THE MATCHUP: GAME 9

MISSISSIPPI STATE BULLDOGS (3-5, 1-4 SEC)

ARKANSAS RAZORBACKS (2-6, 0-5 SEC)

November 2, 2019 • 3 p.m. CT • Fayetteville, Ark. • Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium (76,000)

STORYLINES

- The Bulldogs are set to hit the road for the fourth time in their last five contests Saturday when they travel to Fayetteville, Arkansas, to take on the Razorbacks. State enters the game following a 49-30 loss at Texas A&M, while Arkansas is coming off a 48-7 setback at No. 2 Alabama.
- The Hogs lead the all-time series 16-12-1, and the teams are meeting for the 30th time. The first meeting in the series was in 1916, a 20-7 Bulldog victory. MSU and Arkansas met only twice prior to 1992 when the Razorbacks joined the SEC. This is the 28th straight year the two teams are playing each other.
- State has claimed six out of the last seven meetings with the Razorbacks. Four out of the last six games have been decided in the final minutes with a Bulldog making a memorable play in each of State's four victories.
- Last year against the Hogs, Nick Fitzgerald threw four touchdown passes and ran for another score to lead No. 25 MSU to a 52-6 win. It was State's largest margin of victory in the all-time series. Aeris Williams added 104 yards rushing on 15 carries. MSU's defense held Arkansas to just 219 total yards and was led by Johnathan Abram, who had 12 tackles, including 3.5 for a loss and 1.5 sacks.
- RB Kylin Hill erupted for 150 rushing yards and a touchdown last week at Texas A&M to reclaim the SEC rushing lead and notch his fifth 100-yard game on the ground this season. Hill enters Saturday's game with 793 rushing yards and six TDs.
- Making his third career start, QB Garrett Shrader threw a career-high three touchdown passes last week against the Aggies to give him at least one scoring toss in four straight games. Shrader became the fourth MSU QB since 2000 to record 1,000 passing yards and 500 rushing yards in a single season, joining Nick Fitzgerald (2016, 2017, 2018), Dak Prescott (2013, 2014, 2015) and Chris Relf (2010).
- WR Isaiah Zuber, a graduate transfer from Kansas State, was on the receiving end of two of QB Garrett Shrader's three passing touchdowns at Texas A&M. Zuber's first touchdown catch of the game from 14 yards out was also his first as a Bulldog. His second touchdown of the day was a 38-yard strike from Shrader, who also had a 32-yard TD throw to WR Stephen Guidry.
- C Darryl Williams is a team captain, preseason All-American and candidate for the Senior CLASS Award and Rimington and Outland Trophies. He has started 33 (total career starts with eight at center) of the Bulldogs' last 34 games and allowed just one sack since the start of the 2017 season (at Kentucky in 2018). He is one of six SEC centers who hasn't allowed a sack this season (minimum 200 pass blocking snaps).
- The Bulldogs have relied heavily on its freshmen this season. Eighteen such players (9 true, 9 redshirt) have played multiple games through the first seven contests, while 15 sophomores and seven transfers (4 JUCO) have played at least one game. In addition, sixteen different Bulldogs have seen game action for the first time, while 15 have earned starts for the first time. True freshman CB Martin Emerson earned his first career start vs. No. 2 LSU two weeks ago in place of CB Maurice Smitherman, who fell victim to a season-ending injury. Last week at Texas A&M, true freshman CB Jarrian Jones got his first career start in place of injured CB Cameron Dantzler.

33RD HEAD FOOTBALL COACH AT MISSISSIPPI STATE 2016 & 2017 NATIONAL OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR OF THE YEAR

When Mississippi State Director of Athletics John Cohen was charged with identifying the Bulldogs' 33rd head football coach, he was looking for a man with a pedigree as a winner, an innovator with a blue-collar work ethic and at the forefront, a 'ball coach.' From the beginning of the search, Joe Moorhead was the unequivocal leader. Moorhead, the 2016 and 2017 National Offensive Coordinator of the Year and the mastermind behind Penn State's offensive juggernaut, enters his second season in Starkville in 2019. Officially named head coach on November 29, 2017, Moorhead became just the second MSU head coach to win eight or more games on the field in his debut season and the first since College Football Hall of Famer Allyn McKeen in 1939. The 45-year-old played a pivotal role in conference championships at his four previous coaching stops, including Penn State (2016), Fordham (2014), Connecticut (2010) and Akron (2005).

In his short time in Starkville, the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, native has already made a marvelous impact, securing a Top 25 national ranking, a New Year's Day bowl berth, multiple Top 25 recruiting classes, forming relationships around the state of Mississippi and developing a 'good to great' attitude within the program.

Behind one of the SEC's most potent rushing attacks and the nation's No. 1 defense, Moorhead's first State squad defeated two top-20 teams by double digits, won four out of its last five regular-season games and qualified for a school-record ninth-consecutive bowl. The Bulldogs dominated then-No. 8 Auburn, 23-9, on Oct. 6, while quarterback Nick Fitzgerald accounted for 329 yards of total offense as State put away then-No. 16 Texas A&M, 28-13, on Oct. 28.

MSU reclaimed the historic Golden Egg trophy when the Bulldogs throttled rival Ole Miss, 35-3, on Thanksgiving night in Oxford. It represented the largest margin of victory by a first-year MSU head coach in Egg Bowl history. The win also propelled State to a berth in its first-ever Outback Bowl, representing the program's second-most prestigious bowl this decade. Moorhead became just the second coach in Bulldog history to reach a bowl game in his first season, joining Jackie Sherrill's 1991 squad.

State held eight of its opponents to their lowest point total of the season, including then-No. 1 Alabama, No. 10 Florida and No. 16 Texas A&M. Moorhead's first Bulldog team secured the program's second-highest finish ever in the College Football Playoff rankings at No. 18, as well as a No. 25 ranking in the final Coaches poll.

For only the second time in program history and the first since 2000, MSU produced four All-Americans led by first-teamers defensive end Montez Sweat and center Elgton Jenkins as well as safety Johnathan Abram and defensive tackle Jeffery

Simmons. Under Moorhead's guidance, Fitzgerald secured his place as one of the best dual-threat quarterbacks in SEC history as he became the conference's all-time leading quarterback rusher in addition to shattering 13 school records. Six players also earned All-SEC distinction for their year-long performance.

The Bulldogs then made a major impact in the winter and spring of 2019. A school-record eight MSU players were invited to the NFL Combine. In April, three Bulldogs were called in the first round of the 2019 NFL Draft – a first in program history – as Simmons went No. 19 overall (Tennessee), Sweat went No. 26 (Washington) and Abram followed at No. 27 (Oakland). State's three first-round selections tied with Clemson and Alabama for the most in the nation. MSU finished with a three-day total of five draft selections, including Jenkins going in the second round to Green Bay and Gerri Green being chosen by Indianapolis in the sixth round. The four defensive picks were the most in a single draft in school history. An additional seven other Bulldogs signed free agent contracts, including Fitzgerald with Tampa Bay.

Moorhead's recruiting prowess has been evident as well. A year after signing the nation's No. 25 class after just a few weeks on the job, he hauled in the No. 24 ranked class in the spring of 2019 highlighted by the signing of Charles Cross, the first five-star offensive lineman prospect in MSU history and first overall offensive five star since 2002. Moorhead's 12 four-star or greater signees were the most in a two-year span at MSU since at least 2000 when recruiting database rankings began.

Off the field, Moorhead's group has been model citizens in the community and classroom. A total of 32 Bulldogs were recognized on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in his first season. The same fall as State finished in the Top 25 of the final polls, the Bulldogs posted the highest team GPA on record with a 2.84, as five student-athletes earned a perfect 4.0.

As a collegiate student-athlete at Fordham, Moorhead was a three-year starter at quarterback and a team captain as a senior. He was a second-team All-Patriot League pick as a senior, finishing 13th nationally in total offense. He graduated with school single-season records for completions and passing yards. Following his collegiate career, Moorhead spent time in the training camp of the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League after playing the 1996 season for the Munich Cowboys of the E.F.A.F.

Moorhead received an English degree from Fordham in 1996. He and his wife, Jennifer, have three children: daughter Kyra (18), son Mason (16) and son Donovan (12). Moorhead, an avid Pittsburgh Steelers and Pirates fan, and his family are active members of the Starkville community.

120TH SEASON IN PROGRAM HISTORY

The 2019 season serves as the 120th season of Mississippi State football. Head coach Joe Moorhead, the 2016 and 2017 National Offensive Coordinator of the Year, is the 33rd head football coach in school history. Moorhead spearheaded the Bulldogs to a No. 25 Coaches poll final ranking and a No. 18 ranking in the 2018 College Football Playoff, representing the program's second-highest CFP finish ever. Moorhead has also produced back-to-back Top 25 recruiting classes.

NINE STRAIGHT BOWL APPEARANCES

Mississippi State is on a school-record streak of nine consecutive bowl appearances, joining Alabama, Georgia, LSU and Texas A&M as the only SEC schools to go to a bowl game every season this decade. The Bulldogs appeared in their first-ever Outback Bowl, the program's highest bowl game since the 2014 Orange Bowl.

FROM STATE TO SUNDAYS

Bulldogs continue to dominate NFL rosters in 2019 with over 30 players on active or practice squads. Five current active Bulldogs have been selected to the Pro Bowl during their careers, including Dallas Cowboys starting quarterback Dak Prescott, Philadelphia Eagles defensive tackle Fletcher Cox, Houston Texans linebacker Benardrick McKinney, Detroit Lions cornerback Darius Slay and Seattle Seahawks linebacker K.J. Wright. In the spring of 2019, a school-record eight Bulldogs were invited to the NFL Combine. In April, three MSU players were called in the first round of the 2019 NFL Draft – a first in program history – as Jeffery Simmons (No. 19 – Tennessee), Montez Sweat (No. 26 – Washington) and Johnathan Abram (No. 27 – Oakland) were all selected.

NEW FACES ON COACHING STAFF IN 2019

Joe Moorhead continues to serve as the offensive playcaller. Moorhead is joined by three new coaches on offense - Tony Hughes (associate head coach/tight ends), Terry Richardson (assistant head coach/run game coordinator/running backs) and Michael Johnson (wide receivers). There are two new coaches on defense - Deke Adams (defensive line) and Chris Marve (defensive run game coordinator/linebackers). Defensively, MSU has continuity at the playcaller position for the first time since 2014 as 2018 Broyles Award finalist and national defensive coordinator of the year Bob Shoop enters his second year with the program. Shoop's unit was the best in college football last season, allowing the fewest yards per game (263.1) and fewest yards per play (4.13).

FIVE TEAM CAPTAINS

The five 2019 team captains are safety Brian Cole II, punter Kody Schexnayder, quarterback Tommy Stevens, linebacker Erroll Thompson and center Darryl Williams. The captains are selected in a vote entirely by their teammates. Thompson and Williams were tabbed captains following MSU's spring game on April 13. Cole, Schexnayder and Stevens were revealed on Aug. 25 following a vote during preseason camp.

LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

MSU's 2019 Leadership Council is made up of 12 players selected by a team vote, which includes the five captains. The leadership council includes six seniors: Brian Cole II, Farrod Green, Leo Lewis, Kody Schexnayder, Tommy Stevens and Darryl Williams; two juniors: C.J. Morgan and Erroll Thompson; one sophomore: Austin Williams; two redshirt freshmen: Aaron Brule and Fabien Lovett; and one true freshman: De'Monte Russell.

SHRADER STARTS AT QB IN SEC OPENER VS. KENTUCKY

QB Garrett Shrader started at quarterback in place of QB Tommy Stevens vs. Kentucky. Shrader became the fifth MSU true freshman to start at least one game at quarterback since the 1989 season (others: Keytaon Thompson (2017), Damian Williams (2013), Wesley Carroll (2007), Todd Jordan (1989)) Thompson started the 2017 TaxSlayer Bowl vs. Louisville, Williams started the 2013 Egg Bowl vs. Ole Miss and Carroll started in nine games in 2007.

- Shrader accounted for 305 yards of total offense, including rushing for 125 yards on 11 carries, to lead MSU past Kentucky, 28-13 in its SEC opener. Shrader was just the second MSU true freshman QB to start in an SEC game in the last 12 years (Damian Williams, 2013 Egg Bowl the other).
- Shrader was an efficient 17-of-22 for 180 yards through the air. He accounted for all six of the Bulldogs' 20+ yard plays in the game, including rushes of 49- and 36-yards. With the score a one-possession game and 4:32 remaining, Shrader engineered a six-play, 75 yard drive and extended the drive with a 49-yard rush on third down.

MSU Tops Louisiana In New Orleans, 38-28

Playing its first game in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome since 2007, MSU used 497 yards of total offense in Tommy Stevens' debut as quarterback to defeat Louisiana, 38-28, in New Orleans. Kylin Hill rushed for 197 yards on 27 carries, representing the highest rushing output by a Bulldog in a season opener in program history. Stevens, the graduate transfer from Penn State, didn't waste any time in making an impact as he orchestrated a six-play, 74-yard drive that culminated with a beautiful over-the-shoulder throw to Osirus Mitchell for a 31-yard touchdown with 12:27 in the first quarter. With the score tied at 14 all, MSU reeled off 21 unanswered points behind the Stevens-Hill combo. Both accounted for rushing touchdowns. Malik Dear's 40-yard punt return early in the fourth quarter set up a Stevens-to-Austin Williams 12-yard passing score on the ensuing play to make it 35-14. Stevens finished 20-of-30 with 236 yards passing. The Ragin' Cajuns rallied with 14 straight points, including a 99-yard drive late in the game. Jordan Lawless' first career made field goal, a 37-yarder with 1:02 to go, pushed it to a double-digit margin. Erroll Thompson led all tacklers with 10 and a fumble recovery. State forced four turnovers - three fumbles and one interception. Cameron Dantzler added seven tackles, one fumble recovery and an interception on UL's first offensive play of the game.

State Soars Past Golden Eagles in Home Opener, 38-15

In one of the hottest games in Davis Wade Stadium history, MSU jumped out to a 28-0 lead and secured a 38-15 victory over in-state foe Southern Miss to open the home 2019 slate. Kickoff temperature was 94 degrees, representing the hottest in Davis Wade Stadium since 1998. The heat had no effect on the Bulldogs, however. Tommy Stevens, making his Starkville debut, completed his first nine passes for 105 yards and two touchdowns before exiting the game due to injury late in the second quarter. Stevens' hot streak to start the game represented the most consecutive completions by an MSU QB since Dak Prescott against Arkansas in 2015. For the second straight game, the combination of Stevens to Osirus Mitchell put the Bulldogs on the board on the first drive. Stevens found Mitchell for a 28-yard touchdown with 9:36 to play, and he later connected with Stephen Guidry for an 11-yard score. The day belonged to Kylin Hill, who put on a show rushing for 123 yards and one touchdown against a stingy USM defense that was ranked in the top three nationally a year ago. True freshman Garrett Shrader spelled Stevens and fared well, going 7-of-11 in his first career action. MSU managed three takeaways, including interceptions from C.J. Morgan and true freshman Martin Emerson. Brian Cole II led all tacklers with seven, including one sack and 2.5 tackles for loss. Marquiss Spencer added one strip sack.

Kansas State Edges MSU, 31-24

Kylin Hill rushed for over 100 yards for the third consecutive game, but it was not enough as Kansas State scored 14 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to beat MSU, 31-24, on a hot morning kickoff in Davis Wade Stadium. It was the first meeting between the two teams in Starkville since 1974 and the first Power 5 non-conference team to visit Davis Wade Stadium since 2009. Malik Knowles took a kickoff back 100 yards for the Wildcats to tie the game at 24 all with 14:36 to go in the fourth. MSU was unable to muster anything offensively and K-State went 53 yards on six plays that culminated with a 15-yard touchdown pass with 5:37 to go. Tommy Stevens, battling an upper body injury sustained a week earlier, got the start but did not return early in the third quarter. The Bulldogs were decimated with injuries with CB Cameron Dantzler, RB Nick Gibson and OL Dareuan Parker all out. Stevens helped erase a 10-0 deficit, rushing for a two-yard touchdown following a muffed punt from the Wildcats. Osirus Mitchell then made a spectacular one-handed, 35-yard touchdown grab with 0:09 left in the half. True freshman Garrett Shrader spelled Stevens in the third quarter and displayed his toughness, orchestrating a 12-play, 79-yard drive that ate up 6:50. He finished it off with a two-yard touchdown dive. Jace Christmann's key 47-yard field goal to start the fourth look to have put the Bulldogs in firm control, up 24-17, before K-State mounted its comeback. The Bulldogs turned it over three times on the day, but did outgain the Wildcats 352-269. Leo Lewis produced a game-high 12 tackles, while Brian Cole II continued his hot start to the year with six tackles, one punishing strip sack and two tackles for loss.

Shrader, MSU Close Out UK in SEC Opener, 28-13

The stage wasn't too big for true freshman quarterback Garrett Shrader in MSU's SEC opener. Shrader, making his first career start in just his third collegiate game, accounted for 305 yards of total offense, including 125 rushing on 11 carries, to lift the Bulldogs past Kentucky, 28-13, on Saturday in Davis Wade Stadium. Shrader was just the second MSU true freshman QB to start in an SEC game in the last 12 years. He was an efficient 17-of-22 for 180 yards through the air. Shrader accounted for all six of the Bulldogs' 20+ yard plays in the game. Kylin Hill was spectacular again, becoming the first Bulldog to rush for 100 or more yards in the first four games of a season. Hill rushed for 120 yards on 26 carries with a career-best three touchdowns. The Bulldogs got on the board via their defense on the fifth play of the game. Willie Gay Jr., in on his first play of the year after missing the first three games due to a violation of team rules, stepped in front of a Sawyer Smith pass and returned it 52 yards for a touchdown. The Bulldogs chewed up clock in the second quarter with impressive drives. Hill finished one on a 12-yard highlight reel touchdown run as he leaped from the four-yard line and extended the ball inside the pylon for the score. On the ensuing possession, Shrader engineered a 10-play, 80-yard drive that took 5:00. His 36-yard rush set up another Hill touchdown that made it 21-3 at the half. The Wildcats responded with 10 unanswered. With the score a one-possession game and 4:32 remaining, Shrader conducted a six-play, 75 yard drive and extended the drive with a 49-yard rush on third down. Hill finished it off with another score. The Bulldogs held Kentucky to 1-of-12 on third down. C.J. Morgan led MSU with nine tackles. Jaquarius Landrews added seven tackles and a game-high four pass breakups.

Big First Half Carries No. 7 Auburn Past MSU, 56-23

No. 7 Auburn, playing its SEC home opener, scored 21 straight points in the first seven minutes of the game and never looked back as MSU fell 56-23, in a sold-out night game in Jordan-Hare Stadium. The Bulldogs went three and out on their first series, and the Tigers immediately capitalized with great field position and scored on their first play from scrimmage. The score was 21-0 after Auburn took advantage of a JaVonta Payton fumble on a kickoff. MSU starting quarterback Tommy Stevens suffered a lower body injury on the second series of the game and missed the remainder of the contest. He was once again spelled by true freshman Garrett Shrader. Shrader, in his first SEC road appearance, accounted for all three Bulldog touchdowns, firing two TD passes and adding a rushing score. He finished with 298 yards of total offense and got MSU on the board after finishing off a 12-play, 75-yard drive with a Stephen Guidry 9-yard pass late in the first quarter. MSU trailed 42-9 at the break, and added touchdowns courtesy of Osirus Mitchell and Shrader. His 7-yard touchdown run with 0:50 remaining put him at 89 rushing yards on the night against a stellar Auburn defense. Farrod Green led MSU in receiving with 69 yards. Leo Lewis and C.J. Morgan led all Bulldog tacklers with eight apiece. Lewis had seven solo stops, a tackle for a loss, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. MSU won the turnover battle, forcing three on the night to extend the consecutive streak to 21 straight games of a takeaway. The Bulldogs were without the services of six players on their two-deep depth chart.

Tennessee Tops MSU, 20-10, in Rare Knoxville Trip

Playing its first game in Neyland Stadium since 2008, MSU struggled offensively in a 20-10 loss to Tennessee on Saturday morning. The Bulldogs trailed 10-3 at the half. Jace Christmann provided MSU with its lone points of the first half, drilling a 51-yard field goal that bounced off the crossbar and through midway through the second quarter. The Bulldogs erased Tennessee drives in the red zone as Cameron Dantzler picked off Brian Maurer's pass in the end zone with 11:06 in the first quarter followed by Brian Cole II's pick in the en zone with 2:19 in the second quarter. Tommy Stevens got the start at quarterback from MSU but was spelled by true freshman Garrett Shrader to start the second half. Shrader completed the game and was effective, finishing 5-of-10 for 79 yards through the air. He connected with Dedrick Thomas on a 17-yard strike to complete an eight-play, 90-yard drive with 8:27 to play in the game. Shrader extended the drive with a gritty 12-yard run on fourth down. He finished with 62 rushing yards. The Vols put the game out of reach on a 39-yard touchdown pass down the sideline with 2:35 to go, which culminated a 90-yard drive. Erroll Thompson notched a game-high 13 tackles, including one for loss. MSU Falls To #2 LSU in Home CBS Contest, 36-13

With CBS making its first appearance in Davis Wade Stadium since 2015, No. 2 LSU jumped out to a 22-7 halftime lead and took advantage of three Mississippi State turnovers as the Bulldogs fell 36-13. MSU's defense did hold the Tigers' high-powered No. 1 offense to season lows in points (36) and total yards (413). State was within striking distance in the first half following Garrett Shrader's 12-yard TD run with 5:24 to go in the second quarter. Shrader, a true freshman making his second career start, accounted for 304 yards of total offense and two touchdowns on the day, throwing for a season-best 238 yards. He was State's leading rusher with 66 yards. MSU's defense limited LSU scoring drives to three field goals in the first two quarters, but the Tigers finished with two touchdowns in the final 5:05 of the first half. Stephen Guidry had his best game of the season, making six catches for 98 yards and one touchdown. Shrader found him on a 24-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter that capped a seven-play, 90-yard drive. Martin Emerson, another true freshman, got his first career start in place of an injured Maurice Smitherman. Seven Bulldogs accounted for at least 0.5 tackles for loss. Jaquarius Landrews turned in a team-high eight tackles. Chauncey Rivers collected a career-high 1.5 sacks, and C.J. Morgan registered a career-high four pass breakups.

MSU Drops Fourth Straight, 49-30, at Texas A&M

MSU turned it over three times and fell behind by 18 at the half as the Bulldogs lost their fourth consecutive game, 49-30, on Saturday afternoon at Texas A&M. The Bulldogs trailed 14-0 at the end of the first quarter, but Garrett Shrader found Stephen Guidry, who went up and grabbed a beautiful 32-yard pass in the endzone to make it 14-7 with 13:28 to go in the second quarter. MSU went four plays and 75 yards on that scoring drive. However, A&M answered with back-to-back scores to make it 28-7. Jace Christmann, making a return to his home state, drilled a 33-yard field goal just before the end of the first half. The Bulldogs were plagued by injuries going into the game and during the game as starting offensive linemen Stewart Reese and Greg Eiland as well as both starting cornerbacks. True freshmen Jarrian Jones and Martin Emerson made the start at corner. The Bulldogs offense picked up the pace in the second half as Shrader fired two touchdown passes to graduate transfer Isaiah Zuber, who had his best day of the season. Kylin Hill added a 1-yard touchdown run, capping a nine-play, 79-yard drive to start the fourth quarter. Hill finished with a game-high 150 yards on the ground for his fifth 100-yard game of the season. MSU's defense only managed two tackles for loss and no sacks on the day against a high-powered Aggie offense. Brian Cole II finished with a game-high nine tackles and one quarterback hurry, while Jaquarius Landrews collected eight tackles and one QB hurry. Chauncey Rivers and Cameron Young tallied a tackle for loss apiece.
