Credential requests must be made as early as possible by the sports director of each media outlet and are limited to those media who will be attending the game in a working capacity. Media must approve the SEC Media Policy before requesting credentials. Due to the high number of applications, it is not possible to accommodate all requests. Accredited, working media will have first priority and all others will be on a space-available basis. Freelance media requests will not be accepted. No one under 18 years of age will be issued a press box credential or sideline vest without the prior approval of Ole Miss Athletics Communications. All credentials, both season and single-game, must be picked up at media will call on gameday. No credentials will be sent via mail.

PARKING: Gameday media parking will be located in the garage adjacent to The SJB Pavilion or overflow lot to the southwest of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. Each pass is for a specific numbered parking spot. Cars parked in the wrong spot will be towed. Parking passes are digital and must be requested during credential application process. If a parking pass is requested and approved, a digital pass will be sent to every applicant via text message on the Thursday prior to gameday.

MEDIA GATE/WILL-CALL: Media will enter Gate 35 on the west side of the stadium beginning three hours prior to kickoff. The media will-call table will be located beside the elevators on the concourse level of The SJB Pavilion. Photographers may receive a vest at this location.

LAST FIVE GAMES AGAINST MISSISSIPPI STATE

11/28/25 • Starkville, Miss. • #6 Ole Miss 38, Miss. State 19
Ole Miss concluded a historic regular season in fitting fashion, taking down in-state rival Mississippi State, 38-19, at Davis Wade Stadium. The win helped the Rebels record the first-ever 11-win regular season in program history. Ole Miss tallied 545 yards of total offense, including 359 passing yards from Trinidad Chambliss. Chambliss completed 68% of his passes with four TDs. Kewan Lacy rushed for 143 yards and one TD.

11/29/24 • Oxford, Miss. • #14 Ole Miss 26, Miss. State 14
No. 14 Ole Miss football withstood a strong start by Mississippi State in a 26-14 victory at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in the annual Egg Bowl. The Bulldogs came out inspired in search of their first SEC win, taking a 14-10 lead through the first quarter, but the Rebels didn't allow a point the rest of the way to win the Battle for the Golden Egg for the second straight year and fourth time in five seasons under head coach Lane Kiffin.

11/23/23 • Starkville, Miss. • #13 Ole Miss 17, Miss. State 7
Both defenses gave no quarter early on, but two key second-half scoring drives by the Rebel offense helped lift Ole Miss to a 17-7 victory over Mississippi State in a slugfest of an Egg Bowl. With both defenses in prime form, it came down to timing, and Ole Miss struck at the right moments with late touchdowns to Quinshon Judkins and Caden Prieskorn.

11/24/22 • Oxford, Miss. • Miss. State 24, #19 Ole Miss 22
Scoring was at a premium on a wet and cold Thanksgiving night,, with the Bulldogs coming out of Oxford with a ranked win. Ole Miss had a chance to tie with 1:25 to play after the second of Jaxson Dart's passing TDs, but the two-point try from Dart to Mingo fell short, giving State the victory.

11/25/21 • Starkville, Miss. • #9 Ole Miss 31, Miss. State 21
Ole Miss kept Mississippi State out of the end zone until 7:20 of the fourth quarter at Davis-Wade Stadium. By then, the Rebels held a commanding 24-6 lead and cruised to victory behind Snoop Conner's two rushing TDs.

OLE MISS HEAD COACH PETE GOLDING

Pete Golding, one of college football's premier defensive minds, enters his first full season as the head coach of the Ole Miss football program in 2026 after being named the 40th head coach in Rebel history on Nov. 30, 2025. Golding holds a 9-5 overall record while in charge in Oxford. As an assistant coach, Golding was on the sidelines for eight consecutive 10-win seasons, with his teams combining for a 96-14 (.873) record. Golding took over the program after three seasons as Ole Miss' defensive coordinator, where he helped transform the Rebels into one of the SEC's top defensive units and mentored eight NFL Draft picks. His defenses during his three seasons as DC limited opponents to 18.5 points and 330.8 yards per game while recording 31 interceptions, 27 forced fumbles and 19 fumble recoveries. Golding was immediately tested after being named head coach following the 2025 regular season, leading Ole Miss to its first-ever College Football Playoff appearance. The Rebels earned a first-round home victory over Tulane before defeating Georgia in the Sugar Bowl to advance to the CFP Semifinals, where Ole Miss' storybook season ended against Miami. Golding arrived at Ole Miss following five seasons as Alabama's defensive coordinator from 2018-22, helping the Crimson Tide win three SEC championships and the 2020 national championship. A native of Hammond, Louisiana, Golding began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Delta State in 2006 after playing four seasons at safety for the Statesmen from 2002-05.

MISSISSIPPI STATE COACH JEFF LEBBY

Jeff Lebby is in his third season as Mississippi State's head coach, compiling a 12-24 overall record and a 3-21 mark in SEC play since being named head coach with the Bulldogs in November 2023. Lebby has coordinated high-powered offenses at Oklahoma, Ole Miss and UCF throughout his coaching career. Prior to arriving in Starkville, Lebby spent one season as Oklahoma's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2023, where his offense ranked fourth nationally in total offense (502.4 yards per game). During his time in Norman, OU was one of only three teams in the country to finish in the top six in total offense, scoring offense and passing offense. Before Oklahoma, Lebby spent two seasons at Ole Miss (2020-21) as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. His offenses led the SEC in total offense in both seasons, ranking third nationally in 2020 (555.5 ypg) and sixth in 2021 (492.5 ypg). He was a semifinalist for the Broyles Award in both seasons and helped develop quarterback Matt Corral, who threw for 3,337 yards and 29 touchdowns in 2020. Prior to Ole Miss, Lebby spent two seasons at UCF (2018-19), serving as quarterbacks coach in 2018 before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2019. Lebby served as offensive coordinator at Southeastern University in 2017, helping lead the Fire to the nation's top scoring offense (55.1 ppg) and a 5-0 conference record. Before Southeastern, he spent nine seasons at Baylor (2008-16), coaching running backs from 2012-16 and serving as passing game coordinator and offensive recruiting coordinator in 2015 and 2016. During his time coaching Baylor's running backs, he developed five 1,000-yard rushers Lebby began his coaching career as an offensive line and tight ends coach at Victoria Memorial High School in 2007.

SCOUTING THE BULLDOGS

Mississippi State enters the matchup with a 5-6 record, including a 2-6 mark in Southeastern Conference play, following a 34-16 victory over Tennessee Tech on Nov. 21. The Bulldogs opened the season with four consecutive victories over ULM, Minnesota, South Carolina and Missouri before dropping six straight games, including losses to Alabama, LSU, Oklahoma, Texas, Vanderbilt and Auburn. Mississippi State is averaging 25.4 points and 389.3 yards of total offense per game, including 146.2 rushing yards and 243.1 passing yards per contest. ## OLE MISS-MISSISSIPPI STATE SERIES HISTORY

- This game will be the 123rd meeting of one of the nation's most-played rivalries.
- On the field, Ole Miss holds a 67-49-6 advantage dating back to 1901, including a 25-14-3 mark in Oxford.
- After vacated wins, the series stands at 67-47-6 in favor of Ole Miss ... The Rebels had wins in 2012 & 2014 vacated due to NCAA ruling, while Mississippi State forfeited wins in 1976 & 1977.
- This game will be the 99th "Battle of the Golden Egg," as the two schools started playing for the trophy in 1927 ... Ole Miss holds a 61-32-5 on the field advantage in the "Egg Bowl".
- This marks the third time in a row the Egg Bowl hasn't been on Thanksgiving, and will be only the seventh time the two schools have met on a Friday ... The series is tied 3-3 in games played on Friday.
- The Rebels own the four longest separate winning streaks in the series (nine, six, six and five games).
- Including a pair of forfeited victories, Ole Miss posted a 38-7-2 record versus MSU from 1944-1990.
- From 1947-1963, the Rebels posted a 15-0-2 mark against MSU ... That means a child born in December 1946 was a senior in high school before they saw Ole Miss lose to the Bulldogs.
- From 2004-2014, the home team won all but two games ... Since then, the road team has won seven of the last 11.

THE START OF THE GOLDEN EGG

The Golden Egg was first proposed by members of Sigma Iota, an Ole Miss honorary society in 1927. Sigma Iota proposed that a trophy be awarded in a dignified ceremony designed to calm excited fans, after Ole Miss fans stormed the field at Starkville's Scott Field following the Rebels' 7-6 win in the 1926 contest. The 1926 win snapped a 13-game losing streak to then-Mississippi A&M, and was just Ole Miss' fifth win in 23 tries. Following the game, Ole Miss fans made a dash for the goal posts, while Aggie fans took after them with cane bottom chairs and fights broke out. The mayhem continued until most of the chairs were splintered. After Sigma Iota made its proposal, Mississippi A&M approved the suggestion, and Ole Miss, two weeks before the game, officially added its approval. The trophy, to be called "The Golden Egg," would be a regulation-size gold-plated football mounted on a pedestal. The cost of the $250 trophy was split between both schools. On Thanksgiving Day, 1927, the first "Battle of the Golden Egg" was waged before a crowd of 14,000 in Oxford. The Rebels won 20-12 and the symbol of supremacy in the series was born.

ORIGINS OF THE NAME

The term "Egg Bowl" can be traced back to 1978, when Executive Sports Editor of The Clarion-Ledger Tom Patterson decided to spice up the 1978 meeting. A year earlier, the Clarion-Ledger headline on game day had been "Egg Bowl Is Up For Scramble." With the Rebels and the Bulldogs 6-4 and both apparently out of the bowl picture heading into the 1978 game, Patterson instructed his staff to follow the "Egg Bowl" theme throughout the week. The result was a special section on Sunday, which recounted in great detail the Rebels' stunning 27-7 victory. While the game is still officially the "Battle of the Golden Egg," most members of the media now refer to the annual game simply as the "Egg Bowl."

FRIDAY NIGHT FIGHT

The Egg Bowl and Thanksgiving have become synonymous, with the rivalry being held 32 times on the holiday. But the last three contests have fallen on a Friday, with this year's constituting only the seventh time in 123 contests. Prior Friday meetings for the Egg Bowl were in 1916 (L, 36-0), 1921 (L, 27-7), 2007 (L, 17-14), 2008 (W, 45-0), 2024 (W, 26-14) and 2025 (W, 38-19). However, this will only be the fifth true Battle for the Golden Egg held on a Friday, as the 1916 and 1921 meetings were before the trophy was introduced in 1927.

The 39 wins are tied for the most in the FBS during that time frame. The .907 win percentage ranks fifth nationally. A win on Friday would mark Ole Miss' sixth home victory of the season and its fourth consecutive year with at least six home wins, a feat that would be accomplished for the first time in school history.

Through 11 games, the junior has recorded 37 receptions for 549 yards and four touchdowns, averaging 14.8 yards per catch. His combination of size, athleticism and pass-catching ability has made him a valuable target in the Ole Miss passing attack. Odom's production has also placed him among the program's all-time tight end standouts, ranking eighth amongst tight ends in program history in both receiving yards (746) and TDs (6). His 56 career receptions also rank ninth in Ole Miss history by a tight end.

A LONG HISTORY

The 2026 season marks the 132nd season of Ole Miss football, with the Rebels beginning play in 1893. Ole Miss holds a 739-556-35 all-time record on the field, 706-556-35 after vacated wins. The only interruptions in the program's history came in 1897, when a yellow fever epidemic prevented the team from playing, and 1943, when football was suspended at Mississippi's state-supported institutions during World War II.

PERKINS EARNS 2026 CHUCKY MULLINS COURAGE AWARDS

LB Suntarine Perkins was named the winner of the 2026 Chucky Mullins Courage Award prior to the start of the 2026 season. The award honors the late Chucky Mullins, who had his Ole Miss career come to an end during the 1989 Homecoming game against Vanderbilt when he was paralyzed after making a tackle. A native of Raleigh, Mississippi, Perkins becomes the 36th recipient in the 37-year history of the award. A member of the preseason watch list for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, Perkins also earned preseason honors from the media members as he was selected to the preseason all-SEC second team.

Pete Golding was named the 40th head coach in Ole Miss football history on Nov. 30, 2025 following the regular season. He guided the Rebels to a 2-1 mark in the College Football Playoffs en route to a semifinal run and a 13-2 final record.

Golding took over one of the Southeastern Conferences' top teams of the 2020s after a brilliant career as a defensive guru in the SEC over the last eight years. During that span, Golding helped lead his teams to eight consecutive seasons of 10 or more wins, including a home record of 54-2. Since 2018, Golding owned an SEC record of 55-11, winning six College Football Playoff games, three SEC titles, a National Championship in 2020, while going 13-3 in postseason play. Since arriving in Oxfordin 2023, Golding has orchestrated several dominant Ole Miss defenses, including a school-record pass rush in 2024, and with the Rebels he has mentored eight NFL Draft picks.

He was immediately put to the test as Ole Miss' leader during its first-ever College Football Playoff appearance just weeks into his tenure. The Rebels earned a first round home game in the CFP, a dominant 41-10 rematch win over 11-seed Tulane that setup another rematch for Ole Miss in the Sugar Bowl against Georgia. This time, the Rebels had destiny on their side, clawing back from a nine-point halftime deficit to cap off one of the most iconic wins in Ole Miss football history, 39-34.

In the CFP Semifinals against Miami, the Rebels and Hurricanes battled to the bitter end, but a late drive by Miami ended the storybook season for both Golding and the Rebels.

Golding – who owns nearly two decades of defensive coaching experience – cut his teeth in the SEC as a key member of Nick Saban's powerful Alabama squads as Saban's defensive coordinator from 2018-22, which included three SEC titles in 2018, '20 and '21, as well as a national title with the Crimson Tide in 2020.

During his time as Ole Miss' defensive coordinator since 2023, Golding has transformed the defensive mentality of the Rebels into one of the SEC's better units. In his Ole Miss career, Golding's defenses have stuffed opponents to just 18.5 points and 330.8 yards per game (210.4 passing, 120.4 rushing) while tallying up nearly three sacks and seven tackles for loss a game alongside 31 total interceptions, 27 forced fumbles and 19 fumble recoveries.

This season, Golding has mentored Ole Miss to one of the SEC's top pass defenses, yielding only 182.6 yards per game (SEC No. 3, FBS No. 20), while also ranking FBS top-25 in both fourth-down defense (ninth, .360) and scoring defense (25th, 20.1 ppg).

Golding had the unenviable task of replacing one of the greatest defenses in Ole Miss history, but his 2025 Rebels have been productive from both the transfer portal and high school ranks alike. Top returners and junior linebackers TJ Dottery and Suntarine Perkins lead the team in tackles, owning a combined 124 stops and 11.0 tackles for loss, but the underclass of powerful sophomore linemen Kam Franklin (6.5 TFL, 3.5 sacks) and Will Echoles (6.0 TFL, 3.5 sacks) – as well as team-leading transfer Princewill Umanmielen (7.5 TFL, 5.5 sacks) – has proven just as talented at causing mayhem in the backfield.

Golding put together one of the best all-around defenses in Ole Miss history in 2024, highlighted by one of the nation's most feared rush defenses and pass rush attacks. The Rebels led the nation in sacks (52) and tackles for loss (120), with both standing as new program records. The Ole Miss defense stifled opponents to just 80.5 rushing yards per game, which ended the season ranked second in the FBS and was the fewest allowed by a Rebel defense since 1966.

Ole Miss held nine of its 13 opponents to fewer than 100 yards rushing, six below 50 yards -- including a Gator Bowl record 44 yards allowed to Duke to close the season. Only two Rebel opponents broke 400 yards of total offense, while the Rebels held five to fewer than 300.

Leading the charge were first team All-Americans defensive tackle Walter Nolen and linebacker Chris Paul Jr., who were both among a seven-round NFL Draft record eight selections for Ole Miss. Nolen, the 14th consensus All-American in program history, was the first Rebel selected in the first round at No. 16 overall to the Arizona Cardinals, while other defensive draftees included cornerback Trey Amos (Round 2, Washington Commanders), defensive end Princely Umanmielen (Round 3, Carolina Panthers), Paul Jr. (Round 5, Los Angeles Rams) and defensive tackle JJ Pegues (Round 6, Las Vegas Raiders).

With the Rebels in 2023, Golding's new defensive scheme helped propel Ole Miss to its first 11-win season in program history. The Landshark D led the SEC and ranked fifth in the FBS in turnover margin at +11 and stifled SEC defenses, holding Arkansas (288), Auburn (275) and Vanderbilt (229) to fewer than 300 total yards in consecutive games -- the first such streak at Ole Miss within the same season since 1993.

Golding's squad was well-rounded, ranking within the top-35 nationally in sacks (19th, 2.7/game), TFL (29th, 6.3/game), passes intercepted (25th, 13 INTs) and scoring defense (34th, 22.1 PPG). Those 13 picks were the most by a Rebel defense since 2015, and the 35 Rebel sacks helped give Ole Miss at least 35 sacks in three straight seasons for the first time in program history.

The 2023 defense was led by three NFL Draft picks -- corner Deantre Prince (fifth round), edge Cedric Johnson (sixth round) and safety Daijahn Anthony (seventh round) -- as well as other returning stalwarts like defensive end and Peach Bowl Defensive MVP Jared Ivey, veteran safeties John Saunders Jr. and Trey Washington, and star freshman linebacker Suntarine Perkins.

In his five seasons leading the Crimson Tide defense, Alabama ranked top-20 in the FBS in scoring defense every year and finished top-10 in either scoring or total defense four times.

The 2022 Alabama defense again proved to be one of the best in the nation, ranking ninth in scoring defense (18.2) and 13th in total defense (318.2 ypg). The Crimson Tide allowed just 4.6 yards per play last season, which led the SEC and ranked No. 4 nationally.

Two-time Bronko Nagurski Trophy winner Will Anderson Jr., anchored Golding's defense the last several seasons. Anderson became the first Alabama player ever to earn unanimous All-America honors after leading the SEC and finishing No. 11 in the country in sacks (10.0).

Alabama ranked fourth in rushing defense (86.0 ypg) and seventh in total defense (304.1 ypg) in 2021, while allowing just 20.1 points per game and holding opponents for a 31.1 percent conversion rate on third down, which was seventh nationally. Middle linebacker Henry To'oTo'o led the team with 112 tackles, while Anderson set the NCAA record (since 2000) for tackles for loss in a season with 34.5.

Golding's 2020 defense led the SEC in scoring (19.0 ppg) and got better as the season progressed, allowing just 15 points per game over the final nine contests en route to the national championship. The Tide ranked third in the league in total defense and rushing defense while the pass efficiency defense also led the league and ranked 18th nationally.

Golding's unit was devastated by injuries in 2019 and forced the staff into starting two true freshmen at the mike and will positions in the Tide's base 3-4 scheme. Alabama still managed a top-20 defense, limiting opponents to just 324.4 yards and 18.6 points per game.

Alabama's defense finished the 2018 season ranked third nationally in scoring (18.1 ppg) and 16th in total defense (319.5 ypg). The rushing defense was 19th nationally (121.3 ypg) while the pass efficiency defense ranked 23rd. Alabama also ranked 10th nationally in sacks per game at 3.0.

Prior to Alabama, Golding coached cornerbacks and handled defensive coordinator duties at the University of Texas-San Antonio in 2016 and 2017. Golding's 2017 defense at UTSA ranked seventh in the Football Bowl Subdivision, allowing just 287.8 yards per game. The Roadrunners finished eighth in scoring defense (17.0 ppg), second in first downs defense (166) and 19th in pass efficiency defense (112.19).

In his first season with the Roadrunners in 2016, Golding helped lead the program to six wins and its first bowl game – the 2016 Gildan New Mexico Bowl. His defense set several school records, including single-season standards for tackles (934), TFLs (77), sacks (27) and QB hurries (38).

Golding joined the UTSA staff after spending two years as an assistant at Southern Miss where he coached the safeties. The Golden Eagles posted a six-win improvement in his second season, finishing 9-5 overall with a trip to the Heart of Dallas Bowl while winning the Western Division of Conference USA.

Prior to his time in Hattiesburg, Golding was the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Southeastern Louisiana for two seasons (2012-13). He helped guide the Lions' program to a school-record 11 wins and its first conference title (Southland) since 1961 with a 7-0 league record.

Before heading to Hammond, Golding was the defensive coordinator at his alma mater Delta State from 2010-11, leading the Statesman to the 2010 NCAA Division II National Championship Game and the Gulf South Conference title.

He also spent three years on staff at Division II Tusculum, coaching the defensive backs while coordinating the defense the final two years as the Pioneers developed into a record-setting defensive unit under his direction.

Golding began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Delta State in 2006 after starting four seasons at safety for the Statesmen (2002-05). Golding graduated from Delta State in 2005 with a degree in business.
