LOUISIANA OPENS THE SEASON AGAINST MISSISSIPPI STATE

Coming off an 7-7 season in 2018 which included a Sun West Division crown, a trip to the inaugural Sun Belt Conference Championship Game and an appearance in the AutoNation Cure Bowl in Orlando, Louisiana is primed for a big year under second-year head coach Billy Napier. The Ragin' Cajuns open the 2019 campaign against SEC-foe Mississippi State on August 31 at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans. The two programs last met as season ago in Starkville, with the Bulldogs coming out on top, 56-10.

A LOOK AT THE RAGIN' CAJUNS

- Louisiana enters the contest against Mississippi State with a 15-33 record in season openers. However, the Ragin' Cajuns have won their last two season-opening games with wins over Southeastern Louisiana (51-48) in 2017 and Grambling (49-17) in 2018.
- The Ragin' Cajuns have faced an SEC opponent in every season since 2012.
- Saturday's game will be the seventh time that Louisiana has played in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome since the 2010 season. The team holds a official 2-2 record in those games, with their last appearance a 28-21 defeat to Southern Miss in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.
- Quarterback Levi Lewis will likely lead the charge for Coach Napier's offense in the 2019 season. Lewis, who has only started three games for the Ragin' Cajuns in his career, appeared in all 14 games a season ago, going 37-for-59 through the air for 585 yards and seven touchdowns while rushing for 175 yards on 37 attempts and a score.
- Helping keep the offense moving is the offensive line up front, which returns four key players who have combined to make 130 starts. The 130 starts is the second most in the nation behind Oregon (153). Additionally, the offensive line has 55 starts coming back from its projected starters, tied for the third most in all of college football.
- Louisiana's three-headed rushing attack will be another huge factor this season. The group, made up of Trey Ragas, Elijah Mitchell and Raymond Calais, combined for 2,920 yards on the ground and 28 touchdowns.

Inside the Game

- The Ragin’ Cajuns open the 2019 campaign against SEC-foe Mississippi State on August 31 at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans.
- The two programs last met as season ago in Starkville, with the Bulldogs coming out on top, 56-10.
- Louisiana enters the contest against Mississippi State with a 15-33 record in season openers. However, the Ragin’ Cajuns have won their last two season-opening games with wins over Southesastern Louisiana (51-48) in 2017 and Grambling (49-17) in 2018.

Louisiana vs. the SEC

- The Ragin’ Cajuns have faced an SEC opponent in every season since 2012.
- Despite never beating a team that was a member of the SEC when Louisiana played them (0-44 all-time vs. SEC), Louisiana did score a historic upset against current SEC member Texas A&M (29-25 on Sept. 14, 1996), but at the time Texas A&M was a member of the Big 12.

Savvy Veterans

- Louisiana football has one of the most experienced offensive line units in the country. With the mix of Rico Robinson, Ken Marks, Cole Prudhomme, Kevin Dotson and Robert Hunt, the group has a combine 130 career starts. This ranks second in the country behind Oregon who has 153 returning starts.
- Additionally, the offensive line has 55 starts coming back from its projected starters. This also ranks tied for the third most in all of college football.

New Guy On The Block

- With the loss of Cole Prudhomme due to injury, Louisiana will turn to a new center for the 2019 season.
- All signs are pointing to Shane Vallot being the guy to take on that role. Vallot appeared in three games a season ago.

#2 Nice Wit It

- Senior redshirt wide receiver Ja’Marcus Bradley returns to the gridiron after having one of the best receiving seasons in school history. The Ackerman, Miss. native, caught a team-high 10 touchdowns and added 608 yards to his effort.
- Bradley’s 10 touchdowns were the most by a receiver since the 1996 season. He also had a tremendous performance against South Alabama catching three touchdowns. Not only did that tie the most single game touchdowns among wide receivers in school history, it was also the most TD’s caught in a single game since Jason Cherry nabbed a three-piece against North Texas in 2008.

Three-Headed Monster

- Louisiana may not return an exceptional amount of passing yards, but its rushing attacks in one of the best in the country.
- Juniors Elijah Mitchell and Trey Ragas and senior Raymond Calais fill out the nationally recognized Cajun backfield trio. Last season, the trio racked up a total of 2,290 yards on the ground, 28 touchdowns and combined for 14, 100-yard rushing performances.
- Ragas had 1181 yards rushing which ranked third in the conference and 28th in FBS.
- Mitchell was 15 yards shy of 1,000 and recorded 985 rushing yards and tallied 16 total touchdowns, the 14th most in FBS.
- Calais tallied 754 yards on the ground while averaging 9.3 rushing yards per carry. His breakout game came against Georgia State, where he rushed for XXX yards and XXX scores. He also set the school record in that ball game with a XX-yard touchdown scamper.

Welcome Back (x2)

- Louisiana Football gets back two key members this upcoming season in outside linebacker Joe Dillon and kicker Stevie Artigue.
- Dillon has an impressive resume. He is a 2017 Third Team All-Sun Belt Conference member, 2016 Second Team All-Sun Belt Conference member and was named the LSWA Freshman of the Year.
- Dillon will add speed off the edge to a much needed Cajun defense having a career 11.5 sacks and 19.5 tackles for loss.
- Like Dillon, Artigue has earned some accomplishments as well. He was named 2017 to the Lou Garza Award Watch List and a 2017 Preseason First Team All-Sun Belt Conference selection. Artigue was 29-for-38 before his injury in before the 2018 season.

All-Conference Honors

- Louisiana Football had seven players named to All-Sun Belt Conference Teams after the conclusion of last season. They are: Kevin Dotson, Elijah Mitchell, Robert Hunt, Trey Ragas, Zi’Yon Hill, Ja’Marcus Bradley and Jacques Boudreaux.
- All of the seven players listed returned to this year’s team. Not only did the team have the fifth most all-conference players at the end of last season, they are one of three programs in the conference that has all of their all-conference members returning for the 2019 season.

Inexperienced

- Levi Lewis has been slated to start for the Cajuns since the end of last year.
- Although he is QB1, Lewis has only started three games, which came during his true freshman season.
- Out of all the projected starting quarterbacks in the league, Lewis just owns a higher amount of starts over the current quarterback situations at Arkansas State and South Alabama.

Inspector Jacques Boudreaux

- After earning a spot on the Sun Belt Conference Third Team, Jacques Boudreaux headlines the returners on the Ragin’ Cajun defense.
- Boudreaux had an incredible season last year recording 93 total tackles which ranked fifth in the conference.
- Boudreaux also paced the team in average tackles per game with 6.6 which was tied for the 11th best in the conference.

Humphrey Dumpty

- Highly regarded defensive tackle Tayland Humphrey isn’t sitting on a wall like humpty dumpty. However, the 6’5” 350 nose tackle is still sitting on the sidelines waiting to hear about his eligibility from the NCAA.
- Prior to coming to Louisiana, the Houston product attended FIU for a season after turning down offers from Alabama, Florida State, and Georgia coming out of Hutchinson Community College.
- If the massive defensive tackle is deemed eligible for the upcoming season, expect him to be a major run stopper on the Cajuns defense this year.

Manac is Back

- Former Georgia defensive end Chauncey Manac is back for year two with the Ragin’ Cajuns.
- Last year, Manac has 8.0 tackles for loss, 4.0 sacks and 47 total tackles.
- Aside from leading the team in both TFL and sacks, Manac ranked within the top-15 in TFL and top-20 in sacks among other pass rushers from around the Sun Belt Conference.

Billy and the Jets

- Louisiana had a very successful season in Billy Napier’s up-tempo and fast paced offense.
- Just within the Sun Belt conference, the team was able to record top-three finishes in scoring offense, total offense, pass efficiency, and rushing offense.
- Furthermore, Billy’s quarterbacks threw the second most touchdowns in the conference (28), owned the third most rushing touchdowns (31), and the second most overall touchdowns (58).

BILLY NAPIER

HEAD COACH
2ND SEASON

Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns Director of Athletics Dr. Bryan Maggard welcomed Billy Napier as the 27th Head Coach in Louisiana Football history on Dec. 15, 2017, and the ensuing 2018 season for the Ragin' Cajuns was a clear indicator of where Napier intended for the program to head under his watch.

The Ragin' Cajuns (7-7, 5-3), utilizing a powerful offensive and opportunistic defense, won the 2018 Sun Belt Conference West Division Championship to advance to the inaugural conference championship game. Louisiana booked its first bowl trip since 2016, heading to sunny Orlando, Florida, for the AutoNation Cure Bowl at Camping World Stadium. It marked the first-ever season that Louisiana played a 14-game schedule with two postseason opportunities earned by the Ragin' Cajuns.

Napier's program hallmarks – integrity, togetherness, discipline, effort and toughness – instilled a renewed sense of identity in the Ragin' Cajuns football program and that collectiveness helped Louisiana run off three consecutive wins to close the regular season. The streak of Sun Belt wins, first and secondly against Georgia State and South Alabama at home, followed by a regular season finale victory at ULM, secured the Ragin' Cajuns their West Division title, allowing Napier to deliver a trophy to Louisiana's fans in Year One.

Serving as offensive play-caller, Napier reengineered the Ragin' Cajuns quickly into a vaunted offensive attack. Louisiana ranked second in the Sun Belt in scoring offense (31.9 points per game), third in rushing offense (218.7 yards per game) and third in total offense (424.3 yards per game).

The Ragin' Cajuns were immediately able to pride themselves on precision and consistency, with the squad ranking 14th nationally in third-down conversion rate (49.6 percent) and 15th nationally in red zone touchdown scoring rate (72.9 percent). Ball security was not an issue, as the Napier-led offense lost three fumbles in the entire 14-game 2018 season, ranking tied for first in the nation with Michigan, Mississippi State and Northwestern.

Also serving as the program's quarterbacks coach, Napier offered his tutelage to senior quarterback Andre Nunez, who became just the third-ever Ragin' Cajun to throw for 20 touchdowns in a single season. Sophomore signal caller Levi Lewis and Nunez were effective passes all season long, ranking first and second in the Sun Belt Conference for passer rating, with Lewis leading the way at 185.2 and Nunez not far behind at 176.2.

Napier came to the Ragin' Cajuns from Arizona State where he served as Associate Head Coach, offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach.

As an assistant coach, Napier built a reputation around the coaching profession as one of the most talented recruiters in college football. He served as wide receivers coach at Alabama (2013-17), assistant head coach/quarterbacks coach at Colorado State (2012) and was offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Clemson (2009-10).

Napier was instrumental in two National Championships at Alabama in 2011 and 2015 and has now coached in 12 bowl games (11 as an assistant coach) after the 2018 Cure Bowl appearance.

Arizona State (2017)

In his first year with the program, Napier guided the Sun Devils' offense to the 14th highest-graded offense in the FBS according to Pro Football Focus - including the 10th highest-graded passing attack in the nation. ASU was graded 54th in the nation in total offense last season and 86th in the passing game on the year. The offensive turnaround (+40 positions) was the eighth-largest in the FBS and ASU was one of just three programs to move from outside the Top-50 to inside of it in just one season. The 76-spot swing in the passing game rankings was the third highest in all of the FBS (second among Power Five schools).

ASU developed one of the elite red zone scoring teams in the nation under Napier, tied for first nationally in converting on 95.83 percent of its red zone appearances (46-of-48) with the only two "blemishes" against the Sun Devils coming when the team took a knee late in the fourth quarter. ASU was 11th nationally in red zone touchdown scoring rate with 36 touchdowns on those 48 attempts (75.00).

Ball security was another notable facet of Napier's offense. The Sun Devils turned the ball over just 11 times in 2017, which ranks 12th nationally after finishing 82nd in the country a year ago with 21 turnovers. ASU is 17th nationally with just five fumbles lost in 2017, and none of those have been by a running back. ASU's six total interceptions this season are the 17th-fewest in the country with three of the six coming on tipped balls.

Alabama (2011, 2013-17)

Prior to Arizona State, Napier spent five seasons as the wide receivers coach at the University of Alabama. Napier served an integral role in achieving National Championships in 2011 and 2015 as part of the Alabama coaching staff and also coached in the 2016 National Championship game.

HONORS AND AWARDS

2002 Walter Payton Award Finalist

He was instrumental in helping Nick Saban and Alabama achieve a 63-7 record in five seasons (2011, 2013-2016) and was part of the great run of 26 consecutive wins from 2015-2016. In 70 games at Alabama, the Crimson Tide offense averaged 6.27 yards per play and 36.4 points per game.

In 2016, Napier's wide receiver corps were led by junior ArDarius Stewart and sophomore Calvin Ridley. Ridley led the way with 72 receptions while Stewart had a team high 864 yards. Ridley added 769 yards and seven scores while Stewart caught 54 passes with eight scores. Graduate transfer Gehrig Dieter caught 15 passes for 214 yards and four scores while Cam Sims also hauled in 14 receptions for 152 yards.

Napier had to replace Amari Cooper in 2015 after the Tide's career receptions leader was taken No. 4 overall in the NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders. Stewart, senior transfer Richard Mullaney and Ridley emerged as the Tide's go-to receivers after Robert Foster was lost in the third game to injury. Ridley led the team with a freshman-record 89 catches for 1,045 yards and seven touchdowns. Stewart added 63 catches for 700 yards and four touchdowns, while Mullaney had 38 catches for 390 yards and five scores.

Napier's 2014 unit was led by Alabama's first Biletnikoff Award winner in Cooper, who caught a school- and SEC-record 124 passes for a UA-record 1,727 receiving yards and 16 touchdowns. Cooper led the country in receptions (124), was second nationally in receiving yards (1,727), receiving touchdowns (16) and catches per game (8.9) while ranking third in yards per game (123.4). A Heisman Trophy finalist and unanimous first team All-American, Cooper smashed all of the Tide's career receiving marks with 228 receptions, 3,463 yards and tied the SEC record with 31 receiving touchdowns. Senior DeAndrew White provided Alabama with a dangerous and reliable target opposite Cooper with 40 receptions for 504 yards and four scores.

In his first season as the Crimson Tide's receivers coach in 2013, Napier built a deep and talented group of wide outs. Alabama had four players with at least 32 receptions, led by Cooper's 45 catches for 736 yards. The wide receivers accounted for 72.1 percent of the passes caught in 2013 and 20 of the 30 passing touchdowns. Kevin Norwood produced a career year with seven touchdowns and 568 receiving yards on 38 grabs. Jones also caught 36 balls for 349 yards and White hauled in 32 catches for 534 yards and four scores.

Napier spent the 2011 season on the Alabama staff as an offensive analyst, helping the Crimson Tide win the 2011 BCS national championship. The Tide ranked 16th in scoring offense, 30th in total offense and 17th in rushing offense in 2011.

Colorado State (2012)

Prior to rejoining Alabama, Napier served as the assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach at Colorado State in 2012 for former Tide offensive coordinator Jim McElwain.

Injuries forced Napier to go deep down the bench looking for quarterbacks during his one season in Fort Collins. The Rams saw three quarterbacks play significant snaps as the starter with Garrett Grayson going down early in the season and M.J. McPeck following two weeks later, forcing redshirt freshman Conner Smith into action. The trio combined to throw for 2,520 yards and 17 touchdowns in 2012 as Colorado State won three of its final five games.

Clemson (2003-04, 2006-10)

Prior to his first stretch at Alabama, Napier spent seven of the previous eight years in two different stints at Clemson. During Napier's final two seasons at Clemson he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. At the age of 29, he became the youngest coordinator in the nation and in Clemson history. In his first season as Clemson's coordinator, the 2009 Tigers scored a school-record 436 points and collected 54 touchdowns (third-most in school history), averaged 5.73 yards per play (fourth best) and finished as the ACC Atlantic Division champions. Quarterback Kyle Parker was named a Freshman All-American and nine players Napier coached from 2009-10 went on to have careers in the NFL.

Napier also served as Clemson's recruiting coordinator from 2006-08. In those three seasons, he compiled two top-25 recruiting classes, according to Rivals.com, and in 2008, his class was tabbed as the second-best in the nation by ESPN.com. Known to his peers as a top recruiter, Napier signed several players who went on to the NFL, including Kavell Conner, Crezdon Butler, Brandon Thompson and Marcus Gilchrist.

Napier was the 2007-08 tight ends coach at Clemson, helping lead the Tigers to two bowl games and a prolific offense. The 2007 season featured a 9-4 record and the ACC's highest-scoring offense. In his first year back with Clemson (2006), Napier worked primarily with the Tigers' tight ends but also was responsible for the punt team and assisted in several special-teams capacities. The 2006 Tigers led the ACC in total offense, rushing and scoring offense, advancing to the Music City Bowl.

Clemson averaged 410.9 yards per game and 32.7 points, more than doubling its opponent's totals. Tight end Hunter Thomas started all 11 games for the Tigers, averaging 19.1 yards per reception. Michael Palmer, who Napier coached for three seasons, went on to the NFL. He also worked with the special teams units, helping develop one of the most talented players in Clemson history, C.J. Spiller.

Napier began his coaching career as an offensive graduate assistant at Clemson in 2003-04. The Tigers won nine games, including the Peach Bowl against Tennessee. The following season, Napier was a graduate assistant on defense, and gained his first experience with recruiting off the field.

South Carolina State (2005)

In 2005, Napier spent one season as the quarterbacks coach and play caller at South Carolina State. The Bulldogs finished the year 9-2 and ranked among the nation's best in several offensive categories, including: rushing (12th), passing efficiency (15th) and scoring offense (17th). S.C. State also had the country's fourth-best turnover margin, committing only 11 turnovers, roughly one-third of the total from the previous season (32). Napier developed Cleve McCoy and molded him into the MEAC Player of the Year. He also recruited offensive tackle Johnny Culbreath, who became a unanimous All-America selection and was drafted by the Detroit Lions.

Background

As a player, Napier was a four-year letterwinner and two-time All-Southern Conference selection as the starting quarterback at Furman. The Paladins won two conference championships and in 2001, Napier's junior year, advanced to the Division I-AA national championship game, losing to Montana.

He completed 64.8-percent of his career passes, setting a school record. As the team captain during a record-setting senior season, Napier amassed 2,475 passing yards, also a Furman record, and was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding FCS offensive player.

Napier grew up in Chatsworth, Georgia, and graduated from Murray County High School in 1998. He is married to the former Ali Gunn and the couple has a daughter, Annie, and sons, Sammy Nelson and Charlie. He earned his Bachelor's degree in health & exercise science from Furman in 2002.

2019 LOUISIANA FOOTBALL CAJUN FIELD RECORDS

Cajun Field has served as the home of Ragin' Cajuns football since September 1971. Louisiana holds a 134-111-2 all-time record on its home field with winning records in 32 of the 48 seasons.

The Cajuns set the school single-season records for total attendance (145,854) and average attendance (29,171) in 2011. Included in those totals were five of the top 15 crowds all-time, including a Sun Belt Conference record 32,823 vs. North Texas on Oct. 15, 2011.

Louisiana was the Sun Belt attendance champion in 2004, 2008, 2011, 2013 and 2014.

Cajun Field hosted the 1,000th Cajuns game in school history on Nov. 1, 2008 before a then-Sun Belt record crowd of 29,031.

Louisiana has enjoyed plenty of memorable moments since the venue opened in 1971.

The greatest of those moments came during the 1996 season when the Ragin' Cajuns opened their 26th season in the facility with the biggest upset in school history, a 29-22 victory over No. 25 Texas A&M in front of a then-record crowd of 38,783 fans.

That mark surpassed the previous record crowd of 36,133 that saw the Cajuns face the Alabama Crimson Tide on Oct. 6, 1990.

Cajun Field has been the site of much success with four consecutive 4-1 records from 1993-96. The school record for wins at Cajun Field in a season is seven, set during the 1976 season, one of three undefeated seasons (1976, 1980 and 1987) at Cajun Field.

Cajun Field boasts 2,577 chairback seats and additional seating to the capacity of another 38,849 giving the facility a total seating capacity of 41,426.

In 2014, the south endzone was closed in to create more seating, adding 5,000 seats to the stadium capacity.

General admission seating is available on the hill in the north end zone to give fans the opportunity to overflow the stadium.

In the summer of 2008, Cajun Field removed its long-standing natural grass and entered a new era with a synthetic playing surface.

Cajun Field was built in time for the 1971 football season. The characteristics which helped create the name and traditions have been there since the initial construction.

For the first 17 years, Louisiana's football stadium was simply known as Cajun Field. In the summer of 1988, then-Strength & Conditioning Coach Mickey Faulkinberry suggested referring to Cajun Field as "The Swamp".

The name stuck for various reasons. To start, the field surface is set two feet below sea level in a natural bowl. In addition to providing a picturesque surrounding, the sunken facility allows most fans to walk down to their stadium seats. The Cajuns and their opponents must enter Cajun Field through a long tunnel from the Cox Communications Athletic Center.

"The Swamp" nickname also fits in with the geographic makeup of the area, with its many surrounding bayous and wetlands, as well as the close proximity to the Gulf of Mexico, which lies just 30 miles south.

In fact, a popular gathering place for Louisiana students and a regular stop for visitors is the small swamp located in the heart of Louisiana's main campus, which sits adjacent to the Student Union. Ironically, the on-campus swamp, officially named Cypress Lake, lays over the original football field that existed during the early 1900's, adding to the distinct nickname.

The National Wetlands Center, a nationally renown research facility that Louisiana hosts and administers, is located less than a half-mile from Cajun Field.
