JOHNTHAN BANKS

2012 THORPE AWARD WINNER

Presented annually to the nation's most outstanding defensive back by the Jim Thorpe Association

Johnthan Banks became the first Mississippi State player to win a national award when he received the 2012 Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. He also became the fourth SEC player in a row to win the prestigious award, following LSU's Morris Claiborne in 2011, Patrick Peterson in 2010 and Tennessee's Eric Berry in 2009.

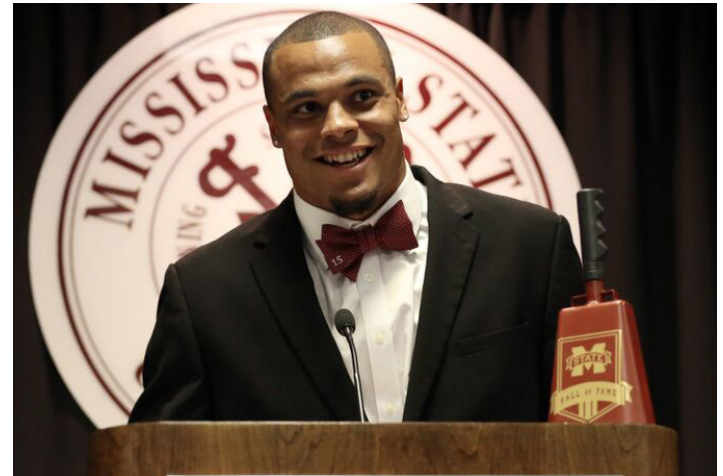

Banks, who had 16 interceptions during his college career is tied with Walt Harris (1992-95) for the most in Mississippi State history.

During his time in Starkville, Banks earned multiple national honors as one of the best cornerbacks in America. Banks earned First Team All-America honors by the Football Writers Association of America, becoming the first player from the state of Mississippi in more than a decade to earn that honor while also earning additional All-America honors from nine different publications in 2012. Banks was a two-time All-SEC selection in 2011 (2nd team) and 2012 (1st team).

Banks was the 43rd overall pick by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 2012 NFL Draft and played 57 games over a five-year career in the NFL in which he recorded 146 tackles, 17 pass deflections and had seven interceptions with one defensive touchdown.

DAK PRESCOTT

2015 SENIOR CLASS AWARD WINNER

Presented annually to the nation's most outstanding senior student-athlete in Division I FBS Football

Dak Prescott became the first Mississippi State Bulldog to win the Senior CLASS Award when he was given the honor in 2015 through a nationwide vote of Division I FBS football coaches, national football media and fans.

An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the award is given annually to the most outstanding senior student-athlete in Division I football.

The Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. The award is intended to personify achievements in the classroom, community, character and competition.

Dak was the fourth player in SEC history to account for 110 career touchdowns and the fifth player in the history of the league to record 11,000 career yards of total offense.

Dak, who served as a team captain helped lead Mississippi State to a bowl game in every season under center while also leading MSU to their first No. 1 ranking in school history.
