven teams that led their respective sport in the SEC in APR numbers with eight UA squads setting or tying all-time program-high marks for the four-year average. Altogether, it adds up to an average APR score of 993 across the university's 21 sports. In fact, this year's report marks the fourth consecutive year Alabama's overall average score rated over a 992. The Crimson Tide football team led the nation with a perfect score of 1,000, a program best. In total, six Alabama teams totaled a perfect multiyear mark while 12 teams met the standard in a single year.

HUBBARD'S HELPFUL HAND: A staple in the community, Bray Hubbard has been nominated for the Jason Witten Collegiate Man of the Year and Allstate AFCA Good Works Team while also being selected to the Wuerrfel Trophy Watch List. Hubbard is one of the top contributors to the Crimson Tide's service efforts. A regular visitor to local elementary schools in the community, Hubbard has participated in the Read Across America initiative with Tuscaloosa County Schools. The senior is also a regular speaker at the Tuscaloosa Juvenile Detention Center and has taken part in Night to Shine, an unforgettable worldwide event centered on God's love, honoring and valuing people with special needs put on by the Tim Tebow Foundation. Hubbard has also committed time to CrossingPoints, a campus organization that provides services to students with disabilities ages 18-21, as well as the West Alabama Food Bank. Hubbard is also an annual participant in Alabama Athletics' 'Halloween Extravaganza', a trick-or-treat event with all UA sports teams held inside the Hank Crisp Indoor Facility to provide a safe, family-friendly environment for local children ahead of the holiday.

ALABAMA-U.S. NAVY PARTNERSHIP: The University of Alabama announced on Sept. 3, 2025, a significant partnership with the U.S. Navy's Maritime Industrial Base (MIB) Program to expand workforce development opportunities across Alabama and strengthen America's shipbuilding industrial base. As part of the Build Giants initiative, the program's logo was featured on Saban Field at Bryant-Denny Stadium during all home football games as well as in-venue messaging featuring former Alabama head football coach Nick Saban on the importance of the Build Giants Alabama initiative. The visibility highlighted a larger effort to connect Alabama's statewide talent with a critical workforce development program for the state and the country.

237 NATIONAL TV APPEARANCES IN 251 GAMES: The Crimson Tide's matchup against South Carolina on Sept. 26 was Alabama's 237th nationally televised or streamed game since the start of the 2008 season, including every contest since the start of 2014.

ALABAMA vs. No. 1: Alabama owns the NCAA record for the most wins all-time against the Associated Press Poll's No. 1 team since the poll was introduced in 1936. The Crimson Tide has compiled 11 wins against the AP's top-ranked team in program history, most recently against then-No. 1 Georgia in the 2023 Southeastern Conference Championship Game.

Most Wins All-Time vs. AP No. 1 (since 1936)

2. Miami (Fla.) Notre Dame	9
4. Oklahoma Purdue USC	7
7. Ohio State Texas	6
9. Auburn	5
10. Arkansas Penn State UCLA Wisconsin	4

AGAINST THE TOP 10: Alabama owns an 88-82-1 (.518) all-time record against teams ranked in the top-10 of the Associated Press Poll, including the Tide's 24-21 win at then-No. 5 Georgia on Sept. 27 and a 34-24 victory at then-No. 8 Oklahoma on Dec. 19 last season. Since the start of the 2008 season, the Crimson Tide has posted a 39-16 (.709) overall record against top-10 teams, including a 24-10 (.706) mark versus the top 10 since the inception of the College Football Playoff.

DEBOER'S DOMINANCE: No coach has fared better at multiple schools against teams in the final Associated Press Poll than Kalen DeBoer. In his six seasons as a head coach at Alabama, Washington and Fresno State, DeBoer is 14-7. He's 6-4 at Alabama and was previously 7-2 at Washington and 1-1 at Fresno State.

KDB AT BDS: During his two-plus seasons at Alabama, Kalen DeBoer has posted a 16-1 (.941) record inside Saban Field at Bryant-Denny Stadium. DeBoer is a perfect 8-0 in home games against non-conference opponents.

UNFAZED vs. THE UNRANKED AT HOME: With a 49-18 victory over South Carolina on Sept. 26, Alabama has won 91 consecutive games against unranked opponents at home. The Crimson Tide's last loss to an unranked foe inside Saban Field at Bryant-Denny Stadium came on Nov. 17, 2007, in a 21-14 loss to ULM.

TOUGH TO GET THE TIDE TWICE: Since 2007, Alabama has suffered 37 total losses. Of those 37 losses, the Crimson Tide have had the opportunity to face the team that beat them at a later date on 31 occasions. In the prior 31 rematches, Alabama owns a 27-4 (.871) mark. The only four teams to beat the Tide on back-to-back occasions since 2007 are LSU (2010-11), Ole Miss (2014-15), Michigan (2023-24) and Oklahoma (2024-25). The Crimson Tide has not yet had the opportunity to bounce back from losses against Utah (2009), Clemson (2018), Texas (2023), Michigan (2024), Georgia (2025) and Indiana (2025). This season, the Tide avenged its 2025 loss to Florida State with a 50-36 win on Sept. 19 and the Tide is also set to square off with the Bulldogs later this season.

A TV WINDOW MADE FOR THE TIDE: Since 2008, Alabama has played over one-third of its regular season games (79-of-219) in the 2:30 p.m. CT television window, with 75 of those 79 games having been televised on either ABC or CBS. In those 78 contests, Alabama holds a 67-12 (.848) record.

BAMA IN THE NFL

LEADING THE WAY TO THE NFL: Following of the 2026 NFL Draft, Alabama has had more draft picks over the last 18 drafts (150) than any other program in the nation. The list of 150 features 20 Super Bowl champions, 48 Pro Bowl selections and 22 First Team All-Pro members along with one Defensive Player of the Year, one Offensive and one Defensive Rookie of the Year.

2026 NFL DRAFT: The Crimson Tide saw 10 former players selected in the 2026 NFL Draft, including two first-rounders in offensive lineman Kadyn Proctor (No. 12, Miami Dolphins) and quarterback Ty Simpson (No. 13, Los Angeles Rams). The second round featured wide receiver Germie Bernard. The Crimson Tide then saw seven players drafted on day three. Defensive lineman LT Overton was taken by the Dallas Cowboys in the fourth round, while offensive lineman Parker Brailsford (Cleveland Browns), linebacker Justin Jefferson (Browns) and tight end Josh Cuevas (Baltimore Ravens) were taken in the fifth round. The sixth round saw defensive back Domani Jackson selected by the Green Bay Packers and the draft concluded with defensive lineman Tim Keenan III (Los Angeles Rams) and running back Jam Miller (New England Patriots) hearing their names called.

QUICK HITS ON ALABAMA'S NFL DRAFT SUCCESS: Below is a look at some of Alabama's recent success in the NFL Draft.

- Over the last 18 NFL Drafts, Alabama has produced 150 total picks which is more than any other program in the nation. Of those 150, an impressive 51 (34 percent) have been first-rounders.
- Since 2000, the Crimson Tide has produced an NCAA-leading 53 first-rounders, a number that is seven better than the next closest school Ohio State (46).
- Since 2010, Alabama has had an NCAA-best 50 players selected in the first round, 17 more than the second-place Buckeyes.
- Alabama has produced multiple first round picks in 15 of the last 18 NFL Drafts with single first-round selections in 2009, 2015 and 2016.
- With the selection of Kadyn Proctor and Ty Simpson in the 2026 NFL Draft, Alabama has had at least one player taken in the first round of 18 straight drafts (2009-present) to set the new NCAA record. The Crimson Tide passed Miami (1995-2008), who owned the old mark of 14 consecutive first-rounders.
- Since 2020, Alabama has produced four first-round quarterbacks - the most of any program in the country. The list includes: Tua Tagovailoa (2020), Mac Jones (2021), Bryce Young (2023) and Simpson (2026).
- Since 2006, Alabama has had nine former starting quarterbacks drafted, two more than the next-closest schools in Ohio State, Oregon and USC who are all tied at seven. The list of nine includes: Brodie Croyle (2006), Greg McElroy (2011), AJ McCarron (2014), Tagovailoa (2020), Jalen Hurts (2020), Jones (2021), Young (2023), Jalen Milroe (2025) and Simpson (2026).
- With the selection of Proctor, the Crimson Tide has had at least one offensive lineman taken in the first round of seven of the last eight NFL Drafts.

CRIMSON TIDE IN THE NFL: Alabama entered Week 4 of the NFL season with 72 players on rosters (including reserve/practice squad) and is represented on 29 of the league's 32 teams. The Crimson Tide had 72 total players on teams in Week 1 of the 2026-27 season, including 58 listed on active, 53-man rosters, the most of any school in the country. The next closest school for active players was Ohio State with 56 followed by Georgia at 54, LSU at 44 and Texas at 42 to round out the top five. Below is a look at where former Crimson Tide standouts are currently playing:

LEADERS IN THE LEAGUE: Alabama had 10 former players selected as permanent team captains for their respective squads during the 2026-27 season. The 10 total alumni are more than any other college in the country. The Crimson Tide's list of captains includes: Will Anderson Jr. (Texans), Minkah Fitzpatrick (Jets), Derrick Henry (Ravens), Jalen Hurts (Eagles), Xavier McKinney (Packers), DeVonta Smith (Eagles), Pat Surtain II (Broncos), Quinnen Williams (Cowboys), Mack Wilson Sr. (Cardinals) and Bryce Young (Panthers). A total of 28 teams name permanent captains for the season while four teams select captains on a game-by-game basis. The Tide is represented on each of the four teams who select weekly captains including the Browns, Giants, Seahawks and Steelers.

NO FLY ZONE: Former Alabama defensive backs tallied 17 interceptions during the 2025-26 NFL season, the most of any school in the country. It marked the sixth straight season in which the Alabama contingent of pro defensive backs led the league in picks, including the fifth straight season leading outright. The Crimson Tide's NFL contingent started off the season with a pick on opening night of the new season as cornerback Josh Jobe intercepted Drake Maye to seal the victory for the Seattle Seahawks.

70+ IN A SEASON: A total of 72 former Crimson Tide players appeared in a game and recorded at least one snap through all 18 weeks of the 2025-26 regular season, marking the fourth consecutive season at or above 70 players. In 2024, the Crimson Tide's 75 former players to see action topped the previous NFL record of 71, which was set by UA during the 2023-24 campaign. Prior to that, the Tide became the only program to have 70 former players see game action in any regular season in league history during 2022-23 season. The number of former Alabama players to play in an NFL regular-season contest increased each year for nine consecutive seasons from 2016-2024 starting with 38 in 2016. The 2017 season saw 44 former players earn game action, breaking Alabama's previous record of 40 in 1987, and was followed by 52 in 2018. The total moved to 62 in 2019, followed by 64 in 2020, 68 in 2021, 70 in 2022, 71 in 2023, and 75 in 2024.

POSTSEASON TIDE: Alabama was well-represented in the 2025-26 NFL Playoffs with a league-high 33 former players spotting 10 of the 14 rosters. The Tide's postseason players were as follows: seven on the Eagles (Campbell, Dickerson, Hurts, Latu, D. Smith, Steen, By. Young); five on the Chargers (Bozeman, Eboigbe, Hand, N. Harris, Scott); four on the Seahawks (Jobe, Milroe, Ouzts, Reed); three apiece on the Packers (Diggs, Jacobs, McKinney), Panthers (Ray, A. Robinson, Br. Young), Patriots (Barmore, Dippre, Jennings) and Texans (Anderson Jr., C. Harris, To'oTo'o); two apiece on the Broncos (Q. Robinson, Surtain II) and 49ers (M. Jones, Robinson Jr.); and one on the Bills (Mathis).

ALL-PRO PRODUCTION: Alabama had four total players selected to the Associated Press' 2025 All-Pro Team, including two first-teamers and a pair of second-team selections. On the first team were edge rusher Will Anderson Jr. and placekicker Will Reichard. The second-team honorees consisted of cornerback Patrick Surtain II and safety Xavier McKinney.

ALL-PRO BAMA FOR A DECADE: The Crimson Tide has produced a total of 32 NFL All-Pro selections over the last 10 seasons ranging from 2016-25. Alabama's 32 combined honors are nine better than any other collegiate program. The next-closest total is 23 honors from LSU, Notre Dame and Oklahoma with Iowa, Mississippi State and Ohio State tied for third at 18.

• Kalen DeBoer has produced unprecedented results at every stop of his coaching career. His hard work and dedication to his craft has shaped one of the most impressive resumes in college football after just 11 years as a head coach.

• DeBoer's coaching philosophy stresses the importance of class, integrity and academic success. He has a passion for bringing people together while building the total program. DeBoer believes in creating an environment that allows his players to thrive. He holds a deep commitment to developing the young men in his program and investing in them both on and off the field as they prepare for their next steps in life.

• During his 28 years in coaching, he has consistently prospered at multiple levels and in different roles, helping to build and revitalize programs while establishing a diverse network of contacts across the country, in both coaching and recruiting. Across his first 11 seasons as a head coach, DeBoer has accumulated a record of 124-20, which includes a 25-3 record in his previous stop with the Washington Huskies and three NAIA National Championships at Sioux Falls.

• Entering 2026, DeBoer owns a 20-6 record against Associated Press Top 25 teams across his six combined seasons at Fresno State, Washington and Alabama. His 20 victories stand as the second-most ranked wins among active head coaches to begin the '26 campaign.

• DeBoer led Alabama to an 11-4 overall record in 2025, including a 10-2 mark during the regular season and a 7-1 record in SEC play.

• The Crimson Tide earned a spot in the SEC Championship Game and eventually the College Football Playoff in '25, while notching the program's 28th 11-win season in program history and 17th 10-win season over the last 18 years.

• The Tide recorded five wins against AP Top 25 teams in 2025, including four in a row across four consecutive weeks to become the first program in SEC history to accomplish the feat. Under DeBoer's direction, UA also secured a CFP First Round victory at Oklahoma, overcoming an early 17-point deficit to tie for the third-largest comeback in program history and the largest comeback in CFP records.

• DeBoer took on an unprecedented challenge in his first season in Tuscaloosa, replacing arguably the greatest coach in the history of college football. The 2024 campaign saw the Crimson Tide finish 9-4, including a 3-1 record against ranked teams. DeBoer's nine victories matched Frank Thomas (1931) for the most wins by a first-year head coach in Alabama history.

• In 2023, he led Washington to the College Football Playoff National Championship Game with a victory over Texas in the Sugar Bowl. DeBoer's '23 group won the Pac-12 Championship and recorded the most wins in a season in program history (14). Additionally, he won the 2023 AP, AFCA, Eddie Robinson, George Munger, Walter Camp, Sporting News and Home Depot Coach of the Year awards.

• DeBoer became the first Washington coach to win 11-or-more games in consecutive seasons after going 11-2 in 2022 and 14-1 in 2023 and the first to win a bowl game in his initial season with the Huskies. That success resulted in back-to-back Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors. His Washington squads also went 10-1 against ranked teams.

• In his first year at UW, he led the Huskies to an 11-2 overall record after Washington finished 4-8 the previous year. They posted a 3-0 mark against ranked teams and a win over Texas in the Valero Alamo Bowl. His Huskies swept their three Northwest rivals and finished in a tie for second in the Pac-12, while he was named Pac-12 Co-Coach of the Year.

• Prior to his time at UW, DeBoer spent two seasons at Fresno State, which included the pandemic-shortened 2020 season. Under his guidance, the Bulldogs made great strides on both sides of the ball, posting a combined 12-6 record. Fresno was 4-8 in 2019.

• In 2021, Fresno State went 9-3 under DeBoer. The 2020 season saw the Bulldogs finish at 3-3 overall.

• Prior to Fresno, DeBoer was on staff at Indiana University as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He helped guide the Hoosiers to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Gator Bowl. IU's eight victories in 2019 matched their highest wins total in 26 seasons, and IU ranked No. 3 in the Big Ten in total offense. Indiana averaged 432.8 yards of total offense per game, throwing for 302.4 yards per contest while rushing for 130.4.

• DeBoer joined then-head coach Jeff Tedford as the Fresno State offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2017. In two seasons in that role, DeBoer helped the Bulldogs to overall records of 10-4 (2017) and 12-2 (2018), along with two division titles, two bowl game victories and the Mountain West Conference Championship in 2018.

• After the 2009 season, he took a job at Southern Illinois as offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach from 2010 through 2013. He moved to Eastern Michigan as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2014 through 2016, helping the Eagles to their third-ever bowl-game berth in 2016.

• A school-record setting wide receiver at the University of Sioux Falls (S.D.), DeBoer later led his alma mater to three NAIA National Championships in five seasons as head coach, winning titles in 2006, 2008 and 2009, while also finishing as runner-up in 2007 and making the semifinals in his first season as head coach in 2005. During his five seasons at Sioux Falls, DeBoer compiled a 67-3 overall record, including a 49-1 mark in Great Plains Athletic Conference play. He was NAIA National Coach of the Year in each of his three championship seasons at USF.

• A 1998 graduate of Sioux Falls with a degree in secondary education, DeBoer was a record-setting football and baseball student-athlete. During his football career, he compiled 3,400 yards and 33 touchdowns on 234 career receptions — all school records at the time — and played on the 1996 NAIA Division II National Championship team.

• He also played baseball for the Cougars, batting .520 (still a school record) as a senior in 1998. His career average of .492 is tops in USF history, as are his 37 career homers and .944 slugging percentage.

ATTENDANCE: 100,077 • TV: ABC

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. – The No. 13/11 Alabama football team opened the 2026 campaign with a commanding 48-10 victory over East Carolina in front of a sold-out crowd inside Saban Field at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

The Crimson Tide totaled 487 yards of offense in the victory while limiting the Pirates to just 162 total yards. Making his starting debut, Keelon Russell accounted for 342 total yards. Russell gained 256 yards through the air while adding 86 yards and a touchdown on the ground.

Four different Alabama rushers combined for five touchdowns on the day, led by Daniel Hill with a pair of scores. Russell’s 86 yards led a Tide backfield that saw eight rushers contribute positive yardage. Ryan Coleman-Williams posted the fourth 100-plus-yard receiving game of his career, finishing the day with 130 yards on five catches while also adding 27 return yards.

Defensively, the Tide was led by Yhonzae Pierre, who returned an interception 27 yards for a touchdown while adding three tackles, one tackle for loss and one sack. Zabien Brown, Dijon Lee Jr. and Bray Hubbard also had three tackles each, while Fatutoa Henry and Terrence Green each tallied a sack.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 12 • KROGER FIELD • LEXINGTON, KY.
ATTENDANCE: 61,820 • TV: ABC

LEXINGTON, Ky. – The No. 12/12 Alabama football team used a dominant second half to claim victory in its Southeastern Conference opener, defeating Kentucky inside Kroger Field, 45-17.

The Crimson Tide posted 343 yards of offense in the game, including 215 in the second half, while holding the Wildcats to just 62 yards after halftime and 209 total yards for the contest. Trailing 17-13 at half, Alabama posted a second-half shutout and scored 32 of its 45 points across the final two quarters.

Keelon Russell finished his afternoon with 188 passing yards at a 16-of-23 clip with one touchdown and two interceptions. Daniel Hill had a strong day on the ground, amassing a career-high 104 yards to go along with a touchdown. Trae’shawn Brown and EJ Crowell both tallied rushing touchdowns in the contest.

Lotzeir Brooks led six Crimson Tide receivers that caught passes with five receptions for 54 yards and a successful catch on a two-point conversion. Ryan Coleman-Williams tallied four receptions for 43 yards. Rico Scott scored Alabama’s first receiving touchdown of the season and finished the afternoon with 44 yards on three receptions.

Defensively, the Tide was led by Caleb Woodson with 12 tackles, including two for loss and two sacks. Luke Metz returned an interception 34 yards for a touchdown to go along with eight tackles. Devan Thompkins also tallied a pair of sacks, part of his six total tackles, including two for loss.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19 • SABAN FIELD AT BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM • TUSCALOOSA, ALA.
ATTENDANCE: 100,077 • TV: ABC

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Alabama withstood a pair of lightning delays, rallying past Florida State for a 50-36 victory inside Saban Field at Bryant-Denny Stadium. Following a 34-minute lightning delay in the second quarter — the second such delay of the game — the Crimson Tide scored 37 points and gained 388 yards while holding the Seminoles to just 15 points.

Alabama gained 567 yards on the day, including 320 yards through the air and 247 yards on the ground, thanks in large part to 376 all-purpose yards from Keelon Russell. The sophomore quarterback finished with 320 yards and three touchdowns on 23-of-30 passing while adding a rushing touchdown and 56 yards on the ground.

Trae'shawn Brown led the Tide in rushing, posting 86 yards and a score. Four Crimson Tide rushers finished with at least 50 yards and EJ Crowell also added a rushing touchdown. Lotzeir Brooks tallied the first 100-yard receiving game of his career, closing his night with 101 yards on eight catches. Ryan Coleman-Williams, Kaleb Edwards and Cederian Morgan each hauled in touchdown receptions.

The Crimson Tide defense forced three interceptions on the night, as Bray Hubbard, Red Morgan and Ivan Taylor each recorded a pick. On the line, Alabama held Florida State to just 94 yards rushing. Luke Metz and Devan Thompkins led the Tide with six tackles apiece, with the latter also adding a sack. Terrance Green posted three tackles, including two for loss and a sack, while Yhonzae Pierre finished the night with five tackles, including one for loss, to go with three quarterback hurries and one pass breakup.

ATTENDANCE: 100,077 • TV: ESPN

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — The No. 8/8 Alabama football team used an explosive first-half performance to power past South Carolina, 49-18, in front of a sold-out crowd inside Saban Field at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

The Crimson Tide offense shined on the night, tallying 489 yards and eight plays of 20-plus yards. Keelon Russell led the way with a career-high 400 yards of total offense, including 365 and four touchdowns through the air on 21-of-27 passing. The Alabama signal-caller also added 35 yards and a touchdown on the ground.

Ryan Coleman-Williams led UA with 98 yards on five receptions, including a pair of touchdowns. Lotzeir Brooks and Josh Ford also both hauled in touchdown receptions on the night. EJ Crowell was the Tide's leading rusher with 50 yards on six carries while Daniel Hill also added a touchdown on the ground.

Luke Metz led the way for the Alabama defense, tallying a career-best 13 tackles to go along with a fumble recovery. Caleb Woodson joined Metz in double figures with 12 stops. Red Morgan delivered Alabama's third pick-six of the season and added eight tackles, including one for loss, on the night.
