VS

August 31, 2019 • 11 a.m. CT • New Orleans, La. • Mercedes-Benz Superdome (74,295)

STORYLINES

- The 120th season of Mississippi State football will commence on Saturday, Aug. 31, when the Bulldogs take on the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns in New Orleans at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. The matchup will be the Bulldogs' first regular-season trip to the Superdome since defeating Tulane, 38-17, behind a 141-yard rushing performance from Anthony Dixon on Sept. 8, 2007. State owns a 6-2 mark all-time in the Superdome. MSU has won nine straight against non-conference opponents in the regular season.
- Joe Moorhead announced on Aug. 22 that Tommy Stevens was named the team's starting quarterback. Stevens joined MSU as a graduate transfer this offseason, reuniting with Moorhead who was his offensive coordinator at Penn State from 2016-17.
- MSU is 4-1 in the all-time series versus Louisiana dating back to 1908, and eased past the Ragin' Cajuns last season 56-10. Prior to last season, the two programs had not met since Sept. 5 1987 in Starkville. The Bulldogs won that game, 31-3.
- It's the first time State has opened a season away from home since 2015, when they beat Southern Miss 34-16 in Hattiesburg.
- It's the first time MSU has opened a season at a neutral site since 2013 against No. 13 Oklahoma State at Reliant Stadium in Houston, where the Cowboys defeated the Bulldogs 21-3.
- Only nine times has State played a game in August, and the last time was the opener of the historic 2014 season. MSU shut out Southern Miss 49-0 and went on to win its next eight games and served as the No. 1 team in the country for five straight weeks.
- Joe Moorhead enters his second season in Starkville after becoming just the second MSU head coach to win eight or more games in his debut season and the first since College Football Hall of Famer Allyn McKeen in 1939. Moorhead was also just the second coach in Bulldog history to reach a bowl game in his first season, joining Jackie Sherrill's 1991 squad.
- The Bulldogs return 49 letterwinners and several key names, including ALL-SEC performers linebacker Erroll Thompson and cornerback Cameron Dantzler, in addition to national player of the year candidate running back Kylin Hill and center Darryl Williams, who is a preseason ALL-American and projected as one of the top linemen in college football. Dantzler is also a preseason ALL-American.
- Joe Moorhead will continue to serve as the offensive playcaller. Moorhead is joined by three new coaches on offense - Tony Hughes (associate head coach/tight ends), Terry Richardson (assistant head coach/run game coordinator/running backs) and Michael Johnson (wide receivers). There are two new coaches on defense - Deke Adams (defensive line) and Chris Marve (defensive run game coordinator/linebackers).
- Defensively, MSU has continuity at the playcaller position for the first time since 2014 as 2018 Broyles Award finalist and national defensive coordinator of the year Bob Shoop enters his second year with the program. Shoop's unit was the best in college football last season, allowing the fewest yards per game (263.1) and fewest yards per play (4.13).
- Prior to spring camp in March, the Bulldogs spent two months conditioning under the direction of the program's new head strength and conditioning coach Cory Bichey, who served in the assistant role during the 2018 campaign and owns six years of SEC experience. Bichey replaced former head strength and conditioning coach Anthony Piroli, who reunited with new Tampa Bay Buccaneers head coach Bruce Arians after last season in January.

33RD HEAD FOOTBALL COACH AT MISSISSIPPI STATE 2016 & 2017 NATIONAL OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR OF THE YEAR

When Mississippi State Director of Athletics John Cohen was charged with identifying the Bulldogs' 33rd head football coach, he was looking for a man with a pedigree as a winner, an innovator with a blue-collar work ethic and at the forefront, a 'ball coach.' From the beginning of the search, Joe Moorhead was the unequivocal leader. Moorhead, the 2016 and 2017 National Offensive Coordinator of the Year and the mastermind behind Penn State's offensive juggernaut, enters his second season in Starkville in 2019. Officially named head coach on November 29, 2017, Moorhead became just the second MSU head coach to win eight or more games in his debut season and the first since College Football Hall of Famer Allyn McKeen in 1939. The 45-year-old played a pivotal role in conference championships at his four previous coaching stops, including Penn State (2016), Fordham (2014), Connecticut (2010) and Akron (2005).

In his short time in Starkville, the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, native has already made a marvelous impact, securing a Top 25 national ranking, a New Year's Day bowl berth, multiple Top 25 recruiting classes, forming relationships around the state of Mississippi and developing a 'good to great' attitude within the program.

Behind one of the SEC's most potent rushing attacks and the nation's No. 1 defense, Moorhead's first State squad defeated two top-20 teams by double digits, won four out of its last five regular-season games and qualified for a school-record ninth-consecutive bowl. The Bulldogs dominated then-No. 8 Auburn, 23-9, on Oct. 6, while quarterback Nick Fitzgerald accounted for 329 yards of total offense as State put away then-No. 16 Texas A&M, 28-13, on Oct. 28.

MSU reclaimed the historic Golden Egg trophy when the Bulldogs throttled rival Ole Miss, 35-3, on Thanksgiving night in Oxford. It represented the largest margin of victory by a first-year MSU head coach in Egg Bowl history. The win also propelled State to a berth in its first-ever Outback Bowl, representing the program's second-most prestigious bowl this decade. Moorhead became just the second coach in Bulldog history to reach a bowl game in his first season, joining Jackie Sherrill's 1991 squad.

State held eight of its opponents to their lowest point total of the season, including then-No. 1 Alabama, No. 10 Florida and No. 16 Texas A&M. Moorhead's first Bulldog team secured the program's second-highest finish ever in the College Football Playoff rankings at No. 18, as well as a No. 25 ranking in the final Coaches poll.

For only the second time in program history and the first since 2000, MSU produced four All-Americans led by first-teamers defensive end Montez Sweat and center Elgton Jenkins as well as safety Johnathan Abram and defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons. Under Moorhead's guidance, Fitzgerald secured his place as one of the best dual-threat quarterbacks in SEC history as he became the conference's all-time leading quarterback rusher in addition to shattering 13 school records. Six players also earned All-SEC distinction for their year-long performance.

The Bulldogs then made a major impact in the winter and spring of 2019. A school-record eight MSU players were invited to the NFL Combine. In April, three Bulldogs were called in the first round of the 2019 NFL Draft – a first in program history – as Simmons went No. 19 overall (Tennessee), Sweat went No. 26 (Washington) and Abram followed at No. 27 (Oakland). State's three first-round selections tied with Clemson and Alabama for the most in the nation. MSU finished with a three-day total of five draft selections, including Jenkins going in the second round to Green Bay and Gerri Green being chosen by Indianapolis in the sixth round. The four defensive picks were the most in a single draft in school history. An additional seven other Bulldogs signed free agent contracts, including Fitzgerald with Tampa Bay.

Moorhead's recruiting prowess has been evident as well. A year after signing the nation's No. 25 class after just a few weeks on the job, he hauled in the No. 24 ranked class in the spring of 2019 highlighted by the signing of Charles Cross, the first five-star offensive lineman prospect in MSU history and first overall offensive five star since 2002. Moorhead's 12 four-star or greater signees were the most in a two-year span at MSU since at least 2000 when recruiting database rankings began.

Off the field, Moorhead's group has been model citizens in the community and classroom. A total of 32 Bulldogs were recognized on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in his first season. The same fall as State finished in the Top 25 of the final polls, the Bulldogs posted the highest team GPA on record with a 2.84, as five student-athletes earned a perfect 4.0.

As a collegiate student-athlete at Fordham, Moorhead was a three-year starter at quarterback and a team captain as a senior. He was a second-team All-Patriot League pick as a senior, finishing 13th nationally in total offense. He graduated with school single-season records for completions and passing yards. Following his collegiate career, Moorhead spent time in the training camp of the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League after playing the 1996 season for the Munich Cowboys of the E.F.A.F.

Moorhead received an English degree from Fordham in 1996. He and his wife, Jennifer, have three children: daughter Kyra (18), son Mason (16) and son Donovan (12). Moorhead, an avid Pittsburgh Steelers and Pirates fan, and his family are active members of the Starkville community.

No. 16 MSU Strikes Early, Often in 56-10 Rout of Louisiana

Nick Fitzgerald's first home start of the year proved to be one of the best of his career. The senior quarterback accounted for six touchdowns - one shy of his SEC record - and No. 16 MSU moved to 3-0 with a 56-10 rout of Louisiana on Saturday night in Davis Wade Stadium. It was the first meeting between the two teams since 1987. The Bulldogs scored touchdowns on their first eight drives, punting only once on the night. Fitzgerald accounted for 350 yards of total offense, rushing for over 100 yards for the second-straight game. He tallied three rushing scores in the first half and connected with Stephen Guidry on the big strike of the night, a beautiful 39-yard touchdown pass to give the Bulldogs a 35-3 lead at the half. Aeris Williams saw his first significant action of the season, rushing for 101 yards on 11 carries with a touchdown. The Bulldogs amassed 607 yards of total offense. Tim Washington led all tacklers with a career-best nine and one tackle for loss. Leo Lewis added eight tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss. Johnathan Abram hauled in an interception in the third quarter, and Chauncey Rivers added two tackles for loss.
