STORYLINES

NO. 23/19 MSU TAKES ON FLORIDA FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 2010

State faces its second consecutive SEC East school when it hosts Florida on Saturday. SEC Nation, SEC Network's traveling show, will originate from the Junction from 9-11 a.m.

- MSU fell 28-7 to Kentucky last Saturday in Lexington. The Bulldogs led 7-0 midway through the second quarter after QB Nick Fitzgerald's 1-yard TD run, but the Wildcats tied the game with 50 seconds left in the first half and went on to add 21 more points for the win.
- MSU is No. 19 in the Amway Coaches Poll and No. 23 in the Associated Press Top 25. It's the 12th consecutive week that State has been ranked dating back to Oct. 29 last season.
- Saturday's meeting marks the 55th all-time between the Bulldogs and Gators dating back to 1923. Florida leads the all-time series 33-19-2. It is the first meeting between the two schools since State escaped Gainesville with a 10-7 win over the then-No. 22 Gators on Oct. 16, 2010.
- MSU is 7-4 against Florida in games played in Starkville. The Gators won the last meeting in Starkville, 29-19 on Oct. 24, 2009. The Bulldogs' last victory in Starkville was on Oct. 23, 2004, when RB Jerious Norwood scored the game-winning TD on a 37-yard run with 32 seconds left in the game to give State the 38-31 win.
- Nick Fitzgerald, a National Player of the Year candidate, has accounted for 81 career touchdowns – 43 passing, 38 rushing – which is second in school history behind only Dak Prescott (114). Fitzgerald scored a rushing touchdown last Saturday night for the 20th time in his career. The owner of 12 different school records, Fitzgerald is responsible for nine TDs this season – five rushing, four passing.
- Nick Fitzgerald is only the third player in SEC history with at least 35 TDs both rushing and passing. Heisman Trophy winner Tim Tebow of Florida (2006-09) and Dak Prescott (2012-15) were the others.
- There have been seven games of 600+ yards of total offense in school history. Two have occurred in the first four games of the Joe Moorhead era (607 vs. Louisiana; 618 vs. Stephen F. Austin).
- Preseason All-American NG Jeffery Simmons leads the SEC and is tied for eighth in the FBS in tackles for loss this season (7.5). DE Montez Sweat, also a preseason All-American, is second in the SEC and tied for 14th in the FBS in TFLs (7.0). Sweat also has 4.5 sacks, which ranks second in the SEC (Alabama's Isaiah Buggs has 5.0) and is tied for sixth in the FBS.
- DE Montez Sweat and NG Jeffery Simmons have combined for 14.5 tackles for loss in 2018. They are one of only two pair of defensive linemen in the nation to each record at least 7.0 tackles for loss through the first four games, joining Miami's (FL) Gerald Willis III (10.0) and Jonathan Garvin (8.5).

JOE MOORHEAD

@BallCoachJoeMo

33RD HEAD FOOTBALL COACH 2016 & 2017 NATIONAL OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR OF THE YEAR

Joe Moorhead, the mastermind behind Penn State's offensive juggernaut the past two seasons, was named Mississippi State's 33rd head football coach on November 29, 2017. Moorhead brings a championship standard mantra to Starkville centered on winning a Southeastern Conference Championship and competing for a national title. The 44-year-old has played a pivotal role in conference championships at his last four coaching stops, including Penn State (2016), Fordham (2014), Connecticut (2010) and Akron (2005).

Moorhead is in his 21st in collegiate coaching and his fifth as a head coach. In his short time in Starkville, the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, native has already made a marvelous impact, securing a Top 25 recruiting class just weeks on the job, hiring an elite coaching staff, forming relationships around the state of Mississippi and developing a 'good to great' attitude within the program.

Moorhead received national acclaim during the 2016 and 2017 seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach on James Franklin's Penn State staff. Tabbed as Sports Illustrated and Yahoo's No. 1 rising assistant in college football in August 2017, Moorhead transformed the Nittany Lions offensively and spearheaded them to a combined 21-5 record, a 17-3 mark in Big Ten regular season play, the 2016 Big Ten Championship, two New Year's Six bowls and back-to-back Top 10 national rankings.

Explosive, balanced offenses have been a trademark of Moorhead at every stop of his career. Penn State scored at least 30 points in 21 of the 26 games he coached, and they averaged 39.4 points per game during that span.

The 2017 campaign saw the Nittany Lions rank in the Top 25 nationally in seven different offensive categories, including seventh in points per game (41.1), fifth in third conversion percentage (48.0), 14th in passing efficiency (153.6), 17th in yards per play (6.55), 19th in total offense (460.3), 23rd in passing yards per game (290.2) and 21st in red zone conversion percentage (89.8). They also produced four 50-point games, representing the most in a Penn State season since 1994.

Moorhead's expertise was evident in the development of quarterback Trace McSorley and running back Saquon Barkley. Together they formed one of the elite backfields in all of college football. McSorley, a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, became just the second player in Big Ten history to register 25 passing touchdowns and 10 rushing scores in a single season. He also was the first player in program history to produce multiple seasons of 3,000 yards passing. Barkley, a consensus All-American and the first running back in Big Ten history to claim multiple Conference Offensive Player of the Year honors, ranked second nationally in all-purpose yards in 2017 (2,329). He broke four school career records, including rushing touchdowns (43), total touchdowns (53), all-purpose yards (5,538) and consecutive games with a touchdown (15) in just three seasons.

Four of Moorhead's offensive players heard their names called in the first four rounds of the 2018 NFL Draft, while two additional ones signed undrafted free agent contracts. Barkley led the way with the No. 2 overall selection, becoming the highest drafted Nittany Lion in 19 years and the highest drafted running back overall since Reggie Bush in 2006.

The 2016 season saw Moorhead earn National Offensive Coordinator of the Year honors by 247Sports, a year in which the Nittany Lions claimed their first outright Big Ten Championship in two decades and berth in the Rose Bowl. They reeled off nine straight conference victories and finished the year 11-3 highlighted by triumphs over No. 2 Ohio State and No. 6 Wisconsin.

In Moorhead's first season, Penn State shattered then-school records for total offense (6,056), passing yards (3,650) and points scored (526). The Nittany Lions improved their scoring average by a staggering 14.4 points from 2015 to 2016, which ranked fourth nationally. They racked up 30 or more points in 11 games, which was the most since the 1994 squad.

Moorhead is no stranger to building and maintaining a program as a head coach. Prior to his stint at Penn State, he posted a 38-13 record as head coach at Fordham University from 2012-15. After inheriting a program that went 1-10, he steadily built the Rams into a Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) powerhouse, leading them to their best season in program history in 2013 and the Patriot League title in 2014. They reached the FCS playoffs in three straight seasons under his watch.

During his tenure, Moorhead produced the highest ranking in program history (No. 5 in 2013), the highest final ranking in program history (No. 9 in 2013 and 2014), the first two wins over FBS schools in program history and the first two wins over Top 10 opponents in school history.

As a collegiate performer at Fordham, Moorhead was a three-year starter at quarterback and a team captain as a senior. He was a second-team All-Patriot League pick as a senior, finishing 13th nationally in total offense. He graduated with school single-season records for completions and passing yards. Following his collegiate career, Moorhead spent time in the training camp of the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League after playing the 1996 season for the Munich Cowboys of the E.F.A.F.

The son of a steel mill worker, Moorhead received an English degree from Fordham in 1996.

THE LAST MEETING

MSU 10 Oct. 16, 2010 • Ben Hill Griffin Stadium
#22 Florida 7 Gainesville, Fla.

Vick Ballard ran for 98 yards, Chris Relf added 82 yards and a rushing score, and Mississippi State beat No. 22 Florida, 10-7, in Dan Mullen's return to the Swamp. The Bulldogs controlled the tempo and the clock. Of the Bulldogs' 58 plays, 49 of them were runs -- including 24 in a row at one point. They finished with 212 yards on the ground, averaging 4.3 yards a carry. Relf's longest run, a 16-yarder, set up an early field goal. The Bulldogs kept it on the ground, and Relf found the end zone on a 6-yard scamper late in the first quarter. State forced two turnovers and three sacks. After an 18-play drive in the second quarter that ended with a missed field goal, the Gators finally got on the board with an 80-yard drive to start the third. Florida looked like it would get a go-ahead score. But Jeff Demps fumbled a swing pass near the MSU 20-yard line. Johnthan Banks had one interception.

What They Are Saying...

"From a physical standpoint, there might not be a better looking QB in the nation than Fitzgerald. He's tall with long arms and an athletic build—exactly what most football people think an NFL quarterback should look like."

- Jim Nagy, Reese's Senior Bowl Executive Director (9.19.18)

"Nick Fitzgerald is for real. He's a little bit different than what you see throughout the SEC. When you combine that with Aeris Williams in the backfield, that's an awfully tough thing to stop."

- Adam Rittenberg, ESPN.com (9.21.17)

"I love the quarterback for Mississippi State in Nick Fitzgerald. I love what he can do running the football and his creativity. He's throwing the ball well."

- Kirk Herbstreit, ESPN (9.14.17)

"He's one of the game's great stars ... Nick is a terrific player, a terrific dual-threat quarterback. Believe me, he's going to have a huge year and it is going to be interesting to see what happens in that Heisman race. Lately it's been all about numbers, and he's going to put up some big numbers. He's a guy who has the potential to be in New York City as a Heisman Trophy finalist."

- Matt Hayes, Bleacher Report/Saturday Down South (8.23.17)

"Any quarterback? I'm taking Nick Fitzgerald from Mississippi State. If I could have anybody. Right now, in today's day and age of college football, it's just easier to craft an offense around a guy that can both run and throw it — and Nick Fitzgerald can do that. I do think his athleticism and his ceiling is as high as anyone in the league. I've been a big fan of his for a few years, dating back to when Dak Prescott was the starter and going to practice and being enamored with his skillset. He would be my No. 1 for sure."

- Greg McElroy, ESPN (6.8.17)

"If I am drafting SEC quarterbacks to play college football, Nick Fitzgerald is No. 1."

- Cole Cubelic, SEC Network (June 2017)

QB NICK FITZGERALD

ONE OF THE NATION'S TOP SIGNAL CALLERS

Nick Fitzgerald, a candidate for the Maxwell Award, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and Manning Award, is in his third season as starting signal caller and owns a 16-12 record as a starter.

At 6-foot-5, 230 pounds, Fitzgerald was Dak Prescott's primary backup in 2015 before taking the reins. He was offered by only two schools coming out of Richmond Hill (Ga.) High School, MSU and Middle Tennessee. Richmond Hill ran an option style offense and threw only 78 passes as a senior. He played wide receiver as a junior before moving to quarterback.

TOPPING 100

Fitzgerald owns the SEC career record for 100-yard rushing games by a QB with 16. He has rushed for 100 yards in seven of the last 10 games he's played. He did it six times in 2017, which tied for third in the SEC.

In two of the three games played this season he's broken the 100-yard rushing barrier. He ran for 159 yards on 19 carries at Kansas State on Sept. 8, his highest rushing production since the 2016 Egg Bowl when he ran for a school-record 258 yards. He followed up a week later with 107 yards on 15 carries against Louisiana on Sept. 15.

CHASING SEC HISTORY

Fitzgerald is the sixth QB in SEC history to rush for over 2,000 yards in a career. Three of the top six were MSU players (Fitzgerald, Dak Prescott and John Bond). With his 159 rushing yards in Week 2 at Kansas State, Fitzgerald vaulted into second place in SEC career QB rushing yards. He needs 176 to take the SEC crown from Tim Tebow.

MSU TO FACE A FORMER HEAD COACH FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 1934

When the Bulldogs face Florida and Dan Mullen on Saturday, it will be the first time since 1934 that a former MSU head coach will be on the opposing sidelines as head coach of the other team. State is 7-7 in such games. Stanley "Sid" Robinson coached the Bulldogs from 1917-19 before serving as head coach of Mississippi College from 1920-23 and 1928-53. MSU was 6-2 in games vs. Robinson. Bernie Bierman served as head coach of the Bulldogs from 1925-26 and then served in the same capacity at Tulane from 1927-31. MSU was 1-4 in games vs. Bierman but did win the first meeting in 1927. Earle C. Hayes, who coached football and men's basketball at State, went on to serve as head football coach at Indiana from 1931-33. The Bulldogs played Indiana in his second season in Bloomington. In later years, State did face former MSU head coaches who went on to serve as assistant coaches at other institutions. Paul Davis coached the Bulldogs from 1962-66 and then served as an assistant coach at Auburn for years. Rocky Felker served as MSU head coach from 1986-90. The Bulldogs faced Felker from 1993-96 when he was the offensive coordinator at Arkansas.

SAME GAME 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES SINCE 2016

The Louisiana game in Week 3 marked the seventh time QB Nick Fitzgerald and an MSU running back have turned in a 100-yard rushing performance in the same game.

- Fitzgerald had a game-high 107 yards on 15 carries, and Aeris Williams finished with 101 yards rushing on 11 attempts vs Louisiana. It was the sixth time the duo has gone over 100 yards rushing in the same game.
- No QB-RB combo in MSU history has topped the 100-yard rushing mark more than Fitzgerald and Williams. Dak Prescott and Josh Robinson did it twice during the 2014 season.
- Fitzgerald and Williams did it three times in 2017 and twice in 2016. Prior to the Louisiana game on Sept. 15, they last did it against UMass in 2017 as Williams had 114 and Fitzgerald produced 135.
- In Week 2 at Kansas State, Fitzgerald rushed for 159 yards on 19 attempts, while RB Kylin Hill had a career and game-high 211 on 17 carries, combining for 370 of the Bulldogs 384 yards on the ground.
- State has won every game in which Fitzgerald and a running back have achieved the feat.

NOTING THE OFFENSIVE LINE

Chemistry, experience and physicality best sum up the 2018 MSU offensive line, which is one of the best units in the SEC. The Bulldogs returned a combined 76 starts on the offensive line and four starters. Gone is left tackle Martinas Rankin, who was a Day 2 2018 NFL Draft pick to the Houston Texans.

- State's starting offensive line in each of the first four games was Greg Eiland (LT), Darryl Williams (LG), Elgton Jenkins (C), Deion Calhoun (RG), Stewart Reese (RT), pushing the unit's combined career starts to 96.
- Senior Elgton Jenkins is in his second year as the starter at center and is a candidate for the Rimington Trophy. The other starting senior is right guard Deion Calhoun, who owns the most starts on the line with 27. Jenkins was MSU's highest performer in the season opener vs. Stephen F. Austin, grading out at 92 percent with a pair of knockdowns. In Week 3 against Louisiana, Jenkins did not allow any QB pressures as MSU's offense racked up 607 yards of total offense in a 56-10 win. The Bulldogs amassed 331 yards rushing and averaged 8.5 yards per play. Jenkins earned SEC Offensive Lineman of the week honors for his performance.
- Junior Darryl Williams is coming off a terrific sophomore season and is a force at one of the guard positions. He had an impressive six knockdowns at Kansas State in Week 2. Williams was named to Pro Football Focus' National Team of the Week following his Week 3 performance vs. Louisiana. He finished with a clean sheet in pass protection, and on carries to either side of Williams, Bulldog running backs averaged 9.6 yards per carry, gaining 134 yards on just 14 attempts.
- The tackles are manned by sophomore Stewart Reese and sophomore Greg Eiland. Eiland started four games at left tackle last season in place of an injured Martinas Rankin. Eiland, making the start at left tackle, graded out at 92 percent with two knockdowns and helped lead MSU to its first victory over a Power 5 non-conference team on the road since 1995 in Week 2 at Kansas State. Eiland and the Bulldogs did not give up a sack and they paved the way for an MSU rushing attack that pounded out 384 yards on the ground. It was the most rushing yards allowed by Kansas State since Oct. 7, 2010, when Nebraska rushed for 451 yards.

HILL, SWEAT COLLECT SEC WEEKLY HONORS

After leading the Bulldogs to a 31-10 victory at Kansas State to earn the program's first road victory over a Power 5 non-conference team since 1995, sophomore RB Kylin Hill and senior DE Montez Sweat were honored as SEC Players of the Week on Sept. 10 for Week 2.

- Picking up where he left off last season, Sweat earned his fourth Defensive Lineman of the Week honor of his career, which ties former Bulldog and current Philadelphia Eagle Fletcher Cox for the program record.
- Sweat registered three tackles, two tackles for loss and one sack against the Wildcats. The Stone Mountain, Georgia, native held Kansas State to just 213 yards of total offense, representing the Wildcats' fewest since putting up 110 against Oklahoma on Oct. 17, 2015.

- Thompson also tied an MSU single-game record with five touchdown passes, throwing for 364 yards. He collected his third-straight 100-yard rushing game, carrying it 10 times for 109 yards and two TDs.
- Thompson became just the third player in MSU history to rush for 100 yards and throw for 300 yards in a game, joining Nick Fitzgerald and Dak Prescott. He was also just the fifth SEC player to achieve the feat since Oct. 24, 2015, joining Jalen Hurts (2016) and Chad Kelly (2015).
- The highlight of Thompson's night occurred when he fired an 84-yard touchdown, which was the longest completion at MSU in 14 years (2004).
- Thompson's first five completions of the game all went for 20 or more yards, including a 53-yard TD to running back Kylin Hill on MSU's first offensive drive. All nine of Thompson's first-half completions went to nine different receivers for 263 total yards and four touchdowns.

No. 18 State Routs SFA 63-6 To Usher In Moorhead Era

Keytaon Thompson, making just his second career start, tied the SEC and MSU single-game record for touchdowns responsible (7) while accounting for 473 yards of total offense in a 63-6 win over Stephen F. Austin to successfully open the Joe Moorhead era in Davis Wade Stadium. Thompson got the starting nod in place of Nick Fitzgerald, who was serving a one-game suspension for violation of team rules. Kylin Hill, making his first career start, opened the Moorhead era in an explosive way, hauling in a quick pass from Thompson and racing 53 yards on the Bulldogs' first play from scrimmage. Thompson did it with his feet and his arm, tying the MSU single-game record with five touchdown passes. The big play came on an 87-yard deep strike to Osirus Mitchell with 3:44 to go in the first quarter, representing the longest State pass play in 14 years. Thompson became just the third player in Bulldog history with over 300 yards passing and 100 yards rushing in the same game. He tallied his third-straight 100-yard game on the ground and added two scores. He State took a 35-3 lead into halftime following a brilliant one-handed, 17-yard touchdown grab from Dontea Jones with 1:01 in the second quarter. Defensively, Johnathan Abram made a game-high eight tackles. Montez Sweat and Jeffery Simmons combined for seven tackles for loss with two sacks coming from Sweat. C.J. Morgan also recorded his first career interception.

No. 18 MSU Physically Dominates Kansas State, 31-10

A rare non-conference road game against a Power 5 team proved to be an easy task for No. 18 MSU, who used a spectacular three-touchdown, 211-yard rushing game from Kylin Hill to dominate Kansas State, 31-10, in Manhattan. It was the Bulldogs' first road victory over a Power 5 non-conference team since 1995 and their largest since 1973 in such games. Hill became the first Bulldog running back with over 200 yards rushing in nine years, and much of it came after contact. Hill hauled in a 16-yard touchdown pass from Nick Fitzgerald, who returned as a starter for the first time since his ankle injury on Thanksgiving 2017. Then prior to the half, MSU used three quick plays and a 28-yard Hill touchdown scamper to go up 24-3 at the half. Fitzgerald threw his first touchdown of the season on a 13-yard slant to Austin Williams. Hill put the finishing touches on the win with a 16-yard run over defenders with 13:16 left in the game. Hill outgained the entire Kansas State team as the Wildcats finished with 213 total yards, their fewest since 2015. Fitzgerald went over 100 yards rushing for the sixth time in his last eight games. Defensively, Johnathan Abram led all tacklers for the second straight game with eight. Jeffery Simmons and Montez Sweat each registered two tackles for loss. Erroll Thompson shined with seven tackles, one sack and a diving interception that halted a KState drive.

No. 16 MSU Strikes Early, Often in 56-10 Rout of Louisiana

Nick Fitzgerald's first home start of the year proved to be one of the best of his career. The senior quarterback accounted for six touchdowns - one shy of his SEC record - and No. 16 MSU moved to 3-0 with a 56-10 rout of Louisiana on Saturday night in Davis Wade Stadium. It was the first meeting between the two teams since 1987. The Bulldogs scored touchdowns on their first eight drives, punting only once on the night. Fitzgerald accounted for 350 yards of total offense, rushing for over 100 yards for the second straight game. He tallied three rushing scores in the first half and connected with Stephen Guidry on the big strike of the night, a beautiful 39-yard touchdown pass to give the Bulldogs a 35-3 lead at the half. Aeris Williams saw his first significant action of the season, rushing for 101 yards on 11 carries with a touchdown. The Bulldogs amassed 607 yards of total offense. Tim Washington led all tacklers with a career-best nine and one tackle for loss. Leo Lewis added eight tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss. Johnathan Abram hauled in an interception in the third quarter, and Chauncey Rivers added two tackles for loss.

No. 14 MSU Drops SEC Opener at Kentucky, 28-7

Penalties proved to be problematic as Kentucky rushed for 229 yards to knock off No. 14 Mississippi State, 28-7, on a rainy Saturday night at Kroger Field. The Bulldogs were penalized 16 times for 139 yards and could not get into a rhythm offensively. State was held to just 201 total offensive yards and only 56 yards on the ground. After a scoreless first quarter, Nick Fitzgerald put the Bulldogs in front on a 1-yard touchdown run that culminated a 15-play, 80-yard drive. Kentucky reeled off 28 unanswered points highlighted by four consecutive touchdown runs from Benny Snell. Snell finished with 165 yards rushing. With MSU trailing 14-7, Brian Cole stalled a UK drive on a beautiful interception but the Bulldogs were unable to do anything with it. The Bulldogs had -9 yards of total offense in the fourth quarter. Erroll Thompson led all MSU tacklers with seven, including 0.5 sacks. Jeffery Simmons and Braxton Hoyett each gathered two tackles for loss, while Montez Sweat added 1.5 sacks.
