THE MATCHUP: GAME 6

MISSISSIPPI STATE BULLDOGS (3-2, 1-1 SEC)

at

TENNESSEE VOLUNTEERS (1-4, 0-2 SEC)

October 12, 2019 • 11 a.m. CT/Noon ET • Knoxville, Tenn. • Neyland Stadium (102,455)

STORYLINES

- For the first time since 2008, Mississippi State football will take on Tennessee in Knoxville's Neyland Stadium. Saturday's contest will kick off at 11 a.m. CT/12 p.m. ET and be televised by SEC Network.
- State is coming off an open week, the first of two open dates on the 2019 slate. For the fourth time in five seasons, the Bulldogs are 3-2 entering the sixth week of the season.
- MSU and Tennessee meet for the first time since 2012, and it will be just the third time both face off in Knoxville since 1996. The Vols return the trip to Starkville in 2024. Tennessee leads the all-time series 28-16-1.
- The Bulldogs, ranked 19th at the time, won the last meeting, 41-31, in Starkville on Oct. 13, 2012. Highlighted by 291 yards and a pair of touchdown passes from QB Tyler Russell as well as 100-yards rushing and a rushing score by RB LaDarius Perkins, State totaled 449 yards of total offense en route to the victory.
- MSU's win in 2012 was its first over the Vols since 1994 and snapped a six-game losing streak in the series.
- State's last win in Knoxville was in 1986. Coach Rocky Felker's Bulldogs came from behind to stun the No. 8 Vols, 27-23 in a mid-September matchup. State's victory was engineered by QB Don Smith, who capped an impressive passing day by running 62 yards to put the Bulldogs ahead, 27-23, with 4:40 remaining. Smith finished with 105 yards rushing. He completed 15 of 30 passes for 231 yards with touchdown throws of 43 yards to Fred Hadley and 12 and 5 yards to Louis Clark.
- Junior RB Kylin Hill is one of the most electrifying players in all of college football. Hill enters the October slate as the SEC's leading rusher and among the top 10 in rushing yards per game in the nation. He is seeking to become MSU's third straight 1,000-yard rusher in a season. Hill needs 404 yards to accomplish that feat.
- Behind four 100-yard rushing efforts in State's first five games, RB Kylin Hill enters Saturday's game with 596 rushing yards and five rushing touchdowns. He is averaging 119.2 rushing yards per game and 5.5 yards per carry. Hill also is averaging 133.2 yards from scrimmage per game. In addition, his 32 runs for a first down and 21 runs of 10+ yards each lead the SEC.
- The SEC's Freshman of the Week in Week 4 vs. Kentucky, true freshman QB Garrett Shrader has been solid both throwing and running over the first five games. Shrader is the only SEC quarterback with 300+ rushing yards and 500+ passing yards this season. In addition, he is one of only nine FBS quarterbacks (only SEC QB) with 300+ rushing yards, 500+ passing yards, multiple rushing touchdowns and multiple passing touchdowns.
- Junior WR Osirus Mitchell leads the Bulldogs in touchdown catches this season with four (all have been for 20 yards or longer).
- DC Bob Shoop's defense has recorded a takeaway in 21 straight games, which is the longest active streak in the nation. The streak began at Arkansas on Nov. 18, 2017. State has totaled 41 takeaways during the streak.

33RD HEAD FOOTBALL COACH AT MISSISSIPPI STATE 2016 & 2017 NATIONAL OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR OF THE YEAR

When Mississippi State Director of Athletics John Cohen was charged with identifying the Bulldogs' 33rd head football coach, he was looking for a man with a pedigree as a winner, an innovator with a blue-collar work ethic and at the forefront, a 'ball coach.' From the beginning of the search, Joe Moorhead was the unequivocal leader. Moorhead, the 2016 and 2017 National Offensive Coordinator of the Year and the mastermind behind Penn State's offensive juggernaut, enters his second season in Starkville in 2019. Officially named head coach on November 29, 2017, Moorhead became just the second MSU head coach to win eight or more games on the field in his debut season and the first since College Football Hall of Famer Allyn McKeen in 1939. The 45-year-old played a pivotal role in conference championships at his four previous coaching stops, including Penn State (2016), Fordham (2014), Connecticut (2010) and Akron (2005).

In his short time in Starkville, the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, native has already made a marvelous impact, securing a Top 25 national ranking, a New Year's Day bowl berth, multiple Top 25 recruiting classes, forming relationships around the state of Mississippi and developing a 'good to great' attitude within the program.

Behind one of the SEC's most potent rushing attacks and the nation's No. 1 defense, Moorhead's first State squad defeated two top-20 teams by double digits, won four out of its last five regular-season games and qualified for a school-record ninth-consecutive bowl. The Bulldogs dominated then-No. 8 Auburn, 23-9, on Oct. 6, while quarterback Nick Fitzgerald accounted for 329 yards of total offense as State put away then-No. 16 Texas A&M, 28-13, on Oct. 28.

MSU reclaimed the historic Golden Egg trophy when the Bulldogs throttled rival Ole Miss, 35-3, on Thanksgiving night in Oxford. It represented the largest margin of victory by a first-year MSU head coach in Egg Bowl history. The win also propelled State to a berth in its first-ever Outback Bowl, representing the program's second-most prestigious bowl this decade. Moorhead became just the second coach in Bulldog history to reach a bowl game in his first season, joining Jackie Sherrill's 1991 squad.

State held eight of its opponents to their lowest point total of the season, including then-No. 1 Alabama, No. 10 Florida and No. 16 Texas A&M. Moorhead's first Bulldog team secured the program's second-highest finish ever in the College Football Playoff rankings at No. 18, as well as a No. 25 ranking in the final Coaches poll.

For only the second time in program history and the first since 2000, MSU produced four All-Americans led by first-teamers defensive end Montez Sweat and center Elgton Jenkins as well as safety Johnathan Abram and defensive tackle Jeffery

Simmons. Under Moorhead's guidance, Fitzgerald secured his place as one of the best dual-threat quarterbacks in SEC history as he became the conference's all-time leading quarterback rusher in addition to shattering 13 school records. Six players also earned All-SEC distinction for their year-long performance.

The Bulldogs then made a major impact in the winter and spring of 2019. A school-record eight MSU players were invited to the NFL Combine. In April, three Bulldogs were called in the first round of the 2019 NFL Draft – a first in program history – as Simmons went No. 19 overall (Tennessee), Sweat went No. 26 (Washington) and Abram followed at No. 27 (Oakland). State's three first-round selections tied with Clemson and Alabama for the most in the nation. MSU finished with a three-day total of five draft selections, including Jenkins going in the second round to Green Bay and Gerri Green being chosen by Indianapolis in the sixth round. The four defensive picks were the most in a single draft in school history. An additional seven other Bulldogs signed free agent contracts, including Fitzgerald with Tampa Bay.

Moorhead's recruiting prowess has been evident as well. A year after signing the nation's No. 25 class after just a few weeks on the job, he hauled in the No. 24 ranked class in the spring of 2019 highlighted by the signing of Charles Cross, the first five-star offensive lineman prospect in MSU history and first overall offensive five star since 2002. Moorhead's 12 four-star or greater signees were the most in a two-year span at MSU since at least 2000 when recruiting database rankings began.

Off the field, Moorhead's group has been model citizens in the community and classroom. A total of 32 Bulldogs were recognized on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in his first season. The same fall as State finished in the Top 25 of the final polls, the Bulldogs posted the highest team GPA on record with a 2.84, as five student-athletes earned a perfect 4.0.

As a collegiate student-athlete at Fordham, Moorhead was a three-year starter at quarterback and a team captain as a senior. He was a second-team All-Patriot League pick as a senior, finishing 13th nationally in total offense. He graduated with school single-season records for completions and passing yards. Following his collegiate career, Moorhead spent time in the training camp of the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League after playing the 1996 season for the Munich Cowboys of the E.F.A.F.

Moorhead received an English degree from Fordham in 1996. He and his wife, Jennifer, have three children: daughter Kyra (18), son Mason (16) and son Donovan (12). Moorhead, an avid Pittsburgh Steelers and Pirates fan, and his family are active members of the Starkville community.

The Bulldogs appeared in their first-ever Outback Bowl, the program's highest bowl game since the 2014 Orange Bowl.

FROM STATE TO SUNDAYS

Bulldogs continue to dominate NFL rosters in 2019 with over 30 players on active or practice squads. MSU Tops Louisiana In New Orleans, 38-28

Playing its first game in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome since 2007, MSU used 497 yards of total offense in Tommy Stevens' debut as quarterback to defeat Louisiana, 38-28, in New Orleans. Kylin Hill rushed for 197 yards on 27 carries, representing the highest rushing output by a Bulldog in a season opener in program history. Stevens, the graduate transfer from Penn State, didn't waste any time in making an impact as he orchestrated a six-play, 74-yard drive that culminated with a beautiful over-the-shoulder throw to Osirus Mitchell for a 31-yard touchdown with 12:27 in the first quarter. With the score tied at 14 all, MSU reeled off 21 unanswered points behind the Stevens-Hill combo. Both accounted for rushing touchdowns. Malik Dear's 40-yard punt return early in the fourth quarter set up a Stevens-to-Austin Williams 12-yard passing score on the ensuing play to make it 35-14. Stevens finished 20-of-30 with 236 yards passing. The Ragin' Cajuns rallied with 14 straight points, including a 99-yard drive late in the game. Jordan Lawless' first career made field goal, a 37-yarder with 1:02 to go, pushed it to a double-digit margin. Erroll Thompson led all tacklers with 10 and a fumble recovery. State forced four turnovers - three fumbles and one interception. Cameron Dantzler added seven tackles, one fumble recovery and an interception on UL's first offensive play of the game.

State Soars Past Golden Eagles in Home Opener, 38-15

In one of the hottest games in Davis Wade Stadium history, MSU jumped out to a 28-0 lead and secured a 38-15 victory over in-state foe Southern Miss to open the home 2019 slate. Kickoff temperature was 94 degrees, representing the hottest in Davis Wade Stadium since 1998. The heat had no effect on the Bulldogs, however. Tommy Stevens, making his Starkville debut, completed his first nine passes for 105 yards and two touchdowns before exiting the game due to injury late in the second quarter. Stevens' hot streak to start the game represented the most consecutive completions by an MSU QB since Dak Prescott against Arkansas in 2015. For the second straight game, the combination of Stevens to Osirus Mitchell put the Bulldogs on the board on the first drive. Stevens found Mitchell for a 28-yard touchdown with 9:36 to play, and he later connected with Stephen Guidry for an 11-yard score. The day belonged to Kylin Hill, who put on a show rushing for 123 yards and one touchdown against a stingy USM defense that was ranked in the top three nationally a year ago. True freshman Garrett Shrader spelled Stevens and fared well, going 7-of-11 in his first career action. MSU managed three takeaways, including interceptions from C.J. Morgan and true freshman Martin Emerson. Brian Cole II led all tacklers with seven, including one sack and 2.5 tackles for loss. Marquiss Spencer added one strip sack.

Kansas State Edges MSU, 31-24

Kylin Hill rushed for over 100 yards for the third consecutive game, but it was not enough as Kansas State scored 14 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to beat MSU, 31-24, on a hot morning kickoff in Davis Wade Stadium. It was the first meeting between the two teams in Starkville since 1974 and the first Power 5 non-conference team to visit Davis Wade Stadium since 2009. Malik Knowles took a kickoff back 100 yards for the Wildcats to tie the game at 24 all with 14:36 to go in the fourth. MSU was unable to muster anything offensively and K-State went 53 yards on six plays that culminated with a 15-yard touchdown pass with 5:37 to go. Tommy Stevens, battling an upper body injury sustained a week earlier, got the start but did not return early in the third quarter. The Bulldogs were decimated with injuries with CB Cameron Dantzler, RB Nick Gibson and OL Dareuan Parker all out. Stevens helped erase a 10-0 deficit, rushing for a two-yard touchdown following a muffed punt from the Wildcats. Osirus Mitchell then made a spectacular one-handed, 35-yard touchdown grab with 0:09 left in the half. True freshman Garrett Shrader spelled Stevens in the third quarter and displayed his toughness, orchestrating a 12-play, 79-yard drive that ate up 6:50. He finished it off with a two-yard touchdown dive. Jace Christmann's key 47-yard field goal to start the fourth look to have put the Bulldogs in firm control, up 24-17, before K-State mounted its comeback. The Bulldogs turned it over three times on the day, but did outgain the Wildcats 352-269. Leo Lewis produced a game-high 12 tackles, while Brian Cole II continued his hot start to the year with six tackles, one punishing strip sack and two tackles for loss.

Shrader, MSU Close Out UK in SEC Opener, 28-13

The stage wasn't too big for true freshman quarterback Garrett Shrader in MSU's SEC opener. Shrader, making his first career start in just his third collegiate game, accounted for 305 yards of total offense, including 125 rushing on 11 carries, to lift the Bulldogs past Kentucky, 28-13, on Saturday in Davis Wade Stadium. Shrader was just the second MSU true freshman QB to start in an SEC game in the last 12 years. He was an efficient 17-of-22 for 180 yards through the air. Shrader accounted for all six of the Bulldogs' 20+ yard plays in the game. Kylin Hill was spectacular again, becoming the first Bulldog to rush for 100 or more yards in the first four games of a season. Hill rushed for 120 yards on 26 carries with a career-best three touchdowns. The Bulldogs got on the board via their defense on the fifth play of the game. Willie Gay Jr., in on his first play of the year after missing the first three games due to a violation of team rules, stepped in front of a Sawyer Smith pass and returned it 52 yards for a touchdown. The Bulldogs chewed up clock in the second quarter with impressive drives. Hill finished one on a 12-yard highlight reel touchdown run as he leaped from the four-yard line and extended the ball inside the pylon for the score. On the ensuing possession, Shrader engineered a 10-play, 80-yard drive that took 5:00. His 36-yard rush set up another Hill touchdown that made it 21-3 at the half. The Wildcats responded with 10 unanswered. With the score a one-possession game and 4:32 remaining, Shrader conducted a six-play, 75 yard drive and extended the drive with a 49-yard rush on third down. Hill finished it off with another score. The Bulldogs held Kentucky to 1-of-12 on third down. C.J. Morgan led MSU with nine tackles. Jaquarius Landrews added seven tackles and a game-high four pass breakups.

Big First Half Carries No. 7 Auburn Past MSU, 56-23

No. 7 Auburn, playing its SEC home opener, scored 21 straight points in the first seven minutes of the game and never looked back as MSU fell 56-23, in a sold-out night game in Jordan-Hare Stadium. The Bulldogs went three and out on their first series, and the Tigers immediately capitalized with great field position and scored on their first play from scrimmage. The score was 21-0 after Auburn took advantage of a JaVonta Payton fumble on a kickoff. MSU starting quarterback Tommy Stevens suffered a lower body injury on the second series of the game and missed the remainder of the contest. He was once again spelled by true freshman Garrett Shrader. Shrader, in his first SEC road appearance, accounted for all three Bulldog touchdowns, firing two TD passes and adding a rushing score. He finished with 298 yards of total offense and got MSU on the board after finishing off a 12-play, 75-yard drive with a Stephen Guidry 9-yard pass late in the first quarter. MSU trailed 42-9 at the break, and added touchdowns courtesy of Osirus Mitchell and Shrader. His 7-yard touchdown run with 0:50 remaining put him at 89 rushing yards on the night against a stellar Auburn defense. Farrod Green led MSU in receiving with 69 yards. Leo Lewis and C.J. Morgan led all Bulldog tacklers with eight apiece. Lewis had seven solo stops, a tackle for a loss, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. MSU won the turnover battle, forcing three on the night to extend the consecutive streak to 21 straight games of a takeaway. The Bulldogs were without the services of six players on their two-deep depth chart.
