STORYLINES

NO. 18 MSU, OLE MISS MEET IN 91ST EDITION OF BATTLE FOR THE GOLDEN EGG

No. 18 MSU and Ole Miss meet for the 115th time and the 91st edition of the Battle for the Golden Egg on Thanksgiving Night at 6:30 p.m. in Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. It's the second straight season and 23rd time the Egg Bowl has been played on Thanksgiving. State has won five out of the last nine meetings, including the largest victory since 1916 the last time in Oxford in 2016 by a margin of 55-20.

- MSU is coming off its largest victory over Arkansas in program history, a 52-6 win last Saturday.
- State erupted for 52 points against the Razorbacks, marking its fourth game of 45 or more points of the year. State's defense stymied another opponent, allowing just 219 yards of total offense, including 69 rushing.
- The Bulldogs are ranked for the 18th time in 20 weeks dating back to last season.
- All four of State's losses this season occurred to teams in the current top 20 of the national rankings.
- The Bulldogs did not allow a rushing touchdown the entire home slate of 2018 and opponents managed only three touchdowns on State in Davis Wade Stadium this season. MSU will carry a streak of 10 consecutive quarters without allowing a touchdown at home into next season. In addition, the Bulldogs won six or more home games for the third time since 2000 and the first time since going 7-0 in 2014.
- In his first year in Starkville, head coach Joe Moorhead's seven wins this season are currently the most by a first-year head coach at State since Jackie Sherrill went 7-5 in 1991.
- Defensive coordinator and Broyles Award semifinalist, Bob Shoop leads an MSU unit that has allowed an FBS-low 12 total touchdowns this season and leads the SEC in 13 different categories including scoring defense (12.8), passing defense (165.3), total defense (275.6) and red-zone touchdown percentage (25.81).
- QB Nick Fitzgerald was responsible for five touchdowns against Arkansas last Saturday (4 passing + 1 rushing) and enters the final regular-season game of his career with 96 total touchdowns responsible for, which ranks fifth among active FBS leaders and eighth in SEC history. No player in MSU history has rushed for more touchdowns in a career than Fitzgerald who has 43 to his credit.
- MSU is bowl eligible for a school-record ninth straight season. Entering 2018, MSU was one of five SEC teams who have been to a bowl every season this decade (Alabama, Georgia, LSU and Texas A&M the others).
- The 2018 senior class owns a 31-19 record, which puts them in a tie for sixth in MSU history among senior classes. One more win would give them fifth place. This senior class has reached a bowl game every year of their careers and produced multiple nine-win seasons. They own six victories over top 25 teams.
- All-America candidates and Bednarik Award semifinalists DT Jeffery Simmons (12.5) and DE Montez Sweat (12) have combined for 24.5 TFLs in 2018 after combining for 27.5 in 13 games last season.

33RD HEAD FOOTBALL COACH 2016 & 2017 NATIONAL OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR OF THE YEAR

Joe Moorhead, the mastermind behind Penn State's offensive juggernaut the past two seasons, was named Mississippi State's 33rd head football coach on November 29, 2017. Moorhead brings a championship standard mantra to Starkville centered on winning a Southeastern Conference Championship and competing for a national title. The 45-year-old has played a pivotal role in conference championships at his last four coaching stops, including Penn State (2016), Fordham (2014), Connecticut (2010) and Akron (2005).

Moorhead is in his 21st in collegiate coaching and his fifth as a head coach. In his short time in Starkville, the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, native has already made a marvelous impact, securing a Top 25 recruiting class just weeks on the job, hiring an elite coaching staff, forming relationships around the state of Mississippi and developing a 'good to great' attitude within the program.

Moorhead received national acclaim during the 2016 and 2017 seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach on James Franklin's Penn State staff. Tabbed as Sports Illustrated and Yahoo's No. 1 rising assistant in college football in August 2017, Moorhead transformed the Nittany Lions offensively and spearheaded them to a combined 21-5 record, a 17-3 mark in Big Ten regular season play, the 2016 Big Ten Championship, two New Year's Six bowls and back-to-back Top 10 national rankings.

Explosive, balanced offenses have been a trademark of Moorhead at every stop of his career. Penn State scored at least 30 points in 21 of the 26 games he coached, and they averaged 39.4 points per game during that span.

The 2017 campaign saw the Nittany Lions rank in the Top 25 nationally in seven different offensive categories, including seventh in points per game (41.1), fifth in third conversion percentage (48.0), 14th in passing efficiency (153.6), 17th in yards per play (6.55), 19th in total offense (460.3), 23rd in passing yards per game (290.2) and 21st in red zone conversion percentage (89.8). They also produced four 50-point games, representing the most in a Penn State season since 1994.

Moorhead's expertise was evident in the development of quarterback Trace McSorley and running back Saquon Barkley. Together they formed one of the elite backfields in all of college football. McSorley, a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, became just the second player in Big Ten history to register 25 passing touchdowns and 10 rushing scores in a single season. He also was the first player in program history to produce multiple seasons of 3,000 yards passing. Barkley, a consensus All-American and the first running back in Big Ten history to claim multiple Conference Offensive Player of the Year honors, ranked second nationally in all-purpose yards in 2017 (2,329). He broke four school career records, including rushing touchdowns (43), total touchdowns (53), all-purpose yards (5,538) and consecutive games with a touchdown (15) in just three seasons.

Four of Moorhead's offensive players heard their names called in the first four rounds of the 2018 NFL Draft, while two additional ones signed undrafted free agent contracts. Barkley led the way with the No. 2 overall selection, becoming the highest drafted Nittany Lion in 19 years and the highest drafted running back overall since Reggie Bush in 2006.

The 2016 season saw Moorhead earn National Offensive Coordinator of the Year honors by 247Sports, a year in which the Nittany Lions claimed their first outright Big Ten Championship in two decades and berth in the Rose Bowl. They reeled off nine straight conference victories and finished the year 11-3 highlighted by triumphs over No. 2 Ohio State and No. 6 Wisconsin.

In Moorhead's first season, Penn State shattered then-school records for total offense (6,056), passing yards (3,650) and points scored (526). The Nittany Lions improved their scoring average by a staggering 14.4 points from 2015 to 2016, which ranked fourth nationally. They racked up 30 or more points in 11 games, which was the most since the 1994 squad.

Moorhead is no stranger to building and maintaining a program as a head coach. Prior to his stint at Penn State, he posted a 38-13 record as head coach at Fordham University from 2012-15. After inheriting a program that went 1-10, he steadily built the Rams into a Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) powerhouse, leading them to their best season in program history in 2013 and the Patriot League title in 2014. They reached the FCS playoffs in three straight seasons under his watch.

During his tenure, Moorhead produced the highest ranking in program history (No. 5 in 2013), the highest final ranking in program history (No. 9 in 2013 and 2014), the first two wins over FBS schools in program history and the first two wins over Top 10 opponents in school history.

As a collegiate performer at Fordham, Moorhead was a three-year starter at quarterback and a team captain as a senior. He was a second-team All-Patriot League pick as a senior, finishing 13th nationally in total offense. He graduated with school single-season records for completions and passing yards. Following his collegiate career, Moorhead spent time in the training camp of the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League after playing the 1996 season for the Munich Cowboys of the E.F.A.F.

The son of a steel mill worker, Moorhead received an English degree from Fordham in 1996.

THE LAST MEETING

Ole Miss 31 Nov. 23, 2017 • Davis Wade Stadium
#14/16/17 MSU 28 Starkville, Miss.

Nick Fitzgerald fractured his right ankle with MSU trailing 7-0 with 9:13 remaining in the first quarterback, and five turnovers proved to be costly for the Bulldogs in a 31-28 loss to Ole Miss on a cold Thanksgiving night in Davis Wade Stadium. Fitzgerald was carted off the field and then spelled by true freshman Keytaon Thompson, who registered his first career 100-yard rushing game. Thompson ran for a score and threw for a score. MSU outgained the Rebels 501-355 on the night. The Bulldogs nearly rallied from a 31-13 fourth-quarter deficit by scoring 22 points in the final period. True freshman Kylin Hill produced his longest rushing touchdown of the year, a 30-yarder, with 4:58 to play to cut the deficit to 31-21. MSU then forced a three-and-out, and Thompson capped an 8-play, 62-yard drive with a 1-yard score with 1:05 to go. With the Bulldogs trailing 31-28, the Rebels recovered MSU's on-side kick attempt and then ran out the clock. It marked the first time since 2013 that the Egg Bowl returned to Thanksgiving Night in primetime on ESPN. Johnathan Abram led MSU with eight tackles. Erroll Thompson had five tackles and 1.5 sacks, while Mark McLaurin registered an interception. The Bulldogs were also without the services of two of its captains to injury - top linebacker Dez Harris and top wide receiver Donald Gray.

NOTING THE OFFENSIVE LINE

MSU's offensive line was one of 14 named to the Joe Moore Award's midseason honor roll on Oct. 16. The Joe Moore Award is named in honor of Joe Moore, who was a long time offensive line coach at the collegiate level.

State's starting offensive line in each of the first five games was Greg Eiland (LT), Darryl Williams (LG), Elgton Jenkins (C), Deion Calhoun (RG), Stewart Reese (RT). In Game 6 against Auburn on Oct. 6, Michael Story got the start at LG in place of injured Williams. Williams returned the following week and has started each of the last five games.

MSU and Georgia are the only two SEC teams with multiple guards ranked in the top 10 in run blocking this season (Darryl Williams (71.2) and Deion Calhoun (70.7)).

- Senior Elgton Jenkins is in his second year as the starter at center and is a candidate for the Rimington Trophy. The other starting senior is right guard Deion Calhoun, who owns the most starts on the line with 34. Jenkins was MSU's highest performer in the season opener vs. Stephen F. Austin, grading out at 92 percent with a pair of knockdowns. In Week 3 against Louisiana, Jenkins did not allow any QB pressures as MSU's offense racked up 607 yards of total offense in a 56-10 win. The Bulldogs amassed 331 yards rushing and averaged 8.5 yards per play. Jenkins earned SEC Offensive Lineman of the week honors for his performance. Against then-No. 8 Auburn on Oct. 6, Calhoun led a Bulldog offensive line in a 23-9 dismantling of the Tigers. Calhoun registered a career-best six knockdowns and paved the way for one of the most dominating rushing attacks in school history. The Bulldogs rushed for 349 yards and did not allow a sack against one of the top defensive lines in college football. Calhoun helped pave the way for a Bulldog attack that averaged 6.1 yards per carry. Auburn came into the contest having allowed only one rushing touchdown and 92.8 yards per game on the ground all year, which was second in the SEC. The 349 rushing yards were the most allowed by Auburn since LSU had 411 on Sept. 9, 2015. It was only the third time in the last six seasons that Auburn allowed over 300 yards rushing.

- Junior Darryl Williams is a force at one of the guard positions. He had an impressive six knockdowns at Kansas State in Week 2. Williams was named to Pro Football Focus' National Team of the Week following his Week 3 performance vs. Louisiana. He finished with a clean sheet in pass protection, and on carries to either side of Williams, Bulldog running backs averaged 9.6 yards per carry, gaining 134 yards on just 14 attempts. Most recently against LA Tech on Nov. 3, Williams graded out at 92 percent and tallied three knockdowns as MSU racked up 532 yards of total offense in a 45-3 win. Williams paved the way for 289 rushing yards by the Bulldogs as they averaged 8.2 yards per play. Williams also did not allow a sack.

- The tackles are manned by sophomore Stewart Reese and sophomore Greg Eiland. Eiland started four games at left tackle last season in place of an injured Martin Rankin. Eiland, making the start at left tackle, graded out at 92 percent with two knockdowns and helped lead MSU to its first victory over a Power 5 non-conference team on the road since 1995 in Week 2 at Kansas State. Eiland and the Bulldogs did not give up a sack and they paved the way for an MSU rushing attack that pounded out 384 yards on the ground. It was the most rushing yards allowed by Kansas State since Oct. 7, 2010, when Nebraska rushed for 451 yards.

FITZ EARNS MSU-RECORD 6TH SEC POW HONOR + NATIONAL HONORS

Following MSU's 28-13 win over No. 16 Texas A&M, QB Nick Fitzgerald was named the SEC Co-Offensive Player of the Week on Oct. 29. It marked the second time this season Fitzgerald has brought home the laurel and the sixth time in his career he has been named SEC Offensive Player of the Week, which surpassed Dak Prescott for the most selections in MSU history. Behind a four-touchdown performance, Fitzgerald led the MSU offense to its second victory over a top-20 team this season. In addition, Fitzgerald was named to the Davey O'Brien Award's "Great 8" list for Week 9 by the award's selection committee and was one of eight quarterbacks announced as a Star of the Week by the Manning Award. Fitzgerald accounted for 329 yards of total offense and four touchdowns, including a career-long, game-clinching 76-yard touchdown run with 2:17 remaining in the game. The Richmond Hill, Georgia, native threw for 241 yards on 14-of-22 passing and two touchdowns.

MSU put together a physically dominant performance on both sides of the ball in its 23-9 win against then-No. 8 Auburn on Oct. 6.

- MSU's 349 rushing yards were the most allowed by Auburn since LSU had 411 on Sept. 9, 2015. It was only the third time in the past six years, the Tigers allowed more than 300.

- State's 23 points were the most Auburn had allowed all season.
- Auburn entered the game averaging more than 20 first downs a game and were held to 15 (5 rush/9 pass).
- MSU did not allow a third-down conversion in Auburn's first seven attempts (nearly three quarters).
- Auburn was averaging 32.6 points per game heading into the game. State held the Tigers to just three field goals. It was the fewest points Auburn scored in a regular-season SEC game since a 13-7 loss at Georgia on Nov. 12, 2016.
- MSU scored twice on the ground. Auburn had allowed just one rushing TD in the previous five games.

SWEAT SWEEPS NATIONAL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF WEEK HONORS

Montez Sweat, the SEC leader in sacks a year ago and a candidate for virtually every national defensive player of the year award this season, was named SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week after his monster performance against then-No. 8 Auburn on Oct. 6. The honors kept rolling in throughout that week as Sweat was named Bednarik Player of the Week, given weekly by the Maxwell Football Club, and then Nagurski Trophy National Defensive Player of the Week by the FWAA. Against the Tigers, Sweat turned in a career-best three sacks for a loss of 27 yards, forcing one fumble and adding two quarterback hurries that forced incompletions.

- In Auburn's backfield all night, became the first Bulldog with three or more sacks in a game since Willie Evans had three versus Tulane on Sept. 17, 2005.
- Was only the third Bulldog in the last 20 years to achieve the feat and the first in a conference game since Ed Smith versus Arkansas on Nov. 21, 1998. All three of Sweat's sacks came in the second half.
- All three sacks came in the second half, including two during Auburn's final drive of the game.
- The three-sack performance marked just the fourth time an SEC player has scored three or more sacks in a conference game this season.

FITZ EARNS SEC OFFENSIVE POW AFTER WIN OVER AUBURN

Nick Fitzgerald was named SEC Offensive Player of the Week for the fifth time in his career on Oct. 8, after his impressive performance against then-No. 8 Auburn in Week 6. Fitzgerald accounted for 264 yards of total offense and two touchdowns in the win. He shattered Tim Tebow's SEC career record for rushing yards by a quarterback, rushing for 195 yards and scoring both of the Bulldogs' touchdowns. Fitzgerald's five SEC Offensive Player of the Week honors tied Dak Prescott for most in MSU history. Fitzgerald now sits at 2,999 rushing yards and 40 rushing TDs for his career.

- His 195 yards on the ground were the most by an FBS quarterback versus a Power 5 team this year.
- Eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark for the third time this season and 17th time in his career, tying Anthony Dixon (2006-09) for the school record.
- 195 rushing yards were the most Auburn has allowed by an individual since Alabama's Derrick Henry ran for 271 on the Tigers on Nov. 28, 2015.
- Eclipsed 8,000 yards of career total offense and ranks second in school history behind only Prescott (11,897).
- 10 runs resulted in either a first down or touchdown.
- Finished with five 15+ yard runs on the night.
- Had three 20+ yard runs, including a 21-yard TD scamper with 2:02 on the clock in the fourth quarter on third down to ultimately clinch the game.

HILL, SWEAT COLLECT WEEK 2 SEC HONORS

After leading the Bulldogs to a 31-10 victory at Kansas State to earn the program's first road victory over a Power 5 non-conference team since 1995, sophomore RB Kylin Hill and senior DE Montez Sweat were honored as SEC Players of the Week on Sept. 10 for Week 2.

- Hill led all SEC running backs in Week 2 with a career-best 221 yards rushing on 17 carries to average 12.4 yards per touch, and found the end zone three times en route to being named the SEC Offensive Player of the Week.
- Hill became the first MSU RB to win the honor since Josh Robinson in 2014.
- Picking up where he left off last season, Sweat earned his fourth Defensive Lineman of the Week honor of his career, which ties former Bulldog and current Philadelphia Eagle Fletcher Cox for the program record.
- Sweat registered three tackles, two tackles for loss and one sack against the Wildcats. The Stone Mountain, Georgia, native held Kansas State to just 213 yards of total offense, representing the Wildcats' fewest since putting up 110 against Oklahoma on Oct. 17, 2015.
- Sweat was also named Defensive Senior of the Week by the Senior Bowl on Sept. 10.

No. 18 State Routs SFA 63-6 To Usher In Moorhead Era

Keytaon Thompson, making just his second career start, tied the SEC and MSU single-game record for touchdowns responsible (7) while accounting for 473 yards of total offense in a 63-6 win over Stephen F. Austin to successfully open the Joe Moorhead era in Davis Wade Stadium. Thompson got the starting nod in place of Nick Fitzgerald, who was serving a one-game suspension for violation of team rules. Kylin Hill, making his first career start, opened the Moorhead era in an explosive way, hauling in a quick pass from Thompson and racing 53 yards on the Bulldogs' first play from scrimmage. Thompson did it with his feet and his arm, tying the MSU single-game record with five touchdown passes. The big play came on an 87-yard deep strike to Osirus Mitchell with 3:44 to go in the first quarter, representing the longest State pass play in 14 years. Thompson became just the third player in Bulldog history with over 300 yards passing and 100 yards rushing in the same game. He tallied his third-straight 100-yard game on the ground and added two scores. He State took a 35-3 lead into halftime following a brilliant one-handed, 17-yard touchdown grab from Dontea Jones with 1:01 in the second quarter. Defensively, Johnathan Abram made a game-high eight tackles. Montez Sweat and Jeffery Simmons combined for seven tackles for loss with two sacks coming from Sweat. C.J. Morgan also recorded his first career interception.

No. 18 MSU Physically Dominates Kansas State, 31-10

A rare non-conference road game against a Power 5 team proved to be an easy task for No. 18 MSU, who used a spectacular three-touchdown, 211-yard rushing game from Kylin Hill to dominate Kansas State, 31-10, in Manhattan. It was the Bulldogs' first road victory over a Power 5 non-conference team since 1995 and their largest since 1973 in such games. Hill became the first Bulldog running back with over 200 yards rushing in nine years, and much of it came after contact. Hill hauled in a 16-yard touchdown pass from Nick Fitzgerald, who returned as a starter for the first time since his ankle injury on Thanksgiving 2017. Then prior to the half, MSU used three quick plays and a 28-yard Hill touchdown scamper to go up 24-3 at the half. Fitzgerald threw his first touchdown of the season on a 13-yard slant to Austin Williams. Hill put the finishing touches on the win with a 16-yard run over defenders with 13:16 left in the game. Hill outgained the entire Kansas State team as the Wildcats finished with 213 total yards, their fewest since 2015. Fitzgerald went over 100 yards rushing for the sixth time in his last eight games. Defensively, Johnathan Abram led all tacklers for the second straight game with eight. Jeffery Simmons and Montez Sweat each registered two tackles for loss. Erroll Thompson shined with seven tackles, one sack and a diving interception that halted a KState drive.

No. 16 MSU Strikes Early, Often in 56-10 Rout of Louisiana

Nick Fitzgerald's first home start of the year proved to be one of the best of his career. The senior quarterback accounted for six touchdowns - one shy of his SEC record - and No. 16 MSU moved to 3-0 with a 56-10 rout of Louisiana on Saturday night in Davis Wade Stadium. It was the first meeting between the two teams since 1987. The Bulldogs scored touchdowns on their first eight drives, punting only once on the night. Fitzgerald accounted for 350 yards of total offense, rushing for over 100 yards for the second straight game. He tallied three rushing scores in the first half and connected with Stephen Guidry on the big strike of the night, a beautiful 39-yard touchdown pass to give the Bulldogs a 35-3 lead at the half. Aeris Williams saw his first significant action of the season, rushing for 101 yards on 11 carries with a touchdown. The Bulldogs amassed 607 yards of total offense. Tim Washington led all tacklers with a career-best nine and one tackle for loss. Leo Lewis added eight tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss. Johnathan Abram hauled in an interception in the third quarter, and Chauncey Rivers added two tackles for loss.

No. 14 MSU Drops SEC Opener at Kentucky, 28-7

Penalties proved to be problematic as Kentucky rushed for 229 yards to knock off No. 14 Mississippi State, 28-7, on a rainy Saturday night at Kroger Field. The Bulldogs were penalized 16 times for 139 yards and could not get into a rhythm offensively. State was held to just 201 total offensive yards and only 56 yards on the ground. After a scoreless first quarter, Nick Fitzgerald put the Bulldogs in front on a 1-yard touchdown run that culminated a 15-play, 80-yard drive. Kentucky reeled off 28 unanswered points highlighted by four consecutive touchdown runs from Benny Snell. Snell finished with 165 yards rushing. With MSU trailing 14-7, Brian Cole stalled a UK drive on a beautiful interception but the Bulldogs were unable to do anything with it. The Bulldogs had -9 yards of total offense in the fourth quarter. Erroll Thompson led all MSU tacklers with seven, including 0.5 sacks. Jeffery Simmons and Braxton Hoyett each gathered two tackles for loss, while Montez Sweat added 1.5 sacks.

MSU Grinds Out 23-9 Win Over No. 8 Auburn

MSU snapped a two-game losing streak in a big way, punishing No. 8 Auburn with smashmouth football in a 23-9 victory on Saturday night in Davis Wade Stadium. The Bulldogs rushed for 349 yards and averaged 6.1 yards per carry. Auburn came into the contest having allowed only one rushing touchdown and 92.8 yards per game on the ground all year, which was second in the SEC. Nick Fitzgerald led the way, pounding out 195 yards on 28 carries and two touchdowns. In the process, Fitzgerald became the SEC's all-time leader in quarterback rushing yards, shattering Tim Tebow's record. Fitzgerald accounted for 264 yards of total offense and plunged in from 1-yard as time expired in the first half to lift the Bulldogs to a 13-3 lead. Jace Christmann tied a career-high with three made field goals. He culminated a 13-play, 8:05 drive on the first possession of the second half with a 32-yard field goal. Fitzgerald put the game out of reach with a 21-yard TD run with 2:02 to go in the game. State's defense limited Auburn to 90 yards rushing, while Montez Sweat recorded three sacks - all in the second half. Mark McLaurin was the Bulldogs' leading tackler, collecting 10 and forcing a critical fumble in the third quarter. Auburn's JaTarvious Whitlow scampered 41 yards but McLaurin, not giving up on the play, popped the ball out at the 1-yard line to force a touchback. The score would have cut MSU's lead to three points at the time. The victory was the Bulldogs' largest margin of victory over a Top 10 team since 2014.

MSU Falls in Defensive Struggle at No. 5 LSU, 19-3

Nick Fitzgerald was intercepted four times and No. 22 Mississippi State was held out of the endzone in a 19-3 loss in front of 101,340 fans on Saturday night in Tiger Stadium. Fitzgerald did manage to rush for 131 yards on 23 carries. The Bulldogs outgained the Tigers 260-239, and the State defense held LSU to 3.3 yards per play. Turnovers proved to be the difference. On the Bulldogs' first series, Fitzgerald was intercepted by Michael Divinity, who returned it 31 yards to the MSU 3. That set up the Tigers' only touchdown of the night. State was pinned deep in its own territory for most of the night. With the score 10-3, LSU's Cole Tracy drilled the second of his four field goals on the first possession of the second half. On the ensuing possession, State turned it over on downs as Fitzgerald was sacked on fourth down. MSU's defense stood out with three Bulldogs collecting 10 tackles - Johnathan Abram, Mark McLaurin and Jeffery Simmons. Abram and Montez Sweat tallied a sack, while Cameron Dantzler, making a return to his home state, intercepted a pass.

Pass Game Emerges In 28-13 Win Over No. 16 Texas A&M

Nick Fitzgerald accounted for 329 yards of total offense and four touchdowns, including a career-long, game-clinching 76-yard TD run with 2:17 to play, as Mississippi State knocked off No. 16 Texas A&M, 28-13, on Saturday night in Davis Wade Stadium. Fitzgerald threw for a season-best 241 yards on 14-of-22 passing and two scores. He put the Bulldogs on the board early as Stephen Guidry started his big night with an over-the-shoulder 25-yard grab in the corner of the endzone. The Aggies responded with 10 unanswered points to take a 10-7 lead into the locker room, but MSU responded on its first possession of the second half. State went 75 yards on seven plays, culminating with a beautiful 38-yard touchdown catch from Osirus Mitchell to put the Bulldogs back in front 14-10. After A&M converted a field goal, Fitzgerald provided two fourth quarter rushing touchdowns. One of the many explosive plays of the night and facing the best third-down defense in the nation, Fitzgerald escaped a 3rd-and-21 to find Guidry for an 84-yard pass down to the Texas A&M 2-yard line. It was the fourth-longest pass in Bulldog history. Three plays later, Fitzgerald plunged into the endzone from 1-yard out. The Aggies began a potential game-tying drive that stalled when Kellen Mond was intercepted by Erroll Thompson in the endzone with 2:36 to play in the game. Two plays later, Fitzgerald put the finishing touches on the victory with his career-long 76-yard touchdown run. Johnathan Abram finished with nine tackles, while Jaquarius Landrews tallied the best game of his career with seven tackles, two sacks, 2.5 tackles for loss and three pass breakups. Fitzgerald finished 3-0 in his career as a starter vs. A&M.

Defense Shines In 24-0 Loss at No. 1 Alabama

Top-ranked Alabama jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter, and No. 16 Mississippi State was limited to 184 yards of total offense in a 24-0 loss in Bryant-Denny Stadium. The Bulldogs held the Tide to a field goal in the second half and held them to season lows in points, total yards (305), rushing yards (142), passing yards (163) and yards per play (4.2). State racked up four sacks and seven tackles for loss, which was the most issued by Alabama all season. The Bulldogs looked to have gotten on the board right before halftime. Kylin Hill broke through on a 38-yard rush followed by a 23-yard reception from Aeris Williams. Two plays later, Nick Fitzgerald found Hill who race into the endzone from 10 yards out. However, a controversial illegal block call on Deddrick Thomas negated the score. MSU then missed a 41-yard field goal as the half ended. The Bulldogs held Alabama to 89 total yards in the second half. Willie Gay Jr., making the start in place of Leo Lewis, had the best game of his career, recording a game-high nine tackles, two sacks and an interception. Johnathan Abram added nine tackles, while Jeffery Simmons had six tackles and two tackles for loss.

Fitzgerald Shines on Senior Day in 52-6 Win vs. Arkansas

Playing his final game in Davis Wade Stadium, Nick Fitzgerald accounted for five touchdowns and the Bulldog defense prevented Arkansas from reaching the endzone in a 52-6 win over the Razorbacks. It was the largest victory for State in the series history and only the second day game for the Bulldogs in 2018. MSU jumped out to a 17-0 lead utilizing a pair of touchdown runs - a 2-yarder by Fitzgerald and an 8-yarder by Nick Gibson. Fitzgerald overtook Anthony Dixon as MSU's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns. His final four completions of the day were all touchdown passes in the second half, including a 34-yarder to fellow senior Justin Johnson on the Bulldogs' first possession. Meanwhile, Johnathan Abram put on a clinic at safety, racking up a game-high and a career-best 12 tackles, 1.5 sacks, 3.5 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and two quarterback hurries. State accumulated five sacks and 12 tackles for loss on the day. Erroll Thompson added 10 tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss. C.J. Morgan recorded an interception. The Bulldogs closed their home slate with a 6-1 record and did not allow a rushing touchdown in Davis Wade Stadium the entire season.
