THE MATCHUP: GAME 5

MISSISSIPPI STATE BULLDOGS (3-1, 1-0 SEC)

#7/7 AUBURN TIGERS (4-0, 1-0 SEC)

September 28, 2019 • 6 p.m. CT • Auburn, Ala. • Jordan-Hare Stadium (87,451)

STORYLINES

- With a 1-0 start to SEC play for the third time in four years, the Bulldogs will play its first SEC road game of the season Saturday when they travel to Auburn, Alabama, to take on the No. 7 Tigers in an ESPN primetime showdown.
- State enters the game with a 3-1 mark (1-0 SEC) following last week's 28-13 win at home against Kentucky. Auburn is 4-0 overall and 1-0 in SEC action, highlighted by victories over No. 13 Oregon and No. 23 Texas A&M.
- This will be MSU's first game against a ranked opponent this season. The last time State earned a road SEC win was in 2017 at No. 24 Texas A&M (35-14). MSU's 34-29 win at No. 8 LSU in 2014 was its last road win over a top-10 team.
- State won last year's meeting against Auburn in Starkville, 23-9. The win was the Bulldogs' largest margin of victory over a top-10 team since beating No. 2 Auburn, 38-23, on Oct. 11, 2014, a game that catapulted MSU to its first No. 1 ranking. Since that memorable season, MSU has produced five victories over top-10 teams.
- The Bulldogs have won four out of their last five SEC games and six of their last eight, dating back to last season.
- QB Garrett Shrader was named SEC Freshman of the Week after leading MSU past Kentucky, 28-13, in its SEC opener last Saturday in his first career start. He accounted for 305 yards of total offense, including rushing for 125 yards on 11 carries, and was an efficient 17-of-22 for 180 yards through the air.
- QB Garrett Shrader is the first MSU offensive freshman to earn SEC Freshman of the Week honors since RB LaDarius Perkins on Nov. 27, 2010. He is the first overall since LB Leo Lewis' performance in the Egg Bowl on Nov. 28, 2016, and he is the first MSU true freshman quarterback to earn the honor. QB Tyler Russell captured it as a redshirt freshman on Sept. 4, 2010 vs. Memphis.
- RB Kylin Hill is arguably the most dominant rusher in the nation so far this season and on his way to being one of the most prolific running backs in MSU history. Hill has rushed 91 times for an SEC-best 551 yards (6.1 yards per carry) and five touchdowns. He leads or is tied for the SEC lead in nine different categories and is top five in the FBS in six.
- MSU and Ohio State are the only teams in the Power 5 to rush for 200+ yards in four games this season. Under head coach Joe Moorhead, State has topped the 200-yard rushing mark 12 times out of 17 games. State's 12 games with 200+ rushing yards since 2018 are tied for the most in the SEC and tied for second most in the Power 5 during that stretch.
- DC Bob Shoop's defense has recorded a takeaway in 20 straight games, which is the second longest active streak in the nation. The streak began at Arkansas on Nov. 18, 2017. State has totaled 38 takeaways during the streak.
- S Brian Cole II leads the SEC in tackles for loss (5.5) which is also tied for second most in the FBS among defensive backs. Cole also has a team-high 2.0 sacks, which is the most in the SEC among defensive backs. He has recorded at least 1.0 tackle for loss in three of four games this season and has a sack in two of the last three weeks. Cole is also tied for the SEC lead in total pressures with a pair of sacks and three hurries, according to Pro Football Focus.

33RD HEAD FOOTBALL COACH AT MISSISSIPPI STATE 2016 & 2017 NATIONAL OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR OF THE YEAR

When Mississippi State Director of Athletics John Cohen was charged with identifying the Bulldogs' 33rd head football coach, he was looking for a man with a pedigree as a winner, an innovator with a blue-collar work ethic and at the forefront, a 'ball coach.' From the beginning of the search, Joe Moorhead was the unequivocal leader. Moorhead, the 2016 and 2017 National Offensive Coordinator of the Year and the mastermind behind Penn State's offensive juggernaut, enters his second season in Starkville in 2019. Officially named head coach on November 29, 2017, Moorhead became just the second MSU head coach to win eight or more games on the field in his debut season and the first since College Football Hall of Famer Allyn McKeen in 1939. The 45-year-old played a pivotal role in conference championships at his four previous coaching stops, including Penn State (2016), Fordham (2014), Connecticut (2010) and Akron (2005).

In his short time in Starkville, the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, native has already made a marvelous impact, securing a Top 25 national ranking, a New Year's Day bowl berth, multiple Top 25 recruiting classes, forming relationships around the state of Mississippi and developing a 'good to great' attitude within the program.

Behind one of the SEC's most potent rushing attacks and the nation's No. 1 defense, Moorhead's first State squad defeated two top-20 teams by double digits, won four out of its last five regular-season games and qualified for a school-record ninth-consecutive bowl. The Bulldogs dominated then-No. 8 Auburn, 23-9, on Oct. 6, while quarterback Nick Fitzgerald accounted for 329 yards of total offense as State put away then-No. 16 Texas A&M, 28-13, on Oct. 28.

MSU reclaimed the historic Golden Egg trophy when the Bulldogs throttled rival Ole Miss, 35-3, on Thanksgiving night in Oxford. It represented the largest margin of victory by a first-year MSU head coach in Egg Bowl history. The win also propelled State to a berth in its first-ever Outback Bowl, representing the program's second-most prestigious bowl this decade. Moorhead became just the second coach in Bulldog history to reach a bowl game in his first season, joining Jackie Sherrill's 1991 squad.

State held eight of its opponents to their lowest point total of the season, including then-No. 1 Alabama, No. 10 Florida and No. 16 Texas A&M. Moorhead's first Bulldog team secured the program's second-highest finish ever in the College Football Playoff rankings at No. 18, as well as a No. 25 ranking in the final Coaches poll.

For only the second time in program history and the first since 2000, MSU produced four All-Americans led by first-teamers defensive end Montez Sweat and center Elgton Jenkins as well as safety Johnathan Abram and defensive tackle Jeffery

Simmons. Under Moorhead's guidance, Fitzgerald secured his place as one of the best dual-threat quarterbacks in SEC history as he became the conference's all-time leading quarterback rusher in addition to shattering 13 school records. Six players also earned All-SEC distinction for their year-long performance.

The Bulldogs then made a major impact in the winter and spring of 2019. A school-record eight MSU players were invited to the NFL Combine. In April, three Bulldogs were called in the first round of the 2019 NFL Draft – a first in program history – as Simmons went No. 19 overall (Tennessee), Sweat went No. 26 (Washington) and Abram followed at No. 27 (Oakland). State's three first-round selections tied with Clemson and Alabama for the most in the nation. MSU finished with a three-day total of five draft selections, including Jenkins going in the second round to Green Bay and Gerri Green being chosen by Indianapolis in the sixth round. The four defensive picks were the most in a single draft in school history. An additional seven other Bulldogs signed free agent contracts, including Fitzgerald with Tampa Bay.

Moorhead's recruiting prowess has been evident as well. A year after signing the nation's No. 25 class after just a few weeks on the job, he hauled in the No. 24 ranked class in the spring of 2019 highlighted by the signing of Charles Cross, the first five-star offensive lineman prospect in MSU history and first overall offensive five star since 2002. Moorhead's 12 four-star or greater signees were the most in a two-year span at MSU since at least 2000 when recruiting database rankings began.

Off the field, Moorhead's group has been model citizens in the community and classroom. A total of 32 Bulldogs were recognized on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in his first season. The same fall as State finished in the Top 25 of the final polls, the Bulldogs posted the highest team GPA on record with a 2.84, as five student-athletes earned a perfect 4.0.

As a collegiate student-athlete at Fordham, Moorhead was a three-year starter at quarterback and a team captain as a senior. He was a second-team All-Patriot League pick as a senior, finishing 13th nationally in total offense. He graduated with school single-season records for completions and passing yards. Following his collegiate career, Moorhead spent time in the training camp of the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League after playing the 1996 season for the Munich Cowboys of the E.F.A.F.

Moorhead received an English degree from Fordham in 1996. He and his wife, Jennifer, have three children: daughter Kyra (18), son Mason (16) and son Donovan (12). Moorhead, an avid Pittsburgh Steelers and Pirates fan, and his family are active members of the Starkville community.

MSU Grinds Out 23-9 Win Over No. 8 Auburn

MSU snapped a two-game losing streak in a big way, punishing No. 8 Auburn with smashmouth football in a 23-9 victory on Saturday night in Davis Wade Stadium. The Bulldogs rushed for 349 yards and averaged 6.1 yards per carry. Auburn came into the contest having allowed only one rushing touchdown and 92.8 yards per game on the ground all year, which was second in the SEC. Nick Fitzgerald led the way, pounding out 195 yards on 28 carries and two touchdowns. In the process, Fitzgerald became the SEC's all-time leader in quarterback rushing yards, shattering Tim Tebow's record. Fitzgerald accounted for 264 yards of total offense and plunged in from 1-yard as time expired in the first half to lift the Bulldogs to a 13-3 lead. Jace Christmann tied a career high with three made field goals. He culminated a 13-play, 8:05 drive on the first possession of the second half with a 32-yard field goal. Fitzgerald put the game out of reach with a 21-yard TD run with 2:02 to go in the game. State's defense limited Auburn to 90 yards rushing, while Montez Sweat recorded three sacks - all in the second half. Mark McLaurin was the Bulldogs' leading tackler, collecting 10 and forcing a critical fumble in the third quarter. Auburn's JaTarvious Whitlow scampered 41 yards but McLaurin, not giving up on the play, popped the ball out at the 1-yard line to force a touchback. The score would have cut MSU's lead to three points at the time. The victory was the Bulldogs' largest margin of victory over a top 10 team since 2014.

MSU Tops Louisiana In New Orleans, 38-28

Playing its first game in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome since 2007, MSU used 497 yards of total offense in Tommy Stevens' debut as quarterback to defeat Louisiana, 38-28, in New Orleans. Kylin Hill rushed for 197 yards on 27 carries, representing the highest rushing output by a Bulldog in a season opener in program history. Stevens, the graduate transfer from Penn State, didn't waste any time in making an impact as he orchestrated a six-play, 74-yard drive that culminated with a beautiful over-the-shoulder throw to Osirus Mitchell for a 31-yard touchdown with 12:27 in the first quarter. With the score tied at 14 all, MSU reeled off 21 unanswered points behind the Stevens-Hill combo. Both accounted for rushing touchdowns. Malik Dear's 40-yard punt return early in the fourth quarter set up a Stevens-to-Austin Williams 12-yard passing score on the ensuing play to make it 35-14. Stevens finished 20-of-30 with 236 yards passing. The Ragin' Cajuns rallied with 14 straight points, including a 99-yard drive late in the game. Jordan Lawless' first career made field goal, a 37-yarder with 1:02 to go, pushed it to a double-digit margin. Erroll Thompson led all tacklers with 10 and a fumble recovery. State forced four turnovers - three fumbles and one interception. Cameron Dantzler added seven tackles, one fumble recovery and an interception on UL's first offensive play of the game.

State Soars Past Golden Eagles in Home Opener, 38-15

In one of the hottest games in Davis Wade Stadium history, MSU jumped out to a 28-0 lead and secured a 38-15 victory over in-state foe Southern Miss to open the home 2019 slate. Kickoff temperature was 94 degrees, representing the hottest in Davis Wade Stadium since 1998. The heat had no effect on the Bulldogs, however. Tommy Stevens, making his Starkville debut, completed his first nine passes for 105 yards and two touchdowns before exiting the game due to injury late in the second quarter. Stevens' hot streak to start the game represented the most consecutive completions by an MSU QB since Dak Prescott against Arkansas in 2015. For the second straight game, the combination of Stevens to Osirus Mitchell put the Bulldogs on the board on the first drive. Stevens found Mitchell for a 28-yard touchdown with 9:36 to play, and he later connected with Stephen Guidry for an 11-yard score. The day belonged to Kylin Hill, who put on a show rushing for 123 yards and one touchdown against a stingy USM defense that was ranked in the top three nationally a year ago. True freshman Garrett Shrader spelled Stevens and fared well, going 7-of-11 in his first career action. MSU managed three takeaways, including interceptions from C.J. Morgan and true freshman Martin Emerson. Brian Cole II led all tacklers with seven, including one sack and 2.5 tackles for loss. Marquiss Spencer added one strip sack.

Kansas State Edges MSU, 31-24

Kylin Hill rushed for over 100 yards for the third consecutive game, but it was not enough as Kansas State scored 14 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to beat MSU, 31-24, on a hot morning kickoff in Davis Wade Stadium. It was the first meeting between the two teams in Starkville since 1974 and the first Power 5 non-conference team to visit Davis Wade Stadium since 2009. Malik Knowles took a kickoff back 100 yards for the Wildcats to tie the game at 24 all with 14:36 to go in the fourth. MSU was unable to muster anything offensively and K-State went 53 yards on six plays that culminated with a 15-yard touchdown pass with 5:37 to go. Tommy Stevens, battling an upper body injury sustained a week earlier, got the start but did not return early in the third quarter. The Bulldogs were decimated with injuries with CB Cameron Dantzler, RB Nick Gibson and OL Dareuan Parker all out. Stevens helped erase a 10-0 deficit, rushing for a two-yard touchdown following a muffed punt from the Wildcats. Osirus Mitchell then made a spectacular one-handed, 35-yard touchdown grab with 0:09 left in the half. True freshman Garrett Shrader spelled Stevens in the third quarter and displayed his toughness, orchestrating a 12-play, 79-yard drive that ate up 6:50. He finished it off with a two-yard touchdown dive. Jace Christmann's key 47-yard field goal to start the fourth look to have put the Bulldogs in firm control, up 24-17, before K-State mounted its comeback. The Bulldogs turned it over three times on the day, but did outgain the Wildcats 352-269. Leo Lewis produced a game-high 12 tackles, while Brian Cole II continued his hot start to the year with six tackles, one punishing strip sack and two tackles for loss.

Shrader, MSU Close Out UK in SEC Opener, 28-13

The stage wasn't too big for true freshman quarterback Garrett Shrader in MSU's SEC opener. Shrader, making his first career start in just his third collegiate game, accounted for 305 yards of total offense, including 125 rushing on 11 carries, to lift the Bulldogs past Kentucky, 28-13, on Saturday in Davis Wade Stadium. Shrader was just the second MSU true freshman QB to start in an SEC game in the last 12 years. He was an efficient 17-of-22 for 180 yards through the air. Shrader accounted for all six of the Bulldogs' 20+ yard plays in the game. Kylin Hill was spectacular again, becoming the first Bulldog to rush for 100 or more yards in the first four games of a season. Hill rushed for 120 yards on 26 carries with a career-best three touchdowns. The Bulldogs got on the board via their defense on the fifth play of the game. Willie Gay Jr., in on his first play of the year after missing the first three games due to a violation of team rules, stepped in front of a Sawyer Smith pass and returned it 52 yards for a touchdown. The Bulldogs chewed up clock in the second quarter with impressive drives. Hill finished one on a 12-yard highlight reel touchdown run as he leaped from the four-yard line and extended the ball inside the pylon for the score. On the ensuing possession, Shrader engineered a 10-play, 80-yard drive that took 5:00. His 36-yard rush set up another Hill touchdown that made it 21-3 at the half. The Wildcats responded with 10 unanswered. With the score a one-possession game and 4:32 remaining, Shrader conducted a six-play, 75 yard drive and extended the drive with a 49-yard rush on third down. Hill finished it off with another score. The Bulldogs held Kentucky to 1-of-12 on third down. C.J. Morgan led MSU with nine tackles. Jaquarius Landrews added seven tackles and a game-high four pass breakups.
